Committee Heads Appointed By CoC

Principal business conducted at Monday night's meeting of the Slaton Chamber of Commerce was the appointment of committee chairmen and co-chairmen.

Other business included a decision to purchase a portable transmitter and receiver for use in connection with the now-organizing Junior Police. Eighteen local high school students have made application to serve on the Junior Police. The US government will pay half the cost of the receiver-transmitter as it does in most cases where the item purchased is used in disaster or civil defense work, chamber representatives pointed out.

The committee heads appointed are as follows: Industrial, Lee Vardy, chairman and R. H. Todd, Jr., co-chairman; Publicity and Advertising, Bill Ball, chairman and Joe Teague, III, co-chairman; Parks and Recreation, Ted Swanner, chairman and John Schmidt, co-chairman;

CONCERN YOURSELF

Error In Lumber Firm's Ad Is Pointed Out

Between the ad salesman and our back shop, an error concerning the merchandise handled by a local lumber company was made, to our embarrassment.

In the church ad, Higginbotham-Bartlett Lumber Company, one of the sponsors, lists "lumber" as its merchandise. The ad salesman directed the makeup man to make the second line in the signature ad, "lumber," but the makeup man understood it to mean "second line lumber," and that's the way it came out in the paper.

Our apologies to Higginbotham-Bartlett Lumber Company and to our readers. We all know that the lumber company handles only "first line" merchandise.

I consider myself one of the best of Slaton, having moved here with my parents in 1920 like many others endured depression here at Slaton. I am a graduate of Slaton High School, having worked in the business for 12 years prior to working for the Santa Fe Road for three years. After time I entered the furniture business under the name of Self Furniture Company, a name changed to Self Furniture Company.

I feel that I know most of the people in Slaton and the surrounding territory, and that I have a debt of gratitude to all the good people for they have given me.

In the world today, we realize that there are many new problems that confront us every day; and in order for our City to continue growth and betterment these problems must be made the way I am and always have been for the growth and development of Slaton. Slaton is very fortunate in having good homes, nice church buildings, schools, many blocks of paving; and, of course, the people. I know that if we work and strive together we will always be proud of our fine City.

I am 49 years old and have been at Slaton most of my life. I am a member of the Church of Christ. I have served on the city board of the new Lub-

EDITORIALS

More Cooperation Needed . . .

There have been numerous attempts by the women's Clubs of Slaton to establish spots of beauty about the town by planting flowers and shrubs, but to date, little success has been accomplished.

The Garden club bought and had shrubs planted around the Tiger Town building, after planting they died because they were seldom watered and no care taken of them, the Garden Club also had a flower bed constructed with cement curbing on the city hall lawn and filled the bed with tulips but after the first year the bed was removed and the space used for parking space, another club undertook to plant the center space of the street at the end of Texas Avenue with bulbs, it grew up in grass for several seasons and now looks worse than if it were left bare.

The Garden Club has considered trying to make more plans to beautify the city, many of its members feel that this is one of their duties but they also feel that it is useless to take on the responsibility of providing the shrubs, flowers or trees unless there is some assurance from some responsible group of officials, or interested parties, that care will be taken of the plants after they have been planted.

Many towns over the state are famous for the beauty of their parks and public grounds. Slaton could become a place of beauty too, with a little cooperation.

A. M. J.

FOLLOWING THE RULES

It is a rule that all editorials should be about something or other that is wrong with a town, a nation of the earth, so in order to keep within the rules we have searched for something wrong with Slaton. Here it is — the streets on the sides of the square are not marked, "One Way".

The every man for himself and devil take the hindmost method may be good enough for the natives but what about the strangers who may come to town?

Not long ago a man in a car that had a Dallas license was seen endeavoring to drive his car the wrong way East on the North side of Garza Street on a busy Saturday afternoon. He made it and it was worth the price of an admission to a football game to watch him, but it's not playing the game fair. There should be about fifteen signs tacked on the poles at each corner with a one-way sign hidden somewhere. Being from Dallas he would have found it.

ON LAWS THAT CANNOT BE SUCCESSFULLY VIOLATED

The Sounding Board

(Editor's Note: Here are some gleanings from other fields we think you'll find interesting, we did.)

Tulia Herald:
S. E. Barrett of Kress was in The Herald office this week with his cancelled check for a fine paid in Plainview for over parking.

On the check Barrett had written, "for the privilege of trading in Plainview which I do not intend to do again. The same privilege in Tulia is free."

Without criticizing the City of Plainview for having laws and enforcing them, The Herald is reminding its readers everywhere that Tulia has no parking meters to feed, has plenty of parking space available on the courthouse square and in suburban shopping centers in addition to the customary street parking. This is one of the several advantages of trading in Tulia which are sometimes overlooked by shoppers who often see the advantages — but none of the disadvantages — of shopping in larger towns.

—SOUNDING BOARD—

Willard Jones in Popvalve Hamlin Herald:
An eight-year-old girl at Hamlin Primary School submitted the following composition on "People" to her teacher:

"People are composed of girls and boys, also men and women. Boys are no good at all until they grow up and get married. Men who don't get married are not good either. Boys are an awful bother. They want everything they see except soap. My mother is a woman, and my father is a man. A woman is a crown-up girl with children. My father is such a nice man that I think he must have been a girl when he was a boy."

—SOUNDING BOARD—

Just around town by Ellen Perry in The Ballinger Ledger:
I read recently in the Austin American that Russell Lindsay, manager of an Austin pharmacy, said "a business that is not growing is dying." He says that if any business is not keeping pace with an expanding economy, then that business is actually losing ground and is doomed to failure. He says his store advertising carries a message from them to the customer. Ballineer merchants in large numbers are communicating with their customers through the pages of this week's Ledger. Read their ads for that message.

—SOUNDING BOARD—

Jim Cornish in Post Dispatch:
This is such a newswy town we're having a hard time getting all the news in the paper each week. The Dispatch news office is quite a scramble on Wednesdays especially—and yesterday was no exception. But we did manage to hang onto a note on the public housing project and run it down with Irby Metcalf and Leo Ward, president and secretary of Post's Public Housing Authority. A Public Housing official was in town over the last weekend and passed the word that Post is going to be

TECH STUDENTS CONCERNED ABOUT HOME LIFE

LUBBOCK—Texas Tech students are more concerned about establishing a secure and happy home than many other problems with religious aspects, a survey indicates.

Running a close second is the problem of dating and sexual responsibility, according to a survey of dormitories.

Also drawing considerable interest is the difference of Christianity from other religions, the meaning of Christian witness, and the Christian in politics.

Other topics getting considerable mention are segregation, prayer kneeling in regard to military obligations, worship and social aspects of the church. Three thousand questionnaires were circulated among students in Tech's 13 dormitories by the Student Religious Council, twenty per cent of the query-sheets were returned.

Girl Scout Troop Meets

Girl Scout Troop 107 had its regular meeting on March 11.

The Troop played games and sang songs. Maureen Weeden brought refreshments. Twenty members and the two leaders, Mrs. Gladys Grochowsky and Mrs. Lucille Grabber, attended.

The girls took part in the Scout Fair at the Fair Park Coliseum in Lubbock on Saturday, March 14, under the International Friendship Group which consisted of things given to the girls from their pen pals in England.

New Efforts Underway To Uncap One of World's Big 'Storage Tanks'

LUBBOCK—New efforts are underway at Texas Tech to uncap one of the world's large "storage tanks" and pour in untold gallons of surface water.

The tank is the famed Caprock, a high plains geologic formation which holds underground water near the earth's surface where it may be tapped easily for irrigation.

Each year hundreds of indentations in the generally flat top of the Caprock trap rain water. In most instances it evaporates because attempts to store it underground are stymied by silt.

The loose topsoil of the Caprock mixes with the water and clogs recharge wells to the point that their operation is uneconomical.

If this problem is solved, several hundred thousands of acre-feet of water can be saved and stored in a year of normal rainfall—much more in above-average years, water experts estimate.

The experts also say successful recharging would free close to one million acres for farming—acres now covered with water after rains.

Texas Tech agricultural engineers, supervised by Bill Schwiesow, say they may have an answer to the problem—lines of subsurface filters stretching underneath a high plains pond and connecting to a mainline leading to a recharge well.

A frame of 16 different types of filter lines has been constructed underneath a pond on the Tech Farms at Lubbock. Four of the lines are built with plastic pipe, another four with clay tile.

Bituminous pipe is used in four of the lines, while the final quarter of the system is built with transite (cement-asbestos) pipe.

Four types of fillings are used above the filter pipes: natural soil of the pond bed, or cotton burrs, corn cobs or gravel plus soil.

Water is expected to filter through the variously-created pond-beds, into the filter pipes, and from there to the mainline which is expected to feed relatively clear water into the recharge well.

Tech engineers will attempt to measure the rate of flow for each experimental line and the amount of silt carried through each. The results should indicate which type of filtration is most feasible, the length of lines needed for a certain flow of water, and—after a time—proper

School Week Was 'Talk Of The Town'

Texas Public School Week is in the past. It seems like a pleasant dream. It was the talk of the town. Many friends of our school found time to witness twenty-six elementary school children give a living demonstration of experimenting in science.

Those who made this program possible were: First grade, Darwin Belt, Vernon Chism, Marilyn Davis, Mary Frances Browning, Tony Privett, Wanda Kunkel. Second graders were: Richard Deans, Miles Beard, Jimmie Faye Boyd and Eddie Dean Etheridge. Third grade included Monette Johnson, Randy Jenkins, Arthur Enloe, Joe Fondy, Charles Gravell, Donna Hatchett, Bobby Ball. The fourth graders were: Danny Mack Bailey, Elaine Eddling, Don Boyd and Travis Kendrick. The fifth grade included Carla Fondy, Kyle Page, Doug McCullough, Byron Johnson, Buddy Downs and Lyndal Martin.

Interest in science was stimulated in all the children of our schools. The public had an opportunity to look and examine our new science books that are adopted and will be in children's hands next year.

The best science exhibit was displayed downtown that I have ever seen. Congratulations go to our science teachers in the Junior High School, to David Duke, for his outstanding achievement with his students. The work done by our elementary children was of highest scientific caliber. More children today are getting a better foundation for science than in any day thus far.

Southwestern Public Service and Pioneer Gas Company, along with our Slatonite office, offered their windows for our display. Thanks for this fine spirit toward our schools.

'Blarney' Is Synonym For 'Sweet Talk'

Chances were the blarney was as thick as the shamrocks when the Irish honored St. Patrick on March 17.

But the original "blarney" was an Irish chieftain who proved that you can still win even if you lose.

When the castle of Blarney was besieged by the English, the lord of the manor concluded an armistice with the English commander. According to the research department of The World Book Encyclopedia, he promised to surrender the old homestead to an English garrison in Cork on a certain date.

The Englishman waited politely for the terms of the armistice to be fulfilled... and waited... and waited. The Lord of Blarney held him off with promises and flattery, until the commander became the laughing stock of the court of England.

And the name "Blarney" ironically took its place in the "English" language, as a synonym for sweet talk.

JUST TALK

BY A. M. J.

By A. M. Jackson

Slaton has fortunately been free of fatal automobile accidents for a long time, but not because there are no traffic raps to catch the unwary and several of them are around the school buildings.

The one that I am most conscious of is the one near the West Ward School. Every day, when the weather is pretty I stumble out for a walk and for some reason I am unable to explain. I usually go in front of the West Ward School and usually at the time of the day when school is letting out for the afternoon. There are "No Parking" signs all along the street and cars parked for blocks, children scuffle around and parents sitting in cars smoking cigarettes and reading while they wait for their offspring, quite often cars are double and triple parked for a few minutes at a time.

Whether the people in Lubbock and other big towns observe traffic signs better because they know the consequences, or because they have more regard for their own and other peoples children I do not know but I never see such conditions in other towns as we have here. We've been lucky for a long time but it seems to me we are inviting disaster.

Last week I tried to bribe one of the candidates in the upcoming city election to pay me a reasonable sum to build him up a little in this column but he begged on pleading knee that I not mention his name. "It might ruin me," he said with tears streaming down his rugged face.

For several years I have waited with bated breath... at least I think my breath has been bated... to see some of my acquaintances with one of the newer style cone crowned narrow brim hats on their heads but I am about to run out of breath. Would you recognize Lon Porter, Bill Sikes, Otis Neill or Doc Crow with one of them. Perhaps they have experimented a little like I have. I bought one but when I see my reflection in the mirror I shiver with horror and rush to get back into my Buffalo Bill job that helps hold down my ears and keep the sun, wind and rain off my proboscis. It is my sincere hope that the summer straw hat styles will widen out a little for I do not look forward to letting my elongated high brow get sun blistered on top and I most certainly will go bareheaded before I'll wear one of the dinkies or even a wide brim cotton picking hat-like those that have been the only choice for the last four seasons. The one I have been wearing is a 1950 model, that is getting frayed, sun splattered and pretty dingy around the holes but if I have to I'll be wearing it.

Having little else to do I read a great many magazines and newspapers and I find nearly all of them give considerable attention to medical advice for all kinds of troubles from ingrowing toenails to loose bolts in the cranium and many of the suggestions are taken seriously.

The latest one is to mix honey with apple cider vinegar and take two teaspoons full every time you feel to anxious to work. It assures you that it will put you to sleep and I am afraid that there are going to be a lot of sloppy houses over the country if the housewives go to sipping the stuff. We got one of the magazines promoting the honey idea and Mrs. L. B. Klitten borrowed it and she says she's going to try it and there's no telling when Mr. L. B. will have to take over the household duties along with his other heavy duty of holding up the walls on the north side of the square.

Not long ago preacher J. B. Sharp met me in a drug store while I was shuffling through the paper back book display and he dug deep in his small change pocket and bought me a book entitled "The Hidden Persuaders" because he said he knew what kind of a character I had been in my past. It was an expose on what the advertising experts are doing to persuade folks to buy certain brands of cigarettes, bread and dog food as well as most everything else we eat, drink, wear and waste. Having been employed for many years as an advertising salesman I recognized some of the tricks and in fact had used a lot of them. I hid my face in shame.

Recently I complained that our daffodils and hyacinths looked as if they were going to bloom and as usual get frozen before the spring season arrives and my wife went about soliciting advice as to how to keep the blooms from coming. The ground around them is as hard as the center of 9th street and I suggested that if we let them alone and did not water them perhaps they'd keep their heads down. "Not true," said Mrs. W. R. Wilson, "soak them good and a freeze won't hurt them".

My water bill went up to nearly $7.00 because I forgot to cut off the sprinkler, the flowers are almost in full bloom and we're started on the vicious circle of watering flowers and cutting weeds, digging holes and rubbing sore muscles. It is going to be a long hard summer and Mrs. Wilson started it all.

CARD OF THANKS

We want to thank our many friends for the kindnesses as shown us and the beautiful flowers we received in the loss of our mother, Mrs. Anna Medlock, who passed away March 5 in San Bernardino, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Upham and the Medlock Family.

Mrs. T. N. Ritchey is recovering from surgery which was performed in Methodist Hospital in Lubbock recently.

By Karen Henry and Carol Rosser

The speech play tryouts were held Monday, and the tension was high. Luckily there are no feelings since this play is interscholastic League and we hope we make a good show at the contest. The cast includes: Sue Fields as Peggy Lewis, the older sister, Karen Henry Polly Lewis, the younger sister, John Dodson as Tad Lewis, girl's brother, and John Brown as Mr. Brown.

You can imagine the look on Mrs. Davis' face when she went into the auditorium expecting to see "her girls" all lined upon the stage ready to sing. They were lined up alright, only they were all facing the rear of the stage. What a shock to walk in expecting to see a bunch of beaming faces and instead see the back of their beaming faces.

On the same subject, these girls really should stop cutting up so much, and get down to brass tacks. The Choral Contest is next Saturday in Littlefield. The girls have brought home sweepstakes two years straight and have high hopes this year. (By the way, girls, seven-thirty comes awfully early.)

Does anyone know what Tuesday was? Some of you may very well realize it was St. Patrick's Day, and have bruises to prove it. You may know now it is traditional to wear green on this day.

Almost... but not quite that's the story of this year's Junior's. They felt how near that magical year is when they were measured for their senior rings Monday. It won't be long though, fellow juniors, until we'll all have those rings on our lily-white hands.

We're off to old Monterey... high school, that is. The short-hand group will take part in the preliminary contest to be held Thursday afternoon. Good luck girls.

It's not everyday that we have two fire drills in about two minutes, but we did last week. Several funny incidents happened in this short time. The home economics class smelled like burned toast, someone was walking around with his nose stuck in a book and someone forgot to tell the office until he was halfway out, and then fought his way back in.

"Ab" Wright looked quite charming in the white spring hat that he swiped from one of the girls trying out for the speech play Monday.

You can certainly tell that everyone is getting anxious for summer to roll around. The tennis courts are filled almost every day with people practicing for the tennis season. Rosemarie Philipp says she's just trying to learn. Seen regularly on the courts are David Bishop, Mike Wheeler, Judy Bishop, Bill Wheeler, and many others.

Two farmers from Texas are always trying to outdo each other regarding crops. One morning the first farmer told to his son Jimmie, "Go over to Ernest and borrow a crosscut saw for me. Tell him I want to cut a watermelon."

On returning, Jimmie said, "Ernest said he couldn't let me have the saw until this afternoon. He's only halfway through a cucumber."

HEAD OF THE CLASS
A farmer who was extremely practical visited his son at college and was invited to attend a chemistry class. In the corner of the laboratory saw several students working diligently and after asking the professor what they were doing he was told they were looking for a universal solvent.

"And what's that?" asked the farmer.
"That's a liquid that will solve anything," said the professor.
"It's a great idea," agreed the farmer, "but when you find it, what are you going to keep it in?"

This is a real "ghost" car—can you identify it? It's a Tucker Torpedo, one of the very few made in 1947 by the ill-fated Preston Tucker. Car, owned by Paul Znika, of Gary, Indiana, has done 100,000 miles, still gives 27 miles to a gallon.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Texas—A possible shaft of light has pierced the murky tunnels of legislative tax study in the form of an "in-between" type money raising bill. An omnibus tax measure introduced by Reps. R. L. Strickland of San Antonio and Wesley Roberts of Lamesa would tax a raft of things not previously hit, but avoid the label "general sales tax." It is regarded as a possible compromise between Gov. Price Daniel's tax program and Rep. Frates Seeligion's general sales tax, neither of which have attracted widespread support.

Strickland and Roberts estimate their proposal would raise from $200,000,000 to $300,000,000, an impressive sum even in the face of current huge needs. New tax sources it would tap include sales of real estate, bonds, debentures, corporate stocks, transportation of persons and commodities, occupancy of a retail establishment, hotel and motel use, and trading stamps. It would increase the natural gas production tax and also sales taxes on new cars, cosmetics, playing cards, radios and TV sets and raise taxes on telephone and telegraph companies.

"Strains" attached to the bill are that after the state deficit is paid off, the money raised could be used to provide school teachers a $500 a year raise, add $13,000,000 to higher education programs and $2,250,000 to the hospital program.

In terms of decisions, the tax program has made no dramatic forward strides. Rep. Frates Seeligion of San Antonio, introduced his 1.5 percent general sales tax measure. It would raise an estimated $67,000,000 annually earmarked for the school foundation program. Informal surveys indicate a majority of lawmakers pledged opposition to a general sales tax in their campaigns last summer.

Despite urging from Gov. Daniel, the House Tax Committee showed itself in no hurry to get out the bill that would raise corporation franchise taxes. Committee declined, on a 15-2 vote, to order a report from the subcommittee which holds the bill. Part of the governor's plan was to get this bill passed in time to take effect May 1 so the added revenue from it could help offset this year's deficit. Committee also agreed to allow more time to hear proposals wishing to oppose a proposed trading stamp tax.

First Hurdle Cleared— Texas public school teachers won the first round in their campaign for an $800 a year pay raise. Senate Committee voted favorably on the $107,800,000 public school improvement program recommended by the Hale-Aiken Committee. Teachers' raises would account for the bulk of the cost, about $80,000,000. Other items would include lengthening the school year to 180 days, increasing transportation allowances, programs for academically gifted and non-English speaking children, driver education, etc.

Some 3,000 teachers, plus many citizens from other walks of life, came to the Capitol in behalf of the bill.

Warm Issue— Another crowd-getter was the Senate hearing on the bill to reduce maximum working hours of firemen and policemen. With feelings running high, the committee voted to send the bill to subcommittee for a week's study. Same bill was voted out favorably by the House Committee.

Texas Municipal League is strongly opposed to the measure which they say is about as palatable as having the federal government set wages and hours for Texas Highway Patrolmen. League's counter-measure would abolish state regulations of city firemen and policemen.

No Peace on the Trinity— State Board of Water Engineers is caught in the middle of a king-sized struggle over Trinity River water. Houston asked the Board for a permit to construct a dam at Livingston and impound some 1,750,000 acre feet of water. Trinity River Authority was joined by Dallas, Fort Worth and other Upper Trinity towns in howls of protest over Houston's "water-grabbing." TWA filed a petition asking that Houston's application be dismissed and also filed an application for the same permit Houston is seeking.

A hearing on Houston's application has been set for April 6, but the North Texans are asking for delay. Indications are that such a set-to between Texas' major cities probably cannot be settled for some time.

Higher Tuition Asked— Commission on Higher Education is recommending the Legislature adopt a new system of automatic tuition increases for state-supported colleges. By the Commission's formula, tuition would be in proportion to the college's spending. If legislative appropriations to the college went up, so would tuition. It was estimated the formula would raise present tuition for in-state students from $100 a year to about $125 to $137.50. Many students protested that the hike would be an undue hardship on the 65 per cent who earn part or all their college expenses.

Don't Stop Now— Gov. Daniel's Statewide Water Committee is asking the Legislature to restore proposed cuts in the Water Board budget. Governor Daniel told a meeting of the statewide water group that water development in Texas needs all the $1,700,000 asked by the Water Board. Legislative Budget Board recommended only $900,000.

Daniel said he felt more water planning had been accomplished in the past two years than ever before in the state's history. To cut back now, he said, would

STRENGTH FOR THE WEEK

As we draw near to the Easter season our thoughts are naturally turned toward those events which happened in Jerusalem, something more than 1900 years ago, including the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus Christ. We should not be satisfied simply to know those historical facts, but should seriously ask ourselves, "What do those things which happened so long ago mean to me, today?"

On the night before his crucifixion, Jesus gathered together the twelve men whom he had chosen to be his apostles and after attending to the menial task of washing their feet, (which no one of them was willing to do) he said: "You call me Teacher and Lord; and you are right, for so I am. If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that you should do as I have done to you."

Jesus meant by that, if we call him Teacher, we ought to fully accept his teaching and order our lives by them. If we call him Lord, then we ought to permit him to be the Lord of our lives; amount to "complete surrender" to federal control.

Hands Off Ladies' Bill— Atty. Gen. Will Wilson nimbly side-stepped efforts to get him to rule on the proposed equal rights for women amendment. Senators had dodged the issue by asking for an attorney general's opinion on how the amendment would affect existing legislation concerning women. Wilson said the question was too general and that he didn't feel he should tell the Legislature what it should do.

ways, but always remember that the confession carries the obligation along with it.

We cannot too often sharply remind ourselves of the moral obligation which is the other half of faith, for faith without works is as dead as a doer. We call him Teacher and Lord—but is his great, "You ought to do as I have done," making any difference in our lives?

Is there anything so urgently needed today as the filling up of the gap between what we profess and what we are? Why not let Jesus Christ really be the Lord of our every day lives?

Patrol Probes 21 Accidents In February

The rural traffic accidents summary for Lubbock county for the month of February 1959 was released today by Sergeant E. L. Stroud, Patrol Supervisor of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

The Highway Patrol investigated a total of 21 accidents of which 12 were property damage, 8 personal injury, and 1 fatal accident. These accidents caused a total property damage of $12,945.00 with 1 person killed and 17 injured.

The Sergeant advised that too many people look upon driving as a thing apart—something divorced from the code of morality which governs the other activities of their lives. The result of this split thinking is a staggering annual traffic toll.

To reduce the death rate during 1959, the Sergeant stressed the necessity for drivers, as well as pedestrians, to maintain vigilance and observe the lifesaving rules of the road. He urged greater compliance with the speeding and driving-while-intoxicated laws, pointing out that in 1958 these were prime factors in traffic accidents.

"HOMEY, ISN'T IT?"—It's the best winter in years for this sea lion, in residence at the Paris, France, zoo. Europe's worst-in-years winter has put a respectable coating of ice on his pool. He's giving the photographer an icy eye from one of the air holes he's punched for his use between trips to the depths.

The Book of Books

Does the Bible mean to you all that its Author desires for it to mean?

Why not seek the answer to this question by reading a portion of it each day, and by going to church regularly where you may study it with others and hear its message declared from the pulpit? If you will do this, soon life will have a marvellous new meaning for you.

Asked To Re-Dedicate to Spirit of Independence

Texans to observe March 2 to the spirit of independence-determining by Col. Charles President of the Historical Survey

March 6 to pay tribute to the men who died there; to visit Goliad March 27 to mourn for the men who were massacred there; and to attend the meeting on the San Jacinto Battle Ground April 21, celebrating the great victory won there.

Few Americans realize that the decisive period from the Declaration of Independence to the San Jacinto victory led to the acquisition by the United States of almost one third of the American nation. Included in the million square miles of territory were the States of Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, Nevada, California, Utah, and parts of Colorado, Wyoming, Kansas and Oklahoma. All of those states should join in celebrating April 21. Colonel Tips said.

All teachers and pupils are invited to celebrate Texas Independence by reading the Texas Declaration of Independence March 2; by reading, on March 6, the immortal message sent by Travis from the Alamo: "We will never surrender or retreat. Victory or death"; and by reading on April 21, the story of the Battle of San Jacinto.

"We Texans cannot help but be humble," Colonel Tips said, "when we stop to think of the sacrifices made for us by the pioneer Texans who settled a wilderness and, to protect their homes and loved ones, signed the Texas Declaration of Independence and fought at the Alamo and San Jacinto to make that independence a reality."

"We honor the memory of the stout-hearted men and women whose vision and prayers and high courage, whose sense of honor and love of liberty, whose self-reliance and perseverance against overwhelming odds and under tremendous difficulties, and whose prodigious labors and sweat and tears and blood have given us our precious Texas heritage."

"All Americans should realize that the broad, rich, prosperous and happy land, extending from the Gulf of Mexico to the Pacific Ocean is our heritage from the Texas pioneers."

"Our heritage is the tradition of courage and devotion to duty of love of liberty and faith in God; the tradition of vision and imagination and self-reliance and resourcefulness and per-

Bottling Firm Offers Product In King Size

On March 13, a new 10-ounce Coca-Cola bottle made its debut in the Slaton market, according to an announcement by F. L. Lindsey, manager of the Lubbock Coca-Cola Bottling Co.

The new bottle is the first major packaging change made by the bottling company in over 40 years. Coca-Cola is now available in the standard 6½-ounce bottle and with the addition of the new King size, 10-ounce bottle, this is another step in out plans for packaging improvement and makes Coca-Cola available in King size and regular 6½ oz size bottles throughout the Panhandle, Lindsey said.

"Our aim in providing the 10-ounce bottle is simply to make it more convenient for everyone to buy and serve Coca-Cola on any occasion. The large bottle is especially designed for convenience in serving home parties and for those thirsty folks who say the familiar 6½-ounce bottle just isn't quite enough."

Water Conservation District Sets
Rules In The Drilling Of Water Wells

Do you plan to drill an irrigation or commercial water well? If you do, and you expect to produce more than 69 gallons per minute from the well, you should read the following paragraphs. The rules of the High Plains Undergruond Water Conservation District provide that wells drilled within its bounds of jurisdiction and produce in excess of 69 gallons per minute be spaced certain minimum distances from wells in the immediate vicinity.

A deposit of $10 is required with the filing of each application. When the application form is filled out completely and correctly, the applicant must then make certain that it is signed by three members of the local County Committee. This is most important, and it must be done before drilling operations are commenced. When signed by the Committee, the permit is valid for the drilling of one well only, and it only at the location specified on the permit. The drilling permit is valid for a period of 4 months from the date of filing. When the well is completed and the log of the underground formations is supplied to the county office on forms furnished by the District, the $10 deposit will be refunded in full. The landowner is responsible for this information.
