Rain Clouds Bring Moisture Monday Night

Thunderclouds rolled across the Slaton, Wilson, Southland area Monday night as a line of rain activity moved from far West Texas up through this area and on into the southwest corner of Oklahoma.

Amounts varied from one-half inch to over an inch in this vicinity with numerous reports of high wind accompanying the downpour.

Most serious damage caused by the wind was near Southland where a high wind took down about eight telephone poles belonging to Southwestern Bell Telephone Company.

There was no disruption of telephone service, the company pointed out, since a storm-proof cable had been installed along the route.

A group of local women took a tour through the school recently, and came out with a list of several complaints, all of which were taken up at the Monday meeting.

Mrs. R. L. Henry, acting on her own behalf only she said, talked with the board on fire hazards and sanitation at Junior High and other school buildings in the Slaton district.

Mrs. Henry asked for more easily accessible escape from possible fire from the third floor of Junior High and for a general cleanup of the school and others.

Superintendent P. L. Vardy said fire extinguishers would be placed in Junior High and that he would acquire the service of an inspector as soon as possible.

The board also decided to do some major maintenance work on the various buildings this summer.

Not Too Late For A Clean-Up

As in most towns and communities, there seems to have come a gradual change in the way people are living in Slaton and in the way they did only a few years ago. Particularly in community co-operation. It was not so long ago when the City Hall was rocking and rolling with Sing songs for which Mr. W. T. Florence was responsible and whose voice rolled out high and strong above most every one else's; there were trade days every month when the merchants offered extra values and Frontier Days to celebrate Slaton's Birthday when beards for the men and old-fashioned dresses and hats made the women unusually attractive. Perhaps these celebrations were a little chileish but what's the harm in being a little foolish now and then?

There was one activity that most all of the citizens and business men participated in that was of great benefit to our town and could be revived without a great deal of effort and that is a Clean-Up and Paint-Up Week.

Slaton used to observe such an activity every spring, at which time the Boy Scouts would take over the town for at least one day. They enforced the traffic regulation, appointed a Mayor and put out inspection groups that visited all parts of the town to see that unsightly objects or rubbish was present. The City Officials cooperated by putting on extra help to haul away the trash and the activity helped the looks, health and business in the town.

It's not too late for a Clean-Up, Paint-Up Week this year and if some of the Clubs of the town would get busy it might be accomplished.

A Little Care Needed . . .

Most anyone who has lived in Slaton for even a brief period will take notice that a great deal of money has been wasted here because many civic activities have been started and put into operation with no plans for the upkeep and future operation of such activities.

It has not been so many years ago when the Rotary Members donated a considerable amount of money to get recreation equipment installed at the City-County Park for the children to play on. Where is the equipment now?

There have been at least five soft ball parks constructed with high-powered and high-priced electric lights for night playing but they have "gone with the wind."

Thousands of dollars worth of band equipment and band uniforms have been provided. Some of the boys used the uniforms to wear while riding tractors in the summer, and many band instruments disappeared.

These things that seemed so important at the time are forgotten now and might as well be buried with the past, but a look back might be worthwhile, when other expensive activities are proposed, and perhaps some protection for the future might be planned.

WISE CRACKS

And there was the Caddie Master at the golf club who said to the new caddie: "All right, hop to it and grab that bag. Don't just sit around and look dumb, like you was a member of the club."

"If you catch one of your children lying, don't grab a club and rush at him like an ogre. Be honest with him. Tell him you've told hundreds of them yourself. Tell him that between truth and lying, truth is the best policy. Tell him you know—you've tried both."—Robert Ingersoll.

Brain service can be bought. Lip service can be hired. Physical service can be contracted for. But heart service is the kind you get when you pay in the coin of appreciation, kindness, and consideration of others.

A NIGHT WATCHMAN'S CRY

Almost anywhere in the world today: "Eight o'clock, and all's hell!"

Ben Franklin said: "If time be of all things the most precious, wasting time must be the greatest prodigality, since lost time is never found again; and what we call time enough, always proves to be little enough."

"You cannot put a great hope into a small soul," said J. L. Jones.

The Sounding Board

Editor's Note—Things are going from bad to worse and from worse to terrible, according to the exchange papers that come to the Slatonite, with one prediction that the United States has only eighteen more years to go. All that is needed now is to decide where to go from here.

The Commerce Journal reports on air conditioning: A certain Commerce woman, who must remain nameless, was slightly air-conditioned one morning last week when a brisk wind was blowing.

It seems she was late to work in the first place, and had a hard time finding a place to park. Finally, she hopped out of her car and slammed the door, ready to make a mad dash before her employer found her out. The car door slammed on her dress tail in such fashion that she could not reach the door handle. After several attempts to free herself, she would not be outdone—she simply gave her skirt a sharp jerk and took out in a run—free at last, but exposed!

SOUNDING BOARD

The Post Dispatch is full of instructions: Our friend up the street says there is one thing certain about the speed of light—it gets here too early in the morning.

The third grade teacher carefully explained that a group of sheep is a flock, and a group of quail is a covey. Then she asked for the names of groups of other animals.

When she came to camels, a child in the back of the room timidly suggested, "a carton."

SOUNDING BOARD

The Andrews County News suggests something more to worry about: If you don't have enough worries about government taxation, rising unemployment, drastic shrinking of foreign markets, the cold war with Russia and the ominous industrialization of Red China . . . consider this fact.

The outstanding historian, Arnold Toynbee, has noted that on the average, the great democracies of the past have lasted only two hundred years.

When the lives of the city-states of Greece, the Roman Republic, the French Republic, and all other democracies of history are measured, the average longevity is two hundred years.

And the democracy known as the United States in only eighteen years away from its two hundredth anniversary.

According to mathematical probabilities, in 18 years, it will be our time, as a great nation, to die.

SOUNDING BOARD

The Big Bend Sentinel predicts Big Political Hoppla in May.

With legislators haggling over expenditures and taxes, politicians are haggling over control of the party. Backstage the old guard and young Democrats are angling for control of the party in Texas. While in the House, the elections committee has approved a bill which would permit Sen. Lyndon Johnson to run for the president of the United States and re-election as senator in the same general election. Big news should come out of a Democrats of Texas convention slated for Austin in May. The group has already declared it will oppose Sen. Johnson.

3 GOOD REASONS FOR COOKING ELECTRICALLY!

1 FAST

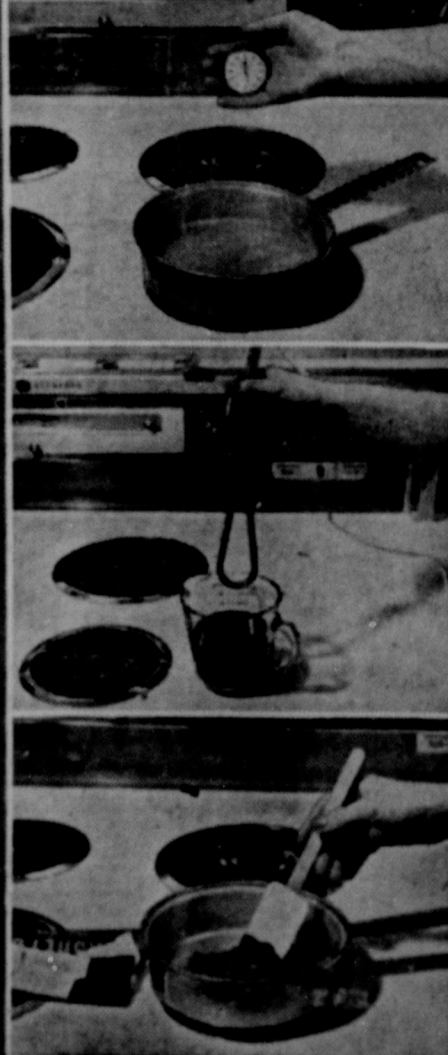

Electric cooking is fast! Just a simple water boiling test proves the speed of electric cooking. And, it's because all the heat goes into the pan to cook the food—none escapes up and around the sides of the pan to heat up the kitchen. This means cool cooking—best of all, fast cooking.

2 CLEAN

There's just no cleaner way to cook. Electric elements clean themselves as this dramatic molasses test proves. The electric element in the photo, just like the surface unit on top of the range, when turned on and immersed in a pitcher of sticky molasses comes out clean. With electric cooking, walls stay clean, elements stay clean and drip pans wash clean as easy as saucers.

3 ACCURATE

You've noticed that where automatic controls are used in your home they are electric. That's because electricity controls accurately and is, in turn, easy to control accurately. That's why, on an electric range, you can melt chocolate without burning and without a double boiler—so gentle, so safe, so accurately controlled is electricity.

THE AMERICAN WAY

er? One here in the United States, we mean.

The adoption of Alaska as a state was not really unexpected, we will admit, and this possibility in advance of its actual happening so that they should have been prepared.

But snapping up Hawaii such a short time later caught most flag makers flat-footed, we hear, and rumblings for statehood are now coming from so many quarters that they are almost frightened to do anything.

The Stanton Reporter turns to weather prophecy: The old reliable weather prognosticator, the lonely mesquite, reveals that Spring is here. It has put aside its winter clothes and is "budding out" in its new Spring attire. Seldom, if ever, does the mesquite allow itself to succumb to freakish weather and bud out in Spring raiment, only to have Winter "nip it in the bud."

Around and About Slaton

Last year, the Chamber of Commerce bought and had planted about twenty red bud trees in the City-County Park. In some manner the heavy growth of weeds and grass was set afire during the winter and most of the trees were killed. Just one more instance of good intentions and carelessness about things that should be of prime importance in Slaton.

Have you tried to figure out the traffic rule, or in other words, what the driver of a car is supposed to do at the confusing corner of 11th Street and Division. It is a baffling situation and it will pay all drivers to check north, south, east and west before venturing into the vortex of the yellow line might lead one to follow. Ray Hickman says it's the most dangerous dangerous corner in Lubbock county.

The hum of air conditioners is a familiar sound over the town except in homes and offices where the air conditioning specialists have been slow in servicing. Many such workmen are dodging anxious property owners a great many will not answer the phone. Business in this line is just too good.

When the new law goes in effect allowing trucks a half a block long to travel our Texas roads and all the boat trailers in West Texas get going to and from resort spots, the people of Slaton may want the proposed Highway around the town to be constructed as soon as possible.

Little Ann Ayers must have been watching TV very closely lately. She came running to her mother several days ago pointing to her mouth and shouting "Loom Ma! Full of cavities."

Straw Hat Day has come and gone but a lot of the old time West Texans are still wearing felt hats. It is going to be hard to get the narrow brim straw models on some of the old sand eaters. May have to rope and tie them.

Cold in the morning, sandy at noon and hot in the afternoon is not only making it hard to dress for the weather but in keeping flowers and garden plants from developing and has most of the farmers in a tizzy as to when will be the best time to plant cotton.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—"They said it couldn't be done. And, sure enough, it couldn't." This is the attitude of many tired lawmakers toward the session-long struggle to raise $200,000,000 in new tax money.

As the regular session drew near to a close, House members, in effect, admitted they couldn't agree on a program that would do the job. House sent to the Senate the scraps of selective sales tax measure (HB 727) and a bill to increase the corporation franchise tax for one year only.

There was off-the-cuff talk among House members of someone's proposing at a later date to solve the problem by cutting the appropriation bill across the board to 4 per cent less than the 1958-59 budget. This would bring such violent reaction, it was thought, that both lawmakers and their constituents would be more receptive to new tax proposals.

Senate State Affairs Committee has indicated it has no intention of trying to shove through a tax program just to beat the May 12 deadline of the regular session. Full hearings have been promised for all viewpoints.

Fire-Police Bill Passes— House voted 53 to 56 for a bill that would shorten hours of city firemen and policemen.

Senate already has given the bill final passage. After one more favorable vote in the House, it will be ready to go to the Governor.

Truck Bill Signed— Gov. Price Daniel signed the bill raising the truck load limit from 58,400 to 72,000 pounds.

But he made no bones about his misgivings. He recommended that the State Highway Department and county commissioners courts take steps to keep the heavier loads off farm roads and others that might be damaged.

Before deciding to sign the bill, the governor took an unusual step, by calling a public hearing.

State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer testified there were some 5,000 miles of road that couldn't take 72,000-pound loads. Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the Department of Public Safety, said more license and weight inspectors would be needed. Higher registration fees were expected to provide revenue for this.

17 Potential Governors— Sixteen successors to the governor would be designated in a proposed constitutional amendment that has Senate approval.

Sen. Culp Krueger of El Campo is sponsoring the measure designed to assure a living chief executive in case of atomic attack.

Line of succession would be the lieutenant governor, president pro tempore of the Senate, Speaker of the House, Attorney General, Secretary of State and the chief justices of the 11 courts of civil appeals in their numerical order.

How Clean The Cow— Sen. Grady Hazlewood's bill to regulate milk imports is stirring up more commotion than a short in a milking machine.

Senate passed the bill, and a sub-committee of the House Livestock Committee approved it.

Bill would require that milk brought into Texas from other states meet same standards as those imposed on Texas producers.

Milk producers, who favor the bill, say it will protect consumers from unsanitary milk. Milk producers, who oppose the bill, retort that all states have adequate sanitation standards. They contend the producers are seeking a device for excluding out-of-state milk so local prices can be jacked up.

Big Year Ahead— A forecast of the hubbub that can be expected in the political year of 1960 was seen as the Legislature debated election law changes.

Both House and Senate gave final approval to a bill that would allow a candidate's name to appear twice on the same ballot. It is designed to allow U. S. Sen. Lyndon Johnson run for another Senate term and accept a presidential nomination at the same time, if opportunity should arise. Senate approval unanimously; House, by a 1-9 to 15 vote. Liberal members, mostly from Houston, objected.

A bill to move forward two months the dates of state primaries and conventions also drew liberal protests. It would move primaries up to the first Saturdays in May and June. State convention to name delegates to the national presidential nominating convention would be the last Tuesday in May.

Opponents claimed it was intended to let Senator Johnson get his state politicking out of the way before national convention time.

Changing parties in mid-stream would be outlawed under a bill that has received final approval of both houses. Each poll tax would be stamped "Democrat" or "Republican" the first time a person voted in a primary. For the period he used that poll tax, the holder would have to stick with the party of his stamp, in the primaries and party conventions.

3 Studies Suggested— Senate has approved three studies to be made by the Legislative Council before the 1961 session.

Recommended for consideration are:

1. Possibility of adding the generously endowed University of Houston to the state college system, sponsored by Sen. Robert W. Baker of Houston.
2. Ways to simplify the tangle of special funds which pay for state government, sponsored by Sen. Culp Krueger of El Campo.
3. Special fees charged by agencies for licensing and other services, by Sen. Crawford Martin of Hillsboro.

Short Snorts— Examinations will be held May 19-21 for 75 vacancies in the Texas Highway Patrol. Those accepted will receive six months training at the State Police Academy, six months on-the-job training, all with pay.

State taxes cannot be collected on beer sold on U. S. military posts, according to an Attorney General's opinion. Similar opinion was made earlier in regard to cigarette taxes.

Robert Lealon Lambert of Slaton, senior business administration student at Texas Tech, was among the top students in each of the six schools at Tech who were initiated into Phi Kappa Phi, national honorary scholastic society, recently. To qualify for Phi Kappa Phi, seniors must be in the upper ten per cent of the graduating class of their school and juniors must be in the upper two per cent of their class.

"Texas" came from "Tejas," an Indian word meaning friends or allies. The name was applied to Indian tribes living around Spanish missions in eastern Texas.

Disposing Of Excess Wheat May Mean More Allotment In Future

A farmer who has wheat planted in excess of his 1959 acreage allotment may dispose of the extra acres up until May 10, and is probably will increase his wheat allotment in the future if he does so, according to a reminder from Walter Y. Wells of the Lubbock County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

A major factor in determining farm wheat allotments is the history of wheat grown previously on the farm. The farmer who complies with his allotment gets "history" credit not only for the allotment planted, but also for his "diverted" acres, which is the acreage held out of wheat under the allotment program. On the other hand, under a new law effective this year, the farmer who produces excess wheat will usually receive history credit only for the allotment. In the past, the over-producer received his total wheat acreage as history.

The farmer who produces excess wheat in 1959 may deliver the excess to the Secretary of Agriculture or store it—in a farm under bond or in a commercial warehouse. In that way, he avoids marketing quota penalties. He also gets history credit for his allotment plus diverted acres just as though he had complied with his allotment. However, the credit for diverted acres is lost in case the stored wheat is sold or used and the producer becomes liable for marketing quota penalties.

There is another type of situation in which the producer exceeds his wheat allotment, but produces no marketing excess. This may occur on farms where: (1) the total wheat acreage is 15 acres or less; (2) the normal production of the wheat acreage is under 200 bushels; (3) the 1959 yield is so low that no excess is produced; or (4) the farm has been approved for the production of up to 30 acres of wheat for use on the farm under the feed wheat program. In those circumstances, the farmer gets credit only for the allotment, not for diverted acres.

STRENGTH FOR THE WEEK

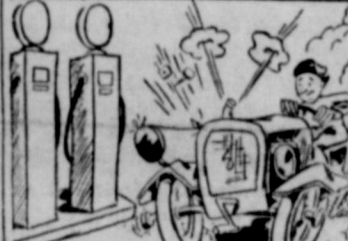

"The Man Who Passes Through"
For what are you living? How much does your presence in the world mean to you? To others? What influences are set in motion that will gladden the hearts of others and make life brighter for them? Where do you fit into a world that is fraught with irritations, frustrations, tragedies, heartaches, handicaps, unhappiness and cruel loneliness?

These and other questions about life seem to be joyfully answered by the psalmist in Psalm Eighty-four. Here the psalmist seems to be a lonely soul who lives in some distant land where he finds himself shut off from God's Holy House and its worship. He is an ardent and devout lover of the Temple. He suffers when he is denied sanctuary in the house of God. He loves to go to church and he knows how to get something out of it. It is a picture of a man who come face to face with God in worship where God alone can supply the inner heart with resources of joy, fellowship, and enrichment.

As he passed through life he found that an experience of worship in the sanctuary of God's fellowship brought the power he needed to face difficulties. "Baca" means to pass through weeping in verse six. On his way to worship he passed through throngs of sorrow-laden people and was able to change their tears into gladness. He had what it takes to "pass through." He was a radiant personality with smile and song. He was able to change the tears of the sorrow-laden group into joy and laughter.

A large part of our lives is in passing through. Are you letting the vale of Baca hold you down? Are you becoming crushed by life's difficulties? Through a profound faith in the Living God one can draw inner resources of strength and power into the soul that will make for victorious living and to send out streams of blessing to revive and refresh those who need this new life. As you pass through let God change the lives of others through you!

Take this child. . . .

. . . . "Take this child and nurse it for me, and I will give thee thy wages."

Only a mother can know the thrill of these words, spoken long ago on behalf of him who later stood by the "burning bush" which lighted the path to greatness!

In mother's heart today is the cherished hope for greatness for the child for whom she passed through the valley of shadows.

In the heart of worthy sons and daughters is the responsive desire that mother's hope, faithfully burning through darkness and sunshine, shall have its reward.

The well-being and greatness of mother and child is constantly assured when both are yielded in faith and dedication to Him Who is the Source of life—and from Whom cometh "every good and acceptable gift."

The appropriate time and place to give tribute to Mother is the Lord's day in the Lord's house—and the way to do it is in worship of her God and your God, that peace, love and sweetness may be full and complete.

GOOD NEWS FOR MOTHERS.
For many years the "Health Team" has been researching the problems of childbirth. Did you know that in 1915, out of about every 165 live births, one mother was lost to us!

CHILDBIRTH IS NO LONGER TO BE FEARED.
Better medical knowledge and hospital care, potent antibiotics and the positive acting sulfa drugs make infections almost impossible. Since 1929 maternal mortality has been so reduced that ordinary accidents are three times as dangerous.

PRENATAL CARE HELPS FUTURE MOTHERS.
Frequent examinations enable physicians to anticipate possible trouble. Prescriptions for special vitamins, hormones and minerals fortify mothers and help them bear strong, healthy babies.

WE CATER TO MOTHERS' PHARMACY NEEDS.
As pharmacist members of the "Health Team," we are trying our best to keep informed about current progress and new discoveries. Your physician can depend on our prescription department for any medicine or health-aid he may specify.

JUST TALK
BY A. M. J.

By A. M. Jackson

Last week when I made a trip to the bank with a very light load I happened to be standing between Robert Huser and Otis Nell at the window.

Both of them seemed to be heavily bogged down with checks and cash and when they got relieved, J. S. Edwards, Jr. walked over and invited them to have some coffee and asked if I would not like to go along too. He led us through a secret passage to the back of the building and in a big, spacious room fitted out with what looked like a banquet table, sat about ten or twelve women drinking coffee, cokes and nibbling on doughnuts and brownies. It was, I presume, the extra shift that is hired to eat while the regular shift scoops in the money.

At a private coffee bar, J. S. Howard Swanner and several other men were gulping down coffee, cakes and cookies and Otis, Robert and I joined the merry throng. How long this has been going on I have no idea. My idea was that the back rooms of the bank were filled with stacks of greenbacks and loose change. According to my picture the bills were in neat order like cord wood and the coins in big buckets, nickles in one, dimes in another, etc.

From my inspection I am sure it will not be long before you can identify a bank employee, or a good customer of the institution, by their over-sized figure, in fact it is showing now on J. S. and T. A. Worley and if they don't watch out you won't be able to tell whether they are standing up or sitting down.

It used to be that one faced the banker with fear and trembling, and even hesitated to ask for the money that was on deposit to your name and I still identify the bank along with a dentist's office, but there is a suspicion of change and it may be that such things as free coffee, donuts and cokes may bring the downfall of the guy who gives you the cold eye and district attorney cross examination when you get rash enough to go in and ask for a loan on your life insurance policy.

When the bank turns the vaults into a coffee bar, it's a sign that happy days are here and that we might all as well quit working and worrying.

It is said that one's past deeds always come back to haunt one in his future and I am afraid mine are catching up with me now. Last week I got a paper from Rankin, Texas, where J. B. Hutchins is the publisher of the Rankin News. In his column he admits that he had his first experience on a newspaper when I put him to work on the Slatonite. He said he had learned to write at considerable length about subjects he knows nothing about and he reports that Just Talk is O. K. as long as one does not want to do any objective thinking. So if objective thinking is what you are looking for don't waste your time here. I am proud of J. B. and of James Hill, too, who is now the publisher of the Knox County Herald. James has christened a column in the Knox County Herald as "Just Talk," and he also related that I am responsible to some degree for his getting bogged down in the newspaper business as I talked him into going to work on the Slatonite way back when coffee was five cents a cup and bread 10c per loaf. I am also guilty of encouraging him to bite off the Knox County Herald and if he makes a howling success, I am going to pop my shirt buttons with pride and if he doesn't I'm going to blow Knox City to Kingdom Come.

It is nice to know that the young fellows who worked so faithfully in the past are standing on their own feet and that some day they'll be nervous wrecks and wish that they had bought a sea farm instead of a newspaper.

Charley Marriott, Jr. and I were talking over all that is wrong with the world the other day and he wanted to know what I would do if I were trying to keep one jump ahead of a passel of youngsters and I said I'd try to teach each one of them to be as conceited, as selfish and as secretive about their own affairs as possible because I have taken notice all through life that the successful business men all seemed to have just such characteristics and I believe that there would be no telling how wealthy a man could get if he got started on the right track early enough.

Charley does not agree with me and I am sure that I would spoil youngsters just as much as any parent would if I could have the opportunity to do so. Charley did say, though, that he is having trouble because he decided to walk to town every morning in order to get more exercise. His high school son was very much pleased when he found out about the new resolution because he figures he can drive the car to school. His wife is very much in favor of his walking because she hopes to get the car for shopping and visiting purposes and he is afraid he has lost control of the situation altogether. It's a bad situation and my advice did not help him one bit. He says he has a wonderful family and he doesn't want any more of my sage advice but I still think I'm right and I can prove it if I can find some one who will turn over a few kids for me to try out.

As a very hard to please T-V watcher, I stay with it through thick and thin and shiver and shake when some of the commercials come on. One that is particularly revolting is the one where a little girl with a mouth full of crocodile teeth comes running out of the background grinning like a jackass eating cactus and screaming at the top of her voice "LOOK MA, NO CAVITIES." Perhaps it sells other people on a certain brand of tooth paste but if possible I'd try to get them to buy some other brand even if it made all their teeth fall out, just because the commercial irritates me so. Which reminds me of a story Mrs. O. Z. Ball told. A repair man came to a little boy's house to repair their T-V and the seven year old informed him he knew what was wrong with it. "What," inquired the repair man, "It is full of dead Indians", replied the youngster.

The Coco-Cola outfit has certainly got things fixed up around the West Ward School with tin policemen out in the middle of the street. It would be nice to see a real live policeman smiling as friendly as the tin ones do but I believe the tin ones would be more effective if they looked as vicious as most of the motor cops I have dealt with. Not long ago I made a left turn in Lubbock on a street where no left turns are supposed to be made and the policeman's whistle turned my blood into water and my knees into frog legs. The no left turn sign was about six inches square and to some extent a trap but I took my dressing down like a little boy caught reading a comic book in school. He did not give me a ticket but I believe I'd rather have paid off than to have been talked to as if I were six years old.

Several mornings I have looked out of the tin policemen in front of our home and they were flat on their back pointing to the sky, a direction most of us might have to go if the congestion gets much thicker around the West Ward.

On one of my slow, easy walking tours last week I stumbled by the C. L. Pack home and Mr. Pack was out stirring up the dirt, planting tomatoes and

The Lubbock Deanery Council Of Catholic Women In Levelland Meet

One hundred ladies attended the first meeting of the newly-organized Lubbock Deanery recently. Also present was the Bishop, The Most Rev. John L. Morkovsky, of Amarillo, and 14 Priests, St. Michael's of Levelland was host parish for the first Lubbock Deanery meeting, April 23, 1959, in their new parish hall.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. C. O. Burkemper, Deanery President. The prayer, "To our Lady of Good Council," was read by Rev. Father R. H. MacLellan, of Levelland. The hymn, "Come Holy Ghost," was sung by the group. The theme for 1959 is "Laywomen's Position in the Church."

Mrs. Kenneth Massengale, President of St. Michael's Altar Society, gave the welcoming address.

At 10:30 a.m. the Workshops began. Immigration, with Mrs. C. W. Ratliff chairman and Rev. Louis B. Moeller of St. Margaret Mary Parish of Lamesa as Moderator. With 180,000 workers needed in the Amarillo Diocese for three months out of every year, those migrant workers are our greatest problem. Our Bishop has asked us to welcome them to our parish to try to make them feel at home and to give assistance when needed. The resolution out of this workshop, resolved, "That all ladies from Latin American Societies participate and affiliate with the D.C.C.W."

Rural Life Workshop with Mrs. Walter Schamlingsterg chairman, Moderator Rev. Norbert F. Wagner of Sacred Heart, Littlefield, in charge. We are urged to help all migratory workers to get to church if they have no way and to get religious instruction to their children while in our parish. To request all employers to pay a living wage to all employees. Resolved, "We urge families (ladies) to cooperate with the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine in instruction of migratory workers."

Catholic Charities, Chairman Mrs. D. J. Mergeson and Rev. Michael Walshe of St. William's Parish, Denver City, as Moderator. The topic creating the most interest and being stressed by the Moderator in this workshop was volunteer nursing. (A course in Home Nursing is offered by the Red Cross.) Twelve ladies of Pep have completed this course. We were asked to practice Charity every day and not just in time of disaster or bereavement. On our Charity depends our Salvation. Resolved, "Every parish chairman contact Civil Defense, and Red Cross to know who to call in an emergency. Catholic Charities and Foreign Relief."

Confraternity of Christian Doctrine. Mrs. Otis D. Harding, chairman and Rev. Paul Laub, St. Anthony's, Brownfield, Moderator. All parishes are asked to organize a Confraternity of Christian Doctrine organization, and to urge all men and women to take advantage of the courses offered by the Confraternity. It was stressed that all Junior High and High School students have more instruction on their level such as discussion groups. Resolved, "That Confraternity sponsor discussion groups beginning at the Junior High level and extending on to High School."

Family Life workshop, by Mrs. E. C. Ellison, Diocesan Chairman and Rt. Rev. Masgr. Thomas O. O'Brien, St. Joseph's, Slaton, as Moderator. All families are urged to practice Family prayer Holy Communion, especially on Mother's Day, also Family Holy Hours. The week of May 3 to 10 is National Family Week, one member of the family should attend Mass daily during that week. Resolved, "That we work toward a Catholic School in every parish, and encourage religious vocations."

Bishop's Talk
The Bishop complimented the ladies on a well conducted meeting and also on the large number of ladies attending.

Two organizations are required in every parish, "The Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament," and "The Confraternity of Christian Doctrine." These two organizations cover the entire life span of each individual from the cradle to the grave.

The speaker, Mrs. C. M. Starkey, the Diocesan President, spoke on "Lay Women's Position in the Church." She gave some quotations by Bishops at the National Convention.

Rev. Francis A. Smeyer, the Diocesan Moderator, asked the ladies to use their imagination and not to expect our pastor to do all the explaining and that we learn more by doing ourselves. The priest is just to guide us. All were asked to go home and to put into practice what we learned in the workshop.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Porter of Monrovia, California, are visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Lovett. They arrived May 3rd to help celebrate the birthday of Mrs. Lovett. Mrs. Porter and Mrs. Lovett are attending the State Convention of T. F. W. C. at Lubbock.

FREE AIR AT SELF'S SERVICE STATION

There is a story to the effect that one of the greatest financiers of France got his start by picking up a pin. The boy had applied at a bank for a position, and had been refused. As he was about to leave the room, he saw a pin, and stopped to pick it up.

The banker saw the lad pick up the pin, and decided that he had the faculty of being careful about details; and so he called back the lad and employed him.

This is a lesson every one must learn. It is so often that the small things are of more importance than the greater ones. Most anyone is careful about big things, but the man of character looks also after the little things.

We pride ourselves because we are careful of little things about your car when you bring it to us for service. Churches of Slaton have been invited to participate in the largest interdenominational event in South Plains history, the Crusade for Christ, scheduled in Lubbock May 10-17.

The giant crusade, to be held in Municipal Coliseum nightly at 7:30, will feature widely-known Howard Butt, businessman-preacher, and a team of outstanding Christian lecturers, musicians and qualified laymen. More than 287 churches throughout the area have been invited by letter, or personal contact, to help make the crusade successful by encouraging attendance from the congregations, to observe prayer hours in behalf of the crusade and to otherwise "spread the word" about the week-long religious event.

Several thousand persons already serving on 10 major committees are hard at work, explained the Rev. Dudley Strain, general chairman of the Crusade for Christ.

More than 80 Lubbock churches originated the event and last week began a concentrated advance campaign for attendance. A crusade office has been opened at 1403 College Ave. in Lubbock where volunteers can secure posters, brochures, spiritual guides and other advertising materials.

Howard Butt, who has successfully preached to capacity crowds in several sections of
