It was brought to my attention that Slaton has 159 boys from the 5th grade through high school now engaged in football training. And for the first time in our history, every boy has been supplied with a uniform. I would think that any boy would be a more inspired and interested player when he dons a uniform. Looks good for the future picture of football in Slaton.

Self's Service Station is really not 501 S. 9th St. as listed on the Football page. It is really 605 S. 9th. Believe me, tho, if you do locate the station, it is a fine place to have your car serviced.

It just occurs to me that relatively little has been said concerning traffic caution now that school has started. Seems we can't say too much on that subject. Probably you have all read about the six-year-old girl in Post who completed her first day of school and was returning home. She was killed within one block of her home. It wasn't really the driver's fault, as the child ran from behind some shrubbery directly into the car's path. But that is small consolation to the driver of that car. That is little consolation to her parents. Those little folks have to be anticipated, allowed for and watched. Many are riding bicycles to school for the first time. That is evidenced by the wobbly way they ride. Sermon's over, but remember, let's watch the little ones.

There was much nice comment concerning the Edward Wood poetry last week so here is another one that, tho written some years ago, seems mighty appropo.

Signs of the Times
Come ancient traveler on your way
And tell us now the time of day;
For we would know from wiser minds
The meanings of the signs of times.

The seething turmoil and unrest
O'er land and sea, from east to west,
Bids fair to shake the very ground
And bring God's righteous Judgment down.

But tell us now, with word and pen
When thinkest thou these things begin?
How long will God withhold
His hand
From righteous cleansing of the land?

No place within their hearts they hold
For love and grace, so often told;
Nor will they heed the warning signs
Of coming Judgment in our times.

As was the days of Noah, when He preached so long to sinful men,
So will it be on that great day
When all their works are swept away.

Not work nor deed shall stand the test
Of righteous judgement then, unless
Such work be builded by our hand
Through grace that's in God's Perfect Man.

Dr. Jaynes and Dr. Talbert's new offices are located across the street west of Haddock's Food Store. (By the way, if you like contests, note Haddock's ad this week.) The doctors' new telephone number is VA 8-4223.

Just overheard Mr. Perry remark that the Wilson Oil Co. had run an ad every week for five years!

Note the Piggly Wiggly ad and see if you recognize the lad carrying the load of groceries.

If you are in the market for dishes, better turn to the Society section and look for the Slaton Gift Shop ad. They have a bargain for the next two weeks.

A 1959 Buick will be on display at William's Buick on Friday. Don't think I can bear to look—those things were designed for rich farmers and so forth.

Slaton to meet stiff competition here Friday against Stamford eleven

The Stamford Bulldogs will invade the Slaton Tiger field Friday night beginning at 8 o'clock. They are bringing their entire team, which includes all of last year's squad.

Junior Varsity squad meets Tohoka tonight

Slaton Junior High varsity football team defeated the Seagraves B team 16 to 14 last Thursday when they played at Seagraves.

Westview Church has new pastor

Rev. C. M. Fields has been called as pastor for Westview Baptist Church to succeed Rev. Bryan Ross who resigned recently to accept a pastorate in San Angelo.

Rev. Fields came to Slaton from Talco where he had been pastor of Calvary Baptist Church for the past two years. Prior to that time he had been pastor of Woodrow Baptist Church in this district.

Rev. Fields was born and reared in Comanche, Texas, and entered the ministry in 1945. He attended Howard Payne College in Brownwood and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth.

The Fieldses have three children, Brenda Sue, 16, Kenneth Joe, 12, and Betty Ann, 10. They moved into the parsonage on Tuesday of this week.

Bulldogs. Stamford's tailback, Donald Davis, will probably be the outstanding back in the state this year.

Coach Ehrler reports the Tiger team in good shape physically. If the outstanding playing of Slaton's backs continues Friday night, and if improvement is made in blocking, the Tigers should make a good showing against this team. An upset could even result.

Rotarians hear local coaches

Local Rotarians enjoyed hearing the details of the Slaton football squad Thursday noon when Travis Reynolds brought the coaches before the club as his program. The coaches presented were Leonard Ehrler, John Taylor and Marvin Smith. Co-captains Jerry Hogue and Howard Limmer were also present.

"The team is in good shape physically," said Coach Ehrler. He went on to explain that the boys were bruised up from the Canyon game of the week before, but he thinks Slaton has a top team this year. Each boy was taken up individually and his abilities and inabilities brought out by the coach. He expressed appreciation for the way the people of the town were supporting all of the players.

Slaton truckers awarded medals

Pan American Fire and Casualty Co. and Pan American Life Insurance Company of Houston, presented medals for safe driving to four Slaton men last week.

Victor Ybarra with eight years, Felipe Ybarra with two years, Marvin Geber and Senero Perez each with seven years driving without an accident, are employees of Carroll Oil Company in Slaton. They are drivers of butane and gasoline trucks.

The medals have tags with the number of accident free years they have driven.

perform at half-time. The performance of the Slaton band last Friday night on their first appearance was a credit to any city regardless of size.

"The football program in all Slaton schools now involves 93 boys," he said.

Dub Williams presented the Rotary pin, manual and by-laws to Bland Tomlinson and welcomed him into the club as a new member.

Don Britt introduced the visitors to the club.

Bruce Pember recognized the birthdays and anniversaries of a number of members. "Happy Birthday" was sung for their benefit.

M. G. Davis brought the Rotary information committee plans for the year and gave a short talk on "Senior Active" classification. To qualify for this title a Rotarian must have been a member for 15 years, he said.

Danielle Thullier, the club's summer guest from France, made a short talk and told of the exciting times she has been having visiting San Antonio, Carlsbad Caverns and other places. She was spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Swanner last week. She is expected to leave for home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brooks and family attended a family reunion in the home of Mrs. Angie Jones, mother of Mrs. Brooks. All ten of the children were present Sunday and celebrated their mother's 80th birthday.

CLAUDE CRAVENS was elected Republican state committeeman from the 28th senatorial district at the Republican state convention held in Wichita Falls on September 9. Cravens is a Slaton attorney. Mrs. Gordon Treadaway, wife of Lubbock attorney, Gordon Treadaway, was named District Committeewoman.

C. of C. Survey shows 5 to 1 favor chest drive

Slaton Chamber of Commerce sent out 250 letters and cards last week asking the people of Slaton to indicate their interest in a United Fund or Community Chest Drive in Slaton rather than having numerous drives as in the past.

According to Mrs. R. D. Bisbee, secretary-manager of the Chamber, the response has been gratifying in the number of cards returned. She stated that the vote had been 5 to 1 in favor of a United Fund drive.

The results of this survey will probably determine the action to be taken by the chamber in instituting a Community Chest drive in Slaton, Mrs. Bisbee said.

Mrs. Bisbee pointed out that in making pledges to the Chest, payments may be made throughout a 12-month period. Payments may also be directed to any specific agency included in the Chest, thus enabling donors to direct where their monies would be used. Contributions made in this manner are deductible items, tax-wise, according to Mrs. Bisbee.

Tech football tickets still available

Season football tickets to Texas Tech's home games are still available, according to Jimmie Wilson, business manager of athletics.

Good for the West Texas, Baylor, Arizona, and Arkansas contests, the tickets cost $14. Wilson said. He pointed out that the demand for tickets to the Baylor and Arkansas games is particularly strong and that the best way to get good seats is to take the season books.

THOSE HULA HOOPS CAN REALLY SEND YOU—and judging from the expression on the face of Tommy Hoffman, (second from right) he is "real gone." The hoop craze has taken Slaton in it's giant sweep that spread the fad across the nation, and the hoops come in baby sizes to accommodate the little lasses like Mary Leslie Cole, (fourth from right). Miss Cole is three-years-old and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Cole. Directly behind Mary Leslie, Billy Jaynes raises his arms, the better to whirl the hoop. Diana Jaynes

Civic Improvement suggestions received by Slaton Jaycees

Slaton Jaycees are well pleased with the response to the appeal for suggested civic improvement projects asked for in last week's Slatonite, according to Tommy LeMaster, a Jaycee director.

Many suggestions have been dropped in the boxes placed in various places of business in town and have been called in and mailed. Last week members of the Jaycee-ettes helped make a telephone survey asking people what they should like for the Jaycees to undertake.

LeMaster said some of the suggestions were impractical for them to try to handle as they would be better suited to the city as a whole such as paving certain streets. Others such as traffic control at the schools, ridding the school yards of burrs, erecting traffic lights where they are needed and safety measures, will be considered by the board of directors and one will be chosen to be undertaken as soon as they can get the project started. Several others will be selected to take up as soon as time will allow.

Civic improvement is one of the points stressed by members of the Junior Chamber. One of their projects has been the northeast section of the County park which they have improved by plowing, sowing grass, watering and keeping it mowed. They are in the process of purchasing a power mower at the present to keep it mowed.

The Jaycees provide a telephone at Tigertown for the convenience of Teenagers and parents. They have ball gum machines in places of business over the city which brings in a small amount of revenue as well as serves the public.

According to the spokesman, the Jaycees are organized to help Slaton.

WHAT'S THE HURRY?

Most of us must admit that now and then we get caught up in the tempo of the times. This business of everybody hurrying-for-hurry's sake is infectious. There's so much pressure, so much tension and so very little time to get things done.

If we happen to be driving when we're struck by one of these moods, chances are we will set our driving speed in time with the hurry-phobia. Emotions, report experts from the Texas Safety Association, are known to play an extremely important part in our driving actions.

The "hurry-up" mood, then, can be very dangerous. Fortunately, this mental condition is easy to detect. Our driving habits will be characterized by sudden starts and stops, weaving in and out of traffic, improper passing and other forms of unsafe driver behaviour... especially speeding.

If we find ourselves caught up in one of these "frenzies of modern-day living," the first thing to do is be honest enough to admit to ourselves that—we are a traffic hazard. Then, let someone else drive or "take a break" until we're more relaxed.

For a maximum of safety, we should be willing to drive at speeds that are safe for traffic and road conditions—always within speed laws—and with consideration for other motorists and pedestrians.

THE CALF IS SAFER

Remember the old verse about the purple cow? It ended "I'd rather see than be one."

But now a veterinarian is concerned, he says, it's "much safer to be born a calf than a baby in America today." This is the way Dr. Paul S. Dodd sums up the comparative progress in eliminating bovine and human tuberculosis.

Years ago TB was the most serious animal disease the American farmer had to deal with. In 1918 a cooperative campaign for the eradication of bovine TB was begun. The plan was to give all cattle the tuberculin test, the skin test that shows tuberculous infection even through the active disease may not be present. All cattle found to have positive reactions were to be slaughtered. You may never have been a farmer, but you can imagine how difficult it must have been to face the destruction of valuable animals for the general good.

By 1936 more than 176,000,000 cattle had been tested and more than 3,000,000 had been slaughtered. By 1956 only one and a half per cent or 14,000 of the cattle tested had positive reactions to the test.

But in the same year 14,000 humans died of tuberculosis and there were about 800,000 active and inactive cases of the disease.

The tuberculin test is just as easily available to people as to cattle. With the evidence of a positive reaction, it's often possible for health workers to find the source of the infection—the active case of TB that is spreading germs. And of course, extra care can be taken to protect the health of the reactor to prevent the development of the disease.

Perhaps we could do as much for our own safety as for our animals.

The possibility of sending a rocket to Mars or Venus after a successful moon shot is considered by scientists. It seems we want none of our space neighbors to feel that they have been snubbed.

274 Girl Scout Troops, 3668 girls active in Caprock Council area

A total of 274 registered Girl Scout troops are active in the Caprock Scout Council, according to Mrs. Leonard McNeese, Amherst, chairman of troop organization. The announcement was made during the regular board meeting held at the Girl Scout Little House in Lubbock.

The council troops include 3,668 girls and 1,267 adults. Plans were discussed for fund drives for the Girl Scouts in the 9½ county council through local drives and community chest campaigns. Reports were given by officials of the Lubbock Community Chest and Mrs. Cecil Cagle of Lubbock, who represents the Girl Scout agency as a zone leader.

Mrs. Harvey Turnbough, Lubbock, read the minutes and called the roll.

Phil Sterrett, Abernathy, announced that signs have been placed on the highway near the new camp east of Crosbyton. He said test wells have been drilled, and a fence has been built along the property line on the west by owners of the Bridwell ranch, donors of the property. Mrs. Leon Williams, Lorenzo, reported that 342 Scouts camped at Las Leonitas, 39 at a patrol camp in Real County, and 1,178 girls and 288 adults took part in day camps during the summer.

A request from Dickens County to become part of the Caprock Council, which includes 9½ counties, was accepted by the board, which will refer it to the council meeting for approval October 13 at the Lubbock Public Library.

Former Slaton boy named head football coach in Albuquerque Carl (Bill) Gentry, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Gentry of 255 S. 3rd Street in Slaton, has been appointed head football coach at Highland High School in Albuquerque, New Mexico. Highland is the state's largest prep institution.

Gentry, a graduate of the University of New Mexico six years ago, was coach of Monroe Junior High for the past four seasons. He succeeds Hugh Hackett who resigned at Highland several weeks ago to become head track coach at the University.

Gentry, born in Slaton, was a tackle in his high school career in Slaton. He joined the Navy in 1945 and served in the South Pacific area aboard the destroyer Henderson before continuing his education at Coffeyville, Kans., Junior College.

He transferred from Coffeyville to the University of New Mexico where he played guard for the Lobos in 1948 and 1949 under Coach Berl Huffman. He left school in 1949 but returned to get his degree in 1952.

Gentry joined the public school system as a physical education instructor at Zia School in 1952. He became football and track coach at Monroe Junior High in 1954.

The new Highland coach had runner-up football teams in the Schoolboy League in 1954 and 1957. He has championship SL track team in 1957, a second place squad in 1956 and third place cinder teams in 1955 and 1958. He already has a few of his products enrolled at Highland.

The new coach is rated by some of his fellow coaches as being one of the top line teachers in the state. He has been sought as line coach in several high schools in the area.

Gentry and his wife, Mary, have two children, a two-year old son, Billy, and a little baby daughter, Marcy Ann.

Alvin Pricer and family of Hillsboro, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harris of Lubbock visited in the home of Mr. and H. F. Pricer Sunday. Alvin Pricer is Mr. Pricer's nephew.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Womack visited with their daughter, Mrs. L. E. Wyatt, and family of Snyder last week. Rev. Mr. Wyatt is pastor of Trinity Methodist Church in Snyder.

Mr. and Mrs. Rhea Pierce, Floyd Shipman, of Abernathy, and Mrs. Pierce travelled all over New Mexico last week, spending some time at Ruidoso, and other places of interest.

TELEPHONE TALK

by J. C. Oakley, Manager

MEET W. H. "DUB" EUBANKS

I would like to introduce W. H. Eubanks who has been transferred to your fine city. W. H., who is known to friends as "Dub", started his telephone career in Fort Worth, March 10, 1947. Dub worked in Floydada in 1948 before going to Lubbock where he worked before his transferring to Slaton.

He and his wife, Nell, and their two daughters, Sue and Julie, are residing in Lubbock until they find a place to live.

Dub is a member of the Masonic Lodge and a member of the Methodist Church.

Employees, like W. H. "Dub" Eubanks, make up our "Telephone Team" which has the responsibility of providing good telephone service for our customers in Slaton. I know you people will be happy to welcome Dub and his family in your city.

PRESCRIPTION FOR PLEASURE

The telephone by your side can be pretty good medicine — all by itself.

It's one of the best cures for loneliness. I'm thinking, especially, of those long distance calls to talk to loved ones and old friends away from home.

And how about those easy-going conversations women enjoy during the day? When you're tired of looking at the ironing board, or when the mop starts to get a little heavy, a short "telephone break"—just a few minutes chat with a friend or neighbor—really brings you back smiling.

Your telephone is more than just a convenience. There's plenty of pleasure and relaxation built into it, too. So use it as often as the mood strikes you. That's what it's there for.

UP-TO-DATE IDEA ABOUT TELEPHONES

Where is the telephone in your home? Is it where you can always reach it easily when it rings—or when you want to make a call?

Or is it in a central hall or in the middle of the house—not really close to any place where members of your family are when they want to use it?

Families with modern telephone service like to have phones in color in the kitchen, living room, and bedrooms.

With your home equipped with handy extension telephones, you can "reach" rather than "run" for the phone.

Why not order more telephones for your home today? You'll find the cost of extensions will add very little to what you now pay, but will add a great deal to your comfort and convenience.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

Seagraves rolls over Tigers in easy fashion

MAN OVERBOARD—That will be the cry this coming summer, if many sea sprites such as Norma Seward up-anchor under transparent sails. Fashioned of synthetic resin, the new-type sail was shown recently in New York City.

LAST LAUGH—French artists put the finishing touches to papier mache figures which will swirl through the gaiety of Mardi Gras time at Nice. The world-famous, week-long carnival reaches its climax on Shrove Tuesday, the eve of Ash Wednesday, when the penitential season of Lent begins.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Cade and girls of Cotton Center spent Friday and Saturday visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Gamble.

The Seagraves Eagles rolled over the Slaton Tigers in easy fashion Friday night to the tune of 16 to nothing. They were led by the running of half-back Max Cain and the fine defensive play of Dennis Grimes. Cain gained 98 yards in 14 carries and Grimes was a thorn in the Tigers' side all night with his defensive play. Pat Adamek and Giles Smith led the Tigers with 68 yards in 16 carries and 45 yards in 12 carries.

Seagraves received the kickoff on their 10 yard line and returned ten yards. Eight plays later after going over tackle and end, the Eagles had a first down on their own 47 yard line. An end run lost one yard; a pass intended for end Dick Stephenson fell incomplete; a completed pass to the right end moved the ball to the Tiger 48 yard line where Grimes punted to the Tiger 26.

ON THE FIRST play, Adamek broke over guard for a 16 yard gain and a first down on the Tiger 42 yard line. Adamek gained 10 yards before fumbling the ball and Seagraves recovered on Slaton's 38 yard line.

Cain went around left end for 19 yards for a first down on the 19 yard line and six plays later Seagraves scored with Faulkenberry going the final three yards around left end. He also ran the extra points making the score 8-0.

Three plays later Seagraves punted to the Tigers on their own 41. Adamek made three and a 15 yard penalty took the ball back to the 26 yard line. Limmer made eight over tackle and a bad hand-off fell to the ground. Seagraves fell on the ball and after three plays returned the favor by fumbling with Slaton recovering on their own 22 yard line.

After Adamek lost two yards, a five yard penalty took the ball back to the 15 yard line. On fourth down Adamek punted to the Seagraves 40 yard line where Grimes took the ball and returned it 27 yards to his own 33. Grimes picked up a first on the keeper moving the ball to the 20 yard line and after two line plays moved it to the six yard stripe. Max Cain

FFA officers hold first meeting Wednesday night

The local chapter of Future Farmers of America met for the first meeting of the school year Wednesday night at Underwood's in Lubbock.

Future plans for enlarging the F.F.A. work were discussed. Money-making projects were also discussed and decided upon. The officers attending were James Cole, Giles Smith, Jerry Allen, Randy Sanders, Jerry Harlan and Gary Ward, president, vice president, secretary, reporter, treasurer and sentinel respectively.

It was the first meeting with the new Vocational agriculture teacher, Mr. Brown.

Slaton Future Farmers of America have a newcomer to the chapter this year, according to Randy Sanders, chapter reporter. He is Mr. Brown, the vocational agriculture teacher.

Randy says the boys enjoy Mr. Brown and hope to accomplish many things for the F.F.A. this year. Brown, according to Sanders, has a wide knowledge of farm machinery, farm management and other things in the line of Future Farming.

Truett Babb, principal of Slaton High School, was advisor of the group for a number of years. The boys say they miss him but are happy for him to have the promotion to principal, Sanders said.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Lester of Levelland spent Monday visiting with Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Gamble. Mrs. Lester and Mrs. Gamble are cousins.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brownlow of Hereford visited Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Dawson over the week end. Mrs. Brownlow and Mrs. Dawson are cousins.

Good increase noted in payment in social security benefits in area

Old-age, survivors and disability insurance benefits are being paid in the South Plains at the rate of $6,520,860 a year, according to John G. Hutton, manager of the Lubbock social security office.

"This is an increase of about 45 per cent over last year," Hutton said.

"OUR STUDIES have shown that many of these aged people, widows and orphans have little or no other resources," he pointed out. "For something like nine per cent, social security benefits are intended primarily as basis for individual economic security, the payment of social security benefits at the rate of $223,279 a year in Lubbock helps business generally because most of the money is spent immediately on clothing, food, and other necessities.

"THIS IS especially important in the time of economic recession, he said. "Social security benefits are being paid nationally at a rate of more than 6 billion dollars annually." Payments to a retired worker average about $65 per month, Hutton said. The average for a widow with two young children is $145. The maximum payment for a retired couple is $162.80 a month, and the maximum for a family is $200.

"THERE WERE several reasons for the increase in benefits over last year," Hutton said. One was the payment of benefits to people who were brought under the law for the first time in recent years — self-employed farmers, for example. Other reasons for the increase were the reduction in the retirement age of 62 for women and the starting of disability insurance benefits to disabled people 50 or over.

Hutton agreed that one factor in the increase may be the business recession. "I'm sure some older people who would have preferred to keep on working have been forced to retire because of the general business conditions," Hutton said. "Also some mothers may be getting survivors insurance benefits for themselves as well as their children because they have lost jobs as a result of the recession."

"Many of these people would have been forced to turn to public assistance as soon as they exhausted their unemployment insurance rights," Hutton said. "The result would have been a further increase in public welfare costs, which are paid out of a general taxation."

"THEY GROUNDED ME"—Robert Louis Sebald, 2, had his pinfeathers clipped at a recent indoor air meet of model plane enthusiasts held in Public Auditorium, Cleveland, Ohio. He commanded this neat little cabin job, but was forcibly restrained from launching it.

THREE-WAY INSPIRATION—Courage of Sanford Shaleen, of Minneapolis, Minn., and two devices developed by fellow engineers of Minneapolis Honeywell form a three-way picture of inspiration. Stricken with polio three years ago, Shaleen can move only his head and feet. A movement of his head actuates device developed by his comrades which turns pages of technical paper on easel at right. Touch of his toe on an employe-developed switch at foot of bed energizes dictating machine and Shaleen records through microphone near his head. With aid of the machines he completes review of a vast amount of material each week.

Buick's New Styling Is Sleek And Low

THE FIRST 1959 CAR will be shown at Williams Buick Co. Friday, announces W. C. Williams. Sleek and low describes Buick's new styling for 1959. The model shown is the luxurious two-door Electra hardtop which measures less than 55 inches in height yet retains approximately the same headroom as last year's Buick. The "delta-wing" styling of the rear fenders that flare out to a point, and twin headlights that are set on an angle give the new Buick a look that is light and jaunty. Compound windshields that curve back into the roof and eliminate wind noise are a feature on all 1959 Buicks. The Electra is powered by a 401-cubic inch V-8 engine with 10.5-to-1 compression ratio. Twin turbine Dynaflo and power steering are standard on all models in the Electra series.

Junior High teams win from Post

Slaton Junior high football teams walloped Post 30-8 and 42-0 in two games played Tuesday night at Tiger Stadium beginning at 7 p.m.

Slaton's seventh grade played the first game and defeated Post 30-8. They outplayed Post from the beginning by running 42 yards on the first play from scrimmage. Other yardage was made by short gains. Slaton made eight first downs to five for Post; they gained 198 yards to 88 for their opponents; and each side had one five yard penalty.

The eighth grade game was exciting with three of the touchdowns being made on long runs, 60 yards, 40 yards and 37 yards and the last on a blocked punt caught by Caldwell who took it across for a touchdown. Slaton made nine first downs to six for Post. 242 yards were gained by Slaton and 102 by Post; Slaton received penalties totaling 85 yards while Post received 20 yards.

All boys on both Slaton's teams participated in the games. The next game for the two teams will be with Frenship at Frenship next Tuesday at 7 p.m.

Coaches Kerr and Day expect to match some games for the sixth grade team in the near future.

Economic loss resulting from traffic accidents in Texas in 1957 was $227,550,000.

A patrolman in the Texas Department of Public Safety must complete 22 weeks of intensive training before earning his commission.

There are 4,174,990 motor vehicles registered in the State of Texas.

Texas Department of Public Safety coined a new word when it named the traffic fatality a "motoricide."

When applying for renewal of a Texas driver license should include their date of birth, all given names, maiden surname previous married names and surnames, as well as their current address.

Young Texas men between 21 and 35 years of age now have the opportunity to join the Texas Department of Public Safety as patrolmen. Write to the DPS in Austin for complete information.

In addition to 2,539 motorcicles in Texas during 1957, there were 122,195 persons injured.

Free movies provide entertainment information galore for students

Free Movies!

That's a youngster's dream, but for hundreds of Abilene, Texas school children it was a reality last year. The pictures they saw were short, informative—and usually entertaining—films made by various industrial firms.

Most of the films are expertly made, and the commercial content is all but zero—limited to titles in most cases. They have become widely used aids in modern education.

AMONG THE MOVIES Abilene youngsters saw last year were films from Shell Oil Company's million-dollar library, a collection of professionally produced motion pictures on the oil industry, science, and aviation. They are loaned free to schools and other interested groups.

Films from the Shell Library were also shown to several hundred college and university students in Lubbock, Texas, and to numerous members of various service, fraternal and civic organizations all over West Texas during 1957 and 1958.

About 100 million people have seen films since the company is to tell the story of oil—what it is, how it is found and brought from the earth, and how it is put to work for mankind. Many of the films tell this story. Others deal with various aspects of hydraulics, mechanics, chemistry, and the theories and history of flight.

The diversity of the collection is indicated by the two most recent additions: "The Rival World" and "Song of the Clouds." "The Rival World" tells of man's endless war against destructive insects, while "Song of the Clouds" deals with the international cooperation needed to maintain air travel in the service of mankind. Both films are in color, and both include sequences from other countries.

The crews that photographed "Song of the Clouds" travelled 75,000 miles to show aviation activities throughout the free world.

THERE ARE 25 titles in the motion picture library. They are all in sound and many are in color. Some employ a three-dimensional animation technique to make complex subjects more understandable. Several of the films have won awards in national and international competition for excellence in the field of audio-visual education.

Last year, Shell films were shown at Abilene, Texas, by the Abilene Public Library. They are now being shown at Slaton, Texas, by the Slaton Public Library.

Federal funds available for use in school lunch programs in Texas

First installment of $5,488,245 of federal funds for Texas schools in the national school lunch program were to be released by the food distribution division, Agricultural Marketing Service, Dallas, about the first of this month, according to the chief of the Dallas AMS office, John J. Slaughter.

Texas public schools will get $5,166,017, an increase of $166,49 over last year, and private schools will get $322,228, an increase of $72,570, according to Slaughter.

Funds appropriated by Congress for the program are released to the states according to the number of children between five and 17 years of age, inclusive, and the relation of the per capita income of the U.S. to the per capita in the state.

The public school allotment for Texas will be used by the Texas Education Agency to reimburse schools in part for the food bought by local merchants. Texas private schools secure their allotments directly from Slaughter's office.

Last year about 3,000 public and 131 private schools operating under the school lunch program spent about $20,780,935 with local merchants for food, Slaughter said. They served 90,860, 139 meals, nearly all with a half pint of milk and the average cost was about 25.4 cents during November, the peak month of participation last year.

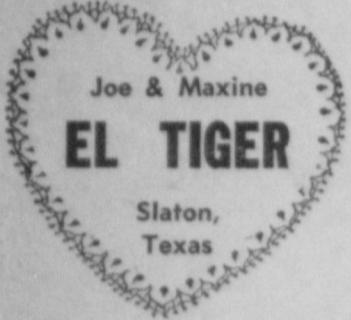

"With the use of USDA funds in buying the foods, schools can keep the cost of lunches at the lowest possible level," Slaughter said, emphasizing that each school determines the cost of its lunches on a non-profit basis.

The program is designed to improve the diets of school children and enlarge the market of the farmers. At the same time, it creates local business and jobs.

Chief Petty Officer J. D. Henry of the U.S. Navy, left the last of the week after having visited with his mother, Mrs. W. T. Barry for a few days. Henry lives in Moberly, Missouri, where he is in charge of U.S. Navy Recruiting Station. He has been in the Navy for 15 years and will remain at the Recruiting Station in Moberly until late spring of 1960. He is married to the former Jean Tompkins of Denver, Colo. They have one son, Gary, who is 10.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Huckabay of Clovis, New Mexico, spent Friday night with Mr. Huckabay's mother, Mrs. Nettie Huckabay. The Huckabays are former Slaton residents.

Homeowning Can Be Hazardous Too!

at the fourth annual Water for Texas Conference this week at Texas A&M.

Theme of this year's conference was "Watershed Management and Our Water Supply," Thomas said. "We know that through good watershed management we may increase crop yields with less water and build underground water supplies."
The Tech dean's subject was "Vegetation and Runoff." A specialist in range and forestry management, Thomas has held a number of conservation, teaching and research posts. For two years he was research coordinator for West Texas and for the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station before becoming agricultural dean at Tech.

In his talk, Thomas discussed the relationships between vegetation and runoff and described results of research done by himself and others in recent years.

He considers vegetation the most important factor in runoff control because mechanical devices like terraces, dams, contour farming and cultivation are still influenced by vegetative cover.

"We on the High Plains are probably more concerned with water — particularly irrigation water—than any other section of the state," Thomas commented.

Dr. Thomas made his first official appearance at Tech's dean of agriculture in speaking at the conference. On September 1 he succeeded Dr. W. L.
Stengel who retired after three decades at Tech.

Surprise dinner party honors the Hickmans

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Hickman on their thirty-eighth wedding anniversary, a surprise dinner and bridge party was given by Dr. and Mrs. Nesbitt of Snyder and Mr. and Mrs. Alton Kenney Monday evening, Sept. 8, in the Kenney home.

Mrs. Nesbitt and Mrs. Kenney are the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hickman. Guests came dressed in styles of 1920. Tables were centered with miniature pottery cars filled with yellow daisies, the stars being replicas of the 1920 models. One table was centered with a wedding cake topped with a bride and groom.

The hostesses presented the honored guests with a gift of silver and the guests' gift was crystal. A Hawaiian lei of orchids was placed around Mrs. man's shoulders.

SHE'D WALK A MILE FOR HIM—So the ecstatic expression on the lady camel at right would indicate. But the blissful bacchanal at left had better head for the oasis. She'll make him hump for a date unless he promises love that will endure until the sands of the desert grow cold. This early spring nonsense is going on at the zoo in Paris, France.

Time required to stop has most people fooled are you a genius who can stop on a dime?

Everyone knows you can't stop a car on a dime. But do you realize just exactly how far your car does travel before it can be stopped? "It's a lot further than you may think," the National Safety Council says.

Tests show it takes the average driver, under most conditions, about three-fourths of a second to react to an emergency and hit his brakes.

At 15 m.p.h., in the time it takes to react, you've already traveled at least 17 feet—theoretically, over three six-foot-tall men. It takes another 14 feet—about two more six-footers—to bring your car to a halt. That's a total of five six-footers you've run over—and at only 15 m.p.h.!

Most motorists, though, don't drive quite that slow. Let's assume you usually whiz along at, say, 60 m.p.h. A pretty reasonable speed, you'd say.

Keep your eyes on the road and reach for cigarette lighter. Put the cigarette in your mouth, glance down and flick the lighter. That flick and initial puff on the cigarette took about two seconds. During that time, you traveled at least 176 feet—more than half the distance of a football field.

If you saw an accident situation ahead after looking up and hit the brakes immediately, before you could stop your car would have travelled 366 feet further—equal to another football field, and then some.

Your trouble may not be lighting cigarettes. But everyone's distracted sometime or other by something in the car. Best protection is to be alert, and to hold down your speed so if you do face a situation, you'll have time to stop safely.

If you do find yourself facing an emergency, you'll be better able to stop in time if your tires and brakes are in good condition. An emergency is no time for added problems.

If, despite all your precautions, you find yourself in an emergency, remember this tip: Better that you head for the ditch than ram an oncoming car.

"Stay alert—stay alive," the Council says. "Think ahead."

Tech plays Texas A&M Saturday

Texas Tech launches its most rugged football schedule by meeting Texas A&M in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas at 8 p.m. Saturday.

Although the schedule is rough throughout, the first half confronts the Red Raiders with four Southwest Conference foes and West Texas State, a school that has beaten Tech two straight.

West Texas and Tech begin the Red Raiders' home slate with a night game Saturday Sept. 27.

Tech's hopes depend largely upon how well players fit into new positions and how quickly several key performers regain their strength following a virus attack.

Biggest changes have seen fullback Gene Bentley of Panhandle going to right guard, quarterback Floyd Dellinger of LaVega moving to right half, freshman quarter Glen Amerson of Munday switching to fullback, and tackle Jerry Don Stockton of Tuscola transferred to left guard.

Tech's leading groundgainer of 1957, halfback Ronnie Rice of Lefors, has been the sickest and may miss the first two contests. Centers E. J. Holub of Lubbock and Bill Turnbow of Burkburnett both missed last week's final game-type scrimmage for the same reason.

The living-dining room of the Little White House looks just as it did in April 1945 when president Franklin D. Roosevelt suffered his fatal heart attack as he was seated in the chair before the fire. These are the

Roscoe Dooleys see points of interest in southland

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Dooley recently made a trip to Atlanta, Ga., and other places of interest in the South.

Mrs. Dooley says they went to visit with her brother and family in Atlanta and after their arrival most every hour was filled with sightseeing, all planned by their hosts before they arrived.

Atlanta proved to be a most interesting city with a great history. One of the places most interesting to them was the Cyclorama of the Battle of Atlanta, a battle fought in the Civil War. In the building is housed the locomotive, Texas, which was placed in service on the State railroad in 1856.

Stone Mountain, a great granite dome building 650 feet above the Piedmont Plateau, was awe inspiring as well as the marble mines of different colored marble.

On one trip they went to Rock City, atop Lookout Mountain, near Chattanooga, Tenn. From one point they were able to see seven different states. It was here they rode down the incline which is the steepest passenger incline in the world.

One of the most interesting places they went was to the Little White House at Warm Springs, Ga., Warm Springs Foundation for Polio treatment was founded in 1927 by the late president Franklin D. Roosevelt. It was called the Little White House because of the frequent visits made by the president until his death which followed a heart attack suffered here.

Mrs. Dooley was greatly impressed with the great Mississippi River which they crossed at Vicksburg. She says they saw lots of interesting things in Louisiana and the other southern states. Cutting and shocking sugar cane, collecting gum from pine trees to make turpentine, the tobacco fields, the old log cabins and the big live oak trees draped with Spanish moss will long be remembered, she said.

On their return home they stopped in Monroe, La., where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. E. C. McKenzie. They attended church on Wednesday night at the Church of Christ in Monroe where Mr. McKenzie is pastor. Mrs. Dooley suggests if you've never been down south you've missed a wonderful trip.

Mother-in-law jokes are in poor taste. They're apt to be dangerous, too, if she's with-in hearing.

There was a man who fancied by driving good and fast, He'd get across the railroad tracks Before the train came past. He'd miss the engine by an inch He'd make the train crew sore, There was a man who fancied this, But there isn't any more.

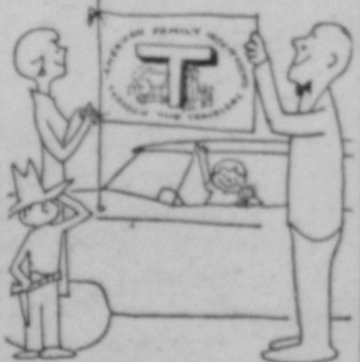

None of our customers are like the driver in this rhyme. They are careful drivers and careful too, in the care they give their cars. They use the Phillip "66" products exclusively. Why don't you?
