Paving In Residence Section Postponed Until Spring

After maturely reflecting upon the evils of having the streets torn up while paving is in progress during the bad weather usually attendant upon the winter months, and considering the dangers involved in the pouring of concrete at seasons when sudden freezes are apt to strike without warning bringing disastrous material losses, the City Commission and the paving contractor, L. H. Howard, have concluded that it will be much better to postpone the paving of the two residence streets, West Garza and South Tenth, until the worst of the winter is past, and have decided to follow this course, resuming construction sometime in March, 1927.

The paving of the streets in the business section is moving along toward completion, though bad weather has hindered considerably during the past few weeks. Practically all concrete has been laid, and brick work has been completed on all streets around the square as well as on several streets leading out from the square. Only a short time, if weather should be favorable, would be required to complete the gaps in the laying of brick here and there.

It is planned, also, to pave Lynn Street, two blocks between Ninth and Texas Avenue, before the present project is completed.

Slaton will have twenty or more blocks of finished paving in the business section before construction is temporarily halted. When the project in the residential area is finished next spring, the total will reach thirty-five or more blocks of paved streets.

Tahoka Is Defeated By Slaton Tigers 42 to 12

Another team is out of the way of the Tigers' onward march toward the district championship in Class B football. Tahoka suffered a decisive defeat at the hands of the Tigers at the local grounds last Friday afternoon. The score was 42 to 12.

The game was not in doubt from the very beginning. And after the Tiger first team had rolled up a good-sized score to their credit, Coach Gus Miller gave the husky little second team squad a chance at some valuable practice by allowing them to replace the first team against the visitors.

It was only during the time the Tiger second team was in the playing that Tahoka was able to score at all. Two touchdowns were made off them by the visitors, but in each case they failed to kick goal.

J. T. McMennamy, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McMennamy here, was injured during the game, suffering a broken arm and an injury to his shoulder. The Tigers are to face Spur high eleven on the grounds this afternoon, while the Kittens, the second team will clash with O'Donnell high.

Local Man's Father Is Buried At Vernon
A. Kercheval, father of W. E. Kercheval, of this city, died at his home in Vernon, Texas, Monday, Nov. 1, 1926, at 4:30 P. M. He was buried there at 4 P. M. Tuesday, Nov. 2. Mr. Kercheval reached his father's bedside shortly before his death.

Methodist Pastor Off to Conference

Rev. A. B. Davidson, pastor of the Methodist church, left Tuesday for the Northwest Texas Annual Methodist Conference which opened its session at Childress Wednesday, Nov. 10.

Bro. Davidson took a good report from the local church. All Conference assessments, about nine hundred dollars, and the pastor's and the presiding elder's salaries are paid in full.

The Church will make an unusually fine report for the Conference year. Ninety additions to the church were had during the past year.

Bro. Davidson and his wife came to the Slaton Methodists a year ago, being transferred here from Snyder. They have not only done a splendid work with the church here, but they have made hosts of friends in Slaton among all denominations. It is hoped and expected generally among Slaton people that Bro. Davidson will be returned here for the coming year.

Midnight Matinee Announced At Palace

Beginning at one minute after midnight, Sunday night, November 14, the Palace Theatre will show "The Midnight Flyer," a motion picture appropriate for a midnight matinee, according to Manager Smith.

Copied from The Slatonite 13 Years Ago

The following items are copied from the Slatonite of thirteen years ago. Many of our old timers here may be able to recall things mentioned here from week to week, and doubtless it will be very interesting to them, as well as to others who will be glad to learn something of the early history of Slaton:

The last rail was laid last Saturday on the Clovis-Slaton division of the Santa Fe. Train service is expected to be established soon, though no schedule has yet been announced.

Two literary societies have been organized in the school here, one for girls and one for boys. The girls' society is directed by Misses Dickerman and Robertson. Hattie Joplin is president. Prof. Faulkner has charge of the boys' society. Burl Guinn is the president and Charlie Whalen is the secretary.

A Parent-Teacher association has been formed here with Mrs. Joe Smith as president, and Mrs. S. H. Adams as secretary. Meetings are held twice each month.

The Santa Fe Educational special train is to be here on Friday, Nov. 21. All persons interested in the development of this section are urged to be present and hear the lectures that will be given by men who are specialists in the various lines of agriculture which they are to discuss.

E. H. Petty, manager of the Houston Lumber Co., has been transferred to Canadian, Texas, and E. R. Martin, of Ashland, Kans., has succeeded him as local manager.

Chris. Jacobsen, Santa Fe man, has been transferred to Canadian, and states that he hates very much having to leave Slaton.

Mrs. W. E. Olive and Mrs. W. H. Proctor are visiting relatives in Post City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Drury have moved to Slaton from Bells, Texas.

Col. A. B. Robertson is in Ft. Worth on business.

J. S. Edwards is out of the city on a business trip.

Mrs. J. M. Simmons is in Shamrock where she will visit relatives until Christmas.

Clyde Pogue has returned to Slaton and is again holding down his job with the Santa Fe.

J. W. Kokernot shipped eight carloads of cattle to the eastern markets this week.

The Methodist and Baptist churches report a splendid year, each having paid all financial obligations and having had good increases in membership.

The school teachers have established a tennis court on the lawn just south of the Baptist church.

HOME TOWN OPPORTUNITIES

Traffic Officer Is Employed By City

Following the opening of several blocks of completed street paving in the business section of Slaton, new traffic problems have arisen before city officials. Speeding, wrong turns and wrong parking are daily occurrences among numerous drivers of vehicles.

To meet the new conditions, the City Commission has employed a motorcycle traffic officer to enforce traffic regulations. J. E. Rickles is the name of the new officer, and he is now on duty regularly.

Those who do not know what the traffic regulations are would probably do well to inform themselves, it is pointed out by various citizens, and those who do know the regulations should be very careful to observe them. It is the intention of the City government to see that the lives of the people are not endangered by reckless and careless handling of vehicles on the streets, and it is hoped that motorists will rapidly form the habits in keeping with safe and sane driving of cars on the city's thoroughfares.

THE COMMUNITY SINGERS.

A very enjoyable song service was had at our last meeting. There were several singers from Posey and Union and the social getting-acquainted feature was enjoyed with the singing.

The social feature is where these community singings has the advantage over the music machines, radios or even the dummy concerts where everything runs by prearranged program. The most of us prefer to see the singers face to face and hear them in heart-to-heart talk.

The purposes of these singings are for social pastime, song practice, and praise service. It was meant for every singing organization in the community to co-operate with it and from it to the County Community Singing Convention.

Next Sunday, 2:30 P. M., at City Hall, is our next singing date and everybody is invited to attend. If any singing class, choir, Glee Club or Choral Club will come and sing with us or render a special of its own it will be greatly appreciated. If any have instruments they can play for singing we would be glad to have them join us.

Lets all rally out to singing next Sunday and bring our song books, especially the new "Golden Harps".

W. P. FLORENCE, Chairman.

Mrs. J. L. Burton and baby daughter, Louise, of Bells, Texas, are visiting Mrs. Burton's mother, Mrs. Joe Dobson.

The distant city with its towering buildings and profuses of gay life is often an irresistible lure in the eyes of youth, seeking opportunity and excitement. True, the big city has its charm and magnificence, but these are not to be found readily by the young man or woman who goes there in search of a job.

Better opportunities are to be found here in Slaton where there is a greater and increasing demand for those who have vision and ability. The big city is full of fortune-hunters, yet only a limited number can win out in the great struggle. Those who fail often lose heavily.

The best advice that can be given the young people is to stick to the home town and reap the rewards of faithful service to it. They should remember that success is not a matter of geography. To be successful in Slaton is to be accepted as a success everywhere.

Pastor for Baptist Church Named Sunday

Following the refusal of Rev. Ross A. Smith, of Lamesa, to accept the call issued to him several weeks ago to become pastor of the Baptist church in Slaton, a second call was made by the congregation when they voted unanimously last Sunday morning to extend a call to Rev. B. G. Holloway, of Belton, Texas.

Rev. Holloway has been notified of his election, and has replied that he and his wife will be here next Sunday for both morning and evening services. At the evening hour he will announce his decision as to his acceptance or rejection of the call. It is believed by local Baptists that he will accept, and the membership of the church is anxious that he will do so.

Install Meat Market At "M" System Store

Announcement is made this week of the installation of a new meat market in the "M" System Grocery Store on West Garza Street, just west of the First State Bank. J. K. Powell, formerly of Snyder, Texas, is the owner of the new market, and J. T. Martindale, of this city, is the manager. Mr. Powell has moved to Slaton and Mr. Martindale, already a resident here, is well known to Slaton people, he having formerly been connected with the same kind of business here.

Mr. Swint, proprietor of the "M" System, states that he is very glad to have the new market located with him in his store, and that he can now offer to his grocery customers a service that will provide everything the housewife needs for the table.

Stores Close Celebrating Armistice Day

Most of the business houses in Slaton closed their doors today at 10 A. M. in observance of Armistice Day. This arrangement was made by agreement on Wednesday when a petition was circulated asking that the day be honored by ceasing, wherever possible, all regular business activities. The dry goods establishments are to remain closed all day, while some other stores are to re-open their doors at 5 P. M. where it is considered absolutely necessary.

Many of the store owners and employees are taking advantage of a few hours of recreation in various forms while they have the opportunity today. By far the larger number of them will probably attend the double-header football game to be staged this afternoon at Tiger Park between Slaton Kittens and O'Donnell High, and Slaton Tigers and Spur High. The first game starts at 2 P. M. and the second at 3:30 P. M.

Masons Hold Formal Opening of New Temple

About 225 people, Masons and their families attended the formal opening of the newly remodeled Masonic Temple, which was held in that beautiful edifice on Wednesday evening. A short dedicatory program was rendered, followed by a social hour during which time the ladies of the Eastern Star served a turkey supper to all guests.

The program was as follows: Opening Prayer—L. A. Wilson. Song, America.

Piano duet, Misses Grace Bailey and Jeannette Ramsey.

Vocal duet, Mrs. I. K. Parker and Miss Grace McAtee.

Address, Practical Application of Masonry—Rev. J. W. Willbanks.

Violin solo, Miss Frances Guffin, accompanied by Miss Ramsey.

The meeting was then turned into an informal social occasion, and the feast of good things to eat served by the Eastern Star ladies brought forth many complimentary phrases from those who were in attendance.

The Masons are justly proud of their present home, which presents a completely transformed appearance after the expenditure of about $10,000 in remodeling and improving it in many ways. The value of the kitchen and dining room features that have been added were thoroughly demonstrated in Wednesday night's formal opening. Other features, such as the library or club room, and the new opera chairs, etc., are fully appreciated by the lodge's membership.

Work in the Master's degree is to be done by the lodge in tonight's session at which many out-of-town visitors are to be present.

Slaton Schools Give Armistice Parade and Program

More than one thousand pupils from the public schools of Slaton assembled Thursday morning for a parade to the City Hall lawn where a short program was observed in celebration of Armistice Day. The school children were accompanied by the teachers, all carrying flags and wearing head banners of patriotic design. They marched in columns of four, led by the Slaton Band playing patriotic airs as they rode on a large float furnished by C. D. Yeats. Mr. Yeats was dressed in his flashing uniform familiar to all who have seen previous band parades and celebrations here.

A number of the business men joined the parade before it reached the business section, and marched with the children to the square, carrying their flags usually seen floating in front of their places of business on national holidays. The parade was more than two blocks in length and presented a beautiful sight to the on-

To Elect Officers At Meeting Nov. 23

At the regular meeting of the Board of Directors of the Slaton Chamber of Commerce held Tuesday evening, Nov. 9, plans were made and the date was set for holding the Chamber of Commerce annual banquet on Tuesday, Nov. 23, at 8 P. M.

At that time, seven new members are to be named to serve on the Board of Directors to replace those whose terms will expire. Eight members will retain their places on the directorate for another year. These are: M. W. Uzzell, J. A. Elliott, A. J. Payne, J. W. Hood, Alex DeLong, F. H. Lanham, Jess Swint and Fred B. Tudor. Those whose terms expire are: W. B. Hestand, S. E. Staggs, J. T. Overby, W. H. McKirahan, Charlie W. Taylor, and W. H. Smith. One new director is to be named to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of H. G. Stokes to Abilene.

It is hoped that a large attendance of Slaton people will be present at the banquet. President W. H. Smith has predicted the largest attendance the organization has ever had on such an occasion, and plans will be made to care for an unprecedented number.

A committee composed of A. J. Payne, J. T. Overby, W. B. Hestand and L. A. Wilson was chosen to make complete arrangements for the banquet. Another committee, S. E. Staggs, Jess Swint, M. W. Uzzell and L. A. Wilson, was named to distribute tickets to the banquet, and these will be available immediately.

J. T. Overby, W. H. McKirahan and the Chamber of Commerce secretary were appointed to begin working at once on a budget for the new year, and to get this in form for ratification by the membership. The Board of Directors were enthusiastic in instructing this committee that the work ahead of the organization during the next year will demand planning for an extensive program, one that will challenge the membership to the greatest activity in behalf of Slaton and the surrounding territory that the organization has ever attempted.

A. C. C. Bunch Parade Here On Way to Tech

A football delegation from Abilene Christian College, Abilene, stopped off in Slaton shortly after 11 A. M. today as they were enroute via train to Lubbock where they are to meet the Tech Matadors in a football contest at 3 P. M. The delegation marched down Texas Avenue from the railway station, headed by the college band, and spent a few minutes in the business section of the city just following the close of the high school parade and program that had been staged by students of the local schools.

R. J. Allen, of Dallas, has accepted a position on The Slatonite force as linotype machinist-operator. Mr. Allen expects to have his family join him within the next few days. They are now visiting relatives in Granger.

lookers who lined the streets around the square.

When the crowd of children, teachers and citizens had assembled on the City Hall lawn, immediately around the band stand, Supt. C. L. Sone made an introductory talk stating that the celebration was being held to instill into the boys and girls a greater patriotism and a deeper love for their country. The band then rendered another selection which was followed by the audience singing "America." Rev. J. W. Willbanks, pastor of the Presbyterian church, delivered a fifteen minute address on "Patriotism", which was greatly enjoyed by everybody.

At exactly eleven o'clock, the time when the Armistice was signed on Nov. 11, eight years ago, the fire siren on top of the City Hall broke loose for two minutes, during which time all had been asked to bow their heads in reverent memory of those who had sacrificed for Our Country in the World War, and in silent prayer for the future of America as she goes forward championing the cause of liberty and freedom.

Belton Man Guest Of Baptists Sunday

Rev. B. G. Holloway, of Belton, preached at the Baptist church here Sunday morning and Sunday night. He had been invited by the pulpit committee of the church to be here at those hours, and he was heard by a large audience at each service.

Rev. Holloway has recently been serving as Enlistment Secretary for Baylor College, Belton, a Baptist institution of higher learning. He bears

KNOW TEXAS

According to the latest census the average Texas family contained 4.6 persons compared with 4.3 for the whole country.

The value of school buildings in Texas is in excess of ninety million dollars.

Texas stands thirty-fifth among the states in density of population, with 17.8 people to the square mile.

If Texas were as densely populated as Rhode Island there would be more than one hundred and fifty million people living in Texas.

In 1895 the telephones for the entire State of Texas were listed in only one directory, which consisted of 158 pages. Today a book listing all the telephones in Texas, if printed in like form, would contain 6,672 pages and would be fifteen inches thick.

Seventy per cent of the world's sulphur is produced in Texas.

Texas has more than 20,000 oil wells in 75 counties, producing in excess of half a million barrels of petroleum a day.

Texas natural gas fields have potential capacity of 38 billion cubic feet of which 154,000,000 cubic feet a day is being used.

Generally speaking, mankind is divided into two camps. One says it is what you get that counts, and the other says it is the manner of your getting it that counts.

Common sense is gradually conquering. It is now decreed that the disgraceful, unsanitary tenements in New York and other large cities, housing 650 people to the acre, must go. It is all founded upon the simple proposition that from good homes come good citizens, and from bad homes come bad citizens.

Politics will continue to come high until the price of cigars comes down. A good three-for-a-nickel-cigar would make office holding available to a great many worthy and competent gentlemen who otherwise cannot afford the pastime of running for office.

It is now discovered that some kinds of bread contain nearly two percent of alcohol, which will probably result in a law classifying bakers as bootleggers, and their customers as "transporters" of the forbidden beverage. ARMISTICE DAY, NOV. 11.

EIGHT YEARS ago today! What rejoicing took place when the news was flashed 'round the world that fighting had ceased and that peace terms would be arranged, bringing to an end that terrible conflict—the World War! It meant the return home of "our boys" who had gone "over there" to fight for those principles we recognized as the birthright of every living mortal.

With the passing of the years, there has come to us a realization of the truer meaning of the sacrifices made by our finest manhood as they fought for us and for future generations.

Let us on this day bow our heads in silent tribute to the memory of those who made the Great Sacrifice, be thankful in our hearts for the blessings we enjoy in a land of peace and freedom, and pledge anew to Our Country our unflinching devotion to all that has made her a great nation and that shall, let us pray, preserve her as the guardian of the liberties of our great people.

Someone once upon a time announced that he who is dishonest in financial matters is crooked also in other ways. We have never yet found an exception to this rule, and dishonesty, just plain financial dishonesty, is the most prevalent sin in the world today.

EXCHANGE SHOTS

THEY'RE COMING WEST

Our Chamber of Commerce is the greatest factor in building our city. Letters of inquiry are arriving daily. They are coming from everywhere. They are asking for information of the oil prospects and conditions in general. The better class are asking about the suitability of Miami as a place to make a home and rear a family. They are making inquiry about our schools, our churches, the citizenship, etc.—Miami Chief.

Folks are still coming west. It has always been so, and it is more pronounced now than ever before. People have moved constantly westward since the establishment of the thirteen colonies on the Atlantic coast. A town's Chamber of Commerce is a great aid toward helping the new people get satisfactorily located and in making of the town a better place in which to live after the folks are settled there. In fact, there's hardly any limit to what a good Chamber of Commerce organization can do for a town. It deserves the backing of all the citizens.

BOOTLEG WHISKEY AND THE SKIN

"Bootleg whiskey is ruining the skin of the American girl." This is the warning issued by Dr. Charles F. Pabst, of Greenport Hospital, Brooklyn, New York, in the current issue of The Literay Digest. Dr. Pabst calls attention to the ruinous substance evident in bootleg whiskey. He says in part:

"The festive flask is too much in evidence at social gatherings of the young, and bootleg whiskey is ruining the skin of the American girl. Even if whiskey is made from the purest substance, it contains fusel oil and other poisonous by-products which are only eliminated by years of evaporation and aging. Almost all the whiskey sold illegally contains fusel oil and other poisons which are particularly irritating to the skin, and induce seven types of acne and eczema. These diseases attack the face and often leave permanent scars which give the skin a dried and wrinkled appearance. After continued onslaughts of liquor the kidneys become irritated and the eyelids become swollen and puffy. The nose and cheeks eventually become flushed, then permanently red, and the ensemble is a picture sad to contemplate."

This warning is not a sermon, neither is it a lecture. It is nothing more than cold facts from a practical and interested doctor. It should be sufficient to make the younger generation sit up and take notice.—Amarillo Globe.

And many parents who have read this warning, and who have daughters, think it doesn't apply to them and their daughters at all. That's one cause for it's being applicable to their daughters—the parents don't keep a very vigilant watch over what the daughters are doing.

SOMEBODY SAID

Somebody said it's just forty-five more days until Christmas. Better do your shopping early.

Somebody said most men's failures can be properly blamed upon themselves only.

Somebody said it may be a sign of old age when a man begins wondering if the younger generation is "going to the dogs."

Somebody said it pays to be cautious in dealing with the fellow who talks a lot until you get better acquainted with him.

Somebody said Slaton people will do well to form the habit of observing proper speed laws on the pavement NOW. A little later might be too late—to escape paying a penalty.

Somebody said every man gets just what he deserves, but in the judgment of most of us about ourselves that statement doesn't prove true. Probably it is because we are too "puffed up." But, just the same there's a question mark in our mind right now about the real truth of the assertion. We don't believe every man gets what he deserves, in every instance.

Somebody said if a man doesn't have the habit of paying the preacher, he always has a habit of spending some money other ways that injures him and does not help the community. The chances are that the habit of paying the preacher is one of the best habits a man can have. In fact, it's a fact.

Somebody said the average man has no higher ambition than merely to pay expenses. And, by the way, it seems to us that that's a pretty good ambition—if it can be realized.

Somebody said if cotton goods were as popular as the different forms of tobacco, cotton prices would very likely be considerably higher.

Somebody said the American people spend more money for tobacco than for education. Guess we better throw down this old cheroot butt.

Somebody said the main reason people quarrel with each other is that every fellow wants to have his own way.

Somebody said some men's wives can't appreciate jokes very well because they have to cook for them three times a day.

The Slatonite is a believer in Slaton, and Slaton believes in the Slatonite.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

(By Edson R. Waite, Secretary, Shawnee, Okla., Board of Commerce.)

THAT if your newspapers went out of business your city would soon be known as a city of the dead.

THAT it would grow backward so fast that in a short while your streets would be a good grazing place for cattle, and the only traffic you would have would be the people who were moving away or those passing through from one live city to another.

THAT newspapers are modern builders of business.

THAT they are builders of cities as well.

THAT as they progress so will the home city progress.

THAT it is money in your pocket to see them grow, for the better they are the better your city will be.

WHAT YOU WANT IS A LIVE CITY TO LIVE IN, NOT A DEAD

Tablet Commemorates First Ford Car

Standing on the site of his home in the late nineties, where as a boy he played while his father experimented with an internal combustion motor mounted on bicycle wheels, Mr. Edsel B. Ford, September 28, unveiled a bronze tablet to mark the site where the first Ford car was built.

The tablet is the eighteenth of a series of 20 presented to Detroit by the J. L. Hudson Company, which company, in connection with the Detroit Historical Society, is marking various points of historical significance within the city. It is placed on the wall of the new Michigan theatre near the corner of Bagley and Cass avenues. The inscription reads:

This tablet marks the site of the birthplace of the Ford Motor car. Henry Ford began experimenting with the automobile in a small workshop located here, in the early nineties. In 1894 he produced his first car—a two-cylinder machine, mounted on a light chassis, geared to rubber-tired bicycle wheels.

In the year 1926 the Ford Motor Company produced its fourteenth millionth motor.

Presented to the City of Detroit in the month of September, 1926.

Upon a platform erected against the wall of the theatre the ceremony of unveiling the tablet was enacted. Mr. McPerson Browning, introduced Mr. Roy D. Chapin.

Mr. Chapin, speaking through a microphone to the four hundred persons who had gathered before the facade of the theatre, told simply of his recollections of the early automotive industry in Detroit, and of Henry Ford.

"One wintry day," said Mr. Chapin, reminiscing of an incident not generally known, "an engineer of the Oldsmobile organization and myself proceeded up Cass Avenue in a small curved-dash Oldsmobile to the plant of the Wilson Body Company, which was engaged in making Oldsmobile bodies. While returning, a spring on the steering apparatus of the car broke, something that happened about once a week in those days. We lifted the car and turned it end for end in the middle of the street, and by repeatedly kicking the wheels to maintain a forward direction we progressed back up the street to a place where, my companion said the ailing spring could be fixed. A man came out, a quiet, kindly voiced man; he inspected the spring and called an assistant who removed the spring and carried it within a small building adjacent to the Wilson plant. The man repaired it himself. That man was Henry Ford."

Following the remarks of Mr. Chapin, Mr. Browning introduced Mr. Edsel B. Ford, president of the Ford Motor Company. Mr. Ford declared he had a vivid recollection of the old days at the old home.

"I remember well that I played here on Bagley Ave., mostly in the middle of it. Occasionally a horse and buggy went by. It was not crowded then as it is now with automobiles. I remember the day Mayor Maybury came into the shop to see the new automobile. He spoke kindly to me as he passed through the house. . . I am naturally delighted to assist personally in the unveiling of this tablet, and appreciate the work of the historical society in making it possible."

Thirty-two years ago Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ford moved to 58 Bagley Ave., where Mr. Edsel B. Ford was born. Mr. Ford occupied the position of chief Stamford—Manager—Homer D. Wade of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce has written to various chambers of commerce in West Texas and has appealed to federal and state authorities to resist flagrant violations reported against rules and regulations of the Livestock Sanitary Board in regard to movement of hogs. Reports have come to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce office here telling of this new form of "bootlegging" in which hogs are imported from border towns of Oklahoma and New Mexico and introduced to Texas farms without dipping, vaccination, inspection and proper certification required to be done under the supervision of the Livestock Sanitary Board. Infractions of these regulations will be resisted to the extent of serving injunctions against hog importations made in violation of regulations.

Decatur—More dairy and poultry produce of this place will be handled by Dallas consumers upon construction of the Northwest Highway from Dallas to Rome, according to word of John Boswell, executive manager of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce development bureau who visited here recently.

BARTON TO HEAD BAPTIST PROGRAM

Missourian Will Lead Effort to Increase Mission and Benevolent Budget

CHURCHES GIVE TOO LITTLE

Survey Reveals Low Standards Maintained by Many—Plans Are Laid For Improvement in 1927

To lead Southern Baptists in greatly increasing their budget for the support of missions, Christian education and benevolences, Dr. A. J. Barton of Kansas City, superintendent of Baptist work in Missouri for the past three years, and one of the most prominent men in the denomination, has accepted the position of general director of the Baptist Co-operative Program, and will move to Nashville, Tenn., to assume his new duties at once.

Southern Baptists are seeking to raise $9,000,000 for the Co-operative Program during this convention year and Dr. Barton will seek to enlist the aid of every agency and church of the Southern Baptist Convention in the accomplishment of this task.

Has Served Denomination

To his new position Dr. Barton brings a wide denominational and public experience. He has held prominent pastorates in the South and has served as associate secretary of the Foreign Mission Board, field secretary of the Home Mission Board, general secretary of the Arkansas State Mission Board, and secretary of the Texas Baptist Education Commission prior to taking up his work in Missouri. He has also long been prominent in the cause of temperance. For sixteen years he has been

DR. A. J. BARTON
New General Director Baptist Co-operative Program

member of the executive and legislative committees of the Anti-Saloon League of America, and during his incumbency as superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Texas he saw prohibition written into the constitution of that state.

Bringing the Baptist churches of the South to a higher standard in giving to the missionary, educational and benevolent program of the denomination, known as the Co-operative Program, will be the first and chief task to which the new general director will address himself.

According to a recent survey of the record of the Baptist churches of the South, compiled from the letters of the individual churches to their district associations for 1925, made by Dr. E. P. Alldredge, statistical secretary of Southern Baptists, 5,927 churches listed as co-operating with the Southern Baptist Convention, gave nothing to missions and benevolences last year. Other interesting information gleaned from this survey reveals that 12,319 other churches, or slightly more than one-half of the total number of churches, retained from 75 to 99 cents out of every dollar coming into their treasuries for purely local work; 1,665 churches applied from 47 to 75 cents, and 1,565 churches from 51 to 66 cents out of every dollar contributed to their own local work; whereas, only 501 churches in all the South gave 30 cents or more out of every dollar coming into their treasuries to missions and benevolences beyond the borders of their own communities.

The Southern Baptist Convention has established an ideal of a fifty-fifty distribution in that it is recommending to the churches that they endeavor to give half of all the money raised by them to the general work of the denomination, retaining the other half for their own local expenses.

Included in the plans of the Co-operative Program is an every-member canvass this fall in every Baptist church with a view to enlisting every member in making a subscription to missions and benevolences.

Another effort is that of enlisting at least 500,000 Southern Baptists as titheers, or giving one-tenth of their incomes to religious work through their churches. In this connection the number of titheers which each state in the Southern Baptist Convention will undertake to enlist is given as follows: Alabama, 37,850; Arkansas, 21,260; District of Columbia, 2,000; Florida, 13,656; Georgia, 55,350; Illinois, 8,700; Kentucky, 42,980; Louisiana, 16,800; Maryland, 21,480; Mississippi, 36,000; Missouri, 21,400; New Mexico, 1,500; North Carolina, 50,000; Oklahoma, 17,000; South Carolina, 29,500; Tennessee, 37,500; Texas, 12,400, and Virginia, 20,000.

A SALE IN 1849.

Mrs. Etta Macrae.

Below is an account of a sale which took place near Versailles, Kentucky, in 1849. It was taken by my grandfather (then a young man) from the Live Stock Reporter, a primitive paper of that day.

He gave the paper to a daughter, who gave it to me when a very young girl. Many people were leaving for Oregon Territory about that time, and all the sales, I have heard that Grandfather said, were large and of plentiful amount. This sale reads as follows:

"Having sold my farm and am leaving by ox team for Oregon Territory on March 1, 1849, I will sell all my personal property except two ox teams, Buck and Ben, and Lon and Jerry. The property consists of the following: Two milk cows, 1 grey mare and colt, 1 pair of oxen, 1 yoke, 1 baby yoke, 2 ox carts, 1 iron plow with wood mole board, 800 feet of poplar weather boards, 1,000 feet three-foot clapboards, 1,500 ten-foot fence rails, 1 60-gallon soap kettle, 85 sugar troughs made of white ash timber, 10 gallons maple syrup, 2 spinning wheels, 30 pounds mutton tallow, 1 large loom made by Jerry Wilson, 100 split hoops, 100 empty barrels, 1 32-gallon barrel of Johnson-Miller whisky seven years old, 20 gallons apple brandy, 1 40-gallon copper still, 4 sides of oak-tanned leather, 1 dozen wooden pitchforks, a one-half interest in the tan yard, 1 32-caliber rifle, bullet molds and powder horn, a rifle made by Ben Miller, 50 gallons of soft soap, hams, bacon and lard, 40 gallons of sorghum molasses, 6 head of fox hounds, all soft-mouthed but one.

"At the same time I will sell my negro slaves—two men, 35 and 50 years old, two boys, 12 and 18 years old, two mulatto wenches, 40 and 30 years old. Will sell all together to same party as I will not separate them.

"Terms of Sale—Cash in hand or note to draw 4 per cent interest, with Bob McConnell security. My home is Graham—The chamber of commerce of this city recently sponsored the building of a new road on Slater Hill about six miles north of here, raising over $250 to apply to its improvement.

"Who's Who In Lubbock County?"

You know something of your own history, but what do you know about your neighbors?

What do you know about our county's history—its achievements and its citizenship?

Don't you imagine that a book which would tell you these things would be vitally interesting?

Citizens of other counties have found this undertaking a very interesting one. They find such a book and the facts it contains an invaluable volume for home and office.

For what could possess greater interest than the facts concerning the people who go to make up this great county?

Work at compiling this intensely human document will begin at once

It will be printed and sponsored by The Slaton Slatonite.

Young ladies in the employ of The Slaton Slatonite will begin to call on the citizens in the towns and in the country throughout Lubbock county, for the purpose of securing the necessary information on which to base this publication. Your assistance is requested in assisting them to secure accurate data, so that the volume will reflect the truth about Lubbock county.

Latest Announced Line Has Many Advantages

Introduction by Chrysler of the new 18 inch base wheels on the new, finer Chrysler "70", recently announced, has caused unusual comment in automobile circles because of the many advantages of this wheel over the ordinary type.

There are eight important features of this new small wheel which was developed by Chrysler engineers. With its use are noted increased lowness

Rotary Principles Form Subject for Program

Prof. Lem Sone, Superintendent of the Slaton Public Schools, and Chairman of the Education Committee in the Slaton Rotary Club, had charge of the program at the regular weekly luncheon of the Slaton Rotarians last Friday noon. The time was spent in a consideration of the six objects of Rotary and the eleven articles in the Rotary Code of Ethics.

Those called upon by the leader to take various parts on the program were: Frank Lanham, Ben Smith, Lee Tudor, Joe Rogers, Floyd Rector, M. W. Uzzell, Joe Teague, Jr., Abe Kessel, John Hood, Claude Anderson, R. A. Baldwin, Jim Elliott and Alex of the car, accentuation of long lines, 10 per cent increased braking efficiency, larger balloon tires, one piece rim and perfected wheel balance, greater road stability, a lower center of gravity with road clearance above the average, greater ability to withstand road shocks and side thrusts, and easier tire changing.

Braking efficiency is increased because the same oversize brake drum as formerly used is employed with the new smaller wheels thereby increasing tenacity of the braking effect.

The new finer Chrysler "70" includes 6 inch balloon tires as standard equipment. These larger balloon tires clearly improve the appearance of the new car and at the same time improve its fine riding qualities by providing a larger cushion of air. In addition, the bulk of the car weight is placed much lower, permitting the car to hug the ground closer than one with larger wheels. This latter feature is important in handling the car at high speeds or over rough and high-crowned roads.

Chrysler owners will welcome the new small wheel with its one piece rim because of its easier tire change, and stronger and more rigid construction. The new wheel affords a larger tire seat, reducing tire wearing.

Probably no other feature of the new, finer Chrysler "70", with the exception of appearance, has been the subject of more comment than the new low wheels. They have met with immediate popular favor wherever the car has been shown.

Can You Remember?

Rudolph Valentino's newest film, "The Son of the Sheik" which is to be shown at the Palace Theatre Friday and Saturday, Nov. 12 and 13, recalls "The Sheik," in which he became famous several years ago.

Can you remember? The year when Rudy made records as "The Sheik," Babe Ruth made a record of 59 home runs.

There was talk of a Disarmament Conference. Warren G. Harding was President of the United States.

The year when Rudy first crossed the hot sands motion picture theatres began to install cooling plants.

Agnes Ayres was the haughty English girl in "The Sheik"; she plays flash-backs in "The Son of the Sheik."

Adolph Menjou was getting started as the French novelist in "The Sheik."

Awning manufacturers began to patronize movies.

Nervous hot flashes

"SOME time ago when in a very nervous, run-down condition," says Mrs. Martha F. Marlow, of Broken Bow, Okla., "I tried numerous remedies to try at least to keep going, but I could not. I was weak and tired—just no good at all. My back ached and I had hot flashes until I was so very nervous I smothered."

"I couldn't sleep and I was never hungry, and I kept getting weaker. I couldn't stand on my feet. This was an unusual condition for me as I had been pretty strong all along. I knew that I would have to do something, and that pretty soon."

"Some friend suggested that I take Cardui, and it certainly was a good suggestion, for after taking one bottle I could tell I was stronger and better. I didn't quit. I kept it up all through the change and did fine. I felt like a different person after I began taking Cardui."

Cardui has helped thousands of suffering women.

No Training Routine For Mary Pickford

Mary Pickford's picture work keeps her in training. The petite star whose newest United Artists Corporation release "Sparrows" comes to the Palace Theatre Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 17 and 18, has no need of setting the exercises, rolling on the floor or other means of keeping in trim.

During the making of "Sparrows" Miss Pickford was at the studio from early morning until late at night each day. She worked harder than anyone on the set, while the picture was in production.

In one sequence she ran up and down a ladder, on her bare feet, carrying a baby that weighed thirty pounds. Several hours of this provided enough exercise for anyone in a single day.

At another point in the story she boosted a boy that weighed eighty pounds up the ladder.

In her escape across the swamp she carried the same baby that she transported up and down the ladder, making her way through muck and mud, often knee deep with this burden on her shoulders.

"I have no difficulty in keeping thin" Miss Pickford explained. "I do not have to diet nor take special exercises. A daily routine of work before the camera followed by a steam bath and I'm in no need of any special exercises."

"But it's fun and I enjoy every minute of it."

Flanigan, the skinny horse that got so fat in "Little niee Rooney" he worked himself out of a job, was put to work hauling a plow before Mary Pickford started her latest picture "Sparrows." Flanigan worked off the surplus flesh and was given a part as a skinny horse in "Sparrows."

To Improve Service On Chevrolet Parts

The Chevrolet Motor Company is spending $1,500,000 on the installation of a radically new system of replacement parts distribution which executives declare will assure uniformly prompt service for every Chevrolet owner in the United States.

The plan, involving the establishment of six new major supply depots throughout the country, has been worked out by president W. S. Knudsen and J. P. Little, manager of the parts and service division. In a service way it supplements the greater production capacity which will be available after completion of the $10,000,000 Chevrolet factory expansion program.

The new supply depots, in which will be stored reserve parts stocks, are to be located at the following points: Oakland, Calif., Janesville, Wis., Cincinnati, O., Buffalo, N. Y., St. Louis, Mo., and Tarrytown, N. Y. All of the depots except those at Tarrytown and Oakland will be new, especially-designed buildings of brick and reinforced steel concrete. The existing parts stations at Oakland and Tarrytown will be enlarged and refitted to meet the heavy demands that will be made upon them under the new system. The entire facilities of the central parts warehouse at Flint, which heretofore has been the central shipping point, will be retained. The ground already has been broken for the four new buildings, and all of the major supply depots will be ready for operation by January 31.

The new depots will serve as safety valves, smoothing out the peaks and valleys of demands made by the parts department on production plants and service stations. They will perform a two-fold function: First, expedite the delivery of parts; second, create a reservoir that will permit of uniform production of parts, regardless of seasonal variations in demand.

Under the new plan the major supply depots will, in effect, create huge concentrations of parts stocks connecting the Chevrolet factories and the entire service organization. They will assure car owners far better and more efficient service through the constant maintenance of adequate stocks throughout the country. Parts will be shipped in straight carload lots from the factories to the supply depots.

The establishment of the major supply zones, outlined above, does not constitute the entire parts distribution program of the Chevrolet Motor company. In addition to the concentration points previously mentioned, the company already has in operation eleven other parts warehouses which will continue in operation and be added to as necessity arises. The eleven other parts warehouses are located at Boston, Pittsburg, Baltimore, Charlotte, Atlanta, Jacksonville, Dallas, Oklahoma City, Minneapolis, Denver and Portland. These warehouses will receive their entire shipments of parts in carload lots from the nearest major supply depot guaranteeing faster service to the dealer and owner.

The new buildings are of uniform, monitor type construction, and will be

Best Selling Novel to Come to Palace as Film

Book-lovers and the hundreds of Slaton readers of Edith M. Hull's novel, "Son of the Sheik," will be interested in Manager Smith's announcement that Rudolph Valentino in the screen adaptation, "The Son of the Sheik," is to come to The Palace Theatre Friday and Saturday, Nov. 12 and 13.

It was Mrs. Edith M. Hull who wrote the best-selling novel, "The Sheik," which Valentino made into a sensationally successful film several years ago, and in "The Son of the Sheik," a sequel to "The Sheik," he is said to excel the former performance. Agnes Ayres, who was the lovely lady of "The Sheik," returned to the screen especially to play in "The Son of the Sheik" with Valentino. The motion picture adaptation of the E. M. Hull novel was written by Frances Marion, veteran scenarist, who was responsible for the scenario of "Stella Dallas."

Vilma Banky, exotic Hungarian beauty, plays the part of Yasmin, dancing girl of the desert, whose actions are misunderstood by the man whom she loves. In the characterizations of the fiery youth who tries to break the will of the girl he thinks a deceiver, and the dancer, as well as in the retention of the stormy spirit of the desert tale, it is understood the film is made along the lines of the book so that readers should find thrilling entertainment at the Palace Theatre when "The Son of the Sheik" brings Valentino to town.
