TWENTY-THREE ATTEND SECOND CHAMBER OF COMMERCE FEAST

Publicity Committee in Charge of Program at Bon Ton Cafe Tuesday Evening.

Twenty-three people attended the second monthly luncheon (or dinner) of the local Chamber of Commerce, staged Tuesday evening at the Bon Ton Cafe at 8 o'clock. The program was in charge of the Chamber of Commerce Publicity Committee, headed by A. J. Payne, committee chairman.

The attendance was slightly better than at the first luncheon held March 8. Each of the Chamber of Commerce Directors had invited one guest from the membership list of the organization. Thirteen of the Directors were present, as follows:

J. W. Hood, S. E. Staggs, F. H. Lanham, C. F. Anderson, Jess Swint, P. G. Stokes, W. B. Hestand, M. W. Uzzell, W. H. Smith, Fred B. Tudor, A. J. Payne, J. A. Elliott, and J. T. Overby. Nine guests attended: Dr. J. W. Phillips, W. L. Jones, T. Williams, Dr. E. C. Foster, F. A. Dreyer, Earl F. King, H. G. Sanders, W. E. Olive, S. L. Miller, and the secretary, L. A. Wilson, was the twenty-third person attending.

The menu served by the Bon Ton, was: Creamed tomato soup, breaded veal cutlets with cream gravy, baked sugar corn with bacon, creamed potatoes, fresh sliced tomatoes, hot rolls, iced tea and cherry pie. The directors, as is the custom at these luncheons, paid the expense of it individually, instead of paying it from the organization treasury.

At the conclusion of the meal, J. W. Hood, Chamber of Commerce president, spoke briefly, stating the appreciation felt by the directors for the attendance of the guests.

A. J. Payne was then introduced as chairman of the Publicity Committee and he called upon S. E. Staggs, a member of that committee, to speak on the subject: "The value of publicity through the daily press and the local newspaper." He hit the heart of the question in a snappy talk which was enjoyed by everyone.

In the absence of Alex DeLong, another member of the committee, W. H. Smith was called on as a "pinch hitter" to discuss, "How may I, as a citizen, be a good booster for my town?" He showed how, in many ways, each Slaton resident can be useful in giving the town the right sort of publicity, making and leaving on the outsider the best impression possible.

R. W. Collier, Jr., also a committee member, was not able to attend. His subject as assigned but not discussed was: "Printed literature and direct by mail advertising for Slaton."

The subject, "What is the main thing to be emphasized in advertising Slaton," was to have been handled by E. A. Baldwin, but in his absence from the city, L. A. Wilson spoke in his stead. He pointed out that all the good things should be told with special emphasis laid on the one or two things which stand out and distinguish Slaton as a better city than other cities.

A. J. Payne talked on the subject, "Highway signs—directing traffic through Slaton." He scored a hit and was supported by others, among them C. F. Anderson, in expressing the belief that Slaton should erect several highway signs on roads leading into Slaton.

J. W. Hood pointed out the advantage Slaton offers to those raising produce for the market. He said on account of the many people here who are employed by the Santa Fe and other interests in the town, Slaton is one of the best produce markets in this section, and that people of surrounding towns and rural communities have learned this to be true. Hence, they market the larger portion of their produce in Slaton. Local produce buyers, he emphasized, maintain the best possible price offers on produce at all times.

The meeting closed about 9:15, the Directors retiring to the Chamber of Commerce office at the City Hall for a brief executive session. The next monthly luncheon will be

Water for Irrigation is Piped to Our Cemetery

Resulting from efforts put forth by the recently organized Slaton Cemetery Association, Englewood Cemetery is now furnished with water for irrigation purposes, city water now being accessible to any grave in the cemetery, according to S. S. Forrest, president of the association.

The association plans to employ a sexton within the next few days, who will give his entire time to the care of the cemetery, it is stated. About 100 evergreens, which have been purchased by the association, and are now planted in pots at the Lubbock experiment station, will be set out along the main driveways in the cemetery. This work will be done about the 25, Mr. Forrest states.

Much interest is being manifested in the cemetery association, and that Englewood cemetery will, in the future, have the best of attention, is evident.

Post Rotarians Will Bring Cowboy Band

When the Post Rotarians invade Slaton Friday afternoon, for the inter-city meeting which will be held here in the evening, they will be accompanied by the Post Cowboy Band, according to information received here by F. C. Rector, president of the Slaton Rotary Club.

The Post delegation will stage a parade on the streets in the business section here about 6 p. m., Friday, it is stated.

Produce House Opened By Webb, of Hereford

The Webb Produce was opened in Slaton this week, and is located in the building next door east of the Slaton Motor Company.

J. W. Webb, who recently moved here with his family from Hereford, is connected with the firm, and his son, W. R., who has been with the Robertson Produce Co., at Clovis, is manager.

The Messrs. Webb announce that they have also taken over the Wichita Cream Agency, and will at all times be in the market for poultry, eggs, cream, hides, etc.

Copied from The Slatonite Of 13 Years Ago

At the city election, R. J. Murray was elected mayor without opposition, and Ed Shopbell, J. H. Teague, Sr., A. S. Page, A. L. Kuykendall and C. C. Hoffman were elected aldermen without opposition. John Levy was elected city marshal. The vote was not very heavy.

Mrs. John Simmons entertained the members and substitutes of the "500" club in a most enjoyable manner on Wednesday, April 1st.

Mrs. C. B. Thomas and her children, of Plainview, are visiting Mrs. A. C. Benton this week.

The Slaton High School juniors went out to Union last Saturday to entertain the farm boys at baseball. They found they were out-matched, and were entertained by a score of 18 to 7.

The spring rains started over the Slaton South Plains country Friday of last week with a precipitation of one inch, putting the land in splendid shape for early spring farming.

held Tuesday evening, May 10. One of the twelve committees will have charge of the program.

Santa Fe O. K.'s Large Fund for Expansion Here

The Slatonite is advised that the Santa Fe Railway has approved appropriations of $99,000.00 for six new stalls in the roundhouse and $20,000.00 for a new turntable 120 feet long, a total of $119,000.00 for local expansion of the company's facilities. This is in addition to the trackage extensions begun several weeks ago.

The additional tracks to be built will involve spending a large sum. Track work was recently halted to transfer machinery to the double-tracking project between Canyon and Panhandle, it was said. But, the tracks will be built as soon as equipment is available for use here, it is said.

Other improvements slated for the company's properties here will make the total expenditure approximately a quarter of a million dollars at this time. Approvals are looked for any day covering the enlargement of the storehouse and the roundhouse office building.

PROSPECTS BRIGHT TO BEGIN PAVING IN RESIDENTIAL AREA

Most Owners on West Garza Have Signed for Project; Substantial Work Planned.

With the larger part of the property owners along West Garza Street having already signed for the street paving to be done, it is now a practical certainty that paving on this street can be started within a short time. This will merely be an extension of the paving program started in Slaton in 1926 when twenty and one-half blocks were paved in the business district.

The paving done in the business section was of three-inch brick on a five-inch concrete base. The paving for the residence streets will be two and one-half inch brick on a four-inch concrete base. This is recognized as an unusually substantial paving for residence streets, better than is ordinarily found in the smaller cities and towns elsewhere, it is said. The heavier type of paving was used in the business section because of the much greater load and volume of traffic it must accommodate. The four-inch base with the two and one-half inch brick will make a splendid pavement, one that will serve many, many years without showing defects.

The plan for West Garza's paving includes a parkway in the center sixteen feet wide, with 18 ft. pavement on each side. The parkway, according to plans being talked, may be converted into a means of beautifying the street by laying a water line down the street center so as to irrigate shrubbery, trees, flowers, etc., which might be planted there.

In paving the streets of the business section last year, the City bore one-third of the cost, the property owner carrying the other two-thirds. However, in paving the residence streets, the City will pay one-fourth the cost, the property owners bearing three-fourths. This means much additional paving, the funds stretching over considerably more territory than if one-third the cost were borne by the City. This will make it possible for Slaton to greatly increase her paved streets, adding wonderfully to the appearance, convenience and desirability of the city as a place to live in.

L. H. Howard, paving contractor on the former job here, was in Slaton early last week in the interest of the work yet to be done here. He went back to Olney, where he has been since Christmas, to ship his equipment here as soon as he finishes the Olney paving job. Mr. Howard has been awarded the contract for the paving to be done in the residence section here. The advertising was done several months ago, and it is thought practically nothing will hinder the

Real Estate Deals Are Indication of Prosperity

Continued real estate purchases in Slaton by local people, and considerable activity among local real estate dealers in buying, selling and trading properties, are indications that times in Slaton are not so bad as might be imagined by some.

The following changes in ownership of Slaton property during the past few days are reported by Pember & Staggs, local realtors:

J. M. Stephens to C. B. Jones, lots 7-8, block 101, Original Town.
C. B. Jones to J. M. Stephens, lots 10-11-12, block 51, South Slaton.
Florence Eckert to T. C. Buchanan, lots 1-2-3, block 75, South Park.
J. K. Powell to Joe Bickerstaff, lots 11, block 55, West Park.
Joe Bickerstaff to J. K. Powell, lot 2, block 38, Original Town.
M. A. Pember to Linus Johnson, lot 1, block 50, South Park.
E. E. Easterwood to Homer Wright, lot 5, block 73, Original Town.
Colonel Smith to C. F. Martindale, lot 9-10, block 98, South Slaton.

SLATON DELEGATION ATTENDS W. T. C. C. DISTRICT MEETING

Local Chamber of Commerce Takes Hand in Session Held at Crosbyton Thursday.

Stanley Finney Drowns in Canyon North of Slaton

Stanley Finney, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Finney of this city, was drowned in a water hole in the Yellowhouse Canyon, northeast of here, about 2:30 last Saturday afternoon. He had gone to the canyon with three smaller boys for an afternoon's outing, and it is thought he did not realize the depth of the water he had gone into. The boy's father said he did not believe his son knew how to swim.

When young Finney reached his danger, his companions were unable to render assistance. The body was rescued afterwards, but too late for resuscitation. It was brought to Slaton by the Foster Undertaking ambulance, the drive being made to the scene of the tragedy in just seven minutes. Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon at the family residence, Rev. W. M. Lane, pastor of the Methodist church, in charge. Interment followed in Englewood Cemetery here.

Stanley was the oldest of three children, leaving two brothers and his parents surviving, besides several other relatives. He would have been fifteen years old in July had he lived. He was a pupil in one of the ward schools here.

The Slatonite extends condolence to the bereaved family and friends.

Pickens & Smart to Sell Grocery Stock

This week Pickens & Smart announce their intentions to retire from their present grocery business, and state they will sell groceries at cost until the entire stock is closed out. Their announcement appears elsewhere in this issue of The Slatonite.

Piggly Wiggly Grocery To Open Here Soon

A Piggly Wiggly, self-serving grocery store will be opened in Slaton about the 1st of May, it is stated this week by W. E. Smart, who has leased his new brick building on the corner of Lynn and Eighth streets, for this business.

Mr. Smart states the new firm has already placed its order for fixtures, and the business will be opened as soon as a few alterations in the building can be made, and the fixtures arrive.

It looks good for street paving in the residence section to begin soon. The more paved streets we have, the better town we'll have.

About twenty Slaton people attended the district convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce held last Thursday at Crosbyton. It was a good session, well attended and thoroughly enjoyed. Five hundred and eleven delegates were registered.

Approximately twenty Slaton people, names of some of whom were not available to The Slatonite, attended the district convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce held at Crosbyton last Thursday. Several cars went from here carrying Slaton people, all of them returning late in the afternoon or early in the evening.

The delegation from here was made up under the leadership of the local Chamber of Commerce, and when they arrived at Crosbyton they busied themselves all day giving Slaton as much publicity as possible. Each one was given several publicity folders about Slaton before leaving Thursday morning, and all reported at the end of the day that they had been well distributed at the convention meeting. Those attending from here were also provided with Slaton badges as a means of identification and publicity.

At the afternoon session held at the large pavilion at Silver Falls Lake east of Crosbyton, and following the luncheon served all visitors there, several splendid addresses were made. Victor H. Schoffelmeyer, of Dallas, spoke on "Diversification," Arthur P. Duggan, president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, spoke, besides several others. Each town having representatives at the meeting was called on to have some member of the delegation speak two minutes about that town. Slaton's speaker was the Chamber of Commerce secretary, L. A. Wilson. Immediately following his remarks, Homer D. Wade, manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, pointed out that in the recent drive for renewal memberships in the organization from Slaton, a gain of almost seventy-five per cent over last year had been made.

Lamesa was selected as the place for the 1928 district convention. Slaton voted with Lamesa in the balloting, not desiring to ask for the session to be brought here next year, as it has only been two years since the session was held in this city. Tahoka made a spirited fight for the meet next year, but lost and voted to make the choice of Lamesa unanimous.

Following are those whose names The Slatonite secured as being in the party making the trip to Crosbyton: J. W. Hood, S. E. Staggs, A. J. Payne, Abe Kessel, M. W. Uzzell, W. L. Jones, Joe Teague, Jr., G. M. Cullar, J. T. Overby, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Cybert, W. B. Hestand, H. G. Sanders, P. G. Stokes, E. F. King, Mr. Webb and L. A. Wilson.

Southland Baby Hurt In Fall From Auto

Unnoticed by her older sister who was driving and her two other sisters who were with her in the car, Helen, 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Usery, of Southland, sustained a fracture of the skull Monday morning when she fell out of the car near Southland. The girls had gone some distance before they missed the child and going back they found her lying in the middle of the highway.

She was brought to the Lubbock Sanitarium where an operation was performed in which a part of the skull was removed from the brain.—Lubbock Avalanche.

Four Months is too Much in the Hills; Wanderer From Slaton May Soon Return

"Now, that I've killed most of the fish, and caught nearly all the squirrels in these parts, I'm thinking of going back West," writes R. L. (Bob) Tate, formerly of Slaton, but who for the past four months has been stranded, you might say, over in Hopkins county, which is twelve counties east and forty-six years behind Slaton.

In the letter, which from its kerosene scent, indicates the writer was down on the creek, probably near Sulphur Springs, and using that mineral product in an effort to combat mosquitoes, Tate sends his "best regards" to his friends here, which, of course, is a fore-runner to a few square meals when he arrives in Slaton, the city he once thought he had left for keeps.

Every now and then someone—smart fellows, too—makes up his mind to leave Slaton, and seek riches in other parts, but, like the cat, they come back. They know a good thing when they see it, all right, but do not always realize just how good it is until they have tried something else. Hence the letter from our friend Tate is just the letter we've been looking for. It came about thirty days later than we really expected, however, but Tate, being a good manager and of a profession much in demand throughout the country—that of printing—managed to stick it out in Sulphur Springs for about four months.

Since leaving Slaton, Bob has worked 22 days, he says, which, we think, is mighty good employment for that mosquito, seed-tick and hoot owl infested region. These 22 days of toil, together with results of his hunting and fishing has, of course, kept the wolf well away from his door.

We hope that before leaving on his return to the Plains, friend Tate will see fit to tell some of those web-footed, moss-backed Hopkins county hill-billies, of this wonderful country—of our inexhaustible supply of pure water; of the wonderful farming lands of this plains region; of the year 'round employment possibilities for those who are willing to work; of the wonderful climatic conditions here, and a few of those things which, heretofore, have been unbelievable by those East Texas squirrel hunters and rabbit twisters.

Slaton friends of Mr. and Mrs. Tate are glad to know they have been enjoying their vacation, and their extended visit among old friends of Sulphur Springs, and it is hoped they are really in earnest about being about ready to "go west."

Later—We learn that Mr. Tate has accepted employment at Borger. There's no question, of course, but that he will make good, and it is hoped by his many friends here that he will be pleased with his new location in West Texas.

Slaton Tigers Defeat Lubbock Westerners

By getting to Manly for fifteen hits, the Slaton Tigers were easy winners over the Lubbock Westerners, here Friday, 13-3. At all periods of the game the Tigers proved superior in hitting ability over the Westerners. The numbers of errors by each team showed the Tigers to be better fielders, Lubbock making ten errors to Slaton's five. The tilt was strictly based on betting and fielding ability, for no pitcher showed great form.

Among the fifteen hits for Slaton came two home runs, one by Huckabay in the third, with no one on bases, and another in the sixth by Foutz, with one man on base.

Manly, for the Westerners, began to weaken in the fifth inning by allowing two runs and the Tigers got to him in the last three innings for ten runs.

Young folks are pretty much like plants—green while they are growing.

If you have a friend and would keep him, do not ask him to sign your note.

Judging from the manner in which folks live their lives, one would conclude that they thing life is not worth living.

Now that the warm spring days have come it is no longer necessary for bootleggers to put alcohol in their stuff to keep it from freezing.

Bruce Barton asks if religion should not be abolished, when the vast majority of people have not yet even tried it.

If women were not so easily deceived, so many of them would not have such worthless husbands.

And if men were not such gay deceivers, so many of them would not have patient, self sacrificing wives.

We suppose the reason marriage is called a lottery is because so many women draw blanks.

The world has always paused to listen to him who has something worth while to say, and it always will.

Ten years ago this month we declared war to make the world safe for democracy, and now the problem is how to make democracy safe for the world.

Of all the tools the average man is given to work with, the one most valuable to him, his brain, is used the least.

The reason some folks are called "brainless," is because in all they do and say they furnish evidence that the attic is empty.

Another evidence that times have changed is that manufacturers cannot advertise such simple articles as yeast, hair tonic or corn plaster without slipping into the ad a picture of a nude female figure.

What has become of the old fashioned Puritan who believed that the only way to be righteous was to be unhappy?

It is surprising how much it is possible for one to sin these days and at the same time be a stickler for all the conventions.

The reason we have so much rottenness everywhere one turns is because it has become easy to be respectable without being clean.

The Dallas News editor wants to know if children steal as a natural thing. No, they do not, but observation tells us that most colored gentlemen do as a usual thing.

A dollar, when taken alone, has in it, just 100 cents, but may have in it anywhere from five to five hundred cents, depending upon the person it associates with.

Besides the efforts which Nature puts forth to make us beautiful, the people of this country spend 121 millions of dollars annually for the same purpose. With such niggardliness it is no wonder that we are a nation of such unsightly specimens.

South Carolina's bid for unpopularity wins. She resolves to enforce her blue laws and to abolish divorce.

Chinese in America are industrious in spreading the slogan, "Let China alone." Well, that has always been our own personal desire.

Apparently Nevada takes the position that if discontented married couples are going to get a divorce anyway, the quicker they get it the better.

Our guess is that the real cause of the crime wave is the remark of some fellow way back yonder whose name we have forgotten, to the effect that the good die young.

Our farmers know that we have a wonderfully beneficent government because it annually raises their taxes and then gives them back a part of the tax in the form of a promise to enact farm relief legislation.

He who converses for the purpose of information is wise; he who converses to display the knowledge he has is a bore.

A stockman improves his herd each year by shipping to market the mongrels and the unfit and retaining only the best specimens. The world has not been able as yet, however, to hit upon any plan of equal effectiveness for improving the human herd.

This world can dispense with religion when, and only when, the human soul has its trials and doubts and tribulations, and when hope no longer springs eternal in the human breast.

We have seen lots of young folks who bragged that they were "hot numbers," but we have never known one of them to be accused of being a trail blazer or of setting the world afire.

KEEPING UP HIGHWAYS

It is reported that most of the Lubbock county roads are very rough, because of the blowout places all over the surface.—Lubbock Morning Avalanche.

Lubbock County needs to learn that roads must be gone over with drags as regularly as they are used, and that means every day. A road thus kept stays a good road. Many of our neighboring counties have learned the lesson and are showing us how to have good roads without pavement. A well graded highway properly attended to will be a thing of beauty and a joy forever to all kinds of highway traffic. So, we suggest that if we would avoid the rough places showing up on our highways, we must use more maintenance money to keep them smoothed down. Drag them, drag them, DRAG THEM.

Attire Counts

Any man may be in good spirits and good temper when he's well dressed. There ain't much credit in that.—Charles Dickens.

JUST A RHYME

"OLD AGE"

Do you dread the sad time of old age my good friend?
Do you yield up your youth with a sigh?
Does despondency's gloom gather sady around
As the times of decadence draw nigh?
Do you shudder to think that the bluish of your youth
Can be fading so swiftly away?
Do you ponder in sadness and sorrow, my friend
For the joys that were yours yesterday?

Now the fellow that thoughtlessly lives just today
In the man who needs carry a dread,
But the provident one who for future prepares,
Gathers years with a glad gallant tread.
There are far greater treasures than physical wealth,
Where the spiritual value attends,
And such things are secured in no happier way
Than the winning and holding of friends.

Make your friends of the youth with the red rushing blood,
Hot with movement and action and then,
Through your own cooling veins richer currents will flow
And fit you for service again,
Though we all grow in years, no one needs to grow old,
And for us no sad dirge need be sung,
If we live with the youth who are living today,
We'll be happy and always stay young.

SOMEBODY SAID Lubbock County roads should be dragged after each shower or heavy rain and that it wouldn't be bad to drag them each day, wet or dry. Other counties do it and have better kept highways than does Lubbock county. Dragging a road is the secret to keeping it in the best condition.

SOMEBODY SAID the district convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce held last Thursday at Crosbyton was one of the best meetings of its kind that has ever been conducted, and that Crosbyton deserves to be congratulated upon the manner in which they entertained their guests at that time.

SOMEBODY SAID it is to be hoped street paving in the residence section here will soon start, thus adding to the attractiveness and convenience of the city.

SOMEBODY SAID the reason Slaton is so short on grouchy fellows is that the grouchy ones have already learned that their grouching has no foundation and that things just continue improving in spite of their grouching, therefore, they have either changed their attitude or moved on to more pessimistic fields.

SOMEBODY SAID the cow, sow and hen program on farms in this territory is making rapid progress, which means faster progress for the section as a whole. Diversify and it will satisfy.

Rotarians Will Gather Here for Inter-City Meet

The Slaton Rotary Club will not have the regular noon luncheon Friday of this week, but instead will hold an Inter-City meeting at the County Clubhouse in west Slaton at 8 o'clock Friday evening when the Post and Lubbock Clubs will be the guests of the Slaton Rotarians. The Post Club will furnish what promises to be an unusually splendid program. They announce that their club will be here in full force, that is, 100 per cent strong in attendance. Lubbock, also, will send a large delegation, and it is hoped by officers of the Slaton Club that all Slaton Rotarians will attend the meeting.

At the luncheon held last Friday, W. B. Hestand was introduced as a new member, classification wholesale grocer.

B. K. Tudor, of the Palace and Custer theatres, and Rev. Almer Kelly, of Ralls, were guests of the Club Friday. Secretary Allen J. Payne reported the attendance average for March as 95.1-10 per cent. This is the best attendance record the Club has ever established.

The program at Friday's meeting was in charge of Jess Swint and Joe K. Rogers, and their subject was: "When is One's Business a Success From the Standpoint of (1) The Owner; (2) His Competitor; (3) The Community." Jess talked first, followed by Joe. Each speaker brought out many good thoughts about the owner's responsibility to his community in bettering general conditions, to his competitors in dealing fairly with them, and stressed the point that the owner was entitled to make a reasonable profit in his business transactions as a reward for his labors and the service rendered. It was a good discussion, enjoyed by all.

Nominations for officers to serve the Club through the coming year were made at Friday's meeting, resulting as follows: For president, Sam E. Staggs; for vice-president, John W. Hood; for secretary, Allen J. Payne; for treasurer, J. Tom Overby; for sergeant-at-arms, Alex DeLong; for song leader, Lloyd A. Wilson. Bill H. Smith and Claude F. Anderson were nominated as directors to serve with the vice president who automatically becomes a director upon his election, thus completing a board of three directors.

Ben G. Holloway was appointed as instructor for new members. His duties will consist of telling to all new men coming into the Club the principles and ideals embodied in Rotary.

Daily Output Exceeds Over 4,000 Chevrolets

The Chevrolet Motor Company in March smashed all previous monthly production records in its history by manufacturing 107,900 automobiles, an average daily production of 4,316 cars.

A new daily record for production was also established on March 31, when 5,075 Chevrolets were run off the assembly lines.

The Chevrolet production last month exceeded the March, 1926 output by 42,733 cars, a gain of 65.6 per cent and outstripped March, 1925 production by 64,404 cars, an increase of 148.1 per cent.

A constantly increasing demand for the Chevrolet car, nation-wide in its insistence, has made it necessary for the Chevrolet motor manufacturing plants to work night and day to keep pace with the enormous volume of sales registered since the advent of the 'most beautiful Chevrolet in Chevrolet history.' Raw material by the thousands of carloads is moving into the plants daily where extensions and equipment were recently enlarged to a capacity of 1,000,000 cars yearly by a $10,000,000 expansion program.

In the first three months of 1927, the 267,393 Chevrolets produced exceeded production during the same period last year by 104,486 cars.

Roads Easily Damaged By Careless Plowing

Carelessness by farmers in turning their plows, discs, listers, etc., at the ends of the rows abutting lateral roads throughout the precinct, can do considerable damage to the roads, it is pointed out by Commissioner J. T. Pinkston, who calls attention to the fact that he has noticed, in several places, where farmers have allowed their plows to gouge into the roadbeds while turning them or dragging them down the road.

Mr. Pinkston requests that farmers use care in handling their implements along the roads, in order not to damage them, therefore saving the precinct all maintenance expense possible.

District Meet to be in Lubbock Next Week

The District Interscholastic Meet will be held in Lubbock Friday and Saturday of next week. Several counties on the South Plains will be represented. Slaton will have several representatives to enter the various contests.

There will be entries in single and doubles in both boys and girls tennis from Slaton. These boys and girls are working consistently that they may bring honor to their school. Bilious dull feeling

"MY old stand-by is Thedford's Black-Draught—I have used it off and on for about 20 years," says Mr. W. S. Reynolds, of R. F. D. 2, Arcadia, La.

"I get bilious and have a bad taste in my mouth. My head feels dull. I don't just feel like getting around and doing my work. I know it isn't laziness, but biliousness.

"So I take a few doses of Black-Draught and when it acts well, I get up feeling like new—'full of pep' and ready for any kind of work.

"I can certainly recommend it." In case of biliousness and other disagreeable conditions due to an inactive liver, Black-Draught helps to drive the poisonous impurities out of the system and tends to leave the organs in a state of normal, healthy activity.

Black-Draught is made entirely of pure medicinal roots and herbs and contains no dangerous or harmful mineral drugs. It can be safely taken by everyone. Sold everywhere. Price 25c.

Y. W. A. GIRLS

Eight girls were present at the Y. W. A. meeting Monday afternoon. After the devotional exercise, a short business session was held. Then we continued the study of the manual.

The girls entered into the study with a good spirit, and a hope of learning more about Y. W. A. work.

At five o'clock we adjourned and refreshments were served, consisting of sandwiches, cake, and punch. We will meet next Monday, 18th, with Mable Stottlemire. We wish to urge that all girls be present.

Slaton Rotarians Floyd C. Rector, Sam E. Staggs, Allen J. Fayne and Jim A. Elliott, attended a meeting of the newly organized Rotary club at Brownfield Wednesday night, when Will C. Edwards, district governor, delivered the club's charter.

PHILATHEA CLASS

The Philathea Class had their regular business and social meeting at the club house Wednesday, April 13. There were one hundred thirty guests and members present. This meeting was the closing of our contest between the "Old Maids" and the "Flappers," the Old Maids being winners. It was voted that we entertain our husbands on the night of May 13.

After the business meeting we enjoyed an interesting program.

Dainty refreshments were served by eight hostesses, which carried out the Easter motif. The Philathea class enjoyed having seventy-three members present last Sunday.

MEN

By Dorothy E. Reid (From The Literary Digest)
I like men.
They stride about,
They reach in their pockets
And pull things out;
They look important,
They rock on their toes,
They lose all the buttons
Off of their clothes;
They throw away pipes,

I like men.

"George," said his mother, "I won't whip you this time if you will be a good little boy like Willie Jones."
"Mamma," said George, earnestly, "whip me, please!"

"Sunny Side Up" To be Given at Palace

Beautiful, impressive, charming, is Vera Reynolds' first star vehicle, "Sunny Side Up," a fine screen version of the celebrated novel, "Sunny Ducrow" which will be shown at the Palace theatre next Wednesday and Thursday. Miss Reynolds, seen as a sunny dispositioned worker in a pickle factory, and later as the star in a musical comedy, is thoroughly delightful. Edmund Burns, featured as leading man, acquits himself cleverly, while Zasu Pitts, Ethel Clayton and George K. Arthur, other featured players in the cast, are excellent in their portrayals. The love interest of the story is well sustained and in every other respect, the comedy drama is highly attractive. Don't miss it, for if you do, you'll regret it.
