Newsom Back From Childress Hospital

Will Newsom, who recently leased the auto tourist camp on the Lubbock highway, returned to Slaton Wednesday night from a Childress hospital, where he had been confined to bed as result of an automobile accident which occurred about ten days ago about seven or eight miles from Childress.

McCORMICK TRIBUTE

Raphine, Va.—A tribute has been paid to the memory of Cyrus H. McCormick, the inventor of the first practical reaper.

Amid impressive ceremonies, the first monument to the great pioneer has just been unveiled here, only a few feet from the old workshop where he created his first machine in 1831.

More than 1,000 people took part in the dedication of the monument.

French Soldiers to Be Rid of Mustache

PARIS.—The fierce military mustache that a few years ago adorned the face of almost every French soldier is a thing of the past. Not one in 100 of the conscripts of 1928 wears anything resembling whiskers and lovers of the picturesque are mourning the fact.

War is more machine-like and less romantic than it was in the past and the swaggering soldier of a few decades ago has become the business-like conscript of today, they say. But the real reason for the disappearance of the soldiers' whiskers is the gas mask, they find. Mustaches don't fit.

Houston Prepares For Delegates to Democratic Meet

HOUSTON, May 15. — Houston, prepared today for Democracy's quadrennial gathering, now only is awaiting an influx of Democratic party delegates, but is poised to entertain thousands of Texans, Oklahomans and Louisianians, who, it is pointed out by Jesse H. Jones, Houston capitalist and chairman of the committee on arrangements, will pour into the city throughout June.

Democrats in the eastern section of the United States had their chance to see a national convention in operation when Democracy met in Madison Square garden. Those on the West Coast had their chance when the gathering took place in California. Now with the meeting at Houston it is considered the Southwest's very own neighborhood event. Literally thousands of persons from the three states are expected to troop into Houston.

Leader in Women's Clubs Believes in Keeping Self Fit

BOSTON.—Keeping fit for her job is almost a part of the religion of Mrs. Grace Morrison Poole of Brockton, Mass., recording secretary of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, and candidate for the first vice-presidency at the biennial convention to be held May 28 to June 7 in San Antonio, Texas.

For Mrs. Poole is first of all a professional woman, a lecturer on current history and human understanding, whose fame has long since spread beyond the confines of her home state. She is an expert on international affairs, studied at close range in her annual visits to Europe.

That Mrs. Poole is a stickler for system, her friends well know. Every minute of her waking hours is budgeted. Her yearly course is charted, almost to a day. She is a master of detail to her finger tips. Indeed, nothing pleases her better, she confesses, than to have her system go all to smash, so that she will have to work it out all over again.

Beer and Tobacco As Long Life Aid

LONDON. — William Walker, of Nottingham, who has just celebrated his 106th birthday, spends one-third of his income on liquor and tobacco, he told interviewers who asked him, "To what do you attribute your longevity?" His income is the government old-age pension of $2.50 a week, and his beer-and-tobacco allowance is 85 cents a week. Mr. Walker also let it be known that he ate five meals a day, and liked pickled pork.

Flapper Vote, Early Marriages Favored

LONDON.—"If I were dictator of this country every girl should be married at eighteen and every man at twenty-one—if necessary, by compulsion," declared "Tay Pay" O'Connor, M. P., recently. Mr. O'Connor also advocated "Votes for Flappers," as he said the average woman of twenty-one had twice the sense of a man of the same age; but he didn't indicate whether it was for this alleged disparity in intelligence that he advocated early marriages.

SUMMER SCHOOL

When you were a schoolboy, or a schoolgirl, a red letter day of the year was when school was dismissed for the summer vacation. It mattered not if you were one of those who like to go to school. There are such girls and an occasional boy of that kind.

The attitude of the pupils at the closing of the school will not be misunderstood by those who have not forgotten their own feelings under similar circumstances. There is eagerness to lay aside books and pencils and rest from the routine which has been the order of the day.

The suggestion which is sometimes made that the school year should be made continuous gets but little endorsement from those whom it would affect chiefly. Even the teachers, we imagine, would not wish to surrender the weeks of relaxation, thought it might mean a little more pay.

This summer there will be no summer school for Slaton laggards who failed to keep pace during the regular term. Superintendent Stone declares that the summer school is not at all satisfactory; that the amount of efficiency is lower than in the regular term, and that it is an incentive for youngsters to slide through the year in the hope of being able to make up for lost time during the summer term.

Undoubtedly, there are cases where summer school would work to a benefit; but those cases are few indeed. Illness and other unavoidable circumstances may make it difficult for some, but the only consideration that can be given is to a plan which will work the greatest amount of good to the largest number of people.

It is claimed the American home is breaking down. It is surely in danger of doing so if they dance the modern dances on the parlor floor.

Bandits reported to be getting some big hauls, but the best one will come when they are hauled in some city's patrol wagon to the nearest jail.

Claimed that everyone should be instructed in music, and most of our citizens have got so far that they can blow an automobile horn.

It is complained that people do not make calls as freely as they ought to, but anyway the slow pay debtors are called on frequently.

There is a movement for revision of the calendar, but it won't be popular unless it makes pay day come oftener, and rent a day not so often.

The Business Man

Time is money in business and I make sure my car is always ready for service by using Champion Spark Plugs.

Champion is the better spark plug because it has an exclusive dielectric insulator specially treated to withstand the much higher temperatures of the modern high-compression engine. Also a new patented solid copper gasket-seal that remains absolutely gas-tight under high compression. Special analysis electrodes which assure a good spark-gap under all driving conditions.

A WORD OF APPRECIATION

Now that the season is past for the Santa Fe programs the people of Slaton will have an opportunity to realize how much they have meant to our town. Surely there has never been a more splendid season since we have been fortunate enough to be included in the circuit.

We would not draw comparisons at all, because from the very first until the last of the programs they have been exceptionally fine. Not a dry minute spent in any of them, not one troupe but that we shall be happy to welcome again to our town. We have wanted to show our appreciation for all of these but the Santa Fe is so generous that there is nothing left for us to do but be there and enjoy ourselves.

The last of the programs rendered by the Hollywood Concert company not only measured up to the previous excellent programs but seems to us one of the best concerts we have ever enjoyed anywhere. Not many cities in Texas afford such high class entertainment for the thousands of dollars. We want the troupe and the Santa Fe to know that we recognize this fact and that we are grateful to them accordingly.

When Gladys Jolley Rosser stepped out and began to sing we were charmed but when she had finished we were enraptured. We appreciated her generous response to encores and could have wished for many more because her singing is the type that we never tire of.

Emma B. Harris was exceptionally good in the role that she assumed. She not only made us laugh but she made us think. In the last number, "Memories," worked out by the troupe and participated in by each of them, we were delighted. It was different and while we had thought she was at her best in her previous numbers we were forced to admit that in this role was Miss Harris at her best.

The pianist, Effie H. Compton, who was also the manager, was one of the best of the season. Not only did she charm us with her personality and presentation of the various numbers, but her own contribution to the program was hilariously received.

William Pilcher, the lone gentleman of the troupe, did not need to be introduced as a member of the Los Angeles and San Francisco Grand Opera companies after we had listened to his first number. So delighted were we by his ease and marvelous tones that we called him back again and again and true to form he came every time and made us want to hear more a little worse than we had before. One thing we appreciate about every one of the Santa Fe entertainers is that they are so wholesome, so good natured, and so generous with their talent.

If there is any way it can be done we want to request the Santa Fe to send this troupe to us again next year just as it is and we shall be happy event without a single change in the program. That is the effect good music has on one. We could never tire of the sort of thing rendered by the Hollywood Concert company.

A word of appreciation is certainly due Mr. G. R. Miller. It takes a great deal of work and energy to do this as well as power to discriminate. The sort of programs Slaton has enjoyed the past months is certainly a credit to somebody's ability to choose the best in the field. Slaton wants Mr. Miller and the entire Santa Fe system to understand that we are grateful and appreciative of the wonderful privilege that is ours to be furnished these programs free of charge. We share the satisfaction that comes in the realization that our town is being uplifted and improved by the influences brought to bear in the high grade entertainment thus afforded.

Passing of Barber Pole Recalls Story

From all appearances, the barber pole is doomed to extinction. Modern barbers seem no longer to need the traditional wooden red, white and blue pole adorning the sidewalk in front of their shops as an advertisement of their trade. Since women became regular visitors to the barber shops, they have become sartorial parlor. With the advent of the woman came the passing of the pole, and along with the pole the old rack which held the private shaving mugs which were always decorated with much fancy work in gold. It is the custom today to either omit the pole entirely, or to place a small electrical operated one in some obscure spot in front of the shop. This is especially noticeable in the higher-class shops which are now known as sartorial parlors or beauty shops.

The red, white and blue pole really has no connection with the barber of today. It is a sign of the barber of the past, and its passing is regrettable because, like many of the other things handed down from other generations, it has an extremely interesting and fascinating history behind it. In the first place, it did not originally represent the barbering business, but rather it was a sign of one of his public services. The barber of yesterday was also a phlebotomist or blood-letter.

The pole he provided was for the support of the ill person. The victim, for that is what modern medical men call him, used the pole for physical and moral support. His arms were tied around the pole and that operation held him on his feet. The feeling of some material thing such as a pole served as a tonic for his nerves. After the fastening to the pole came the opening of a vein and the subsequent flow of blood.

After constantly talking about the necessity of industry, Cal Coolidge declines to work four years more as president.

The married women look so young in their short dresses now, that the transient officers will be coming around soon to see why they are not in school.

After having reflected on the burdens and anxieties carried by the president of the United States, most of us here in Slaton have chosen to act rrvn for that office next year.

The voters can't be lured to the polls by talking to them about the duties of citizenship, but there would be a tremendous outpouring if each got a dollar for voting.

ONE factor more than any other will determine the number of miles left in your car. That factor is lubrication. Feed your motor the right oil regularly and you'll prolong its life indefinitely. Feed it the wrong oil—then watch it wear out.

Ten Master Farmers To Be Chosen From Outstanding Farmers in 1926

Contest Sponsored For Third Year as Interest Increases

COLLEGE STATION, May 17.—The advanced farm practices, good business methods and valuable citizenship of ten outstanding Texas farmers will win for them the singular distinction of being designated as master farmers of 1928. This marks the third year of the master farmer movement in Texas, which is conducted jointly by the Progressive Farmer and the Texas A. & M. College. Thirty farmers have received the award of master farmer during the past two years and they, along with their state association, will become affiliated with the National Master Farmer group which meets at Urbana, Illinois, June 19 and 20.

JOHN TYLER
Who will speak at the Baptist Church here Sunday morning.

Tyler, Convert, Baptist Church Speaker Sunday

John Tyler, said to be the world's most wonderful convert, and regarded by many Christian ministers of America as the greatest living example of grace, will fill the pulpit of the First Baptist Church here Sunday morning, according to an announcement by Rev. B. G. Holloway, pastor of the church.

His subject will be, "Up From Hell." For fifty years Mr. Tyler was a drunkard, a gambler and an outcast. Trying to break himself of his habits, for twenty-nine years he traveled every country of the globe. Thirty-four times across the Atlantic, twelve times through the Suez canal, ten times around the Cape of Good Hope, nine times around Cape Horn, once through the Straits of Magellan between Terra Del Fuego and Patagonia, came back to this country twenty-two years ago to die, a physical and mental wreck, and was picked up from a park bench by the famous Jerry McAuley Mission, since which time he has become and is regarded by the leading Christian ministers and evangelists of this country as the most powerful speaker of his type in America.

Mr. Tyler, who has been recently in and around Abilene, had eight thousand people to hear him. He comes from one of Virginia's best families, had all the advantages both American and European universities. His father was the wealthiest man in the State of Virginia after the war. After his school days in America he was sent to Paris to be finished off where he became a gambler, eventually a drunkard. He was disowned by his family and disinherited by his father and reinstated in the good graces of his family by a codicil in his will revoking his former will, receiving his inheritance. He came back to New York City and lived at a great rate for three years.

At the dedication of the John Markle Hotel, the greatest hotel of its kind in New York City built exclusively for outcast men, Mr. Tyler was the speaker at its dedication. The New York Times, in speaking of the dedication (November 21, 1927) has the following:

"Millionaires, society people, converted drunks and reformed criminals rubbed elbows and shoulders when the old McAuley Mission dedicates its new hotel contributed by John Markle, multimillionaire coal operator. Of all its thousands of converts, John Tyler of Virginia was elected to give the dedicatory address. Tyler has attracted more attention than any convert of this age, and has traveled throughout England, France and Europe and many other countries, telling the story of his redemption. We are sure that he will be greeted by a full house and that the people will appreciate his coming to a town of this size. Special music will be featured."

New Rating List Is Ready for Merchants

B. & O. Celebration Picture To Be Here

A motion picture depicting the celebration of the centenary anniversary of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, the oldest road in America, will be shown at a local meeting held at the Santa Fe reading room next Wednesday afternoon, May 23, according to an announcement made by Santa Fe officials.

The picture is brought here by E. G. Sanders, fuel supervisor, and the showing will be held at 1:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The picture is entitled, "The Fair of the Iron Horse."

5 years of service is only a starting point for Buick

—Skilled engineering and rugged construction make it the most durable of motor cars!

Keep in mind, when buying your new car, that more than three-quarters of all Buicks produced in the last twenty-five years are still serving their owners.

Buick endures—Buick stays young—Buick stands up and gives its best over a longer period than any other car—because it is endowed with an extra-rugged double-drop frame—Buick's world-famous Sealed Chassis and Triple-Sealed Engine—and the most nearly perfect oiling system ever developed.

You'll prefer Buick because it leads in beauty and luxury and you'll prefer it, too, because it is the most durable of cars—and therefore the most paying investment.

All Buick models have Lovejoy Hydraulic shock absorbers, front and rear, as standard equipment.

Models, $1195 to $1995; Coupe, $1795 to $1995; Sport Models, $1175 to $1525. All Buick cars are Buick. Buick's reputation is to be added. The G. M. A. C. Buick plan, the most desirable, is available.

Santa Fe, West Side, Now Lead In City League

Through a victory over Texas Avenue Tuesday the West Side shares the top booth of the city league with the Santa Fe. The West Side has won one and tied one, while the Railroaders have won two and lost none.

On last Thursday the Texas Avenue scored a victory over the North Side, 5 to 1. The game was featured by a circuit clout by Jochetz for the Avenue. Owens, southpaw moundsman for the North Siders, was forced from the box in the second with Stephens relieving. Nichols, hurler for the winners, allowed only three hits.

Games scheduled for Friday and Monday were rained out. Tuesday the Santa Fe Shops defeated the Texas Utilities, 7 to 1. This game was scheduled for Monday, but because of the rain it was played on the fifteenth. The Utilities used three pitchers.

Wednesday Paul Crane hurled the West Side to a win over the Texas Avenue, 3 to 2. This was a pitchers' battle. Crane struck out twelve men of a possible fifteen, while Nichols, for the losers, tossed out nine. Only one hit was made off Crane. Nichols allowed five hits. One of those being a home run by Cecil Austin in the first.

Thursday too many errors for the Shop boys allowed the Santa Fe to win, 7 to 2. Colston, first baseman for the Shops, registered a home run in the second. Although the losing pitcher, Robertson, struck out eight men, he allowed four hits.

A much larger audience than greeted the first presentation of "The Arrival of Kitty," a play offered by the senior class of the high school, was present at the second showing of the play last Thursday night.

The fourth group included compositions by MacDowell, Grieg and Debussy; the numbers Will o' the Wisp, Notturmo, and Arabesque, respectively.

The recital program was closed with Rondo Capriccioso, by Mendelssohn-Micheus, with Miss Ramsey at the second piano.

ROOSTERS WON'T CROW

Rockland, Me.—Knox county held a rooster crowing contest, but the winner will never be known. The five prize birds entering the tourney kept quiet when expected to crow. Nearby lights were extinguished when someone suggested that the bright glare was keeping them from crowing.

In the darkness the chanticleers crowed lustily—but the judges couldn't determine which rooster was doing the best crowing.

Thin Clothes Said To Aid Tuberculosis

CINCINNATI.—Along with the news from a Parisian physician that scantily-clad girls will enjoy a long and healthy life comes word from Dr. Mark Milliken of Hamilton, Ohio, that flimsy feathered flappers are courting tuberculosis.

The disease, according to Dr. Milliken, is increasing among girls because they don't wear enough clothing. Among boys, however, he says, the disease is decreasing.

Charge Bonus For Missent Paris Mail

PARIS.—A bonus of two cents to mail carriers for every letter with an erroneous address that they deliver is proposed as a substitute for the annual tips given them. This bonus would be paid by the recipient of the letter by means of a "due" postage stamp.

Mail carriers now call on every one on their routes and present calendars which are bought, which is merely a way of making the request for tips less humiliating.

Say Night Flying Most Interesting

LONDON.—Learning to fly at night is the most interesting feature of their course of training, air pilots of the Royal Dutch Air Service who operate between London and Holland and Denmark agree.

One of the air liners has half of the pilot's cockpit enclosed so it is impossible for the pilot to see out. Instead, he is guided by an intricate system of colored lights.

When undergoing night flying training, the airman sits in front of several illuminated instruments, and by their aid he has to guide the machine over a set course. Another pilot, who can also control the machine, sits outside to correct any errors the first pilot may make.

Seeks to Restrain Mother-in-Law Visits

CHICAGO.—An injunction to restrain his mother-in-law from visiting him was sought in the circuit court here by Harry M. Harger, of Oak Park.

The pleading sets up that the Harger home had enjoyed peace and happiness since the marriage in 1925 until seven weeks ago when Mrs. Moick arrived.

A few days later, Mr. Harger was late in arriving home from his office for dinner. He explained to his wife that he was unavoidably delayed by business. Mrs. Moick heard his story, raised an eyebrow and looked with meaning at her daughter, according to the husband. The presence of the mother-in-law brought dissension, it is alleged.

Last Saturday Mr. Harger suggested to Mrs. Moick that her husband might be anxious for her return to Marquette. She took the hint and started packing her things, but after a whispered conversation with her daughter, Mr. Harger was told that his wife and child were also leaving for Michigan, he relates. He took the child for a ride but instead of returning home, went to his attorney to arrange for the suit.

SORE

Could Not Rest

Mrs. J. H. Nichols, who lives at 613 Elm Tree Lane, Lexington, Ky., says:

"Some few years ago, my health was bad. I had very severe pains in my sides. My nerves were in a terrible condition. I could not rest."

"The lower part of my body was very sore. I did not feel like eating, and did not sleep well at all at nights."

"A friend of mine recommended Cardui. I began taking it and saw quite an improvement in my condition. I kept it up until I felt strong and well."

About a year ago, Mrs. Nichols says, she found herself in a nervous, run-down condition. "I took Cardui again," she adds, "and it helped me wonderfully. It is a splendid tonic."

Cardui is a mild, medicinal tonic, made from purely vegetable ingredients.

Dean Allen of Baylor Will Be Wayland Speaker

PLAINVIEW, May 17. — Annual commencement exercises at Wayland Baptist college began Thursday, May 17 and will culminate Wednesday, May 23, with a program which will feature a commencement address by Dr. W. S. Allen, dean of Baylor University at Waco.

Thirty-four members of the senior class are graduating this term. As a memorial to the school the class has built concrete walks from the administration building to Matador hall and from Matador hall to the street. On the walk has been erected a column with a tablet bearing the inscription of names of the class members.

Thursday, May 17, Mrs. Arilla Peterson, head of the music department of the college, presented her pupils in recital at the college auditorium.

Friday, May 18, intercollegiate debates will be held with Montezuma college. The girls' debating teams of the two institutions will meet at Plainview and the boys' teams will meet at Montezuma.

Saturday, May 19, the annual alumni banquet will be held at the Hotel Ware. An interesting program has been arranged which will be followed by a business session and election of officers.

Rev. V. M. Cloyd of Hereford will preach the baccalaureate sermon to the Wayland graduates Sunday, May 20, at the First Baptist church.

Inter-society debates will be held Tuesday, May 22.

There are eleven members of the academy graduating class and the academy seniors will hold their commencement exercises in connection with the college graduates.

Berlin Uses Stage As Uplift Agency

BERLIN.—To keep young men and women off the streets, out of saloons and from reading trashy books, the ward or district known as Friedrichsham has hit upon the idea of running a young people's stage.

Every night a show is to be offered at the "Jugendbuehne," which will for the present be located in the auditorium of one of the large public schools. Admission is free to the young people of all classes. Actors and actresses are supplied from the numerous theaters of Berlin. Later the district theater will probably have its own cast.

One more that keeps us guessing is that of Murphy Cohen, who has thrown his hat into the ring as a candidate for the city commission of Long Branch, New Jersey.

Ellis Announces Himself Candidate For Tax Assessor

A. B. Ellis of Lubbock, with the First National bank of that city, has offered himself as a candidate for the office of county tax assessor, and makes known his record to the people of Slaton in the following announcement.

To the voters and citizens of Slaton and community:

In announcing my candidacy for the office of county tax assessor for Lubbock county, I first want to introduce myself to those who have come on since I became a pioneer there on June 10, 1911.

All the old-timers remaining will no doubt remember that I was the first assistant cashier of the First State bank, being associated with Mr. J. S. Edwards and P. E. Jordan, president and cashier, respectively, of that institution. While there I did my little bit toward the upbuilding of your splendid little city, having built a modest residence and identifying myself with the efforts put forth for the progress and advancement of the city. I have watched with pleased interest your continue growth and prosperity, and rejoice with you that you have the second best city on the great South Plains.

In the Slaton Radiogram, under date of March 7, 1924, is reproduced a picture of the west side of the square, taken in the early days and it has always given me pleasure to note that I was in that picture, standing at the extreme right, in front of the bank.

Some time during this campaign I expect to see each one of you and personally present my claims for consideration, but in the meantime if you do not know me, please inquire of any of the old-timers there as to my character, qualifications and fitness for this important office. I believe in democratic usage to give a good official a second term, but do not believe it good policy to continue a man in office indefinitely, "if it is a good thing, pass it along."

If elected to this office, I promise faithful, conscientious service to the best of my ability. Assuring you of my appreciation of your vote and influence, I am,

Yours very truly,
A. B. ELLIS.

Bread Making Seen By City Line Club

A bread-making demonstration was given by Miss Louise Baird, county home demonstration agent, at the meeting May 9 of the City Line home demonstration club, held at the home of Mrs. Lon Coleman.

It was decided at the meeting to hold the club meetings at the Slaton club house, and the next meeting will be held May 23, the feature of the program scheduled being a parliamentary drill, with Mrs. Buchanan as hostess.

Fourteen members and six visitors were present at the last meeting.

IT DRIVES OUT WORMS

The surest sign of worms in children is paleness, lack of interest in play, fretfulness, variable appetite, picking at the nose and sudden starting in sleep. When these symptoms appear it is time to give White's Cream Vermifuge. A few doses drives out the worms and puts the little one on the road to health again. White's Cream Vermifuge has a record of fifty years of successful use. Price 35c. Sold by

FROM the time chicks step out of their shells, they look to you for protection and care to live and thrive. Poultry yard facts show that more than 90% of the chicks fed Purina Startena and Purina Baby Chick Chow live and grow rapidly into plump broilers and early laying pullets. Isn't it sound business economy to feed Purina, which saves 9 out of 10, instead of average mixtures on which 5 out of 10 chicks die? COLLEGE STATION, May 18. — Farmers and their families, boys and girls of 4-H clubs, members of home demonstration clubs and of various organizations allied with agricultural pursuits are expected to gather in record breaking numbers at the A. & M. College of Texas for the nineteenth annual farmers' short course this summer. H. H. Williams, vice-director and state agent of the extension service, declared following a survey of plans and preparations for the forthcoming meeting. The short course will be held this year the week of July 30-August 4. Most of the details for the meeting have been worked out and complete program is to be announced soon.

The scope of the short course program will be as extensive as ever this year, with talks and demonstrations on virtually all branches of farming, livestock and poultry raising and home-making, scheduled. In order to facilitate matters and to prevent as many conflicts in the various meetings as possible, the program for men has been divided into three main sections, livestock, poultry and crops. The livestock section will deal with beef cattle, sheep, goats, hogs and dairying, while the crop section will be devoted to the main field crops, farm engineering, fruit, truck, and peach culture.
