Information On Bonds Available

In order to facilitate the buying of 2nd War Loan Bonds, the Citizen's State Bank is receiving applications for all types of Government Securities and will be glad to give full information and advice upon the various types that are available. There are several kinds of Bonds besides the regular E Bond, each one designed to meet the desire of individual investors. Any information concerning Government Securities will be gladly supplied at the bank.

$130,000 Yet To Be Raised By End Of This Month

Approximately $70,000.00 of the $200,000.00 goal set for the Slaton area in the 2nd War Bond Drive have been sold leaving a total of $130,000.00 to be sold between now and the end of the drive.

"We will have to speed up considerably," said Postmaster Kirby Scudder, who is keeping books on the local sales. According to his records, the sales of War Bonds in Slaton previous to the start of the 2nd War Bond Drive, was $540,050.00, which amount added to the bonds sold since that date gives us a grand total of $610,330.00.

The Victory Fund Committee in Dallas states that this District's Goal is 400 Million Dollars in War Bonds. Figures on the Sale in this District will be released from the Dallas Office at regular intervals.

Records show that the sale of E Bonds up to date are 9 1/2 million dollars, although 4 per cent of these have been cashed.

The sale of Bonds is not keeping up as good as the various organizations had hoped it would. If the high record Slaton and this community has set is to be kept up, much more interest will have to be shown in the Nation's appeal for funds with which to carry on the war.

Slaton has more than done her share in War Bond Sales to date, however, the Bank deposits show many thousands of dollars in deposits are lying idle. Particularly heavy are the deposits of the farmer population and among those who are farm owners and it is hoped by the Victory Fund Committee that those who have these heavy deposits, will Buy More Bonds. It is now the time to Lend Your Money, in order that fewer of our men on the battle fronts will have to give their lives.

Gordon will be Salutatorian, and Josephine Kempf won highest honors among the girls.

The Junior High School Graduation exercises will be held at the High School on Thursday, May 13, but full details of the program have not been worked out.

Both graduation exercises will be open to the public.

Fire destroyed a double garage, a barn and a tractor that was stored in the barn on North 3rd St., last Wednesday afternoon.

All of the property belonged to Lynn Crossland and all but the tractor were total losses. The fire department made a rush call, but due to the burning of the tractor fuel that was in the tractor, the water and chemical had little effect.

100 Texas Defense Guardsmen To Hold Maneuvers In Slaton

Local USO Unit Needs More Music

It seems that the Service men who stop over in Slaton are getting excellent attention, but the souls of many of the boys call for music and the USO lounge room, at the Santa Fe Depot, is as free of music as the bottom of a well.

The women at the USO headquarters are in a dither, all steam-heat up and otherwise excited and want someone who has a piano that is no longer in use to lend the instrument to the USO so that the young men in the service may calm their souls to the strains of "Sweet Adeline," etc.

Mrs. S. A. Peavy and Mrs. Dick Ragsdale have charge of the USO rooms and promise that any piano that is looking for a comfortable place to stay will be well cared for. So if you have a piano that is sitting back in the corner getting dusty, or have one stored somewhere, you can do a good turn for the boys in the service by letting the women at the USO adopt it for a while.

Slaton Schools Graded High

The Slaton Schools were inspected this week by H. E. Boulter, Deputy State School Superintendent and Roy Boyd, Lubbock County School Superintendent. Both officials gave the Slaton Schools a high grade in their operations. Professor Boulter said that he was particularly impressed with the fine College record of the instructors in the Slaton School.

Miss Esther Sorenson, Home Making Chief of the West Texas District, also inspected the Home Making Department of the High School and gave the Slaton Department a most favorable report.

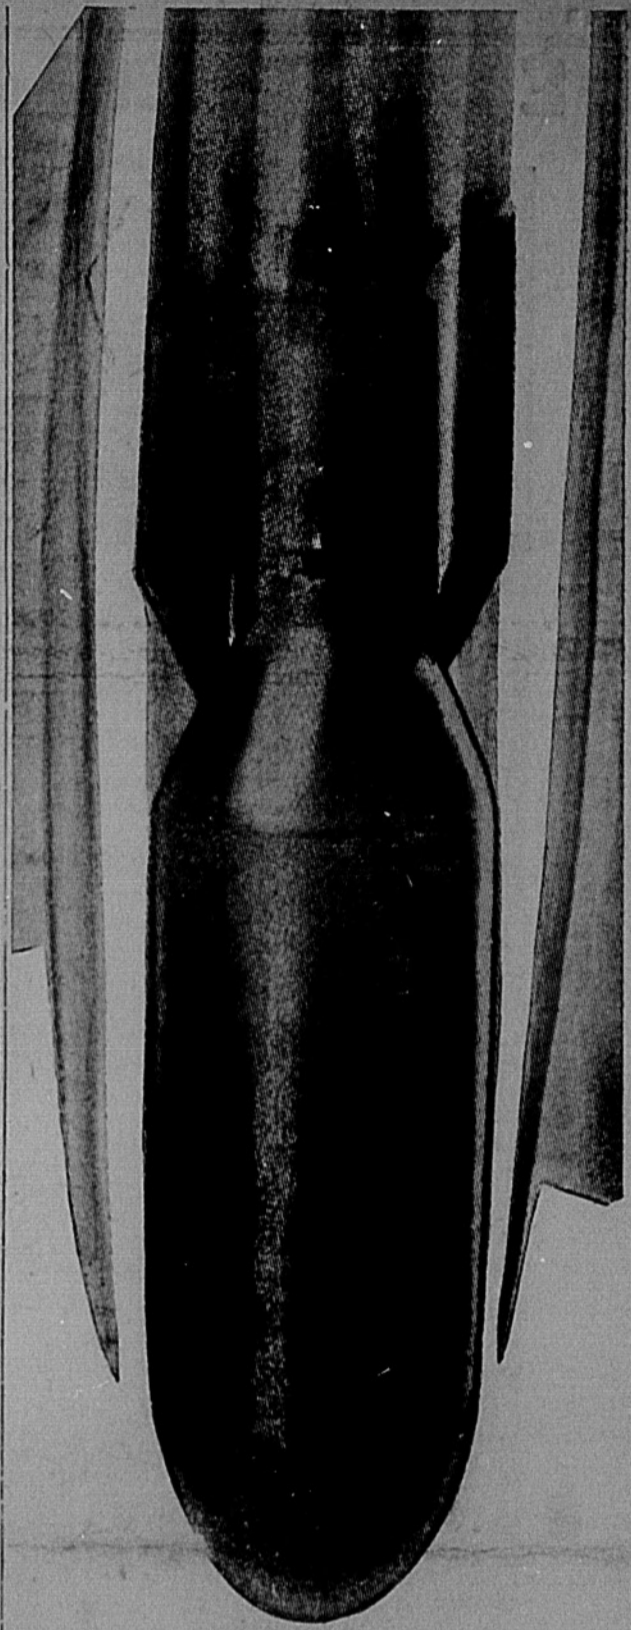

E. OTIS ALLEN

E. Otis Allen, Gospel singer, of Norton, is to conduct the singing at the Revival Meeting at the First Baptist Church, beginning April 18 through May 2. Mr. Allen is a Gospel singer of wide reputation. You will enjoy hearing him. He is also a trombone soloist of marked ability.

You are cordially invited to join this special Revival effort. Your prayerful presence will add much to the success of the Revival.

Rev. C. J. McCarty will do the preaching. Make your plans to hear this great Gospel team. A cordial welcome awaits all. W. F. Ferguson, Pastor.

M. L. Murray Now Conoco Consignee

Announcement was made this week of the purchase from A. E. Wilde of the Conoco warehouse equipment by M. L. Murray, who has taken over the property and is now the authorized Conoco Dealer for this territory.

Mr. Murray comes to Slaton from Wilson, where he operated for six years. He is well known in this section and is an experienced business man who will continue the excellent service that Mr. Wilde has given in the past.

"I feel that we have the best Petroleum Products on the market to offer the farmer and those who live in town," said Mr. Murray. "The record that Nth Motor Oils have set in sales and performance is most unusual and at a time like the present, when an automobile is a most precious possession, we feel that supplying the people of this community with Conoco Products is a vital job."

Mr. Wilde, who is retiring in order to devote all of his attention to his farming interests, reported that he is glad to be able to turn over the business he has built up to a man like Mr. Murray who, he feels sure, will give Conoco patrons the best service possible.

G. L. SLEDGE HAS EYE OPERATION IN LUBBOCK

G. L. Sledge underwent an operation on his eyes this week at a Lubbock Hospital. Mr. Sledge returned this week from El Dorado, Ark., where he was called to be with his brother, Mark Sledge, who suffered a heart attack recently.

SEVERAL SLATON WOMEN SUSTAIN INJURIES

Several Slaton women are recuperating from broken limbs this week. Mrs. L. R. Gregory fell and broke her arm while visiting her daughter, Mrs. Cleddie B. Lanier, in Wichita Falls. She is improving very nicely.

Mrs. W. E. Kersheval sustained a broken arm and hip when she fell from the back steps of her home last week, but she is recovering as rapidly as could be expected. Mrs. Edd Meyers is also on this list, as she is recovering from a broken arm.

Rotary Elects New Officers

At the meeting of the Slaton Rotary Club yesterday, Odie Hood was elected to be the new President of the Club, to take the place of Leonard Harral, whose term expires in July; W. T. Cherry was elected to become Vice President to take the place of Odie Hood, and Allan Payne was re-elected as Secretary-Treasurer, as was Paul Stevens as Song leader, M. S. Kavanaugh as Sergeant-at-Arms, and Mrs. Allan Ferrell as Pianist. Three new directors are to be chosen at a later date.

Cotton Insurance Breaks '42 Record

COLLEGE STATION, April 12.—More Texas farmers will have their cotton crop protected this year than during 1942.

The state AAA office announced this week that already 36,917 applications have been tabulated and that farmers in northwest Texas and the South Plains area now are signing insurance contracts with county AAA committees.

Deadline for this heavy cotton producing area is April 15, the final closing date in the state, according to Donald L. Cothran, state crop insurance supervisor.

Offered for the second year, federal cotton crop insurance protects the crop against all avoidable hazards from the time seeds are planted until the cotton is ginned. Either 50 or 75 percent of the farm's normal yield is protected under the FCIC contract.

Premiums may be paid by signing a commodity note which calls for payment either in cotton, or the cash equivalent, in deductions from loss payments, or from the first farm payment. Premiums are due in the fall, the AAA official said.

The outstanding feature of this year's program is the reduced premium plan through which growers' premiums will be reduced as much as 50 percent when the amount paid into the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation over a continuous period of years equals or exceeds the amount required to pay one total loss.

The COTTON FARMER HAS THE "KNOW HOW"

In the shops of the Nation, turning out vital war machine needs, you hear a lot about the man with the "know how."

With an appalling shortage of vital fats and oils, and Protein for Beef and Dairy Cattle, facing the Nation this year, we already have a man with the "know how" to MEET that need . . . the cotton farmer.

We have the land—the climate—the trained farmer, the mills and other needed facilities to get the job done.

Let's plant every acre legally permitted . . . produce every pound of cotton possible.

Illustrated above are scenes taken in this section of Lubbock County of bountiful crops that have been grown here in the past. The illustrations were taken from The Slatonite files of pictures that appeared in the past. We would like to have them identified and if you recognize any of them we would like to have you let us know where they were taken and when.

Up to date the farmers in this section are most gratified with the prospects both as to the market for their products and condition of the ground.

Many crops are being experimented with both in gardens and on farms that have never been grown extensively in this section before. Paul Stevens has broccolli and brussels sprouts growing in a hot house and will put them out in the open when the weather warms up. Soybeans were grown last season by a number of farmers in this section, including Sug Robertson and Antone Buxkemper, and both reaped a profitable harvest. Charley Austin reports that his peanut crop turned out very well and he will put in another crop of them this year.

Mr. J. A. Klasner, who is an authority on gardening in this part of Texas has had considerable success with such plans as Youngberries, grapes, strawberries, broccolli and many other plants, reports that many, many plants can be grown most successfully here and that if the people in this section would cultivate gardens more extensively, rationing of many items would not affect us at all.

Royal Canadian Air Force Hail Hitler—With Bombs

Guns must be right when Canadian bombers raid Germany. Sgt. Les Horn, of Virden, Man., a rear-gunner with an RCAF Halifax squadron in Britain watches Sgt. A. T. Tschanter, of Washington, D. C., a U. S. member of the RCAF, clean them.

IN passive pamphlet missions over Germany and in crushing four-ton "block buster" raids Canadians have winged their way to the most remote targets of Axis Europe.

In the vanguard of the men who carry war to the Axis deep into Europe were the men who went from Canada direct to Britain to enlist in the Royal Air Force.

Following them closely were airmen of the Royal Canadian Air Force, who, gradually after the start of the war began to augment the growing might of the R. A. F.

By June, 1940, the flow of airmen going overseas was increased to substantial proportions and the R. C. A. F. set up its first bomber squadron. This single squadron two and a half years later became the first Canadian bomber group. For on the first minute after midnight of January 1, 1943, the first Bomber Group in R. C. A. F. history was created. Bomber stations, which had been operating previously under Royal Air Force Command, were instructed that henceforth they would come under the command of the new Group Headquarters.

Consolidating Experience There was more to placing the group in operation than the issuing of an order and the consolidating of R. C. A. F. bomber squadrons operating in Britain. For two months prior to January 1 the groundwork was being laid. Senior R. C. A. F. officers were being trained to assume their new duties and the administrative network of a highly intricate organization was being erected.

Airmen of the group will now operate giant four-motored and twin-motored bombers as a completely integrated unit, subject to the strategic direction of the Royal Air Force Bomber Command.

In the new Bomber Group, under Air Vice Marshal G. E. Brookes, Air Officer Commanding, are R. C. A. F. officers and men of wide experience in aerial warfare. Five members of the first Canadian bomber squadron are members of headquarters staff. Many of the senior officers of the Group have long hours of operation flying to their credit.

Although removed from rationing restrictions, supplies of fencing materials still are limited and dealers are being requested to restrict sales to producers' immediate needs in order that maximum use might be obtained from the supplies now on hand.

They also are asked to limit sales, insofar as possible, to farmers and ranchmen for increasing production of agricultural commodities this year.

BRIGHT FUTURE IS INDICATED FOR TEXAS LUMBERMEN

AUSTIN, April 16.—New developments in the use of Southern wood pulps indicate a bright future for Texas lumbermen, Elmer Johnson, industrial geographer at the University of Texas, declares.

While war demands for paper products have held production of wood pulp and paper in the South at an all-time high, revolutionary developments in the use of plywoods foreshadow great post-war demands as well, Johnson explains. In addition, the growth of the heavy chemicals industry in the South is making it possible for Southern paper manufacturers to produce fine white papers in competition with imported wood pulps and papers.

Peanut Butter for Quick Bread

Every now and then it's fun to make homemade bread. Here's a new recipe for Peanut Butter Bread designed to make a nutritious quick loaf that stays moist. With so many war workers and school children carrying lunches these days, a new kind of bread for sandwiches adds interest to lunch box menus. Peanut Butter Bread has a distinctive flavor and makes a good sandwich when it is simply spread with butter or margarine. Cream, cheese or red current jelly are also good sandwich fillings for this bread. To make one loaf:

- 2 cups enriched flour
 - 3 teaspoons baking powder
 - 1 teaspoon salt
 - 1-2 cup sugar
 - 1 1-4 cups milk
 - 2-3 cup peanut butter
- Sift flour, measure and sift again with baking powder, salt and sugar. Mix milk and peanut butter. Add to dry ingredients and mix thoroughly. Pour into a greased loaf pan and let stand for 20 minutes. Then bake at 350 deg. F. for 45-50 minutes.

Take Care Of Your S. S. Card

"Every time an American worker loses, destroys, or mutilates his social security account card, he is wasting as much money as it costs to provide thirteen bullets to an American soldier," John Palmer, manager of the Lubbock Social Security Board field office said today. He asked that holders of social security cards safeguard them as a wartime conservation measure.

"Don't carry your card with you unless you must. Put it in a drawer safe or other place where you keep valuable documents. Know where the card is. Before putting it away place it in an envelope and mark it: 'My social security card'. Then you will be able to find it in a hurry, if necessary.

"If you change jobs frequently and need to carry your card with you, don't just stuff it in a pocket. Try to protect it against loss, wear, or mutilation. Never keep your card in your overall or shirt pockets. Many losses occur because the shirt or the overalls—together with the card—are tossed into the laundry tub."

Mr. Palmer also warned against using the card for identification purposes. He said the card is not only valueless for identifying persons, but such use results in wear and tear and shortens the life of the card.

On Long Flights

Thin-walled aluminum tanks riveted and welded at the seams to make them leak-proof are carried as extra fuel tanks by our bombers on long flights. The tanks may occupy space where bombs are usually carried. The extra tanks are drained first then are dropped from the plane to lighten the load.

Sophia

Mrs. Kimball and Mrs. Worthington, dressed soberly and wearing their best black gloves, walked along the stony country road back toward Sophia Hardy's farm, to pay their visit of condolence.

"How do you reckon she'll be bearing up?" Mrs. Kimball asked Mrs. Worthington. Both ladies wore their most solemn, funereal expressions.

"A mighty severe blow," Mrs. Worthington said. "Mighty severe. To lose your only son, the mainstay of your declining years. And such a dreadful death, too—to go down with a ship. Mercy!"

"The first of our boys from Hand County to go, too," Mrs. Kimball said, mournfully. "I wouldn't blame Sophia Hardy for feeling right bitter."

They stood on the simple stone doorstep, with downcast eyes, getting themselves into the proper commiserative mood.

"Come in!" The voice was brisk and cordial. They looked up in surprise. Sophia herself had come to the door. As they followed her into the parlor they exchanged glances, with eyebrows lifted. Sophia was not even in mourning. The parlor shades were not even drawn.

"It's nice of you to come," Sophia said. "Do sit down."

"We came," Mrs. Kimball said almost reprovingly, "to tell you that our hearts are bleeding for you in your great loss."

"We know how lonely you must be out here," Mrs. Worthington said. "With nothing to take your mind off of."

"Oh, I keep busy," Sophia said. "I've just finished applying for the Government insurance on Tom's life."

The visiting ladies could not resist a shocked glance at one another.

"I want to get it right away," Sophia said. "So I can put it into War Bonds. My boy hasn't finished fighting yet, not by a long shot."

The ladies were so occupied with feeling horrified, so titillated by this callous behaviour in a bereaved mother—that neither of them noticed Sophia's hands. Under the folds of her clean print dress, against the seat of her chair, they were tightly clenched.

TRAVIS COUNTY GIRL WINS 4-H SCHOLARSHIP

COLLEGE STATION, April 12.—Horatio Alger's novels of self-made heroes are rivaled by the initial chapters in the success story of Evelyn Wieland, 17-year-old Travis County 4-H Club girl, who has been selected to receive the Maggie W. Barry College Scholarship offered annually to a 4-H Club girl by the Texas Home Demonstration Association.

Chinaberry beads are the trademark of the scholarship winner who has sold strands to customers in 27 Texas counties and in six other states. With the $342 profit from this "cash crop," Evelyn has purchased 12 War Savings Bonds and has begun a bank account for her college expenses. She plans to attend the University of Texas, majoring in home economics.

Onah Jacks, state girls' club agent for the A. and M. College Extension Service, who announced the selection, says that while chinaberry beads are Evelyn's trademark, "4-H Club work is her business." She is efficient in home improvement, both inside and outside the house; plans, makes and cares for her own clothing; grows a garden and conserves food for the less productive season; and raises chickens.

Money for Evelyn's first War Bond came from the sale of a calf she raised. Her capital also has been increased by fair prizes. She has swapped and traded for many things—such as shrubbery for the lawn and paint for her bedroom.

Evelyn was chosen to receive the scholarship, Miss Jacks says, because of her all-around 4-H achievements in her home, in the Pflugerville 4-H Club of which she is a member, and in her community. Other district candidates for the scholarship were Mary Louise Piehl of Moore County; Angelina Kveton of Lubbock County; Arlene Jackson of Young County; Maxine Rogers of Johnson County; Bertie Fogle of Harrison County; Lucille Deerman, El Paso County; Jimmie Leah Broward of Tusk-

County; Ora Nell Stech of Colorado County; and Violet Wendt of Cameron County.

GENERAL MANUEL AVILA CAMACHO, PRESIDENT

THIS WEEK'S WAR MOVES

The news of the week from Tunisia was the junction of the U. S. Second Army Corps and the British Eighth Army. Contact was made about 15 miles East of El Guettar on the Gafsa-Gabes road, which indicates that the British swung inland some distance in order to meet the American forces.

This junction was effected during the afternoon of April 7 (Wednesday), after the decisive defeat of Rommel's determined counter-attacks. Early Wednesday morning, when it became evident that the enemy could not maintain any position in the Wadi Akarit area north of Oudref, Allied mobile forces began moving forward. Wadi Akarit is a deep, natural tank barrier which affords excellent defensive positions, but the Allied forces pushed their drive relentlessly, French, British and American troops moving in close cooperation. And by afternoon the British and American forces had made contact.

Aerial tactics are still a great factor in the Battle of Tunisia. On Sunday, April 4, Allied air operations cost the Axis 11 aircraft destroyed, Monday's operations cost the Axis 48 planes, and Monday night an enemy bomber was brought down. Tuesday's total was 27 Axis planes destroyed; Wednesday's operations shot down 14. Thus, in three days of aerial combat, the Allies put out of the fighting 101 Axis planes, at a loss of 23 of our own. Returning from an inspection tour, Brig. Gen. Aubrey C. Strickland, commanding advanced USAAF headquarters, said that U. S. Ninth air force units in the Tunisian front lines helped "break the back" of German resistance.

Secretary of War Stimson, in a review of the war, told reporters that in one day—24 hours—American planes operating in the African theatre shot down 50 Axis planes and lost less than one-fourth of that number. Some of these Axis planes, he said, were big transport aircraft trying to supply the Nazis with gasoline. The week's bombing raids on Axis airfields in Tunisia, Sicily and Sardinia resulted in the destruction of 120 enemy planes caught on the ground, in addition to those shot down in combat.

Mr. Stimson said the immediate objectives of the present drive in Tunisia are not yet clear, but "we can be assured of victory in that theatre." He confirmed an early claim that more than 5,000 Axis soldiers were taken prisoner last Tuesday when the British opened their new drive north of Gabes, and promised that the British success and the American flanking actions would be "exploited to the fullest." Commenting on the same developments, OWI Director Davis was also optimistic. He explained the continued Allied success against Rommel by pointing out that the pressure of U. S. forces against the right flank of the Afrika Korps compelled Rommel to divert part of his forces to meet the American drive, and British forces were thus able to drive through and take another German-held position.

The size of the Japanese air armada—50 bombers escorted by 48 zeros—which was so decisively defeated on April 7 in its attack against U. S. shipping in the Solomons seems to verify recent reports that the Japanese have been increasing their aerial strength in the Southwest Pacific. U. S. Airmen, the Navy announced, shot down 37 out of the 98 attacking planes, and at a loss of only seven of our fighters. Secretary Stimson admitted that the Japanese have built up their air reserves in this area, but said we have been doing the same thing. Although in some places we may not have a numerical superiority over the Japanese, the quality of our equipment and our men has constantly proved our superiority, and today we have an edge on them.

stationed at Danville, Rhode Island since the 13th of last December, says that he likes his work, but that the extreme cold is hard to get used to.

LUBBOCK, April 12.—Lieut. Col. Frederick W. Franke, quartermaster officer at SPAFS, has been named coordinator of salvage for a 15-county West Texas area, it was announced this week.

Tentative plans will include a mobile unit of several trucks and accompanying personnel to make a complete coverage of the area, gathering all metal which can be donated. The trucks will canvass the area thoroughly, with each farm and home being visited, Lieut. Col. Franke said.

The counties included in the area are Bailey, Lamb, Hale, Floyd, Motley, Cochran, Hookley, Lubbock, Crosby, Dickens, Yoakum, Terry, Lynn, Garza and Kent.

After the scrap is collected, it will be shipped to central points from the nearest railroad station, according to present plans.

A weekly rabbit drive for officers and enlisted men at SPAFS has been started in an effort to save the "Victory Farm" from rapid destruction.

The men participating are limited to sticks and clubs for weapons. The first time out only one rabbit bit the dust. Another roundup was called and this time 19 bunnies met their doom.

To make it more interesting for the men army officials have offered three-day passes to all men getting rabbits if the passes do not interfere with training or flying routine.

Residents of the South Plains area were warned by army officials against failing to stop when one of the guard dogs barks. It was pointed out that one of the MP's who had helped train the dogs, was bitten when he failed to heed the warning bark. The dogs aid sentries in patrolling the field.

Military and civilian employees at South Plains Army Flying School purchased $18,925 in War Bonds during March. Participation of civilians is 84.4 percent, with an average of 10.40 percent of pay. Totals for March showed a slight increase for those for February.

A letter from Col. D. M. Allison, who is stationed in Africa, to his cousin, Tim H. Brooks, here in Slaton, stated that the Colonel took part in the African fighting against Rommel. He is in the Army Air Force and reports that the Germans have not been an easy foe and that they are good pilots and have good planes to fly. He hopes to get a crack at the Japs when the Germans have been cleaned out of Africa.

Col. Allison's home is in Okmulgee, Okla.

Mrs. J. B. Butler, 1105 West Lynn, received a letter from her son, Sgt. Shirley Butler, who is serving in the Air Corps in foreign countries.

He writes that he is fine, enjoying himself and believes camels and horses much safer than dad's car, therefore he feels secure and happy and has everything his heart desires, but home.

Kirby Scudder, Jr., left Sunday April 11, for Dallas to report to the Naval Air Corps. From Dallas he will go to Austin, where he will

How Pasteurized Milk Is Treated

In discussing his recent decision to distribute Borden's Products in Slaton, Mr. W. L. Johns said that he would have discontinued the sale of raw milk several months ago if he could have secured the correct kind of equipment to store the milk in while bringing it from Lubbock to Slaton, but had to postpone his plans until last week when he was able to get the cooling units released by the Government.

Mr. Johns also stated that he did not believe every one is familiar with what Pasteurization means for milk and other dairy products. In the first place only Grade A raw milk is used, which requires that all dairies from which it comes must meet very high standards for cleanliness and must be inspected at least once each month by a Health Inspector, as well as have all milk given a bacteria test twice each month.

Borden's Pasteurization Plant is also on a Grade A basis, which meets many more strict requirements. The process of Pasteurization involves the use of stainless steel vats in which the raw milk is heated to a temperature of 143½ degrees F., and held there for a period of 30 minutes. It is then cooled until it reaches an ice cold temperature and bottled. All of these processes are done by machinery, which is sterilized daily. The milk never comes in contact with human hands after sterilization takes place.

Mr. Johns keeps the milk ice cold until delivered to you.

Mrs. F. L. Swagerty is visiting her son, Floyd R. Swagerty, at Camp Davis. She writes that North Carolina has a fine climate, but their only fuel is coal and that makes too much smoke and soot.

Will Americans Be More Tender With Their Money Than Lives of Their Sons

Washington, D. C.—A blunt challenge—whether Americans will be more tender with their money than with the lives of their sons—confronts U. S. citizens as they prepare to meet the appeal of the government to put an additional 13 billion dollars into the fight in the next three weeks.

Millions of dollars which run off to shelter to hide while our boys are dying to defend our cities and towns from destruction and invasion will face a rising demand from all classes of patriotic citizens to come out and fight.

Millions of workmen who now are buying War Bonds regularly out of current income must lend extra money to their government during the Second War Loan campaign (which started April 12).

In recognition of the spirit of sacrifice which is sweeping over the land as our troops swing into offensive action in Africa and await the signal for a landing in Europe, the Treasury Department is offering a series of government bonds to fit every pocketbook.

No matter whether Americans buy the familiar Series E Bonds or 2 1/2 per cent bonds or 2 per cent bonds or tax certificates, they will be doing their part to make the Second War Loan drive a success.

Consumer Spending Too High. Consumer spending in 1942 was

RED CROSS WORK IS IN FULL SWING

The present quota of 80 kits has been filled. Five bags were filled the past week by the Civic and Culture Club, two by the East Ward School children, and one by the Cub Scouts, Den No. 2, Pack 28. Three quilts were made for the Red Cross at the P. M. Wheatley home last Friday. The Sew and Chat Club also donated a quilt made by the members.

Chairmen for next week are: Monday, Mrs. Gus Seal and Mrs. Chas. Whalen; Tuesday, Mrs. W. R. Lovett and Mrs. R. H. Todd; Wednesday, Mrs. W. P. Florence and Mrs. J. A. Elliott.

Mrs. Ben Mansker, General Chairman of Surgical Dressings, reports wonderful co-operation and attendance. Three hundred gauze dressings were made last week.

The Pioneer Study Club will work each Thursday night, as many of their members are working girls. Other clubs have expressed a desire to devote time, but as yet have not designated a definite time.

much too high to meet the war situation of 1943. Last year more than 82 billion dollars of our soaring national income went to feed the desires of Americans for clothes, recreation, foods and luxuries. As these items grow scarcer, more of our income must be diverted from such expenses into government bonds.

During 1942 millions of our fathers, sons, relatives and friends were in training here and abroad. Some were already in action. Casualties were beginning to bite into every community. War Bonds became a vital link between the home and fighting fronts.

Today sacrifice has become a way of life for America's fighting men. Civilian spending on the 1942 scale must go out the window if the home folks are to attempt to match the heroism of our boys at the front.

Not every American can take his place in a bomber or in a foxhole or on a fighting ship but he can fire away at the enemy by lending money to the government.

What Is Liver Health?

Sedentary workers and those who are forced by occupation to a bodily position that cramps and stiffens the lower portion of the back bone are frequent and persistent sufferers from liver and bowel complaints.

The commonest truth of life is that the organs and cells of the body do not need to be forced or stimulated, but will always act gladly and freely in the direction of health when they receive their full amount of functioning power from the transmitting nerves.

The cause of liver weakness or disease is lack of nerve power. When there is liver weakness there is liver nerve pressure at the backbone opening for the spinal nerve, and liver strength and health returns when by adjusting the joints to proper alignment the pressure upon the nerve is lifted.

Correct Spacing Is Chief Element

COLLEGE STATION—Raising the chicks after getting them from the hatchery is the main problem for amateur poultrymen, and some times for the more experienced, too. Proper spacing in the brooder house and disease prevention are the main elements in bringing them successfully into production, says George P. McCarthy, poultryman for the A & M College Extension Service. And correct spacing is the chief of these.

Crowding opens the gate to diseases which pick off chickens that otherwise would become needed producers. The right capacity for a brooder house having 100 square feet, for example, is 200 chicks.

Fowl pox, or sorehead, and coccidiosis, levy a heavy toll on eggs and chickens. Both are preventable, McCarthy says. Beginners, or those who have experienced outbreaks on their farms, should make vaccination of flocks for fowl pox a must this season, especially the pullets after the cockerels have been sold. Vaccination, which costs approximately one-half cent a pullet, is the safest chicken insurance. The county agricultural agent will advise or help in applying it.

Sanitation is the best preventive of coccidiosis—clean feeders and waterers, and clean, dry litter with emphasis on dry. Coccidia need moisture to develop. Stirring the litter, moving the feeders and water fountains to new locations in the house daily will keep it down. Feeding of sulphur in the mash, along with good sanitation, also has proved successful as a preventive. The recommendation is to add two and one-half pounds of dusting sulphur, or unconditioned 325 mesh sulphur in 100 pounds of feed. Chicks must be at least three weeks old and running in the sunlight before sulphur is fed, and it cannot be fed to chicks which are in batteries.

Complete information is contained in Extension publication "Prevention of Coccidiosis," which may be obtained from the county agricultural agent.

out, and may be punished by suspension or revocation of Certificates.

New operators receiving a motor vehicle through transfer must file an application for CWN immediately upon the transfer. Operators who already hold Certificates must apply for revised Certificates, using Form CWN-5-S if a Single Unit Operator, or Form CWN-S-F if a Fleet Operator. Failure to file such application may also result in suspension of the operators CWN, the ODT said.

Operators of one or two vehicles must return Certificates to their ODT District Offices and must surrender unused "T" Coupons to their Local War Price & Rationing Boards upon transfer. Fleet operators must advise the nearest ODT District Office of their action and return the appropriate Sub-Certificate.

Operators changing their area of operation or substantially changing the nature of their business must inform their local ODT District Office of such changes. Changes of address should also be reported promptly.

rewful. It was not an easy thing the Savior did as He fulfilled the will of God. No man ever sorrowed as He did, for only He bore the sins of the world. There is however, a lesson here for us who are His disciples. If this is the road the Master trod, should not His servants tread it as well?

2. The way of self-denial (vv. 39, 42, 44). Self-denial does not consist of depriving oneself of some cherished luxury. It means the denial of self. Self-will is put aside and God's will is supreme. Christ prayed, "Not as I will, but as thou wilt." It may be a hard thing to do, but by His grace we too may say, "Thy will be done."

3. A way of loneliness (vv. 36, 37, 40, 43). There were twelve with the Lord in the upper room, but one went out into the darkness to betray Him. Eleven came with Him to the garden gate, but only three came into the garden. Even they could not go all the way. He prayed and agonized alone.

Alone? If the Master had to walk the way of surrender alone, let no Christian expect it will be otherwise with him. Let us thank God for every blessing of true fellowship, but let us not be surprised if we are often called to walk alone—with God.

4. A way of betrayal (vv. 45, 46). One feels that the cup of the Master was already overfull without adding betrayal by one of His own. But with what peace and assurance Jesus went to meet it. The victory had already been won in prayer, submission to His Father's will. No one will ever experience such betrayal as that of our Lord, but we do face similar crises as we go on in a life of devotion to God's will. We do well to remember Christ's experience that we be not overwhelmed, that we may meet them with the power and grace of our Lord.

5. A way of divine fellowship and blessing (vv. 39, 42). Even the way of sorrow, self-denial, loneliness and betrayal may become the means of blessing if God is in them. Though no man stood by our Lord, the Father was there. Jesus talked with Him, trusted Him, yielded fully to His way, and the result was peace and blessing. And the same can be true of us.

THIS WEEK'S LESSON.

"Doctrine of Atonement" is the subject of this week's Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 18.

The Golden Text is: "Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ, who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world according to the will of God and our Father" (Galatians 1:3,4).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Now then we are ambassadors for Christ as though God did beseech you by us; we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God" (II Corinthians 5:20).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The atonement requires constant self-immolation on the sinner's part" (page 23).

for farm use. The local boards have been advised by OPA that substantial district, state and regional reserves have been established to provide for needs. Also, a national reserve will be maintained to increase field office supplies of this type tire.

The principal reason behind the move which frees recapping of reclaimed rubber from rationing restrictions was the desire to have farmers recap their tires in time to prevent total loss of worn tire casings. As a move to conserve rubber, replacements will not be issued for tires that can be recapped.

Previously, recapping of rear wheel tractor tires was not required and replacements were granted even though the tires to be replaced were suitable for recapping.

Tractor and implement tires will now be recapped with Grade F camel back, which contains no crude rubber.

Triumph Through Surrender
By the Rev. Harold L. Lundquist
D. D., Member of Faculty Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.
Surrender brings victory! The world would say that is not true; surrender is the mark of defeat. But we say, the way of strength is through surrender, for we speak of the spiritual realm and of our relationship to God. Here there is no victory until there is surrender. Christ does not ask His disciples to walk a way which He Himself has not trod. He went the way of full surrender to the will of God in the Garden of Gethsemane.

JUST TALK
by
A.M.J.

Here's a good story from "Tack's" Column in the Amarillo Globe:

The prize story of the week comes out of Pampa, so I am told.

Pampa is a boom town these days. It is packed with soldiers and naturally a good many beer joints, and the like, have sprung up. The authorities have been busy cleaning up this and that place and they have had their hands full.

And, so the story goes, there is an organization of big-hearted married women, over there in Pampa, who are trying to make the world better. They are seeking out the play girls and trying to induce them to live better lives. They get them jobs and place them in respectable homes in some instances.

Anyway, so they say, the other afternoon a committee of these fine, elderly mothers visited a beer joint where girls congregate to meet men. They were there to interview the girls, to study the seamy side of life. One of the girls was particularly pretty and innocent-looking and quite young. The mothers swarmed her as soon as they spotted her.

"How do you happen to be working in such a place as this?" one of the members of the committee asked the girl.

Well, the girl was sort of set back. She didn't know what to say at first.

"Oh," she replied, finally, "I don't know. I'm just lucky, I guess."

When I stop and consider the young woman's answer, I have decided I'm just lucky to be in the newspaper business.

Several property owners on Lubbock Street have made improvements that should add considerably to the looks and sounds on this important thoroughfare.

Mrs. L. B. Wootton has finally persuaded L. B. to build a Colonial style chicken house on their vacant lot next to their home. L. B. says he is putting up a strong fight against equipping the house with Venetian blinds and a shower bath, but he is afraid that he will have to compromise on Chintz curtains and an oriental rug. The hen dwelling has been tastefully surrounded with a gracefully designed pailing fence and the grounds landscaped to make an ideal setting for contented fowls.

For my part I have sold my alarm clock and depend upon my neighbors' chickens to get me out of bed at the proper time. If any more of my neighbors stock up with chickens the compass can discard its seven o'clock whistle and leave it up to the roosters on Lubbock Street to start the business day off with a bedlam of noise.

Ben Cole, who is one of the Gasoline Rationers over in Lubbock, is telling a story about a draft dodger who was bragging about having gotten out of serving by wearing a truss when he went before the army doctor for his physical examination.

"Let me have that thing for a day or two," said one of the dodger's buddies, "I'm called up day after tomorrow."

When the second man appeared, he stood very confidently before the Doctor with the truss around his waist, but the Doctor paid little attention to it except to ask him how long he had been wearing it. "Ten years," said the applicant.

When the truss wearer asked why he had been placed in a company that was scheduled to go to Africa immediately, the Doctor told him that any man who could wear a truss upside down for ten years was tough enough to stand most any kind of military life.

With all the pretty weather

we have been having of late I have been keeping my eye peeled for women bicycle riders, but for some reason Myrtle Teague, Mary Watkins and Mrs. T. J. Settle have not dusted off their mounts. Every day I have been doing a lot of shadow boxing and turning corners carefully, with the expectation of having to dodge a woman bicycle rider. Can it be that they have all gone sissy again?

It is real interesting to me to see the things that people store away and to look around in second hand stores. One place that particularly attracts me is the storage room that A. E. Whitehead has just a few doors from the Slatonite office. Just what he intends to do with that stack of old magazines that have pictures of buxom dames, dressed in Gay '90 style or with that outfit that looks like an Italian Gondola, is a most interesting question. There is also a big electric fixture that could have been used in a Court House or a saloon, some shelving and a battered old counter, there is a pile of stuff that looks like hay and some sacks filled with stuff that might be feed or it might be sand and in the far back, an outfit that could be anything from a land mine to a peanut thrasher. If his windows were a little cleaner I could figure out a lot of other things and then go home and wake up in the middle of the night and spend several hours wondering where he got them all and then finish out the remainder of the night trying to figure out what he is going to do with them now that he has them.

All my life I have been expecting things to level off and get just right. In other words, to reach that point where they are normal, but as far back as I can remember, we have been going through a depression, a boom or the President and the Congresses have been trying to ward off one or the other, but it seems now that I can sit back and rest easy, for all the Women's Clubs, the Churches, the High School Students, the Rotary Clubs, the Ex Ambassadors and Congress are working out "after the war peace schemes" that will give everyone an ample supply of everything, and I am looking forward with trepidation to the millennium that is teetering on unsteady legs as the world battles its way through time.

THE 2ND WAR LOAN DRIVE IS ON!

America...you've got to get tougher!

AMERICA — Let's be frank about it . . . so far, many of us back home have been fighting this war from an easy chair. Many of us have bought War Bonds out of extra cash, out of money we didn't miss too much. We haven't been really tough with ourselves.

But this war is a hard, down-to-reality war. And many of our boys are dying in it. We've got to buy MORE

So your government asks you to buy Bonds and more Bonds—to get really tough with yourself. We're asking you to give up the frills and "extras."

We know how human it is not to make sacrifices until the crisis drives us to it. In England they felt the same way until the bombs started falling.

Bombs are such persuasive things. But just as persuasive ought to be the spirit of our brothers, sons, husbands.

If you could see
Look at it this way—suppose you had a magic carpet that could take you to Africa and New Guinea. Suppose you could hear the groan of American boys wounded, and American boys dying. . . . Say now, how many Bonds would you buy?

That kind of war
THEY . . . are dying. And they will keep on dying until we drown the enemy in an overwhelming torrent of bombs, bullets, guns, tanks, planes, ships, and shells.

That's why we're asking you, in this one month of April alone, to lend Uncle Sam 13 billions of dollars—by buying War Bonds. 13 billions of extra dollars—over and above any buying that you'd be doing anyway!

A lot of money
Of course, 13 billion dollars is a lot of money. It'll take sweat and tears to raise it. It'll mean going without now. But also—it will mean savings now—to buy later. It'll mean giving up everything you can't square with your conscience, so that we, us, our children, can have a better, more decent place to live in when this war is won.

The drive is on
So during this month of April, if someone calls on you to ask you to buy War Bonds in this 2ND WAR LOAN DRIVE, will you buy to the limit—and then buy more?

Better yet, will you go to your Bank, Post-office, or wherever you're used to buying your Bonds—and buy NOW? Will you lend extra money this month? Money that can hasten the day of Victory? Money that can help to save American lives.

Money buys money
Remember, what you're really buying with your money is still more money. For after all, these Bonds are money! Money plus!

Every dollar you put into War Bonds will bring you a dollar plus interest.

So the more Bonds you buy the better for you. Americans — Get Tough — with yourselves — for your country.

Santa Fe CHIEF TOPICS

Santa Fe System carloadings for the week ending April 10, 1943, were 21,700 compared with 20,192 for the same week in 1942. Cars received from connections totaled 11,952 compared with 8,815 for the same week in 1942. Total cars moved were 33,652 compared with 29,007 for the same week in 1942. Santa Fe handled a total of 34,868 cars in the preceding week of this year.

Further incentive to the Nationwide Victory garden program was given more than 58,000 Santa Fe Railway employees and members of their families, with the announcement by President E. J. Engel today that a contest with $2,000 in War Bonds and Stamps as prizes was open to all qualifying within these groups.

Planned to give impetus to the program to overcome food shortages in the home, this contest follows announcement more than a month ago by President Engel that lands along the Company's right-of-way were free for Victory gardening by employees and their families.

The Railway's contest permits employees and members of their families to use either company property or grow their products at home. It provides awards under the classification of best picture of an employee garden and also for best essays on Victory gardens by employees. Top award in each category is a $250 War Bond. Outstanding newspaper leaders have agreed to serve on the committee of contest judges. These Fluorescent Buoy Guides Sea Planes.

Movie Reporter

If ever there was a picture to put one in high humor, it is Paramount's engaging comedy, "The Major and the Minor," which is showing at the Palace Theatre preview Saturday night, Sunday and Monday, with Ray Milland and Ginger Rogers in the title roles.

The sight of vivacious, exciting Miss Rogers masquerading as a pig-tailed twelve-year-old and in one scene even pretending to be her own mother, is really hilarious screen fare. The masquerade started with Ginger's determination to leave New York and return to her home town in Iowa. Not having enough money to take her there, the resourceful Ginger makes a few changes in her clothes and hairdo and buys herself a half-fare ticket. The conductors aren't convinced she's only twelve years old, so Ginger, instead of fighting it out, hides out in Ray Milland's compartment.

The Major—Ray Milland, of course—is on his way back to his teaching post in a military academy. He's very nice to the little girl, even gives up his lower berth to her. But when his fiancée, Rita Johnson, surprises him at a station enroute and finds a night-gowned female in his compartment, she doesn't stop to listen to explanations.

Milland pleads with Ginger to accompany him to the academy so that everyone can see she's not a siren, but just a harmless little twelve-year-old.

Griffith Jones, who plays a Norwegian Quisling who's paid off in bullets by his Nazi masters in Paramount's exciting picture of love and war, "The Avengers," now at the Palace Theatre, dropped the profession of law to become an actor. His success as a thespian justifies his judgment.

Jones' first film hit was opposite Elizabeth Bergner in "Escape Me Never," and this was followed by a series of screen and stage successes, including "A Yank at Oxford" in which he appeared with Robert Taylor.

"The Avengers" was produced by Paul Soskin and directed by Harold French from a story by Frank Owen. The cast includes Deborah Kerr, Ralph Richardson and Hugh Williams.

NEW WAAC ENROLLMENT QUOTA IS ASSIGNED

A new WAAC enrollment quota of 726 for the second quarter of the year was assigned to the West Texas District this week by the Eighth Service Command.

"It's the biggest job they've given us so far, but we're going to pitch in and do it," declared Lietu. Col. Marvin B. Durette, Commanding, West Texas Recruiting & Induction District. "Our record during the first three months of this year was nothing to brag about. We got lots of WAAC's, yes, but we didn't begin to reach our quota. In the face of this we are given a new quota which dwarfs the previous one. It means just one thing—the War Department has geared its plans for 150,000 WAAC's by this summer and intends to get them! Woman power is needed to help the day of victory come faster. Women eligible for the WAAC must be made to realize that their obligation to serve their country is as great as that of any man."
