Bargain Days Are Now In Effect For Slatonite And Daily Papers

Over the Wire

J. W. Savelle, who returned last week from an extended trip to the East, received a 20 pound silver Salmon from his brother-in-law who lives on Pudget Sound.

Mr. Savelle tried fishing in the Sound and did not catch a fish in two days of hard labor. Much disgusted he told his brother-in-law that he did not believe there was a fish in the entire Sound. In fact he informed his brother-in-law that he would buy him a new Stetson hat if he would send him a fish as long as his arm. The fish arrived and Mr. Savelle has no doubt that his brother-in-law caught the fish, as the relative is a preacher.

J. D. Holt, who has been ill was improved on last reports, but is still not up to par.

School activities are getting started and Bill Barnett, who is assistant athletic coach and is directing the journalism class, expects to get the Tiger's Cage published at an early date, perhaps the first issue will be off the press this week.

Railroad men report business still good and freight movements holding up better than usual at this time of the year.

Much better service is being secured from the sanitary department since the new garbage truck was put into operation last week.

The housing situation in Slaton seems to be still severe, with many prospects for new residents for the town if homes could be supplied.

The Norris Barber Shop has recently been redecorated and new equipment added.

J. Lloyd Moyer Speaks To Lions

The Slaton Lions Club met on Tuesday night for its regular weekly meeting. Thirty members and six guests listened to a short talk by J. Lloyd Moyer, Minister of the Church of Christ on the important role that service clubs can play in the lives of communities such as Slaton.

K. L. Riggs of the Lubbock Lions Club spoke briefly on organizing a ladies' auxiliary to the Slaton club.

Guests attending the meeting, other than the speakers, were Lannon Smith, James Perkins, Principal of Slaton's Elementary Schools, Victor Williams, Director of the High School Band, and Capt. Gregory, head of the Salvation Army from Lubbock.

SERVICES SUNDAY AT THE FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Rev. Roy E. Curtis of T.C.U., Ft. Worth, will be present and preach at the eleven o'clock hour on Sunday morning at the First Christian Church. Rev. Curtis delivered two fine gospel messages here last Sunday. Miss Sally Sue Buchanan will be baptized at the morning service. There will be no evening service.

Mrs. Pearl Jones of Denver, Colo., arrived Saturday for a visit with Mrs. L. T. Arthur and Mrs. Jessie Prosser.

THIS WEEK'S SMILES

Overheard at Church last Sunday:

"That certainly is a pretty fall hat you are wearing, I admired it all last year."

"I'll have you know I just bought this hat yesterday."

Here is what she said:

Blood Bank Unit To Be Here Today

The American Red Cross Blood Bank Mobile Unit will be in Slaton at 6:30 p. m., Friday, Sept. 17th. Anyone who can and will give blood to this bank is urged to come to the Clinic of Dr. Elbert Lovelace at the specified time.

They are particularly interested in types A and B since a number of Slaton citizens have had transfusions of this type.

Stimulants will be given to the donors after their donation, though it rarely makes the donor weak or ill.

Doctors, Registered Nurses, and trained technicians will be in attendance.

The Santa Fe Railroad, Lions, Rotary, and Touchdown Club executives have been most cooperative in asking for donors.

There is no charge for blood received from the Blood Bank operated by the American Red Cross.

ALL GARBAGE MUST BE CONVENIENTLY PLACED

Considerable trouble is being felt by the sanitary department because the residents do not place the garbage pails where the garbage collector can readily find them.

All pails must be placed in the alleys or side streets if the home folks expect them to be emptied. The garbage man will not come inside fences or walk any distance to gather the garbage.

B.C.D. Discusses Traffic Problems

The Slaton B.C.D. and C. of C. at their regular meeting on last Tuesday night discussed the traffic problems in Slaton, particularly the congested condition on the North 9th Street where the street is almost blocked at the busiest time in the mornings with delivery trucks.

In their considerations the subject of parallel parking was brought up and the directors commissioned the Secretary, P. G. Meading, to endeavor to get a traffic engineer from the State Department of Public Safety to survey the situation and to recommend the best method to overcome the danger and trouble this condition is causing.

The promotion of the hard ball park for Slaton also came up for attention and the directors were enthusiastic about the encouragement that has been received for the construction of the undertaking.

J. W. Bagby Is Made Chief Clerk Here

Taking effect September 1st, J. W. Bagby, who has held the position of Clerk in the Superintendent's office, is now Chief Clerk to the Superintendent of the Slaton Division of the Santa Fe.

Slaton Wins First Game Of Season Defeating Floydada In Thriller

Slaton football fans were well repaid for their trip to Floydada last Friday night, for they witnessed a real thriller when the Slaton Tigers defeated the Floydada Whirlwinds by a score of 21 to 12. It would be difficult to choose the outstanding star of the team, as the plays were beautifully coordinated and each man was a star in his position. Tommie Smith, captain and fullback, played the best game of his career, while Laurence Morgan's thrilling 77 yard run for a touchdown in the third quarter, brought the Slaton fans to their feet in wild cheers. Morgan scored the first touchdown for Slaton early in the first quarter following a 70 yard march down the field. Bobbie Taylor, at left halfback, carried the ball over for the final tally. Smith had a perfect night on conversions, scoring three for three. Bybee, at quarter, and Huckabay, at center, worked together without a single slip, and the line, composed of Leon Moore and Carl Williams at tackle, Johnnie Melcher, C. E. Rhodes and Glyndon Dawson, as guards, and Alton Perry and Alvis Collins, ends, held on defense and tore holes in the opposing line on the offense.

Floydada's outstanding star was Billy Jeter, who was responsible for both of their scores, which came in the second quarter, giving them a lead of 12 to 7 over Slaton at the end of the first half.

An unusual feature of the game was the fact that there was not a penalty for unnecessary roughness nor a time out for an injury. Coaches Clarence Tillery and Bill Barnett are to be complimented on the fine coaching job they are doing with the team and it is expected that the stands will be packed this Friday night to see the Tigers take on New Deal in the first home game of the season.

The Slaton High School Band under the direction of Mr. Jvc Williams, turned out in full strength for the Floydada game and was also a credit to the town, although they had only one week to prepare for the game.

The Pep Squad was not in uniform, but a large group of students were in the cheering section and were led by the following pep squad girls: Patsy McCormick, Bobbie Ann Dement, Daunita Dowell, Carol Sokoll, Mary Ann Cudd, and Lena Schmidt.

Floydada has a very peppy band and pep squad. The band marched and played for the entertainment between halves. Their drum majorette is a former Slaton girl, Miss June Powell, who was a student here several years ago.

New Deal is reported to have a very good team and the game tonight should be well worth going to see. The backing and encouragement of the fans goes a long way toward making a winning team, so let's all be out there cheering them on.

SAFETY SIGNS TO BE INSTALLED SOON

P. G. Meading, Secretary for the Slaton B.C.D. says the Chamber of Commerce will soon install safety markers on South 9th street near the street intersections where the public schools are located. The markers will be the prescribed signs that are recommended by the State Department of Public Safety and he hopes that the motorists will observe the warnings.

SEWER SYSTEM LENGTHENED

Mayor Lee Wootton, said this week that the City Commission has issued orders for the extension of the Slaton Sewer System in the Southern part of town. The increase in the service will be from Gene Street to the City limits, a distance of about 1500 feet. A number of homes will be accommodated with the increased service.

Vysta and Ernest Ward, Jr., flew to Paris, Texas, last Saturday where they visited their grandmother, Mrs. J. E. Latimer. They returned by San Angelo.

Mrs. George Deaver has returned home after visiting her sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Arnold at Snyder, Texas.

WORMING PULLETS AT HOUSING TIME

Many smart poultry raisers choose housing time for worming their pullets. It is a natural choice, for since the birds must usually be handled at this time, they can be quickly and efficiently wormed in the process.

First, let's establish the need for worming. During the summer months on the range, growing birds easily become prey for parasitic intestinal and cecal worms. These parasites flourish during these warm months, especially in areas where poultry has been raised the year before. Ground that has been used in the year or two preceding may be contaminated with the eggs of the large roundworms, tapeworms, and cecal worms.

Even on clean ground, the growing birds may become infected with these parasites. So it is that many raisers worm their growing stock as a matter of sensible precaution. After all, the worms are so prevalent and prolific that it almost appears as if even the best-raised poultry cannot escape them.

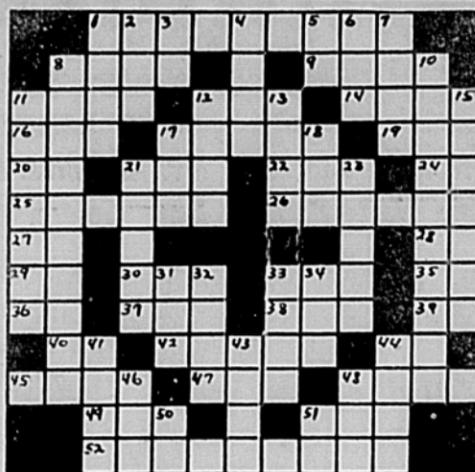

Tablet Treatment Popular

At fall housing time, after a summer on the worm-ridden range, the pullets should be given a thorough worm treatment. A favorite method of administering this treatment is by the capsule or tablet. Usually, the worm tablet contains nicotine for removal of large roundworms and phenothiazine for cecal worms. Worm tablets that are compounded by reputable manufacturers deliver a high percentage of worm removal and do not affect the birds adversely.

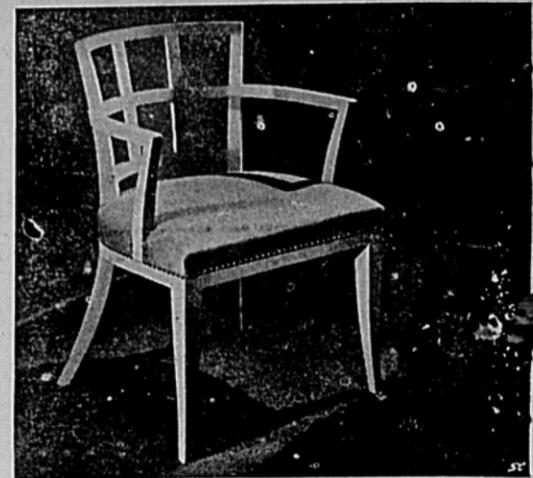

In addition to the above, there are now worm tablets on the market that provide efficient removal of certain species of tapeworms. In the past, these worms, with their hooked and besuckered "heads," have been a problem to remove; too many so-called removers merely removed segments of the tapeworms. Now, a tablet treatment can be obtained that will get chicken tapeworms, "heads" and all. The ingredient that accomplishes this is called hexachlorophene, a very new drug.

Thorough worming at housing time will help get your pullets off to a good start in this important production season. It is a step that is definitely economical to take, wherever worms are suspected.

During the summer season the ascent of the peak can either be accomplished by car from Colorado Springs and Manitou over a well graded and extremely scenic thirty-mile highway, or by cog railway nine miles in length.

JUST TALK

by
A.M.J.

The following was reprinted from the Slatonite in the Star-Telegram last Sunday with the attached comment:
 On occasions I get down in the dumps and go around trying to find some one to help me bury the world. Nat Heaton will help me on occasions, but does not usually seem to feel as discouraged as he should. J. D. Holt also sobs a few sobs with me, but never wears the proper expression of a man who believes the things I am predicting. It gets discouraging some times to find people will not see what a mess the world is in and I feel that there is no use trying. Might as well whistle and sing, that is if one could carry a tune. — A. M. Jackson in the Slaton Slatonite.
 Talk From Texas Towns would make a nice wager that readers of the Slatonite haven't taken too seriously the tears Editor Jackson is shedding, for it is apparent from the tenor of his remarks that his last rain campaign must have failed or that the weather in Slaton hasn't been quite as perfect as the Slatonite's editorials have demanded.
 I would like to state that the main trouble has been that the weather has been too perfect and that if it does not change pretty soon this country will be ruined.

It is still my opinion that Slaton needs some kind of traffic rules besides the three lights on 9th Street. Just what those rules should be I am not competent to say for the street arrangement of Slaton is the most confusing of any place I have ever been in. Folks drive here as if they were in Mexico City and how in the world we get along without having more serious accidents is a mystery to me, perhaps we're just lucky.

Just to prove that most anything will grow in this part of the country I put on a contest this summer with the bugs, the drouth and the weeds and now after using up fifty or sixty dollars worth of water I have raised some string beans, a few tomatoes, a lot of worm eaten peaches, a dozen or so apricots and have a pint bucket full of pecans still on the trees and five or six droopy looking broccoli plants proving that if one has enough money, patience, and is stubborn enough you can make a real failure in truck gardening in West Texas.

There are some of the tallest weeds growing in the back alleys of Slaton that I have ever seen. There is one careless weed in the alley back of a building on Texas Avenue that is taller than the building and I sincerely believe it would take the blue ribbon at any weed growing contest in the nation.

feathers in the womens hats, last years suits for the men and football fever for the High Schools. Everybody who saw the Slaton Floydada game says that the Slaton team looks better at the beginning of this season than the last years team did when the season ended. The spirit behind the boys has a lot to do with their will to win and the fans seem to be for the Tigers, ready to go to town.

Mathias P. Harpin of the Rhode Island Pilot, West Warwick, R. I., gets discouraged every now and then about a publisher's lot—and he decided to tell his readers about it.

In his regular column, "Editor's Time," he recounted his woes—in reverse—this way:

"It's easy to publish a newspaper. . . . You never get tired. You never need a vacation. Your head is always clear. You're always bright as a silver dollar. Everybody writes in beautiful letters telling you what a nice paper you have. Everybody phones in news. You never have any trouble getting paper. Everybody pays you on time. You never have to remind people over and over again that their subscription is due. If you're late paying a bill, they say it's all right, let it go. You never make people mad at something you have written or haven't written."

"Your proofreader never makes a mistake. The front page always looks nice. The ads are always eye-catching. You just sit at your typewriter and write beautiful lines

"People never say your paper is political. They never insist you're independent. . . .

"Everywhere you hear people say you're a good guy. They always say you word hard. The waste baskets never fill up, so nobody has to empty them. People never think of asking you for favors that are entirely out of your reach. After every issue advertisers call up and say: "Say, that was a honey of an ad you wrote for me last week. Thanks! If an advertiser gives you copy announcing a week-end special, it's always sunny that week-end and very warm. . . .

"You always have plenty of time to spend with the family. Never do you place an ad upside down. When you misspell a person's name, he calls up and says, "Forget it. It's all right." . . . Oh, it's wonderful to be a newspaper publisher."

"There are two kinds of wives who make husbands very uncomfortable; the wife who doesn't know what she wants and won't be happy till she gets it, and the one who knows what she wants and can't get it." —Woodhaven (N. Y.) Leader-Observer.

Dangerous African Game
 There are only five species of African game which can be described as dangerous to hunt. They are the elephant, lion, buffalo, rhinoceros and leopard. With all other kinds, the risk to life and limb is negligible.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

"Farming" Versus "Ranching"

Talked to some editors who run my column in their papers—in states where there's mostly cattle and sheep raising—about the differences there might be between farming and ranching.

And they told me: "Joe, there's no real difference between cattlemen and farmers. We make our living from the land like your folks do; we have the same 4-H Clubs and Granges; the same problems of prices and marketing."

"When it comes to recreation, we have the same liking to get together now and then for a barbecue and a friendly glass of beer."

And from where I sit, that about sums it up. Ranchers may have different names for things or grow different crops. But all over America folks who work the land share those common traits of hard work, sober moderation, and good fellowship, whether they're growing cattle for beef, or barley for good American beer and ale.

Protect Their Sight Too!

Better Light means Better Sight

Protection from traffic hazards is important, but just as important today is protection from eyestrain due to improper lighting.

Growing children need more care than older folks when it comes to making sure that the light is right. Their eyes, still developing, need every bit of care and attention they can receive.

Make sure, wherever children work or play, that the light is right. Low cost electricity makes it easy — and economical too — to provide GOOD lighting — always.

We worked wholeheartedly in helping to carry the bonds for the erection of our City Hall. The County Commissioners asked our help and co-operation in the beautifying of the City Park grounds.

"Did you know that a Student Loan Fund was promoted where by a number of young men and women have secured financial help for college training? That under our sponsorship, a Junior Civic and Culture Club was started, and later, the Daughters of the Pioneer Study Club?

"Did you know that those now battered and initial-cut benches on the City Hall lawn were bought and paid for by our Club? That we have cooperated in all community and 4th of July celebrations? That we won a $10 prize from the State Federation for outstanding civic work? That our committee helped greatly in locating the roadside park north of town?

"Did you know we have observed 'Guest Day' without exception through the thirty-three years we have been organized? That we began a flower exchange years ago and still 'carry on'?

"This club has had an outstanding part in the artistic, social and cultural growth of Slaton, and has maintained ideals that have been for the betterment of our town and community.

The next meeting of the club will be on Tuesday, Sept. 28, at 8 o'clock and will be a Tri-Club formal dinner honoring the President of State Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. John L. Perry.

CAMERA TOPICS

by T. T. Holden

SHOW SUBJECTS AT THEIR BEST

Professional photographers will tell you there is no such thing as an ugly woman. We can't all look like Hollywood stars in photographs, but a good cameraman can play up his subject's good points and play down the bad through camera angles, lighting tricks and posing techniques.

A scared or bored subject cannot look well in pictures. Perhaps the best way to give them something to do is to give them something to do. A picture of Mother doing something is always more interesting than a shot of her staring at the camera with a forced expression.

As a photographer it is your job to find your subject's good points. If the best girl has a nice profile, play it up. If her face is too round select a high camera angle and let your lighting change its shape. Avoid full head-on poses. Notice the way that professional models present a three-quarter figure to the camera, with their feet arranged gracefully instead of just being planted like two sticks.

Always make sure that your model's hair is neat. Nothing detracts so much as carelessly wind-blown locks flying in all directions. Avoid lighting that makes her scowl or put her eyes in deep black shadows. And above all, watch out for messy backgrounds which detract from the main subject. Whenever possible, use the sky for a background. It's the best one for most pictures.

so much for so little!

What They Write

The Grace Haynes Guild of the Presbyterian Church, which has been sending packages to a needy family in Hungray, is in receipt of the following letter, addressed to Mrs. C. M. Simmons, chairman of the committee.

"Dear Mrs. Simmons, Your second package was received today. It was in perfectly good condition. I am greatly obliged to you for this fine and great gift. All pieces are most useful. The coat is not my size; it is too narrow and too short. But it fits perfectly my daughter-in-law. She is very happy because she had no coat. You made me very happy with the blanket and the woolen knit jacket. My mother enjoys your coffee. It does good to her old heart. Coffee is a luxury here; it is beyond our means. We are deeply grateful for every item of your gift. May God bless you for your kindness.

"I wish you could have seen our happy faces as we opened your box. We were moved to tears to see all these fine gifts. Every piece is very valuable to me. I shall keep the black dress with white polka dots. My daughters-in-law will have the light dresses. I am double happy as I see the happiness of my children.

"As soon as the package that was dispatched by the Grace Haynes Guild arrives, I shall acknowledge it to you.

"My family joins me in thanking you and your friends for your Christian kindness and in praying that God may bless you and yours. I am yours very sincerely,
Mrs. K. Liszka."

Sweet Alyssum

Sweet alyssum is an important garden accessory. Its real purpose is to accent—to edge borders and paths and to point up other garden flowers and shrubs. There are several varieties of sweet alyssum, ranging in height from four to 12 inches. Height is an important point to consider in making the selection, since shearing is necessary for continuous bloom. Plants that are too low for shearing—those that grow to a height of only four or four-and-a-half inches, for example, will go to seed early in the season.

U. S. Coast Guard Academy

United States Coast Guard Academy, New London, Conn., was founded in 1873. The administration building is named Hamilton hall in honor of Alexander Hamilton, first secretary of the treasury, who founded the coast guard in 1790. The academy's four-year course embraces engineering, military science, cultural and other professional subjects.

You see, CARDUI may make things lots easier for you in either of two ways: (1) started 2 days before "your time" and taken as directed on the label, it should help relieve functional periodic pain; (2) taken throughout the month like a tonic, it should improve your appetite, aid digestion, and thus help build up resistance for the trying days to come. CARDUI is scientifically prepared and scientifically tested. If you suffer "at those certain times", get CARDUI today.

HERE'S THE MAN who emceeds the most popular daytime program "Queen for a Day," on the Mutual Broadcasting System. He's Jack Bailey and he'll be in Lubbock to serve as master of ceremonies for the program when it originates at the Panhandle South Plains Fair grounds during the first three days of the thirty-first annual fair, on Sept. 27, 28 and 29. Yes, despite the camouflage, it's Jack Bailey you see above, not one of the "Queens." He is happy just thinking about the number of gifts presented on the fabulous Cinderella series during its three years on the air. Radios, 287 of every size and shape, 212 stoves, a cow, a picket fence, a tractor and farm equipment are only some of the gifts showered on "Queens." Even romance has been added by gift-giving 64 diamond rings.

Cold Weather Records
The country's record low, minus 66 degrees, dates back to February, 1933, at Yellowstone park. It compares with 81 below for the Canadian Yukon, and 94 below, claimed for eastern Siberia. Admiral Byrd, reporting 99 below on Antarctica, suggests that air above the south polar plateau probably cools to minus 100 degrees.

Keeping Bees

Persons who are planning to go into beekeeping should consider first their personal reaction to stings, relations with the neighbors and suitability of their locality. In the early days bees were kept to supply the only natural sweet available, but they were also kept by some for observation, for the interest in their life and habits. Beekeeping is interesting, independent work, which may be practiced with supplementary agriculture or some other occupation. It is also a fascinating hobby.

Well Kept

At Baldpate inn, Estes Park, Colo., named for Earl Derr Biggers' "Seven Keys to Baldpate," the walls and ceiling of one large room are hung with more than 10,000 keys of historical interest, mailed from former guests, from all over the world.

Casual Comment

By Mrs. Nora Billingsley

We never "save for the rainy day," As we gaily go on our bithesome way, Out here on the sunny plains. Beneath a dark and lowering sky Our dreams are bright, and our hopes are high. What care we, if it rains?

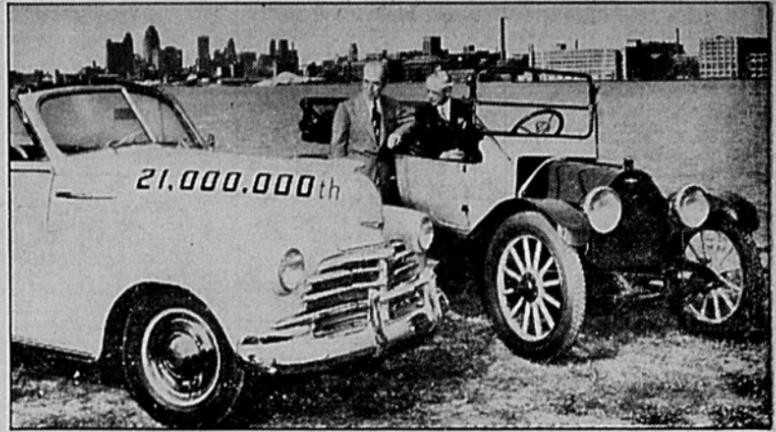

But we watch our step, when we go to town, And cut our needless expenses down; We figure the out-go fine. We go more thoughtfully on our way, When we think of the beautiful rainless day — The day when the sun will shine. Many hopes and plans lie shriveled in the fields of burned up cotton. A new car, maybe, or—Oh well, all of us know how very many things seem necessary when money is plentiful, and we start down that beguiling road where "one thing calls for another."

However, I have found that when we have to scrimp, and practice the old-fashioned virtues of "use it up" and "make it do," we get along quite as well—or perhaps better. There is real pleasure in shopping thriftily, in stretching each dollar, (not that any amount of "stretching" will make it go very far these days), or when, by a little contriving, we "make ends meet."

On the other hand, when money is plentiful, we often buy things that we think we want, or should have; things for which we really care very little, and the possession of which adds nothing whatever to either our pleasure or contentment, but only increases a vague dissatisfaction — just as the child who has too many toys cares little for any of them. Our minds are harassed by endless trifles, forever stewing in "much-do over nothing," while our lives are cluttered with the smothering, clinging tentacles of "our things."

So a time of lack is not really important, but it is important that we do not cringe along through such a period, lashed by the spectre of "hard times," that exist mostly in our imagination. It is important that we do not whine, or drown our initiative and self-confidence in the mud-puddle of worry. (Did I say "mud puddle"? They dried up, long ago.) If "the best things in life are free," a time of drouth is a good time to find them. A young man, who was surely older than his years, once remarked, "Intelligent people make their own good times but the fool must spend his money."

And so, a "dry spell" is a time of opportunity — for simple picnics with friends, for reading, for learning a few of the many things you have never "had time" to learn. Now you have time to lie on the grass as night falls, and let the stars — the peace and immensity of the universe, teach you how little it all matters.

In 1937, an asteroid about a mile in diameter was sighted moving swiftly against the background of the stars. Before news of the discovery could be circulated, the body had swooped away and was lost. It has not been seen since that time. It was given a name, however, and that is Herms, for the swift messenger of the gods whom the Romans called Mercury. From a few accidental observations of this body made within a day or two of its discovery, it was calculated that its nearest approach was about 500,000 miles, only twice the moon's distance.

Now is the time to get your heating equipment ready

FOR WINTER

It should be thoroughly cleaned, checked, adjusted, and if necessary, repaired. Call your plumber or heating contractor NOW and have this done before the "big rush."

If you have a floor furnace, and wish to clean it yourself, it's easy this way: Lift the grill and remove accumulated dust and spider webs with vacuum cleaner and suction hose attachment.

Now is the time, too,
to light your gas furnaces

You'll be glad, later, if you go ahead now and light the pilot lights on your gas floor furnaces or central gas furnace. The quantity of gas burned by these tiny pilots is so small that you'll not be able to tell the difference on your gas service bill. Then when cold weather does come, you'll be ready.

Insect Control Keeps Dog Happy in Summer

While human being may refer to hot weather as "the good old summer time," there is nothing good about it from a dog's viewpoint, as it generally means the flea and tick season in full swing, according to the Gaines Dog Research Center, New York City.
Fleas and ticks not only make a dog miserable but can also endanger the dog's health and perhaps that of his owner.
Few people seem to realize that aside from the annoyance they cause the dog, fleas cause many skin irritations and also carry the eggs of the dog tapeworm. If a flea-ridden dog, in biting himself, swallows one of these insects, he then may become infested with tapeworm and suffer the effects caused by these debilitating internal parasites.
Flea control is a simple matter for the dog-owner, now that DDT is available in good supply. A thorough powdering every two or three weeks with flea powder containing five to ten percent DDT will keep a dog free of fleas during the entire season that these pests are active. Beside powdering the dog, the careful owner should see that his bedding is changed at frequent intervals. Use of the DDT powder in the dog's bed or sleeping box is also helpful.
Ticks, beside causing irritating skin conditions and a weakened condition in dogs, also present a source of danger to humans. Dogs in areas where there is a heavy infestation of ticks should be sprayed regularly through the summer with one of the several effective tick remedies now available. Ticks should never be removed by hand, but should be picked off with tweezers and dropped in a can of jar of kerosene.

Strength of Jewish Army
Haganah, the first Hebrew army to take the field in the Holy Land in 2,000 years, is unofficially estimated to be 53,000 strong in full battle strength. With universal conscription, Haganah has at its disposal the full manpower of Jewish Palestine. All Jews between the ages of 18 and 35 get red conscription cards, after their medical examinations, showing their call-up dates. Fathers and only sons are exempt.

New British Stamps
Forty-eight British possessions, crown colonies and mandates will each issue two new stamps during 1948 to commemorate the royal silver wedding anniversary. Two designs have been chosen common to all. One will be a high value and the other a low value, corresponding to the inland letter rates. Colors will conform to the corresponding values in the current series.

Electricity Saves 'Em
Electric pig brooders cut losses of baby pigs about one-half, by providing them with a safe way of keeping warm without getting crushed by the sow.

Penalty for Murder
Only six of the states have abolished the death penalty. In 24 states the electric chair is the lawful instrument. Nine states still hang convicted murderers, eight gas them to death, and Utah grants a choice of hanging or shooting.

Petroleum Outlook
Our most important source of petroleum is domestic crude oil production. This year, the industry is expected to produce 2.15 billion barrels of supplies (crude oil and natural gasoline). The deficit is expected to be made up by importing about 175 million barrels of crude and refined products from Venezuela, Mexico, Colombia and the Middle East. This indicates a rise in total supplies to roughly 2.3 billion barrels, which should cover the year's estimated demand for oil products and provide a net increase in stocks.

Miss Ethel Spooner is a patient in Mercy Hospital.

Diesels For Argentine
Ninety-five diesel-electric locomotives will be supplied by General Electric to the Argentine state railways system during the next three years. Deliveries are to begin early in 1949. The $18,000,000 contract covers 60 single-unit and 35 double-unit engines, plus spares, and marks an important step in Argentina's five-year program of improvement of rights of way and rolling stock.

Good Thirst-Quencher
Rhubarb juice is particularly good as a thirst-quencher on hot days. Many farm women report that men working in the fields on hot days prefer rhubarb juice to any other cool beverage. Mix it with other fruit juices—such as strawberry, raspberry, orange, lemon, pineapple or cherry juice. It can be preserved for year-round use by canning or freezing.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Ivy spent the week end in Eastland on business.

Fuel in Central America
Since Central America has no proved coal or oil deposits, wood (or charcoal) was once the only fuel of home and industry alike. Later, some hydroelectric power was developed, particularly in Costa Rica. Imported kerosene, however, long ago became the indispensable household fuel.

Timber Insect Control
Insects and disease affecting timber slowly are being brought under control. One of the most successful experiments of recent years was the use of DDT in the control of the tussock moth in northern Idaho. Thousands of acres of timber were saved from this insect's destruction. A similar program is in the offing for the spruce bud worm and the bark beetle in Idaho and Montana.

Among Our Owls
Owls are easily recognized by their distinctive large heads and large eyes, surrounded by circular discs of feathers. They are mostly nocturnal, but some of the species, like the snowy owl, hunt in the daytime. The great horned owl is the largest of the species; the smallest is the saw-whet owl, found in Eastern North America. It haunts the cedar and tamarack swamps. The screech owl is the most common of our owls.

Success As a Pirate
Bartholomew Roberts, perhaps the most successful of all pirates, was a teetotaler and allowed no gambling or women aboard his ships, according to Encyclopaedia Britannica. He was born in Wales in 1682 and died fighting in 1722 after having captured more than 400 ships.
