Elected directors of the association, re-elected officers, heard a financial report of the 1948 rodeo and made definite plans for beginning immediately to build up the biggest rodeo in local history for next year.

Material is being received at Tuco for use in the plant's $3,250,000 expansion program which will add 25,000 KW to the capacity bringing total capacity of the plants to 40,000 KW. This project is part of the $35,000,000 system-wide expansion program of Southwestern Public Service Co.

Building permits issued for the month of May totaled $101,400. This figure includes business buildings, residents and remodeling in the city as shown on the permits issued by the office of the City of Levelland.

Thirty-four boys had joined the Post-Boys Club by Wednesday noon. Coach Bing Bingham who organized the club Monday announced they are meeting from 1 until 5 p. m. each afternoon, Monday through Friday, to play softball, basketball, dodgeball and engage in other sports.

The State Highway Commission is calling for bids to be opened in Austin on June 22 for a contract to widen Highway 87 from the city limits of Canyon to the Swisher county line at Happy.

With preliminary organization nearing completion, J. E. Hill, general chairman, this week said that advance sale of stock for erection of a new $300,000 hotel in Hereford, will begin in the near future.

"Some stock has already been pledged," said Mr. Hill, "and with full cooperation of the Executive Committee, it will be easy to complete the sales program," Mr. Hill said.

Between 35 and 40 boys registered Tuesday for the series of recreational programs to be held during the summer months on the school ground here, Rusty Smith supervisor, said Wednesday.

With a total of 3.96 inches of rainfall in the past 10 days, farmers in this section were busy preparing for other crops to replace the loss of 1948 wheat yields. The replacement crops will consist generally of grain sorghums, sugar beets, potatoes, and some cotton.

Concerted ticket sales for Snyder Town High School first series of entertainment slated for this fall and winter were started Tuesday, according to Lee T. Stinson, newly elected president of the group, who will also direct the sales. The tickets are being sold through the town's club organizations, civic groups and in individual canvasses.

A special meeting of the City Council will be held this week to discuss additional fire-fighting equipment, the probability of two or three full time, paid firemen, and other means of providing adequate fire protection in Hereford, Mayor W. E. Dameron said today.

Slaton To Play At Home Sunday

Slaton is now in a first place tie with Brownfield because of losing to Sundown last Sunday, nine to five. Slaton scored one in the first, one in the third, and three in the fourth, but Sundown came back in the last of the fourth to score five runs on one hit, a walk and three errors. Whistle Banks pitched a good game, giving up five hits and five walks, while striking five men out. He will be on the hill this Sunday against Littlefield here at Slaton.

In the last game against Littlefield they played ten innings and Slaton lost the game when Moyer stole home, with two outs and the count three and two on the batter. If you want to see a good game, come out this Sunday and see the Slaton club try to get even with them.

Show To Benefit Our Youth Club

Folks of this area will soon have a wide open opportunity to buy tickets to an All Sports Show that is to be held at the Slaton Theatre on July 8th.

The reason the tickets will be so easy to buy will be because the young people who are taking part in the Slaton Youth's Club activities will be out selling the tickets.

All of the revenue except the federal tax and the actual cost of putting on the show will go toward paying the expenses of maintaining the Youth's Club that has proven so valuable to the young folks of Slaton during the summer months.

The show will be an all sports event showing highlights of football, basketball, boxing and other sports during 1948. It is said to be an excellent motion picture.

Mexican Tigers To Play Here Sun.

The Slaton Mexican Tiger Hardballers are scheduled to meet a fast team from O'Brien, Texas here Sunday at the Mexican ball grounds on the East side of town. The game starts at 3:00 p. m., and Gavino Martinez, manager of the Slaton Mexican Tigers, says that the two teams are very closely matched and he expects a close score. The local team has improved a great deal and those who have witnessed the games say that top grade ball is being played by the boys.

3876 people lived here in 1940; 6500 are estimated to be residents of Slaton today. What will be the population by 1950?

Elephant Bones Found In Area

A group of representatives of the Texas Memorial Museum, under the direction of the University of Texas, who have been working on the W. E. Smart Ranch, in the Canyon near Slaton, uncovered several prehistoric remains during their investigations this week.

Malcolm Sanders, who is interested in archaeology and was present during the time that some of the excavating was going on, reported that the skeletons of an elephant, a camel, a horse, and a turtle, were uncovered. They were estimated to be between 2900 and 3000 years old. The discovery does not add much to the knowledge about this area as remains of this kind have been found in this section before. It does help prove that at one time the South Plains had a great deal more vegetation on it than it does at the present time.

The explorers also found considerable evidence of Indian culture that existed at a number of different times in the past.

Oil Being Poured

The City Sanitation Department has finished pouring oil on the shallow water pools in and around Slaton to control the mosquitoes, and it is hoped that those attending the softball games in the Slaton park will not be punctured so full of holes this summer. There will be a third visit of the DDT fog machine to Slaton again before long. If the exact date is set in time for publication in advance, it will be reported in the Slatonite.

Stage Show To Be At Slaton Theatre

A novel and entertaining program entitled, "Hollywood Premiere," is scheduled to be featured at the Slaton Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday, June 23 and 24. Included are a number of local men, women and youths, as well as several professional performers.

Manager Hill, of the Slaton Theatre, says that from reports from other towns where "Hollywood Premiere" has been held, the exhibition is very entertaining. It is not a motion picture, but actual stage performers made up of professionals and local talent, and goes over big. A feature motion picture will also be shown in connection with the show.

THREE FOURTHS INCH OF RAIN FOR SLATON

A total of three-fourths of an inch of rain fell in Slaton Sunday afternoon and last Tuesday; one-half inch Sunday and one-fourth Tuesday. Varied amounts fell in parts of town and it was reported that nearly three inches fell east of Posey where considerable hail came with it.

Hundreds of acres of cotton and grain were washed out near town.

Sixty-eight Boy Scouts from over the South Plains Area, including seven boys from Post, have been enjoying the first week of encampment at Camp Posey since Saturday.

New Ford On Display At The Slaton Motor Today And Saturday

"It has been like getting ready for a marriage, a christening and the birth of a first baby in the family at the Slaton Motor Company," said E. R. Childress, "and we have really fixed things up for the arrival and unveiling of the 1949 Ford that is on display today and tomorrow in our show rooms."

The new Ford models for 1949 are as much a departure from the last models as the Model A was from the model T, and the predictions are that the new models will create even greater acclaim than any Ford ever produced.

The instrument panel of the new Ford has been simplified. All instruments are combined in a single cluster directly in line with the driver's view. Projecting slightly for better visibility, the large figures on a telescoped dial indicate speed, fuel level, rate of battery charge and oil pressure. The clock dial has been centered on the panel and placed higher. Night glare is eliminated on all instruments by "black lighting."

Chrome trim throughout the car has been reduced. On the panel it is expressed in a neat arrangement of uniform knobs which control choke, windshield wiper, lights, heater and defroster.

On each door, the chrome strip makes a decorative arc over the heavy artificial leather kick pad at the bottom. Flame-shaped center pillar lights provide plenty of illumination for the interior and for stepping into and out of the car.

Interior door handles pull up instead of down to open the door.

"Unkle Hank" Will Advise Citizens

The "Home Town Philosopher" is a noted "All American" character. Every village and town, and every neighborhood in the larger cities, has its familiar philosophizing citizen, to whom "us moderns" eagerly go for tales of the "good old days," and of whom we seek knowledge and advice regarding our present day activities.

Our "Home Town Philosopher" gains his knowledge of the world and its affairs through actual experience. Who, among us can deny the truth of the old maxim, "Experience is the best teacher?"

In a few days Slaton will have its own philanthropic philosopher! His name is "Unkle Hank," and he is as typical an "old-timer" as you've ever seen or could possibly vision. "Unkle Hank" will be introduced to the citizens of Slaton by the Slaton Implement Co., in the pages of this newspaper, in pictorial form he will emulate the noted philosophers of past and present. His advice and witty sayings will be words worthy of hearing; long to be remembered. Many will be the humorous observations—refreshing escape from this world's present trials, tribulations, and confusion.

History's first known philosopher was Thales, or Milesius, 640-550 B.C. Among the names of other famous philosophers handed down to us throughout the ages are Democritus, Socrates, Plato, Aristotle, Epicurus, Roger Bacon and Henry Bergson, all were as foreign and as far away from us as their names imply. The majority of these philosophers' names are as hard to pronounce as the philosophy is for most of us to understand. Hence for "down-to-earth," easily comprehensible logic, it is natural that we will turn to our beloved "Home Town Philosopher"—Unkle Hank.

Watch for his first appearance in this newspaper. Keep up with his philosophical weekly sayings hereafter.

Mr. and Mrs. Ace Hickman, Reeves and Bessie Hickman had early breakfast with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hickman Thursday morning and, accompanied by Patsy Hickman, left for Ward, Colorado for a week's vacation.

Tri-County Softballers To Start Third Round Robin Soon

Dart To Assist J. Lloyd Moyer

DAVID DART
David Dart arrived in Slaton this week to take over his duties as assistant to J. Lloyd Moyer as Minister to the Slaton Church of Christ.

David Dart is a native of New York and was a preacher in that state before coming to Texas. He has attended Abilene Christian College at Abilene, Texas for one year and is a graduate of David Lipscomb College at Nashville, Tenn.

J. Lloyd Moyer left this week for a vacation trip to Washington, California, Utah and other points. He hopes to visit Canada if the weather conditions permit. Mr. Dart will fill the pulpit at the Church of Christ while Moyer is on his vacation and act as assistant when he returns. Among his duties will be the direction of the singing and it is reported that Mr. Dart has an outstanding voice and is a top ranking voice instructor, being at one time the director of the main Church of Christ at Memphis, Tenn., which is one of the largest of all the Church of Christ Churches in the world.

Over the Wire

Definite commitments have been made by several large industries to spend approximately half a million dollars in improvements in services and equipment for Slaton and the immediate area.

The hail and heavy rain storm last Sunday destroyed thousands of acres of young cotton and grain which will have to be replanted. One of the heavy losers was Judge Smith who had about 1200 acres of young cotton hailed out.

A number of prospective home builders are planning on substantial investments in Slaton as soon as conditions are more conducive to building activity. Dr. Jay McSweeney will soon start construction on a new home on West Garza prices are still high.

Buyers for many different lines report that the new fall and winter merchandise is more varied than at any time since the war and that prices are still high.

While most folks here report that house flies have suffered some casualties on account of the DDT spraying of recent dates, the mosquitoes seem to have increased. Many communities have put on clean up drives and the Amarillo and Lubbock papers have been carrying photographs of unsanitary spots over their cities. Don't look now, but perhaps your ash can is showing.

In Amarillo the editor of the News-Globe instructed his photographer to go out and take photos of places over town where an excess of trash and debris had accumulated and the first place the photographer photographed was the rear and side of the News-Globe buildings. They were published in the papers. Whether the News-Globe cleaned up its buildings or not has not been reported. Vacationers who have returned from New Mexico and Colorado report that the resorts are not nearly as crowded as they were at this time last year and cabins and accommodations are more reasonable.

Weather conditions allowing, the second Round Robin of the Tri-County Soft Ball League will be completed at the Slaton Soft Ball Park tonight. If rain interferes, the contest will be completed as soon as possible. When the second series has been finished, a third Round Robin will be started. The standing of the Clubs for the two Round Robins stood as follows Wednesday:

Club	Played	Won	Lost
Southland	13	10	3
Pleasant Valley	13	9	4
Wilson	13	9	4
Ayers	13	9	4
Hoyt	13	7	6
Midway	12	2	10
Posey	14	4	10
Oil Mill	13	0	13

Good crowds have been attending the games and the teams have all improved in the quality of their playing and the third Round Robin should be the best of all.

More Water To Be Available Soon

For the first time in many years the water situation in Slaton is under control for the summer, said Mayor Lee Wootton this week.

Two new wells have been drilled on the city property in the southwest part of town and it is expected that the water will be available through the water pipes of Slaton within the next 30 days. While the two new wells are not as good as the City Commissioners had hoped they would be, they will give the town enough water to meet the demands for the next ten to fifteen years, provided the town does not have an oil boom or an unexpected expansion other than natural and expected growth.

The water could be available to city users if the pipe needed to connect the wells to the city water system were available, but as has been the case since the war, the pipe cannot be secured readily, although the Mayor reported that he has some in prospect and hopes to get it soon.

CHILDREN OF T. A. TURNERS ARE VISITING HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Turner and baby son, Tom, from Carlsbad, N. Mex., are spending their vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Turner. Enroute home they will stop in Midland to visit Mrs. Turner's sister, Mrs. Bennie Cecil, who has been very ill in the hospital there.

On Mother's Day, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Turner's baby son was christened, wearing a little dress which each of the four T. A. Turner children wore when they were babies.

Also visiting in the T. A. Turner home are their daughter, Mrs. Harry Nelson, and little son, Bobbie of Oklahoma City. Mrs. Nelson brought her baby to a special visit in Lubbock. Mr. Nelson is expected Thursday to accompany them home. They will return by plane.

GOOD FLOCK HEALTH PAYS

A healthy environment in the brooder house and on the range gives your growing birds a better chance to develop into profit-making layers in the fall and winter. So guard the health of your young stock and you will enjoy the benefits of increased egg yields a few months from now.

WORMS ARE A MENACE

One of the commonest health hazards in poultry raising, especially for a growing flock, is the worm menace. Intestinal worms are an economic factor, no matter what is the age of the flock affected. They are a particularly costly factor when the birds are in the growing stage. Heavy worm infections in birds six to ten weeks of age slow down growth, cause emaciation, and sometimes are responsible for the death of a few fowl. Worms create many culls and may have the effect of reducing the future layers' capacity for producing eggs.

To allow worms to multiply and severely damage the health of a growing range flock is to permit the loss of a large percentage of fall and winter eggs.

KEEP AFTER WORMS

Keep after worms constantly. While birds are on the range, enforce all of the recognized rules of sanitation. Frequent removal of filth and regular moving of shelters, feeders and waterers will have the effect of keeping birds away from areas in which there are worm eggs. This will reduce the spread of the worms.

Regular flock treatments with a dependable worm remover will pay off also. Consult your poultry supply dealer on the best kind of wormer to use.

Dogs of History
The first dog known in history was the Miacis, which roamed the forests and plains of North America about 55 million years ago.

Is Not Inherited
Tuberculosis is not inherited. It is a disease which well people catch from people who have active tuberculosis. While it is a serious disease it can be cured and its spread can be prevented.

Went to Sea Early
In Scotland, on the north shore of Solway Firth, near the fishing hamlet of Arbigland, John Paul, known in history as John Paul Jones, was born July 6, 1747. When he was 12 years old, his school days were over. As a small lad he could manage his own sailing boat, and he showed a great fondness for the sea. In the summer of 1759, James Younger, a ship-owning merchant, was in Arbigland to recruit sailors, and he took the boy, a hardy, well-knit and capable lad of 12, to Whitehaven, where he shipped on a vessel about to sail to America.

What Is a Dairy Cow?
The term dairy breed has been accepted by stockmen and investigators as referring to the breeds of cattle that are especially well fitted for production of milk and butterfat. Such breeds represent the efforts made by breeders of many generations toward improving the milking capacity of certain classes of cows. Because of this fact the inherent tendency of registered dairy cows to produce milk is greater than that of a native or unimproved cow. This inherent capacity is transmitted to the offspring.

Casual Comment

By Mrs. Nora Billingsley

I know that every one, including myself, is tired of the word, "communism," but if we could have a "working" democracy, one that considered first of all the welfare of its people, we would hear less about it, for it would have less discontent and frustrations on which to fatten.

More help at home, and less waste abroad, would at least somewhat compensate for the endless taxes that are bleeding "our way of life," that we are supposed to defend with our life blood, to death.

Forty-five million dollars are voted a home for UN, when people all over the U. S. are living in overcrowded cubby-holes. If members of the UN cannot sit around a table in an army barracks and do their work, they will certainly be even less efficient and co-operative in this projected place. This group is already better known for its gold braid, strut, and petty bickering than for statesmanship.

Instead of permanent flood control, hundreds work day and night piling sandbags, after lives are lost and millions in property are being destroyed.

The misery and want among peoples overseas is caused largely by their own government's bungling, socialistic experimenting. For instance, a farmer in England planted twenty acres of buckwheat, without getting the consent of an agricultural boss. He was ordered to plow it up, and when he refused, was ordered into court and fined $400. Bureaucrats are of necessity "as thick as fleas" in a government that pokes its nose into such small affairs.

Or consider only one in our help to Greece, where our government has already spent one billion dollars, before the "Marshall Plan" even gets started. The wheat that was sent free, to help the starving Greeks, was sold by their government to the millers, and the money put in the treasury. The millers sold the flour to the bakers and the people bought the bread—if they could. The Minister of Public Welfare told Henry J. Taylor, when he was in Athens, that "Greece is little better off, in terms of solid results, than she was before American help came." This is easily understandable when the money obtained from all the help sent goes to pay government hangers on, whose 50,000 before the war has been increased by 90,000 more since it ended. When it was suggested that the government cut the number by 15,000, that number retired—on pensions. These pensions continue to be paid to their next of kin, in case of their death.

Our reporters who criticize this set up find their work hampered by red tape, intimidation, and obstruction by officials. Just how far they will go to silence criticism was highlighted by the recent murder of the correspondent, George Polk.

For the support of these parasites we are gouged by taxes from every angle—the income tax, withholding tax, inheritance tax, etc., etc. When we buy many very necessary articles, we find a "luxury tax" clinging to them.

All this pours a veritable flood of revenue into the U. S. treasury, but it is being passed out with prodigal hands, and far too little of it for the help of our own people, from whom it is being taken.

Our schools are over crowded, our teachers are overworked and underpaid, and these are things that deserve first consideration. These is nothing more important than the education of our children, and the teachers who influence their formative years. The low pay causes many places only a transient arrangement, and who have no real interest in the children, in instilling high ideals of character, and the ambition to accomplish.

The grim uncertainty and insecurity that often faces those who give their lives to teaching, in spite of the inadequate pay is well illustrated by an old friend of mine. We were schoolmates in Tennessee. She has taught in the schools of Dallas for many years. Her husband, until his death, was a prominent educator there, and a large school building in that city bears his name. In a recent letter my friend writes, "Well, I have just two more years to teach, then I'll have to retire. I don't know what I'll do then. I hope I'll pass, like my husband, in a flash, without warning. I don't want to live with my children, and the retirement I'll receive won't support me. 'Tis true I have saved a little, but a constant drain would soon use it up."

That such occurrences are a common and accepted fact, in our rich and productive country, that is taking 31 cents of every dollar of national income, by taxes of one sort and another, is a disgrace. Our leaders keep their eyes on Europe, while the very substance on which Asparagus is grown in nearly all sections of the United States, but large industrial production is limited to a few localities. In 1945, in the nation, 126,258 acres were used for commercial growing of asparagus. About half of this acreage was located in California. Principal areas of production in that state are Sacramento, San Joaquin, San Fernando and Imperial valleys.

What They Write

June 14, 1948

Dear Mr. Jackson. Here's a fish story Kermit Schaffer just told me this morning—Boy! It seems that he was fishing last week, over in Southern Arkansas, and one morning he was having his usual NO (I mean lousie) luck, and he was about ready to call it a day, when a native came out of the brush and said, "Let's see yer bait."

Kermit showed him a pail of minnows, whereat the native pulled out a bottle of corn likker and poured a little into the pail. Then he fastened one of the minnows onto Kermit's hook and said, "Now try it."

Hardly had Kermit made his cast when he got a heavy strike. After half an hour of fighting he pulled in a fifteen pound bass. But—the big fish wasn't on the hook. The minnow had it by the back of the neck.

P. S. S. One I hung in Buffalo Lakes was a nice large one. But he got away. However, a picture I snapped of him weighed six pounds. How big was the fish.

A. C. Eaves.

The following article was written by Mrs. J. B. Huckabay:

"How often we grown-ups have watched our youngsters and sighed enviously: 'If only I had as much energy as they have.' How often have we heard the question: 'Mom, what can I do? What is there to do, Mom?' Sometimes, we have earnestly racked our brain for ways and means to provide wholesome and adequate recreation for them. Sometimes, we have impatiently replied: 'Oh, run and play—can't you see I am busy; don't bother me now.' And then how often we have seen, to our vexation, sometimes to our shame, this vital exuberant energy, that we so lately envied, expended in mischievous and harmful ways. Usually, we can be sure that our children are not bad at heart—they simply have so much time and energy that has to be spent, one way or another. When it is mispent, everyone concerned is hurt, the children most of all, and in more ways.

"Because most of us have had these experiences, to a greater or less degree, and because, in these past years the accent has been so strong on juvenile delinquency, we have come to realize more and more the value of supervised recreation. Slaton mothers and fathers rejoice in the recreational program we have here. We feel like we are singularly fortunate in having an organization like the Slaton Youth Club, backed by the Chamber of Commerce, and the Lions Club, and directed by our capable coach, Clarence Tillery. To us, this club is not simply a place to send our boys to get them out of our way; not simply a place for them to go because it doesn't cost any money. Rather, we are glad for them to go because we know they are engaging in wholesome play that they enjoy. They are getting exercise that will use up that fine energy of theirs and develop those fine muscles to the best advantage. They are learning good sportsmanship. They are being encouraged to leave alone those things which will hinder their best development, mentally and physically. They are learning to overcome shortcomings by trying and trying again. They are learning to meet success and failure, both in themselves and in others, cheerfully and modestly. They are learning to take disciplining, and even like it. All this, and more, we have seen in our boys as they attend Slaton Youth Club. Let's not just leave it up to Coach Tillery, to the Chamber of Commerce, to the Lions Club—they can't achieve the best results without our help, our support, our cooperation. Let's stand behind these organizations in their efforts to help our boys, for our boys' sake."

by
A.M.J.

Having cut my eye teeth on a paste pot and a pair of broken shears at my fathers desk in a newspaper shop I am not over sensitive about cracks folks make about the Slatonite for I know that like every other business we are vulnerable to criticism but I do have the advantage to talk back while other men in business do not have quite as good a channel to do so.

It is my opinion that a newspaper, daily or weekly, is a semi-public institution and owes the public its cooperation in distributing information and publicity concerning public interests for the good of the community. This, as the publisher of the Slatonite, I have tried my best to do. It is perfectly legitimate, too, for any member of the public to gripe about things they do not like about any paper and when such gripes have come to me I have in most cases published them, however there are many things that are said to me that are meant to be polite criticism. I am free to admit that I know that the Slatonite is not a perfect newspaper, we are trying at all times to improve our services but there are many things that are beyond our control which cannot be improved until conditions get so that material and equipment are available to make the improvements.

One criticism that P. G. Meading, and several others have made is that we carry too much advertising for the amount of news we have. To this I would like to say to Mr. Meading and the others who may think the same thing, that we are more strictly rationed at the present on newsprint than we were at any time during the war and that as advertising is our chief means of support we wish to carry all of it we can get and we also desire to let the folks of this community know what the merchants have to sell and what's new in the stores and business places, and we consider good advertising of vital interest to our readers. If you do not read the advertising you are missing something.

Several other folks have said that we should carry more local illustrations of local people and scenes. That's easy to say but it is a hard thing to do. In the first place it is a very painful thing to get a man to pose for a photograph, not because most men are opposed to having their photos appear in print but because they do not like to take the kidding that comes afterwards.

Several weeks ago my own picture appeared in the Lubbock Avalanche along with several other suspicious looking characters, and I gazed for many minutes at the picture and wondered if I actually appeared to other folks as the illustration portrayed me. Every one is entitled to a certain amount of personal vanity and I'd like to please more people by running their photos in the paper but it is necessary to have some excuse to do so and it is not often we have the photo and the excuse at the same time.

Women are more open and above board with their vanities and are quite often cooperative about having their photos taken but we are up against a lot of expense when it comes to publishing photos or any kind of illustration in a paper. It is a costly process to have them made into cuts from which to print and we do not have the revenue to buy many cuts to fill our paper with illustrations of the attractive women of the community. Yep, I heard you, but my answer is, all Slaton women are attractive.

We occasionally get a bouquet about the Slatonite too, and if you wish to make a crack at us or give us a pat on the back we are always glad to listen to your complaints, and to gulp down your

There are two kinds of people in the world. One kind pride themselves on being realists and enjoy seeing things just as they are. "No use to kid ourselves" is their slogan.

The other kind always look for the glorious and glamorous and are never happy without their rose-tinted glasses. They half close their eyes in order to avoid the sordid.

The athletic authorities of Texas A. & M. misjudged the classification of Billy Gilstrap, assistant coach at the University a number of years ago and lost a great football player to the Longhorns.

"How did a smart man like you ever decide to go to Texas instead of A. & M.?" Bully was asked at a recent Aggie banquet.

"Well, it was this way," answered the big Texan, "when I was about to finish high school A. & M. offered me a job in the dairy and the University offered me a job in the library. I had milked cows all my life and had never read a book, so I went to Texas."

a very hard way to say things that are easier understood in ordinary words. Accepting Mrs. Andersons judgment about the high grade baloney in the poetry I reprint it here:

When I Quit

When I quit this mortal shore
 And mosey 'round this Earth no more,
 Don't weep, don't sigh; don't grieve, don't sob;
 I may have struck a better Job.

Don't go and buy a large bouquet,
 For which you'll find it hard to pay.
 Don't hang 'round me lookin' blue,
 I may be better off than You!

Don't tell folks I was a Saint
 Or anything you know I ain't.
 If you have stuff like that to spread
 Please hand it out before I'm dead.

If you have Roses, bless your Soul
 Just pin one on my buttonhole,
 But do it while I'm at my best,
 Instead of when I'm safe at Rest.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

How to Live Longer

Someone asked Pappy Miller last week how he stayed so spry at ninety. Pappy told him:

"Well, sir—when I work, I work hard. When I set, I set loose. When I think, I go to sleep."

According to Doc Hollister, that formula isn't far amiss. "Hard work," says Doc, "never wore out anyone before his time, providing he knew how and when to relax."

Doc himself works overtime, with his daytime patients at the office, and his evening calls. And when he gets home he takes it easy with a mellow glass of beer and chats with the missus until it's time to go to bed.

From where I sit, relaxing is a fine art—especially in these tense, fast-moving times. And there's nothing like a temperate glass of beer—enjoyed with pleasant company—to restore that easy frame of mind that one needs after a hard day's work.

Ruth Austin And W. C. Crawford Are Wed In Double Ring Ceremony

On Sunday afternoon, June 13, at 5:30 Miss Ruth Austin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie F. Austin of Slaton, became the bride of William Conner Crawford, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Creed Crawford of Roswell, N. Mex. The double ring ceremony was held in the First Methodist Church, where Rev. J. F. Nix, retired Baptist minister of Lubbock, officiated between baskets of large white gladioli and four candelabra banked with fern before the altar rail covered in plumose fern outlined in white gladioli and white satin bows. The bridal aisle was marked with white gladioli tied with white lace net bows.

Soft wedding music was played on the organ by Mrs. Webber Williams and Wm. R. Sewell sang, "At Dawning" and "Oh, Promise Me."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of imported French shadow organza in fitted basque design with low scalloped neck accented with a strand of pearls, a gift of the groom, and full skirt tipping the floor. Her finger tip veil of French illusion fell in full graceful tiers from a halo of orange blossoms designed of seed pearls. She carried a colonial bouquet of white gladioli with two rows of lace and white satin streamers.

The wedding ring given the bride had been in the groom's family for four generations. Mrs. Conner, the grandmother who gave it to the groom, had worn it for sixty-two years.

Mrs. Chas. William Austin of Orange, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor and junior bridesmaids were Misses Carolyn Ruth Leib of Borger and Janis Kay Bagby of Slaton. William Creed Crawford served his son as best man. Ushers were Johnny Ray Shelton of Portales, N. Mex., and James M. Miller of Clovis, N. Mex.

The bride's mother wore navy blue with pink accessories and pink corsage, while the groom's mother wore aqua with natural straw hat, yellow gloves and a talisman rose corsage.

Reception Follows
Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the Slaton Clubhouse. Mrs. Gordon Burrell and Mrs. Vern Johnson, sr., presided at the three-tiered wedding cake and Mrs. B. A. Hanna and Mrs. Joe Neugebauer served punch. Mrs. Mildred Lokey entertained at the piano and Miss Jean Holt presided at the bride's book.

The bride's table was covered with an imported Irish linen cloth and centered with white Marconi daisies, finished with huge satin bows and satin streamers. "Ruth and Bill" was printed in gold on white satin running the length of the table. The base of the table was covered with English ivy.

Other out-of-town relatives attending were Mrs. Sidney Anderson and son, Bobby, of Winters and the grandmother of the bride. Assisting with the reception were Mesdames Roy Holt, B. A. Hanna, Lula Caldwell, Billie Ball, Gordon Burrell, Vern Johnson, Joe Neugebauer, Mildred Lokey, Fred Schmidt, Milton Fields, R. H. Bailey, and Misses Lucille Henry, Jean Holt and Cora Sealy.

American palefaces who have never visited the Santa Fe Southwest and watched the well-known Indian tribes of that area at work and play will have the opportunity when the first railroad fair opens in Chicago, July 20.

In the Indian Village, now being constructed by the Santa Fe Railway, approximately 100 Indians of six different tribes will be living their normal mode of existence under the eyes of thousands of railroad fair visitors during the months of the exhibition, which commemorates 100 years of railroading in Chicago.

Among the six Indian tribes will be several families of the Navajo tribe, who will be seen doing silversmith work, weaving and sandpainting.

Splicing telephone cable

TO SERVE WAITING CUSTOMERS

"I'm a cable splicer for the telephone company."
"I splice every one of the hundreds of wires in one section of telephone cable to its mate in the next section."

SOUTHWESTERN BELL TELEPHONE CO.

"All of us cable splicers are busy these days helping put new cables into service so that people waiting can get telephones."

"Cable and wire tie together the parts of the telephone system. To serve a new customer we need not only a telephone instrument and room on the switchboard, but also there must be a pair of wires to connect the two. Right now, most of the wires in telephone cables are in use."

"That's why we're putting in new cables as fast as the factories can deliver them—and the factories are turning out twice as much as they did before the war."

"To you people waiting: We want you to know that we're doing everything we can to get you a telephone—just as soon as we can."

SUBJECT:
ROM. 1:16 I Cor. 9:16 Gal. 1:18 SALVATION BY GRACE

Lesson No. 3
Now I think we are ready to see how we are saved by grace. Man was lost, without God, and hopeless, until God in his love and kindness revealed a plan whereby man could be saved. Man could not save himself, he could have worked all his lifetime and still he would have been lost, hence Paul says salvation is not of works lest any man should boast. Salvation is the gift of God. "God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on him should not perish, but have everlasting life." (Jno. 3:16) Man did not merit salvation, but God, thru his grace gave us the scheme of redemption. As Paul says in (Titus. 2:11-12) "For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men. Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world." From this we see that the grace of God teaches us. What does it teach. It teaches us that we should deny our own lusts, and do that which Jehovah commands. Therefore, when God sent his only Son to this earth to suffer and die, for the sins of the world, and then gave the Gospel which Paul says is the power of God to save. (Rom. 1:16.) He was simply manifesting his grace unto man. And it is through this grace that all men are saved. Just as in the case of Noah, God tells us of the impending danger, which is eternal punishment, and then he tells us how we may escape this danger. Just as he commanded Noah to build an ark, he commands us to have Faith in the Son. We are told that everyone that does not believe will be damned. (Mk. 16:16) and also, in (Heb. 11:6) "Without faith it is impossible to please him, for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him." In (Rom. 14:23) we are told that whatever is not of faith is sin. So, God expects you and me to believe in his plan of salvation, just as he expected Naaman to believe, when he commanded him to dip in the river Jordan. Then just as God demanded more than faith of Noah and Naaman he demands more than faith of you and me. Jesus said, "except ye repent ye shall all likewise perish." (Lu. 13:3) and in Acts chapter 17:30 we have this statement. "At the times of this ignorance God winked at, but now commandeth all men every where to repent." Hence we cannot hope to be saved by grace, if we fail to repent. We have an example of a man being saved by the grace of God, in the eighth chapter of Acts of the Apostles. This man wanted to be baptized, and the inspired evangelist said, thou mayest if thou believest and the eunuch said, I believe that Christ is the Son of God. Here, we see that we are to confess Christ. Paul says in (Rom. 10:10) "With the heart man believeth unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." Then we read in the second chapter of Acts, where some people wanted to know what to do in order that they might be saved, and the apostle Peter answered them by telling them, to repent and be baptized every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins." (Act 2:38) and in the tenth chapter of this same book, verse 48, we hear Peter as he commanded people to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Thus, the grace of God teaches us that we are to be baptized for the remission of sins. This may seem foolish to us, yet we must submit to it regardless of what we think about it. Just as Naaman had to dip in the river Jordan. When we believe in Christ, confess his name before men, repent of our mistakes, and are baptized for the remission of sins, we are saved by grace, through faith. The Ephesians, to whom Paul said, ye are saved by grace, were baptized. We read of this fact in Acts chapter 19. Thus their faith in the teaching of Jehovah, caused them to do as God demanded, and Paul later told them they were saved by grace through faith. Our pleas is that all men today will do exactly as these people did. Hear the truth, believe it, and obey the gospel of Christ, thus being saved from the danger of eternal damnation, or saved by grace.
