Contract Let For Reservoir and Water Mains Construction

Mayor Lee Wootton reported last Monday afternoon with Shook-Owens Construction Company of Lubbock to construct a reservoir at the site of the new water well in the Southwest part of Slaton and to connect the new water supply to the City water mains at a point near the Mercy Hospital, and to install a number of short lines over the City water circuit.

The new construction is to be of cast iron pipe and is to be completed within 100 days from the time the contract was let. The amount of the contract is $38,588.25. This does not include the installation of pumps to get the water to the city mains; the pumps are on order and will be installed by the time the construction work is finished on the line.

It is estimated that the new well will be connected to the lines well in time to meet the needs of water users at the present time. When the occasion demands more wells can be drilled at that same site.

One well on the Northeast of town on the City property is to be cleaned out and drilled deeper and the pump put in good working order and Mayor Wootton believes that the water problem should be solved for some time. The pressure will be much better when the new supply is connected and everything will be done to get the work done as soon as possible. The fact that the contract calls for 100 days does not mean that the entire time will be consumed but that 100 days will give ample time to do it barring long periods of unfavorable weather.

The City commissioners considered a number of bids and gave the contract to Shook-Owens Construction Company because it was the lowest and because they have equipment and supplies on hand to complete most of the work.

M. E. Revival To Close May 4

The revival, which is in progress at the First Methodist Church, continues to attract large and enthusiastic audiences, according to Rev. Luther Kirk, local pastor. Rev. Howard Hollowell of Midland, who is in charge of the evangelistic services, is a forceful and inspiring speaker.

Services are being held twice daily, at 10 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. The general public is invited to attend these services. The revival will continue two more days, closing Sunday evening, May 4.

LOCAL MAN FEATURES HOME-GROWN BLANKETS

Judge C. Smith of Slaton was "forced" into the sheep business, made the best of it, and started something.

Jason O. Gordon, who was Lubbock County agricultural agent when all this began, says that Smith became interested in sheep several years ago and started feeding out lambs. He did all right for a while, and then along came a dry year and a feed shortage and Smith decided he better get out of the sheep business. So he sold his sheep.

That is, he sold all but five old ewes which the buyer wouldn't take, because he said "they would be dead before they reached the market."

After figuring awhile, Smith couldn't see but one thing to do. He turned around, bought a ram from the same buyer, took his six head of sheep home and got back in the sheep business.

Things came along nicely and Smith built his flock back up to 30 ewes. Then Mrs. Smith decided she wanted to be a partner in the sheep business. She voted against selling the wool clip, and Smith hasn't sold a pound of wool since. They ship it to a wool manufacturer and have fancy blankets made, which are very handy things to have when winter comes to Slaton. Now the Smiths have blankets all over the place; so have all their married children; and Mrs. Smith has one of her bigger problems solved—Christmas presents for friends and relatives.

Jason Gordon, who told this story, didn't say whether he recommended a flock of sheep for home-grown blankets, but he did say that the Smiths get a lot of fun out of their sheep business. Keeps the weeds down on the farm, too.

Whosit? A three month's subscription to the Slatonite will be given to the first person who correctly identifies the individuals in the above group of former high school students. Now that graduation time is approaching, memories turn back to previous graduations, and the typical speculations as to who graduated when, was it last year? It couldn't possibly be two or three years ago! Maybe it was even longer ago than that! Anyway, it will be interesting to attempt to identify the above individuals, or will it? Watch next week's paper for winner if any.

Over the Wire

Berkley and Haddock have installed one of the newest and most complete self-service dairy cases that are available. The dairy products are all in sight and easily reached. The case is electrically cooled, and though not closed the cool air does not escape from the case but circulates back through it.

W. R. Meador has bought the lot and building adjoining his property on the south, and has improved the lot with the addition of a white picket fence. He says that he expects to make the lot attractive with flowers and shrubs. He will move his picture framing equipment and materials to the building.

Pete Pearson and J. S. Edwards Jr., both of whom have recently made fishing trips to Possum Kingdom, report that fishing has been good, what they consider good however, might not be many fish.

An audit of the City books has been almost completed and details will be printed in next Mayor Lee Wootton's report the City's finances are not too flush and will likely be in the red before the water and sewer projects are finished but we'll have something worth the money when the work is finished.

According to many merchants there are more hot checks being written than at any time since before the war. One Slaton merchant has a forged check for over $100.00 and he has turned it over to the authorities. It is also reported that more folks are slow on paying their debts.

Earl D. Eblen, who has leased the Slaton Airport, says he expects to announce its formal opening in the near future and will extend an invitation to the public to come out and inspect the new field. Only a few men have had the courage to come out in straw hats this season. Usually they are more in evidence by this time of the year.

O. D. McClintock expects to give all of the girl graduates of the 1947 class a Miniature Cedar Chest. There will be approximately twenty three young ladies who will graduate this season. About forty two graduates will get their diplomas this year.

What with Mother's Day, Graduation, June Brides and Cotton Week about upon us the gift departments will soon get a big rush. The Graduation announcements have arrived and many have been sent out.

The local team lost by a close score of 2 to 4. McCoy, manager of the Slaton aggregation said that he was pleased with the attendance as the weather was not warm enough to be pleasant for outdoor sports.

The next home game will be played in Slaton on May 11. Faulkner and Presler were the Slaton pitchers with Tillery as the outstanding performer for Slaton, knocking out one home run. He made both scores for Slaton.

More Food and Clothing Needed For Panhandle Tornado Victims

Authentic reports from the Tornado stricken parts of the Texas Panhandle and Oklahoma, say there is a more acute need for clothing, household necessities and food now, than there was immediately after the disaster and the people of Slaton are being asked to supply a part of them.

The campaign started last week has brought fair results but there is not enough to make a shipment yet. There is, according to request from the stricken area, a need for childrens clothing as well as for good usable clothing of all kinds and anyone who has things of this kind to offer should donate them now. A collection of the materials is being made at the Slatonite office and if you have anything to give please wrap it carefully or put it in a shipping box of some kind and bring it to the Slatonite. It is hoped that there will be enough to make a shipment by the end of next week.

Bids for 44.55 miles of road work in Hockley County will be opened in County Judge Z. O. Lincoln's office in the County Courthouse in Levelland at 10 a. m. tomorrow.

Hereford voters will go to the polls next Tuesday to ballot four city bond issues, totalling $391,000. The proposed issues are: Water Improvements, $122,000; Sewer Improvements $96,000; Street Paving $133,000; Park Improvement, $50,000.

With pre-season prospects the brightest for a cotton crop in many years, acreage in Crosby County will probably jump above the 100,000 mark for the first time since the beginning of the cotton program in 1947. The big cotton crop will be planted at the expense of grain sorghums and other feed stuff, observers here believe, but the high price and excellent underground season indicate that many farmers will turn their acreage over to this crop.

CHICK CHATS
by Robert Huser of Huser's Hatchery

SOME TIPS ON FEED AND WATER
Chicks can be fed anytime after they are 24 hours of age with safety, and since most baby birds are at least this old when they go into the brooder house, feeding may commence at once on their arrival.
Before the chicks arrive the poultryman should see that he has an ample supply of a reliable chick starter on hand. This feed should be placed on egg flats or paper plates during the first day or two to encourage early feeding. Thereafter the birds should be able to feed at the hoppers.

Provide Green Feeds
If it is available, provide the chicks with fresh green feed such as alfalfa clover, blue grass or kale, cutting it into short lengths of 1/2 inch or thereabouts. These feeds are rich in the nutrients which often are found lacking in some poultrymen's feeding programs. As the chicks grow older, they can be turned onto grassy range.
When chicks are about five weeks old, scratch grains can be fed, gradually changing at six to seven weeks to a good growing mash. Never make a sudden change in feeding methods.
Fine grit and oyster shell can be made available to chicks after the first several days. At six weeks larger sizes of grit and shell may be used.
Allot eight feet of hopper space for each 100 chicks at the start, and increase this to about 16 feet at the end of three weeks.

Constant Supply of Water
Perhaps the most important thing to be said about watering the little birds is this: make sure that they have an adequate supply of clean, fresh water before them at all times. If the chill is taken off the water before it is placed in the founts during the first several days, consumption will be increased.
Water should be supplied in quart-size founts during the early period of brooding. At the start there should be four quarts of water for each 100 birds per day. This should be doubled when chicks are three weeks of age. Larger size waterers may be used at this time.
Frequently baby chicks die of thirst before learning to drink or where to find water. Thus, it is a good idea to dip the beak of each bird in the water as the chicks are placed in the brooder house.

Net profit for the first quarter of 1947, after provision for all charges reserves, and taxes, was $8,210,354.00, or $1.25 per share. The increase in earnings over the previous year is attributable to increased sales of practically all products sold by the Company and to increased prices for crude oil, natural gas, and finished products.

WESTERN MARKET NEWS
As of April 26
Weak spots showed up all through the farm markets the past few days; but many items strengthened, and only hogs, feeds and corn registered sharp declines, according to Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Butcher hogs dropped $1.25 to $2.50 per hundred for the week, and sows $1.50 to $3.00. Closing bulk of good and choice butchers sold at $22.50 at Texas markets; and $23 to $23.50 at other southwest terminals. Sows turned mostly at $18 to $22.50.
Cattle moved higher at Houston and San Antonio; and vealers and calves gained at Oklahoma City. Other southwest cattle prices receded to slightly lower levels last week. Common to medium steers and yearlings cleared at $13.50 to $17.50 at Houston; and $14 to $19.50 at Fort Worth. Medium to low good kinds moved at $19 to $21 at San Antonio; $18 to $23 at Oklahoma City; and mostly $19 to $22 at Wichita. Numerous loads of good and choice steers cashed at $23.75 to $24 at Denver.

Hens held firm last week, and fryers advanced to 35 cents per pound at Dallas. Eggs weakened at some points. Egg prices averaged 38 cents per dozen at San Antonio; 39 at Oklahoma City; 40 at Fort Smith, Amarillo, and Fort Worth; 41 at Denver, El Paso, and New Orleans; 42 at Houston; and 43 at Shreveport.
Indifferent trading last week left most grains little changed. Liberal offerings of corn stepped prices down several cents however; and oats also appeared in plentiful supply. Corn closed Friday at $1.90 to $1.91 per bushel in Fort Worth and Galveston; and oats $1.03 to $1.05. Sorghums ranged from $3.17 to $3.20 a hundred.

Sharp early-week rise in cotton markets encouraged spot selling, as demand picked up for some grades. After a midweek slump, prices closed Friday $2.75 to $4.25 per bale higher than a week earlier.

WOULD HAVE EACH STATE ADOPT AN OFFICIAL DOG

America's dog-loving folks are urged to seek adoption of an official dog for each of the 48 states by Harry Miller, director of the Gaines Dog Research Center, New York City.

Practically every state now has its official bird or official flower, Mr. Miller said. Certainly, he thinks, the dog as mankind's closest animal companion throughout the ages, deserves every bit as much recognition.

Mr. Miller stated he anticipated the early organization of committees for an official dog in several states, and that his organization would give these groups every possible aid in achieving their objective. Adoption of an official dog in any state would have to come about either through action of the state's legislative body, by a governor's proclamation, or by popular vote of the people of the state.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui, many women say, has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come. Started 2 days before "your time," it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes. Try it!

Subject — NEW TESTAMENT CONVERSION

What is conversion? Conversion is not a convulsion; it does not take place in a nightmare. Webster defines the verb "convert" as "to turn or to change." Now for a Bible definition: "Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out." (Acts 3:19.) In supplying the words "turn again" for "converted," as they appear in the Revised Version, we have the expression: "Repent ye therefore, and turn again, that your sins may be blotted out." Hence conversion is a turning; a turning from the service of sin to the service of Christ.

Just what part of the sinner is converted or changed? Unquestionably every part that has been alienated from God through sin. First, the sinner is away from God as respecting his heart. (Jeremiah 17:9.) The heart of the sinner is the workshop where all evil thoughts and deeds originate. (Matthew 15:19.) Hence the heart of the sinner must be converted, or changed. But how? By faith (Acts 15:9; Romans 10:10.) Thus by a change of heart we mean a change of affections... a change that destroys the love of sin and establishes the love of God in the heart of the sinner. But a change of heart alone is not the whole process of conversion.

Second, the sinner is away from God as respecting his life; he is alienated by "wicked works." (Colossians 1:21.) But how is the sinner's life converted or changed? By repentance (Acts 3:19.) Repentance is a change of will. (Matthew 21:28-29.) But a change of life is not the entire conversion.

Therefore, thirdly, the sinner is away from God as respecting his relationship to the world and to God. He must be brought into a new relationship with God, Christ and the Holy Spirit. This change of state brings a man into the kingdom of God (Colossians 1:13.) But what brings about this change (Read Galatians 3:27.) The apostle here affirms that baptism is that act which puts one into Christ. The word "into" is a preposition that denotes action out of one state into another... from the without to the within. Previous to baptism one is out of Christ, after baptism he is in Christ. There are no degrees in a state; one is either in or out of Christ, just as he is either married or unmarried, or just as he is a citizen or an alien. By this translation by baptism null and void without being repented, who are converted shall we do... repent and be baptized of you." (Acts 2:38.) the change of relationship, baptism and the change of state are null and void out a change of heart (Hebrews 11:6.) Thus we see that baptism is the dividing line between the world and the church of Jesus Christ. Some would declare that it is non-essential. The act of baptism is initiatory; it inducts who is turned or converted heart and life, into the kingdom of God.

Obviously, we have been to see from this study that New Testament conversion involves change of heart by faith, change of life by repentance and a change of state or relationship by baptism.

JUST TALK
by A.M.J.

Saw Homer Crews last week and I hardly recognized him. In fact at first glance I thought that perhaps some big shot Santa Fe official was visting Slaton again. Homer was dressed up, had a vivacious gleam in his eye and was stepping along at a fast slip. He was getting a check cashed when I saw him and on close questioning I found that he was going on a trip with the Rainbow girls. There is no telling how much money he spent on that trip and I'll bet he had more fun than any of them.

A. F. Pierce came into the office this week to renew his subscription to the Slatonite and he said that having to live in town was just like being in jail to him after having spent his youth in the wide open spaces. Too much talking and hullabaloo in town said Mr. Pierce and he wants to get back to where he can hear himself think.

It is what one has become used to. I cannot imagine J. D. Holt, Max Arrants or Nat Heaton on a farm for J. D. would work himself to a shadow and wear out a tractor or a team of mules in one season. Max Arrants would be talking to himself in six weeks and Nat Heaton would be making speeches to the birds and bees if he could not get an audience otherwise.

Mr. Pierce might feel as if he is in town but a lot of other folks would go haywire out in the country and I'm probably one of them and I'm not too sure that I'm not going that way here in town.

It seems to me that if women were not so vain about their feet that they would not have so many corns, bunions and broken down arches. If a woman uses her feet at all for walking in the high stilted heels, and thin soled things they call shoes, she soon plays out.

Most every where I have visited I have found the closets filled with women's shoes. Evidently most women buy so many shoes they have to store them in the guest room, in the pantry and in the electric refrigerator. Right now Mrs. Lee Wootton, my wife and Mrs. Ray Hickman are almost crippled and have more shoes than most centipedes have legs, they are buying every kind of foot device, corrective shoes and arch support that are on the market and still have to rush home as soon as possible to get their shoes off. The trouble is that womens shoes are the craziest kinds of wearing apparel of the age and some day all the women are going to have feet so warped that they cannot walk at all or they are going to get some sense and force the shoe manufacturers to make shoes that do not warp their feet into things resembling a soup bone.

Slaton is fast getting in step with the times and the future for our town looks better than it ever has to me. Many new business institutions have opened and more are planning on doing so, many services are available here that were not available before the war, competition is greater but business is better and the old town is keeping more of its trade at home than it has done in many years and barring a depression over the entire nation, Slaton along with most of the other towns in this area should be prosperous for a long time.

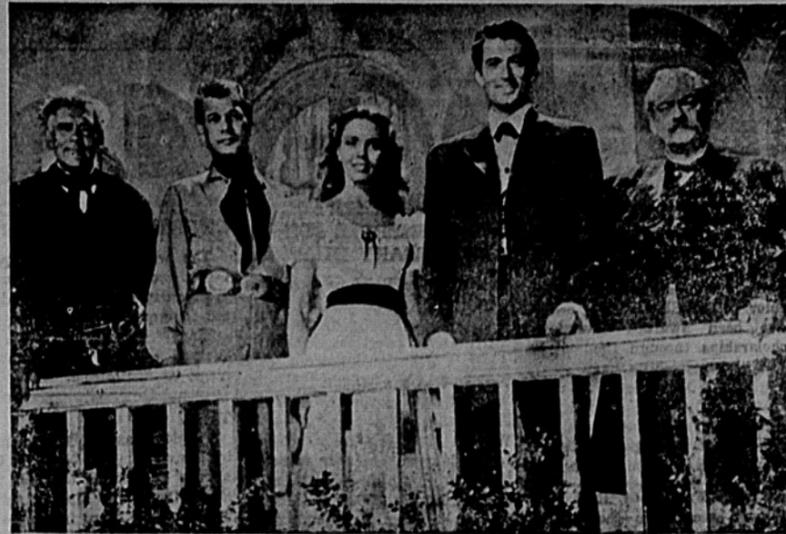

The Jackson weather predictions: exclusively a Slatonite feature . . .

The rains have been a little slow in coming but they are almost here and I believe that we are due for another year like 1941 when the boll worms caused such a dusting of poison. One farmer, Harold Wilson came in the office a couple of weeks ago and said he hopes we do have just such a year although he had to wear hip boots or ride a horse through three feet of water for six weeks, to get to his house.

The chances for a freeze are about over but its going to be a cool spring and early summer. When the rains do stop about July it's going to be hot and I look for Slaton to have the biggest weed crop in years.

Flattery is a perfume to be smelled not swallowed.

BETTER BALANCE with Cotton in '47

Scarcity of cottonseed meal and other protein concentrates has seriously handicapped livestock and dairy production during recent years. Meat and milk production and efficient use of grains and roughages have suffered because of lack of protein, essential "balance" in rations.

More cotton production in 1947 means a better balanced farming program, and better balanced livestock feeding program — as well as more cash income for cotton farms and more food and fiber for all Americans.

A "teen-ager" in the family is apt to 'overload' your telephone. But that's not the only thing in your home that can be "overloaded." You can overload your electric wiring system too if you don't have adequate wiring. When you add new appliances and lights to your home, and leave your wiring as it was installed years ago, you're apt to overload it, and receive less efficient service. POULTRY GRAZING IS IMPORTANT IN FEEDING

"Green pastures for poultry?" "Yes," says Ted Martin, poultry husbandman of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service. While chickens and turkeys are not ordinarily put in a class with grazing animals, explains Martin, tests have shown that when they get the chance, poultry will get as much as 20 percent of their feed requirement from green feed. Since feed can generally be produced most economically in the form of pasture than in any other way, cutting down feed costs is reason enough to provide pasture for poultry. But Martin says there are other advantages to be had from growing green poultry feed.

All poultrymen agree that there is no question about the value of Vitamin A in the feed of all classes of poultry, Martin says, and fresh green feed is probably the most dependable and economical source of Vitamin A. Barley, oats, sudan grass, and similar crops can be grown for year-round grazing in nearly all parts of Texas. These pastures will need mowing often, however, to keep the plants from becoming hard and woody.

There is a precaution to take in grazing poultry, too. Martin explains that too much green feed in the ration of laying hens may cause discolored yolks and watery whites in eggs. But if the birds are started gradually on the green feed, and offered more each day, no harm will result. Martin says poultrymen may begin by turning birds on pasture for 30 minutes to an hour before roosting time, and lengthen the period each day until they stay on pasture all afternoon.

SPOILAGE OF HAMS IN CURING REDUCED BY NEW METHODS NOW USED

Spoilage of hams during curing, formerly a big headache of the packing industry, has been greatly reduced as a result conducted by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

In a report received by the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service, USDA's Agricultural Research Administration states that research on meat processing shows that ham spoilage can be reduced by rapid and thorough chilling of the meat to a temperature of 35 degrees Fahrenheit, promptly after slaughter. This quick chilling is then followed up by an initial curing temperature not exceeding 38 degrees, keeping the hams cold enough to prevent growth of spoilage bacteria until the curing mixture can take over and hold the bacteria in check.

Artery-pumping, another USDA research development, aids quick curing of hams, which also cuts down spoilage. The curing mixture is forced into the arteries and reaches all parts of the ham more quickly. The new process has cut down time required for curing a ham from 40 to 20 days or less—definitely a practical business advantage. USDA believes that from a "practical standpoint" ham spoilage problems on a commercial scale are solved.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

We Got to the Fish Fry After All

That community fish fry was sure a great success. There were plenty of appetizing extras, and Will Dudley did a right wonderful job of frying the fish—soft and flaky inside—brown and crisp around the edges.

But we didn't get to go. The missus was tired after working in the yard, and we just didn't want to leave her.

Then how did we know the fish was so good? Because the folks didn't forget us. They sent Skippy Henderson over with two steaming covered plates of fish, and a pitcher of cool, sparkling beer. And we finished them off in front of our own fire.

From where I sit, that's one of the things that makes our town so nice a place to live in: a spirit of share and share alike. That plate of fish and glass of beer weren't just great eating, they were symbols of the thoughtfulness that makes for better living!

ALL-STAR CAST IN "DUEL IN THE SUN" AT PALACE MAY 7-9

Greatest casting news of many years is the parade of dramatic stars which David O. Selznick has selected from Hollywood's Hall of Fame for his brilliant Technicolor production "Duel in the Sun," coming Wednesday to the Palace Theater.

Jennifer Jones, Academy Award-winner who rose to screen fame in sensitive, restrained roles, now gives full vent to her dramatic talent in the powerful emotional role of Pearl Chavez, half-breed Indian girl.

For the first time in his years of screen triumph, Gregory Peck plays the villain, Lewt McCandles, a lawless, hard-living, rough-riding cowpuncher.

Joseph Cotten, screen favorite, plays the upright Harvard-bred lawyer who looks with disdain upon his brother Lewt's wild ways and vies with him for the affections of Miss Jones.

The dynamic role of power-mad Senator McCandles, lord of a cattle empire, is played brilliantly by the venerable Lionel Barrymore and the renowned actress of stage and screen, Lillian Gish, portrays his wife—aristocratic, gentle but bitterly unhappy in the charged atmosphere of unruly 1880 Texas.

Herbert Marshall, with a deep sense of understanding, plays the role of Pearl's father, an ex-aristocrat who tries his luck at gambling in love and cards and fails at both. The shouting foe of evil spirits the "Sinkiller" is portrayed by a master of the drama, Walter Huston.

Tilly Losch, famed Viennese dancer "goes primitive" as Pearl's Indian mother, who swirls in delirious dance on the top of an 102-foot rectangular bar.

The glittering array of top-notch movie favorites continues with the names of Harry Carey, Otto Kruger, Charles Bickford, Butterfly McQueen, Scott McKay and an import from the Broadway stage, Joan Tetzel.

Never before in screen history has such an eminent cast been given the opportunity to display their acting talent in roles of force and action as those in the epic production, "Duel in the Sun."

THE RING, A CIRCLE EXPRESSING ETERNITY, HAS SYMBOLIZED LOVE, FRIENDSHIP, LOYALTY OR MOURNING, SINCE LONG BEFORE RECORDED HISTORY.

FIRST WEDDING RINGS WERE GRASS BANDS, WHICH THE CAVE-MAN TIED AROUND THE FINGERS AND WRISTS OF HIS BRIDE, SYMBOLIZING SERVITUDE.

NOBLEMEN AND NOBLE-WOMEN OF OLD WORE LARGE RINGS ON THE THUMB, AS SYMBOLS OF AUTHORITY.

THE VIRGIN QUEEN, ELIZABETH, WAS WEDDED TO HER KINGDOM WITH A CORONATION RING, WHICH MANY THOUGHT HAD MAGIC PROPERTIES.

WEDDING RINGS TODAY VARY FROM THE SIMPLE GOLD BAND TO THE FASHIONABLE CIRCLET OF DIAMONDS. THE DIAMOND SOLITAIRE IS THE CUSTOMARY ENGAGEMENT GIFT.

THIS WEEK'S LESSON

"Everlasting Punishment" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 4.

The Golden Text is: "Behold, happy is the man whom God correcteth: therefore despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty" (Job 5:17).

(Job 5:17).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world" (Titus 2:11, 12.)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Through the wholesome chastisements of Love, we helped onward in the march toward righteousness, peace, and purity, which are the landmarks of Science" (page 323).

Mrs. Hazelwood who lives in Lubbock has been re-elected to teach next year.

Fair To Have Big Balloon Parade

The 1947 Panhandle South Plains Fair, which will be held Sept. 29—Oct. 4, will open with a spectacular rubber balloon parade, according to a recent announcement by Fair officials.

Fair officials also announced the contract had been let for construction of a judging arena and sales measuring 90 by 100 feet. The new structure will be similar to cattle and hog buildings already on the exposition grounds. Expectations are that it will be ready for use next fall.

The rubber balloon parade will include fifty giant inflated figures, some of them standing as high as 14 feet and being 50 feet long. About 200 men will be required to handle them.

Fair officials expect between 75,000 and 100,000 people to witness the parade.

Some people are so progressive they don't wait until the first of April to make fools of themselves. Ill. Wes. Argus

Garden and Farm Suggestions

The size eggs a hen lays is largely a matter of inheritance. Insurance against small egg production is buying baby chicks from stock known to have individual ability to lay large eggs.

Marketing eggs at least once a week will help reduce the loss in quality due to thin egg whites.

A windbreak of native Texas trees around farm buildings gives protection to livestock and poultry in the winter, and plenty of good shade in the summer.

A garden fence will do double duty when pole beans are planted against it.

When a garden is watered, a deep and thorough soaking, as by a fairly heavy rain, is better than more frequently light sprinklings.

Home gardening calls for a constant fight against insects. Local county Extension agents can explain details on spraying and dusting combat garden pests.

Biggest apple and pear insect pest in Texas is the codling moth, which can be controlled by spraying with four pounds of 50 percent DDT in 100 gallons of water throughout the growing season.

About 30 percent of all fires that destroy homes are caused by careless use of matches, and smoking.

RIDIN' ON A WAGON

The simple pleasures of childhood are innocent and wholesome, and may constitute the happiest memories of later years. Fortunate is that child whose environment tends to promote such happiness.

All too quickly this little boy and girl will grow out of carefree childhood, and will be called upon to face the duties and responsibilities of life. Much will depend upon their early training and environment.

If the principles of truth, honesty and right living are instilled in their minds during these early, impressionable years, they will be prepared to meet the duties, responsibilities and dangers of life as they come.

Every child is entitled to a home in which he can develop a strong character along with his physical growth—a home in which the deep spiritual significance of life is impressed upon him from his earliest years.

Religion should be the guiding light of every home, and children should be brought up in the Church and in the faith and knowledge of God. Thus they will walk safely in life, and their lives will prove a blessing and an inspiration to others.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend and support the church of his choice. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church on Sunday and read your Bible daily.
