HELP LAYERS DO A BETTER JOB

By mid-winter the average laying flock represents a sizeable investment in feed, medicine, equipment cost, and miscellaneous cash outlay. The poultryman has devoted careful attention and much of his time to these birds from their first days in the brooder house through the growing season and into the early months of production.

Cull the Flock
With this much at stake, it is not good management to tolerate culls that consume feed while giving very few eggs in return. Remove birds of this type. Doing this will save feed and the healthy layers will do much better with the additional room. Culls shouldn't be hard to spot—they will probably have yellow shanks and beaks and a yellow tinge around the vent. Their combs are small. Usually they will be listless, far less active than the normal birds.

Give your good layers a light, cherry place in which to work. Keep windows clean and if muslin is used, replace with new when it becomes soiled. See that the litter is in good shape. If built-up litter is used, make sure that it is dug up and stirred around to help keep it dry and fresh. Rake it over frequently if hens scratch it to the corners of the house.

Gentle Handling
Handle the hens gently. Rough treatment may cause broken yolks or permanent injury which can result in a stoppage of egg production. Move quietly and deliberately among the laying flock, taking care not to excite them.

Laying flocks housed since fall probably have diminished their stored up supply of vitamins unless the necessary vitamins have been fed right along in the rations. The vitamins that are especially necessary are A, D, and G. If a commercial feed is being used these vitamins probably are present. If not, they can be provided through the addition of various forms of milk, fish oils, greens, etc., that can be obtained commercially. Better care of the winter laying flock will insure better production.

Relief At Last For Your Cough
Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

WASHINGTON HIGHLIGHTS
By GEORGE MAHON

A number of cattlemen from the Southwest have recently come to Washington to ask the Government to protect their herds from the foot and mouth disease that has broken out in Mexico. The disease is the most dreaded affecting livestock. Mexico, over our protest, imported some Brahma bulls last fall, and from these imported cattle the disease got its start in Mexico. The foot and mouth disease spreads easily and attacks cattle, hogs, sheep and goats.

A widespread infection in the Southwest would cost live stock producers millions of dollars and upset the economy of the whole area. Officials in the Department of Agriculture have convinced me that the threat is a real one, and have joined with others here in the campaign to get appropriate action as soon as possible.

The threat of the spread of this disease into Texas and other border states is so serious that the problem was considered last week at the President's Cabinet meeting. Cooperation between Mexico and the United States is urgently required, it is hoped that the good will flight of President Truman to Mexico early in March will expedite plans for combating the disease.

Already experts of the Bureau of Animal Industry are cooperating with Mexico in an eradication campaign, and it now appears considerable U. S. money may have to be spent to arrest the spread of the disease and protect Texas livestock. I have promised cattlemen to support an emergency appropriation when the request comes before the House Committee on Appropriations. Money well spent to stop the disease south of the Border would be wisely spent, despite the present urgent necessity for economy in Government.

I asked the Bureau of the Budget last week to approve a request made by the Geological Survey for additional funds for a more intensive study of underground water in West Texas. The program embraces water studies in other areas and states. The chances are good that the Budget Bureau will approve the request and send it to the House Appropriations Committee for consideration. I hope the Congress will act favorably.

Legislative action in the House last week included passage of a bill sponsored by the Republicans and endorsed by President Truman which provides continuation for an indefinite period of the $9 per gallon excise tax on whiskey and the 20 per cent tax on railroad tickets, theatre admissions, cosmetics, long distance telephone calls, jewelry and furs.

On every hand there are reminders of the hazards of modern traffic. The Chief of the Traffic Bureau for the District of Columbia reported a few days ago that in 1946 there were 10,437 traffic accidents in Washington, D. C. In these accidents 4,668 people were injured and 72 killed.

Howdy Folks: We recently read quite an article about the wonders of face lifting by a certain plastic surgeon.

Face lifting may be all right for women, but if a man is at all patient his will grow right up through his hair.

Of course the earliest known method of face lifting was with a rope.

We have a notion that the face that is lifted by these plastic surgeons falls again when it sees the bill.

Some men have such long faces their barbers should charge them double for a shave.

Speaking of charges, we will let you down easier than you think, if we may sell you our Good Mobil Oil Products Today.

A lot of folks around here will tell you it's a good value. Why don't you try it?

Hoof and Mouth Disease Warning

In livestock areas, especially in the Southwest a sharp lookout should be kept for signs of foot-and-mouth disease, according to a recent report from the U. S. Department of Agriculture to Texas A. and M. College Extension Service.

Outbreaks of the animal disease have been reported in Mexico, and U. S. and Mexican officials are conducting a survey in the area to map out control measures. At present, no known infection exists near the United States border, the USDA report stated, but there is "danger of its sudden appearance in Texas and parts of the Southwest if it spreads to the border."

Livestock areas are cautioned to continue with extreme watchfulness and report to proper authorities anything that looks suspicious the report continued. No fence exists on the border to stop strays or wild animals with the disease from coming into the United States.

One previous outbreak of the disease occurred in a remote mountain area of Mexico in 1926, but prompt action on slaughter and quarantines held the threat in check.

Pearson Guards Against Libel

Drew Pearson, whom a fellow correspondent in the national capital recently described as "the most influential writing journalist in Washington," not only maintains a staff of reporters and secretaries to aid him in collecting material for his newspaper column and Sunday radio broadcasts, but also has a full-time legal counsel at hand. By careful attention to the legal angles of his sensational new "bents," Pearson has warded off all attempts to collect from him in libel suits. Among the eight unsuccessful suits in which his news stories have stood the test was one in which damages of $70,000,000 were asked. Pearson's Sunday news commentary, which has long been a feature of Radio Station KFYO-ABC, is now heard at 5:00 p. m. an hour earlier than formerly.

by

that he hoped some of the farmers would come get their farms.

It seems to me that the proposed Air Port on the city property north east of town would be about what we need at the present time regardless of what the Government would do regarding a much larger and more expensive one.

Unless the development of freight carrying planes should develop much faster than it has in the past a field that would accommodate anything more than light passenger-planes would never be used except as an emergency. The fields at Lubbock are so near that it is most probable that one here would never be of any use. We are not as far from the Lubbock airfields as most people in large cities are from fields that they patronize regularly and planes carrying mail would not stop here if we had a field.

Slaton may some day need a large airport but by that time the method of construction and the needs of airplanes may be entirely different than they are today.

George Baker, who lives on Rt. 2 came in the office last week and he seemed rather dazed. He wanted to know if we had anything in the way of birth announcements for twins. George had things planned out in advance for either a boy or girl names selected for either one, but they did not fit for a twin boy and girl and how to tell his friends about twins was a problem. This we worked out but he did not agree with the statement that twins were no more trouble than one child; from what little experience he had received in two days, he knows that they are twice as much trouble and practically twice as much expense.

It is still my hope to see Slaton

LAFF-A-DAY

"Orchid? I put salad dressing on it and ate it!"

one of the most beautiful towns in west Texas and "tops" in home and street landscaping.

Until the water situation is better, there is not too much that can be done in this line for it is going to take considerable irrigation to make shrubs and flowers grow and the people of Slaton, as well as those in all other cities of the United States, need not expect water supply problems to be corrected until more pumps are available. At present even short sections of used pipe for repairs are at a premium and large sizes in long lengths are about as plentiful as umbrellas in the Panhandle.

The City Commissioners and the Mayor have been faced with a most vexing problem all during the war and since the war, because of the water situation, and in my opinion they have done well to have supplied the town with as much water as we have received. The City officials have plans worked out that they feel certain will solve the Slaton water problem if the question of getting the equipment is ever solved. They hope to be able to do so before the warm weather arrives but the prospects from the pipe manufacturers and pump makers are not encouraging.

J. H. Brewer and Howard Swanner have blueprints of a chart showing the ups and downs of business activities since before the civil war. According to the way the old boy who is supposed to have made the chart out, the bottom is supposed to drop out this year and some folks say that business depression has already started but I think that one might as well go by the cracks in a plaster wall as by anybody's chart.

But it's fun to look at the Brewer-Swanner chart and feel the creeps running up and down your back, while you vision a break in the stock market. Personally, I'm not going to hop off a tall building on account of a crash if it does come. I'm for going fishing instead.

As for myself, I had almost as soon go see a man hanged as to witness a rodeo for I always feel that some poor misguided rider is going to get a leg, shoulder or neck broken, but out here in west Texas as well as in most parts of the country, rodeo and roping contests are big drawing cards.

Slaton should promote something of this kind for the coming summer, if the Chamber of Commerce does not wish to do so on its own accord it might be a good idea to encourage some individuals to do so. Slaton needs more amusements to draw the people here. The plans for soft ball are coming along nicely and it is probable that we'll have even larger crowds than we did last year.

While thinking about the Slaton Airport I have never been up in an airplane, I never intend to go up, unless an emergency practically pushes me up into one and the more I read the papers, the more I am convinced that the people who do ride them are slightly more than half nuts.

BOY SCOUT WEEK

IN SLATON
and All Over the World

The Boy Scouts of America, now numbering 1,980,000, will observe the 37th anniversary of the organization during Boy Scout Week, February 7-13. This birthday celebration will be observed in every community in the nation.

The theme of the observance is "Scouts of the World—Building for Tomorrow." Through the World Fellowship Fund established two years ago by the Boy Scouts of America, they have given $110,464.36 to help Boy Scouts overseas rebuild their organizations.

Already 119 shipments of Scout literature, equipment, office supplies, and other scouting material have been sent to 32 countries.

The anniversary theme will color the organization's major activities throughout 1947 with the Sixth World Jamboree as the event of greatest significance in Scouting. This World Jamboree will be held August 9-21 on the River Seine about 60 miles from Paris.

The observance of this week will vary from community to community, as it does not follow a fixed pattern. The Scouts will use their own methods of playing hosts to their parents and friends and will demonstrate some of the useful skills they acquire through Scouting.

WESTERN MARKET NEWS

Higher prices were paid for cotton and wheat, while hogs, lambs and calves ruled unevenly strong. Cattle markets were quite general for other southwest market products last week, according to the Production and Marketing Administration, USDA.

Seasonal increases in egg and poultry supplies resulted in an easier undertone to the market. However, fair to good demand held prices to only minor changes from a week earlier.

Mature slaughter classes of cattle moved unevenly lower at Denver and Texas markets last week, but were mostly steady to strong at Wichita and mostly higher at Oklahoma City. Calves vealers and stocker and feeder classes sold generally steady to higher, but the heavy calves were weak at Wichita and stockers and feeders down mostly 25 to 50 cents at Denver. Medium to good slaughter steers brought $16.50 to $18.50 at Houston; $16 to $22 at San Antonio; $15 to $22 at Fort Worth; $16.50 to $21 at Oklahoma City; $17.50 to $22 at Wichita and $18.50 to $23.50 at Denver.

Hogs were steady to 50 cents higher for the week. The week's top was $23 at San Antonio; $24.10 at Fort Worth; $24.75 at Oklahoma City; $25.25 at Wichita; and $21.50 at Denver.

Wheat strengthened materially last week, while corn lost ground. Other grains were mostly about steady. At Fort Worth and Galveston wheat was quoted $2.25 to $2.26 per bushel, bulk, carlot for No. 1 ordinary. No. 3 white corn brought $1.64 and yellow corn was $1.47. Rice markets remained firm. Seed rice supplies were still hard to obtain in sections. Feed and hay markets weakened again during the period, as mild open weather permitted increased grazing by livestock. Hay producers and feed manufacturers were attempting to work off excess supplies before spring. Cottonseed meal led the decline, losing $6 per ton. Soybean meal, shorts, and alfalfa meal and hay were all down.

Cotton climbed $4.50 to $6 per bale during the week ended last Friday. Middling 15/16 inch was quoted 31.80 cents per pound at Dallas; 31.68 at Galveston; 31.54 at Houston; and 31.70 at New Orleans.

What They Write

Dear Mr. A. M. J.; Thanks a lot for your not wanting me to leave The Plains. You have the accord of the entire family. Yet, you never thought how nice it would be for yours truly to send you a nice crate of delicious oranges and grapefruit, right off my own trees, for a Christmas present. Must say that I have been down in that Carrizo Springs country in the summer, when there didn't seem to have ever been a breeze stirring, but it was also noted practically all the country folk and a large part of the town folks got their water supply from windmills and, furthermore, I don't remember having encountered one mosquito . . . Perhaps you are just thinking of Austin. Now Mr. AMJ, you don't stop to think just all that goes into making hot weather. First, you must consider Austin being the political center . . . You know the weather is always hotter around the center of the political area . . . half years I have been with you folks; much more since the day, Jan. 15, 1917, when I started out back there in "them thar hills of old Kentucky" with the temperature "up" to 16 degrees below zero . . . Must say, the years I have spent in Slaton are very pleasant ones to remember. Can't say how well pleased you folks have been with my services, but will say to all you Slatonites, you really like Slaton and we will be harder to get rid of than these West Texas sanders . . . Thankfully and appreciatively, your old city carrier, A. P. Wilson

R. L. BOYD

Rev. Bill Fleming preached at morning and evening services Sunday. He has only two Churches now, Caldwell and Posey.

The women of the Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church at Slaton will have a program on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, February 9th. One of their aims is to form a chapter here.

The Churches of the Lubbock Circuit of which the Methodist Church here is a member raised over $120 for the orphanage at Waco.

Members of the Sunday school have contributed more than $10 to the stricken Mexican child.

On February 16th there will be a Laymen's meeting at 11 o'clock. Speaking will be by a prominent layman of the district.

S. N. Gentry says that he will work the B. L. Woods farm this year. He recently purchased the tractor equipment. The terracing of this and the F. H. Stahl farm has been about completed.

Jack Lee has returned after working about three weeks for a Crosby county cattle feeder.

Lewis F. Droemer has served on the 99th District jury this past week.

The farmers have been extra busy since the high winds of January 29th. Not many farms were all listed and practically every one lost some top soil.

The house which Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Shafer have purchased is located at 4th and Floyd Streets in Slaton. They also have two farms one in Lynn county and one northeast of Posey.

Delwin Jones may enter Tech, if he cannot find a farm to work. His wife works in Lubbock.

L. K. Hart has been working for a few days with an oil concern at Slaton.

Miss Katherine Boyd has been selected as proof reader by the Preview Association to read and report on books which are to be published by the Viking Press of New York City.

Mrs. S. N. Gentry has been taking treatment at a Lubbock Hospital.

Mrs. John Cates and three children were Sunday School visitors.

Mrs. Henry Krey of Lubbock was visiting relatives over the week-end.

Jesse Jones and two sons are now employed in Lubbock at construction work. Mr. Jones is foreman of a crew laying concrete foundations for buildings.

The price of farming equipment remains very high. One dealer asked more for used two-row equipment than the regular price of new four-row.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Guetersloh visited at Levelland Sunday and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Guetersloh were Wilson visitors.

The Posey Grade school teaches through eight grades, but there is no seventh grade this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer C. Robertson, former teachers now of Fieldton, are now grandparents. A son was born, January 9th to their son James, and wife.

The Sunshine Club will have a box supper Friday night, February 7th at 7 o'clock. The club was organized by the Parent Teachers Association according to Mrs. W. C. Guetersloh. Everyone is cordially invited to attend the meeting at the school house. Mr. Henry Guetersloh will serve as the auctioneer.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui, many women say, has brought relief from the cramp-like aches and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "return" to come. Started 3 days before "your time", it should help remove pain due to purely functional periodic causes. Try it!

Lem's Dogs vs Thad's Chickens

Running a newspaper, you get to know a lot about human nature.

Thad Phipps was in the other day, all burned up. Wanted me to run an item on how Lem Martin's dog had raided his chickens again, and ought to be put away by law.

I told him: "Lem was in on Saturday. Said you shouldn't be allowed to keep those chickens so close to his house—and in a residential zone, at that."

Thad shuts up right pronto then. And that very evening I see him making his peace with Lem at Andy Botkin's Garden Tavern—over a friendly glass of beer.

From where I sit, anyone can find something in his neighbor to complain about. (Some folks may even disagree with Thad's right to enjoy that glass of beer with Lem!) But where would we be if everybody tried to have a law passed against everything they disagreed with? We wouldn't have many neighbors left!

THIS WEEK'S LESSON

"Spirit" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, February 9. The Golden Text is: "This is the word of the Lord unto Zerubbabel, saying 'Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the Lord of hosts'" (Zechariah 4:6).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "God is spirit; and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth" (John 4:24).

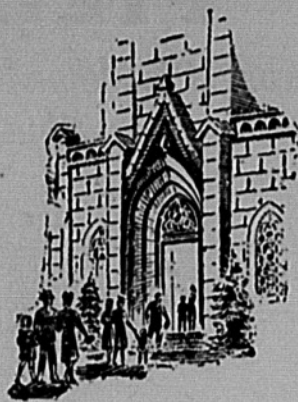

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, entitled, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "In the Bible the word Spirit is so commonly applied to Deity, that Spirit and God are often regarded as synonymous terms; and it is thus they are uniformly used and understood in Christian Science" (page 344).

JUDGE LUTHER GRIBBLE

The Governor's Office recently announced the appointment of Luther Gribble, Judge of the 9th Administrative Judicial District which includes Lubbock County. Judge Gribble resides at Wellington. The 100th Judicial District in which he holds the elective office of District Judge, is comprised of Childress, Hall, Collingsworth and Donley Counties.

Plus or Minus
GOD?

This young man, like multitudes of others his age, realizes he must soon be earning a living and perplexing questions arise.

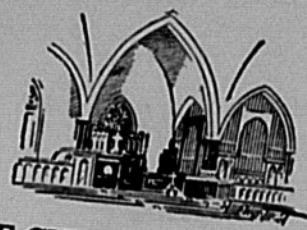

What vocation shall he follow? Will the life-work he has in mind offer him a suitable outlet for his talents? Will he be happy and contented in that work?

And questions arise about the ethical standards he should set for himself. Just how honest ought a fellow be anyway? How loyal to the truth? Do moral compromises pay?

In other words, this young man is inquiring into the meaning of life itself. In essence, his question is, shall a fellow plan his life plus or minus God?

How he works things out depends largely upon his earlier training. If his religious life has been neglected, he is more likely to make the fatal mistake of trying to get along without God.

If he has been more wisely led, he will place God and truth and right at the center of his thoughts. If he seeks the better way, the Church stands ready to offer him every aid.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend and support the church of his choice. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church on Sunday and read your Bible daily.

WHEREAS, under the Statutes and Court decisions of the State of Texas the practice of law is limited to duly registered and licensed attorneys, and all persons not members of the State bar of Texas are prohibited from practicing law in this State; and,

WHEREAS, the preparation for others of contracts, deeds, mortgages, leases, mechanic's liens, releases, transfers, wills and other legal instruments, and the giving of opinions on titles to real estate, constitutes the practice of law, whether or not any charge is made therefor; and,

WHEREAS, a number of persons in Lubbock County, who are not licensed attorneys, are now illegally engaged in the preparation for others of legal instruments, and the giving of opinions on titles to real estate; and,

WHEREAS, property rights and contractual obligations are being constantly jeopardized by such illegal acts, and it is a matter of vital public concern that the same be discontinued; and,

WHEREAS, the members of the Lubbock County Bar Association are desirous of protecting the public by curbing these infractions by persons not authorized to practice law;

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved by the Lubbock County Bar Association that these acts of unlawful practice of the law be called to the attention of the public and those persons who prepare legal instruments for others, and give opinions on titles to real estate so that they may be advised that such acts are unlawful, and prohibited by the laws of the State of Texas unless done by a licensed attorney.

Unanimously adopted this 25th day of January, 1947.

ARE YOU JUST A PLAYTHING OF NATURE?

Nature may endow you with breathtaking beauty, a lovely curvaceous figure. She may bestow gifts on you that make you a brilliant actress, a leader in your class at college, sought after at dances, or a charming wife and mother.

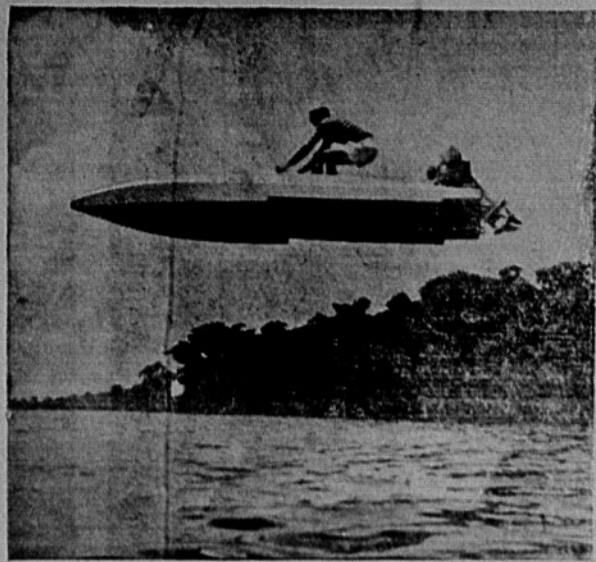

Yes, Nature may do all this. And yet you may find your face mockingly slapped if you suffer these distressing symptoms, which so many unfortunate girls and women do.

Something You Should Not Joke About!

So if female functional monthly disturbances are causing you to suffer from pain, nervous distress and feel weak, restless, so cranky and irritable that you almost turn into a 'she-devil'—on such days—THIS IS SOMETHING YOU SHOULDN'T JOKE ABOUT. Start right away—try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve such symptoms. It's famous for this purpose. And don't forget—Pinkham's Compound does more than relieve such monthly pain. This great medicine also relieves accompanying nervous tension, irritability, those tired-out, mean 'pick-on-everyone' feelings—when due to this cause. Taken regularly throughout the month—Pinkham's Compound helps build up resistance against such distress—a very sensible thing to do. Just see if you, too, don't remarkably benefit! All drugstores.
