Giles Explains Operation of New Veterans' Land Program

By BASCOM GILES
Commissioner of the General Land Office

The Veterans Land program is now a reality. The idea was born in the hearts of the veterans themselves while they were overseas and thinking about home. Their letters to my office asking how they might obtain a farm or ranch home if and when they returned, inspired me to put the machinery of this program in motion.

Last week Governor Jester's signature made the Veterans' Land bill into formal law. The bill was sponsored in the upper House by Senator John Bell of Cuero and in the lower House by Representative Reuben Senterfitt of San Saba.

The legislation grew out of a Constitutional Amendment adopted by the Citizens of Texas in a special election in November of 1946. At the following session of the Legislature the necessary enabling legislation failed to receive final consideration in the Senate.

The 51st Legislature, promptly and without a single negative vote in either House carried out the mandate of the people, making it possible for Texas Veterans of World War II to own a farm or ranch home of their own choosing by making a small down payment with the balance financed by the State at a low interest rate.

The Legislature has placed the administration of this program in the hands of the Governor, Attorney General and the Commissioner of the General Land Office.

Here briefly are some of the outstanding provisions of the new law:

The Board may issue up to $25 million in bonds to finance the program.

Land may be purchased from an individual, from the State, or corporations for re-sale to veterans at cost. (This provision will be more fully explained in a separate article—Editor's Note.)

Veteran may select land which he desires to purchase subject to the approval of the Board.

The maximum purchase by each veteran shall not exceed $7,500 to be financed by the State.

Veterans disabled by combat service connected disability have 90 days preference right to purchase.

Land may be purchased for a minimum of 5% down payment with 40 years to pay the balance at 3% interest. (This indebtedness may be retired sooner if the veteran wishes.)

All money received during the six remaining years of operation shall be used to pay interest on bonds and to purchase additional land for re-sale to veteran. The purchaser shall not transfer or sell lands purchased for a period of 3 years from the date of purchase. The veteran will not be permitted to make more than one purchase. The veteran is not required to reside upon the property.

All applications should be addressed to Bascom Giles, Commissioner of the General Land Office, Austin, Texas.

The second article explains how a veteran should proceed in selecting a tract of privately owned land for his future home.

Night Crimes and Accidents

Of the fatal traffic accidents reported in Washington, D. C., for one month, 83 per cent occurred at night, and 80 per cent of the night deaths were pedestrians. The reports reveal crimes against women much more numerous at dark, with night-time purse-snatchings 79 per cent of the total and assaults 87 per cent.

Tungsten Carbide

Before the war, says a Twentieth Century Fund survey, cartel agreements increased the price of tungsten carbide, an alloy of diamond-like hardness used on the cutting edges of high-speed machine tools, 800 per cent over the prevailing price in the United States market in 1927. Its market value was 1.5 times the value of gold.

West Texas Roundup

May postal receipts showed up just as expected and topped the receipts of a year ago by $457.51, following the prediction made by Postmaster Jim Lipscomb, after April receipts had failed to show any increase.

"April lagged behind its last year's record, but May came along and made up for it. We figured it would," said Lipscomb.

May, 1949, took in $3,575.42 in stamps, package receipts, money orders, etc., whereas in 1948 the month's revenue was $3,117.91.—Hereford Brand.

A revised plan for the clean-up week campaign has been announced today by Mayor W. E. Dameron, speaking for the City Commission, and the Hereford Chamber of Commerce. Special date set aside for the campaign is the week of June 13th.—Hereford Brand.

The Levelland postoffice will be rated first class July 1, according to information from Rex Hudson, postmaster of the present second-class office. The rating results from total receipts of the 1948 calendar year of $51,762.50, Hudson said.

Postoffices are automatically rated by their receipts, the postmaster said with first class designation going to units with receipts of more than $40,000.—Hockley Co. Herald.

Nearly 125 of the top rodeo contestants of the United States are expected for the four performance three day rodeo at the local arena July 2, 3, and 4.—Hockley Co. Herald.

Forest Moyer of Childress, brother of Lloyd Moyer of Slaton, who has conducted revival meetings here, has accepted the call as pastor of the Church of Christ and will assume his duties at the close of the gospel meeting, June 20-29, at the church.—Post Dispatch.

The total rainfall in Post so far this year is 15.70 inches, the Double U Company reported yesterday. Added to the total of 13.96 inches which had been measured by last Thursday morning, was .55 of an inch June 10, .75 June 11, and .45 of an inch June 13.—Post Dispatch.

Pursuant to an order passed sometime ago by the City Council, workmen are engaged this week in installing parking meters on the downtown streets.—Colorado Record.

Ed E. Williams, President of Colorado City Town Hall, has announced that a membership drive for Town Hall will be started in the immediate future.

The success of Town Hall this year will depend on members signing cards as early as possible so that the program committee may complete final arrangements as to the quantity and quality of presentations.—Colorado Record.

The program was announced this week for the annual reunion of Lynn County Pioneers held each year on June 24, which comes on Friday of this week this year. Oscar Roberts is program chairman.—Lynn Co. News.

At a recent meeting of the City Council, that body found it necessary to raise slightly the water rates in the city, according to Dr. K. R. Durham, Mayor.

The minimum rate on the first 3,000 gallons was raised from $2.00 to $2.50.—Lynn Co. News.

Brucellosis in Humans

Brucellosis—mainly contracted by human beings from swine and cattle—first became a reportable human disease in 1928, when less than 100 cases were reported in the United States. In 1947 more than 6,000 human cases were reported. Approximately 35 per cent of human cases are caused by eating infected food products of animal origin. Such cases can be prevented by proper pasteurizing of milk products and cooking of all meat.

Unemployment in Switzerland

Unemployment in the Swiss watch industry increased 790 per cent for March over the same month last year, according to government employment statistics. Fifteen persons were unemployed, as compared to two in March, 1947. The Swiss watch industry employs approximately 30,000 persons.

JUST TALK

by
A.M.J.

Last week a young fellow came into the office and introduced himself to me as Everett Young and said that he had spent a big part of his boyhood in Slaton and still has a good many relatives and friends around here. The reason he came was because his wife had expressed a desire to see what kind of looking man the writer of "Just Talk" could be, so he escorted me out to his car where his wife was waiting. After giving me careful scrutiny, Mrs. Young said I do not meet the standards she had set in her mind. Her mental specifications were for a man taller than I am, very thin chested and with a prominent bread-basket. While this phantom Slatonite publisher was evidently no great pumpkins for looks, Mrs. Young did not say that she was pleasantly surprised; in fact, she appeared to be disappointed and I have been looking at myself sideways in all the mirrors I can find and have been trying to figure out some way to meet her mental picture of me better and I have already decided to eat more, exercise less and go back to smoking cigarettes, so that my chest will cave in and my stomach stick out like a blister on a snake.

Last week I passed a couple of women on the street and one of them was waving her hands and seemed very much excited. "Blah, Blah, Blah, I never heard so much in my life," she said and it was all I could do to keep from sticking my nose in and asking whether it was another woman or a man who was so full of bull, but I'll never know and I missed my big opportunity to find out or to get my face slapped.

oOo

The new summer styles in sweaters, bathing suits, slacks and off the shoulder dresses are making it harder and harder for me to "control that impulse."

oOo

After too many years endeavoring to find some kind of work that would allow an easy sitting job for a man who likes to sleep late, I have discovered one that looks like it would fill the bill, but I am so involved in tearing my hair and having nightmares at night from being in the newspaper business so long that I cannot take advantage of what I believe to be the kind of work for which I am psychologically fitted. That is the Real Estate and Insurance business.

This discovery came to me after I came to Slaton and after having worked my head to the bone, and wearing my legs off to the ankles trying to catch the real estate and insurance men in their offices. It is absolutely no use going to an insurance man's office to see him before ten in the morning, two-thirty in the afternoon, nor after 4:35 in the evening, and they take more vacations than the bank or the public service companies. If a fishing trip come along and no one is handy to keep the joint open, an insurance man close up and takes his trip and if you complain that your insurance policy expired while he was gone and your house burned down, he does not even feel sorry for you, for he thinks that you should have gone fishing too.

oOo

Now if the time to get out sun-burn lotion, your fishing tackle, picnic basket, chigger scratcher, tire patches, the dimes out of the piggy bank, the first aid kit, all the uncomfortable old clothes you have, your rain coat, your life insurance policy and a bottle of bug killer for Monday week will be the glorious 4th of July.

oOo

Now the Readers Digest reports that there is nothing to be done about baldness after I have spent enough money to have bought myself a first quality toupe on stuff that smelled like ensilage, burned my scalp like Sloan's liniment and caused my wife to sleep in the spare bedroom. Within the past twenty years I have tried massaging my scalp with salt, cornmeal, coaloil and a number of concoctions that must have been the by-products of the atomic bomb plant.

It is such things as this that make one wonder if you are not one of those who are born every minute.

oOo

There are several business concerns in Slaton that are doing a big business out of town and should be encouraged. Slaton needs and should encourage concerns like these to locate here in other lines of business.

One of the outstanding concerns of this kind is the Butler Monument Company that has grown from a small beginning at the beginning of the war to one of the largest in this entire section. Mr. Butler was for many years a jobber of monuments and has had many years experience in this line of work, and his products are accepted everywhere as the best. He does a wide spread business in many parts of the state and he employs a number of men whose families make worthwhile citizens for Slaton. Another business firm that ships their products out and help keep money coming into Slaton instead of going out, is the Slaton Mattress Company. They manufacture a wide range of products in the mattress line and have helped to advertise

Slaton over a wide area. When you need things in this line or can help spread the fame of firms like these it helps your home town. There should be more small manufacturing concerns in Slaton where operating expenses are less than in larger towns, where transportation is open to all parts of the country and where modest living costs make it encouraging for the employees of such concerns to come here.

It would be a good idea for the business men of Slaton to investigate and to find out what lines of manufacturing would find it economical to be operated here and if individual concerns could not be encouraged to come here, to organize and put such plants into operation by forming stock companies. Such things are being done by small progressive towns all over the nation and with the proper planning and cooperation it could be done here.

Meeting Is Held In Rural Home

The women of the First Baptist Church enjoyed a delightful meeting at eight o'clock Monday evening in the rural home of Mrs. Clifford Young.

Mrs. J. T. Bolding brought an inspiring devotional message followed by the program.

The theme for the evening's Royal Service program was, "Youth's Quest For Christ." It was presented in the form of a radio broadcast with Mrs. W. V. Childers acting as the announcer.

The participants were hidden and their voices heard over a loud speaker. Those taking part were Mesdames Fred Stottlemire, Gay Brown, O. O. Crow, J. B. Huckabay, R. L. Smith and Mrs. Huckabay voiced the closing prayer. During the business session an offering was received for Buckner Orphanas Home.

During the social hour the hostess served refreshments to twenty-two members present.

Open House And Shower Honor Recent Bride

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Yeats, 445 S. 6th St., was the scene of a delightful affair Monday evening when Mrs. Yeats held open house honoring her daughter-in-law, Mrs. George Yeats, recent bride, and a number of her friends were hostesses at a miscellaneous shower for the newly married couple, who are making their home in Lubbock.

The home was beautifully decorated with bouquets of daisies, gladioli, snapdragons and roses. More than fifty friends called during the receiving hours from 7:30 until 10:00.

Miss Gertrude King greeted guests at the door and presented them to the receiving line composed of Mrs. Austin Yeats, the honoree, and Mrs. W. L. Housour, Mrs. Bob Fondy directed guests to the dining room where Mrs. J. M. Clark presided at the punch bowl.

The serving table was covered with a white oriental cloth and centered with an arrangement of daisies on a reflector. Tall white candles on the table, buffet and registry table lighted the scene.

Mrs. D. C. Stotts registered the guests in the bride's book at a table decorated with a large bouquet of roses.

Other hostesses assisting in entertaining were Mrs. H. G. Sanders, Mrs. F. D. Bostick, Mrs. Fred Sooter, Mrs. C. T. Scroggins, and Mrs. W. T. Taylor.

Chicken Dinner Is Given For Club

Thursday evening, June 16, Mrs. W. T. Driver was hostess for the Past Matrons Club in her modern suburban home. The entertaining rooms were very artistically decorated with cut flower arrangements.

At seven-thirty a fried chicken dinner was served.

Due to the absence of the president and the vice-president, Mrs. Lee Vardy was elected as temporary chairman for the business meeting which was conducted immediately following the dinner.

A note of thanks for a convalescent gift was read from Mrs. Jessie Prosser, who is in the Santa Fe Hospital in Topeka. After the disposition of other routine business, Mrs. Jack Cook was presented as leader for the program, when Mrs. Dudley Berry, Junior Past Matron of Slaton Chapter No. 585 O.E.S., was initiated into the club, and presented a small gift.

Not until a late hour did the happy group depart, expressing to Mrs. Driver their appreciation for the delightful time spent with her.

The club, having been disbanded for the other summer months, will not convene until Sept. 29th. Mrs. Lee Vardy, 855 W. Garza, will be the hostess for that date.

Slaton will have, sometime in the immediate future, two modern sign boards at the city limits on the Post and Lubbock highway entrances, advertising our town and its industries. These signs will come courtesy of the Chamber of Commerce. This body also has several other monied undertakings on their hands at present. We have a suggestion that costs nothing to read, and very little to perform. Why wouldn't it be practical for the Chamber manager, F. G. Meading, through the various utility companies, to keep track of every new resident moving into Slaton. And why, upon learning these new citizens' names, wouldn't it be practical—as well as neighborly—to send them a list of free gifts from local merchants. The gifts, in themselves, would have to be nothing expensive. A loaf of bread, a free waashing for the family jalopy, a free cleaning for one of "pa's" suits—any little remembrance from some merchant daily to all interested parties, at a minimum fee of 25c per listener. We feel that Bill is in for a much rougher time supporting his family than the clothing business affords. Any person who would pay for weather predictions in this country would be, we think, even crazier than the one who makes predictions. (We just couldn't resist that chance at Bill). "Just in Case" A first aid kit and a flashlight should be in the glove compartment of every automobile.

to show the newcomers they are welcome to Slaton. We imagine that many merchants would be glad to give such a gift, if approached in the right way—and certainly P. G. could master this with no effort. A move of this type would be the best advertising to the new resident that is possible. It would get each new family in the various stores; it would acquaint Slaton's established residents with the new citizens; and, above all, it would stamp Slaton as a town of friendly people. We moved, along with our family, to Waco back before the last war, and were presented with a flock of such presents. Mel Tudor told us that he received the same treatment when he moved to San Angelo some time ago. I have had a good work for Waco ever since. There is nothing that makes the newcomer feel better than to know his presence is known in strange surroundings, and it gives a feeling of real pleasure and gratitude. Maybe it wouldn't be practical in Slaton. Perhaps it has been tried and found a failure here. At any rate, it's a thought, and if we—as a city—are to continue growing we need to get off the seat of our pants and make the new residents here feel at home.

Signs of the Times: Stanton, little capitol city of Martin county to our south, has just erected two new signs bordering the city. These signs bear the quotation, "You are now entering Stanton, 2,500 Friendly People — and a few old soreheads." Would we dare, P.G.?

While on the subject of Stanton, (Mama's home town and subject to publicity through orders received at home) they have a $3.00 yearly cemetery cleaning fee charged all plot owners. The local association, faced with financing problems, might consider this amount, or set it at 25 cents monthly. All money in Stanton from this source is put into keeping all graves and lots clean and neat in their cemetery.

Certainly no one would object to such a small monthly fee to the keeping of their relative's graves. It might solve all the problems. We know nothing of correct parliamentary procedure in inaugurating such a move, but do know it is workable, and certainly this type of fee would be given without regret.

Key Ely, Slaton's "cranberry" merchant and coffeehead, made a remark the other day we think has some merit to it.

We were enroute to the percolator and discussing the current "clean-up" campaign, when Key drove us along a few curbs and gutters and pointed out how residents had thrown weeds, stones and loose boards into the street—these being bypassed by the city's sweeper. Key suggested that the city pass an ordinance that all persons owning vacant properties, and inhabited ones bordering on ditches, etc., be responsible for keeping these properties cleared of debris and weeds. He added that, if possible and legal, some type of fines be set—large enough to foot the bill for cleaning them—if this work was not done. It is the sad state of the American public that serious and crippling diseases must strike right at home before a move is made to do away with germ-breeding habitats. But it is the American way, has been and will probably continue to be—unless something specific is done. We think that Key has a pretty good solution. And if you think he doesn't practice what he preaches, just check his private residence, or his business establishment—they are just like the proverbial whistle.

A newspaper and its columns thrives and grows on reader interest. We may be about to lower the boom on our own necks, but we would appreciate some comments from readers on what they would like to read in The Slatonite. We also would be glad to make note in this column of any interesting event in our town's "passing parade". Any constructive criticism is always appreciated. In checking other weeklies of the nearby territory since taking up residence here a few weeks back, we find we have as much, or more, local news as any of them. However, we want to know what our readers wish to see in print. In fact, we will print some letters, if we get enough to merit a weekly column. Let us have some ideas. Post Script: Please do not make your requests too near home. We enjoy our work here, and the "letter" the boss writes us every Saturday morning. We would hate for a sudden end to come to all this after we started the thing. So please, for this columnist's sake, go easy on us.

The Slaton Lions Club installed new officers Tuesday night. Our congratulations to the new president, Mel Tudor, and his fellow officers. Slaton would be a dreary place, indeed, if it were not for our two civic clubs. Their officers are to be congratulated on a fine job, done free, in promoting civic projects.

B. N. Ball, local weather observer, says he plans to install, next year, a weather map. He states with tongue in cheek, that lectures on weather conditions will be given

Seminole Fans Say Lions Should Win

Letters To The Editor
 (Editor's Note: Following is a letter received early this week, addressed to the sports editor of The Slatonite. We feel it is worthy of publication, and might voice an opinion shared by many local fans. Nothing has been added or deleted from this letter and The Slatonite wishes to express thanks to Mr. Haliburton for his time and interest in our Lions. We hope that the local nine does not disappoint him).

 "Dear Sir:
 I am fast becoming a rabid fan of your Slaton Lions Baseball Club. I travel over the South Plains quite a bit, and any time I'm near a town on a Sunday afternoon where the Lions are playing I never pass up an opportunity to see an Oil Belt League game before going to see a WT-NM game, as I think the brand of ball is much better from a fan's viewpoint; in fact with a little polish, I think it would be a faster baseball.
 "Being a fan, I naturally have a gripe or two, as any fan does. I saw the Lions beat Levelland, and they looked like Champions, but I have seen them give away, and I do mean give away, games to Post, Seagraves, and Sundown. Due mostly, I think, from just not using "The Old Bean."
 "I would also like to register a gripe about a certain big fellow by the name of Curt Wilson. Why does he ride the bench so much? While living on the west coast a few years back, I had the privilege of seeing Curt Wilson play in the outfield, on second base, and do a right smart of pitching for the Sacramento Salons of the Triple A Pacific Coast league, and he performed like a Big Leaguer at all three positions. In San Francisco, once, while pitching a good ball game, I saw him drive a ball 438 ft. to win his own ball game; and another time while playing left field in Sacramento, he hit a tremendous drive over the high score board in right center field. I have often wondered what became of him; the last I heard, rumor had it that he had been sold to the Cincinnati Reds as a pitcher. At any rate, with a ball player like that on your club, why keep him on the bench?
 "I really like the work of Weaver, your center fielder, and Tillery, and Kahlich, your young outfielder. I think the Lions have the best team, by far, in the Oil Belt League and hope I have the time and opportunity to see them win the pennant, as I believe they can.
 "Yours very truly,
 R. A. HALIBURTON,
 Seminole, Texas."

The SPORTLIGHT

Have you ever noticed how the little boy who runs in a crowd of older and bigger ones is always the goat of the group?

Slaton's American Legion junior team is in this classification. Last week at the scheduled meeting the local nine was shoved into a portion of the district with two Lubbock teams and Plainview.

Brownfield was put in another part of the district, as was Taboka, O'Donnell and other Class A nines.

Not that the local youths are hopelessly outclassed, but when the play-off comes, one team from each of four parts of the district will be chosen for the championship tournament. In old wildcat chamber of commerce Imagination Slaton is a city of only 6,000 souls, forced to compete with two towns five to ten times larger.

It is a little upsetting but here's hoping the Legion boys will not be disheartened with the competition. They can, with enough hustle, determination and brainwork, come out on top. Clarence Tillery, their coach, is equally upset about the slate, but determined to push his team forward.

We nearly did it last year to the Lubbock Legion. This year nothing would be sweeter than to see the locals DO IT—no more also rans.

—ooo—

After several weeks of moaning, groaning and second guessing Lubbock sports writers and radio men can relax a little now that the Hubbers have hit the top division. Jackie Sullivan and company are once again our heroes, although by publication time they may be goats again.

Joe Kelley, Avalanche writer, and KCB's Jim Black have hoped, wished and cajoled the Hub City boys from last on up the ladder. At times their partiality has overcome their common sense, but we hope they feel rewarded at last.

—ooo—

Slaton and the vicinity is at present enjoying a fine, close race for softball honors. The tri-county league is pretty tight this year. Midway, Ayers and Posey are all top-flight teams, and Hoyt, Pleasant Valley and VFW could become overnight, title contenders.

Now that Midway has dropped a game; and with Posey coming on with a rush, the battle for the first-half championship is going to be a dog fight.

Hoyt has been a surprise team thus far, losing steadily when they were figured as title contenders from the start. A few bad breaks have hurt them in losing close games, and if their luck turns, so could their losing streak.

VFW does not seem to be hitting on all eight cylinders, and are sorely in need of consistent fielding and pitching.

Ayers look very good in most of their outings, and as they steady down, could replace Midway and Posey at the top of the ladder.

Posey's pitching is not the best in the league but they have a group of young, hustling ball players who swing from the floor at every good pitch, and these hits have been bringing in the wins.

Monday, Tuesday and Friday nights two games are played in the Lions park. Nine cents is the softball admission price, and we defy anyone to find better entertainment at that price. Some residents might be surprised at the number of people to be seen there. It is a good place to see friends from the outlying area who can't get into town so much with present farming operations demanding all-day attention.

It would be a pleasure to the Lions club, the softball league and the players to have YOU present. Its cool out there at night, and is the best relaxation for the "tired" businessman or farmer.

—ooo—

The Slaton Lions are having a double-tough time getting a winning streak started in their Oil Belt League baseball endeavors.

They have some fine individual players, but can't seem to get together. First one, then another player becomes erratic during each game, and the case has been that steady, pull-together playing has come too late to bring home any victories.

Not being a baseball manager—as many of our local paying customers proved to be—we don't know the solution to winning some of the games they have lost.

Baserunning has cost them some runs, errors have provided too big a deficit to overcome, and hitting has been not quite good enough.

As to the latter department, it is as good as most clubs in the league, and would be more than enough could some of the players get their knees together and quit letting the grounders become outfielder problems.

In this corner's opinion—a pretty cheap drug on the market—the ball club's biggest need, at present, is UNITY. If they would support each other, work together, and try as a team; some of the scorebook results might be changed in the future.

Our suggestion—forget the past and start anew.

In review: We visited the Midland Indian baseball park recently and discovered that the local baseball park has better lighting facilities than does that professional orchard. . . . Gordon Goldsberry, young ex-Albuquerque Duke has been shipped by the Chicago White Sox to Oakland of the Pacific Coast league—must have been his fielding because he was batting over the .300 mark when shipped. . . . Jackie Neels is gone from Lubbock but the Bluebonnet Sun-beamers keep winning in softball. We wonder if G. W. Warden or Stringbean Pope will show up in a Slaton box score this year? . . . Denver City's use of several young boys, former Lubbock high stars, is paying off in the Oil Belt League race. They are keeping the hustle going. We wonder what mid-summer heat will do to slow them down when the old heads gets rolling? . . . Wintering Hogs Winter market hogs should get a clean feed lot and concrete floors if possible. During winter months they get little sunlight and no pasture. To fill the gap the farmer feeds them all the concentrates they will eat and little if any bulk.

First Refrigerated Shipment
First shipment of fruit under refrigeration was made from Cobden to Chicago over the Illinois Central in 1866. It consisted of strawberries packed in large wooden chests, each fitted with a compartment for ice.

"Circling Disease"
Symptoms of listerellosis ("circling disease") in cattle and sheep include fever, facial paralysis, circling movements, depression, and prostration.

Protection of Calves
Calves are better protected against infectious diseases when housed in small groups, as in calf unit barns or open sheds, away from contact with older cattle.

RELIEF ROLE — "Who, Me?" Dennis "Daisy" Day, NBC's singing comedian, is a trifle surprised at his call to "warm-up." Swinging from singing to winging, Dennis may save the day for his neighborhood team.

Abortion in Sheep
Most cases of vibriosis (infectious) abortion in sheep occur in cold weather. The reason: "vibriosis," the germ that causes this disease, which often results in heavy losses of lambs, thrives best in frigid temperatures. Tests have shown that at 45 degrees F. the disease bacteria lived an average of 20 days. At 70 to 100 degrees the organisms survived for an average of only 10 days.

Jewelry Prices Cut
People are still buying fine jewelry, as distinguished from costume pieces, but prices today are half what they were two years ago, special order jewelers report. To cut costs, more extensive use is being made of the new platinum metal palladium. Because it holds diamonds and other important gems securely, palladium is being increasingly used as settings.

Lighted Hog Houses
By placing lights in hog houses it is possible to lengthen the feeding hours of hogs, speed up the daily rate of gain of the hogs, and also permit more hogs to be fed with the same floor space and equipment.

Yes, a penny's BIG money!

When you spend it for electricity, of course!
That important little penny will do any one of these things for you...

1¢ ... vacuum clean 6 large rugs	1¢ ... toast 3 full loaves of bread
1¢ ... beat and mix 6 layer cakes	1¢ ... wash and dry 6 loads of dishes
1¢ ... bring you an evening of radio	1¢ ... light a 100-watt lamp more than 3 hours

It's amazing what your electric penny buys in comfort and efficiency and real living values. It takes a lot of skill and experience—yes, and sound business management—to keep electric service the biggest bargain in your budget today. (And this, remember, in spite of the rising costs of making and delivering electricity to you!) Truly, electricity does a lot for a little!

The SPORTLIGHT

Have you ever noticed how the little boy who runs in a crowd of older and bigger ones is always the goat of the group?

Slaton's American Legion junior team is in this classification. Last week at the scheduled meeting the local nine was shoved into a portion of the district with two Lubbock teams and Plainview.

Brownfield was put in another part of the district, as was Taboka, O'Donnell and other Class A nines.

Not that the local youths are hopelessly outclassed, but when the play-off comes, one team from each of four parts of the district will be chosen for the championship tournament. In old widest chamber of commerce imagination Slaton is a city of only 6,000 souls, forced to compete with two towns five to ten times larger.

It is a little upsetting but here's hoping the Legion boys will not be disheartened with the competition. They can, with enough hustle, determination and brainwork, come out on top. Clarence Tillery, their coach, is equally upset about the slate, but determined to push his team forward.

We nearly did it last year to the Lubbock Legion. This year nothing would be sweeter than to see the locals DO it—no more also rans.

After several weeks of moaning, graining and second guessing Lubbock sports writers and radio men can relax a little now that the Hubbers have hit the top division. Jackie Sullivan and company are once again our heroes, although by publication time they may be goats again.

Joe Kelley, Avalanche writer, and KCB's Jim Black have hoped, wished and cajoled the Hub City boys from last on up the ladder. At times their partiality has overcome their common sense, but we hope they feel rewarded at last.

Slaton and the vicinity is at present enjoying a fine, close race for softball honors. The tri-county league is pretty tight this year. Midway, Ayers and Posey are all top-flight teams and Hoyt, Pleasant Valley and VFW could become overnight, title contenders.

Now that Midway has dropped a game; and with Posey coming on with a rush, the battle for the first-half championship is going to be a dog fight.

Hoyt has been a surprise team thus far, losing steadily when they were figured as title contenders from the start. A few bad breaks have hurt them in losing close games, and if their luck turns, so could their losing streak.

VFW does not seem to be hitting on all eight cylinders, and are sorely in need of consistent fielding and pitching.

Ayers look very good in most of their outings, and as they steady down, could replace Midway and Posey at the top of the ladder.

Posey's pitching is not the best in the league but they have a group of young, hustling ball players who swing from the floor at every good pitch, and these hits have been bringing in the wins.

Monday, Tuesday and Friday nights two games are played in the Lions park. Nine cents is the softball admission price, and we defy anyone to find better entertainment at that price. Some residents might be surprised at the number of people to be seen there. Yes, a penny's BIG money!

When you spend it for electricity, of course! That important little penny will do any one of these things for you...

1¢ ... vacuum clean 6 large rugs	1¢ ... toast 3 full loaves of bread
1¢ ... beat and mix 6 layer cakes	1¢ ... wash and dry 6 loads of dishes
1¢ ... bring you an evening of radio	1¢ ... light a 100-watt lamp more than 3 hours

It's amazing what your electric penny buys in comfort and efficiency and real living values. It takes a lot of skill and experience—yes, and sound business management—to keep electric service the biggest bargain in your budget today. (And this, remember, in spite of the rising costs of making and delivering electricity to you!) Truly, electricity does a lot for a little!

Errors Cost Lions Two Games In Oil Belt Tilts During Past Week

Fast approaching a record at giving away baseball games, the Slaton Lions last week handed Post a 4-3 victory on Thursday night away from home; then came to Lions Park Sunday to get more errors than hits and drop a 7-5 decision to the Sundown Oil Belt League entry.

Both games were league clashes, and all that is keeping the Lions out of the cellar are three wins marked up when they resembled a baseball team rather than a croquet court.

Last Thursday night William Banks pitched a fine six-hit ball game against the Millers, but was backed up by a team able to furnish only five hits, with two potential scores caught napping on the bases for easy outs. Jim Barsett, who beat the Lions in the local park three Sundays back, after the locals made enough errors to last a Class D team a season, was again the winning pitcher, scoring the tying run in the seventh, before W. B. Holland got on base by an error in the eighth. Holland came all the way home when Boyd hit behind him, as did Boren before the fire was put out by Banks.

Slaton jumped to an early lead when Gray scored in the first inning. Reiger notched another tally in the third, scoring on a wild pitch after being put on base by an error. The final tally was registered by Banks in the sixth, after he was given life by an error on the Miller shortstop Boyd. He came home on Kahlich's single.

Carpenter tallied in the third inning for Post, and Simpson followed with a fifth-inning tally—after being given life on the bases by a walk and an error on the Slaton catcher, Dill. Then came the final two runs in the seventh and eighth inning to sew up the Slaton batsmen with two hits, both singles, in the Thursday night contest.

Sunday's game was just one error after another by the Lions, who booted in enough runs to spoil a well-pitched game by Curt Wilson, tabbed as the loser.

The Lions got seven hits, good for five runs, but committed eight errors; with four runs handed the visiting Sundown nine by these errors.

Shortstop Reiger led the booting efforts with four, although he handled two well-hit balls flawlessly to hold the Oilers down even more.

Sundown went to work early, getting two runs off of three hits in the second inning. Two of these blows were high flies that left fielder Jim Donaldson lost in the sun, giving life to otherwise easy outs.

The biggest blow of the inning was Toten's line drive homer over the right field wall, coming on the three-nothing pitch. Again in the third, Toten scored, after lining a single to right field with McCollum already on base, thanks to an error by Max Arrant, first baseman for the locals.

When Wilson tried to pick McCollum off second, Reiger missed the ball and the runner came home. Donaldson, then in center field, tried to cut Toten off at third and threw into the Sundown dugout to allow another run.

Toten powered another homer over the same right field fence in the seventh for Sundown's next tally, and in the eighth, two errors by Reiger again gave runners free tickets on bases, both scoring on Reiger's third error of the inning, and fourth of the game.

Slaton got two runs in the third inning when second baseman Clarence Tillery lined a double off the left-field wall, scoring Reiger and Wilson ahead of him.

One run came in the fifth for Slaton on a hit batsman, Reiger, and two Sundown errors. Reiger scored the run. In the seventh, the Lions tied the game when Reiger led off with a double, followed by Weaver's single, scoring on Banks's single.

Sundown then came back with their two runs in the top of the eighth.

Weaver led the local hitters with two hits in three trips, plus one walk. Tillery's one hit in four trips drove in two runs and aided local scoring greatly.

Wilson was tabbed the losing pitcher, with Sundown's Medford given credit for the win, although needing help from Toten when he weakened in the ninth.
