

Lions Drop 15-11 Decision Here To Levelland In 11-Inning Game

It was bargain day at the Slaton Lions baseball park Sunday with a double-header slated for the Lions with the Levelland Refiners, and before the day was over there had been four hours and fifteen minutes of baseball played, with Levelland winning two games, 15-11 and 9-5.

The first of two "seven" inning games went 11 full innings before the Refiners could build a lead and the Lions. The final tilt went the slant seven innings with no mistakes, although it was tied once.

Cecil French was tabbed with the loss of the first game. J. E. McCoy was the losing hurler in the last game, his first loss in the local park in three appearances. He tired early, and the Lions were caught with no extra pitchers with William Banks and Curt Wilson absent from the lineup.

Clarence Tillery, first baseman, and J. Gray, third, led the Slaton hitters with three hits each. Tillery got one double and Gray got one triple. Royal James, playing shortstop, slammed out a home run during the contest, sending one run in ahead of him.

Levelland started off the scoring in the first inning getting three hits and as many runs. In the fourth they added another run, and hit to move ahead four runs. In the top of the sixth two more runs scored to give them apparently a safe 6-0 lead with only two more "at-bats" for the Lions.

But in the last half of this inning the Lions came to life and got five hits, including James two-run homer and a double by Weaver, to drive in four tallies. Still red hot the Lions came up again in the seventh to get two more runs and tie up the ball game at the end of the scheduled seven innings.

The eighth and ninth innings were scoreless, but the Refiners broke loose for four runs in the 10th on two hits, two walks and an error by Gray, to once again take what seemed a safe lead. But the home town nine came back with four runs of their own in the last of the inning getting their tallies on two hits, coupled with three Levelland errors.

The ball game broke up in the 11th when Levelland pounded out four hits for five runs off relief pitcher French, the loser, and C. E. McCoy; and Slaton's luck ran out with them getting only one run off three hits and a walk.

In the second game Levelland jumped to a three-run lead their first time at bat, Slaton got one run in their half of the first, and went ahead in the third with four runs counted behind two hits, including pitcher McCoy's homerun blast over the right field wall. But that ended the local scoring for the day, while Levelland added two runs in the fourth, and fifth, and one run each in the sixth and seventh innings.

The two McCoy's led the local batters with two hits each in the final game. Jack Gage came on to relieve Dewey Estes in the fourth for Levelland and receive credit for the win. McCoy was tabbed with the loss, although relieved by Dill in the sixth inning.

Good baseball featured the afternoon, with Slaton making one double play in each of the two games. Roy Kahlich, Slaton left fielder, made a nice catch of a fly ball in the first game, and then threw Trammell out by three steps as he attempted to score from third after the fly.

Line score for the first game: Slaton 000 004 200 41—15 11 4 Levelland 300 102 000 45—16 15 4

Line score for the second game: Slaton 000 000 0—8 5 1 Levelland 300 221 1—15 9 1

More Paving Is Okayed By City

At special called meetings Saturday and Tuesday night the Slaton city commission set up machinery that will put in action 10 more blocks of paving, bringing present construction work to 23 blocks of recent paving jobs.

No protests were heard at the meeting Saturday or Tuesday and ordinances were passed to the effect that water be bought if the proposed reservoir is constructed, provided that price and quality of water is acceptable.

The regular meeting of the body will be held Monday night, at which time other routine business will be discussed. Commissioner J. B. Huckabay will be back from the Washington meeting on the dam project and a report from him will probably be heard.

Also at the meeting the Canadian river dam project was discussed and a resolution passed to the effect that water be bought if the proposed reservoir is constructed, provided that price and quality of water is acceptable.

The regular meeting of the body will be held Monday night, at which time other routine business will be discussed. Commissioner J. B. Huckabay will be back from the Washington meeting on the dam project and a report from him will probably be heard.

Deposits In Bank Here Below 1948

Bank deposits at the Citizens State Bank here are $669,500.03 below deposits of July 1, 1948, according to figures released this week by bank officials.

Deposits to July 1 this year total $2,703,278.23, as compared with $3,372,778.31 at the same time last year.

Howard Swanner, vice-president of the bank, attributed this decrease to last year's poor crop record.

He pointed out that farmers in the Slaton vicinity made little or no cotton last fall, and that grain crops were far below average.

Prospects are bright for good crops at present, Swanner said, and deposits should increase during the coming months. He added that grain could use some rain but that cotton was benefitting greatly from the present hot, dry weather.

Huckabay Attending Canadian Dam Meeting In Washington; Hearing Scheduled For Today

Proving that diversified farming can be carried out locally, Roy Meeks and sons are pictured busy combining wheat on the Meeks farm approximately three miles north of Slaton. The picture was made two weeks ago as Meeks harvested an approximate average yield of 25 bushels per acre on his farm. Hail damage accounted for about a 12 percent loss on his place. Meeks is shown standing on the tractor, while his son Robert is at the left, directly above him. At the extreme right, with shovel, is another son, Alton. Supervising the work in the back center, is Carl Meeks, grandson of the farm operator. An interested spectator, Lewis Hollingsworth of Slaton, is in the foreground with back to camera. This picture is typical of farming activities around Slaton a few weeks ago. All wheat is now harvested, that will not be used as grazing pasture. (Picture courtesy P. G. Meading.)

Legion Team Loses To Lubbock In 2-0 Pitchers Duel

Billy Rammage pitched excellent baseball for the Slaton American Legion team Tuesday as he struck out 11 Lubbock batters, but the local batsmen were completely handcuuffed by a no-hitter spun at them by Truman Jones, and the Hub City team won 2-0 in the pitching duel at Lubbock.

Lubbock was able to get but five hits off Rammage, bunting them in two innings—the fourth and fifth—to score their two runs. Otherwise, he was in complete control of Lubbock hitters.

The loss was Slaton's third in league play, their second to the Lubbock number one team, and left them tied for second place with Lubbock number two, as the league competition ended on Tuesday.

Coach Clarence Perry said Wednesday that his nine will play a team from Post in an exhibition tilt this afternoon at Lions park. The game will begin at 5 o'clock. He also stated that he plans to schedule some other games this weekend at the baseball tournament to be held in Lubbock.

In Tuesday's game Slaton left six men stranded on the bases, but there by walks and errors, but were unable to shove them home. Carl Lewis got on by an error in the first, was sacrificed to second and Ed Macker was put on after being hit by a pitched ball. A double play erased this threat.

Two more men in the fourth were left on base, and in the fifth two got on base, with one reaching third before Jones put out the fire.

In their first meeting this year Lubbock won 6-0. Slaton's other loss came at the hands of Lubbock No. 2, 15-5, after they had beaten this team 5-1 in their first encounter. The locals also beat Plainview twice, 17-4 and 6-0.

Mrs. Roberta Fann and two children, Randall and Terry, of San Diego, Calif., arrived last week and will spend a month in Slaton visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Wicker.

Youth Center Benefit Scheduled At Slaton Theater Tuesday Night

Ticket sales are progressing rapidly for the Youth Center benefit show slated Tuesday night at the Slaton theater, and the campaign comes to a climax on Monday when last-day sales will be pushed by the ticket committee headed by Mrs. I. A. Harrah.

The show, in itself, promises to be a top attraction with many opera and popular musical stars featured under the title, "Carnegie Hall." Tickets are selling at $1.00 each for the two-hour film. Ticket holders are urged to see the show from its beginning, although it is not a requirement.

Shows will begin at 2:28 Tuesday afternoon, 5:05 p. m., 7:42 and 10:15. These are starting times for the features. Short subjects will be limited due to the length of the movie.

The show, plus the benefit cause, promises to draw quite a number of local music lovers. It is a show appealing to adults mostly, as the theme is strictly musical. A few Hollywood stars are featured in the picture, to give it a plot and keep it from dragging.

The profits, excepting tax, will go to completion of the new Youth Center just west of the Legion hall. The buildings are being tied together—they are surplus Army barracks—and will be completed on outside and interior when funds have been raised to pay for this work.

The Boy Scouts have already been assigned one wing of the four-wing building, and the Girl Scouts will also be given a meeting hall. One large room will become an assembly hall, while another will be a general game room.

The center will be open the year-round for activity by Slaton youth organizations, and the Boys Club will use it daily during the summer months. It will be used by any supervised organization.

The center, its construction and use, is sponsored by the Slaton Youth Council, an organization that has representation from every civic club and organized group in the city. A board of directors, headed by their president, Dr. R. W. Ragsdale, has been pushing the drive for funds. Donations have accomplished the work already completed, coming from the business houses and private citizens—plus a generous gift from the Slaton Service canteen, an organization no longer existing since giving their entire fund to the center.

Tuesday night's show comes as the climax to the entire drive to erect and put into use the buildings. House-to-house campaigns will be pushed during the next few days, and it is the desire of Mrs. Harrah's committee to contact every person in Slaton and the surrounding area. Each club that donated money for the center has been contacted by the ticket committee, and sales have been satisfactory.

More tickets will be sold at the band concert Saturday night on the square.

New Spraying Unit Arrives; Will Be In Use Immediately

Slaton's new DDT spraying machine arrived this week and was put into immediate use, after the city had received a thorough fogging last Sunday by two machines leased from a Lubbock firm.

Mayor Lee Wootton said this week that the entire town was covered thoroughly by the machines, and part of the area lying immediately outside the city limits also was sprayed.

The new machine, ordered last week from the Ozona Spray company, cost the city approximately $1,280. Most of its use this week was restricted to demonstration by salesmen as they gave the city employees instructions on operation of the machine.

The portable unit, built on a steel trailer frame, will be towed behind city trucks and will be used regularly to spray local streets and alleys where insects might breed. It will also be used for special sprayings in the city wherever, and whenever, they are needed, Wootton said.

The Slatonite extends a hearty welcome to the new citizens who have just recently moved to Slaton. They are:

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Boyle, who have moved to 1030 South 8th St. Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Moore, who have just moved to Slaton, residing at 235 South 16th. He will be associated with Dr. J. E. Loveless.

Mr. and Mrs. R. K. O'Loughlin, now residing at 735 South 12th.

Mrs. H. M. Bruner of Lamesa returned to her home Tuesday after spending the week end and the Fourth in the home of her sister, Mrs. W. W. Fitzgerald. Mrs. Bruner's husband is in a hospital in El Paso for plastic surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Jones and their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jones, all of Abilene, spent the week end in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lawrence and Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Drewry.

Mrs. J. M. Clark visited her mother and sister in Brownfield last Sunday and Monday.

City To Purchase Reservoir Water If Constructed

City Commissioner J. B. Huckabay joined a group of Panhandle-South Plains officials Wednesday for a trip to Washington, D. C., to confer with government officials concerning the proposed $85,000,000 Canadian river dam, reservoir and water distribution system.

At a special meeting Tuesday night of this week a resolution was passed by the city commissioners to buy water if available from a Canadian reservoir at a price they can pay. Lubbock, previously, had passed such a resolution.

Whiteside, who will present the plan to the sub-committee as chairman of the Texas group, reported this week to the Lubbock Morning Avalanche that the governing bodies of practically all municipalities interested had adopted similar resolutions.

The plan, under study for some time now, would make water available to all the interested cities, at the same rate. Huckabay said here Wednesday, Slaton would pay the same amount as Amarillo, regardless of the difference in distance and delivery costs.

Estimated cost would be seven and one-half cents for each thousand gallons, according to engineering figures. These figures also estimate that 1,305,000 acre feet of water can be impounded—with no time element given—at a Canadian reservoir.

The hearing that Huckabay will attend will be before the sub-committee of the House Public Lands committee, beginning at 10:00 this morning. A favorable report on the project to the Public Lands committee, as a whole, is what the group hopes this meeting will accomplish. The next effort will be to obtain a favorable report by the committee to the House of Representatives. No congressional appropriation will be asked for construction until detailed plans are completed, and this will probably be until the 1950 session.

Huckabay plans a full report to the city upon his return from the meeting.

One Of Slaton's Builders Passes On

M. L. Turnbow, long time resident of Slaton, passed away at Mercy Hospital on Sunday, June 26. His body was taken overland to Dublin by Williams Funeral directors of Slaton, and interred in Turnbow Cemetery, family burial ground for almost a century. Graveside rites were read by Rev. O. B. Herring, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Slaton, assisted by Rev. J. B. Baker of the First Methodist Church of Rule.

Pallbearers were: Curtis Young, Mark Daffern, George P. Attridge, Raymond Hancock, Clifford Turnbow, and John Moore. Burial was attended only by the immediate family, relatives and lifelong friends.

Mr. Turnbow was a descendant of pioneer Texas families. His maternal family were residents of Texas before the days of the Republic, and his father's father, Chesley Turnbow, settled a large tract of land in Erath County before the Civil War, and before the county was organized. It was at the family home there that the deceased was born, May 20, 1883, and grew to manhood. He was married in 1902 to Miss Cora Caudle, whose family also, were pioneer residents of Erath County, and one of Texas's early families.

Mr. Turnbow had resided on the South Plains 33 years, and in Slaton for 27 years, where he was in the building business. Many beautiful homes in Slaton and the surrounding territory stand as a monument to his conscientious workmanship, and his excellent craftsmanship. Many public buildings, also, the churches, the hospitals, the schools, he had a part in building. It may truly be said, he helped to build Slaton and he was a man who rejoiced in work well done. No finer tribute could be paid any person, in a day and age when so few assume a true responsibility for their work.

Survivors include the wife, three daughters, Mrs. J. C. Hennington, and Mrs. R. H. Todd, jr., of Slaton; Mrs. J. D. Freeman of Austin, and one son, James W., of Austin; five grandchildren, two sisters and four brothers.

MRS. B. G. DICKERSON DIES SUDDENLY HERE

Funeral services were held at four o'clock Monday afternoon at the First Methodist Church for Mrs. B. G. Dickerson, 63, who passed away at her home at 1100 W. Dickerson St., on Saturday afternoon, July 2, following a stroke.

Mrs. Dickerson has been a resident of Slaton for 29 years. She died at 5:45 p. m. Saturday, following an illness of a few hours.

Survivors include her husband, one son, Olen, of Slaton; three daughters, Mrs. Virgil Jones, Mrs. E. W. Ham and Mrs. L. C. Pruitt, all of Slaton; two sisters, Mrs. J. T. Seppick of Fort Worth, and Mrs. Joe Neovitt of Savoy, Tex. There are also 13 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Burial was in Englewood Cemetery under the direction of the Williams Funeral Home.

Mrs. L. B. Thornion, who is visiting indefinitely with her sister in Seminole, visited relatives and friends in Lubbock and Slaton last week.

Tragedy of Errors

Three drivers, three vehicles, three mistakes. That is an absolute pattern for disaster.

If one of the drivers hadn't slowed down without warning, if the bus driver hadn't tried to pass it without reducing his speed, and if the third driver hadn't been drinking, this tragedy probably never would have occurred.

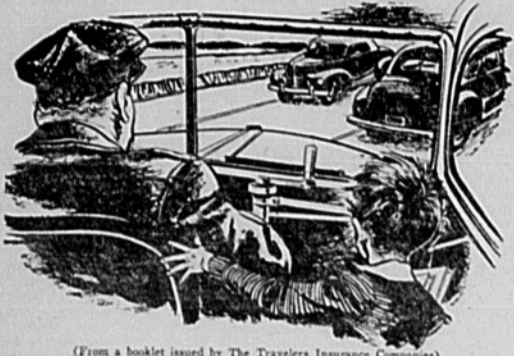

As it was, a soldier is dead, two of his brothers are crippled for life, and a dozen children are recovering from serious injuries.

Also, a 23-year-old college graduate with a promising career in medicine has been charged with manslaughter and felony drunk driving.

It happened very quickly. The southbound school bus was following the black sedan in the right lane of a three-lane highway when the sedan slowed down sharply. The bus driver veered out to pass in the center lane. At that precise moment the northbound convertible coupe, with a drunk driver at the wheel, and carrying four woody passengers, weaved into the center lane. The crash was head-on, the consequences frightful.

Levelland is scheduled to get the Federal Post Office building in the 19th Congressional district, according to Congressman George Mahon.

In a recently passed bill, each congressional district is scheduled to receive consideration in connection with the construction of one new post office building. The bill does not actually provide for the construction, but it provides for the purchase of sites and the drawing of plans in order that everything may be in readiness for the construction of the building, according to the Congressman. —Hockley County Herald.

Some people may be curious to know what has happened to the 400 acres of potatoes that were planted in the Lorenzo area some time ago. Well, a few of the potatoes were hauled out and those that were not are progressing nicely, according to reports. The potatoes are now putting on (some already have some potatoes on the vines) and should be ready for harvesting very soon. —Lorenzo Tribune.

A report of the First Baptist Building Planning Committee, presented at a called business meeting at the church Wednesday night of last week, was accepted with unanimous approval of the congregation and it received the official recommendation of the Board of Deacons and Finance Committee.

The proposed structure will cost approximately $31,000. Some of the money has already been raised, and it is expected that the remaining amount will be on deposit by the time the building is completed. — Post Dispatch.

The tax rate increase election held Saturday by the Blythe County Line Independent School District carried by a big majority, according to school officials who canvassed returns of the election Monday. The vote was 72 for and 39 against.

"The results of this election placed the Seagraves Schools alongside the more progressive schools of the state," Joe Simmons, president of the local school board, said. — Gaines County News.

With the death toll from polio mounting in various parts of West Texas, the Post Dispatch has received several inquiries as to why something is not written about whether or not Post's alleys are to be sprayed with DDT as they were last year.

The City of Post, which received a supply of DDT for the purpose several weeks ago, plans to spray just as soon as the alleys are sufficiently repaired from the sewerage line installation. —Post Dispatch.

The City Council, in special session Tuesday afternoon, approved the $98,335.00 bid of J. R. Fanning Lubbock contractor, for street paving work in Abernathy.

Two other firms placed bids. They were Panhandle Construction Co., Lubbock, $108,886.00, and Strain & Brown, San Angelo, $113,606.00. — Abernathy Weekly Review.

Wheat piles pyramided over the county this week as the grain hit the ground. Almost all the commercial elevators in the county were blocked, taking in only what they could load out, and the worst blight on the picture was the fact that the future didn't carry much of a solution to the problem.

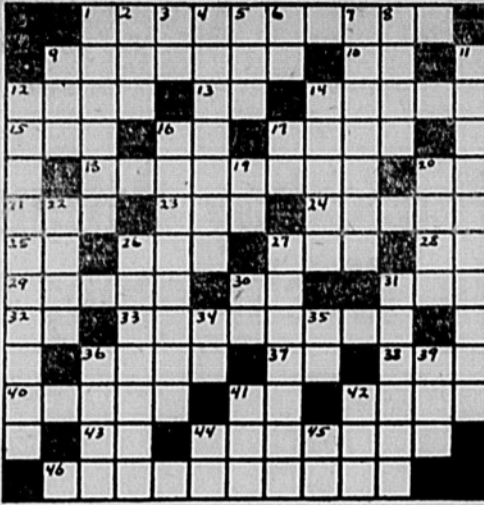

By Saturday even Deaf Smith's half million bushel farm storage capacity was rapidly filling up and farmers in the west half and across the north side were dumping their wheat on the ground. Those piles were destined to grow larger and more numerous. — The Hereford Brand.

A contract was let by the local school board Monday night authorizing the construction of the high school gymnasium, according to information released by Superintendent J. S. Bridges, Tuesday.

The contract was let to the Midland Home Loan Finance Corporation, and the new gymnasium is to cost the taxpayers $99,000. The building, which will be of tile with beautiful fireproof brick on the outer surface, will be modern in every respect, with a seating capacity of 2,000 (so patrons will no longer have to stand to see local ball games.) — The Anton News.

B. A. Morrow of the New Home community and a cooperator of the Lynn County Soil Conservation District, was selected by the district's board of supervisors (R. L. Littlepage, Kay K. Moore, A. E. Hagens, W. R. Ledbetter, and H. O. Hargett) as the outstanding conservation farmer in the Lynn district for 1948. Mr. Morrow was the local board's nominee in the annual Fort Worth Press "Save The Soil And Save Texas" contest. — The Lynn County News.

Ceremony At Baptist Church Unites Reta Jo Adkins And Travis Melton

In a candlelight service held at 8:30 p. m., Friday, July 1, at the First Baptist Church, Miss Reta Jo Adkins became the bride of Travis Melton. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Adkins of 405 W. Garza. Mr. Melton is the son of Mrs. Toy Melton of 310 W. Lubbock St.

The double ring ceremony was read by Rev. Ira Harrison, Baptist minister of Lubbock, before an archway of greenery, flanked by large baskets of pink and white gladioli and candelabra. The bridal aisle was marked with white malleine bows and lighted candles. Miss Daunita Dowell of Slaton and Miss Bobbie Bartlett of Meadow, dressed in light purple, were candlelighters.

Mrs. Lowell Merrell, organist, played, "Indian Love Call," "Clair de Lune," and the traditional wedding marches, and accompanied Mrs. Morris Ward as she sang, "I Love You Truly" and "Because" preceding the ceremony and, "A Wedding Prayer" at the close.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white crepe dress designed with fitted bodice with sweetheart neckline and gathered ballerina length skirt. She wore long lace mitts and carried an orchid showered with baby's breath, on a white ribbon. Her elbow length veil of bridal illusion was attached to a halo of seed pearls. For something old, she wore Mrs. Melton's wedding band; something new was a strand of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom; something borrowed was a set of pearl clips belonging to Mrs. T. A. Turner, something blue was a garter, and a coin in her shoe was for luck.

Maid of honor was Miss Cleo Joyce Marr of Albuquerque, N. M., cousin of the bride. Her dress was of pale blue crepe. Miss Ann Singleton and Mrs. Paul Melton were bridesmaids and were dressed in pink and orchid. All of the bride's attendants wore long lace mitts and carried colonial bouquets of Esther Reed daisies and snapdragons.

Paul Melton served his brother as best man. Jon Appling, Bruce Blair and C. E. Geer, all of Slaton, and Jack Bynan of Albuquerque, N. M., were ushers and groomsmen.

Reception At Home Of Bride
Immediately following the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride. The bride's table was covered with a white hand-drawn linen cloth from Belgium and centered with maroon daisies and candles. The three-tiered wedding cake was served by Mrs. J. E. Eckert, sr., and Mrs. F. A. Drewry presided at the punch bowl. Miss Fannie Castleberry, aunt of the bride, registered guests in the bride's book. For travelling, the bride wore an aqua suit with brown accessories. Following a wedding trip to New Mexico the young couple are at home in Slaton.

JUST TALK

A.M.J.

People in Slaton and this area are, like people in all other parts of the nation, in a state of uncertainty and will remain so until conditions stabilize to some extent. There never has been and probably never will be a time when one can feel absolute security and each and every one of us must of necessity rely upon our own judgment as to what the future holds. Personally I am inclined to agree with what the following article states. This area may be one of the bright spots in the United States this fall if crops continue to improve.

Calamity howlers—those who say the country is on the skids because you no longer have to pay black market or grey market prices and can afford to wait to have a salesman convince you—can pick up a little common sense from the closing remarks of Alfred P. Sloan,

Jr., chairman of the board of General Motors, as he talked to GM stockholders at the company's annual meeting the other day.

He reviewed briefly his remarks of the two previous years, which were in the way of forecasts, then brought the picture down to the present in one of the most sensible pronouncements to come from American industry recently. He said:

"In my previous years' remarks on this subject I have made two general observations. The first is that in a situation such as has existed, prices of necessity are in a state of unstable equilibrium, both specifically and in relation to each other. This distortion, in the very nature of things must necessarily raise the question of the inevitable adjustment—how and when? The second is, that such adjustment can only be brought about by the pressure of goods on prices. It cannot be brought about by political propaganda on such economic relationships.

"I now pass to a third observation. These adjustments that I have referred to in previous years are now with us. Practically all goods are in ample supply, and prices are feeling the pressure and will continue to do so until a reasonable balance is reached.

"Capital goods expenditures as a pattern, are a most significant factor in the whole economy. As they go, so goes the economy, so to speak. Such expenditures are now falling off. This, together with the fact that consumer needs, urgent and not so urgent, are becoming well satisfied and all goods are moving into ample supply, means that we must now move to a lower level. It is a natural and logical phenomenon. Nobody knows when the new level will be reached or where it will be. But it is my opinion that the new level will be, in terms of physical volume of production, considerably higher than the general pre-war level.

"I hope we will let things follow their normal course rather than interfere through new wage increases or some form of panacea. Such only serve to prolong the operation and, in the end, increase its intensity. I can see no basis whatsoever for a real depression or even a recession of considerable consequence. Of course, if we do foolish things nationally in the economic area—such as a substantial increase in taxes or in other ways, which is not impossible—we might accelerate the adjustment into something worse."

In other words, Mr. Sloan's advice is not to rock the boat but to sit down and keep on fishing.

Mrs. A. C. Eaves, of Slaton, proved last week not only that the men of this area are pikers but also that you do not have to go three or four hundred miles from Slaton to catch fish.

While fishing at Buffalo Mrs. Eaves landed one 8 pound blue cat, one 2 pound channel cat and one 2 pound crappie and the Eaves family have been eating fish regularly ever since.

Mrs. Eaves' accomplishments fill my soul with envy for in all my years of stumbling up and down the river beds of Colorado and baking my skull and burning my skin in the hot sun on the lakes of West Texas I have not caught that many pounds of fish. Each summer when I get that fish catching gleam in my eye, my wife looks at me with the expression she keeps in storage for small children, people who are too old and feeble to know better and for fishermen, but it fails to curdle my enthusiasm and I go forth with my tin box full of tangled lines, fly rod with three broken tips, my casting rod that is bent in the middle, a bottle of sun burn lotion and thirteen dollars worth of lure es that are guaranteed to catch the biggest fish in the lake or stream because they make noises in the water, run backwards or dive up an down, but always get tangled up with the moss and roots; I will hunt out my most uncomfortable pants, my most delapidated shirts and my oldest shoes, that caused corns to come on my feet, and I'll take my place with billions of people who take the notion at the same time to go fishing at the same place I have decided to go and I'll catch one little half witted fish that is at the point of starvation or he would not be fooled by my queer looking contraption that looks like most anything except something any living thing would try to eat.

Now I am sure that Mrs. Eaves caught her fish with bait and my above detailed account shows the difference between a bait fisherman and an artificial lure fisherman, at least all of the artificial lure fishermen I have ever seen, or been with, for I have yet to see any one pull a fish out of the water on an artificial lure that weighed over a quarter of a pound. I have seen fish that weighed several pounds that were said to have been caught on artificial lures, but I am beginning to think that these such things are fish stories.

One of the greatest problems facing most small towns and even the smaller cities is sanitation and keeping a community free of rubbish, dense growths of weeds and the disposal of garbage.

Slaton is no exception and this year promises to be a banner year for weeds as well as a year for big crops on the South Plains. It is easy enough to say that the sanitation of the town and the disposal of garbage and the cutting of the weeds on vacant lots is the problem for the City officials, but laws and regulations cannot give property owners a pride in their town and in their homes, nor is it an easy matter for the law enforcement agencies to make an absentee owner of property in Slaton cut the weeds. And so it comes down to the simple fact that if the weeds and trash are to be removed from the city then it will have to be done by some civic organization and it seems to me that some method could be devised whereby a weed cutting machine could be secured and the help to operate it could be obtained. This is not just a temporary problem but one that comes up every year and becomes acute each summer. The recent clean-up effort brought some results but we still need to get the town in better condition. The fogging machine that has been ordered by the city will probably help keep down the flies and mosquitoes, but it most certainly will not solve the weed problem, and unless something is done before long the weeds will in the near future be a dangerous fire hazard. While I do not know the answer, I do know that it is such things as these that mark a town as slovenly and the inhabitants as lacking in civic pride.

Slaton Takes 6-3
Win From Tahoka
Oil Belt League

Scoring three runs in the eighth inning to break a 3-all tie, the Slaton Lions rallied to win their second straight Oil Belt League baseball game 6-3 over the Tahoka loop entry, in a game played at Lions Park last Thursday night.

Banging out ten hits and capitalizing on eight Tahoka errors, the Lions backed William Bank's seven hit hurling with three runs in the fifth and three in the eighth to take a closely contested game.

Tahoka opened activity with one run in the fifth inning, unearned. Insoor was safe on Shortstop Jim Reiger's error and went to second on Jake Jacobs sacrifice bunt. He scored when Harwick singled to center. Harwick was thrown out trying to stretch his hit into two bases.

Slaton came right back with their three-run outburst in the bottom half of the same stanza. Reiger led off with a double, followed by a pop fly by A. H. Weaver for an easy out. Then Clarence Tillery lashed a line-drive double through short and Reiger scored, while Tillery went to third after the right fielder fumbled the ball. Banks then scored Tillery with a 350-foot double deep into left center field.

Tahoka kept pecking away at the lead, getting one run in the seventh after two men walked and Jacobs again sacrificed, moving Doyle Lane and Insoor to third and second, respectively. Lane scored when Reiger threw wide to the plate on Harwick's grounder.

In the eighth, T. Rogers singled to start the inning, was sacrificed to second, and came home on Short's single.

In the winning eighth, Royal James led off for Slaton with a single. J. Gray singled, moving James to second. Both runners advanced a base on a passed ball, and James came home when Reiger lined one off the third baseman's glove. Weaver walked, and Tillery drove Reiger home with a towering fly to deep center field. That was the ball game.

The Lions made four errors, allowing one unearned run, but otherwise it was a close ball game.

Banks struck out nine Tahoka batters in winning the game from Pierce, who scattered the Lion hits but could not hold them in the clutches.

We don't know how many readers scan the weekly "West Texas Roundup," found elsewhere in the paper. But it is a column worth reading for any person interested in keeping tab with activities in other communities of the area.

This week's roundup carries a paragraph from the Hockley County Herald concerning the acquisition of a new post office for Levelland. It states that this office will be the only Federal building erected in all of Congressman George Mahon's 19th district.

This little item may start a pretty good political feud, as other towns of the area had hopes of obtaining federal aid on a post office building. Snyder, in particular, had editorially deplored their "letterhouse" and asked Mr. Mahon's assistance in getting a new building.

Slaton might study the matter pretty closely, as we need one, now. We should begin to work toward that end, if it takes ten years to meet requirements.

Mr. Mahon wrote the editor of the Scurry county paper and outlined the plan that will be followed in determining which of 19 towns in his district will get aid in post office improvements.

He stated a town is eligible for consideration for a federally owned post office building if annual postal receipts exceed $10,000. (Already this year the local receipts have run $11,494.74, making Slaton an eligible city.)

Mr. Mahon said selection is made in this manner—the town having the largest postal receipts over a three-year period just prior to the selection is awarded the new building.

The letter did not mention all of the 19 towns eligible, but did place Levelland at the top of the list. (Their last year's receipts were $51,762), and Snyder second. (these receipts in 1948 totalled $30,498.)

Citizens at Levelland, early this year, built themselves a post office and leased it to the department with the understanding that the lease be cancelled when a new building was constructed, according to Mr. Mahon.

All the figures given do not mean Levelland gets the post office, as yet, but it does show them to be first in consideration at the present, with Snyder due the first office following the Hockley County building.

We do not know if Slaton rates very high on this preferred list, nor do we know if any formal steps have been made to discover the possibilities of getting a new office here.

We do know that our annual receipts might place the city as high as fourth or fifth, and place Slaton in a good position to get a building in a few years. We would have to work up the list, but as each town is satisfied, we would be nearer the top.

We also know that the present post office is not the finest, though not the worst, post office building in West Texas. A town the size of Slaton certainly can't be proud of the building they have, but they could be very proud to point out a fine, modern, well-kept plant.

It might be worth checking, if proper authorities do it and stake a valid claim to a building.

Having met Mr. Mahon while a Lubbock Avalanche reporter, and having discussed various items with him, we believe him to be the very finest, and most cooperative representative this section, and Slaton, could wish. We feel sure he would give us an honest answer, and a specific goal toward which the town might work.

"I just like to stay at home and enjoy it, rather than take a vacation."

That was the answer O. Z. Ball gave to last week's "question," in regard to taking a vacation. We feel it deserves some consideration, and a compliment to "Ez."

This is a mighty busy place we live in, and one where people are always going, going, gone. The younger business and professional men of today, including yours truly are always in a rush to get some where, although most of us have no particular objective in mind.

We have fallen into a world of hurrying people and to find a man who has a home of which he is proud, and also one which he enjoys more than a vacation trip is indeed noteworthy item.

The educated say that its the little things in life that make interesting news. We feel this is one of those things which they prefer.

When O. Z. made that remark we thought he was joking. There are so few men who really can slow down their rapid pace long enough to go home, sit down and "count the many blessings" that surround them.

We wish to point out this local "pant presser" for special notice. In his everyday efforts to be a success—and in our estimation he has won this fight—and provide the many necessities and a few luxuries for his family, O. Z. has taken time to stop and enjoy a man's most prized possession... his home and family. We think it a real compliment to him, as well as his family.

Just this last reminder—Tickets are on sale now for the July 12 (which is Tuesday) Slaton Youth Center benefit show. They are selling for $1.00 a person. The finest musical picture is available to satisfy any demand for a return on money invested—plus the benefits to be gained by a first-class place for Slaton youth to play and learn. Go buy a ticket, and go see a fine picture.

Our congratulations and/or condolences to J. M. Roddy and his newly-elected fellow Rotary officers. Their installation last Thursday completes the year's elections by the two local civic clubs.

Mr. Roddy succeeds Bruce Pemberton as president; one week after Mel Tudor took over the reins of the Lions Club to follow Max Arrants.

It's a tremendous job, pushing and pulling a bunch of reluctant men for a year, keeping them together and at work. But every minute of the time spent by the local Rotarians and Lions in their work is certainly rewarding for the city.

To these club leaders, our best wishes for the continued progress of their respective clubs and an offering of our services at any time to publicize or labor for any undertaking.

If any local baseball fans like to see the Lubbock Hubbers, at a cut rate, we advise going with our editor, A. M. J. 'Tis rumored, but pretty well confirmed, that he took three local citizens to the July 4 double-header Monday night. They gave him the cash for their three tickets, and he was to supply his own funds. Instead, he bought three tickets and crowded past the gate, keeper before he had time to compare stubs and heads.

We wonder if his companions go their change back.

The SPORTLIGHT

by Bill

Softball in the Tri-county league is one half finished, but to determine a leader is next to impossible with no official scorebook being kept the first two or three weeks of play.

The league is pretty tight this year and if something isn't done by the league directors, they are going to have a squabble on their hands. Also their attendance is being hurt by not having a little better organization.

We feel that more people would turn out for some of the more crucial games, if weekly standings could be published. There have been some very close lulls played, but no one knew just how the teams ranked; therefore, made no special efforts to see the games.

As near as can be figured Midway is leading the league. They lost two games recently, but still have enough wins to keep them on top. In games through last week, excepting Friday night, Midway had won four games, losing two.

Posey and VFW have each lost twice according to our records, but have won only three games at this writing. Ayers and Hoyt have two wins and three losses, while Pleasant Valley has one victory.

These are not official statistics, nor are they complete. They will remain incomplete until some official information is turned over to us by the league officials.

The Slaton Lions have been looking pretty good lately in winning a few games, and with addition of new players.

Urchery appears to be a fine catcher, although his hitting is weak. Royal James, added this past week for the game with Tahoka, appeared a fine fielder and got two hits in his opening appearance here.

Everyone, we believe, is of the consensus that Roy Kahlich is one of the best fielding players on the club, or in the league. His terrific throwing arm makes him very valuable. Jimmy Donaldson's speed and hitting make him another top outfielder.

The infield used against Tahoka looked fairly good here last Thursday. J. Gray at third and A. H. Weaver at second both do fine jobs defensively, although the latter is a valuable outfielder also.

Jim Reiger is a fine hitter, but has trouble with his fielding. He has made from two errors upward in almost every game played here this year. But, on the other hand, has scored the important runs in every close contest. He is, we believe, the Lions' leading scorer.

As far as Clarence Tillery's work at first, second, behind the bat, in the outfield, or elsewhere, we feel he is the best in the league. His work on first is extra-valuable, plus his ability at the bat.

A little unity is showing up on the Lion squad, and the boys are getting together a little more often to hit in the clutches and push those runners home.

William Banks as a pitcher or an outfielder is due to play regular, and is one of the best hitters on the squad. Cecil French and Curt Wilson are both excellent relief pitchers, but have had trouble getting opposing batters out recently. However, both have pitched creditable ball most of the time, and losses are generally due to poor support afield.

All in all, we feel the Lions will continue to move upward in the League standings. To overtake Denver City would probably be impossible with so many losses already marked up against the local nine. But, if they can get into the playoffs they might bring home the flag, and the trophy.

In losing their game last week to the Lubbock Legion No. 2 team, the local Legion players suffered a severe setback in their hopes to end up with a good season's record.

The trouble with the loss was, or is, that it was not necessary. Coach Clarence Tillery has a fine team representing Slaton this year. With one or two more boys with some experience to fill weak spots, he might even have been able to compete on near-even terms with the best Lubbock team.

But it all boils down to the point where you can't win when your players don't report for the games. He got caught against the Lubbock team with no regular pitcher, no third baseman.

This forced him to use some boys who, though ambitious and deserving of a chance, did not have the experience to play in a tight ball game.

The two pitchers gave all they had, but just didn't have the necessary control that comes with practice and experience.

We wish that the local Legion boosters would give all the boys a forward push by letting them know they are needed, and wanted, and establish a little desire to at least show up and give a try at winning.

A little team pride would help a lot on some of the boys. There are some that were forced to work in the fields, but there were others that just flat didn't care whether they came or not.

They need a push. Give them one.

Our recommendation of the week: When you go out to see local softball games, or to see the Lions play, join George Brassell or Butch Hillin, if you enjoy rhubarb. Either one of these "characters" will furnish as much entertainment as the ball clubs. They also carry on a running conversation, usually one-sided, with the "gentlemen in blue". Not all the remarks are necessarily complimentary, but they are certainly entertaining.
