Move To Hold Bond Election Started Here

Cosahoma Citizens Favor Bonds If Road Remains Where It Is

DISTRIBUTE PETITIONS

Minister Says Editor Of Herald Ought To Open His Eyes

Petitions asking the county commissioners court to call another $800,000 road bond issue were being circulated today, following the meeting of the Big Spring Luncheon Club.

The petitions were given out by Dr. C. K. Bivings, after the club had voiced approval. One of the petitions was circulated among and signed by members of the organization and visitors.

They will be returned to M. H. Morrison by Saturday morning and presented to the commissioners Saturday. The petition is identical to ones circulated before the first election, in which the bond issue was defeated by a narrow margin.

The Rev. John Thorns, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Cosahoma on behalf of a Cosahoma delegation present at the luncheon, presented one petition bearing 100 signatures of residents of the town "approving the bond issue if the highway remains where it is."

Another petition, bearing a smaller number of names, also approved the bond issue.

The Rev. Mr. Thorns declared the bond issue is a Howard county question, and not a Big Spring nor any other single community's proposition. He urged that county residents work in unison in the campaign.

Cosahoma's Viewpoint
He declared he had found a majority of Cosahoma voters favored the bond issue, providing the highway remains where it is, with a sharp ninety degree turn being removed if it is necessary. He declared, "Big Spring should do even."

Judge Has Way, He Gets Story

George Parks, shown above, a product of Roscoe high school and Simmons university, Abilene, and one of those young men who naturally make friends, was released from the Nolan county jail Tuesday evening by Judge Fritz R. Smith of the 32nd judicial district after Parks had been remanded to that prison Monday noon when the court held him in contempt for writing an article published in Sunday's Sweetwater Reporter. The article told of the returning of an indictment against a former county commissioner of Nolan county. The court held its publication would be in violation of the "sacredness" of the grand jury records. The reporter, saying the "secret" of the indictment already had leaked out on the streets, told the court he would print it. To make good his threat to jail the young man if it were printed Judge Smith incarcerated him.

Democrats Give Way To G.O.P. On Food Loan Vote

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 (AP)—Senate democrats abandoned their $15,000,000 food loan amendment to the emergency $45,000,000 drought relief appropriation today in bowing to the vote of the administration-controlled house against it.

However, before the modified measure was voted upon democratic Leader Robinson gave notice that unless adequate relief is provided "other relatively unimportant legislation is going on the scrap heap" at this session.

In condemning the action of the house republican leaders against the food loan provision, Robinson warned he would seek action on additional relief legislation as a part of the agriculture appropriation bill or the deficiency appropriation measure.

Independents Assemble For Conference Of Thursday

LOCAL MAN PRESENT

Represent 300,000 Wells Producing 500,000 Barrels Daily

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 (AP)—Independent oil operators of the west and southwest will assemble here tomorrow to inaugurate a vigilante campaign for a petroleum tariff or embargo.

Delegations from the leading oil producing states, called into conference by former Governor Halloway of Oklahoma and former Governor Reed of Kansas, will hold informal conferences today, preparatory to the official sessions tomorrow.

Wirt Franklin of Tulsa, leader of the Oklahoma delegation, arrived yesterday.

Representatives of Texas, Kansas, Wyoming, California, Louisiana and Arkansas are expected during the day. A delegation is to invite Secretary Wilbur to join in the meeting.

Wilbur is chairman of the federal oil conservation board and has been cooperating with leading producers in an attempt to find outlets for the "distress" production of the small operators in the mid-continent oil field.

The independent producers operate about 300,000 wells, with daily production of approximately 500,000 barrels, in the seven oil states to be represented at the conference.

B. F. Robbins of Big Spring is a member of the delegation in Washington.

HOUSTON, Jan. 14 (AP)—Reductions in prices of Texas crude oil from two to 28 cents a barrel were posted by the Humble Oil & Refining company today.

"The lower prices at which our competitors for some time have been and are purchasing, and producers are selling crude oil in certain areas, has obligated the Humble company to change its posted prices," said a note accompanying the new schedule.

HOME TOWN TALK

BY BEDDY

One of the most loved and respected men west of Fort Worth is Col. Dick McCarty, editor of The Albany News. He writes differently than most any other editor in the world. He says what he thinks without stuttering or stammering.

A lot of folks think that after a man has lived in any community more than fifteen or twenty years he just naturally grows opposed to any progressive movement. Not so with Col. Dick. He lives in the hills of Shackleford so long he feels like a part of the scenery. But he's for progress every time.

A sample of his writings—which in this case deals with a question widely discussed in Howard county for many weeks follows: GOODBYE CALLAHAN COUNTY
But doggone we like you, but your political stunt on Saturday of last week was the hair that broke the campbell's back. We've marked you off our visiting list, for years we've been driving over there over hills and rocks and through mud holes trying to keep up a friendly relation with you. You know Baird and Albany are two towns of the same likeness, the old spirit of the West, the cowman's spirit prevails, and for all these years we've been trying to keep you company, cultivate the spirit of friendship and good cheer—but goodbye boy, we ain't coming any more. Drove over there last Friday, thinking that maybe it would be the last rough drive—just like to have bursted our car all to the thunder running over big boulders, pulling steep grades and splitting mudholes. But dear old Callahan you have deceived us, you've shut the door and we ain't coming back any more, as much as we love you.

Hectic Home Life And Tempestuous Love Affairs Of Clara Bow Thrown Amidst Public As Long Confession Of Erstwhile Secretary Is Released

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 14 (AP)—Public peeks were obtained today into the hectic home life and tempestuous love affairs of Clara Bow, flaming haired "it" girl of the films, with the reading of the confession of her erstwhile secretary, Daley De Boe.

The 30 page document was read on the witness stand by Miss Dorothy Adams, district attorney's stenographer, in the blonde secretary's trial for grand theft of approximately $16,000.

Was Drunk

"(Miss De Boe) 'No, because Miss Bow was drunk and if I had gotten into any argument with her, she would have tried to kill me, because she has tried to once before and I wouldn't have any words with her at all. I thought it would be better to walk out and later on straighten out her affairs. I wanted to get things settled as quietly as possible and keep Clara out of the paper because one more item in the papers and Clara's through in pictures."

English Baronets, Hidden 18 Years, Paged By Radio

LONDON, Jan. 14 (AP)—British radio systems today paged Sir Francis Barrow, English baronet, who mysteriously disappeared 18 years ago and has not since made his whereabouts known. A broadcast carried the urgent appeal of friends to come home immediately since his eldest son, Wilfred John Wilson Croker, heir to his title, is seriously ill. The broadcast was the first revelation to the general public that the baronet, who is the fourth of his line, was missing. Lady Barrow, his wife and other members of the family declined to discuss the disappearance or other circumstances of the case. If still alive Sir Francis would be 83 years old. He was married in 1890 to Winifred Sarah Steward of Carigate, Whitehaven, who bore him a son and a daughter. There are seven grandchildren, one of two sisters is a Franciscan nun. The first baronet, Sir John Barrow, for many years secretary of the admiralty and founder of the Royal Geographical Society, was highly distinguished as an author, traveler and meritorious public servant, says Debretts Baronetage. A monumental tower, 100 feet high, was erected to his memory by public subscription on the road hill, Ulverston, his birthplace. The second baronet was chief clerk at the Colonial office and secretary and registrar of the Order of St. Michael and St. George of which he was a companion. The Barrow arms carry two crossed swords with fleur de lis and an anchor in the angles, the crest being a squirrel cracking a nut, charged on the shoulder with an anchor. The family home is at the Grave, West Molesey.

Bridegroom Dies Few Hours After Ceremony

WICHITA FALLS, Texas, Jan. 14.—A honeymoon which was to have been spent in Happy, Texas, was brought to a tragic end here shortly before midnight Tuesday.

Survivors include two daughters who reside in Muskogee, Okla.

Hope For Flyers Found Unfounded

HORTA, Island of Fayal, Azores, Jan. 14 (AP)—A British cruiser engaged in gunnery practice off Sao Miguel Island, Azores, Sunday night, unwittingly gave rise to a false hope of a clue to disappearance of the airplane Tradewind on its flight Saturday from Hamilton, Bermuda.

The cruiser sent up several rockets. One of these disappeared into the ocean about 20 miles off Mosteiros Point, Sao Miguel, was mistaken for the Tradewind falling into the sea, and a radio station there is said to have broadcast an appeal to ships to keep a lookout in the vicinity. Portuguese admiralty officials ordered the destroyer Ibo to the scene but withdrew the order after learning the facts. The steamer Nuolja and others are continuing the search for the Tradewind and its two occupants. Mrs. Beryl Hart and Lieut. William A. MacLaren, but with almost no hope of finding them. The plane left Bermuda at noon Saturday for Horta, but has not been heard from since. It was en route to Paris from New York and Norfolk, Va., with a "pay load."

Two Georgia oak trees, one in Athens and one in Oxford, over themselves, having been thus deeded by former owners for "love and affection."

Laws To Control Cotton Acreage Backed In Contab

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Jan. 14 (AP)—Legislative control of cotton acreage was endorsed here last night by the Southern Association of Commissioners of Agriculture.

The state commissioners had been told in addresses that a mounting surplus and over-production threatened southern growers with poverty and a disastrous year if the output is reduced.

"I would rather have my wife dressed nicely than be going around talking about invading people's rights with the seat of my breeches out," said State Senator W. B. Roberts of Mississippi, advocating a resolution adopted without a dissenting vote.

E. C. McInnis, Mississippi's director of agricultural service, was the only one who spoke against the resolution and he did not vote. He said legislation to enforce acreage reduction "tampers with economical laws and puts us on a gesous ground."

"This is a question of starving children and farmers," Roberts said in reply. "It is constitutional and is the only solution."

Roberts told of a law which he has proposed in Mississippi. It would limit cotton planting on a single tract to 50 per cent of the acreage, and would make violation a misdemeanor punishable by a fine or six months' imprisonment.

Bus and Truck Drivers To Hold Special Meeting

FORT WORTH, Jan. 14 (AP)—Invitations have been extended to more than fifty major operators of truck and bus lines in North Texas to attend a meeting here Thursday.

The meeting was called by D. G. Griffin, president of the Texas Motor Transportation Employees Association for the purpose of explaining progress of the employees association and a discussion of problems confronting the industry.

Griffin said he had been advised by A. T. Barrett, president of the Bus Owners' Association of Texas, that through a tie-up with more than 500 motor buses operating in the state bus-airmail service shortly will be extended to hundreds of communities not now enjoying that privilege.

Barrett stated the plan is to coordinate bus and airplane service that the smaller communities within a radius of 100 miles of an air terminal will receive air mail and packages within three hours after the landing of the air mail planes.

Among cities named for immediate enjoyment of this service are: Denton, McKinney, Gainesville, Paris, Sherman, Denison, Texarkana, Corsicana, Washburn, Terrell, Bonham and Tyler.

CORSICANA, Texas, Jan. 14 (AP)—Joshua Burkhalter, 32, was smothered to death under 15 feet of earth that caved in on him yesterday while he was working in a water well.

His body was recovered today, after a group of men worked all night in an effort to rescue him. The accident happened in the Rural Shade community, near here.

NANCY EARLE

BIOGRAPHY

Nancy Earle's life has been divided into three major classifications:

- Cultural Training-Newspaper Columnist
- Dramatics and Social Leadership
- Lecture Work.

Miss Earle, the daughter of influential southern parents, was given every opportunity to develop her talents. Her early education was followed by study in leading universities which led to three college degrees. While in college Miss Earle won distinction, both in her studies and in outside activities, which included research work in fashions, dietetics, and kindred phases of work.

Because of her concrete knowledge of those things of universal interest to women she was secured by a large newspaper syndicate to pass on her knowledge to their women readers. Her articles and personal column proved of great interest to women in all parts of the country.

Dramatics and social work took a large portion of Miss Earle's time for a number of years. President and director of five women's organizations, acting and directing in Little Theatre work, professional stage work, a continuation of her newspaper articles, together with further research work in the three cornerstones of woman's life—fashions, health, and homemaking—occupied Miss Earle's time for a number of years.

On account of her exceptional ground-work and past success Miss Earle was secured to take her messages direct to the women of the United States. Her itinerary carries her to every part of the country and her talks have been the means of entertaining and helping thousands of women.

New Procedure Used In El Paso Swindles Merchants of Much

EL PASO, Jan. 14.—Merchants dealing in high-priced jewelry and wearing apparel were today warned by the police department against an uncommonly shrewd confidence game reported operating in West Texas.

The racket is said to be attempted by a well-dressed, impressive man and an attractive woman who give the impression of being highly prosperous.

Entering a jewelry store or other high class establishment, they ask to be shown diamonds or expensive furs. Finally a stone or garment is selected and the man nonchalantly presents a $1,000 bill in payment.

Startled and a bit suspicious, the merchant thinks fast. It isn't often a customer tenders a bill of that size in payment for a few hundred dollars worth of good. The merchant wonders whether the bill is good and decides to make sure.

He slips the bill to an assistant and surreptitiously orders it taken to the bank for inspection. "Hurry," he whispers as he thinks of excuses for delay. The clerk returns to his customers and stalls for time. Small talk, obviously intended to cover up the delay, rouses considerable irritation in his customers.

As the minutes fly, the customers demand an explanation, finally rising on their dignity and informing the clerk the deal is off.

"We'll go where we can get service," they haughtily inform him. The assistant returns as the proprietor is trying to smooth things over. The bill found to be genuine by the bank, is slipped to the clerk.

But the customers demand their money back. The man stuffs the $1,000 bill in his pocket and turns to stalk out of the store.

"Wait," the merchant pleads as he makes a final effort to put the sale over.

The customers pause, look at each other as if understood, and finally give in.

All smiles and considerably relieved.

Second Victim In Shooting At Lubbock Is Dead

LUBBOCK, Jan. 14. (AP)—Robert Averett, 23, Tuesday became the second victim of a shooting affray which occurred in this city early Sunday morning and which to date has claimed two lives with three others suffering from minor wounds.

The man died at 9:30 this morning after an emergency operation had failed.

Horace L. Smith, 35, died in a local sanitarium Monday morning and will be buried here today.

Two charges of murder now face Alvis Graves, 26, Lubbock carpenter, who is being held in the Lubbock county jail. Attorneys for Graves indicated today that a preliminary hearing would be asked this week.

The shooting climaxed a house dance and was precipitated by an altercation between Smith and Graves in which the question of Smith's wife danced with another man was brought up.

Smith received two wounds in the lungs and another on the left arm while Averett suffered an abdomen wound.

Traveling Booze Joint Sought

SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 14. (AP)—A traveling speakeasy in the form of a large sedan fitted with an elaborate bar and dispensing varieties of drinks was sought by police here today after a 28 year old Dallas man reported he was robbed of his money and clothing while patronizing the rolling saloon.

The victim reported the robbery after he had made his way, clad only in underclothing, to a filling station near the scene of the attack.

The Dallas resident told detectives that he was walking on a West Side street late Monday when he was halted by a man from a passing sedan.

The attack which followed ended with the victim standing in the center of the road. Reaching the filling station he was fitted out with a pair of coveralls and went to detective headquarters.

Schmeling And Stribling Sign For Heavyweight Contest

The Kansas City Star sports department refers to the late Bill Wayne Mann, wrestling champion, as a pawn in the wrestling game. Being moved about to satisfy the business ambition of the man who controls the sport, Top notch wrestlers let themselves be thrown by him, and these same champions turned him over gaily after he had lost the championship and the wrestling moguls gave him no more thought.

Man-Mountain Will Meet Winner

Action Expected To Rub New York Commission The Wrong Way

By HERBERT W. BARKER (Associated Press Sports Writer) NEW YORK, Jan. 14 (AP)—Max Schmeling and W. L. (Young) Stribling have signed for a heavy weight title bout to be held in June and thereby precipitated what may develop into a bitter duel between the New York State Athletic Commission, and Madison Square Garden, corporation.

Under terms of a contract signed yesterday, Schmeling and Stribling will meet in a city to be selected 90 or more days before the match, with the winner defending the title against Primo Carnera, Italian man-mountain, in September.

The contract was signed by representatives of the three heavyweights with the Madison Square Garden Corporation of Illinois, a subsidiary of the New York Garden. The Stribling-Schmeling bout will be for the benefit of the Hearst Milk Fund which will not figure, however, in the second match between Carnera and either Stribling or Schmeling. The ultimate survivor will defend the championship for the Milk Fund alone in 1932.

Entrance of the Madison Square Garden Corporation of Illinois into the negotiations was expected in some quarters to lead to drastic action by the New York State Athletic Commission against the New York Garden.

Bill Carey, president of the New York Garden, took no part in the proceedings in view of the commission rule forbidding promoters to deal with suspended boxers. Both Schmeling and Carnera are under ban in this state.

Carey insists, however, that the Illinois corporation is a separate, distinct organization and therefore eligible to negotiate with any boxer so long as there is no violation of the rules of the Illinois Boxing Commission. Whether the New York commission would accept this explanation is considered doubtful by most observers.

The commission consistently has championed the cause of Jack Sharkey, Boston sailor, stripping Schmeling of his title when he declined to sign immediately for a return bout with Sharkey. The returns contended that Der Maxie had promised to give Sharkey first chance at the title and that he must live up to his promise.

David Hopper, who has had a bit of trouble finding the dimensions of the iron loop, went off on a rampage during the tilt, piled up thirteen points to take high point honors from his fellow-forward, Tommy Hutto, who tallied nine during the evening.

Overcoming a small lead piled up in the early minutes, the Big Spring Steers defeated the Colorado Wolves at Colorado last night, coping the contest 27 to 15.

Twilight Putt Wins For Ciuci

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla., Jan. 14 (AP)—By virtue of a 20-foot putt in the twilight, Henri Ciuci, Bridgeport, Conn., today possessed the Fort Lauderdale open golf title and $300 first money.

Ciuci sank a long last ball at the 54th hole yesterday to eliminate a possible three-way tie with Johnny Farrell, former National Open champion and Willie Klein of Wheatley Hills, N. Y. Ciuci's score was 74-70-69-218.

Slattery was a big favorite to whip the Kingfish because of his greater boxing ability. Levinsky was confident of whipping over one of his famous sledge hammer blows and winning by a knockout.

Fried Chicken Has Sunny Jim

NOKOMIE, Ill., Jan. 14 (AP)—The attention is over for James Leboy Hottelmer, He's Sunny Jim again. "You started 1930 off the hook, Jim said today, and to prove it he smiled like he used to smile before the growth of base, high as in last summer and lasted throughout the world series.

John Hope Doeg, American singles champion, is filling a pair of the largest shoes in the sports world.

However, he intends not to make any particular effort to grow to a stature to make them fit. That would require quite some growing. Because they were bulged by such figures as Larned, McLaughlin, Johnson, and particularly by Big Bill Tilden, who has turned professional.

Doeg, however, has announced that business comes first with him, and has indicated that he is not available for a Davis Cup team.

Doeg, who was born in Mexico, December 7, 1908, lives in Santa Monica, Calif., and comes from a tennis family. His aunt, May Sutton Bundy, formerly was the women's tennis champion of America.

Doeg's chief asset is his service. Serving with tremendous force, he counts on winning every service game and to break through his opponent's service once for the front.

He is more at home at the net than the baseline and often volleys cross-court drive teamed with a well placed chop.

In addition to a tennis background, Doeg has fine build for his feetwork is faulty which repels him weak at the baseline.

Agua Caliente Tournament Opens

AGUA CALIENTE, Mexico, Jan. 14 (AP)—Steadfast of all the money stakes and the most of competitive players, the Agua Caliente, $25,000 open golf tournament today became a reality for 97 professionals and 17 amateurs.

This is a select list, made up of leaders in the National Open, the National Professional Golfers Association championship, and survivors of a qualifying round which attracted approximately 100.

A more severe test will face the starters than in the inaugural last year, won by Gene Harrison, New York professional with a 296 total for 72 holes. Par has been boosted from 71 to 72, with the course 6,322 yards long from the back tees.

The chief hazard of the layout is the prevailing wind which blows full in the faces of the players on the opening tee and throughout the hole. Top notch contenders admitted that the one fortunate enough to win the $10,000 first money probably would do no better than four 74s.

After two days of 36 holes each, the field will be trimmed to the 50 low pros and 10 amateurs.

Twenty-nine money prizes ranging from the ten grand down to $100 will serve as the incentive for the pros, with three amateur prizes for the Simon pures.

Besides Ed Dudley, Wilmington, Del., pro who established himself in the big money division for the first time by winning the Los Angeles $10,000 open Monday, and Sarazen, defending champion, the field is saturated with front rank performers.

WINSTON SALEM, N. C.—Perhaps folks puff more when broken than when flush. The annual statement of the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company shows earnings of $34,256,664 for 1930 compared with $32,210,521 for 1929.

FILLING BIG SHOES

John Hope Doeg, American singles champion, is filling a pair of the largest shoes in the sports world.

However, he intends not to make any particular effort to grow to a stature to make them fit. That would require quite some growing. Because they were bulged by such figures as Larned, McLaughlin, Johnson, and particularly by Big Bill Tilden, who has turned professional.

Doeg, however, has announced that business comes first with him, and has indicated that he is not available for a Davis Cup team.

Doeg, who was born in Mexico, December 7, 1908, lives in Santa Monica, Calif., and comes from a tennis family. His aunt, May Sutton Bundy, formerly was the women's tennis champion of America.

In addition to a tennis background, Doeg has fine build for his feetwork is faulty which repels him weak at the baseline.

Doeg's chief asset is his service. Serving with tremendous force, he counts on winning every service game and to break through his opponent's service once for the front.

He is more at home at the net than the baseline and often volleys cross-court drive teamed with a well placed chop.

In addition to a tennis background, Doeg has fine build for his feetwork is faulty which repels him weak at the baseline.

CHARM CHATS

by Nancy Earle

Noted Authority and Writer on Health, Charm and Beauty

We've all heard about setting-up exercises. Why not call them talking-up exercises?

Very much like the irrefragable young lady who insisted that a daily "dozin" would be of more benefit to her than the most scientific "dozen" that anyone could devise.

That is the opinion of most of us when the heartless Bluebeard in a squeaking alarm clock begins brandishing his scimitar of sound and routs us from those precious hours of "dozin."

After the face has been splashed with cold water, if we have the moral determination to swing into our own chosen "dozen" then in a very short while the "dozin" tendency will have evaporated.

The waking-up exercises should be simple. There is no point whatever in attempting elaborate gymnastics. In fact, there is a number of very good reasons for not attempting them.

Be certain that simplicity does not interfere with efficiency. Your muscles will register their awareness of the exercise, be assured. Each exercise should be continued until there is this awareness, whether it is five or twenty-five times.

It is absurd to say this exercise should be done this number of times, and that exercise this number of times.

The number of times the movement should be performed is dependent entirely upon the individual development. If the person is used to taking exercise, then she will need to perform the movement a greater number of times than the person who is unused to exercise and has a low muscle tone. Tire the muscle and stop.

The body should be free of encumbering skirts, or hooded shoes, or clothing of any kind which restricts its movement. A swimming suit is excellent. One may wear one's "unmentionables" for the exercises to very good advantage also. A brassiere is usually to be recommended.

Another thing that is very important is to observe the precise instruction about the exercise. All exercises including the very simplest should be done typically in form. Notice every small detail of its performance and copy it minutely. Every point that is mentioned is important.

For example, if the instructions for an arm exercise say that the fingertips rest upon the shoulders and that the elbow is on a line with the shoulder, then you will not get the desired results if you permit that elbow to sag.

And another point of vital importance. Every exercise should be done with the entire body. Exercise is more than merely the systematic use of a muscle. It is the education of the body.

It is the education of the body to harmonious and efficient reactions. The body, to be graceful and harmonious in its movements, and efficient in its operations, must remain the unit it naturally is. It cannot be educated in part.

There must be the unified development of the entire structure, which in its entirety becomes, through education, more harmonious, more graceful, more efficient—more healthy—in its workings. When performing any exercise, therefore, listen to the music with our whole body. Not just with the arms, or the legs that are doing the exercises. Certainly not just with your ears!

Then let the entire body respond to the rhythmic harmony of the music with the rhythmic harmony of bodily movements. The entire body will aware of the music, will respond to it with a certain subtle vibrancy that even an observer will see and yet not quite see.

And the focus of movement will be upon the arm or the leg that is being specifically exercised.

And lastly you must like these waking-up exercises—all exercises—or they will not be of value to you. If they are a chore, do not do them. There must be the element of delight, such as a dancer feels as she sways to the liquid harmony of a waltz or pirouettes to the pizzicato pliancy of an old Milanese rondo. A real joy that goes beyond the muscle and filters through the mind and spirit. Sweetening them, calming them, firing them. Waking them up, too.

RADIO Day By Day

By C. E. BUTTERFIELD (Associated Press Radio Editor) NEW YORK, Jan. 14 (AP)—Bill Munday unwittingly caused the pensive that he in broadcasting considerable worry the last few days.

Munday, who won his laurels on the NBC network as a sports announcer, has been given a new assignment, that of introducing his friend, Bobby Jones, in the weekly golf series to start on WEAF and stations at 7 o'clock (EST) tonight. Although Jones had been told some days ago that Munday was to do the announcing, there was no okeh from him.

An effort was made to get in touch with him. No luck. He had been on the Pacific Coast with his wife for a vacation after announcing the tournament of Roca game on New Year's.

Telegrams got no response. Telephone messages failed of their purpose. The Munday's were on their way home, but just where they were no one seemed to know.

With the broadcast date fast approaching, word finally came that the Munday's were back in Atlanta. But even then Munday couldn't be reached easily. Hope about gone. Cooperation was sought from the Atlanta Journal, for which Bill writes sports news.

That just about concluded the search. Munday is still unpacking, unconscious of the consternation he had caused.

Try these on your radio to night.

Communist 'Home' Placed Under Lie

NEW YORK, Jan. 14 (AP)—Communist headquarters at Union Square is under lien because it didn't pay a $25,000 butcher bill.

Joseph Katz, the butcher, alleges in his suit that the communist leaders have secretly told the building to get themselves by transferring ownership from the Union Square Corporation to the Sentinel Press. They were attempting to evade the indebtedness, he claims.

The cooperative cafeteria on the ground floor recently failed for more than $100,000 after attempting to operate on a pay-as-you-go basis. The patrons never left, it was said, but lingered on to argue over their meals and sleep where they argued.

Katz obtained a mortgage on the building to secure his bill and even loaned money to re-establish it on a capitalist basis, but the new system ran afoul of communist theories.
