Hope Brighter For Truce; UN Has New Plan

Allied Proposal Would Demilitarize Kaesong

By NATE POLOWETZKY
MUNSAN, Korea, Sunday, Nov. 4. (AP) — An Allied proposal to demilitarize controversial Kaesong brightened prospects for agreement on a buffer zone in the Korean truce talks Saturday.

The Reds had not yet replied, but any such new situation usually requires a higher-level Communist huddle.

It was possible that something concrete might develop at Sunday's meeting of the armistice sub-committees.

The Allied proposal to resolve the knotty buffer zone problem was made orally during Saturday's four hour meeting at Panmunjom. Brig. Gen. William P. Nuckols, command spokesman, said the Communists seemed cool.

The Allies had insisted that the Reds yield some 200 square miles of territory in Western Korea — including Kaesong — in exchange for an equal amount of ground to be given up by the U. N. in Central and Eastern Korea. The Allies also would yield islands north of Parallel 38.

The Peiping radio declared today that the Communists had defended Kaesong "against everything the American Eighth Army could throw against it."

The Red broadcast described as "absurd" the Allied proposal that the Communists give up the Kaesong area. It hinted that charges of Panmunjom neutrality zone violations — like the charges which broke up earlier talks at Kaesong — might be forthcoming from the Communist camp.

Making Kaesong a demilitarized zone could mean that the ruble zone, 400-450 miles northwest of the capital city of Seoul, would be placed under United Nations control or would be included in the buffer zone strip across Korea.

The opposing sides are in tentative agreement on an Allied-suggested cease-fire line two and one-half miles wide generally following the present battlefield inside North Korea.

Reds Throw Strong Blows At UN Lines

U. S. EIGHTH ARMY HEAD-Quarters, Seoul, Sunday, Nov. 4. (AP) — Communist forces up to 1,000 strong threw in numerous attacks along the Western and Central Fronts in Korea Saturday and Sunday, but were hurled back.

The attacks through wintry mists and low clouds reflected increasing pressure against the Allies, but there still was no major action.

One Communist attack southeast of Kumsong, rubbed Red base on the Central Front, was beaten off early Sunday.

Another pitched battle raged all day Saturday west of Yonchon, on the Western Front 35 miles north of Seoul. The Reds left many of their casualties on Allied barbed wire.

Superforts under cover of night attacked a Red airfield and communication targets in Northwest Korea late Saturday.

Naval planes added their firepower to the strikes at supply lines and centers.

Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway's headquarters had good news for combat veterans — "Home by Christmas" for infantrymen who were in action as long ago as last Jan. 1.

Headquarters issued the announcement to clear up scuttlebutt rumors that "all" enlisted men would be sent home under the rotation system. The order does not apply to rear echelon troops or officers awaiting "qualified replacements."

Frontline forces of both sides generally marked time while truce negotiators talked at Panmunjom. The Reds mounted eight small attacks near Yonchon, on the Western Front, and southeast of Kumsong, on the Central Front.

Allied troops beat off seven of them.

Reviewing The Big Spring Week

With Joe Pickle

Seldom has winter ever arrived earlier, and possibly only once before with such suddenness, as it did last week. When temperatures tumbled to 27 degrees, it was the lowest since the record of 1912 when 22 degrees were registered. The snap was sharp enough and long enough to put a stop to crops.

Halloween passed with a nominal amount of decorations except for the handiwork of a handful of young hoodlums who plastered paint on the high school and otherwise damaged the structure.

Lightning will strike twice in the same place, Mrs. Charles Boland learned last week. As a child, she had left her a cripple. Last week she delivered a baby and is fighting for her life in a Dallas hospital. "I must get well," she said. "The Charlie's eyes." Friends have been pulling for her and many have made cash contributions to help provide treatment.

The city and Air Force moved a notch nearer final agreement on arrangements last week when basic terms of sewer and water projects were reached. Col. Ernest Wackwitz announced that the base

One Dead, Four Hurt In Mishap

One woman was killed and four persons were injured, two of them seriously, in a car-pickup truck collision six miles west of Big Spring early Saturday night.

Ruth Costin, 23, of Colorado City, died in Cowper hospital.

She was a passenger in an automobile driven by James Leonard Taylor also of Colorado City, which was involved in a collision with a pickup truck driven by George Homan of Big Spring.

Taylor and his wife, Mrs. Vivian Taylor, were in Cowper hospital.

Highway patrolmen and members of the sheriff's department, who investigated said both vehicles were demolished. A fire truck from the city hall fire station was dispatched to the scene when the gasoline tank of the automobile exploded as the wreckage was being cleared. The fire occurred after the injured had been removed.

Homan and Pat Martin, who were in the pickup truck, were brought to the Big Spring hospital for treatment of facial lacerations, but they were dismissed after first aid.

Attending doctors said Mrs. Tow suffered severe shock. She had a crushed chest, several broken ribs and cuts and bruises.

Mrs. Taylor whose condition was described as serious, had a fractured skull and severe cuts, while her husband suffered cuts and abrasions.

Amputees from both Eberley and Nalley funeral homes brought the injured to hospital.

Mrs. Tow was Howard county's 20th traffic fatality of the year. Her body was removed to the Eberley funeral home to await arrival of relatives from Colorado City.

Survivors include a son, Edward Lee Goswick of Colorado City; her mother, Mrs. J. N. Calloway of Colorado City; two sisters, Janice Williams of Archer City and Mrs. Jewel Goodrich of Jacksboro; and a brother, Buck Costin of Midland.

ABILENE, Nov. 3. — Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Gorrell of Big Spring were hospitalized here Saturday following a collision between their car and a pickup truck driven by R. S. Burdard of Albany.

The mishap occurred about seven

IN TUNISIAN MESS Anglo-US Envoys Angry At French

By LOUIS NEVIN
TANGIER, Nov. 3. (AP) — American and British diplomats were angered today at finding themselves caught in the middle of a controversy over French expulsion of a Tunisian Nationalist leader from this international zone of Morocco.

The British and Americans who participate in the international government of the 225-square mile territory opposite Gibraltar declared they had not been consulted on the deportation of Habib Bourguiba, head of the Neodestour (Constitutional) party of Tunisia.

Together with the Nationalist disturbances during local elections in French Morocco, where six persons were killed and 70 injured in rioting Thursday, the incident was described by an American source as a serious threat to harmony in the Atlantic Pact.

Many workers stayed away from their jobs in this city of 100,000 in protest against the expulsion.

"Our employes have Bourguibitch" (Bourguiba fever), a cafe owner explained.

French troops trained machine-guns on the Arab quarter in Casablanca, French Morocco, and patrolled in light armored cars tonight. A police roundup netted 235 more arrests, but most of the 500 previously arrested were released.

International observers agreed that North Africa, from Tunisia to this northwestern tip of Morocco was in a ferment and that French handling of the situation was not helping matters.

(French foreign minister Robert Schuman returned to Paris unexpectedly from a political visit to Brittany and held conferences on the Moroccan question. He met with U. S. Ambassador David Bruce and the French Resident General for Morocco, Gen. Augustine Guillaume.)

Disturbances at Casablanca broke out when they seemed most likely to attract the most attention to an Arab move to put the question of independence on the agenda when the United Nations Assembly meets in Paris next Tuesday.

The French want American support when the question comes up. French officials have been critical that Bourguiba, a prominent lawyer, was allowed to go to the United States recently in the interest of his movement.

Friday he was awakened by French police and hustled off by plane back to Madrid. He was informed he was being deported "by decision of the Control Council."

Rep. George Mahon Is Due To Visit City On Thursday

Congressman George Mahon, back in his home district during the congressional recess, will visit in Big Spring Thursday.

He announced that he hoped to see as many of his friends as possible while here.

Two definite speaking dates have been arranged. Mahon will address the high school students in an assembly at 9:45 Thursday morning, and he will be guest speaker before the Kiwanis club at noon.

Jack Roden, program chairman for Kiwanis, said that since a good many other Big Spring people would like to hear the congressman's report on national and world affairs, the Thursday luncheon is open to those who desire to make reservations. These are to be made through the chamber of commerce, by Wednesday.

Mahon also probably will be heard in a radio interview during the day.

Russia Bears Olive Branch To Japanese

"Favored Nation" Treatment Seen In Trade Treaty Try

By ROBERT EUNSON
TOKYO, Nov. 3. (AP) — Russia came bearing a commercial olive branch to Japan this week.

The Soviet Union, which refused to sign the peace treaty at San Francisco Sept. 8 and therefore still is in a state of war with Japan, made the Japanese government several eye-catching trade offers.

Among them were coal for $10 a ton, compared with $30 now being paid for American coal; markets for Japanese textiles, vehicles and light industry products and Soviet cotton, iron ore and petroleum, if Japan will agree to expand mutual trade.

In addition, Russia invited the Japanese government to send representatives to her ceremonies for celebrating the revolution.

When Russia's Andrei Gromyko quit the San Francisco opera house shortly before the signing of the peace treaty with 48 other countries, observers wondered what the next Soviet move might be.

Apparently this was it.

Delegates from the Soviet mission to occupied Japan called Friday on a delegation representing the Diet — Japan's parliament.

The Russians were Andrei Ivanovich Demintsky, deputy economic adviser to the mission; and Aleksel N. Mamlin, assistant political adviser.

The Diet group included Reps. Etajiro Kuhara, senior member of the administration Liberty party; Hideo Kawasaki, Democrat and Miss Hide Tajama, Communist.

The discussions lasted "two and a half hours."

To all appearances, Russia plans to give Japan "favored nation" trade treatment, peace treaty or not.

Lacking normal diplomatic relations, however, it is doubtful if Russia will say anything about:

1—Japanese property the Russians took from Manchuria in 1945.

2—The 370,000 Japanese prisoners of war still unaccounted for by Russia.

3—Salvage of Japanese ships sunk in waters off Russia.

Just how Russia expects to restore diplomatic relations with Japan remains a mystery.

GEN. EISENHOWER

Home For Talks On Rearmament

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON, Nov. 3. (AP) — Gen. Eisenhower flew back to America today with a fresh disclaimer of political ambitions, and amid indications he may step swinging into Washington clash over the speed of re-armorment.

"I have never had any political aspirations—period," the supreme commander of the Allied powers in Europe said on his arrival at New York from Paris.

He wouldn't even say whether he was a Democrat or a Republican. Asked whether it would be correct to say that "come what may, you will not be a candidate for the presidency next year," Eisenhower replied:

"Of course you can't say that. I will not indicate political leanings of any kind. I'm doing a job. That's my statement."

The general said the progress of European defense is partly encouraging and partly discouraging.

As Eisenhower spoke, the stage was being set for the talk he will have here with President Truman and other leaders Monday and Tuesday.

Informed officials passed the word that Eisenhower is deeply dissatisfied with the rate of military buildup in Europe, and also wants Washington to join in creating a small, battle-worthy military force there in six months or so.

This schedule would be far ahead of the long range, full strength defense plans now envisaged. To put it into effect, Eisenhower is expected to press for some changes in production and distribution. Some officials predicted he would bear down hard to get these changes ordered during his Washington talks.

In discussing European defense, he said:

"The advances of the past year have been encouraging but there is always the gray zone of human affairs. There are some fine advantages and some discouraging ones."

Mrs. Eisenhower flew with her husband from Paris. They will visit their son, Major John Eisenhower, at Fort Knox, Ky., before the general comes on to Washington Sunday for his talks. He will return to Paris Wednesday.

The President and the general are due to meet Monday for a time at least without any other person present. This obviously provides an opportunity for them to discuss matters of a most confidential nature. It provides an opportunity for the President, should he desire, to find out what General Eisenhower is thinking about his own future. Besides Mr. Truman's natural political interest, there is the question of whether a successor need be found for Eisenhower in Europe at any time soon.

Apart from his meetings with the President, Eisenhower's backers among Republicans here have an intense desire to get something more definite on the prospects of the general as a Presidential candidate.

HT May Offer A Peace Plan

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3. (AP) — President Truman will make a foreign policy address to the nation Wednesday night on what is reported to be a new plan or formula for strengthening world peace.

The plan is said to aim at improving relations between the Western Powers and the Soviet Union.

A major part of the plan, officials indicated, would be a call for drastic curbs on armaments, including atomic and other weapons. It would provide for international safeguards to make sure that all nations would observe the rules.

It was recalled that Mr. Truman spoke of disarmament in a speech he made in Winston-Salem, N. C., Oct. 27. He said at that time:

"We are ready now, as we always have been, to sit down with the Soviet Union and all the nations concerned in the United Nations and work together for lifting the burden of armament and assuring the peace."

The White House suddenly announced tonight that the President would speak from his office at 9:30 p.m., CST, Wednesday. All major radio and television networks will carry the speech, the White House said.

It was understood that what Mr. Truman will say is linked with impending developments at the United Nations General Assembly meeting which opens in Paris Tuesday.

An indication of the nature of Western Power moves in that session came earlier today from French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman and what he said was borne out in large part by information obtained tonight from authoritative informants here.

The French foreign policy leader told a political meeting at Rennes, France, that the Western Powers will introduce sensational moves for peace in the General Assembly.

"These next days at the United Nations you will see initiatives, in which France is associated, which will make a sensation and whose aim is to strengthen peace," he said.

Texas Mercury Rises To 60s; To Get Warmer

By The Associated Press
Saturday was a good day for football in Texas as warm south winds add clear, sunny skies pushing temperatures into the upper 50's and 60's.

It was the first break in the cold wave that lashed the state for several days.

The lowest afternoon temperature Saturday was 52 at Beaumont and Galveston. The high maximum was 74 at Wink.

It was 53 at Amarillo, 54 at Lubbock, 55 at Houston and 63 at Lubbock and El Paso.

The mercury did not take the drop that was expected—Friday night. Instead of near-zero temperatures again expected in the Panhandle, lows in the 20's were reported. At Dalhart, which Thursday night had a low of five degrees, the mercury went down to 21 Friday night.

A low of 27 hit the San Antonio area early Saturday, scotching the hopes of truck growers there.

"Tomatoes, beans and squash are a complete loss," Henry Van de Walle, San Antonio truck grower, said.

Robert E. Tate, Bexar County, agriculture agent, said Johnson grass, cane hay, sorghums and other temporary pastures were all laid low.

The tomato crop in the Laredo area was a complete loss, County Agent Henry Aismeyer said. The mercury there dropped to 33.

The snow that drove as far south as Corsicana and Waco Friday morning was a new record in first-of-season snows at many points but brought little moisture. During the 24-hour period ended early Saturday only Brownsville, Houston, Beaumont, Texarkana and El Paso reported light moisture.

Egypt Takes Drastic Step Over Canal

CAIRO, Egypt, Nov. 3. (AP) — Egypt took another drastic step tonight to hamstring British control of the Suez Canal area by announcing that any Egyptian worker still on the British army payroll by Nov. 30 will be charged with "high treason."

The announcement was made by the minister of social affairs, Abdel Fattah Hassan Pasha, who said the Egyptian government had taken steps to give all subjects who leave the British employ new jobs.

Walter's Going Western

Nobody ever anticipated an event with greater eagerness than Walter Hartman and his trip to Boys' Ranch. Walter, 8, poses here with his Dad, E. G. Hartman, just before taking off for the Ranch 12 miles west of San Angelo. Driving him down to see that he got all signed up and off to a good start were A. E. (Shorty) Long, left, and Troy Harnell, right. Walter is 9 and will be in the second grade. At Boys' Ranch he will live with 16 other lads who are being provided a well rounded program on the picturesque Spring Creek setting provided by West Texans concerned in helping boys.

Activity Varies At Airport; FTAF Commander Drops In

Activity was varied at Muni airport during the week, with Navy, civilian, and Air Force traffic flowing in and out. Probably the most distinguished visitor of the week was Maj. Gen. Warren R. Carter, commander of the Flying Training Air Force, Waco, who dropped in Friday for a look at air base construction. Gen. Carter lunched with Col. Ernest Wackwitz, base commander, before proceeding on his flight to Waco, FTAF headquarters.

Practically all of the CAA district engineer's staff got in some flying time, hopping to various West Texas fields for inspections and conferences.

C. E. McMurray flew to Broom Monday where he mapped a new ranch landing strip. J. D. Church and C. L. Burr hopped to Abilene Monday; Burr and Jack Robson went to Midland and San Angelo for airport lighting inspections.

Charlie Holderbaum piloted his Piper Vagabond to Brownwood Wednesday, and to Mineral Wells Wednesday evening, for conferences in connection with runway projects.

At Hamilton Field, Jess Fonville qualified for his private pilot's license on Saturday.

During the week, several stu-

Five Texas Counties Get Defense Area Rates From DPA

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3. (AP)—Five Texas counties were declared critical housing areas by the Defense Production Administration Friday.

The way was clear for rent officials to reimpose controls on:

Lone Star, Tex., including Camp and Morris counties; Case County Precincts one, two and eight, including Hughes Springs, Linden and Avinger; Marion County Precincts one, two and six; Titus County Precincts one, four, five, six and seven, including Mount Pleasant.

Public Welfare Issue Causes Lot Of Fuss

AUSTIN, Nov. 3. (AP)—The pro and cons of increasing state spending on public welfare have caused more fuss than any other issue of the Nov. 13 election in Texas.

Five proposed amendments to the State constitution will be at issue in the State-wide election. The one that would increase the State's present $35 million ceiling on public welfare spending to $42 million is the only one around which definite battle lines are drawn.

The State gives its public welfare money to three groups of people — the needy aged, needy blind and needy dependent children. Most of the money goes to the needy aged for what are popularly known as "old age pensions."

In September Gov. Allan Shivers indicated he would summon a special session of the Legislature if the voters approve raising the public welfare spending.

The Legislature would have to decide where to get the added money and then appropriate it.

Three major groups have campaigned against the amendment. A group of citizens organized "The Committee to Keep Texas Pension Funds for Texas Citizens" to conduct an organized opposition by letters, pamphlets and speeches.

Jim Cantrell of Princeton, Collins County, a former county judge, is its chairman. The committee maintains that the proposed amendment would abolish citizenship and residential requirements and allow so many more persons on the assistance rolls that the individuals would actually receive less money.

The East Texas Chamber of Commerce has waged an announced fight against the amendment for similar reasons.

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce, also opposing the amendment, says the removal of the citizenship clause gives the green light to all aliens over 65 in this state.

"If you vote against the amendment, everything remains as it now stands," the WTCC said in a Legislative bulletin.

"It is natural to assume that a special session of the Legislature will have to be called, and taxes will have to be raised to meet the needs of this program as outlined above."

Major backers of the amendment have been principally its supporters who got it through the Legislature this past spring — Reps. Doyle Willis of Fort Worth and Lamar Zivley of Temple.

Its supporters say that the amendment offers an opportunity to improve the State welfare program by increasing the maximum that may be spent.

With the increased cost of living, they say, present allotments are too low to provide the bare necessities.

They add: "The amendment provides that persons who dispose of property to become eligible for assistance will remain ineligible until proceeds of such sales have been lived up. Only recently has the Federal Social Security Act been extended to include agricultural workers and many others in Texas, making welfare assistance a necessity. Residence requirements remain the same."

The section dealing with citizenship and residence requirements of needy aged persons — about which there has been the most controversy — says "The Legislature shall have the power to provide assistance for (1) Needy aged persons who are over the age of sixty-five (65) years; provided that no such assistance shall be paid to any inmate of any State-supported institution, while such inmate; and provided that any resident of the State, if otherwise eligible, may not be excluded who has resided in the State for five (5) years during the nine (9) years immediately preceding the filing of the application for such assistance including the one (1) year continuously immediately preceding the filing of such application; provided that the maximum payment per month from State funds shall not be more than thirty dollars ($30) per month."

RECRUIT HAS 1st CAR RIDE IN THE ARMY

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 3. (AP)—Recruit Peter Grainger of the U. S. Army, who wandered into a recruiting center here after what he said was his first ride in a car, was processed at Fort Sam Houston today.

He will be shipped out to training camp in the middle of next week.

Grainger, 26, came in with a story of life in a remote mountain cabin in Northern New Mexico. The first time he ever went into town, he said, was when he was 17 years old when he went to Beaverhead, a small community "about four or five days riding distance" from his mountain home.

Grainger said he decided to join the Army after his father died last May.

"I buried Paw on the top of a mountain and then set out to join the Army," he told the recruiters here.

Army recruiters questioned Grainger at length before he was sworn in Friday morning.

MELANCHOLY MILESTONE NEARS

"M Day" Seen Next Month As Millionth Road Death Nears

By WILLIAM J. CONWAY

CHICAGO, Nov. 3. (AP)—Some time next month Gene Miller, head of the National Safety Council's statistical department, expects to tot up figures. His quick fingers will punch the keys of an adding machine. But, in effect, he will be pressing the signal button for "M Day."

Lank, long-legged Miller will take 97 strides down a corridor, dart into the public information office and drop a ribbon of paper on a desk. Paul Jones and Jack Horner, information chiefs, will glance at the figures. They will telephone Chicago newspapers. If the total is, say, 999,975, they will report:

"Get set. It will hit the million mark in about six hours."

If the hands on the clock of death keep moving at the present speed, "M Day" will have the most incongruous of all possible settings. An air of gaiety will rule the main business streets of U. S. cities. Lamp posts will be decorated with festive holly wreaths. Store windows will sparkle with glittering new toys and glittering artificial snow and tinsel.

The bright eyes of youngsters, aglow with the joy of anticipation, will reflect the blue and red and yellow of strings of lights. Millions of Christmas shoppers will swing along to the strains of an amplified musical message: "As the season to be merry. And on the news stands they pass will lay papers that will carry a black headline: "Nation records one millionth traffic death."

The council expects the U. S. to reach this melancholy milestone during the third week of December.

To the end of September a total of 990,200 Americans had been injured fatally in accidents involving motor vehicles. During this dark period of the year fatalities average 110 or so per day. From now on it is simply a matter of waiting and adding until the inevitable day is at hand.

The council has a plan to quicken the counting of the dead. It normally issues reports on traffic deaths once a month. But, starting Nov. 15, it will get weekly summaries from state accident records bureaus.

Only two factors could delay "M Day" beyond the pre-Christmas period. One would be bad weather that would keep most automobiles in garages. The other would be a sudden shift to cautious driving on the part of motorists. Drivers could, the council says.

Mid-Week Prayer Services Stated

Plans for pushing attendance for Sunday morning services and for presenting a mid-week prayer service program were developed by Royal Ambassador chapters at the East Fourth Baptist church on Thursday.

The Orky Farris and Jimmie Parks chapters discussed activities for Focus Week, Nov. 4-11. The Carl Hunker chapter of Interstate B.A.'s had a similar meeting in the evening. The chapters will present a stewardship playlet entitled "Timothy's Tithes" at the Wednesday prayer services. They also will have a wailer roast at the home of Mrs. Tom Buckner, 1108 E. 4th.

start "driving scared." But they haven't thus far.

The council and other organizations began an all-stops-out campaign March 2 to delay "M Day" as long as possible.

It was built around the slogan: "Don't YOU be one in a million." But since then, 21,490 men-

Mahon Set To Address WTCC Meet

AMARILLO, Nov. 3. (AP)—The West Texas Chamber of Commerce expects the largest attendance of its 5,000 members in a decade at its 36th annual convention here Nov. 14-16.

Keynote speaker will be Rep. George Mahon of Colorado City and Lubbock, who will speak on the morning of Nov. 15. He is chairman of the House Defense Appropriations Subcommittee which must initiate federal government appropriations.

Other speakers will include Jack D. Neal, acting officer in charge of Mexican affairs of the U. S. Department of State; H. B. Anderson, Vernon, chairman of the State Board of Education; E. H. Thornton Jr., Galveston, chairman of the Texas Highway Commission; and Dr. Umphrey Lee, president of Southern Methodist University.

MIRROR FLASHES LEAD TO RESCUE OF A JET PILOT

TOKYO, Nov. 3. (AP)—Flashes from a little mirror led to rescue of a U. S. Thunderjet pilot from the cold, choppy Yellow Sea.

Capt. Walter E. Staudt of San Marcos, Texas, bailed out of his F-84 after its engine failed in a duel with a Red MIG-15 jet.

Buoyed up by his "Mae West" life jacket, he bobbed in the sea about an hour then sighted an Albatross amphibian plane from the Third Air Rescue Squadron.

Out of his life jacket emergency equipment he flashed the signal mirror — about three by four inches — caught the sun in it and flashed it back and forth in the direction of the plane.

In a matter of minutes the Albatross crew picked up the light and Capt. Robert E. Wood of Memphis, Tenn., put the land-and-sea plane down near Staudt. The pilot was hauled aboard, dried and given hot coffee, and the big plane took off for United Nations territory.

Suspended Sentence Is Given For Theft

SAN SABA, Nov. 3. (AP)—Clarence Simon, charged with the theft of a yearling, was given a five-year suspended sentence Friday night. In connection with the same theft, Lester Timney was placed on probation and Pete Berry, who gave State's evidence, was ordered to report at intervals to Sheriff Brantley Barker.

Filipino Huks Seen Ready Supreme Push

By FRANK L. WHITE

MANILA, Nov. 3. (AP)—The third oldest Communist group in East Asia — the Philippine Huk — appear readying a supreme effort to wrest another rich piece of territory from the Democratic orbit.

The chance of Communist success or failure seems to hang as much on future events elsewhere as on developments in the Philippines Republic.

Foreigners who live within the armed camp which for many months has been Manila are apt to scoff at any possibility of Red success. However many scoffers are refugees from Shanghai, Tientsin, Peiping and other Chinese cities who apparently learned little despite their hasty evacuation when Mao Tse-Tung's Red army swept over China.

Filipinos don't scoff at the Red threat.

It is hard to separate facts from fanciful rumors about the plans of the Huk but the Reds no doubt are playing a deep game for which the stakes are large.

The official viewpoint of both the Philippines and Americans on the seriousness of the Huk menace fluctuates. It waxes when the Philippine Government is asking for more U. S. military and economic aid; it wanes when its leaders are stressing domestic accomplishments for a home audience.

The Huks are played up when U. S. agencies here are trying to influence congressional appropriations at home. They are played down when American agencies are defending their policies from Communist attack.

Pardon Us Folks

We're REMODELING

We know all this banging and sawing has probably caused you a great deal of inconvenience, but Folks, you've been so good to us that we're just forced to expand! As a matter of fact, we're beginning to long for the good old days when the Big Spring Hardware was a nice, quiet, calm and peaceful place where a customer could walk in and get what he wanted without wondering if it was safe to "walk under that ladder".

But honestly now, we think that when all the pounding and banging is over, there will be a great improvement in the place—and we're expecting that we'll be in a position to serve you, our many customers, even more quickly and satisfactorily than before.

We feel sure you'll be as proud as we are of that new balcony—and of all the new merchandise values that we have in store for you. In the meantime, we apologize for the inconvenience—and we invite you all to watch for our Big Remodeling Sale Event. Thank you, Folks, for making this possible.

FFA Projects Have 138 Head Of Cattle

One hundred and thirty-eight head of livestock are included in the Future Farmers of America projects this year. The chapter meeting, held at the high school Thursday evening, reflected these projects: two club calves, four commercial calves, 13 cows, 55 swine, 64 show lambs. In addition, there were 2,434 chickens, 166 acres of cotton. This is an increase on practically all fronts over last year. Aggregate net profits of boys on projects last year was $1,561. Green Hands, first year boys, were initiated at the meeting. Teams have been set up to compete at Stanton on Dec. 8 in Green Hand Farm Skill and Green Hand

Quiz. Also organized were teams of farm skill, composed of Doyle Lamb, Delbert Davidson, Bill Perry and Joe Clark; and chapter quiz, to be composed possibly of Jackie Fryar, Donald Denton, Calvert Shortes, John Damron and Bill Rightburg. The Green Hand team will include Jim Damron, Elvert Long, Calvin Daniels and Curtis Crabtree. The chapter has started a swine feeding program as a chapter enterprise, having bought 10 pigs. Each boy contributed $2 cash or 100 pounds feed. When the pigs have reached market weight, they will be sold and net proceeds go to the chapter treasury.

MODELS DELAYED

New Car Program Slowed By Defense

BY DAVID J. WILKIE
DETROIT, Nov. 3. (AP)—Defense preparations have slowed the auto industry's new model program but the average motorist will hardly notice it. New model introductions will be spread over the next three months or more. However, most of the new cars will disclose just about as many styling changes as usually are made in a model change-over. In several models there will be engineering changes. Some car makers have said the defense emergency forced them to defer, possibly until 1953, some advances they planned for the forthcoming new models. The impact of the defense program will be reflected in reduced production of civilian vehicles. How much the production cut will amount to and whether it will bring a new car shortage are matters of opinion. Some industry executives say they expect to build four million cars and one million trucks in 1952, with more than half the total coming in the latter half of the year. At the same time some say there will be a market for five million passenger cars next year, including a large export demand. Other sources believe four million new cars will be just about the right volume for next year's retail market. First to announce 1952 cars will be Packard, followed by the several Chrysler divisions. Also indicated for this month is Willys-Overland's new Aero line, first conventionally styled passenger cars the company has built since before World War II. By the earlier change-overs, Packard and the Chrysler divisions have attained a fairly good volume of new model output. December and January also will see several new model introductions, mostly of General Motors and Ford. Meanwhile several car assembly lines are going to be shut down—some for the new model switches and some because government-fixed production quotas have been achieved ahead of time.

District Court Due To Open This Week At Garden City

District Court proceedings in Big Spring, which have been limited to non-jury civil cases during the past two weeks, will be suspended next week when Judge Charlie Sullivan moved to Garden City to open a term of court. The Glasscock county grand jury is scheduled to meet Monday morning. In Big Spring this week two divorces were granted. Charles Warren Coffey was granted a divorce from Doris Belle Coffey, while Zola Lewis was divorced from Charles Lewis. In the latter case the plaintiff's former name, Joiner, was restored.

Jewel Barton Is New Health Nurse

The Big Spring-Howard County health unit now has a new health nurse, but she's not new to Big Spring. In fact, she's exceptionally well known in this area. Jewel Barton, who has been associated with the Big Spring clinic for the past 14 1/2 years, assumed her duties as the health nurse on Thursday. The position has been vacant for several months. Miss Barton took her nurses training at Kings Daughters hospital in Temple and was an experienced nurse before she came to Big Spring. In addition to her nursing activities, she has had key roles in other affairs, including the Business and Professional Women's club.

Spanked For Belly-Dancing Lassie Now Gets Paid For It

By ED POLLAK
CAIRO, Nov. 3. (U) — Not so many years ago an Egyptian lassie was spanked every time her parents found her "belly-dancing" before a mirror. This happened almost every day.

for King Farouk there were headlines and stories. Then Samia Gamal really hit the headlines of the world press with a bang. It started when a young Texan, heir to an oil fortune, said he was engaged to marry the beautiful dancer, Sheppard King, 26, of Houston, simultaneously said: He was becoming a Moslem to marry the dancer and: He was ready to defy his mother's threat to disinherit him if he did so. King and Samia met in a Paris nightclub. They said later it was love at first sight.

Abdullah King Divorced

GETS MEXICO DIVORCE

Abdullah All Set To Marry Samia

JUAREZ, Mexico, Nov. 3. (U) — Sheppard (Abdullah) King stayed up all night to celebrate his Mexican quickie divorce in Juarez. "I'm surrounded by a bunch of people named Jesus and I'm having a devil of a good time," he said. King, whose romance with Egyptian Belly Dancer Samia Gamal intrigued millions and revealed some unique events, divorced his wife, Gloria, in a 30-minute session Friday in Judge Jesus Barbara Cornejo's court in Juarez.

ment refused and also asked the court to take the Kings' son away and make him a ward of the country. "My son isn't in the country so they can't take him away from me," Sheppard, who has become a Moslem and taken the name Abdullah, said early today. "And I'm in Cairo bound in a few weeks. That Sonfield guy's bucking the wrong guy."

He made the rounds to celebrate with Houston Attorney John J. Herrera, and Sunday will be the guest of the city of Juarez at a bull-fight. What his divorce will mean to proceedings pending in Harris County, Texas, courts didn't worry Sheppard.

Judge Barbara Cornejo called a special session of his court on All Saints Day to grant the divorce. The grounds were incompatibility. Then the judge took up a collection to send Samia a bottle of tetulia. King met Samia in Paris and courted her there and in Cairo. After their love blossomed, he embraced the Moslem faith and acquired the name Abdullah.

Churches Seeking Compact On Italy Religion Freedom

ROME, Nov. 3. (U) — Protestant churches in Italy are fighting for a compact defining for them the religious freedom promised to all by Italy's new constitution. Dr. Emanuele Staff of Rome, president of the Federal Council of Evangelical Churches in Italy, said today the council hopes definite progress will be made this winter.

Then it was disclosed he hadn't been divorced from Gloria, whom he married twice.

Representing all Protestant denominations in this Roman Catholic nation, the council has asked the government to name a commission to meet with its representatives to study and draw up terms of a compact on non-Catholic congregations. Dr. Staff said in an interview, is still done under laws passed during Fascism, unreplaced despite the fact their spirit has been superseded by the broad principles of the Republic's constitution of 1947.

Pipeline Finish Is Seen Around Dec. 1

COLORADO SPRINGS, Nov. 3. (U) — The new 216-mile pipeline between the Amarillo, Tex., gas field and Kit Carson, Colo., will be completed about Dec. 1, G. F. Brunson, vice president of Colorado Interstate gas company, said today. Completion of the new line will make more gas available for Pueblo, Colorado Springs, Denver and other cities on the company's line along the eastern base of the Rocky Mountains by carrying gas from Texas to the company's Kansas-Denver line.

Stassen Won't Endorse Ike

By JACK BELL. WASHINGTON, Nov. 3. (U.S. —) Backers of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower apparently will have to do without any help from Harold E. Stassen until the latter tests his own chances for the 1952 Republican presidential nomination. Thus if Eisenhower — who returned to the United States today for military conferences with President Truman and other leaders — becomes available in the presidential campaign he may be contesting with Stassen for vital midwestern delegates. Stassen, former Governor of Minnesota and now president of the University of Pennsylvania, is reported to have passed the word to his friends he is going to run on his own in next year's early primaries in New Hampshire.

Although he has had nice things to say about Eisenhower, Stassen made it clear recently he hasn't endorsed the general and doesn't intend to tie himself up with the draft-Eisenhower campaign. Whether he would swing to Eisenhower later remains an open question. The draft-Eisenhower contingent, operating without any public assurances the general, is either a Republican or available for that party's nomination, vitally needs more strength in the Midwest, where Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio is strongest. Taft, an announced candidate, counts heavily on the big-state backing of Illinois, Ohio and possibly Indiana in the contest for nominating convention delegates. He considers himself strong in the Dakotas, Nebraska and Colorado and has announced he will enter the April 1 Wisconsin primary. The Eisenhower camp appears to have Kansas, the general's "home" state, in the bag. Eisenhower backers are flirting with the Republican governors of Colorado and Iowa and Minnesota and they intend to get his name in the Wisconsin primary if they can. With the support of Senator Thye (R-Minn.), Stassen is out to throttle Minnesota's delegation. Eisenhower's name will go into that primary, in all probability, since the general couldn't force a withdrawal if he chose. And the new Republican governor, C. Elmer Anderson, leans more toward Eisenhower than toward Stassen. Stassen, who won the majority of Wisconsin's delegates in 1948, has been beating the bushes in that state again. However, some of his 1948 supporters have gone over to Taft. Stassen's projected entrance into the New Hampshire primary, first on next year's list, may bring him in direct collision with Eisenhower. The general's name will be entered there. Taft isn't going into that primary but the name of Gen. Douglas MacArthur might be entered. Recent appeals by his rotters to let his name go into this and the Wisconsin primaries haven't produced any public change in MacArthur's declaration that he is not a candidate. Politicians foresee circumstances under which New Hampshire Republicans would be given a three-way choice between Eisenhower, MacArthur and Stassen. What happened there might influence greatly the Minnesota results a week later on March 18 and the Wisconsin contest on April 1.

Nine Saved As CG Plane Hits Atlantic Ocean

BOSTON, Nov. 3. (U.S. —) Nine men in a Coast Guard plane — bent on a mercy flight plunged into the sea 600 miles from Boston today and were rescued by a freighter which had sought their aid. The craft sank shortly after the men had been picked up — unhurt save for minor cuts and bruises. The plane left Salem this morning to meet the freighters — the David Starr Jordan and the Sylvester Pattle which rendezvoused, each with a crewman ill with appendicitis. The plane's pilot, Lieut. Harry Bollberg, said his ship crashed due to weather. Six men were picked up by the Jordan and three by the Sylvester Pattle. Later all nine and the two sick merchant mariners were bound for Bermuda aboard the Jordan. She is due in Bermuda Monday. The crash occurred about 300 miles from Bermuda.

Winnie Due To Discuss His Program

LONDON, Nov. 3. (U.S. —) Winston Churchill will present a revised House of Commons Tuesday his plans for winning back Britain's prestige and bank account. The 78-year-old prime minister's program will be presented in the traditional speech of the king at the state opening of the new Parliament. It will deal with the nation's troubles at home and abroad. Much of the pomp and pageantry of the state opening will be missing. Ailing King George VI won't attend. His speech will be read for him. The king doesn't write the speech anyhow. Traditionally this is done by the government in power — in this case by Churchill and his Conservative cabinet leaders.

THE WEEK

would not be ready to receive trainees in January as planned originally. Instead, it may be some three months later. Shades of pioneer days! A horse thief case was filed here last week. If automobiles hadn't made that phase, high feed bills surely should have.

Lloyd Robinson was announced last week as winner of the state 4-H meat contest, another of many high honors to come to this young man. This week another Howard county 4-H clubber will be announced as a state winner. Cotton ginnings to Nov. 1 stood at 12,586 running bales or 13,103 standard bales, Denver Yates, census agent, reported. Ginners are now guessing production at 24,000 bales. It estimates keep edging forward. County Agent Durward Lester will be made out something of a prophet on his 30,000 bale guess. At any rate, our 20,000 bales looks too conservative.

Two veteran city employees, Uncle Riley Lyles and Mickey Holmes, retired last week, the first under the municipal employees provisions for Big Spring. Uncle Riley had 23 years to his credit, Mickey 23. Both were fine examples of loyal workers.

Big Spring is to be headquarters for a new Girl Scout staff member. Last week the area board announced that Miss Rex Brownling would assume her duties on Dec. 1, serving this city and surrounding area. The modernized T&P station was dedicated fittingly last week. Those who saw it for the first time last week couldn't believe it was in the same place as the antiquated terminal it replaced. City fathers took a look at plans for enlarging the water system last week and wanted a lot of questions answered. The long range was good, but the immediate work seemed to be lacking in some critical areas.

Truce Talks Offer Answer On POWs

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3. (U.S. —) How many U. N. troops are in Chinese and North Korean prison camps — and who are they? Korean truce talks — if they ever get started — may bring the answers. Only 173 U. S. servicemen are known without a doubt to be held by the Communists. But 10,753 Americans are missing in action, and many are believed to be POWs. Next-of-kin of those missing must wait for word until the Communists agree to (1) a man-for-man release by both sides, (2) release of all prisoners by both sides, or (3) merely allow the U. N. some sort of access to its captured troops. The Defense Department has a rough estimate of the number actually held by the Communists but isn't giving the figures because it fears it might raise false hopes by relatives of missing men. The Reds aren't saying either, but unofficial estimates place the number at about 10,000 U. N. troops altogether, 4,500 of them American, probably held in North Korea. The U. N. held 106,931 Communist POWs at last reports, 148,348 North Korean and 18,997 Chinese. The name, grade, serial number and mailing address of all have been reported to the International Red Cross committee in accordance with the Geneva Convention. The Chinese Nationalist government was a party to the Geneva Convention, but the Communist government is not. Neither is the North Korean People's Republic.

ZOO SENDS RARE ALBINO MONKEY IN TRY TO CHEER UP KOREA YET

BROWNSVILLE, Nov. 3. (U.S. —) A rare albino monkey leaves here tomorrow for Norman, Okla., to cheer a wounded Korean war veteran. Cpl. Melvin Hough, 24, wrote his mother he wanted a monkey, something small and alive to keep him company during the dreary months he faces in bed. "It's going to be a long time, Mom," he wrote Mrs. H. L. Hough from a Maryland hospital last week. She phoned Pauline King, manager of Brownsville's Snake King Zoo. The zoo had two tiny monkeys, the albino and an ordinary Brazilian marmoset. The marmoset was dispatched but was killed in a minor train accident which crushed his cage. Mrs. Hough called again to say Melvin was due soon and she was desperate. Reluctantly, the zoo manager agreed to send the albino, the eighth one she's seen in 30 years of animal business. They are captured only once every two or three years in the Brazilian jungle, Miss King said. Cpl. Hough comes home tomorrow. He'll have what he asked for — a television set and his bed beside a picture window where he can watch the birds skip over the snow. "He'll also have a furry half-pound little fellow to try to make him happy."

here was that the moves would not be particularly sensational — in the sense, for example, of a call for a conference with Prime Minister Stalin. But the Western Powers were reported prepared to put forth a suggestion which, if accepted by the Soviets, could lead to substantial improvement in the prospects for world peace. It is on this aspect of American foreign policy that Mr. Truman is expected to build his radio address. Inquiries as to whether the address would constitute a report on the President's scheduled conferences with Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, Allied defense commander in Western Europe, Monday and Tuesday, brought negative replies from responsible authorities. It was learned, however, that the general knows of the new move and that President Truman probably will discuss the matter with him further when they meet.

GARNER SITS ON HIS BACK PORCH AND SPENDS TIME SHELLING NUTS

32nd vice president of the United States sits out in the sunshine on his back porch these days shelling pecans. Sometimes he moves his chair out under the live oaks and pecan trees in the backyard of his home at Uvalde, in the ranch country of South Texas. He's John Nance Garner, still hale and hearty—with a ruddy face and bushy white eyebrows and white hair. He'll be 83 years old on Nov. 22. When he retired from politics in 1941 he said he hoped to live to be 93 — so that more than half his life could be that of a private citizen. He was in public life for 46 years. "Hull two bushels of pecans a day now," he told a reporter this week. "Shell about six to eight pounds a day and sell them for one dollar a pound." Garner sits out in the sun, shells pecans and talks to his friends who drop by. He has no special plans for a birthday celebration. His wife died in 1948. He served two terms as vice president in the administration of Franklin D. Roosevelt, 1932-1940.

East, Midwest Are Lashed By Snow And Rain

By The Associated Press. Snow, rain and whistling winds lashed the East and Midwest Saturday. The onslaught began at a time when most of the nation was feeling the sting of freezing cold — a cold that set new low records for the date at many points. The rough weather resulted in at least 20 deaths. It was autumn by the calendar. But, as a cold fact, it was winter. The wild weather cut down the size of the crowds in many football stadia. Scores of high school games, and some minor college games, were postponed or cancelled. Winds up to a mile-a-minute accompanied a heavy rainfall in New England. Gusts of 63 miles an hour were reported before the blow began to peter out at noon. The wind felled trees and twisted television aerials. Power failures hit at least 10,000 homes in the suburbs of Boston. Eight inches of snow fell in the Buffalo, N. Y., area. Central New York State and Western Pennsylvania had falls that scaled up to four and a half inches. Massena, N. Y., had six inches of snow. A blanket of two to three inches was laid down in Western Maryland. Two inches or more of snow coated the Western North Carolina mountains. Most of West Virginia was covered by light snow. Bulldozers scraped four inches of snow off the field at Ithaca, N. Y., so Cornell and Columbia could play football. Snow, thunder and lightning occurred at the same time in New York City. A blinding snowstorm swept the gridiron at Madison, Wis., as Wisconsin met Indiana.

Atomic Experts Get In A Little Fishin'

LAS VEGAS, Nov. 3. (U.S. —) Nuclear fission experts went fishin' today. This symbolizes as well as anything the week end lull in the atomic experiments which have been under way for three straight weeks in the vast Nevada desert. Dick Elliott, Atomic Energy Commission public information man, took a group of associates fishing as a whole entourage, including newsmen, relaxed. The AEC disclosed a few more bits on after-effects of the big blast Thursday morning in which troops participated for the first time. Four sheep tethered in close proximity to the detonation survived, although they were dazed for awhile. Three dogs were killed. The AEC didn't say how close the animals were to the explosion spot. Reporters guesses ran from 1,000 to 1,500 yards. The AEC also said that major equipment subjected to the explosion was not greatly affected. Jeeps for example, were able to roll under their own power after the blast. It is expected that the tests will resume early next week but the AEC made it clear there would be nothing definite as to the next phase at least until Sunday.

the assaults and withdrew a short distance in the eighth. But when the U. N. forces moved back up they found that the Communists had pulled out. There were three brief dogfights in Northwest Korea. Red-nosed MIG-15s shot down a U. S. F-84 Thunderjet near Sinanju. Three MIGs were reported damaged. The pilot of the shot-down jet was seen parachuting into the arms of Communist ground troops. An Allied flying boat rescued the other flier near Chinampo. A third Allied plane, a propeller-driven F-51 Mustang, was shot down in flames by Communist ground fire on the Central Front. Night-flying bombers lashed at an estimated 2,000 Communist vehicles streaming southward on the main supply routes. Pilots reported destroying 200 of them.

FRANKFURT, Germany, Nov. 3. (U.S. —) American and German authorities have opened a big drive against black marketeering and vice in U. S. troop areas in Germany, it was disclosed today. Both military and German police are combing the "hot spots" where soldiers congregate. They are looking for the shady dealers and the loose women who always follow troops. Orders also have gone out to pick up any soldiers caught dealing with black marketeers or living in what the Army calls "illegal billets" with their German girl friends.

Nine Directors Selected By FB At County Meet

Howard County Farm Bureau members adopted seven resolutions and elected nine directors at their annual convention Saturday afternoon in the Municipal auditorium.

Named to the board were Robert Brown, Shirley Fryar, Leroy Echols, E. T. O'Daniel, Cecil Leatherwood, Doris Blizard, J. H. Fuller, J. L. Baugh and Edgar Phillips.

A board meeting has been set for Nov. 15 at which time the directors will name officers, and delegates to the State convention will be certified.

Resolutions called for increased support prices for farm products, changes in the International agreement for Mexican labor, and support of Farm Bureau recommendations for a rural road program in Texas.

Other resolutions pertained to matters involving the Farm Bureau organization itself. These included allocation of 50 cents of each membership fee to the State Bureau Treasury for distribution, support of the Farm Bureau insurance service, and quarterly, county-wide meetings for the membership.

Another resolution asks that the Soil Conservation payments program be amended "to secure the maximum soil and water conservation."

In the resolution concerning the National Farm program, the group is recommending "support prices in the form of Commodity Loans, with controlled production if necessary. We believe that commodity loans should be set at 100 percent parity with production costs included in the calculation of parity."

These resolutions will be submitted at the annual convention of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation scheduled for Nov. 19-21 in Houston.

Half a dozen Howard County members indicated that they planned to attend the state convention. Voting delegates to the state party will be certified at the next directors' meeting. Howard county will be entitled to nine delegates at the state meet this year.

Sergeant Talks Out Of Turn; Fears Reaction

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3. (AP)—A Marine Reserve sergeant from New Orleans today anxiously awaited what might be in store for him after speaking out of turn to the commander of the Marine Corps.

The Marine, M-Sgt. Richard Dempsey, interrupted a press conference of Marine Commandant General Clifton Cates Friday to complain "I'm a Reserve, sir, and I have a family problem for which I have requested a transfer. I asked that I be assigned duty with the Marine air group at New Orleans so I could be near my family."

The Marine plunged on to say that his transfer was refused without explanation and "I don't think the case was investigated thoroughly."

Silence in the room was appalling. At last General Cates spoke. "Sergeant, I don't know the details of your particular case. But in any regard you should know that a matter such as this should have been taken up with me in the regular manner. This is no place to air such grievances."

Dempsey, a former reporter on a New Orleans paper, later told newsmen that if he had it to do over again he would keep his mouth shut. But "it was an act of desperation. Here he was talking about resigning and complaints and there I was. I thought he'd take it differently. The worst of it, I realize now how badly I put him on the spot. And I wish it could be forgotten."

IN NATIONAL ELECTION

Suggests Texas Could Decide In Primary On Dem Candidate

LONGVIEW, Nov. 3. (AP)—Judge Merritt Gibson suggests Texas could decide in next year's second Democratic primary whether they want to support nationally-named Democratic candidates for President and vice president.

Gibson was national campaign manager for the States Rights Party in the last Presidential election. "It looks like a perfect solution for a governor who didn't want to take a stand would be to let the people decide by popular vote in the second primary whether they want their electors to vote for the nominees of the Democratic national convention or to vote for a candidate selected by the Southern states," Gibson said.

Gibson made his statement in an interview. He had been looking with interest toward remarks of Senator Harry F. Byrd (D-Va) at Selma, Ala., Nov. 1. Byrd charged in a speech there that President Truman was leading the country toward socialism.

The Virginia Senator said only "an immediate uprising of political virility in the South" will save the Democratic party from the "heterogeneous crowd of Trumanites."

Byrd said "The Southern states must keep themselves free to take whatever effective action must be necessary for our fundamental freedoms."

The States Righters sparked an Anti-Truman revolt in the South in 1948. Gibson said they established "the theory that each state party has a right to nominate its own candidates for President and vice president."

In 1948 regular Democratic organizations in Mississippi, Alabama, South Carolina, and Louisiana nominated Gov. J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina for President and Gov. Fielding Wright of Mississippi for vice president. In some states, such as Texas, a States Rights party put Thurmond and Wright on the ballot.

"The next step, as I see it, would be simply broaden the scope of the 1948 period. If more Democratic parties of the South will follow the pattern of 1948 then they'll have enough votes to prevent either candidate of the major parties from receiving 206 electoral votes," Gibson said.

Also, said GIBSON, "there is the Mundt plan."

"Under this plan, if the Republicans nominated a candidate — Eisenhower for instance — separate Democratic parties of the South might also nominate him."

"In those Southern states where the Democratic party machinery is in the hands of national loyalists a States Rights party might nominate him."

"Under the Mundt plan you might have a situation where Eisenhower, for example, would be running as a Republican in Maine and Vermont; as a Democrat in Mississippi, and as a States Rights candidate in Texas."

Gibson said that except for informal correspondence there was now no concerted movement of Texas States Righters looking to 1952. He said the party is still in existence in Texas, however.

He said: "Under our new law which permits cross filing the States Rights party could hold its convention after the second primary and before the general election and nominate every candidate for state and local offices that was nominated by the Democratic party in their first and second primaries, but nominate our own candidates for national offices."

"The law in Texas is you pledge to support the nominees of the primary."

"You could vote the straight States Rights ticket in the general election and at the same time be carrying out the pledge of supporting nominees of the primary."

The program consisted of a transcription of the General Federation Convention held last May. Fourteen members were present.

ATOMIC DUST IN ROCHESTER FROM NEVADA

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 3. (AP)—Radio-active dust from an atomic explosion in Nevada has caused a photographic paper-coating plant to suspend operations.

The E. I. DuPont de Nemours and Company announced today its plant here had been shut for more than 36 hours because the atomic dust had entered its air-conditioning system.

A company spokesman said the particles had the same effect that light had on photo paper.

The spokesman said a large amount of film stored in the plant for cutting and packaging had been ruined. The dust, he said, was carried to earth by snow and sucked into the plant ventilating system.

56 More Polio Cases In State

Other counties counted cases as follows:

Tarrant 6; Jefferson and Ector 5 each; Bexar and Swisher, 4 each; McLennan, 2; and one each for the following: Austin, Brazos, Dewitt, Ellis, Gray, Grayson, Hall, Hidalgo, Hill, Hopkins, Potter and Smith.

White's New Store At Waco

Forty-Second Store In White System Opened At Waco Party

Forty-second store in the White's system recently was opened at Waco, with a flashy presentation party. Over 10,000 people attended the 24-hour open house affair to view the new store. The two-story building and basement, 60 by 150 feet, contains almost 15,000 square feet of floor space devoted to the display of White's varied lines of merchandise and a complete furniture department. Manager of White's new Waco outlet is Alton Dishman, former manager of White's San Angelo, and Altus, Oklahoma, stores. The 39-year-old Air Force veteran has been with the company 11 years. Assistant manager is J. W. Jenkins, of McKinney and Altus, Oklahoma. Appliance manager is Wayne Farley, of Odessa, and furniture manager is Vaughn Hamilton, of Sherman. The new store has a staff of 24 employees.

The opening of White's new Waco store is another phase in its huge expansion program. The company, in the relatively short span of 21 years, has grown from a 2-man firm to an organization of 42 company-owned and more than 130 authorized dealer stores, operating in Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Kansas. This year has witnessed the addition of eight stores, including Waco, Irving, Carlsbad, New Mexico, and five in San Antonio. Plans are already under way for more expansion and remodeling in other stores throughout the chain. Construction is under way for stores in Fort Worth, Vernon, and in the drawing board stages are additional stores in Dallas, San Antonio and El Paso.

Nehru Urges World Accept Developments In Middle East Area

When the smoke cleared, 13-year-old Benjamin David Spector of Orange lay dead in the bottom of the boat, shot in the head. The accident occurred on the Louisiana Intracoastal Canal near Orange.

Sen. Connally Has Praise For Eisenhower Job

CORPUS CHRISTI, Nov. 3. (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's work as supreme commander of Western Europe's defense forces was praised today by Sen. Tom Connally (D-Tex.).

"Eisenhower vanquished the enemy in war. We want him to perform as great a feat in the field of peace," Connally said. He spoke before the county judges and commissioners association of Texas.

Connally made no mention of Eisenhower's visit to the U. S. The Senator, who is chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, referred to a necessity for continuing military aid to Europe while cutting economic aid.

"We felt that they (the countries of Europe) have already recovered enough economically that they are producing more now than they did before World War II, and that they ought to go ahead with their own enterprise," Connally said.

He added that military aid was not cut "because we felt that they had to protect themselves and in doing so protect the safety of the United States."

Connally expects no war in the "foreseeable future." "While we don't want a war, we must let the totalitarians know that if they try to force the war upon us we shall fight to the death to preserve our American institutions and the safety and integrity of the American people," he said.

Connally said there was no intent on the part of Congress to embarrass the President by slashing $4 billion off the tax bill.

The cut was made "in the interests of the American people," he said.

"You can't destroy business and industry with any profit to the nation. You must permit them to go forward," he said.

Connally was in Corpus Christi to his home at Marlin.

THROWN OUT OF CANAL ZONE

British Charge 12 Egyptians With Threatening Of Workers

CAIRO, Egypt, Nov. 3. (AP)—The British charged 12 more Egyptians today with threatening workers and threw them out of the bustling Suez Canal Zone.

The expulsions brought to 23 the number of Egyptians expelled on charges of attempting to intimidate Egyptians employed at British camps and ports.

While reinforced British garrisons stood watch under the 1936 alliance which Egypt has declared cancelled, the only other incidents reported today concerned weapons snatching.

British military headquarters issued a general order warning the troops to protect their weapons from being grabbed by Egyptians. Several such incidents have been reported recently. Weapons which vanish in that manner might be used to arm Egyptian "liberation battalion" extremists.

With a threatened fuel oil shortage in Cairo, the Canal Zone command announced that it hoped to start rail movement of oil from Suez shortly.

All civilian train movements except for the shipment of food have been banned by the British in the Canal Zone for several days.

NEW DELHI, India—Prime Minister Nehru proposed today internationalization of the Suez Canal, the Panama Canal and other "international highways."

He said this would be in the interests of all nations.

"I see no reason why Suez should not be under Egyptian sovereignty but with its operations and traffic internationalized," Nehru added.

Nehru advised the world to accept developments in the Middle East, including Egypt and Iran as neutral shifts in the balance of power.

nationalist aspirations of the Middle Eastern nations, he said, but realization of those aspirations would be best achieved by "non-violent, peaceful methods."

Local Firm Wins Dam Building Contract

Caldwell and Strickland, Big Spring, won the contract for the construction of two flood detention dams Friday, submitting the lowest of two bids on the work.

The low bid was $18,873.75, including $18,150 for the 36,300-cubic yard dams, $143.75 for clearing sites, and $580 for 1,100 cubic yards of core trench excavation.

Caldwell and Strickland promised to start work within 10 days after execution of contract. It will require approximately 45 working days to complete the dams, the firm said. Dams will be constructed in the west part of the city, on a line even with 11th street.

Other bid on the work was for $21,905.50 submitted by the Sneed Construction company of Odessa.

City commissioners accepted the low bid on recommendation from the city engineer, E. L. Killingsworth, who prepared plans for the work and checked bid proposals.

In other business during a special meeting Friday, the commission decided to again postpone consideration of the possibility of establishing a low-rent housing project here under provisions of the Public Housing Authority.

Commissioners said that with plans for a housing development now underway in the airport area they saw "no need for undertaking the P.H.A. project which would entail setting up a local housing authority and applying for a federal grant for construction of rental living units."

A resolution waiving reversion rights on State Park property was passed. The Texas National Guard Army board had asked for the resolution, indicating the possibility of constructing an armory here. Commissioners had pledged cooperation with the board earlier.

Pope May Call A Consistory

VATICAN CITY, Nov. 3. (AP)—There is a general belief here that Pope Pius XII may call a Consistory within the next two months, perhaps around Christmas, to name new Cardinals of the Roman Catholic Church.

Death has cut the membership of the College of Cardinals from its full strength of 70 to 49 and the average age of those remaining is above 70.

If such a Consistory is called—and there is no official news that it will be—ceremonies at which red hats would be handed to the new princes of the church probably would be held in the spring. There has been speculation that at least three of the new Cardinals would come from the United States.

Two Texas Co-Ops Obtain REA Loans

NEW YORK, Nov. 3. (AP)—G. G. La Tourette, Inc., declared a quarterly dividend of 25 cents and an extra of 25 cents on the common stock, both payable Dec. 1 to stock of record Nov. 9. This is the first payment since June 1, 1947.

Tax Receipts At 64.5 Per Cent So Far

Payments on the current roll of the Big Spring Independent School district have reached 64.5 per cent and the total probably will exceed 70 per cent when mail receipts are cleared out.

Tabulated to Friday noon was a total of $224,629.11 on the $348,000 roll. By paying in October, taxpayers had earned $6,706.08 in discounts. This left $170,958 to local maintenance and $47,934.21. Delinquent payments took a jump at the end of the month, amounting to $1,603.73. The office has miscellaneous fees of $56.01.

J. O. Hagood, tax assessor-collector, said that there was still a substantial volume of mail postmarked before midnight Wednesday, the three per cent deadline. He estimated that final payments for October would be $250,000 or more. Payments during November will earn a two per cent discount.

Odessa Hosses Win Over Bees, 24 To 12

Mason, Blalack Score For BS

Odessa's Hosses rallied strongly in the second half to nudge the Big Spring B string, 24-12, in a football game played here Saturday night.

Considering the fact that the Red Shirts from Ector county have been running over every one in this area, the Shorthorns did very well.

Big Spring got its touchdowns on passes. Doyle Mason scored a nifty TD on a pass from Charles Rose in the second.

Big Spring bagged another in the fourth on a long pass from Robert Angel to Freddy Blalack on a pass that covered 40 yards. Blalack took it over his shoulder and outspurred the Odessa secondary to the end zone.

Larry Mason went across for the first Odessa tally in the second, scoring from three yards away.

Odessa blocked a Big Spring punt in the third and proceeded to march 37 yards to a touchdown, with John Crain going over from the four.

In the fourth, a Big Spring fumble on the Dodge 20 set up Odessa's third TD. On that one, Mason rumbled over from the two to make it 18-0.

After Blalack had scored for Big Spring, Crain again went over from the four to climax a 50-yard drive.

Sooners Lunge Past Wildcats

MANHATTAN, Kas., Nov. 3. (U)—The University of Oklahoma's Sooners moved nearer their fourth successive big seven football title today by overpowering Kansas State, 33-0.

Led by Halfback Dick Heatley's three touchdowns, the Sooners scored in all but the first period. Oklahoma had its hands full before finally paving the scoring road. A stout Kansas State defense, aimed by Oklahoma fumbles, held the Sooners scoreless the first quarter. The Wildcats trailed 9-13 at the half.

The Sooners' rapid firing ground attack rolled for 422 yards. Passes, coming at the right time, clicked for 158 yards.

In addition to Heatley's three touchdowns, one of them on a 47-yard trip, Oklahoma scored with Buddy Leske and Joe Gaynor crossing the goal line. Jim Weatherall made three of his five conversions by placement.

Kazmaier Paces Princeton Win

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 3. (U)—Dick Kazmaier refused to let mud, snow and a surprisingly stubborn Brown defense stop him today and Princeton preserved its all-winning record with a 12-0 victory over Brown.

Kazmaier scored both Tiger quarter and dominated the show. The victory, sixth of the season for the Tigers, rated the No. 6 team in the Associated Press national poll, was Princeton's 19th in a row over three seasons.

Meyer Ousted As Eagle Boss

DALLAS, Nov. 3. (U)—L. D. (Little) "Dutch" Meyer was fired today as manager of the Dallas club in the Texas League.

Meyer, who piloted the Eagles to third place and a Shaughnessy play-off berth the past season, was given his outright release by owner Dick Burnett.

Meyer said from his home in Fort Worth that he had no immediate plans for the future but might get a job with the front office of the Cleveland Indians. He indicated he might work with the Indians' farm director.

Burnett said he was releasing Meyer in order to give the next general manager a voice in selecting the skipper. He also said he wanted to give Meyer enough time to make a new baseball connection.

Bobby Goff resigned recently as general manager to take a similar post with Wichita Falls of the Big State League.

Burnett said his next field manager would be named during the baseball convention at Columbus, O., next month. He said he wanted to talk with Hank Greenberg, general manager of Cleveland, with whom Dallas has a working agreement.

The Dallas News said there were reports Burnett might bring back Jimmie Adair as manager or promote Hal Van Pelt, who managed his Gainesville farm club last year. Adair formerly managed here but last season was a coach with the Chicago White Sox.

Tulane Is Shelled

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 3. (U)—Pete Polovina, substitute halfback, kicked a fourth quarter field goal to give Mississippi State a 10-7 victory over Tulane in a Southeastern Conference game today.

Irish Sink Navy By 19-0 Count

BALTIMORE, Nov. 3. (U)—Notre Dame and Navy football teams smeared each other to a standoff in the mud for 59 minutes today, but the famed Irish long distance scoring hit three times in the other minute for a 19-0 victory.

It took the Irish only 35 seconds for two touchdowns in the second quarter. Bill Barrett, senior speedball, went 74 yards on a punt return in the fourth quarter.

Meyer Ousted As Eagle Boss

DALLAS, Nov. 3. (U)—L. D. (Little) "Dutch" Meyer was fired today as manager of the Dallas club in the Texas League.

Meyer, who piloted the Eagles to third place and a Shaughnessy play-off berth the past season, was given his outright release by owner Dick Burnett.

Meyer said from his home in Fort Worth that he had no immediate plans for the future but might get a job with the front office of the Cleveland Indians. He indicated he might work with the Indians' farm director.

Burnett said he was releasing Meyer in order to give the next general manager a voice in selecting the skipper. He also said he wanted to give Meyer enough time to make a new baseball connection.

Bobby Goff resigned recently as general manager to take a similar post with Wichita Falls of the Big State League.

Burnett said his next field manager would be named during the baseball convention at Columbus, O., next month. He said he wanted to talk with Hank Greenberg, general manager of Cleveland, with whom Dallas has a working agreement.

The Dallas News said there were reports Burnett might bring back Jimmie Adair as manager or promote Hal Van Pelt, who managed his Gainesville farm club last year. Adair formerly managed here but last season was a coach with the Chicago White Sox.

It has a Way with Women

SOMETIMES we think that too little attention is given to the fair sex in automobile advertising.

After all, it's the woman of the house who has to do most of the shopping, which involves getting into tight places at the curb. And it's surprising what tight spots a Buick can fit into at a turn of the wheel.

It's the woman who likes complete freedom from things that it takes an engineer to operate—and a complete and utter freedom from mechanical complications is exactly what makes Dynaflo Drive* such a joy.

It's the woman who has an eye for style and fine fabrics—and a nose for economy. On both counts, a Buick is tops.

But we suspect something else. We suspect that a woman gets just as great a lift as a man from commanding this great-powered and trigger-quick bundle of vitality to bow to her will.

Here's a car to win any woman's heart—by its level-gaited stride—its willing response to her hand on the wheel—its smart style and its smart performance—its spaciousness and comfort—and its thrift.

How about taking time off, some afternoon, to boss around a Buick? It's a date that's bound to thrill you.

Purple Rolls On Unbeaten In League By Beating Bears

Baylor Handed 20-7 Reversal

By DAVE CHEAVES
WACO, Nov. 3. (AP)—Texas Christian's giant killers balled down the leadership in the tough Southwest Conference here today, knocking Baylor from the ranks of the undefeated, 20 to 7.

Baylor's tricky Larry Isbell was great, but not great enough. He was eclipsed by sophomore Ray McKown, another genius on offense.

A major contributor to the Texas Christian victory was a defensive left halfback, Keith Flowers, who dealt Baylor misery all afternoon. The TCU defense was in top form in shutting Baylor, ranked eighth in the nation last week.

Interceptions of two of Isbell's passes set up two TCU touchdowns. The Christians scored in the second, with McKown carrying; in the third, with Bobby Jack Floyd; in the fourth with Mal Fowler carrying. Isbell ran for Baylor's only score in the second period.

Baylor's touchdown was an Isbell march. Baylor started on the TCU 48 and drove all the way—all but thirteen of it on the ground. Jerry Coody and Don Carpenter helped on a series of short lunge, but a 15-yard pass from Isbell to Harold Riley was the key play to put the Bears on the nine.

On the next play, Isbell faked a pass and sneaked across for the score. C. O. Brocato's place kick for the extra point was true.

Texas Christian then matched Baylor with a 50-yard touchdown drive and it was McKown eating up the yards. He started it with a 5-yard pass to Bobby Jack Floyd. On the next play McKown gobbled up 22 yards over left guard on a sneak. Two plays later he went 13 through the baffled Baylor line and secondary to score. Flowers' place kick was good.

An Isbell pass try deep in Baylor territory backfired and led to Texas Christian's second touchdown early in the third period. Wayne Martin intercepted on the Baylor 19 and two plays later McKown, after being thrown for one loss, passed 19 yards to Wilson George on the Baylor five.

Bobby Jack Floyd pounded through to the two, then slanted off tackle for the score. Flowers' try for the extra point was good again.

Fowler ran standing up across the Baylor goal line late in the fourth period for the Christian's final score. Ted Vaught had intercepted an Isbell pass, on the 19 to set it up. A roughing penalty against Baylor had put the ball on the one.

Hermleigh Bops Loraine, 13-6

LORLAINE, Nov. 3.—Hermleigh neared a clinch on a tie for the District 5-B football lead by defeating Loraine, 13-6, here Friday night. Don Martin almost pulled the game out of the fire for Loraine when he dashed 45 yards to the Hermleigh 11 on the last play of the game.

A pass from Floyd Hacker to Jimmy Cooper, good for 25 yards, produced the first Hermleigh score. In the third, Hacker passed to Cooper for another TD, that one for seven paces. Hacker added the point on a plunge.

Bobby Price speed 19 yards for Loraine's only TD in the fourth. Loraine held the edge in first downs, 15-9.

Dibrell's Gains Ground In Loop
Dibrell's Sporting Goods store gained ground on the pace setting Texas Club in Women's Bowling League play last week, defeating Lone Star in three straight games while first place Texas Club skinned by Chiropactic Arts, 2-1.

Texas Club paced the scoring with 756-2110, followed by Dibrell's with 702.

Mary Ruth Robertson of Texas Club led in individual point getting, with 221-578, followed by Frances Glenn of Chiropactic Arts with 191-512.

Texas Club has now won 16 games and lost 8, followed by Dibrell's with 14-10. Chiropactic Arts with 10-14 and Lone Star Chevrolet with 8-16.

All Smiles

Ed Price, football coach at the University of Texas, had a right to grin Saturday. His team romped on SMU at Dallas to remain in the running for the Southwest Conference crown.

Mustang Aerial Game Backfires As Texas Wins

DALLAS, Nov. 3. (AP)—Southern Methodist's once-terrific passing attack backfired like a balky 1914 model car today and Texas rolled to a 20-13 victory to keep its hopes alive in the Southwest Conference football race.

Twice the slashing Longhorns cashed in on pass-interceptions for touchdowns and they used a Methodist fumble for another. Both of the interceptions leading to scores were off Fred Benners, the great passer who shot down Notre Dame.

A crowd of 72,000 jammed the Cotton Bowl for the SMU homecoming struggle. They saw Southern Methodist very impotent in the first half and feared the game would be a rout. But in the third period the Methodists came alive for two quick touchdowns and it was a ball game to the bitter end.

While the Texas ironclad defense was responsible for its victory, the Longhorns also were quite terrific on offense, especially on the ground, where big Dick Ochoa led a blistering attack.

Bobby Dillon was keyman in the Longhorn's defensive show but even he could not stop Val Joe Walker, the SMU track star who plays defensive halfback for the Methodists. Walker took a punt back 92 yards for a Methodist touchdown.

Southern Methodist started out passing on virtually every down but surrendered two touchdowns in the first quarter as a result. Don Barton gathered in a Benners aerial and skipped to the Methodist 35. The Longhorns rolled easily to a touchdown, not even being slowed down by two five-yard penalties. The score was on a 24-yard burst over left tackle by Gib Dawson. June Davis missed the conversion but it wasn't long before he could make that up. Bob Raley intercepted a Benners throw on the Texas 28, slanted 26 yards to a touchdown and Davis' extra point kick was true.

The third Texas touchdown came after a Methodist bobble. Back to kick on fourth down, Jerry Norton received a high passback from center, was unable to get off the boot, attempted to run and was pilled up on the Methodist 25. Dan Page, Ochoa and Barton alternated in smashing to the touchdown. Barton made it with a two-yard plunge over right tackle. Davis converted.

SMU fooled a chance for a touchdown as time ran out in the half. John Adams, back to kick for Texas, fumbled the snapback and Bob Hooks, SMU end, fell on the ball on the Longhorn 11. With four seconds to go, H. N. Russell tried a pass into the end zone which Bobby Dillon of Texas intercepted.

Southern Methodist scored twice with lightning quickness in the third period. The first touchdown came after Hooks fell on a Dawson fumble on the Texas 42. Norton, Benton Musselwhite and Walker smashed down to the seven and H. N. Russell passed over the goal line to Musselwhite. Sam Stollenwerk converted. Texas got the ball on the kickoff on its 20, moved to a first down, then had to kick. Walker gathered in Adams' boot on the SMU eight and ran to a touchdown. Barton crashed through to block the try for extra point.

SECOND SW LOSS

Aggies Shelled By Hogs, 33-21

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Nov. 3. (AP)—Lamar McHan, a big sophomore who didn't think he would make the varsity in September, did everything a football quarterback could do this afternoon to lead Arkansas to a stirring 33-21 victory over Texas A&M.

The 190-pound blond from Lake Village, Ark., ran for two touchdowns, passed for another, netted 190 yards on 26 carries, completed four of six passes for 74 yards, punted for a 36-yard average in a strong wind, and ran the Razorbacks split T attack flawlessly.

This was the lad who asked Arkansas Coach Otis Douglas two months ago to let him drop out of the university for seasoning at a junior college.

Douglas talked the youngster out of it. McHan earned a starting role in the fourth game of the season and today made a strong bid for all-star honors.

As they have done in every game this year, the Aggies struck pay-dirt first against an Arkansas team which had four first stringers out of action with injuries. A 41-yard punt return by Yale Lary set it up and Glenn Lippman went over from the one.

Darrow Hooper made the first of three conversions, but the Aggie lead was temporary.

McHan started propelling Arkansas down field. Before the first quarter ended, Buddy Sutton drove through right guard for the tieing touchdown.

Then McHan, who was described by A&M coach Ray George as a "terrific, simply terrific" shot a 33-yard touchdown pass to another sophomore back, Jack Troxell. The next time he got his hands on the ball McHan electrified the crowd of 20,500 with a 58-yard run that pushed the Razorbacks edge to 20-7.

A&M tallied just before half time on a 10-yard pass from Ray Graves to Hooper. The Aggies took a 21-20 lead in the third quarter on a beautiful 56-yard journey by Lippman.

But McHan and the fighting line which was opening the holes were far from through. They began the fourth period by marching 32 yards, with Sutton scoring his second touchdown from the three Arkansas used up the last eight minutes with a 77-yard drive capped by McHan's two-yard plunge.

The victory evened Arkansas' Southwest Conference record at two wins, two defeats. It left A&M, a pre-season title favorite, with a lead and two losses in loop play.

Perhaps The Rocket Fans Want To Angelo
When San Angelo drew a paid attendance of 115,818 in Longhorn league play last season, it represented a gain of 17,882 over the preceding year for the Colts.

Oddy enough, the Rowell aggregate turnout decreased almost the same—17,310 from 82,761.

Midland was the only other team in the league besides San Angelo to show a gain at the gate. The Indians lured 5,755 more through the gates in 1951 than in '50.

Lamesa Tornadoes Beat Big Springers, 34 To 0

Early BS Drive Goes For Naught

LAMESA, Nov. 3.—Lamesa threw dirt at the Big Spring bubble on a freezing night here Friday, skating and scooting its way to a 34-0 victory in a District 1-AAA grid outing.

If Big Spring had any hopes of sacking up the conference crown, they vanished into thin air as the Tornadoes dominated play for three and one half quarters.

Only in the first few minutes of the game did the Longhorns appear to have the home club on the run. They drove to the Lamesa 16 and first time they got their hands on the ball but a penalty set them back at that point and apparently threw them off balance.

Jerry Millsaps fired the Lamesa bolters with a fine running and passing game that soon had things going the home club's way.

After one drive sputtered and died on Big Spring's ten, the Tornadoes drove half the distance of the field to get a tally with Jimmy Robinson traveling the last 30 yards across the twin stripes.

Lamesa got another TD midway in the second period when Ray Taylor gathered in a pass from Millsaps while standing all by himself in the end zone. The play covered seven yards. Eagler, Taylor had counted on a 42-yarder but the play was called back and Lamesa was hit with a penalty. Marshall Crawford set up the score on a fifty aerial completion from Millsaps that moved the ball 32 yards to the Steer ten.

Johnny Jones booted the ball at half time and that's the way it was all through the game.

Big Spring elected to receive to start the third period but Speck Franklin bobbled the ball on the first play from scrimmage and Lamesa took over on the Longhorn 20. Jones went to the five on a crusher off tackle, from which point Jerry Howell ambled across. Jones spilled the uprights with his kick and it was 20-0.

Lamesa was to score again before the quarter was out. The Lamesa line awarmed through to

Colorado City Ends Losing Skein By Nudging Hamlin Pied Pipers

COLORADO CITY, Nov. 3.—The Colorado City Wolves refused to heed the elfin music of the Pied Pipers of Hamlin. Friday night, edging the Pipers 7-6, for the Wolves first win in 5-A-A.

The game was played in sub-freezing weather before a small crowd estimated at 1,500. The Wolves matched the Piper passing game with a sturdy ground attack that netted 151 yards, but the major factor in the Wolf victory was stout defensive work by the Wolf forwards who held the speedy other 15 yards and a score. Butler's try for point was no good and the Wolves led 7-6.

In the fourth quarter, apparently facing defeat, the Wolves made their goal line stand. The Pipers had owned the ball on their own 31—Butler took four cracks at the line to move down to the Wolf 30 and Tuffy Ford ate up 22 yards in two downs. The ball was on the 5-yard line, and four tries later went over on the eight. The Wolf squad fumbled, the Pipers recovering on the 6, and four plays later the ball changed hands on the 19. The Wolves kicked out of danger and that wound up the ball game, with the final score 7 and 6.

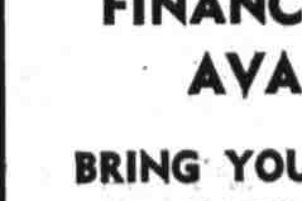

Milton Butler and the 135-pound Tuffy Ford were outstanding Piper performers, and Billy Shoemaker and Bill Post, Herman Corbell and George Swann turned in strong defensive games for the Wolfpack.

This was the second win of the season for the Wolves, the third loss for Hamlin. Colorado City plays Stamford at Stamford next Friday night. Stamford was defeated by Anson Friday night 12 to 7, in a game which will probably decide first and second place in 5-A-A.

Flock Rallies To Turn Back Pitt, 21-13

HOUSTON, Nov. 3. (AP)—Rice rallied its fumbling forces for two touchdowns in the last four minutes of play today and licked Pittsburgh, 21-13.

HOUSTON, Nov. 3. (AP)—Statistics on the Rice-Pittsburgh football game.

Stat	Rice	Pitt
First Downs	15	11
Running Yards	254	188
Passing Yards	72	142
Passes Attempted	14	20
Passes Completed	8	13
Interceptions	2	1
Fumbles Lost	6	3
Punting Average	34.8	38.4
Yards Possessed	21	100

the game ended, Billy Ed Daniels broke off tackle and ran 25 yards for the score that sealed Pittsburgh's sixth straight defeat this season.

The Panthers had used Rice fumbles as a springboard for touchdowns in the second and third quarters. Lou Cimarrolli scoring the first one on one yard line plunge and Bill Reynolds the second one from the two.

Wright kicked three extra points and Paul Blanda one for Pittsburgh.

Some 25,000 fans sat in sunny, frigid weather and watched Rice lose the ball on fumbles six times. In almost every instance, the fumble hurt and as the game waned it looked like the bobbles might break Pittsburgh's victory drought.

But Teddy Riggs sparked that last grand March with runs of 5 and 33 yards and Bill Howton's key block paved the way for McCurry's touchdown. Then Daniels ripped through the demoralized Panthers for the clincher.

Pittsburgh roared back after Rice had moved 80 yards in seven plays for its first touchdown, Sophomore Bob Garbrecht scoring it in the second period from the two.

Bill Adams snared Garbrecht's fumble and the Panthers took over on their own 34. A 30-yard pass, Bob Bestwick to Chris Warner, ate up most of the distance to the goal and Cimarrolli climaxed the eight-play drive.

In the third, Joe Bopch bounced on David Johnson's fumble to give Pitt the ball on Rice's 35. Here it took ten plays before Reynolds cracked over.

That lead held until Rice got the ball with 4:43 to play. Then the Owls cut loose. Their final touchdown came on the first play after they had stopped a desperate Pittsburgh passing attack. Taking over on the Panther 25, the Owls exploded Daniels, through the middle.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3. (AP)—Triple-threat Dickie Lewis led a crew of William and Mary backs to a surprising 20-12 victory over Pennsylvania today.

Stanford Edges Cougar Eleven; Bears Defeated

PALO ALTO, Calif., Nov. 3. (AP)—Stanford's unbeaten Indians, traveling toward the Pacific Coast Conference title and the Rose Bowl, defeated Washington State today, 21 to 13.

The Indians scored touchdowns in each of the first three periods, then got scored upon twice in the final quarter.

A 54-yard drive in the initial period put Stanford into a lead it never relinquished.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 3. (AP)—UCLA blasted some more shine off the Golden Bears of California today, 21-7, in one of the nation's surprises of the day.

Led by sensational sophomore tailback, Paul Cameron, the Bruins handed the Big Brother Bears their second setback of the season.

Cameron passed for one touchdown and led the attack to the other two Bruin scores.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 3. (AP)—Tulsa's Golden Hurricane, stalled in the first quarter by keyed-up Oklahoma A&M, boomed from behind today to win, 35-7, and clinch at least a tie for the Missouri Valley Football Conference title.

The Aggies passed to their lone score in the first quarter but their sophomore quarterback sensation Don Babers was injured in the second period and they couldn't move after that.

Babers went into the game as the nation's leading passer and had completed 8 of 11 for 50 yards and one touchdown when he was knocked unconscious. He was hit under the chin when tackled after being trapped on a pass play.

Only two weeks ago on the same field the nation's leading ground gainer, Johnny Bright of Drake, received a broken jaw.

Tulsa still has to defeat Detroit before it can claim the pennant for the second straight year.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3. (AP)—Here's what the top ten teams in the Associated Press' weekly football poll did today.

Tide Edges Dogs By 16-14 Count
ATHENS, Ga., Nov. 3. (AP)—Cell Hobson threw two touchdowns screen passes and Red Lutz booted a field goal today to give Alabama an exciting 16 to 14 victory over Georgia.

After trailing 7-0 at intermission, Alabama found room to maneuver in the second half and surged back.

Missouri Trounced By Terps, 35-0
COLLEGE PARK, Md., Nov. 3. (AP)—Unbeaten Maryland powered by a ground attack which gained 350 yards on a sloppy field, rolled to a 35-0 football victory over Missouri today for its sixth consecutive win.

Running plays accounted for four touchdowns engineered by the nation's fourth ranking collegiate team, but a 101-yard fourth quarter runback of a pass interception by freshman Joe Horning supplied the big thrill.

Hoosiers Lose
MADISON, Wis., Nov. 3. (AP)—A 36-yard pass from Johnny Coats to reserve halfback Bill Hutchinson gave Wisconsin a 6 to 0 win over Indiana in a driving snowstorm today.

Engineers Tied By Blue Devils

Interception Swings Tide

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 3. (AP)—Underdog Duke roared from behind today to tie Georgia Tech, the nation's fifth ranked team, 14-14.

A pass interception in the final minutes smirched the Yellow Jackets' perfect record.

The game, rough but clean, ended with about 400 fans and players on the field. The tension packed stands partially emptied when a Tech back was tackled roughly by a Duke man on the final play. It was a legal play.

A quick-witted public address announcer called for the national anthem. When the Star Spangled Banner was completed, the crowd left the stadium in an orderly fashion.

A Tech homecoming crowd of 36,000 had leaned back in the fourth quarter when Tech looked safely home for its seventh victory. The score was 14-7.

Then Quarterback Darrell Crawford elected to pass and he will never finish regretting it. He poured through 98 Crawford and he hurried his throw.

Dud Hager of Duke caught the pass and ran to Tech's 35. Worth Lutz passed to Blain Eason, Jack Lutz punched at Tech's line and Lutz scored from the two.

Ray Green got his second conversion.

Bearcats Nip HSU

ABILENE, Nov. 3. (AP)—The University of Cincinnati Bearcats tonight came from behind with two touchdowns in the second period to edge Hardin-Simmons University 13-12 in an intrasectional football game.

Bill Shallosky booted the extra point that meant the difference midway in the second after Don Del Bene had returned a punt 50 yards to tie the score.

Hardin-Simmons had opened the scoring in the first period when Bobby Hart ran 21 yards for a touchdown to cap a 60-yard drive.

Hardin-Simmons went ahead again two minutes after Bene's touchdown. Hart passed 31 yards to Bill Cagle for the score.

With one minute left in the period, Bob Dougherty of Cincinnati put his team in front to stay by plunging over from one yard out.

The ball had been put on the one after pass interference in the end zone was called against Hardin-Simmons.

Colorado Licks Iowa Staters
BOULDER, Colo., Nov. 3. (AP)—Springing their speedy backs loose for long runs and intercepting passes for touchdowns, Colorado whizzed by Iowa State 47-20 today.

Sophomore Halfback Ronnie Johnson darted for two scores and Freshman Halfback Farroll Hardy dashed 38 yards for another. Two other Buffalo touchdowns came on runbacks of pass interceptions by Larry Morine and George Figner.

Iowa State's Dick Mann pitched two touchdowns passes, one covering 63 yards to Mal Schmidt and another covering 4 yards to Stan Cozsl. He rammed over from the two for another score.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Chester Simcik, one of the better backs on the University of Texas football team, was recommended to the school by Peppy Blount, the ex-Big Springer. . . Simcik comes from Thrall. . . The next great father-son combination in football may be at Loyola, where Jordan Olivar coaches. . . His son is only 13 years of age now but weighs 180 and stands 6-1, and is all football. . . Frank Freer, the Lamesa golfer now in the Army, is stationed at Fort Belvoir, Va. . . Rocky Marciano, recent conquerer of Joe Lewis, may fight Irish Bob Murphy in Miami next February. . . Red Sanders, UCLA's football coach, says Frank Gifford, the Southern Cal speedster is the best all-around back he's seen since Alabama's Harry Gilme. . . Take it from Dutch Meyer, the TCU football mentor, the Frogs will be better next season because their line will be stronger. . . The Purple losses George Wilson, an end; Doug Conaway and Norman Hughes, tackles; Alton Taylor and Herbert Zimmerman, guards; and Bobby McEachern and Roy Pitcock, centers, via graduation. . . Incidentally, Dick Lawwell, the local griddler attending TCU will be in last week to watch the Steers upset Plainview. . . another local visitor was Bill Fletcher, HCJC ex, now a candidate for the Lamar Tech cage team. . . There's talk a Class C baseball league will be organized in East Texas before next spring, with Greenville as the hub.

Hayworth Got Benefit Of 'Dog Elbow

Peaved by the fact that a Fort Worth paper had ignored the feats of local gridders in their upset win over Plainview last week, Ray (Shorty) Snyder of Our Town wrote the publication's high school grid expert a letter recently mentioning Donald Mack Richardson, a lanky Hayworth and Gilstrap as leaders in particular the paper should have spotlighted. . . Hayworth, by the way, received a busted back in the game when big Jimmy Jamerson gave him the benefit of an elbow. . . The University of Texas football team has now scored in 50 straight contests. . . If Illinois winds up in the Rose Bowl, it will make for an ironic situation, especially if USC is the host team. Ray Elliot was all set to sign for the head coaching job at Southern Cal last spring, when alumni quered the deal. . . When San Angelo College played Compton of California in Angelo recently, the paid turnout amounted to 4,581—largest home crowd in the school's history. . . The Rams had to guarantee the Tartars $4,000 to come to Texas. . . Midland's home football all crowds have averaged about 10,000 paid per game. . . Ralph Brooks, the Midland terror, had to be voted back on the team by his mates after he quit the squad, according to Scribe Larry King. . . The Big Spring Yearlings played much of their recent game with Earl Angelo Edison without Brick Johnson and Buddy Cosby. . . Johnson was out with an injury and Cosby had a scrap with Milton Pierce of Angelo. . . The referee asked both to take a rest on the sidelines. . . The Yearling attack should have suffered but the spirited Big Springers never let up. . . Cosby continues to develop in all phases of the game but especially as a line backer. . . He doesn't believe in taking much rest during a contest.

Three Area Schools May Go Into AAA

Wonder why it is that Miami Beach, which borders on the ocean, has 247 swimming pools, and Big Spring only one? Bob Reynolds, Nebraska's fine footballer, wears out three pairs of football shoes a season with his stop and go tactics. Ben Peeler, an Odessa sports writer, says Peecos, Monahans and Kermit may all be forced into AAA athletics next season. . . If such a thing takes place, they would probably be placed in the conference with Big Spring. Elimination of the 20 percent admission tax on high school athletic contests, which took place Nov. 1, will mean added income to Big Spring, and the Steers can certainly use it, what with increased expense of running a program. . . The tax bill here has been running more than $2,500 a year. . . Carlos (Cotton) Clover, the one-time Big Springer, has resigned as commissioner of the Odessa AAU district because of the press of other duties. . . No sport is booming like the fight game, which was at low ebb last year. . . New faces have helped to bring out the fans. . . All Longhorn league cities are set for next season, with the exception of Sweetwater, where the Swatters will probably find a solution to their financial woes. Leo Eastham, a terrific ball player for Odessa, is working at a sales establishment in Odessa called the Dugout. The place was at one time operated by Al Monchak. . . San Francisco university is openly seeking an invitation to the Orange Bowl, which will offer competing team $61,000 each. . . It has been strongly hinted that one of the Orange Bowl clubs will be a Southwest Conference eleven.

Forsan Buffaloes Defeat Garden City Kats, 34-20

GARDEN CITY, Nov. 3.—Forsan stormed back into the win column with a 34-20 conquest of Garden City in a District Eight six-man football game here Friday night.

On the second play from scrimmage, James Caudle scored from six yards out to put Forsan in the lead after a long run by Jerry Fullen set up the score. Caudle left the game with an injury shortly thereafter and did not return.

Bob Leonard, David Wise, Hood Jones and Jerry Fowler were other Forsan players making touchdowns while Terry Fullen made two extra points and Jerry Fullen two points on a drop kick.

Bryant Harris scored a touchdown on a 55-yard run for Garden City and converted, Larry Calverley made another while Darrell White accounted for the third on a pass from Harris.

Forsan made eight first downs, compared to three for the Bearkats. Terry Fullen was outstanding on both offense and defense for Forsan while Jerry Fowler and Hood Jones were tops on defense.

Bob Frizzell and Calverley were the standouts for the losers. Forsan plays Saint Jo Academy of Abilene in a non-conference joust at Forsan at 7:30 p.m. Friday.

Longhorns Gain 25-12 Victory Over Coahoma

ROBERT LEE, Nov. 3.—Robert Lee used its aerial arm to torpedo the Coahoma Bulldogs' District 5 B title hopes here Friday night, winning a 25-12 verdict.

The weather was not conducive to good football but obviously it affected the Longhorns less than it did Coahoma.

Donny Duncan hurried the Herd to victory, clicking for four touchdowns.

Billy Carwie gathered in three scoring touches and Norman Roberts accounted for the fourth.

Coahoma staged a first period drive that Robert Lee finally stopped on the 20.

In the second round, Carwie cruised over for the first Robert Lee tally and Duncan booted the point to give Robert Lee a 7-0 lead they still had at half time.

Jimmy Knight rambled across for Coahoma's first TD in the third and then repeated the trick for the Canines in the fourth.

The loss was the second in district play for Coahoma and all but eliminated the Dogs from title contention.

Browns Oppose Cards Today

NEW YORK, Nov. 3. (AP)—The Cleveland Browns and the Chicago Bears, National Football league divisional leaders, clash with poorer relations Sunday in bids to strengthen their positions.

Cleveland, riding a four-game winning streak, meets the last-place Chicago Cardinals in Chicago, while the Bears clash with the Washington Redskins in the nation's capital.

Other games Sunday find Detroit at Green Bay, Philadelphia at Pittsburgh, New York Yanks at New York Giants and San Francisco at Los Angeles.

The Browns enjoy a half game lead over the Giants in the American Conference by virtue of their 14-13 victory over the New Yorkers last week. The Cardinals have won only one out of five starts but are always a threat.

Washington, under its new coach, Dick Todd, may give the Bears some trouble. The Skins have won two straight, and with veterans Bill Dudley and Sammy Baugh steering the attack the Bears will have to be on guard. The Bears enjoy a one-game lead in the National Conference.

Oregon Moves Out Of Skyline Cellar

EUGENE, Ore., Nov. 3. (AP)—A pair of freshmen lifted Oregon out of the Coast Conference cellar today with a 14-13 victory over Idaho.

George Shaw, freshman quarterback, passed to both of Oregon's touchdowns.

Freshman Emerson Harvey, hooked the ball through the posts for the winning point.

Ackerly Flock Licks Knott Billies, 40-8

KNOTT, Nov. 3.—Jack Rogers led the Ackerly Eagles to an impressive 40-8 victory over Knott in a District Seven six-man football game here Friday night.

Ackerly led, 29-0, at half time and added steadily to its total in the final two periods.

Rogers passed to Harold Rabberry for 15 yards and a score in the initial period. R. L. Shelton added the extra point.

Later in the initial round, Shelton bucked the line for 15 yards and another six-pointer.

In the second, Rogers circled right end for eight yards and a tally.

In the third, Rogers passed to Shelton for 15 yards and another marker before Knott finally clicked a score.

Phillip Stovall's pass to Tiny Bayes went 12 yards for the only Knott TD. Leonard Smith kicked the extra point.

In the fourth, Rogers passed to Joe Blasingame for 45 yards and a score, then drop kicked the point.

In the last minute of play, Shelton intercepted an enemy pass and ran 78 yards for the last Ackerly score.

Ackerly completed 12 of 16 passes for 187 yards, punted twice for a 37-yard average, was penalized twice for 10 yards and fumbled twice, one of which it recovered.

Knott made good on six of 15 passes for 64 yards, punted three times for a 24-yard average, was penalized once for five yards and fumbled three times, recovering on one occasion.

Tarheels Kyoood By Vols, 27-0

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., Nov. 3. (AP)—Hank Lauricella, Tennessee's potent little butcher knife, passed and flashed North Carolina into submission 27-0 today to extend the winning streak of the nation's number one football team to 16 games.

The 168-pound wizard scored two touchdowns, passed for another and set up a fourth.

One of the touchdowns was a 27-yard sweep around his right end in the first period.

The Senior field general, a strong candidate for All-America honors, played only half the game.

Rocked back on their heels for most of the afternoon, the Tar Heels, roused themselves for two menacing gestures just before the final gun.

They traveled 66 yards to the 10 where Tennessee's vicious offense rose up to swallow the threat. A few moments later they rolled down to the 10 again with first down and goal to go.

Three line plays moved the Tar Heels to the five, but that was as far as they could go.

Wildcat Test Samples Show In New Zone

Argo No. 1 Cook, C NW SW 17-34-4s, T&P, four miles southwest of Garden City, has recovered free oil in an unidentified formation below the Spraberry.

A drillstem test was run in a highly fractured lime above the Dean sand. The test interval was 7,418-94. However, the last section which had the oil was only from 7,420-40. The section from 7,462-94 had shale and no show. There was no description of the section from 7,440-62.

On the test, the tool was open three hours. There was a good flow of air for 13 minutes. Gas surfaced in 13 minutes and continued a good blow the remainder of the test. Recovery was 840 feet of 35-gravity clean oil, 155 feet of heavily oil and gas-cut mud with no water. Operator now is coring ahead.

So far, none of the wells in the Spraberry trench which have drilled below the Spraberry have found this particular formation.

Murphy & Ashland No. 1 M. L. Couey, C SW SW 13-36-5s, T&P cored from 10,895-905 with recovery of eight feet with some small chert particles. Some of the lime is fractured and there is a slight odor of oil in some of the fractures. There is no porosity other than the fractures, and no oil stain of fluorescence. Operator is to take a drillstem test from 10,890-905. Tentative top of the Devonian is 10,880 on an elevation of 2,694, a datum minus of 8,186.

Phillips No. 1 Berry, C NW NW 35-36-2s, T&P, 17 miles northwest of Garden City, took a drillstem test in Wolfcamp lime and shale from 9,756-9834. The tool was open 2 1/2 hours and gas surfaced in three minutes. There was no gauge or estimate on the gas. Recovery was 200 feet of oil and gas-cut mud. Operator continued drilling at 9,875 in shale. The section is mostly shale with thin lime stringers.

Phillips No. 2 McDowell, C NE NE 31-34-2s, T&P, northern Glasscock wildcat, was shut down to move off rotary and move in swabbing unit. Operator had swabbed a barrel of new oil per hour from the Wolfcamp through perforations from 8,410-70 after treating with 6,000 gallons of acid. After the swabbing unit is moved in, operator will make extended tests to see if the well can be made to produce commercially.

ONLY EIGHT DRY HOLES

Venerable Pool Extends In Formerly Condemned Area

McAllen, Nov. 3.—(U)—There were eight dry holes around it, no what better place could 16 men find to drill an oil well?

They drilled it, and now it's flowing at the rate of 50 to 100 barrels a day, proving that the oil business is open to the small investor and the part-time geologist.

C. Forman of McAllen, who was in the citrus business until early this year, did the geology work for the well and got 14 other men to back his judgment with cash enough to drill the well.

The well is an eastward extension of the old Luling field near Luling, 70 miles east of San Antonio.

"I think the reason they didn't get oil from those other holes is because they didn't have acid," Forman said. The Forman et al No. 1 MacIntyre used 4,000 gallons of acid and 222 perforating shots to complete in 60 feet of Buda lime and 220 feet of Austin chalk. The well is a quarter of a mile from the nearest production and Forman estimates that it extends the Luling field by about 1,000 acres.

The last of the eight-dry holes on the same 50-acre lease was drilled around 1928, but the first seven holes were before 1923, Forman reports.

M. T. Blackwell of McAllen, one of the investors, says the name of the well is the No. 1 Acido. "It doesn't mean a thing," he says of the name, "but I dreamed it."

The dream came after the well had a couple of oil shows in the Georgetown sand, which was promising because it wasn't expected in the field. In Blackwell's dream the well hit an unusual sand and an old man showed up to advise him that they hit a pocket of acid in the well.

Dawson Prospector Taking Drillstem Test Near 12,000

Tide Water No. 1 Stokes, C SE NE 8-30-38, CSL, northwestern Dawson deep wildcat, was taking another drillstem test.

This followed a core from 11,967-992 with recovery of 25 feet of unidentified dolomite. Interval of the drillstem test was not given. Earlier, the venture had taken a test from 11,940-965 with recovery of 2,500 feet of oil cut mud.

Location is in extreme northeast Dawson county, 15 miles southeast of Brownfield.

Fluvanna Has Second Well

Superior & Intex Oil No. 2-518 Wallace H. Jones has been completed as the second well in the Borden county.

It flowed 24 hours through 18-64th choke after being hydraulically fractured with 4,000 gallons. The well made a trace of water and a potential of 192 barrels of 40.6 gravity oil.

Top of pay was 8,169, total depth 8,199 and the 7-in. string was run to 8,172. Production was coming from the Mississippian. This, the second well in the field, is one location south of the discovery, which is 2 1/2 miles northwest of Fluvanna. Location is 660 from the north and 1,980 from the east lines of section 518-97, H&TC.

Charlie Hasn't Made Mistake In 30 Years—So He's Still Here

By MERRILL ENGLUND

SHELBY, Mont., Nov. 3.—(U)—Charles B. Stalaker, who has his office near here, hasn't made a mistake in 30 years.

Two of his predecessors did which is why Charlie's is the only oil well shooter in this area.

Oil well shooting is a delicate operation in which nitroglycerin is lowered gently into the well, then touched off with a time bomb.

Charlie makes his own "glycerin" at his plant 14 miles southwest of here.

He puts a 1,500-pound drum of sulphuric and nitric acid into a "nitratator"—a huge steel mixing bowl enclosed in a water-jacket to maintain an even temperature. He starts the mixer going, then starts a stream of glycerin about the size of a lead pencil into the nitratator. To the 1,500 pounds of acid, he adds about 285 pounds of glycerin.

From this mixture, he gets about 800 pounds of nitroglycerin, which goes from the nitratator into washing tanks, where all traces of acid are removed by hot water.

This end result is a clear liquid, 1-3 heavier than water, with a slight amber cast. It looks like a very light oil but it is eight times as powerful as gunpowder and it produces a detonation about 10-000 times its own volume of gas.

Charlie, 58, makes his own nitroglycerin because he has to. There is no practical way to bring it here.

When Charlie goes out on a big job, he loads up his "shooting truck," a vehicle with black fenders, red body, yellow top and the word "explosives" prominently displayed fore and aft.

Each 10-quart can of nitro is placed in a rubber lined wooden cell in a rack inside the truck, which, when loaded, carries 300 quarts.

Arriving at the oil well, Charlie gets out his "shells." These look like pieces of stovepipe and vary in diameter from two to eight inches, in length from four to 10 feet.

He sets his shell into the hole, pours in the nitroglycerin—20 or 30 quarts, depending on the size of the shell—and lowers it gently into place. The time bomb rides on top of the last shell to be lowered into the hole.

The time bomb is a rig which includes two watches, which have either 12 or 24-hour dials, depending on how long the customer wants to wait for the blast.

For this, an oilman says Charlie works from 1176 to $440 a shot, depending on the size of the shell. This includes Charlie's services

Spraberry Well Finals In SW Midland Area

He will represent state oil and gas operators on national issues concerning the petroleum industry. Others named to the general board from Texas were J. C. Hunter, Jr., V. C. Perini, Jr., and French M. Robertson, Abilene; and H. E. Chiles, Jr., Abilene; S. Donnelly and J. F. Warren, Midland.

Martin Explorer Is Losing Circulation, Another Abandons

Argo No. 1 Brown, C NW NW 15-37-2n, T&P, was at 10,034 in an unidentified lime Saturday. Operator was seeking to regain lost circulation.

Sinclair No. 1 E. B. Dickenson, C NE NE 22-37-in, T&P, which drilled to 12,073 in the Ellenburger, prepared to plug and abandon. This venture got only sulphur water on a drillstem test in this formation. In the top of the Spraberry, 7,528-68 the test had some gas cut mud and salt water and in the Dean sand it had some sand and shale with bleeding oil, but there was no recovery there on test.

Stanford Oil & Gas No. 1-A F. E. Mulkey, section 20-35-1s, T&P, three miles southeast of Stanton, formally plugged at total depth of 11,466. Previously it had been announced as a temporary plug.

East Howard Location

A new location in the Iatan-East Howard field is the Sinclair Oil & Gas Co. No. 100 Granville M. Dodge Estate. It will be 990 from the north and west lines of section 11-30-1s, T&P, a cable tool venture to 2,900. This puts the venture five miles east of Coahoma.

Pennsylvanian Exploration Spotted In S' east Borden

A Pennsylvanian wildcat almost on the Scurry-Borden line in southeastern Borden county has been spotted.

It will be the J. H. (Jerry) Bartley and J. A. (Jim) Critz of Midland, Fieger-Riley Drilling Co., of Odessa No. 1 Conrad. Location will be 660 from the east and 1,980 from the south lines of section 78-20, LaVaca and probably will be a just over on the Borden side. Contract depth is to 7,500 or production in the Pennsylvanian at a lesser depth. Operations will be started by Dec. 1.

This wildcat will be about 2 1/2 miles southeast of the Shell No. 2 Sterling, a Pennsylvanian discovery on the south side of the CRMWD lake. It also is about four miles north of the recently completed northeast Howard discovery, the Lloyd Smith No. 1 Boyd.

Bartley and Critz blocked the checkerboard spread on which the test will be located. It contains 800 acres and covers the northeast quarter of section 71, the north 240 acres of the west half of section 72, the south half of the southwest quarter, the south half of the northeast quarter, the east half of the northwest quarter, the north half of the northeast quarter, the south half of the northwest quarter and the north half of the southeast quarter section 78-20, LaVaca.

Stanford No. 1-A J. P. Dennis, C NE NE 9-30-5n, T&P, an offset to the Stanolind No. 1 Miller, Spraberry discovery 5 1/2 miles northeast of Gall, was coring below 5,408 in lime.

WEEK'S REVIEW

Runnels, Reagan Have Discoveries

SAN ANGELO, Tex., Nov. 3.—Runnels and Reagan Counties broke the news Monday of Midland County in West Texas oil this week. Reagan had a discovery strike completing and another Spraberry strike continuing to show plus three wildcat locations.

In northwestern Reagan, Soblo No. 1 Leonard Proctor, 13 miles north of the nearest lower Spraberry production in the Weddell field, became a Spraberry discovery when it was finished for a six-hour flow of 136.26 barrels of oil or at the 24-hour rating of 645 barrels of 40 gravity oil. Production was through perforations at 7,565-596 feet, with total depth of 7,556 feet. The section was hydrated with 1,500 gallons. Location is 660 feet from north, 1,980 from east lines of section 20-35-2s, T&P.

J. H. Williams and others No. 1 J. D. Merchant estate, northwestern Reagan wildcat 4 1/2 miles north-west of Smith, Spawden and others No. 1 O. L. Greer, the opener of the Weddell Spraberry field, pumped 110.85 barrels of new oil in 20 hours from perforations in the upper Spraberry at 6,527-400 feet following hydraulic fracturing. Pumping about two days to determine the capacity of the well and then potentiating is planned. Location is 660 feet out of the southwest corner of section 18-A, L&SV survey, 12 miles north of Siles.

Shutin preparatory to taking potential, Artec Oil Co. of San Angelo No. 1 Nettie Currie, Runnels County wildcat four miles north of Ballinger, flowed upper Palo Pinto oil at the rate of 32 barrels hourly on a 2 1/2-hour test. After 3 1/2-inch casing set at 3,500 feet was perforated from 3,424-454 feet, the action was acidized with 1,500 gallons. It flowed an average of 32 barrels hourly for the first 2 1/2 hours. The project, located 1,450 from south, 660 feet from west line of ETTR survey 183, was drilled 290 feet in the Ellenburger to 4,630 feet and plugged back to 3,500 feet.

In southwestern Scurry County, Jumble No. 3-B J. L. Sorrells, wildcat after indicating discovery Wolfcamp production in the Sharon Ridge Canyon field, made its first oil flow from that formation. Drillstem testing from 5,466-66 feet for three hours, 12 minutes, the strike flowed 4.5 barrels of oil to storage in one hour. In addition to the oil was 22 per cent basic sediment and water, the water possibly being drilling fluid. Gas-oil ratio was 380-1. The test then drilled ahead to 5,506 feet, set packer at 5,486 and drillstem tested for 45 minutes with recovery of 200 feet of oil and gas-cut mud. It will drill deeper. An earlier drillstem test from 5,410-45 feet with recovered 250 feet of gas-cut mud, 1,800 feet of heavily oil and gas-cut mud, 3,000 feet of clean oil and 600 feet of slightly salty water. Location is the C NE NW 97-25-H&TC.

Another Midland County wildcat, Greenbrier Oil Co. & Mendota Oil Co. No. 1 O. H. McAlister, showed for distillate and gas production in the Devonian. The shows came on a one-hour drillstem test between 12,257-283 feet. Recovery was 280 feet of distillate and 270 feet of slightly mud-cut distillate. Operator will drill deeper. Location is C NE NE 40-37-1s-T&P, five miles northwest of the nearest Spraberry production in the Germandia field.

A half-mile southwest extension to a recent four-mile-east extension in the Driver-Spraberry field in Glasscock County, completed, Sinclair No. 1 Fannie Boyd finished for a 24-hour flowing potential of 395.65 barrels of 36.4 gravity oil, no water, from open hole between 6,894-900 feet, the total depth. Gas-oil ratio was 654-1 with the section being treated with 2,000 gallons of acid. Location is 1,980 from north, 660 feet from east lines of section 9-36-5s-T&P.

Second producer has been indicated for a new Canyon reef lime pool in Borden County 13 miles north-east of Gall, Dana, Shay & Barker, Midland, No. 1 Myrtle McKnight, section 367-97-H&TC, a west offset to the discovery, took a four-hour drillstem test of the reef from 7,747-787 feet, recovered 4,550 feet of oil, drilling mud and gas, estimated to be 50 per cent oil. Operators will run 5 1/2-inch casing to 7,747 feet for completion attempt in open hole.

Current Allowable Is Below 3 Million

AUSTIN, Nov. 3.—(U)—The November daily oil allowable took effect Thursday, cutting this week's total average calendar day allowable to 2,977,338 as of today. This was a drop of 151,371 barrels from last Saturday's permissive flow.

The Railroad Commission reported completion of 198 oil wells, 33 gas wells, and 125 dry holes. Oil well completions for the year totalled 9,228 compared with 9,027 a year ago.

Wildcat drilling produced seven oil wells, one gasser, and 74 dry holes.

Operators plugged 127 dry wells, 9 gasers and 47 oil wells.

Oil Drilling Contractors Meet Monday

The Permian Basin Chapter of the American Association of Oilwell Drilling Contractors is to sponsor a winter hazards conference to be held Monday in the Crystal ballroom of the Scharbauer hotel in Midland.

This meeting is open to the public and all interested persons are invited to attend.

The conference will be divided into two sessions, a morning session and an afternoon meeting.

H. W. Davidson of Davidson Drilling Company will preside over the general session which will be opened at 10 a.m. Davidson is chairman of the safety committee of the association.

At 10:15 a.m. J. W. House, Humble division superintendent, will speak on "Elimination of Winter Hazards." In the talk of Charlie Quinn, mechanical superintendent for Loffland Bros. of Tulsa, problems of mud pumps, mud lines, air lines, radiators, hydraulics, blow-out preventers, heating of rigs and ice on rigs will be discussed from a winter angle.

Following a buffet luncheon, G. M. Kintz and Paul Witt of the U. S. Bureau of Mines, will speak and demonstrate "The Magic of Fire." T. V. Smith, Gulf States Supply, and Bob Compton, General Detroit Corp., will speak on "How to Fight Fire." Their demonstration will include liquid gas fire, natural gas fire, live oil fire, gasoline fire and maintenance of extinguishers.

Report On Synthetic Fuel Is Challenged

By TEX EASLEY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—(U)—The National Petroleum Council stirred a new controversy over the synthetic fuels program with its report this week to the Petroleum Administration for Defense (PAD).

The Council, an advisory body, said a five-month study had shown that production of gasoline from coal would cost 43 1/2 cents a gallon, not counting distributing and marketing expense, compared with a cost of 12 to 13 cents a gallon on gasoline produced from crude oil. Gasoline from oil shale was reported by the Council to cost 14.7 cents.

Officials of the U. S. Bureau of Mines, which has been experimenting with the production of synthetic fuels, promptly challenged the Council's figures on the coal process.

The Bureau's pilot plant at Louisiana, Mo., they argued, has shown that gasoline can be made from coal in competition with gasoline refined from crude.

They also said the Council's report failed to take into consideration income from sale of by-products such as phenol, benzene, toluene, naphthalene, ammonia and sulphur.

Much involved in the controversy is the proposal of a private company which is seeking government authority to build a $400 million plant for converting coal to liquid fuel.

The National Production Authority has been asked to approve the proposal. The Defense Production Administration would underwrite the operation by guaranteeing "reasonable" market prices for the chemical by-products for the next 10 years.

The Petroleum Council's report said: "It has been noted that an effort is being made to promote the installation of a coal hydrogenation plant as a source of chemicals, the most important of which are benzene, toluene and xylene. "Study of this proposal is not within the scope of the committee's assignment.

"Attention is directed, however, to the fact that the disadvantages of high investment cost involved in the basic coal hydrogenation step will still be present and that additional investment will be required for the further processing, recovery and purification of the chemicals. We are advised that such chemicals can be produced from petroleum at much lower cost."

One Mines Bureau official commented that such conclusions were to be expected from the Council since it is made up of oil industry men. He went on to predict that the government would approve the coal hydrogenation project sometime next year.

Nolan Outpost Has Shows In Canyon

Union Oil Company of California No. 1 TXL wildcat one and three-quarters miles south of the Lake Trammel Canyon sand pool of North-Central Nolan County, is being drilled below 5,265 feet after a drillstem test in the Canyon developed gas and heavily oil and gas-cut mud.

The interval tested was from 5,116 to 5,132 feet. Tool was open one and one-half hours. Recovery was 3,700 feet of gas in the drillpipe and 320 feet of oil and gas-cut mud. The top 40 feet was approximately 30 per cent oil. The bottom 280 feet was slightly oil and gas-cut.

Location is 660 feet from south and west lines of section 33, block X, T&P survey.

SMOKELESS SMOKER

Carbon Black Plant Plans Open House Wednesday

Carl Wright, vice president and general manager for General Atlas Carbon Black company, was fishing in the northwest last summer.

He spotted a car with a Texas license and later learned the occupants were from Big Spring.

"Ever hear of General Atlas?" he asked.

They hadn't. That convinced Wright that his company's plant in Big Spring ought to be opened to the public for visitation some day. Just because it wasn't belching out clouds of black was no reason it shouldn't be known.

So open house is to be observed Wednesday at the plant, just east of Cosden refinery. The hours are 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. and the public is invited to see how oil and gas are turned into a pure carbon product so essential to the defense effort.

The Dixon plant, as it is called, is a furnace type and utilizes residual oil from Cosden's refinery. This is mixed with natural gas and with varying amounts of air to produce a grade of black highly in demand by the synthetic rubber industry.

There are now 63 employed by General Atlas, a Cabot company, in its operations here. In addition, a dozen more are at work at an special construction. A. R. Davenport is superintendent.

Retired Railway Employees May Get Pension Hikes By Dec. 1

Around a quarter of a million retired railroad employees may receive increased benefits on their Dec. 1 checks.

By some estimates, retirement pay for most will be up by about 30 per cent. An additional 150,000 survivors of deceased employees will get increases averaging 45 per cent of their present monthly checks.

No action is required by any beneficiary until notified by the railroad retirement board.

The increases result from amendments to the railroad retirement act signed by President Truman on Oct. 30, 1951. These, of course, affect a large number of Big Spring people.

The new law does not change the tax-rate schedule.

Here is a run down of the principal changes:

- (1) Most retirement benefits will first be raised by 15 per cent. The higher payments will go to all persons now on the rolls as well as to those who will retire in the future. The maximum annuity now payable will rise from $144 to $165.80 a month.
- (2) A monthly benefit will be allowed for the wife of a retired employee over age 65, if she is also over age 65 or has children under 18. This benefit amounts to 50 per cent of the retired employee's benefit up to a maximum of $40. The wives of about 80,000 retired employees currently receiving benefits will be able to qualify for this benefit immediately. The maximum payable to a man and wife will be $205.60; eventually, combined benefits above $250 will be possible.
- (3) Service after age 65 is now creditable toward retirement, but the most service that can be counted when service before 1937 is included is still 30 years.
- (4) The monthly benefits payable to the survivors of deceased railroad employees will be increased by 33 1-3 per cent and lump-sum death payments by 25 per cent. The maximum amount payable to a family will rise from $109 to $160 a month.
- (5) A survivor will now be permitted to earn $50 a month in social security employment without losing that month's annuity payment.
- (6) A new minimum provision is added which will guarantee that both retirement and survivor benefits paid under the railroad system, together with any social security benefits which may be payable, will in no case be less than the benefit the social security system would have paid if railroad employment were covered by that system. This will in many cases produce increases over and above those already mentioned.
- (7) In the future, employees who retire with less than 10 years of railroad service, and the survivors of those who die with less than 10 years of service, will receive their benefits under the Social Security Act the same as though the railroad service had been performed under that Act.
- (8) A reduction will be made in the amount of retirement benefits payable to an employee who is also entitled to a retirement benefit under the social security system and who worked in railroad employment before 1937.

Local People See A 'Flying Saucer'

If there is such a thing as a flying saucer, Marcus Woods figures he has seen one.

In fact, four others in his party Friday evening can testify as to some phenomenal lights sighted while they were on the way to the Steer-Tornado game in Lamesa Friday evening.

Woods, in company with Mrs. Woods, his brother, Jack, and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Ford, noticed some bright objects in the sky at about 7:15 p.m. There were three vertical lights, which seemed brighter than plane lights and which appeared not to move.

Fascinated by the lights, Woods stopped the car. At this point, a fourth light appeared to the right of the others.

Woods pulled out some hi-powered service binoculars and fixed them on the strange lights.

"They seemed like balls of fire," he said. "I can't describe them other than that they looked like pinwheels you see on July 4, spinning and slinging smoke and fire around the edges. But they never seemed to move."

Those in the group discounted the possibility of flares having been dropped by planes because the objects seemed stationary too long. The "hall of fire" characteristics plus their seeming fixed position also ruled out the possibility the lights were attached to aircraft.

Woods sighted the strange objects as his car neared Ackerly.

Florists Observing
National Flower
Week, Nov. 4-11

Big Spring florists peeked in greenhouses and gardens Saturday and, overcome by the blaze of colors, set out on a crusade to make the people of Big Spring flower-conscious.

It is the annual National Flower Week, beginning Sunday.

Purpose of National Flower Week is to bring cheer to the underprivileged.

Most any week of the year could be National Flower Week, but this one is picked every year because there are more flowers in bloom at this time—indoors and outdoors, together—than any other week.

Texas AP News Desk Breathes Easier After Tim's Operation

By The Associated Press
Operation Commissurotomy, ok! We're breathing easier around the big news desk of the Texas AP Bureau.

Editor Tim Parker's rare and difficult heart operation, called Commissurotomy, was successful. He is breathing easier at Baylor hospital at Dallas. So are Jane, his wife, and the tots, Susie and Patty.

The operation takes a toll of those who risk it and only 500 patients have ever had their hearts "exposed for the awesome ordeal which was developed only a few years ago.

After a long incision lays open the left side to reach the heart, the surgeon uses his finger or takes a little hook-like knife they call a gullotine, enclosed in a covering sheath attached to his finger and a thrust is made through the "mitral valve," tearing the flesh, removing scar tissue and restoring normal function of the valve which is the opening between the left auricle and left ventricle.

The scarring of a heart valve—Mitral Stenosis—is the result of rheumatic fever. Tim had it when he was nine.

You didn't notice much the matter with Tim. He is a fast man with a news story, a typewriter, a lawn mower or a smile. But the functioning of a scarred heart valve becomes more difficult as the years roll by. So his good physical condition made it advisable to undergo the operation now—if he had the heart to do it.

Tim had the heart. He arranged everything, even to an obit of himself for the AP wires—just in case. He cleared up the State news desk and arranged to fit in with the staff vacation list.

He went under the anesthetic a month ago, but at that time the doctors decided he couldn't stand the ordeal.

Several weeks of rest and build-up were needed. With time on his hands Tim subscribed to some Texas AP member newspapers, so he could stay abed and keep up with the State news.

The AP editors heard about that at their Fort Worth meeting recently. President Charles A. Guy of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal proposed a resolution: James R. Record of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram drafted a letter for all of them and Don H. Allen, Allentown, Pa., publisher who spoke at the session, said "That is the kind of loyalty you can't buy, and money can't measure."

Loyalty to the job of keeping the news going to the public.

The AP staff gave Tim Parker a cake, for luck. It just so happened that the operation was performed on his 34th birthday and the Baylor nurses gave him another cake and with the doctors sang, "Happy Birthday."

We're sorry we can't mention their names. Not ethical, you know. But Tim's heart is pumping away merrily, better than in years, and he is believed to be out of all danger.

When the surgeon reached the vital valve opening which normally should be about an inch in diameter, he found only two little openings the size of match heads. He was able to enlarge them and remove the scar tissue without the use of the delicate finger knife.

That was last Wednesday and Friday Tim sat up. Saturday he was to stand up. There's pain and discomfort from the big operation but it's going fine.

Tim isn't yet feeling like joking over his missing rib.

They took out about an eight-inch rib to get to his heart and he jokingly promised he would use it as a paper knife to open up the State mail from AP correspondents.

However, the surgeons wanted the live bone to use in other operations on other patients. Nature will grow another rib, inside, for Tim.

The feeling around the AP news desk is that Tim Parker is a brave guy, that Jane—whose father, Col. Robt. R. Martin, was one of the first killed in Korea—is a brave little red-head. Mrs. Martin is helping take care of Susie, Patty, the collie and the cat.

The surgeons and nurses at Baylor are all right too—all in the day's work for them.

But they deserve a big cake. Better still, we can go out and give the new Baylor blood bank a pint that may help save a soldier's life in Korea.

Four Teen-Agers Killed In Mishap

DALHART, Nov. 3. (AP)—Four Dalhart high school students were killed today in an auto-truck collision three miles south of Dalhart.

They were returning from Shamrock, where Dalhart High School played a football game Friday night.

One of the dead was a first-string player for Dalhart, Chester Dye. The others were Bowdry Bloxom, Helen Freeman and Rogene Jones, a step-sister of Chester. They were all teen-agers.

Their car collided head-on with a gasoline transport truck driven by Everett L. Stallings, 39, of Amarillo. Stallings was injured.

Chester, 17, and Rogene, 15, were children of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dye of Dalhart. Helen, 15, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Freeman of Dalhart. Bowdry was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bloxom of Dalhart.

NATIONAL FLOWER WEEK

Just before the opening of National Flower Week, Nov. 4-11, and before the week-end freeze, many Big Spring gardens were bright with a blaze of fall blooms.

Even though the hobby gardeners shown here have been sharing many blossoms with neighbors and hospital patients, enough were left to make splashes of vivid color in the autumn sun.

Mrs. J. M. Woodall, upper left, prizes her bed of hardy daisies extending the complete length of a terrace at the front of her home, 701 W. 17th.

Blooming this week in the garden of Mrs. J. E. Hogan, lower left, were not only chrysanthemums but petunias, periwinkles and geraniums. The Hogan home is at 509 Westover Rd.

Mrs. Roy Bardwell, who lives with her daughter, Mrs. R. P. Kountz, 202 Washington Blvd., cultivates these prize dahlias, above, in a small plot just outside her bedroom door.

Mrs. J. N. Lane, 1604 Nolan, cut this lovely bouquet of yellow roses from her favorite of all rose varieties—the Peace climber.

Taking trips—sometimes on a moment's notice—is the family hobby. All the Thrashes are always "ready to go." And they think Big Spring is the friendliest place they have ever lived.

Wedding vows were repeated by two Forsan brothers and their brides in a double ceremony at the First Baptist Church Thursday evening.

The brides are Juanita Archer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Archer of Lamesa, who married Bobby Wash, and Patricia Ann Young, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Young, 610 Edwards Blvd., who was united in marriage to Charles Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Wash of Forsan are parents of the bridegrooms.

Emerald and jade fern formed the nuptial background for an altar decked with banksia of white mums, white gladioli and stock and tapers in double candelabra lighted the scene of the service.

Mrs. H. C. Mobley, organist, furnished traditional wedding music and accompanied the soloists with vocal numbers. These were "I Love You Truly" by Otis Roberts, and "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" by the Rev. A. L. Byrd of Forsan.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony was an uncle of the bridegrooms, the Rev. S. C. Crumley.

The altar tapers were lighted by David Young and Jimmy Smith. Danny Wash, brother of the bridegrooms, was the ring bearer and flower girl was Mosselle Groehl.

Given in marriage by her brother, J. W. Archer, Miss Archer was attired in a ballerina length gown of white chantilly lace over white satin, with a fitted bodice and full, circular skirt. The lace jacket, fastened down the front by small satin-covered buttons, was designed with a Peter Pan collar and long, fitted sleeves tapered over the wrists.

Her veil of fingertip illusion was caught to a Juliet cap encrusted with seed pearls. She carried a purple-throated orchid on a white Bible and wore white satin opera pumps.

Billie Archer, the bride's sister, was her honor attendant. She selected a dusty rose taffeta gown fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and lace inserts. She was wearing lace mitts and carried a nosegay of purple and orchid mums.

The best man was Nolan Shaw of Weatherford. Ushers were Glen Judge Greenlees and P-TA Speaker.

Judge W. E. Greenlees discussed the three phases of development in children to help in preventing juvenile delinquency when the South Ward P-TA met Thursday afternoon at Wesley Methodist Church.

The amount made on the Halloween Carnival was announced and a committee was appointed to attend the next school board meeting. Committee members are Mrs. H. R. Culp, Mrs. Clyde Thomas Jr., Mrs. J. E. Flynn and Mrs. R. H. Wardell.

Forty members attended.

Mrs. Lou Bunch Is Winner At Canasta

The Red Trey Canasta Club met Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Beth Buck, 403 Park St. Special guests included Mrs. Lou Bunch, who won high score, and Mrs. Christine Hamby. Second high score prize was awarded to Mrs. Mary Ruth Robertson.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Janie Holcombe, Nov. 15.

Your guests will love a corned beef and cabbage salad for a supper snack after watching a TV show. Just mix finely shredded green cabbage with French dressing and spoon on individual salad plates. Top with a slice or two of corned beef and a spoonful of mayonnaise that's been blended with prepared mustard. Serve with hot buttered rolls.

Eugene Smith, Richard Gilmore and Hood Jones, a cousin of the bride.

Mrs. Archer, the mother of the bride, was attired in a two-piece light-colored suit with black accessories and Mrs. Wash, mother of the bridegrooms, in a two-piece suit of navy faille with smoked pearl buttons and black accessories. Both wore orchid corsages.

The bride is a graduate of Lamesa High School and was recently employed in the office of Lamesa General Hospital.

The bridegroom was graduated from Forsan High School in 1947 and attended Hardin-Simmons University and Baylor University.

For a wedding trip to New Orleans, La., the bride wore a dark green two-piece knitted suit and accessories of black suede. She wore the orchid from her Bible.

Upon their return they will reside at Forsan. Entering the aisle at the arm of her father, Miss Young was gowned in chantilly lace and satin patterned after that of the other bride. Her double veil of illusion was attached to a Juliet cap by tiny white carnations, and she carried a purple-throated orchid on a white Bible.

As her something old, she carried a 24-year-old lace handkerchief belonging to Mrs. Ted Groehl; her white Bible was borrowed from Quepha Preston, her wedding ensemble was new, and she wore a blue garter and a penny in her shoe for good luck.

Her maid of honor, Charlotte Williams, was dressed in a green taffeta gown fashioned like that of the other maid of honor with a sweetheart neckline and lace inserts. Her nosegay was of purple and orchid mums.

Mrs. Young, mother of the bride, selected a coffee colored silk faille frock with accessories of brown and an orchid corsage.

Before graduating from Big Spring High School in 1949, Mrs. Charles Wash was president of the Bible Club, Band Sweetheart and a member of the Student Council and the High Heel Slipper Club.

She attended Howard County Junior College for two years and was freshman favorite, sweetheart of the Plough and Halter Club and president of the Student Council. She is also past treasurer and secretary of the Nu Phi Mu chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority.

Her bridegroom is a 1949 graduate of Forsan High School and is presently a sophomore student at Baylor University in Waco.

For travelling, Mrs. Wash wore a cinnamon colored two-piece suit with a beige blouse, hat and gloves accessorized by dark brown suede purse and shoes. She also wore an orchid corsage.

The newlyweds left for a wedding trip to Waco, where they will live.

Immediately following the ceremony guests were greeted by members of the wedding parties at a reception in the church parlor. Mary Louise Porter and Quepha Preston presided at the serving table which was laid with a white handmade Italian cloth.

Boquets of the attendants formed the table centerpiece and large white tapers burned in double crystal candle holders at either side.

The two three-tiered wedding cakes ascended from a single base, each being topped by a miniature bridal couple and wedding bells. Two-crystal punch services completed the appointments.

Other room decorations were of jade fern trees, baskets of white mums, stock and gladioli.

Judy Lawson was in charge of the guest register. Others in the house party were Mrs. Ted Groehl, Mrs. Glenn Smith, Mary Felts, Marilyn Carpenter and Rebecca Rogers.

At Reception

Sorority Entertains At Costume Party In Little House

"Dress Like Your Secret Ambition" was the theme of the costume party given by members of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority at the Girl Scout Little House recently.

Dorothy Sikes as a glamour girl won the prize for the most original costume. Juanita Conway was awarded a prize for her portrayal of a flapper.

These are only two of the many games to choose from to serve as indoor sports for the winter months ahead.

THE WOMAN OF WISDOM knows that the well spent dollar will give her great returns on her investment, and what better way could a woman spend her dollars, than to keep herself looking young, attractive, radiant at all times. At the CUNNINGHAM AND PHILIPS and the PETROLEUM DRUG you'll find Dorothy Gray's famous Cellophane Horomone Cream to help your complexion take on a livelier tone... fresher, more vital and... and over thirty, the glandular system which supplies the younger skin with beauty-giving hormones may have begun to slow down. This cream outwits nature by effectively counteracting this loss and literally "plumps up" lines and wrinkles to give you a softer, fresher, truly younger look.

WEE MUSICIANS... the engaging little figures painted on 3x4 inch plaques in deep shadow box frames. Found at the BIG SPRING HARDWARE, they'd be perfect for grouping on a music room wall or any other room in the house where a gay note of color is in order. The Wee Musicians were painted by the noted artist, Lowell, who was inspired by one of the most celebrated stories surrounding the Court of King Arthur and the Round Table... that of the twelve wee musicians. Their appearance, legend has it, always brings good fortune. Down through the ages, to this very day, it is said, where ever they appear they always bring happiness and prosperity... $1.00 each.

FLASERS... THEY'RE HERE AGAIN... They won't last long. You've probably already guessed that WACKER'S has received a new shipment of those much watched and waited for planters; you better hurry and make your choice before they're scooped right off the shelves. It's a bigger and better assortment than you could have hoped for... Sansiveria, peperomia, areca palm, Chinese evergreen, African violet, and of course, the always popular devil's ivy. There's many others, just as unusual as the names I wouldn't even attempt to spell. Available with peat moss for better planting, they're priced from 25c to $3.50.

LEARN THE THREE R'S OF BEAUTY... Be Radiant, Romantic, Remembered, with a complexion to rival the softness of a baby's skin. Why not let the COLONIAL BEAUTY SHOP give you a passport to unadorned loveliness with one of their special-for-you facials? The urge for beauty is basic... the care for beauty is brief under the expert care of these skilled beauticians. They use only the best materials to bring out the flower-softness, the delicate smoothness to skin that it is dry and rough. A beautiful complexion is a woman's prerogative and a man's undoing, so why not bank in the luxury of a fine facial and emerge looking your very loveliest.

STEP LIVELY... STEP LOVELY... in a pair of Risque's sporty tweeds from MARGOT'S. These shrewd little casual shoes, on smartly lowered wedge heel, will keep you walkin' on free and easy street. They're designed in sporty-wool tweed in black or brown, with matching knit trim. The smart strap across the instep makes them a style-plus value... only $19.95. Hand-in-toe with your smartest costume comes this shoe beauty to accompany you and your fall clothes on a gala round of activities. In the field of casual footwear, they're frankly fabulous for fall.

DO-DO TO THE RECORD SHOP: Swing that gat and never stop, Allemande left and allemande right. Buy these records and dance all night. The square dance craze is really booming—everywhere people are forming square dance clubs—from Lower California to Upper Maine. It's an old time favorite that has hit the comeback trail and is leaving a record of success everywhere. At THE RECORD SHOP you'll find the finest selection of old time square dance records you could ask for... some with just the music for you to call yourself, some with the calls already on them. By Jannie Collins

The spoons and goblets have really been on the loose this last week and everyone has been watching out for black cats and witches.

These mysterious things were the theme for the Halloween Queen's Ball Tuesday night in the High School gymnasium. The queen's throne was done in gold and was made in the shape of a new moon. Black witches in the background, and corn shocks and jack-o-lanterns in the foreground completed the stage decorations. The queen, Sheila Sutphen, was presented a huge bouquet of yellow mums by the student president, Jeff Hanna. She also received a sterling silver identification bracelet as a gift from the Student Council. Sheila was the eighth grade nominee, which makes the second successive year that an eighth grade girl has won. She was escorted by Ronnie Wooten. Other members of her court of honor were Annette Puckett, senior nominee, Harold Haynie; Iva Hampton, junior nominee, Richard Prahm; Joyce Anderson, sophomore nominee, Bud Whitney; and Dorothy Barton, freshman nominee, Neugent Reed.

Diana Farquhar will be crowned football queen at the last home game Nov. 16. There will be a special coronation for her during half-time of the Vernon game, with a background of music by the band. Diana has been yell-leader her sophomore and junior years. She lettered in tennis her sophomore year and is Student Council reporter this year. If you hear a sweet sounding voice over KBST every Saturday morning around 10:30 it would be none other than Diana, telling the latest news of the high school in her program "High-School Headlines."

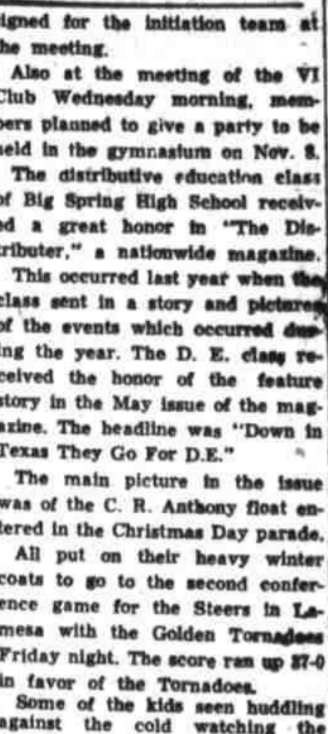

Spoons seen at the Halloween Carnival and Ball were: Hollis Harper, Mary Smith; Claudette Harper, Beverly Green; Annette Puckett, Harold Haynie; Joyce Anderson, Bud Whitney; Mary Ellen Hayes, W. C. Blankenship; Nannette Farquhar, Robert Angel; Monohol Holley, Elbert Long; Shirley Wheat, Bobby Hayworth; Regley Carter, Ronnie Sanders; Jean Dixon, Don Lockhart; Alma Crittendon, Wayne Medlin; Shirley McGinnis, Gizz Gilstrap; Doris Brown and Charlie Wright.

Halloween night about the same couples were seen looking for meanness to do. These and a few more seen around and at the midnight show: Sandy Swartz, Bill Dorsey; Lynelle Martin, J. L. Clayton; Bobbie Adams, Jackie Jennings, Gay Nell Lane, Haley Hodnett; Beverly Vaughn, Savoy Kaye; Shirley Burnette, Autrey Burke; Dot Crittendon, J. C. Armistead and many more.

The vocational industrial students will attend the district meeting at Lamesa Nov. 15. Beverly Hampton, appointed instructor, and Jimmy Cole, guide, were assigned for the initiation team at the meeting.

Also at the meeting of the VI Club Wednesday morning, members planned to give a party to be held in the gymnasium on Nov. 8. The distributive education class of Big Spring High School received a great honor in "The Distributer," a nationwide magazine. This occurred last year when the class sent in a story and pictures of the events which occurred during the year. The D. E. class received the honor of the feature story in the May issue of the magazine. The headline was "Down in Texas They Go For D.E."

The main picture in the issue was of the C. R. Anthony float entered in the Christmas Day parade. All put on their heavy winter coats to go to the second conference game for the Steers in Lamesa with the Golden Tornadoes Friday night. The score ran up 27-0 in favor of the Tornadoes. Some of the kids seen huddling against the cold watching the game were: Bobbie Adams, Jackie Jennings; Shirley Burnette, Autrey Burke; Gayle Price, Leonard Hartley; Dot Crittendon, J. C. Armistead; Maran Tinkem, Shirley McGinnis, Diana Farquhar, Shirley Wheat, Mary Lou Lepard, Anna May Thorp, Sue Robinson, Doris Brown, Jann Brooks and many more.

Latch On Those Goggles, We're Headin' For Space

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 4. (U)—Man is about to break the fetters that have bound him to earth for a million years. He is so close to flying into space that scientists, sponsored by the U. S. Air Force School of Aviation Medicine, are holding a symposium about it here beginning Tuesday, under the title, Upper Atmosphere and the Aeropause. The aeropause is the one where air is so thin it tails off into empty space. Our flyers are already up at heights which are military secrets but where, for the purposes of breathing, there is no air. Their equipment would take them all the way to Venus or Mars so far as air is concerned. They are at heights where the pressure is so low their blood would boil at normal body temperature, and their tissues swell them to twice normal size, but for the pressure in their cabins. The pressures are good enough to last them anywhere in the solar system. We have a rocket—the Viking—which outdoes the V-2, and could shoot from the moon to the earth. It cannot do the reverse trip, because earth's gravitation is too strong. We have shot a two-stage rocket to 250 miles, completely out in space. Our flyers already are running completely out of gravitation for short periods—about half a minute—when planes take a course bringing on centrifugal force to counterbalance the earth's pull. Our skyhook balloons—at 20 miles altitude—and rockets at 100 miles are sampling the radioactivity from cosmic rays which fliers will face when they go a little higher. Astronomers will bring their calculations to this meeting on the rain of dust-size shooting stars whose 40-miles-a-second speed makes them a menace. The symposium is held because some of the human problems of space flight already exist, and others will become urgent in a little while. Rocket engineers say the ships to fly into space for military purposes already are possible. That weak link is the unknown question—what can a man stand? The fetters which have made man earth-bound are air to breathe, heat and cold, gravitation and unknown dangers such as radioactivity and possibly dangerous rays of other sorts from the sun, and the shooting stars. The air fetter is completely broken. The heat problem is almost solved, for fliers already are at altitudes where there is not enough air to protect their ships from the direct rays of the sun. They suffer unbearable heat which is met by air-cooling inside the plane, and by reflecting the sun's rays off the ship's skin. The same means, with better reflecting metals on the outside, will protect a space ship from the sun's heat. Except in the earth's shadow, or the shadow of another planet, the problem will not be how to keep warm, but how to keep cool. Space itself has no temperature, because there is nothing to get hot, except an occasional grain of dust. The side of a ship facing the sun will be nearly as hot as boiling water, and the shady side will drop to a hundred degrees below freezing. The temperature differences will give a ship both heat control and power, thus breaking another link in the fetters. One of the studies this week is what will happen to us when there is no gravitation. Our bodies depend on gravitation for many things, but it is predicted we can do without this force surprisingly well. Breathing, eating, blood circulation and most physical functions will not be affected, because they are part of a closed system. That means our bodies supply their own power regardless of gravitation.

Sight Goal In C-Chest Campaign

The working phase of the Community Chest drive had come to an end, with the campaign goal in sight. Dr. J. E. Hogan, director of the campaign, left with Mrs. Hogan Friday for San Francisco, where he is to spend ten days at the convention of the American College of Surgeons. Before his departure, he made a final check of the fund is $773,211 short of its goal of $46,362. There are, however, commitments as to forthcoming gifts and some outstanding cards which should account for the deficit, said Hogan. "We haven't actually wrapped up the whole job," he said before his departure, "but we feel confident that gifts due within the next few days will mean a successful campaign." Hogan urged once more that those who still have reports to make, turn these in immediately. He also reminded that people can make volunteer contributions without waiting for a solicitor to call. "Try as we have, as have not contacted everyone," said the chairman. "But any good citizen wants to be identified with the Community Chest. We are asking that cash or pledges be turned in to the Chamber of Commerce, or mailed to the Big Spring Herald." A final report will be made to the Chest board of directors upon Hogan's return from the convention.

String Music Group To Entertain Vets

The Arkansas Valley Folk, Big Spring string music group, will be presented in a program at the VA hospital Wednesday. The all-music program is to start at 7 p.m. Also on tap for the entertainment of patients this week are three variety shows and a Friday night football game. The Military Order of Costies from Midland will visit the hospital to stage a variety program at 2 p.m. today. The Big Spring Music club will present a variety show at 7 p.m. Tuesday, and the Odessa Sheriff's posse will entertain patients with a similar program Thursday at 7 p.m. Patients will be taken to the Big Spring-Midland football game in Steer stadium Friday evening.

Students Get Practical Idea Of Cooperation

NEW YORK, Nov. 4. (U)—Four foreign and American students of New York University are learning first-hand about international cooperation by living with one of their instructors in his three-story Manhattan home. The boys handle the cooking and cleaning chores in addition to studying and entertaining together. They occupy the third floor of the house while Marketing Instructor, Robert M. St. Clair, occupies the first. The second floor is a mutually shared lounge. The boys have access to a large record collection and a 500-volume library. The foreign students, Bengtson So and Peter Gochan of the Philippine Islands, and Richard Crooks and Seymour March of the U. S., are all commerce majors. St. Clair feels that many of the problems of foreign trade could be solved through such a program. He also hopes to get a better insight into student views on education. He first hit upon the idea when he was unable because of his teaching schedule to commute daily to Petersham, Mass., where his wife and children live.

Most Dangerous Time Of Year For Walkers

CHICAGO, Nov. 4. (U)—The most dangerous time of year for pedestrians is here, said W. Dean Keeler, director of Public Safety. He cautioned drivers to reduce speed at dusk and asked pedestrians to be cautious at intersections. Pedestrian deaths are usually 40 per cent higher during the last three months of the year than the average of the first nine months, he says. Reasons for the startling increase in pedestrian fatalities are: The shift to dark winter clothing makes it hard to see the pedestrian. More traffic in hours of darkness. Increased holiday travel, shopping and drinking.

Big Spring --ADEQUATELY SUPPLIED WITH NATURAL GAS

for Commercial, Industrial and Domestic Use

BUILDING
-1951-

In the interest of building Big Spring, the following individuals, business, industrial and professional firms join in presenting this series of informative pages designed to show that Big Spring is a BETTER town.

Among the growing industries contributing to a BETTER Big Spring is that of natural gas supply, furnished to Big Spring along with neighboring communities, by the Empire Southern Gas Company. The company has come a long way in keeping pace with Big Spring's development. This is illustrated in the fact that the number of customers has practically doubled in the past decade . . . from 3,124 in 1940 to 6,113 at the first of this year. The company is, furthermore, in the midst of a big expansion program, expects to be serving more than 6,400 customers in the first of next year. Empire Southern supplies gas from its own wells in Andrews county, purchases other gas in the same area, and has a connection with the El Paso Natural Gas 12-inch line. Its transmission line capacity is being increased, and 15 miles of 10-inch line will be laid by 1952. The company currently is installing a six-inch main to the new Air Force Base, in addition to running distribution lines in every direction to take care of a fast-growing demand in Big Spring.

IMRE KOVACS

Imre Kovacs To Speak At K-F Meeting

The Balkan situation by one who knows it first-hand—that will be the subject presented to Knife and Fork Club members Tuesday evening.

Imre Kovacs, educated in Yugoslavia and regarded as one of the outstanding lecturers of the day will be the speaker.

Club Secretary Tom Rosson emphasized that dinner reservations must reach him by Monday. The meeting will be at 7:30 Tuesday evening at the Settles hotel.

Kovacs has been a naturalized American for years, and speaks perfect English. With his awareness of the philosophies of our government as contrasted to those of other countries, he is regarded as a leading spokesman for the American way of life, to which principles he is sincerely dedicated.

He has spent many years in the countries now behind the Iron Curtain, and will bring direct information on affairs of Middle Europe.

Kovacs has received training at Yale and the Juillard School of Music. He has toured the United States several times as a speaker.

This Man Dives Deep In Order To Get Fish

By NORMAN BELL
LA JOLLA, Calif., Nov. 4. (U.P.)—Deep-sea fishing is really deep for a young scientist here. He goes down as much as 200 feet to make a catch.

Conrad Limbaugh, 27, figures he has spent approximately 700 hours in the last three years down in the seaweed jungle which covers much of the ocean bottom off La Jolla. He is a student at the University of California's Scripps Institution of Oceanography. Working for a doctor's degree in zoology under Dr. Carl L. Hubbs.

Limbaugh, an extremely athletic looking scholar, has become a remarkable diver in the course of his studies. He uses his diving skill as a research tool.

The diver scholar carries light equipment, similar to that employed by Navy underwater demolition "Frogmen"—compressed air in a tank or tanks strapped to his back, a breathing device that feeds air to his mouth, and weights to balance his buoyancy under water.

He catches many fish, but that is only incidental. His principal object is a study of how fish live in the kelp (seaweed) beds and the effects of commercial kelp harvesting on fish life.

Limbaugh wanders through the help, which rises in a dense forest as high as 90 feet from the bottom. The jungle it forms is as real as any on land. Strange creatures lurk in its depths.

"I have had some big ones swim around me and give me fishy stares," says Limbaugh. None has attempted to attack him, although a sea lion once did take a nip at a net he was carrying.

Instead of trying to walk on the bottom, Limbaugh swims. "It's much easier," he explained. He has never been tangled in seaweed he couldn't break with his hands. He seldom carries a knife.

There are sharks in the area but not of the dangerous variety. Limbaugh caught a large one once by slipping a rope noose around its tail. Helpers hauled it to the surface.

The student scientist catches most of his fish to find out what they eat. He also catches specimens for the Scripps' Aquarium, using a net or his hands. He just puts the smaller ones in a bottle and brings them up.

MONDAY IS DEADLINE

Car Dealers Must Meet OPS Posting Requirement

Monday is the deadline for all automobile dealers who sell new passenger cars to meet the posting requirement of the new ceiling price regulation covering new car sales.

Hoyle Bowles, chief of the Industrial Materials and Manufactured Goods section of the district Office of Price Stabilization, reminded Saturday.

The regulation says that every retail dealer "must post in a conspicuous place on his premises, a notice not less than 18 inches by 24 inches in size, stating the make, body style, line or series and model of each new automobile offered for sale, and the ceiling price itemized to show the basic ceiling price for each particular body style in each line or series; the charge for transportation; the charge for federal excise tax; the charge for state or local taxes; the charge for handling and delivery; and the total ceiling price."

The regulation (CPR 83) became effective October 15, but dealers were given 20 days to meet the posting requirements.

This regulation, and others affecting the operations of automobile dealers will be discussed at a series of trade meetings planned in the next two weeks, Bowles said. Dealers of the South Plains will meet at 8 o'clock Thursday night, in Lubbock; Amarillo at 8 p.m. Tuesday, November 13; at Borger at 8 p.m. Wednesday, November 14; and in Pampa at 8 p.m. Thursday, November 15.

The following week another series of meetings will be held in the southern portion of the 69-county West Texas district. One will probably be scheduled for Big Spring.

Tobacco Yield Is Good On Land Also Used For Legumes

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 4. (U.P.)—A number of combinations of grasses and legumes can be used by farmers following a three-year rotation in growing tobacco, according to tests made at the University of Kentucky experiment station.

The experimenters grew tobacco one year and grasses and legumes for two years to determine the effect of these crops in maintaining nitrogen for tobacco.

The yield and market value of the tobacco from the various sods tested was virtually the same. It averaged 1,856 pounds an acre and had a value of $837 an acre.

Urges Restriction Of Japs In Malaya

SINGAPORE, Nov. 4. (U.P.)—Entry of Japanese into Malaya should be restricted in the opinion of P. F. de Souse, Singapore legislative councillor, just back from Japan.

De Souse stated on arrival that the Japanese were anxious to return to Malaya.

The consensus in Malaya is unfavorable to admission of Japanese. But he said their entry could be restricted by new immigration rules. Only essential Japanese institutions such as banks and shipping companies should be allowed re-establishment, while Japanese permitted entry should be key men.

Rogers' Gift, Drug, Hardware Adjunct To Open

With expansion of stocks in volume and variety, announcement is being made of the "grand opening" of Rogers' gift-drug-and-hardware store, an adjunct to Rogers' food store at 504 Johnson street.

The new division is in separate quarters which open off the grocery store, so that handy shopping is available for all customers.

The gift-and-drug department is marked by a variety of household items and appliances, drugs and cosmetics, toys, sports equipment, school supplies, special holiday gifts, decorations and wrappings.

"We have tried to offer a variety of practical and special items that are obtainable under one roof, particularly for the convenience of food shoppers," said Manager F. D. Rogers. "We invite all the public to call by and see our selections."

For the grand opening Monday, Rogers has announced special Dollar Day items, and also said there will be free balloons and marbles for the young folks.

Land Reform Laws May Increase Food Production In Malaya

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaya, Nov. 4. (U.P.)—Food production in the Federation of Malaya may increase through land reform measures coming up before the government.

The proposal is to provide suitable land tenure to farmers, thus guaranteeing them greater security.

At present more than 75 per cent of farmers till land belonging to owners who may, if they wish, take back the land for other purposes.

Proposed legislature will aim at fixing land rents and granting permanent titles to tenants on farm lands.

Catholic Pilgrimage

ST. JOHN, N. B. Nov. 4. (U.P.)—Plans for a maritime pilgrimage to the International Eucharistic Congress at Barcelona, Spain, next summer were announced by Most Rev. P. A. Bray, Roman Catholic bishop of St. John. Maritimers will join those from other parts of Canada sailing from Montreal May 9.

I HAVE TO LIVE IN THIS WORLD!

I'm just a little shaver—and it's big people like you who run the world.

But I sure do wish you would think about me, 'cause I have to live in this world when I grow up.

I know it's not your fault that things are the way they are. But if you want to give me a break, you might start improving the world now.

The Church up the street can help you improve yourself. And pretty soon I'll be there too, learning the lessons I need. And the family next door, we could invite them to go with us every Sunday. And the rest of the folks in town—we can give them a sample of what we believe by treating them the way we like to be treated ourselves.

Understand . . . I don't know all the answers. But God does! Just listen to Him—that's all I ask!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

GRIN AND BEAR IT

"... Delighted to have you for dinner, Gus... matter of knowing how to handle the little woman... it'll help if you don't talk back to her, either!"

Marines At War

Robert Ryan and John Wayne differ on battle plans in this scene from "Flying Leathernecks," Technicolor film at the Lyric today and Monday. The story dramatizes the airmen of the Marine Corps and the part they played in American victories.

Across The Border

Robert Preston and Mickey Rooney co-star in "My Brother The Outlaw," which is at the Terrace drive-in tonight and Monday. It's about adventuresome bandit-chasing in Mexico. Rooney is a youngster who finds his brother mixed up in unpleasant activities.

Romance In The West

Clark Gable turns some affectionate attention on Maria Elena Marques. They are the principals in a super-duper western, "Across The Wide Missouri," which holds forth in color at the Ritz theatre today and Sunday.

For A Gay Time

"Rich Young and Pretty" is the title of the Ritz theatre's attraction for Tuesday and Wednesday, and Vic Damone and Jane Powell, pictured here, are the principals in this story that goes in for a good time. The picture is in Technicolor.

Nine Part-Time Instructors Serve On Staff At HCJC

Nine part-time instructors are on the staff of Howard County Junior college to supplement regulars in providing evening courses. Now handling evening classes are Del McComb, English; A. Mack Rodgers, government and business law; G. M. McKeel, bookkeeping; Betty McGinnis, typing; Marshall Box, welding; M. R. Turner, introduction to business; and Trinidad Martinez Cano and Mrs. Dorothy Davis, basic preparatory courses for Latin-American veterans.

Hitchcock Puts Master Touch To Suspense Picture

The casual meeting of two strangers aboard a passenger train sets off a chain of fast action in the Ritz theatre's attraction for Thursday and Friday. Its title is "Strangers On A Train" and the suspense is created by that master of such things, Director Alfred Hitchcock. Farley Granger heads the stellar cast as a young man confronted with a romantic problem until he is approached by a stranger with an unusual offer which subsequently almost costs him his life. On the distaff side, Ruth Roman is the girl who becomes innocently involved in a murder plot from which she must also extricate the man she loves. Robert Walker appears as the sinister playboy who uses a disarming smile to disguise a paranoiac personality. To get the proper backgrounds, Director Hitchcock took his cast and crew to New York, Washington, D.C. and Danbury, Conn., where scenes were photographed at Pennsylvania Station, the Washington station, Jefferson Memorial, the Capitol Building and Arlington Bridge. Also, an entire side show and carnival, with amusement concessions and accompanying paraphernalia, were erected to buy the suspenseful chase sequence for "Strangers on a Train."

GABLE VS. INDIANS

'Wide Missouri' Is A Super-Western

The Mountain Men, the fabulous buckskinned trappers and Indian fighters who blazed a trail to the early West are the heroes in an outdoor epic, "Across The Wide Missouri." This is the feature, in Technicolor, at the Ritz theatre today and Monday.

The story is basically one of how the trappers had to combat the Indians, and how actual warfare had to come when all other efforts failed. Metro went all out to make this a super western, and the production called for a great location trip. The entire cast and crew, totaling more than 200 persons, were flown to the Durango, Colorado, location in chartered planes. Twenty-two truckloads of equipment, in addition to camera car, electric generators and special four-wheel-drive power trucks for mountain use, were required for the location filming. To house and feed the actors and technicians, a special tent city was erected.

Marine Fliers Are Dramatized In Lyric Picture

The story of the U. S. Marine Corps fliers and their gallant exploits in the South Pacific is told in "Flying Leathernecks," showing at the Lyric theatre today and Monday. The Technicolor picture stars John Wayne and Robert Ryan. Producer was Edmund Grainger, who is the bulleseye with another Marine picture called "Sands Of Iwo Jima."

More than a full year's research and preliminary preparation was required by Producer Robert Sisk to coordinate the giant production. The period of the story, 1952 to 1954, never before covered cinematically, called for extensive research in wardrobe and properties. The location sites, ranging from 9,000 to 14,000 feet and never before photographed, were selected personally by Director William A. Wellman, famous director of such hits as "Battle Ground" and the unusual "The Next Voice You Hear."

HIGHLIGHTS ON KBST

Texas Songs On Jack Berch Show

Texas gets the spotlight on Monday's Jack Berch Show, hear over KBST at 11 a.m. The Jack Berch presentation is a Monday-through-Friday quarter hour feature from ABC.

Other songs, human interest features and stories are on tap for this series during the week.

"I'm From Texas" and "Home On The Range" will be among Berch's selections for the day. These will be in honor of Jack Dunn, a Texan who announces the program.

SERMON ON THE MOUNT
The seventh dramatization based on the Sermon on the Mount, entitled "Seek Ye First The Kingdom," will be aired on The Greatest Story Ever Told. This is an ABC-KBST presentation scheduled for 4:30 p.m. today.

A&M Exes Due To Form Club

Texas A. & M. ex-students in the Big Spring area are going to form their own club. Application will be made for a charter, it was decided at a Thursday evening meeting. A club had been organized here for several years but after World War II, local former Aggies combined with the Permian Basin group. In addition to chartering their own club, men who at one time or another attended Texas A. & M. are planning on joining the Aggie film library. This will mean that they will have films of the top games a week or 10 days after they are played. Still another activity under consideration is the establishment of a local Aggie scholarship.

HCJC Plant Is Nearing Finish

Steadily, the Howard County Junior College plant is nearing completion. A good part of the auditorium stage equipment has been received and the building is now being used, according to the president, E. C. Dodd. Gymnasium seats have arrived but have not been installed. Work around the grounds and on the installation of driveways is still underway. While formal dedication will not be held for some time yet, college officials are anxious for the public to visit whenever it is convenient. "We are anxious for the people to come and see what they have provided," said Dodd.

Here's another of those gay musical pieces to brighten the Ritz screen Tuesday and Wednesday. It's "Rich, Young And Beautiful," and the cast includes Jane Powell, Danielle Darrieux, Wendell Corey, Fernando Lamas and Vic Damone. It's an introductory picture for Damone, the singing star of the radio. The story is laid against a background of Paris in the Spring. Its principals are a Texas rancher whose French wife had deserted him 20 years before the story begins, and their now grown-up and attractive daughter who has never known her mother and believes her to be dead. The plot complications arise when the rancher has to take a trip to Paris and takes his daughter with him—there to encounter the former wife, now a nightclub star. The young gal finds herself a young Frenchman, too, to add to the story interest.

Baptist Laymen To Hear Wayland Prexy On Monday

Baptist laymen in and around Big Spring, together with their wives, will hear Dr. J. W. (Bill) Marshall, president of Wayland College at Plainview here Monday.

He speaks to the gathering at 7:30 p.m. in the First Baptist auditorium, and his message will follow a brief fellowship hour in the church basement. It is the First Baptist Brotherhood meeting night, but all Brotherhoods in the city and area have been invited to participate.

Dr. Marshall's story is one of rise from newsboy to college president. He was born in a covered wagon near Ada, Okla. He is an alumnus of the University of Kansas, Texas Christian University, Baylor University and Southwestern Theological Seminary. Hardin-Simmons honored him in 1943 with a Doctor of Divinity degree.

For five years, from 1938-43, he served as state Baptist Student Union secretary. Then he became first personnel secretary of the Baptist foreign mission board.

Dr. and Mrs. Marshall went to China in 1940 to help lead in the China-wide Baptist young people's conference in Shanghai. During the past summer, he and Dr. Arch McMillan, former head of public relations at Wayland, toured Formosa, Hong Kong, Japan, Manila and the Hawaiian Islands to preach and to gather material for a book and motion pictures. On this tour he talked with many of Free China's leaders, including President and Mrs. Chiang Kai-shek. He also has toured in Mexico. His talk Monday will deal principally with his Formosa trip this year.

Ex-Senate Chaplain Book A Best-Seller

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4. (AP)—When Dr. Peter Marshall, popular Washington pastor and chaplain of the U. S. Senate, died in 1949, his widow sought bravely but without avail to "understand why it had to be him."

"He was a man through whom God was working in this modern world," says Mrs. Catherine Wood Marshall in her biography of her husband, "A Man Called Peter," which has just been published. "He was only 46 and had a tremendous potential. I tried and tried, and when I couldn't figure it out I decided, as the Biblical verse tells us, that all things work together for good."

She says she first found this to be true when "Mr. Jones, Meet the Master," a collection of her husband's prayers and excerpts from sermons he delivered at the Presbyterian Church which Abraham Lincoln had attended, met with wide and immediate success. Mrs. Marshall edited the book, a best-seller.

"That book of prayers and sermons has helped far more people than Peter would have been able to preach to in a full lifetime. I have had doors opened to me that people struggle a lifetime to have opened," she said, referring to being put under contract to write her book.

Her only previous writing experience had been when she helped her husband prepare his sermons. "A Man Called Peter," she explains, is the story behind the story behind the sermons. It begins with their courtship. Mrs. Marshall, born in Johnson, Tenn., met the young Scottish-born clergyman while she was a student at Agnes-Scott College in Georgia and he was pastor of the Westminster Church in Atlanta.

"About six dates, four chaperones and a dozen months later, we were engaged," she writes. The wedding was performed at Keyser, W. Va., by Mrs. Marshall's father, the Rev. John A. Wood, now pastor of the Holmes Presbyterian Church, Seaview, Va.

The couple came to Washington on their wedding night and in the morning met with the pastoral committee of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, which invited Dr. Marshall to be their new pastor. "Looking back," Mrs. Marshall says, "I know that it was altogether typical that our married life began with a church committee meeting."

Dr. Marshall, who came to the church in 1937, was named chaplain of the Senate in 1947. Born in Coatbridge, Scotland, he ran away to sea at 14. He worked in steel mills and a foundry and dug ditches before he began studying for the ministry after coming to this country in 1927.

Mrs. Marshall started her book just a little over a year ago while vacationing with her son Peter, 12, at their Cape Cod cottage. She had 45,000 advance orders for it before it was off the press.

More Deportations

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia, Nov. 4. (AP)—The federal government of Malaysia is deporting 390 aliens and 21 British subjects under regulations prevailing during the present state of emergency. This makes a total deportation of 2,799 aliens and 90 British subjects since the first of this year.

SHE STILL GLITTERS

Gotta Be Careful When Visiting Mae

By MARK BARRON

NEW YORK, Nov. 4. (AP)—When you call on Mae West backstage at the Broadway theatre where she is still starring in her everlasting "Diamond Lil," two changes will come over you by the time you bid her "good night"—unless you take precautions.

The first precaution is to wear dark glasses or else you will emerge blinded from the glitter of diamonds, some real and some imitation, which she wears as part of her costumes. True it is that when she recently reopened on Broadway in this perennial play, she wore for a single night a collection of jewels worth over $600,000. But she returned those to the store after that one evening and went back to her own display.

The second precaution you should take off visiting her is to put on a double pair of dark glasses or you'll emerge from the stage door walking with a sink that will have the boys whistling at you.

Certainly recognized as one of the world's greatest authorities on the frailties of men, Miss West said that she liked to pick men by their moods.

About Gen. MacArthur, she said "I could listen to his wonderful, dramatic voice for hours and feel history happening to me."

About Stalin, the Russian dictator, she isn't so kind. "Joe's a very mixed up man," she said. "He would only have to come up and see me just once. I could straighten him out."

She also thinks she could tell Dr. Kinsey a lot of things he hasn't heard about yet. "Everybody knows I've done considerable research on sex myself," she explained. "It's a very fascinating subject—and so human. And to think 'sex' used to be a word women wouldn't whisper."

She likes Mario Lanza's singing, saying that his vocal chords are suggestive of atomic energy. "Maybe he has found the Lost Chord," she summed up.

As for Senator Kefauver and his investigations, she tossed him aside with "I've investigated men all my life and some of what I've found wouldn't go on TV."

Miss West is an enthusiastic sports fan, especially for baseball and horse racing. "When you're in the mood for the small and perfect, a great jockey fills the bill," she said. "Johnny Longden is my choice. He is poetry in motion."

Young Korean Girl Also Mines Roads

FIRST MARINE DIVISION, Korea, Nov. 4. (AP)—A young North Korean girl, who admitted mining several roads behind the Marine lines on the east-central front, was captured by Korean Marines in a hut containing several cases of dynamite.

A South Korean captain became suspicious of her well-fed appearance and clean clothing in a land where rags and starvation are the rule. A search of the hut revealed the dynamite and she confessed being a trained Communist demolition agent.

OSTER
Synopsis: "MY LIFE OF ADVENTURE BEGAN WHEN MY SIRE, PRINCE VALIANT, RETURNED FROM HIS LONG QUEST AND DISCOVERED THAT I HAD BECOME A MAN-ALMOST. I DECIDED TO BE HIS TRUSTED COMPANION AND WE WOULD GO QUESTING TOGETHER."

"WHILE HE WAS INSPECTING THE HORSES I TRIED TO PICK ONE OUT FOR MYSELF, BUT THEY WERE ALL SO TERRIBLY BIG!"

"NEXT WE HAD TO GO TO THE RIVER TO SEE IF THE SALMON WERE RUNNING YET. THIS WAS THE FIRST TIME I HAD BEEN OUTSIDE THE CASTLE GROUNDS."

"I STOPPED TO BATTLE A HORDE OF DAVES WITH GOLDEN HELMETS, AND SLEW HUNDREDS"
"WHEN I REACHED THE RIVER MY SHIELD SLIPPED OFF MY ARM AND I HAD TO CLIMB DOWN THE CLIFF TO GET IT. MY FATHER WAS NOWHERE IN SIGHT."

"BUT SOME PEOPLE ACROSS THE RIVER WERE AWFULLY EXCITED. I COULD NOT HEAR WHAT THEY WERE SHOUTING, FOR THE RIVER ROARS ANGRY HERE."
"I STARTED HOME, BUT THE WAY WAS VERY LONG AND STRANGE. THE CASTLE WAS NOT WHERE I LEFT IT, BUT I COULD HEAR PEOPLE CALLING MY NAME IN THE DISTANCE."

"I WAS HUNGRY AND MET A BEAST THAT LOOKED HUNGRY TOO! CLOSE AT HAND I COULD HEAR MY SIRE SHOUTING AND THE THUNDER OF HOOPS."

"THEN A SPEAR HURTLED BY AND THE BEAST FELL. MY SIRE, THE PRINCE, HELD ME VERY TIGHT AS WE GALLOPED HOME"

"SOON I WAS SAFE IN MOMMIE'S ARMS WHERE NO HARM CAN EVER TOUCH ME. IN A STRANGE, TIGHT LITTLE VOICE SHE SAID TO MY FATHER: 'SOON ENOUGH HE WILL HAVE THE LOOK OF EAGLES AND THEN YOU WILL TAKE HIM OUT INTO THE WORLD AND TEACH HIM MAN'S WAYS. UNTIL THEN HE'S MINE!'"
NEXT WEEK - The Treaty.

I DON'T CARE WHAT THE MUSTY OLD LAW BOOKS SAY - IT ISN'T RIGHT - IT ISN'T FAIR - AND JUST NOBODY CAN TELL ME --

I'M NOT TELLING YOU - I'VE RETIRED FROM ACTIVE LAW PRACTICE -- I CAN ONLY QUOTE YOU THE STATUTES -

BUT ISN'T THERE SOME LOOPHOLE, OR...?

PERHAPS SOME YOUNG, ACTIVE LAWYER MIGHT DISCOVER A LEGAL SCISSORS THAT WOULD CUT THE RED TAPE, BUT IT WON'T BE EASY -

HARD OR EASY, WE'LL FIND A WAY - THE FOG-BRAINED OLD FOSSILS ON THE SCHOOL BOARD SAY ANNIE ROONEY CANNOT GO TO SCHOOL BECAUSE SHE IS A HOMELESS ORPHAN -

THAT IS THE LAW

THE LEGAL WAY IS - TAKE THE ORPHAN TO THE COURTHOUSE - SHE WILL BECOME LEGALLY A WARD OF THE COURT - PLACED IN A COUNTY INSTITUTION --

A COUNTY INSTITUTION? YOU MEAN THE COUNTY ORPHANAGE?

WE COULD NEVER DO THAT - IT WOULD BREAK HER HEART -

BUT WHY CAN'T WE GO TO SCHOOL LIKE THE OTHER CHILDREN? WHY...?

I GUESS THERE'S TOO MANY KIDS OR NOT ENOUGH SCHOOLS - IT'S JUST LIKE THE MOVIES - IF THEY HAVE A TERRIBLE GOOD PICTURE, YOU GOTTA STAND IN LINE TO GET IN -

TARZAN

By Edgar Rice Burroughs

"THESE MEN ARE A SECRET SOCIETY OF CANNIBALS," SHUDDERED MATO. "AND TO SATISFY RELIGIOUS RITES THEIR VICTIMS MUST DIE UNDER THE CLAWS OF THE PANTHER."
"HERE IS THEIR SPOOR," INTERRUPTED THE WHITE MAN, UNSHAKEN. "COME."

THE NATIVE MARVELED AT THE BRONZED GIANT'S PROWESS, BUT WHY WAS HE HELPING HIM? COULD THIS BE A PROTECTING SPIRIT--HIS NAMESAKE? "BUSH SPIRIT!" CALLED MATO, EXCITEDLY.

"WERE YOU ADDRESSING ME?" ASKED THE STRANGER. "YES, BUSH SPIRIT," ANSWERED MATO, HOPEFULLY. "VERY WELL, BUT NOW YOU MUST BE SILENT," SAID THE WHITE MAN. "WE ARE NEARING THE ENEMY!"

BEFORE MATO HAD A CHANCE TO REVEL OVER HIS NEWLY ACQUIRED "BUSH SPIRIT"-- A WEIRD APPARITION LEAPED FROM THE FOLIAGE!

TARZAN SPUN ABOUT AT MATO'S SCREAM, BUT THREE OTHER HIDEOUS CREATURES PRESSED FORWARD, THEIR STEEL TALONS OPENED, CLAWLIKE, TO SEIZE HIM-- PANTHER MEN!
