Armistice Proposal Rebuffed By Moscow

By EDWARD E. BOMAR WASHINGTON, Oct. 18. (AP)—Moscow has rebuffed a secret United States proposal that she act to bring about an armistice in Korea, offering instead to talk over the general causes of East-West tension.

Initial State Department reaction was that this offer was propaganda, but the wording of the Russian note was such as to set off guessing among diplomats as to whether the Kremlin is sincere.

Moscow and the State Department disclosed Wednesday night that Ambassador Alan G. Kirk on Oct. 5 made the approach for Soviet intervention to end the deadlock between United Nations negotiators and the Communists.

Vishinsky also questioned the good faith of assurances from Kirk that the United States and its Western Allies are arming only for defense and have no "aggressive designs" on Russia or any nation.

The rebuff convinced top American officials that at the moment Moscow is not interested in confidential negotiations like those which ended the Berlin blockade.

They labeled Vishinsky's response "propaganda."

Then he went on to assure Vishinsky that the West is rearming "for defense and defense alone."

Allies Occupy Abandoned Hills In West Korea

By The Associated Press U. S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Oct. 18. (AP)—Chinese, suddenly abandoned a series of key hills in Western Korea to attacking Americans today.

The unopposed advance placed the cavalry troops about two miles in front of their positions at Oct. 5 when the U. N. Western offensive started.

A front line officer said the operation "to all practical intents and purposes is complete."

Observers said the Chinese apparently had pulled most of their forces out of the once bustling road junction.

South of the city Chinese resistance stiffened against attacking Allied infantrymen. U. N. troops captured two key hills south and southwest of Kumsong and inched forward against Reds on a ridge blocking their way to the town.

Three Allied divisions punched out gains of a quarter to three-quarters of a mile in the heaviest action of the week-old offensive.

A front line despatch reported at least 200 Chinese were killed trying to escape from a trap on encircled Fortress Mountain.

Hoover said the alleged frauds total more than $350,000.

In the past 10 months, he added, FBI investigations have resulted in the arrest of more than 300 persons charged with veterans school frauds totaling close to $1 million.

Work Continues C-Chest Is $4,000 Short Of Its Goal

The Community Chest looked at latest figures at a "final" report meeting Wednesday evening. These figures showed a deficit of almost exactly $4,000 in the 1951 fund campaign.

So, the faithful few who were on hand to handle the tabulations decided that this wasn't the final report at all; the effort will go on until the goal is met.

The Chest needs $46,326 to meet its year's obligations to the four participating welfare agencies. On hand in cash and pledges last night was $42,355.

Hogan and his principal directors will meet the first of the week to take another sounding and organize a cleanup drive, if that is necessary.

Today in Cairo, a shouting street mob of 3,000 demonstrated in front of Shepheard's Hotel, displaying newspaper front pages carrying pictures of rioting at Ismailia and Port Said.

The Cairo newspaper Al Misri said that by seizing the bridge the British had cut the canal area off from the rest of Egypt.

Egyptian censors held up news of Wednesday's clash for 24 hours. It started about 2 a. m., according to the British version, and lasted 15 minutes.

The present bridge is a swinging structure that is pulled to the canal side when not in use.

The papers gave prominence to a statement by fiery Interior Minister Fouad Serrag Eddin blaming the British for inciting disturbances.

COMMISSIONER DECLARES Destruction Of Power Policy Would Ruin Reclamation Plan

By VERN HAUGLAND
AMARILLO, Oct. 18. (U) — Reclamation Commissioner Michael Sproul said today that destruction of the federal power policy would be the ruin of the reclamation program.

Sproul told the National Reclamation Association, in the major convention address, that the reclamation bureau's power program, which pays a major part of the reclamation project's costs, is a particular target of "gathering attacks from the outside."

Sproul spoke in the wake of attacks by the association's two top officials — President Harry Polk and Secretary-Manager William Walsh — upon valley authorities and on some of the findings of President Truman's Water Resources Policy Commission.

Polk, addressing more than 700 water users and reclamationists from 17 Western states, hit at the administration's approach toward establishment of a water policy "through the water resources commission, special subcommittees, new federal commissions or consolidated federal agencies."

He said it added up to a single aim of "taking from the people of America the constitutional authority delegated to the states, robbing us of our free enterprise system, and substituting therefor a socialistic era controlled wholly by paternalistic, centralized federal authority in our national capital."

Polk said the new proposal before Congress for a nine-man review board for the Missouri and Columbia River basins next week, has five members from the Deep South, two from Michigan and "only two from the region under study." The subcommittee is headed by Rep. Jones of Alabama, who Polk called a "well-known valley authority advocate."

Sproul said he feared the motive behind it "would do nothing less than ruin our reclamation program."

The association president also complained that the House public works subcommittee, which is to start an inspection tour of major projects in the Missouri and Columbia River basins next week, has five members from the Deep South, two from Michigan and "only two from the region under study." The subcommittee is headed by Rep. Jones of Alabama, who Polk called a "well-known valley authority advocate."

State Police Seek Reds Without Alibi

AUSTIN, Oct. 18. (U) — Seen a Communist lately? The state police haven't. At least, they haven't seen any they could prove were Communists beyond a shadow of a doubt.

That's the kind of Communist that State Police Chief Homer Garrison Jr. is interested in catching: One who is so "Red" that he (or she) can't successfully deny it on the witness stand.

Anxious to clean out subversive influences, the 51st Legislature passed a Communist control bill this year. The law, effective Feb. 27, requires Communists to register with the State Department of Public Safety if they have been in Texas as long as five days.

If there were any Communists lurking in the Lone Star State, they hit for cover faster than a gun-bully bound in the middle of a Fourth of July fireworks barrage.

"We're making constant investigations, but as far as we know, there's certainly no real organized Communist activity in Texas now," Garrison told a reporter.

Federal and state anti-Communist legislation has forced a "decided slowdown on Communists all over the country," Garrison said.

If the state police and prosecuting officers ever find a real Communist who has failed to register, he faces rough penalties: a fine of $1,000 to $10,000 or a two-to-ten-year prison sentence.

Highland Wins Over Wolf B

COLORADO CITY, Oct. 17. — Highland's Hornets stung the Colorado City "B" team, Tuesday night with two quick stabs and added a point on a pass to win 13-12.

Highland is a B district school located near Maryland; the Hornets are coached by Hubert McCleskey, a McMurry graduate.

Colorado City's B squad is coached by Rex Klepper.

Holla Gaineys scored the first Colorado City marker early in the first quarter on an 80-yard run. The plunge for point failed, and the Cee City team led 6-0.

Highland knotted the count after the interception of a Colorado City aerial setting up a run by James Quinney from the 25-yard line for the six points. The try for point was no good and the score at the quarter 6-6.

After the half, with Bud Windham and Gaineys pounding for yardage, the ball was worked down to the six-inch line. On fourth down, Jim Shortliff scored for the Highland County team on a quarterback sneak. The try for point was no good but the little Wolves led 12-6.

Highland's Senior James Quinney scored again in the fourth quarter to tie and a pass from Dwayne Blair to Garland Dixon for the point made it 12-12, the final figure.

Porkers Picked To Upset UT

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
NEW YORK, Oct. 18. (U) — Four weeks of upsets have convinced most gridiron followers that football, and football forecasts, are made of some animal, some vegetable and many minerals such as can be found in the air.

With that warning, here are this week's winners:

California over Southern California: Southern California engineered one minor miracle by beating Washington.

Tennessee over Alabama: On Sept. 1 there was every indication that this would be the game of the year. But it has lost a lot of its luster.

Michigan State over Penn State: The Spartans have won their last two with fourth quarter scoring outbursts. They had better have an outburst per quarter against Penn State.

Arkansas over Texas: This selection definitely is against all the odds but the choice is made in the belief that Arkansas is hopped up for this contest.

Georgia Tech over Auburn: The biggest surprise here is that both clubs go into this one undefeated, Auburn having lost 10 straight last year.

Texas A&M over Texas Christian: Fullback Bob Smith makes the difference.

Maryland over North Carolina: Few teams in the country have the all-around talent of Maryland.

Illinois over Washington: Johnny Karas and Don Stevens give the unbeaten Illini too much punch for Washington.

Baylor over Texas Tech: Too much Isbell.

TEXAS BRANDS OZ UTT

By JOHN M. HENDRIX

Another brand in the Henrietta country that was very prominent and highly typical of a man's name to whom it belonged was the OZ brand given by Newt Ooze of the Henrietta section.

Equally expressive was the UTT brand given by the Utt brothers who ranged in the Henrietta country.

Henrietta grew to be a flourishing cowtown, drawing its customers from the ranches and ranges around it. It was the railroad point and court point for country extending west to the New Mexico line.

The first term of District Court was held in 1878 by Judge Lindsey of Gainesville and is said to have tried Chief White Horse of the Kiowa Indians for the murder of a family along the Little Wichita River. This is not substantiated, however, unless the blood thirsty Chieftain was tried in absentia for Indian records show that at that time he was on a raid in the Antelope Hills, far to the northwest, and was exiled to Florida before he could be brought to trial for the Henrietta murder charges.

Texas GOP Would Take Taft Over Ike

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 18. (AP)—A Republican Party official here says Texas Republicans would support Sen. Robert A. Taft rather than Gen. Dwight Eisenhower at the Grand Old Party's national convention.

Mary McLean, San Antonio oil man and a member of the party's national finance committee, was quoted in a copyrighted story of the San Antonio Express.

The local political leader also said he believes Sen. Taft would run a better race against President Truman than the famed general. "I believe a majority of the Texas Republican organization is for Taft. I believe Eisenhower will drop out rather than engage in a knock-down-drag-out fight in the convention.

McLean said Eisenhower arranged a meeting in McLean's San Antonio office last year and the two discussed Eisenhower's chances as a presidential candidate in 1952.

"He told me," McLean said, "that he was a Republican and had been all his life and that he would accept the presidential nomination if tendered him."

"But he gave me the impression that he would not walk across the street to get the nomination."

"I told Eisenhower that I did not think the nomination would come his way without a fight," said McLean, who added that he always supported Taft.

Businessman Leaves Eyes To Sight Restoration Bank

NEW YORK, Oct. 18. (AP)—A dead Texas businessman's eyes — cushioned by damp sponges and packed in cracked ice — arrived here Wednesday night for the aid of some blind person.

The eyes were a legacy of Joe E. Eiter of Sherman, who died there Wednesday at the age of 80. He was a prominent Baptist layman.

The eyes were removed by a Sherman physician with the consent of Eiter's grandson, Thomas L. Eiter of Manhattan.

Arriving by air express from Dallas, the eyes were dispatched to the Bank for Sight Restoration.

The elder Eiter was co-owner and board chairman of the Hardwick-Eiter Cotton Gin Manufacturing Company, of Sherman. He was born near the present site in Sherman of the Hardwick-Eiter Co., which he and the late George Hardwick founded in 1900.

Eiter will be buried Friday at 2:30 p.m. in Sherman. Funeral services will be in the First Baptist Church.

He was president of his company for many years and at the time of his death was chairman of the board.

The company developed one of the earliest cotton cleaners in the South and at one time exported quantities of farm machinery to European countries, including Russia.

AFTER EVICTION

San Antonio Couple Sleep On The Lawn

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 18. (AP)—Elderly, bearded George Thayer and his wife slept on the grassy lawn of their apartment house Thursday night when officers refused them permission to enter their quarters.

Thayer and his wife, Gertrude, were legally run out of the residence by the city Thursday. Police used smoke bombs to dispossess them. The couple was jailed, but released about 7:30 p.m.

They had been given an eviction notice by the city and a check for $45,000 was made out to Thayer for his house. The old man told a reporter that he would not accept the check.

"The government would take most of it in taxes and we couldn't live out the rest of our lives on the remainder," was his plaintive argument.

A 24-hour watch has been posted on Thayer by the police department. When he returned to his house, he was not allowed to enter. A pillow was supplied and the old man curled up on the grass in front of the house. He went to sleep.

Mrs. Thayer joined her husband around midnight.

Earlier the aged Thayer said he was worried about his wife. She had broken loose from three nurses at the Robert B. Green Hospital after being returned with her husband to the hospital for a re-check of their condition from the smoke bombing.

Folks attending church near the apartment house walked past the old man, offering assistance or a pat on the shoulder. There were many offers to buy his dinner. He refused them all.

Thayer's property has been condemned to make way for the city's river straightening project.

It took eight tear-gas shells and two hand grenades, plus a fire ax and about two dozen men to remove the couple.

After the lower floor of the three apartment frames house in which the Thayers lived was saturated with tear gas and a front door was chopped down, Thayer and his wife came out. Both, especially Thayer, were unbothered and unscathed.

Police said force was used only after elaborate efforts were made to persuade Thayer to yield possession without trouble.

A Bible Thought For Today—

We show small respect for the hallowed ceremony by making it common or casual. We hold it as a sacrament, it should not be degraded by boisterous license and levity. "How comest thou in hither not having a wedding garment?" — Matt. 22:12.

Don't Hesitate To Report Trash Dumpers Who Clutter Up Our City

A recent letter complained about dumping of trash in a man-made arroyo in the central-eastern part of the city. Not having had business in or about the canyon lately, we couldn't appreciate correctly conditions to which the complainant referred.

Presumably there is dumping of trash there, but probably mostly or entirely by private individuals. People have a habit of taking any sizeable bits or bits, slightly out of sight, as simple license of dodging the long trip to the city dump.

Tidelands Measure Goes Over On Downs In Rush For Adjournment

The status of tideland legislation is that Congress won't find time to do anything more about it this year, so it must be carried over to 1952. This was the word out of Washington this week. The House acted several months ago, but the legislation is bogged down in the Senate Interior Affairs committee, headed by Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.).

Worker-Capitalism Rears Ugly Head In West Plywood Industry

WASHINGTON. — There are some interesting backstage reasons why Republican senators are so insistent that Guy Gabrielson resign as chairman of the Republican National committee.

In the 1946 election and appeared sure-winner of the presidency in 1948. Carthage Hydrocol was organized to make gasoline out of methane gas, which is the dry part of natural gas and which never before has been used for gasoline.

What worries Republican senators about the Gabrielson loan is that Carthage Hydrocol appeared not to have carried a loan at all. Its owners include some of the most powerful companies in the U. S. Forrestal Diaries — Number 20

President Truman Stands Firm On A $15 Billion Budget For The Military

20. THE BATTLE OF THE BUDGET

On the eve of the 1948 election Forrestal was absorbed in an attempt to put together an adequate military budget for the fiscal year 1949-'50. Here he was trapped between the President's insistence upon a rigid $15 billion "ceiling" and the refusal of the Joint Chiefs to allocate — and so take responsibility for — anything remotely with in that limit.

but I suspect you (the Army) have got to... The sentence is unfinished in the transcript. ARGUES FOR INTERMEDIATE FIGURE (Once a division of a $15 billion budget was agreed upon, "the next step," Forrestal continued, was to take the Services' own concept of their needs. It was necessary to see what between the McNarney figure and the $15 billion figure "would give you a possible force that could jump off if war came.")

Here was the point Forrestal wished to drive home. He had raised the matter "simply to bring out the absurdity" to which the presidential ceiling led, when the problem was stated, as he wanted the Joint Chiefs to state it, in functional terms. On the $15 billion limit they could "certainly" mount an air offensive from Britain; but that was all they could do, and in that case all the rest of the Military Establishment became useless.

HOW POLICIES ARE FORMED

Forrestal hoped for Marshall's support, because of the Secretary of State's obvious need for stronger backing for his diplomatic efforts. But Marshall, his mind fixed on UMT and on the importance of getting arms into the hands of the Europeans, seemed to feel there was no hurry about augmenting the American regular forces, and gave little help.

Whether you can get that done in the next two weeks, I do not know. I hope very much that you can, because if you could come up in the Joint Chiefs — saying we are agreed upon this second concept, whether it is $17.5 or $18 billion, and we will go to the Congress and back this one, it would have a tremendous effect for the country and a tremendous gain in stature for the JCS, which I think is more important, I shall be out of here within one, two or three months, but I think, as a citizen, it is most vitally important that the concept of the JCS not lose face with the country.

Political observers have pointed out that even if he has decided not to be a candidate, he must act as if he were one in order to keep control of the party reins. Popularity Up Slightly His ultimate decision may depend to a great extent on how much pressure is put nable, yet they fall in reality. We can only blame this on the poor leadership, apparent lack of a 100 per cent desire to win and an extremely potent fifth column. Now take a look at Russia during the dire days of the Hitlerian invasion. The vaunted Nazi armies moved steadily, to be sure, but their early gains were largely lands of little strategic importance.

Eighty Percent Of Voters Think Truman Will Run For President

By GEORGE GALLUP Director, American Institute of Public Opinion

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 18. — Although President Truman's popularity continues at a low level in the latest nationwide test by the Institute, a large increase has taken place in the number of voters who think he will seek office again next year.

on him from within the ranks of the Democratic party. His popularity with the nation's voters, although greater than it was last June, is still far below the great heights he enjoyed when he started his second term in January, 1949.

Table showing poll results: Truman will run 80%, Will not run 11%, No opinion 9%. Also includes a table for party affiliation: Democrat 53%, Republican 29%, Independent 17%.

This marks a slight gain since August, when a similar survey found 81 per cent approving, 57 per cent disapproving and 12 per cent undecided. "A little over a year ago, at the beginning of the Korean war, the proportion expressing approval was 46 per cent. At the start of his present term of office it was 69 per cent."

And Why Not A Nylon Corsage?

It's a good idea, according to Mrs. H. S. Hanson who models one which she made from a pair of old nylon hose... This one, a soft rust shade with dark green leaves, is a fitting accompaniment to any ensemble.

Nylon Hose Corsages Demonstrated To HD

Mrs. H. S. Hanson and Mrs. Alben Hull showed Center Point Home Demonstration club members how to make corsages from nylon stockings in a meeting Tuesday afternoon.

According to Mrs. Hanson, the stockings must first have all color removed, then be dyed any shade preferred.

They are cut into small squares, each of these being gathered over copper screen wire ravelling which has been shaped into flower petals. When enough petals are thus composed, they are gathered onto a central wire stem and wrapped with florastape.

Leaves are made in the same manner, each being wrapped in separate stems. Then the flowers and leaves are tied with regular corsage ribbon.

Mrs. Hanson demonstrated two of her own before the club members made 10 more Tuesday. One was an original in rust and the other, yellow jonquils.

Also during the meeting Mrs. Ernest Hull was elected as a council alternate delegate and Mrs. A. A. McKinney, Mrs. Wesley Carroll and Mrs. J. E. Wood were named living room demonstrators for next year.

Mrs. W. F. Heckler was a visitor during the afternoon. Also 11 members were present.

New Wallpaper Changes Color Scheme Of Kitchen

By EL Z'ATH HILLIER

Smart new wallpapers quickly change the kitchen to a new color scheme without a change of anything else. The room looks entirely different once it's out of its ordinary kitchen red, green, yellow or blue with white and into the new colors and color combinations that help in any room in the house. Don't ask to see typical kitchen papers, — look at everything in the books. Decide on colors the kitchen never wore before and on patterns that are a complete change from stand-pat mixing bowls and spoons, flower pots, fruits and vegetables. A different style might be like the one sketch. It features apples and trees, ideas that might be used for more typical kitchen patterns, but in a new arrangement and colors that are very different from the red and green on site. The background is a soft brown, the apples yellow, leaves white and green, tree trunks black. Other kitchen changing patterns are stylized flowers, leaves and geometrics with color schemes: navy blue, white and pink; turquoise blue and brown; bitter-sweet, white and gray; red, brown and white; yellow, rust and gray; lime, black and white.

"WHAT'S WRONG WITH THAT ROOM?" is Elizabeth Hillier's new booklet, just out in time to help with the new decorating ideas in 14 chapters covering room faults and a step-by-step course in practical decorating. Plans are a complete address envelope and 15 cents with your request for the booklet to Miss Hillier at the Spring Herald.

Economy Called Answer To US Financial Woes

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18. (U)—The lone Texan voting against the tax bill when it was rejected Tuesday in the House says he thinks economizing is the answer to the government's financial problems.

"There are plenty of places we can cut expenses and save as much as that five billion dollar plus tax bill," said Rep. Walter Rogers, Democrat from Pampa in an interview.

"Recently we appropriated $50 billion for the military. In my opinion they could slash their expenditures by 10 per cent without hurting the national defense. That savings would make the amount sought in this new tax bill, which would add an additional 11 per cent to the tax burden already carried by the people of this country."

Rogers said he had opposed the recent $8 billion foreign aid bill, and observed that it alone had added more than the new tax measure would have provided. He said he was in favor of the government's paying its way as it goes — but that it should achieve the end by cutting down expenses.

Russians Accused In Ship's Bombing

BELFAST, Northern Ireland, Oct. 18. (U)—A British sea captain today accused Russian airplanes of making an unprovoked bombing attack on his ship near the Soviet port of Archangel last Sept. 14.

Soviet sea planes dropped three bombs but none hit, Capt. Leslie Gow of the 3,558-ton freighter "Berystone" told reporters.

British intelligence agents interviewed him when the vessel returned from Russia this morning.

In London, the admiralty and the foreign office said they had heard of Gow's statements but could not yet comment.

sibility that the Soviets had failed to identify the approaching ship and were trying to warn her away from Archangel.

British vessels ply regularly between the Arctic port and the United Kingdom in carrying on Anglo-Soviet trade.

Gow said he made a report later to Soviet authorities but received no explanation. Britain has no consulate at Archangel, so no immediate report to the British government was possible, he explained.

Gow told this story of the bombing: The planes appeared overhead at about 4 a. m. local time, about ten miles outside Archangel harbor. The Russians dropped flares to light up the sea.

The first bomb fell about 100 yards ahead of the ship. "I thought at first it must be a warning not to proceed so I altered course. The airplanes continued to drop flares and then a second bomb fell astern.

"We attempted to signal the Russians with rockets but they had no effect and another bomb came down."

Third Officer William Butcher said the Russian planes then made off after circling the area. "It was the first time I've been bombed in peace time," Butcher told newsmen.

Three Conference Battles Take Football Spotlight In SW Conference

Baylor To Host Tech Raiders

Three championship battles put special emphasis on this week's Southwest Conference schedule as coaches grinded and drilled their charges on what the upcoming opposition has done this season. Arkansas readied for Texas' powerful, game-winning defense.

Rice - you might know - stressed pass defense for its fight with passing Fred Beners and the SMU Mustangs.

Baylor, with memories only too vivid of Texas Tech's smashing defeat of Texas Christian last week, prepared for a rugged game. Texas A&M, a national favorite with no losses this season thus far, spent Wednesday afternoon setting up defenses against TCU's wing and spread formations.

The odds-makers have established SMU, A&M and Baylor as 13 1-2-point favorites over Rice, TCU and Texas Tech respectively. Texas is a nine-point favorite over Arkansas.

The schedule at a glance: A&M vs TCU at Fort Worth, 2:30 p.m.

Baylor vs. Texas Tech at Waco, Rice vs. SMU at Dallas, 8:00 p.m.

Arkansas vs. Texas at Fayetteville, 2:00 p.m.

Texas, which beat Oklahoma, 9-1 last week in the Cotton Bowl, was reported in near top health for its conference opener with Arkansas.

At Fayetteville, Coach Ott's Douglas said 'both his ailing fullbacks, Lewis Carpenter and Larry Hogue, would be ready for play.

Baylor, picked by many to win the Southwest Conference, expects a stern test from Texas Tech in Waco Saturday.

TCU's two star tailbacks were limping, Marvin Fowler from a knee injury and Gilbert Bartosh from a sprained ankle. It was thought Bartosh might get into the TCU-AGGie scrub Saturday.

Southern Methodist's great linebacker and defensive star, I. D. Russell, slowed down by a charley horse, was classified as a "very doubtful" starter by Coach Rusty Russell.

In Houston, Rice's Denny Marsters and Leroy Fenstermaker emulated SMU's Fred Benner's Billy Burkhalter, Gene Silver and Horton Neirstri, had considerable success in breaking up the passes.

Villanova, Cal And Penn Picked To Win Contests

SECOND BREATH

By PAUL B. WILLIAMSON
In many circles this week there are practically no crucial games. Probably the sharpest focus will be on California over Southern California on the West Coast and Penn over Columbia in the East. A close one on the Atlantic seaboard will be the V.M.I. Keyhole to take Virginia's Cavaliers.

Interesting interconferences include College of the Pacific to stop Boston U. (and Aganias), Washington and Lee to turn back Miami U. of Florida. Both these games are slated for Friday night. The Williamson System has been good in predicting on Miami in the past. It could be wrong this time.

Another unusual game will occur Friday: the greatest team North Texas State has ever had will probably go down before the mammoth gridsters of Carver's Air Field of Ft. Worth, Texas.

On Saturday good interconferences include San Francisco over Fordham in New York City, strong Villanova over passing Kentucky, surprising Tulsa over the Marquette aggregation which held Michigan State to a difference of one touchdown last week, and Illinois over Washington.

Closely-rated big games include Syracuse over Dartmouth (that's right), Vanderbilt over Florida (and have the Commodores come back), Louisiana State over Georgia (that's right too), Iowa State over Missouri (after a long time).

Other close "name" games will embrace Minnesota over Nebraska (who'd a think it?), Oregon State over Washington State, Mississippi Southern over Southeastern Louisiana, Tempe Arizona State over San Diego State, Denver over Utah, and Houston over Hardin Simmons (tough).

Among the middle brackets the following games should be homes; Wofford over Presbyterian, Dayton over Chattanooga, Kent State over Morris Harvey, and about 20 other nip-and-tuck meetings.

By the way Rose Poly is rated to win from Eureka this Saturday to make the first win for the gallant engineers in a coon's age. This week calls for Boise to slow down Weber which has been blazing this fall like a house afire.

'50 GAME A THRILLER

Steers Must Face Eldon Amonett Again Friday

If Friday night's football game between Haskell and Big Spring even approaches the thrills and excitement of last year's game, the fans are in for quite an evening.

The contest was unrec'd in Haskell and the Indians finished on the long end of a 33-27 score. However, no one knew who was going to win until the final gun.

It was a game of long runs, long passes, interceptions, breaks and counter breaks.

Both sides were hit hard by graduation but several of the principals who made the game the action-packed drama it was are back this year.

Eldon Amonett, outstanding back on the field in last year's game, will be wearing Haskell's colors tomorrow night. Tommy Robinson, 205-pound center; Charlie Cox, 190-pound tackle; and Buddy Collins, 175-pound tackle; are among Haskell players active in last year's game who will face the Steers again this time out.

Such Big Spring players as Peck Franklin, Harold Hays, Jimmy Elliott, Earl Steen and J. C. Armistead were used against the Warriors in 1950.

The Longhorns are returning to action after a week's layoff. The game winds up their non-conference play for the year. Next week, they open their 1-AAA campaign against Plainview here.

Raiders May Be Rough In '54

LUBBOCK, Oct. 18. (AP)—No wonder Texas Tech's fans have been chanting, "Watch out for 1954."

That's the year 24 of the 46 men Dewitt Weaver poured into the Red Raiders' 33-19 upset over Texas Christian Saturday night become seniors.

These 24 weren't merely third or fourth stringers who stayed in while the Horned Frogs scored their three-touchdown, final-period spurge. Three were among Tech's starters on defense - End Dean White of Lubbock, Tackle Kenneth Elmore of Carlsbad, N. M., and Guard Ray Howard of Childress. Others entered early.

For Howard, incidentally, it was his first college game. He missed the first three games when he tumbled into a moving car at an intersection last month.

In fact, only 20 of the 55 Red Raiders suited up for the upset participated in spring training under Tech's new athletic staff.

Despite the rosy aspect for the future, Coach Weaver isn't overly optimistic over events of next Saturday afternoon. That's when the Red Raiders play the undefeated Baylor University Bears in Waco.

"We'll have no chance of sneaking up on the Bears' blind side after our win over TCU," Weaver points out.

Schepps May Pass Up Chance To Buy Club

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 18. (AP)—George Schepps, owner of the Corpus Christi club in the Gulf Coast League, says he won't buy the San Antonio club unless he is allowed to do so by Nov. 15.

Schepps, former owner of the Dallas Eagles, Wednesday discussed possible purchase of San Antonio with owner Bill Veck, who also owns the St. Louis Browns.

Eighth Graders Meet Wolfpack

The Eighth Grade Yearlings of Big Spring seek their second football victory of the season in a game with Colorado City at Colorado City at 8 p.m. today.

In the initial start, the Eighth Graders romped to an impressive 19-0 triumph over Coahoma last week.

Big Spring (Texas) Herald, Oct. 1951

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Three of the hardest working lads I've seen in the Big Spring Texas football camp are Billy Mack Sheppard, Gene Gross and Robert Hays.

The youngsters have never played much in the past because of their lack of feet but they're out for drills every day, have few complaints to voice.

Without boys like them—lads who condition the regulars in brutal scrimmages—football teams wouldn't get very far.

The Mineral Wells football team, which played and lost to Lamesa last weekend, had the most uniform weights of any club I've seen in a long while.

No starter up front weighed more than 165 pounds, and less than 150. Lightest man in the secondary was 155 pounds, the heaviest 165.

RAY GEORGE PROVED HIS CRITICS WRONG

A few years ago, when the USC Trojans under Jeff Cravath were having their troubles, a few of his friends told him his line was at fault and he needed a new assistant.

His wife happened to be Ray George, who recently was named as the United Press' Coach of the Week. George is now head man at Texas A&M.

Luck has run out on Roy Parker, the former WS-NM baseball league mound great who tolled for the Sherman-Denton Twins last season.

Parker was gravely injured in a recent automobile accident near Pampa. His baseball career may be at an end. He was to have played winter ball in Cuba.

Ray Elliot, who visited here last winter, is one of only two football coaches the University of Illinois has had in 38 years. The first was Bob Zupke, who held the post for 29 seasons.

WHICH TEAM HAS TOUGHER SCHEDULE?

Prior to the present football season, Fred Williams, an Austin sports writer, was extolling Dallas sports writers for suggesting that SMU has any tougher grid schedule than any other Southwest Conference club, particularly Texas.

Williams went on to relate that Texas' interconference foes—Kentucky, Purdue, North Carolina and Oklahoma—had much better 1950 records than the opposition SMU had booked this season—Georgia Tech, Ohio State, Missouri and Notre Dame.

Williams might have been right in arguing about 1950 records but this is another season.

After chipping little Tennessee Tech in its opening game, Kentucky lost its next three games—to Texas, Ole Miss and Georgia Tech.

Purdue holds a four-point win over Iowa but has lost to Texas and Miami. North Carolina has beaten North Carolina State and South Carolina but was waxed by Georgia Tech and Texas.

Georgia Tech is unbeaten in four starts and measures Florida and LSU among its victims, in addition to SMU and Kentucky.

Ohio State hasn't lived up to expectations but beat SMU, lost a four-point verdict to Michigan State and tied Wisconsin, both highly rated 11's. Notre Dame carried an unbeaten record into the SMU game. Missouri has won one game (from Oklahoma A&M) and lost decisions to Fordham, SMU and Colorado.

Athletic Program Encouraging, Local School Trustees Agree

School board members got with coaches Tuesday evening for an analysis of the athletic program, and concluded that it would pay off in due time.

The parley with the coaches similar to one held recently with principals, was called by board president Marvin Miller to bring members abreast of latest developments.

Board members asked questions about the program, which now reaches down into the grade schools with football as well as other physical education activities. In football, Carl Coleman, athletic director and head coach, listed teams with an aggregate of more than 250. Most of these are in the elementary and junior high levels and will require time to progress to high school competition.

Based on experience, Coleman told the board that victories this year would be rather sparse if they came and that prospects for next year are not exactly glowing. However, gradually more experienced boys are coming up and he looked for a steady improvement. It will take breaks to hit stride under two years, he thought.

Boys are matching coaches in hard work and determination, and said. Both members of the coaching staff and board talked freely about the problem, brought into focus by recent reverses, and the board gave its encouragement to the staff.

In the only other item of business, the resignation last week of O. J. Bierschwaia was accepted.

ACC. McMurry Vie Saturday

ABILENE, Oct. 18. (Sp.)—Approximately 11,000 fans are expected to pack Fair Park Stadium here Saturday night to watch cross-country conference rivals McMurry and Abilene Christian tangle on the gridiron for the 19th time.

The game will mark defending champion ACC's debut in the 1951 Texas Conference race. The Indians opened their official loop activities last week, dropping a 20-to-14 verdict to Texas A&L. The loss was a heartbreaker to McMurry, as the Indians fumbled away the chance to tie or win the game after driving deep into A&L territory in the fading minutes of the game.

The Wildcats sprang a surprise last week by scoring three times against the strong Carroll Bombers, though losing, 18 to 47. In fact, the 'Cats led the sixteen, 6 to 6, at the end of the first quarter, trailed only 12 to 20 at the half, but were smothered by four Bomber TDs in the last half.

Of the 18 games of the two Abilene colleges have played, ACC has won continuously since 1930 except for three war years—1943, '44 and '45. ACC held the pre-war edge in games won, 8 to

Keeping Tab On Building

Behind a splendid record of building residential structures in Big Spring is Louis Thompson, right. And helping keep tab on the busy operations is Pauline Sullivan. Thompson has built scores of homes here in recent years individually, and has directed the affairs of Big Spring Lumber, source of material and supplies for a substantial volume of building in this vicinity.

Orders For Heating Units Should Be In

A wise course is to put in your order now for winter heating provisions.

E. L. Gibson, owner and operator of Western Insulating company, said that crews were to press as rapidly as possible, commensurate with quality work, to fill orders. However, there are a good number on the list already, and the sooner the order is in the sooner the work can be scheduled.

Supplies of units and materials are good, said Gibson. He has been successful in acquiring some critically short items. Scheduling deliveries a long time ago, Gibson was able to secure good stocks of the famous Lennox units, those of Fraser-Johnston, and the Modern Toridraire wall heat panels.

The Lennox units come in sizes and output suitable for small spacings or in those big enough to handle almost any requirement in this area. The range includes floor furnaces. Another solid line with floor furnaces is the Fraser-Johnston. The heat panels involve the same natural flow principle as the floor furnaces, but are handy space savers and are easier to place. These come in single or double faces.

Another winter preparation which proves a money-saver as well as comfort-producer. Tests have demonstrated that insulation in the ceiling cuts down heat demand by a third. Depending on wall construction, insulation added in the wall areas can run the heat efficiency up to 50 per cent in most cases and even higher in many. Moreover, insulation is fire-proof and delays burning time substantially.

Home Grown Feed Can Be Utilized

Don't worry about utilizing your home produced feeds for your stock and poultry.

Tucker McKinley can help you with modern equipment engineered for custom grinding and mixing as well as for their own commercial compounding.

The mixer and mill are located on the west side of the plant and are easily accessible. The dry mixer has a ton capacity and can be cut into the adjacent unit for mixing in syrup. Then the sweetened feed is cut back to the dry mixer for another thorough mixing.

Grains may be crushed and then drawn into the mixer. Here Tucker & McKinley can add in whatever ingredients the user specifies. For instance, copious stocks of minerals, vitamins, protein supplements, ground alfalfa and other items are handy for mixing according to specifications.

The mill and mixer are so arranged that Tucker & McKinley can draw directly from the elevator storage. Thus, any amount of crushed grain—or mixed feeds, that matter—that anyone would want can be processed promptly and delivered immediately.

Sunglo Feeds Give Ideal Supplement

Drought conditions that have prevailed in this area have created an earlier-than-usual demand for Sunglo cubes, and Cooper Feed and Hatchery, 104 E. 1st street, is ready to meet that demand with a top-quality feed, formulated for use under existing conditions.

Cooper is dealer for the well-known Sunglo feeds for cattle, hogs, poultry and other livestock. For supplemental feeding during the fall and winter months ahead, arid area stockmen are invited to visit the Big Spring feed store to check the Sunglo feeds against feeding requirements.

Especially formulated for cattle are the Sunglo 20 per cent Range Cubes and the Sunglo 32 per cent Cattle Supplement cubes.

The range cubes are a scientific balance of proteins with energy grains, vitamins A and D and all important minerals that are missing from grasses, hay and grains grown on mineral-deficient soils of the Southwest.

Cattle supplement cubes are also a high protein feed balanced to furnish necessary vitamins and minerals. These assure stockmen of healthy cattle which will continue their growth and reproduction in spite of drought and cold.

Advantages of the Sunglo 21 per cent range cubes over the old-style protein cake are pointed out by E. J. Cooper, operator of the Cooper Feed store. With the Sunglo cubes, he said, a cattleman can not only carry his herd through the winter in good condition, but can hold the cheap gains made on summer pasture and increase his calf crop by a profitable margin.

"A few extra calves dropped in a herd—that are in a healthy condition and grow off in good condition—will pay for the Sunglo 21 per cent Range Cubes for the entire herd," said Cooper.

The feed store operator also has on hand the specialized Sunglo Pig Starter, hog pellets, pellet supplements, and other pig and hog feeds.

Poultry Treatment Supplies On Hand

A simple, one-day treatment for worm-infested poultry flocks is available for area poultrymen at the Cooper Feed and Hatchery, 104 E. 1st street.

It is the Sunglo Flock Wormer, an all-mash feed. The feed should be put out in regular feeders for one day so that birds will eat all they need in lieu of regular feed.

Record Materials Should Be Built To Insure Long Wear

Business records are as essential today as they have always been. For that reason, the paper on which the records are kept must be as good as it was when the stocks were more plentiful.

A ledger sheet that will stand the rough handling and insure long wear is that handled by the Thomas Typewriter and Office Supply, owned and operated by Eugene Thomas, and located at 107 Main street in Big Spring.

The Thomas concern also keeps in stock supplies of ledger binders that fulfill the needs, along with all other kinds of office supplies. The Precisa adding machine is an electric model built especially for this part of the country. It adds up to ten figures and each one comes complete with a credit balance.

R. C. Allen cash registers are other types of equipment stocked by the Thomas store, as are the R. C. Allen adding machines. Manually operated Royal typewriters, sold by the Thomas store, have always proved popular here. In more recent years, an increasing number of business houses are having installed the Royal Electric, which serves to speed up work. Such a machine guarantees that every letter will make the same impression.
