Groom Tigers Beat No. 25 Ranked Eagles In OT

Heart, guts and staying power is what won Friday night's overtime football game against Samnorwood 20-14.

The Tigers and Eagles were very evenly matched, holding the score to 0-0 for the first quarter.

"Both teams were similar in size and speed as well as technique," stated Coach Larry Reid. "It all came down to getting the right breaks at the right time. Playing on our home field helped."

Samnorwood scored twice in the 2nd quarter, leaving Groom to head to the locker room at halftime with nothing on the scoreboard.

They came back with fire in their eyes and played deliberately and patiently. The break they waited for came in the fourth quarter, when Wyatt Weinheimer connected with a 28 yard pass from Josh Evenson. Weinheimer connected on a pass from Jimmy Chavedo for the point after attempt to bring the score to 7-14. With just a minute or two to go in the fourth quarter, Toby Burgin caught a 40 yard pass from Josh Evenson to score the second touchdown. A pass from Chavedo to Weinheimer was good for the point after, tying up the game. Toby Burgin carried the ball two yards in the overtime period to win the game for the Tigers.

Groom had twice as many first downs as Samnorwood, 10 to their 5. Groom had 34 carries for 136 yards, while the Eagles had 38 for 107 yards.

Groom passed the ball very well for this early in the season. The Tigers connected on 12 out of 17 passes and threw for 125 yards resulting in two touchdowns and had one interception. Samnorwood connected on 2 out of 10 passes for 70 yards.

Groom's punts were longer averaging 27.5 yards on two kicks while Samnorwood kicked three times for an average of 24.1 yards. Fumbles played a big part of the game with Groom losing the ball four times and only recovering once. The Eagles fumbled six times and recovered twice.

Toby Burgin led the team in rushing, receiving and tackles. He earned 58 yards on 11 carries, achieving one touchdown. He received passes 9 times for 77 yards and one touchdown. Burgin

Groom Residents Travel To Lockney For "Old Fashion Saturday Night"

A caravan traveled to Lockney, Texas on Saturday, September 6th to enjoy the township's celebration.

Several families from Groom took in the sights, sounds and smells of food booths, craft booths and dunking booths. Lockney has this yearly celebration for the town to get together and raise money for charities and organizations. It was also the site for this year's pedal pusher tractor pull state finals, in which many Groom youth participated.

However, after leaving Lockney, two groups managed to run into each other while "seeing the sights." The Jody Ball family, Fabien Torres family, Alisha Martinez, Kendall and Christi Weller met accidentally at Lake McKenzie and then again at the Caprock rest area. Laughs, picture taking and visiting were enjoyed by all. Isn't it something to go out of town and just see townfolk!

April Burton won Champion AOB heifer at the Tri-State Fair over the weekend. She will show her steers this next weekend.

Zero Tolerance For Underage Drinkers Started September 1

Teenagers who drink and drive, or violate other alcohol-related laws, face loss of their driver licenses and other tough new sanctions in Texas.

Under Senate Bill 5, the so-called zero-tolerance law, people under 21 who have any alcohol at all in their systems can be charged with driving under the influence by a minor.

"As of September 1,

1997, the message to drivers under the age of 21 will be 'you drink, you drive, you walk,'" said Sen. Royce West, D-Dallas, the bill's sponsor.

Teenagers who drink and drive or who are convicted of offenses such as minor possession of alcohol and public intoxication will administratively lose their driver licenses from 30 days to one year, depending on the charge and whether the defendant is a repeat offender. As with the Administrative License Revocation program, suspension periods are longer for those who refuse to take breath or blood alcohol tests than for those who fail them. Law enforcement officers must videotape breath test requests involving juveniles as well as those requests.

In addition, those convicted of alcohol-related offenses face criminal penalties that include fines of up to $2,000, jail time or up to assignment of eight to 60 hours of community service related to alcohol use prevention and education.

The new law treats deferred adjudications as convictions when considering whether juveniles should be prosecuted as first, second or third offenders. Also, the law increases from a Class C to a Class B misdemeanor the offense of making alcohol available to a minor.

"Texas has led the nation in the number of underage alcohol-related traffic fatalities for the past several years," West said. "It is our hope that this new 'zero tolerance' law will greatly reduce this number."

Wych Joins Farm Bureau

The Texas Farm Bureau Insurance Companies are proud to announce that Jon K. Wych, LUTCF, agency manager for Carson-Armstrong and Potter counties, has qualified for the 1997 National Multiline Sales Award. To qualify for this insurance industry award, an agent must have a minimum of 15 paid life insurance policies and $20,000 of paid annualized premiums. In addition, the agent must have issued a minimum of 250 new property and casualty policies. The last qualification is that the agent must cross sell 100 applications of an additional line for new and/or existing clients.

Jon has also qualified for the 1997 National Quality Award. Qualifications for this prestigious award are to have a minimum of 20 paid life insurance policies, and have a retention ratio of 90% or better. Jon had 50 policies issued, and had a 94% retention of business for the 13 month period of time for qualification. This is the third year Jon has qualified for this honor.

Jon is a member of the National Association of Life Underwriters, Amarillo Area Association of Life Underwriters, and a member of the Amarillo Area General Agents and Managers Association.

This Is Your Only Warning

DPS Report

By Trooper Gary Davis Traffic has slowed down quite a bit since school has started back and summer travel is over. The speeds are still high, but volume is down. This week I've had the new Alcohol Law placed in the paper, so that all persons under 21 years of age can read it. And it means just what it says, "Zero Tolerance." So after reading it and you get caught, don't ask for a warning, because this is your warning.

Also, for the people that buy alcoholic beverages for the under 21, that crime has been increased from a Class C Misdemeanor to a Class B. A Class B Misdemeanor is punishable by a fine of up to $2,000.00, jail time up to 180 days, or both.

On 09-13-97, Trooper Jeremy Wallace stopped a 1994 buick on IH-40 for a seat belt violation. The Buick was reported stolen out of Norwalk, Ohio. The driver, a Kelly Wayne VanMeter, was arrested and placed in the Carson County Jail. Other charges of burglary are pending.

Game

also had 19 tackles.

Dean Fields had 10 carries totaling 30 yards. He had one kick-off return for 16 yards.

Jamie Shuck carried the ball for 26 yards on 9 tries. He connected on 1 pass for 7 yards. Shuck had one quarterback sack and 8 tackles.

Josh Evenson did a good job as one of the Tiger's quarterbacks. He connected on 11 of 14 passes for 118 yards and two touchdowns. He rushed 4 times for 22 yards. Josh kicked 2 punts for 27.5 yards each, and made 8 unassisted tackles.

Jimmy Chavedo connected on one pass out of three for 7 yards. He had one fumble recovery, one quarterback sack and five unassisted tackles.

Wyatt Weinheimer scored one touchdown on two passes for 41 yards and one unassisted tackle.

Dusty Crump pulled in a quarterback sack and had six tackles.

Groom plays state ranked Chillicothe at home Friday night at 7:30. Coach Reid stated that they are very athletic and strong.

"The Chillicothe Eagles are the District 1-2A favorites. Groom will have their work cut out for them. It will be a good test to see how we will stand against them."

Pluck The Eagles

A Note From The Principal's Offices . . .

By Danny Chisum

Have you seen or heard what is being said about children and success? This past week the TV, radio, and the newspapers have all focused on a study done on children and their relationship to their parents.

I believe the point of study is to make us sit down and examine our relationships within our family. Toddlers through the fourth grade is a nurturing time when we can build trust between us. Studies indicate that when we spend time reading to our young children or listening to them read aloud to us, it helps to bond the relationship into a safe and trusting one. It also helps the child in their reading skills, which is the primary ingredient for success in school. Once a child falls behind in reading skills, it is very difficult for him or her to catch up. The sad part is that students who have had the help at home move so fast that it is extremely hard for those that have not had parental help at home to keep up.

Just some helpful hints; We don't always have to find time to sit down and help them. We can, 1) At breakfast have them read the cereal box to you.

2) When on a trip in the car, have them read the signs along the side of the road.

3) While fixing the evening meal have them read the comics to you.

These are just a few ways that you can help your child be successful. This small amount of time spent can and will impact your child far into the future. I am out of space and time this week. We'll try and revisit this in the future. Thanks for sharing your children with us!!

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to authorize the Legislature to limit increases in the appraised value of residence homesteads for ad valorem taxation and to permit a school district to calculate the school property tax freeze applicable to the residence homestead of an elderly person or the surviving spouse of an elderly person in accordance with the law authorizing the transfer of the school property tax freeze to a different homestead regardless of whether that law was in effect at the time the person established the person's homestead."

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

If an episode of mass violence occurred, however, money from the funds could be used to assist victims of the mass violence if all other sources of authorized emergency assistance were depleted first.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment designating the purposes for which money in the compensation to victims of crime fund and the compensation to victims of crime auxiliary fund may be used."

PROPOSITION NO. 11 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 59 proposes a constitutional amendment to prohibit the Legislature from authorizing additional state debt payable from the general revenue fund if the resulting annual debt service (the amount needed each year to make payments) would exceed five percent of the annual general revenue available over the last three fiscal years, excluding revenues constitutionally dedicated for purposes other than payment of state debt.

The term "additional state debt" does not include bonds that, although backed by the full faith and credit of the state, are reasonably expected to be paid from revenue sources other than the general revenue fund.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment limiting the amount of state debt payable from the general revenue fund."

PROPOSITION NO. 12 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 55 proposes a constitutional amendment to provide that if the Texas Supreme Court does not act on a motion for a rehearing within 180 days of the motion's filing, the motion is denied.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to establish a deadline for supreme court action on a motion for rehearing."

PROPOSITION NO. 13 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 8 proposes a constitutional amendment to establish the Texas Tomorrow trust fund dedicated exclusively to the prepayment of tuition and fees for higher education. The amendment would guarantee that if there is not enough money during any fiscal year to pay the appropriate tuition and required fees, the needed money will be appropriated out of the first available money coming into the state treasury each fiscal year.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to encourage persons to plan and save for young Texans' college education, to extend the full faith and credit of the state to protect the Texas tomorrow fund of the prepaid higher education tuition program, and to establish the Texas tomorrow fund as a constitutionally protected trust fund."

PROPOSITION NO. 14 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 83 proposes a constitutional amendment to allow the legislature to set the official qualifications for constables.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to allow the legislature to prescribe the qualifications of constables."

McLean Elementary Hosts Open House

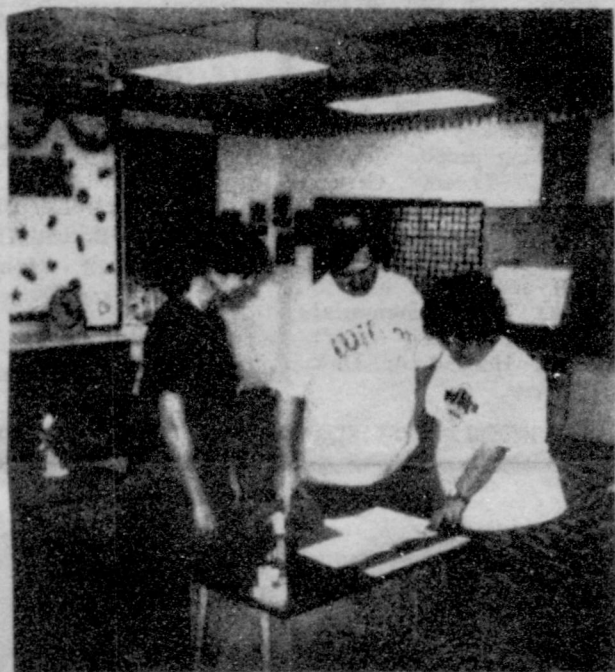

McLean's Elementary Open House on Thursday, September 11, was a great success, according to Dick Crockett, principal.

Renee Conner, mother of Daniel, a kindergartner, and Jacob, a second grader, commented, "It was wonderful to see so many parents participating! Coming from San Diego, we just didn't see that sort of parental participation there. Both my boys' teachers had daily work for us to look over and some special projects to look at. It was neat."

Ms. June Close, 5th grade teacher said, "We answered questions about our accelerated reader and homework policies. We had a good turn out and had the opportunity to meet parents of our new students. It was nice to be able to visit with parents of my former students."

It was a fun night with a large crowd, and a pizza party was

Refreshments were served in the cafeteria by members of the MISD. Mr. Crockett said, "I appreciate all the parents coming to the open house. It was great for the kids to see their family here."

New Display At Museum

The Devil's Rope Museum is hosting the "Plains of Light, Field of Vision" photographic art exhibit.

Ignited by boomers and land agents, the wave of settlement into the Panhandle-South Plains region after 1900 created a remarkable cultural landscape of new towns and fields. Using the abundant natural light of the plains, an unsung group of local and regional photographers captured the crest of this farming frontier and town settlement. From 1900 to 1915 a score or so of professional photographers were at work in hopeful new communities, quietly making magnificent realist pictures of their ordinary world and time. Some of the best of these pioneer photographers found the special plains

Panthers Win Over Tigers

By Tiger Rag Staff
The McLean Tigers varsity team tried to maneuver around the Follett Panthers, Friday, September 12th, but consequently did not succeed, with the final score of 52-6.

In the first quarter, the Tigers attempted to deflect the Panthers defense, but the Tigers couldn't hold their ground. With Sophomores Chris Hauck, and Charlie Carter out with knee injuries, the Tigers were distraught about their offense and defense. In the second quarter, the Tigers threw a successful 43 yard pass from Sophomore Ike Hanes to Sophomore

 You might be "over the hill": If you walked into the fair store and bought a pretty crepe dress for $2.98 and splurged on a matching felt hat for $2.98 or spent your last dollar or dollar and half for "dad" a pair of "Osk Kosh's."

Or you bought a pound of hamburger for 5 cents from the Bailes Bro. Meat Market, you could ask for liver "for your cat" or soup bones "for your dog" both free.

When Saturday special at the local cafe might be six hamburgers for 25 cents or for a dime Guy Hiblers cafe would guarantee to glut you with milk shakes for 10 cents, you attended church and Sunday school (a must) where the preacher scared all the kids with his "hell & brimstone." But Mr. Craig delighted them also by bursting into song in the middle of the sermon. He would sing "It's a sin to play ball on Sunday" but of course immediately after church we all traipsed out to the sandlot (present in every town) and watched the Clemmons boys and a girl put on a real evening of entertainment (whole team 8 boys and one girl) and saw the Fish boys give good competition. All free.

Spent Sunday evening (absent of ballgames) by walking to "Rockledge" and riding back with helpful neighbors.

light created a natural and immense studio.

Most photographers had a town studio where portrait photos were taken on a regular basis. But sales of the town views to visitors and the lure of rural clients attracted a number of photographers to the great outdoors. Once outside the studio they explored freely and captured much of the world around them. They climbed all sorts of buildings and windmills with their equipment to shoot the elusive and perfect "bird's eye" view of new buildings and towns. They also travelled into the countryside to record the summer promises and fall harvests of proud farmers. Regional settlement after 1905 happily coincided with a national postcard craze. Photographers turned some of their best views into Real Photo Cards which were sold widely at local stores or given to spell-bound landseekers to mail home.

Be sure to get by the Devil's Rope Museum to see these representations of early photographers all through the months of September and October.

The home of Jim and Jean Gilmore was selected as "Yard of the Month" by the McLean Chamber of Commerce.

LIVE PRO-ENERGY SUPPLEMENT TUBS

We at Pro-Energy LLC are pleased to announce the addition of LIVE PRO SUPPLEMENT TUBS to our fine line of feed products. A look at the type of ingredients we're using will quickly tell you why we're excited. Here are some of the "Locked-In" ingredients: Cottonseed meal, Soybean meal, Soybean hulls, Dried distillers grain, Condensed corn distillers, Corn and soya oil, etc.

A well known nutritionist stated in the July, 1996 edition of BEEF Magazine, "Energy is what controls conception. If a cow is in a positive energy balance [gaining weight], she will cycle. If she is in a negative energy balance [losing weight], in the majority of instances, she will not cycle."

Live Pro Supplement Tubs furnish the optimum energy levels from four different sources of poly-unsaturated fats. These types of fat feed the rumen microbes that digest roughages.

Protein does not directly affect estrus. Indirectly, however, inadequate protein can have an effect by retarding fiber digestion. Reduced fiber digestion means reduced energy to the cow. Forages normally don't have adequate protein for maximum performance. Live Pro has the right kind of protein from several sources to balance the amino acids needed for maximum production.

Pro-Energy liquid feeds and tubs are tested for quality and consistency in a state of the art analytical lab operated by trained technicians. The lab has the latest equipment for testing protein, fat, and minerals and is on the premises where both the liquid feeds and the tubs are manufactured.

Live Pro Supplement Tubs weigh 250 pounds each. The container is edible. There is a 25% protein all natural tub with 8% fat and a 30% protein tub that carries 7% NPN and 8% fat.

Live Pro Tubs are fortified with high quality minerals, trace minerals and vitamins.
