Ten Seniors End Football Career

Eric Weinheimer

The Groom Tigers football team said good-bye to 10 senior players in ceremonies at Friday night's game. The boys were introduced before the beginning of the game and escorted to the field by their parents. They are Eric Weinheimer, Seth Ritter, Matt Miller, Ty Lambert, Tom Lambert, Josh Gray, Collin Downs, Bo Burgin, Chris Burger and Bart Britten.

Eric Weinheimer, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Weinheimer, played football his sophomore and senior year. He started as a tight end and defensive end. He had 11 tackles and 7 assists and was also a punter.

Seth Ritter played varsity ball for three years. He started at runningback his junior year and made second team all-district. As a senior he started at runningback gaining 906 yards on 112 carries for 8.1 average. He was also selected as the Globe News player of the week. On defense he started at cornerback and had 21 tackles and 7 assists. Seth is the son of Troy Ritter and Sharon Murray.

Matt Miller, son of Phil Miller and Ila Miller played varsity ball for three years. Matt missed most of the year with a broken arm. He came in to start at cornerback before re-breaking his arm and missing the final games of the season.

Ty Lambert, son of Greg and Dena Lambert, was all-district linebacker one year. As a senior he served as a captain for the Tigers. He

Loss To Shamrock Ends Season For Tiger's Return To 11 Man

The Groom Tigers 1994 football season has come to an end with a loss to Shamrock, 61 to 21.

Shamrock's Willy Anton was a weapon that Groom just couldn't get shut down.

"We knew he was good," stated Coach Steve Lott. "We designed a defense to try to stop him but he was just such a strong runner that it didn't always work."

As for the Tigers performance, Lott was pleased.

"The kids played hard and never quit. They showed a lot of courage and heart. They were still hitting hard and showed no signs of giving up even

"The kids played hard and never quit. They showed a lot of courage and heart. They were still hitting hard and showed no signs of giving up even when the score was overwhelming. That says a lot for what kind of boys these are," he said.

Seth Ritter had an outstanding game despite what the score showed. He gained 128 yards to put him up over the 1,000 yard mark for the season. He also had a kick off return for 90 yards. Much of the yardage he gained this year can be attributed to the blocking of Bart Britten and other players on the offensive line.

Lott stated that next year is looking promising with three starters returning on the offensive line and five starters on the defensive line. Skills the boys have learned this year in making the transition from six man to eleven man will be much finer tuned and be a more natural reaction.

"Considering where the team started out in August, they have come a very long way. I am proud of them!"

'95 Retire-ees Need To Check With Office

If you are thinking of retiring in 1995, now is a good time for you to contact Social Security to see which month is best for you to claim benefits.

In some cases, the month you choose for retirement could mean additional benefits for you and your family. Under current rules, many people can receive the most benefits possible with an application that is effective in January. And, depending on your earnings and benefit amount, it may be possible for you to collect Social Security benefits while continuing to work.

For more information about when you should apply for Social Security benefits, or to arrange for an appointment to talk to a Social Security representative, call the toll-free telephone number 1-800-772-1213 or the local office number 806/669-1010.

The Pampa, Texas office is located at 125 S. Gillespie. Office hours are 9 AM until 4 PM, Monday through Friday, except on national holidays.

Safety Prescribed For Rural Roads

You probably think you're snug and safe when you're driving the familiar back roads near your home. Traffic is sparse; it seems like you're the only one out there. Besides, you know every bump and dip of the road by heart.

Yet, the country roads closest to your home are the most dangerous. Statistics show that of the 47,000 traffic deaths that occur each year in the United States, two-thirds take place in rural areas, with the majority of the deaths taking place within 25 miles of the victim's home.

What makes rural roads so much worse than city streets? Experts cite five major reasons.

1) Road characteristics and conditions. Too often, you can't see what's over the next hill or around the next bend. Country roads have steep hills, sharp curves, and blind intersections. They're apt to be narrower than town streets and highways, with loose gravel or no gravel at all.

2) Driving speeds. People drive faster on country roads than they do on city streets. According to studies, for every 10 miles an hour over 50 that you drive, your chances of being killed in a crash double. Traveling at higher speeds makes it harder to stop in an emergency. And when a high-speed crash does occur, odds of serious injury are greater.

3) A variety of vehicles. Rear-end collisions with slow moving vehicles, such as tractors and snowplows, are all too common on rural roads. Drive a safe speed so that you will have sufficient reaction time should you suddenly come upon such a vehicle. Also, be sure to allow plenty of room when you overtake or pass these types of equipment, as often the roadway is narrow and the equipment wide.

4) Not wearing seat belts. You may ask, "I'm just going a few miles, what could happen?" The answer is a lot! Crashes are sudden and violent, often hurling victims through windshields, crushing them under vehicles, or dragging them along the highway.

Some feel seat belts are uncomfortable and inconvenient, but when you think about the discomfort and inconvenience a collision could cause, there's not much comparison.

5) It takes longer to get help. Sparser population and greater distance increase the odds of discovery of the accident. Someone with life-threatening injuries, who may have been saved with immediate first-aid, may die instead.

hundred dollars in unscratched lottery tickets is the raffle prize. Each member is urged to sell at least one book of tickets.

Special Message Card Of Thanks

Groom, the little town with a big heart, skipped a heart beat last Thursday as it lay to rest our mother and your friend, Burniece Johnson. Thanking you for your outpouring of love and comfort was to be our hardest task. However, as we were going through Mother's things, we found a letter she had written to a dear friend some time ago. Knowing our mother, we couldn't help but believe the letter was meant to be discovered and the message was intended for us all.

"I need you to know the many things I treasured about you. Through the years I have watched you comfort, support and nourish the community as a whole. I've heard your laughter, your tears, and felt your compassion. I've experienced your wisdom, your gift of helps, and your acceptance. You have given your time beyond measure and given your love unconditionally. You have always been there when I've needed you. You have always been my friend.

Although I've known the Lord for many, many years now, because of who you are, I believe I have a greater understanding of who Christ was.

Saying good-bye is difficult. As you have probably guessed by now, I really don't want to turn loose of you. My challenge now is to say good-bye with joy. . . knowing that the very things I have cherished and learned from you will continue to impact other corners of this needy world. Although it is painful, I am struggling to celebrate my grief, too. . . knowing that love always has this price. If there were no grief then love was never present to begin with. You made me feel significant and special through the years and I've been a better person for having had you in my life."

Thank you for loving and taking special care of our mother throughout the years of her life in Groom.

God Bless.
Sanfra Ann & Mary Kay Johnson

First Veterans

National Memorial ANGEL FIRE, NM
 "In demanding justice from the government we served, we veterans simply have to become more vocal," said Gregory C. Reed.

On November 11, Reed will have a pulpit to lay that challenge on his fellow veterans, when he addresses a crowd expected to reach 400 at Veterans Day Observances November 11 at the Disabled American Veterans (DAV) Vietnam Veterans National Memorial in Angel Fire, New Mexico.

"Some powerful politicians in Washington are doing it again, talking out of both sides of their mouths about veterans," said Reed, a combat-wounded Vietnam veteran and National 1st Junior Vice Commander of the 1.2-million-member DAV.

"When speaking publicly, they fill the air with praise for our patriotism and virtue and willingness to risk death in defense of liberty," explained Reed. "Privately, however, in darkened rooms where deals are cut they compare us to welfare recipients and attack veterans' programs in overzealous attempts to reduce federal spending."

Even as U.S. forces are put in harm's way in Haiti and other trouble spots around the globe, Reed said, powerful forces in Washington are attempting to dismantle programs that provide medical care and other benefits earned by

To The Fore

In the early nineteen forties
 Many millions tuned in to hear
 The voice of Winston Churchill
 Trying his level best to cheer
 Hitler had gotten the drop
 On peace lovers by the score;
 Then emerges Sir Winston slowly coming to the fore.
 Milk toasters would've faltered
 With so many defeats

behind,
 But, if doubts assailed him
 I heard no tell-tale sign.
 Dictators learned to dread him,
 And to each other did deplore,
 For the greatness of a great man
 Was coming to the fore.
 With his great gifts of courage
 Was leadership well anointed;
 Very few men in all history
 Had wit so sharply pointed.

By Crim Goodlett

Many of his premonitions
 Made several nations sore,
 Although in his twilight years
 He was still to the fore.
 Any praise of the R.A.F.
 Should surely include him;
 More millions might have died
 Had it not been for him
 That marvelous page of life
 Has been turned forever more;
 Why not pray for such as he
 To advance to the fore.

a sixteen month old child was airlifted by Medivac to Amarillo. The child later died in Amarillo.

Sgt. Ray "Columbo" Davis and Reserve Deputy Dale Price located a subject driving a vehicle with fictional license plates and safety inspection sticker. The vehicle is currently impounded while our office investigates the origin of the vehicle. The suspect is being held on drug charges while we investigate the matter to determine if the vehicle was stolen.

Deputy Larry Mendez is investigating an incident of Criminal Mischief which occurred in White Deer. Statements are being taken from potential witnesses in the matter and all information will be forwarded to the County Attorney's Office for review and consideration of criminal charges.

Jailer/Dispatcher Tessa Counts was instrumental in providing information to the Gray County Sheriff's Department which resulted in the apprehension of a stolen vehicle and suspect.

The vehicle was stolen from a campground along Interstate 40, but the call came into Carson County.

By securing the proper information and making immediate contact with neighboring county officers, Officer Counts prevented the vehicle from escaping the area.

McCracken, Hospice Are Great Team

Probably everyone in McLean knows Janet McCracken as the late Dr. Harold Fabian's medical assistant for the past seven years.

Those years with Dr. Fabian are ones that have significantly influenced McCracken in her newest career as a home health aide for Hospice of the Panhandle, a non-profit organization that provides care for the terminally ill, not only in McLean, but throughout the surrounding area.

Looking back on her time with Dr. Fabian, McCracken remembers the legacy this long-time McLean physician left her - humor, patience, compassion and honesty.

"If you ever wanted a good laugh, you should have seen Dr. Fabian riding a motorcycle. I always said I should have gotten a picture of that," McCracken remembers.

"A lot of people thought of him as being really gruff, but I've seen him with so many patients with children being compassionate and caring. I've seen him sit up all night with a patient holding the patient's hand while he was dying because the patient wanted him to," she says.

"I learned from Dr. Fabian. He was really honest. He always told the patient the truth. And if he couldn't handle a situation, he saw to it that his patients went where they could get help.

"He taught me to listen," McCracken adds. "It would look like he wasn't doing anything, but what he was doing was listening very hard to what they were saying."

These skills have helped McCracken immensely as a hospice home health aide, she says. She feels that coming to work for Hospice of the Panhandle is like finding her niche in life. "To me, it's a very rewarding profession."

"I love working with people," she explains. "I'm a people person. I get the best part of this job. I see (patients) at their worst. I see them at their best. They've got so much to give."

"I come from a large family with eight children. Caring and giving is second nature to me."

Caring and giving are foundation stones in the hospice concept of care for persons with limited life expectancies, a concept that is celebrating its 20th anniversary in the United States during November National Hospice Month.

"I want people to be educated about hospice, to realize there are alternatives," she says. "I want them to know that hospice is not giving up. It's making the most of your last days. It's being able to tie up all the loose ends. It's support for you and your family during the time you're sick and for your family later on."

"I want people to know we can take care of so many things, the wonderful services we can provide as a non-profit organization," she says.

More and more people find hospice addresses basic human needs, physical, emotional and spiritual. This recognition of hospice's ability to meet these multiple needs allowed hospice to take root in the United States 20 years ago.

Hospice of the Panhandle was founded in August 1988 as Hospice of Pampa. However, as more and more referrals poured in from surrounding areas, the organization's services spread to nine counties adjacent to Pampa and the name was changed to Hospice of the Panhandle.

Cubs Win Junior High Championship

After a tightly contested first half, the McLean Cubs went on to sweep the Follett junior high 47 to 12 in the final game of the season for both teams. McLean finishes the season as the district champion with an 8 and 1 record, suffering their one loss in a non-district skirmish with Silverton.

Follett scored first Friday night in the game at Duncan Field, scaring the Cubs with a first quarter score of 7-0. The first half ended with McLean on the short end of the score 12 to 7. Eighth-grade standout Sy Brown scored one touchdown in the first half before leaving the game with an injury. The Cubs came alive in the second half with seventh grader Ike Hanes scored four times on runs. He set up one touchdown with a 35 yard pass catch from Brett Montgomery. Seventh grader Charlie Carter, running in Brown's slot, caused one fumble which was covered by Hanes and set up one of the touchdowns. Carter also scored a touchdown, and Brody Carter scored the final tally for the Cubs. Charlie Carter ran three extra points across the goal line, and Hanes ran two. The Cubs begin basketball workouts this week.

Public Notice

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company (SWBT) has filed an application with the Public Utility Commission of Texas (PUC) to restructure the current PLEXAR I and II service offerings. This restructure will significantly change PLEXAR I and II services.

The restructuring of PLEXAR I will, among other things: (1) reduce the maximum line size from 30 to 9; (2) obsolete and grandfather certain optional features; (3) eliminate the requirement to subscribe to Feature Package Two in order to subscribe to certain optional features; (4) reduce the nonrecurring and monthly rates of certain features; and (5) increase the nonrecurring charges for the PLEXAR I System Charge ($2.10 to $8.00), Call Transfer Disconnect feature ($3.00 to $8.00), and Convenience Dialing I feature ($6.35 to $8.00). All current PLEXAR I customers will have the option of keeping their current PLEXAR I service, switching to the new restructured PLEXAR I service, or switching to PLEXAR II service with ten or more lines.

The proposed PLEXAR II restructure will, among other things: (1) change the tariffed offering to serve the market segment of 10-74 stations; (2) create two station pricing structures, one for customers with 10-29 stations, and one for customers with 30-74 stations; (3) reduce the sensitivity for the loop portion of the rate to two price bands: 0-2 miles, and beyond 2 miles; (4) offer a PLEXAR II basic station that can be flexibly configured, from a number of standard features, to meet the individual customer requirements; (5) change the way the termination liability is calculated so the customer is responsible for 65% rather than 56% of the present worth of the remaining monthly payments in the contract; (6) create an option that allows month-to-month customers to convert to long term contracts of at least three years and receive a credit or "contract signing bonus"; and (7) establish a System Subsequent Change Charge which applies per serving central office when changes are made that affect the entire system.

Current PLEXAR II customers will also have the option of keeping their current PLEXAR II service, or switching to the new restructured PLEXAR II service. PLEXAR II customers with at least 75 stations also have the option of switching to PLEXAR Custom service in certain situations.

Panhandle is an independent, non-profit corporation which never bills a patient or family for any services. For many of our patients, it is such a relief not to have to worry about all the medical bills," says Sherry McCavit, executive director. "No appropriate patient is ever denied care."

She explains that Hospice of the Panhandle is reimbursed by Medicare, Medicaid and private insurance. "Donations, memorials and fundraisers enable us to provide services to all who need them," McCavit adds.

Hometown residents like Janet McCracken and JoAnn Andrews, both of McLean, help Hospice of the Panhandle provide care throughout their service area. Hospice of the Panhandle's 31 staff members are assisted by more than 100 volunteers active in all phases of the agency's operations from office work to direct patient/family care. Volunteers also serve on the board of directors and as members of various committees.

"We also teach 30-hour classes on 'Hospice Approach to Living and Dying,' and grief education classes with continuing education credits through Clarendon College," McCavit says.

Anyone interested in learning more about hospice care in general or Hospice of the Panhandle's services, contact Sherry McCavit at (806)665-6677.

The Chamber has a host of projects in process or to undertake. However, it welcomes ideas and suggestions for projects that would better the social, the economic, or the attractiveness of our community. And, by the way, the community is defined as extending about 30 miles east and west along Ol' Route 66 (I-40) and 20 miles north and south between the north fork and the salt fork of the Red River. The Chamber office is located at 108 A, North Main, McLean or Box 6666, McLean, Texas 79057.

Memorial

men and women who selflessly served their country.

"Such efforts to cut veteran's benefits - all in the name of fiscal constraint - serve as vivid examples of callousness and contempt among some government leaders," Reed said.

Each year for more than two decades, thousands of veterans from all wars, their families and friends have made the pilgrimage to the beauty and majesty of the DAV Vietnam Veterans National Memorial to reflect on the high cost of war, to mourn our nation's warriors lost in Vietnam and to celebrate those who survived.

In addition to taking part in special Veterans Day observances, visitors will be able to tour the spiritually moving memorial chapel and the 6,000 square foot visitors center and exhibit area.

All facilities at the memorial are totally accessible to persons with disabilities. The visitors center and exhibit area feature pictorial displays, art, sculpture, banners and flags, as well as an interactive, computer-based audiovisual information and education exhibit. This exhibit, unveiled last year, gives visitors access to film footage, photographs, television, and newspaper and magazine reports about the Vietnam War. Also featured is biographical information on the more than 58,000 Americans who died in Vietnam.

Additional information about the Veterans Day program, as well as color slides of the Memorial are available upon request.
