The people of the South Seas differ on different islands. The natives of the Solomon Islands, for example differ from those of the Fiji Islands.

The Solomon folk have crude notions about the heavenly bodies. They say that they can see a woman on the moon, and that she is weaving a basket. They call a comet a "smoking star," and speak of the reddish-colored planet Mars as the Red Pig.

Some people of the Solomons, especially those near the coast, can speak English, but others follow their native speech. They call the sun Sato, and speak of the moon as Wasarowaro.

They have divided the year into 12 parts or "months," and have names for each part. The time of our January is known as Oku Peine, meaning Big Worm Month. Three other months of the Solomon year also have "worm" in their names. One is Oku Teiu, or Worm catching Month.

It is a strange thing that people anywhere should call months in honor of worms. In this case the worms are valued. They appear on, or near, the surface of the ocean, and are gathered for food.

Other months in their year are Foam Month and Sponge Month. Still another is Fighting Month!

Old-style native money on the Solomon Islands is made of shells, porpoise teeth and dog teeth. When a chief marries, he is likely to make a big payment to the parents of his bride, perhaps 50 shells and 1,000 porpoise teeth. A poor man on the other hand, may purchase his bride for as little as 10 shells.

When the natives speak of the planet Mars by a name meaning Red Pig, they are without any idea of offering an insult. The pig is held in high regard on the Solomon Islands. Sometimes a rich young man carries a roasted pig to a public feast, as his share of the food.

Respect For Elders

Child guidance is what more and more parents are getting from their children today," I read that and giggled.

Later I witnessed two things that brought the quip back to mind quite sharply. A woman driver made a right turn from the middle lane of traffic and a car containing three teen-age boys promptly began to yell advice to her and cynically chant, "woman driver, woman driver" while making grotesque faces.

That afternoon on a bus I overheard two teen-agers discussing a teacher. "It was a raw deal, and brother, did I ever tell her," the one told the other.

All of this gave me pause for thought. Age does not make right. I never heard anyone say it does. Adults can be dead wrong about many things, and they often are.

Yet poor manners and a lack of self-control, even when it is on the side of the right, put the indignant party at a great disadvantage. People turn to look, and their comments are not favorable. You may be sixteen or you may be sixty.

That doesn't matter. You may be one hundred per cent in the right, as were the teen-age drivers. That doesn't matter either.

What does matter is that you're making a fool of yourself. People

Kasch & Sons Get Odessa Contracts

A. P. Kasch & Sons of Big Spring have been awarded the plumbing and heating contract on the new Carver and Blackbear schools of Odessa.

The firm's bid was for $24,696 and was about $300 under the next low bid. Kasch & Sons also bid on the general contract with a proposal of $109,106, which was about $3,000 over the low bidder. The firm bid on the Sherwood elementary school in Odessa but finished out of the money in both the general and plumbing divisions.

notice you, but their thoughts are not that you are on the side of right, but that you lack good-taste and genteel rearing.

We have all had the desire to tell our elders "a thing or two." First it is our parents, then our teachers, and finally our employers. We all drive along the streets and spy knuckleheads who need a good lecture but...

Some of us spout off and make a spectacle of ourselves and think we are smart. We react in the same juvenile manner as when we were five and kicked Tommy Turner in the shins for turning our tricycle over in the mud.

Others of us quietly notice, without comment, that somebody goofed, or if, the situation, as in the case of the unjust teacher, is impossible to ignore, we calmly employ wisdom and respect and discuss it with the offending party. Patience and tolerance are marks of education and maturity.

The idea is to grow emotionally, as well as physically, past the age of five. When you can greet the foibles of others with a closed mouth and an open mind, you are standing at the threshold of manhood.

A Bible Thought For Today

And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the LORD of hosts. The Trial Balloon Disclaimed

The first Roosevelt is generally credited with inventing the "trial balloon" as a means of testing public sentiment. The mighty Teddy would call in a favorite newsman or public figure, prime him with whatever information or misinformation suited the occasion, and turn him loose. If the reaction was unfavorable, the "transmission belt" would be repudiated; if favorable, the source of the information might be acknowledged.

So-o-o, it now develops that a second dinner party was held for newsmen Monday night at which James C. Hagerly, presidential press secretary, spoke "off the record." Gist of the story attributed to Hagerly: President Eisenhower did not believe Red China is prepared to start any major fighting in the Formosan area in the weeks immediately ahead. This, of course, contradicted the Carney story.

Little Things Better Ignored

The evangelist Billy Graham's sensational success in Glasgow, with turn-away crowds and an outpouring of public interest that has blocked traffic and set many a dour Scot to singing hymns, has not been without a few unpleasant incidents for the American.

she knew had gone to Graham and asked him to pray for animals in his service, but was told to go home, as Graham's job was saving souls, and he had no time for animals.

Is Money Money, Or Is It?

A friend of mine, vice president of a bank—I daren't mention his or its name—has a notion which, if it spread, would wreck the economic foundations of the country. He has an ideological affinity for Gertrude Stein, who wrote "Rose is a rose is a rose is a rose."

Gertrude Stein's article, "Money," Arthur read with satisfaction: "Everybody now just has to make up their mind. Is money money or isn't money money. Everybody who earns it and spends it every day in order to live knows that money is money, anybody who votes it to be gathered in as taxes knows money is not money. That is what makes everybody go crazy."

Junior Counterspies

They're dressed just like their favorite TV sleuths in regulation imported trench coats, water-and-wind-repellent and washable.

Juniors Go Mysterious With Continental Coats

There's nothing that pleases small fry as much as having clothes just like Dad's—or Mom's. Newest contribution to this type of juvenile joy is an authentic trench coat, made in Germany, complete with shoulder epauletts, yoke back, stitched belt, high turn-up collar, deep pockets and plaid lining. Boys and girls feel as dramatic as their favorite TV sleuth when wearing this dashing garment, which also is water-repellent, wind-resistant and washable. The same styles are made for all the family—Mom and Pop as well as Sis and Junior—and they're selling like hot-cakes in the United States.

It's a strange thing, and one on which clothing manufacturers might ponder, that fads may come and fade may go, but there are a few classic styles that go on forever. One is the camel's hair polo coat, as popular today as it was 20 years ago. Another is the midy and skirt, which returns periodically to fashion favor—as for instance right now. The plain one-piece wool-knit bathing suit is another item which always comes back.

And then there's the oil-skin slicker, which never has gone out of style since the flapper era, and is one of the best-selling garments in the juvenile wardrobe today. The reason must be that all these things are functional, make sense, have no unnecessary frills or furbelows and don't cost too much. The same is true of the trench coat, which was born during World War I and has been going strong ever since, with a big boost during World War II and now added impetus from current TV foreign correspondent thrillers.

Home Sewing Crowd Gets Latest Styles

By DOROTHY ROE, AF Women's Editor

The home seamstress is up to the minute with the latest fashion trends.

If there's an important new silhouette being shown by top designers of Paris, she needn't be left out of the picture just because she sews her own.

Most pattern companies have a special short order department. Stylists catch the Paris news hot off the sales floors and create fashions to reflect the new moods. Thus the home seamstress can be first in fashion, even getting a lead on sisters in store-bought clothes. After all, it takes less time for one woman to sew one suit than for a manufacturer to design and produce dozens of suits in assorted sizes and fabrics and then distribute them to the stores.

Right in time for spring are standard patterns for the newest suit silhouettes. Probably the most popular style this season is the suit with longer jacket, low-placed pockets in the new semi-fitted line. It all adds up to a new easy-fitting silhouette which suggests the clean lines of a riding jacket. Be sure to pick your regular pattern size when shopping for a loose-fitting pattern. You determine pattern size by your bust measurement, and today's best patterns are precision cut to allow for correct fit.

To make the long-jacket suit you need 2 and ¾ yards of ¾-inch fabric, and 1 and ¾ yards of taffeta lining. Widely spaced buttons go below the natural waistline, and the slightly flared cuffs feature smaller buttons. In a suit of this kind, covered buttons are smartest. You can cover them yourself, using a special button-covering kit, or have it done at your local sewing center for a modest price. Either way, be sure to have a few extra buttons, in case you lose one.

The semi-fitted suit, the newest suit silhouette, is now available in standard patterns.

ETIQUETTE BOOK New Edition Tells How To Put 'Best Foot Forward'

Do you know how to put your best foot forward? This is the era of the polished young timer, the chic, intelligent student. Uppermost in the minds of struggling young adults is "how?" This show-me attitude puts emphasis on the importance of doing everything well, or not doing it at all.

A revised edition of the book "Your Best Foot Forward" by Dorothy Stratton and Helen Schleman (McGraw Hill) answers many of our young friends. Here's the gist of some pertaining to table manners.

Tipping the soup plate . . . The less moving you do the better . . . be content with the soup you can procure without tipping it. Breaking Bread . . . Little bits broken off at a time and buttered as needed is proper (Don't butter a whole slice of bread or a whole roll).

Cutting Meat . . . The American style is to cut a few pieces (or one piece) of meat, transferring your fork to your right hand, and eating bits of meat interspersed with bites of the rest of the dinner.

Eating with Fingers . . . Foods that can be eaten neatly without getting fingers sticky or greasy may be treated as finger foods—olives, nuts, whole pickles, celery, radishes, fresh fruits, breads, crackers, sandwiches, cookies, corn on the cob, etc.

To Blow or not to Blow . . . Soup that is, Please don't. You may drink it if it is of a consistency that warrants drinking and if the cup has one or two handles.

About Demitasse . . . If sugar and cream are provided for demitasse it may be used, but technically it is served without.

The Table Accident . . . If it is small such as dropping a bit of salad on the table, retrieve it inconspicuously. If a glass of water or wine is overturned, make apologies to the hostess sincerely and briefly and she, being correct, will mop it up unobtrusively.

Something in the Food . . . It could be anything and it should be ignored. Eat only what you care to eat, dawdling along so that you are not being conspicuous. Say nothing and try to hide it from your neighbors. In a restaurant be quiet about informing the waiter, who will, if he is good, remove your plate for a new one immediately.

What to Leave on the Plate . . . It is no longer necessary to leave a bit of food on the plate. But don't scrape or mop up your plate with a crust of bread.

Introductions . . . The person on your right gives his or her name, the next person gives first person's name plus his own, the third person gives names of first and second person plus his own—and so on around the table.

How many helpings . . . If you have met fairly well abreast of the others in eating speed you might ask to have a dish passed if you want more. Normally the head of the table will see that it is passed in good time.

Cover Girl's Confession by Gloria Shearer

"Beauty is my business," says Gloria. Then, like nine out of ten of America's leading magazine cover girls, she goes on to say, "—and SweetHeart is my beauty soap!"

Beauty is your business, too—it's every woman's business. So change to thorough care with pure, mild SweetHeart. In a week, your skin looks softer, smoother, younger.

Varied Observances Slated For Palm Sunday In Local Churches

Palm Sunday will be observed in various ways in many local churches. Palms will be distributed in Catholic Churches. Several ministers will use a Palm Sunday theme for sermons, and choirs have prepared special music. Sunday will also be the first day in several pre-Easter revivals. Services will include the following:

BAPTIST
The Rev. Gilbert Calloway, student at Southwestern Seminary in Fort Worth, and pastor of the Groff Baptist Church, will bring his first message at the Baptist Temple revival services. The revival will continue through April 10. Jackie Shirley of Hardin-Simmons University is leading the singing. Services will be at 10 a.m. and 8 p.m.
The 11 a.m. worship at the First Baptist Church will be the closing service of an eight-day revival. A baptismal service will be held at the conclusion of the 8 p.m. worship.
CATHOLIC
The Rev. William J. Moore, O.M.I., will say Mass at 7 a.m. and 10 a.m. at St. Thomas Catholic Church, Palms, blessed before the first Mass, will be distributed at both Masses. Confessions will be heard from 4:30-6 p.m. and from 7-8 p.m. Saturday.

The Rev. Edward Bastien, O.M.I., will say Mass at Sacred Heart Church (Spanish-speaking) at 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. Palms, blessed before the first Mass, will be distributed at both Masses.
CHRISTIAN
The Rev. Clyde Nichols, pastor of the First Christian Church, will preach on "Calvary and a Cross" at the morning worship. The choir will sing "The Palms" by Faurre. The Rev. The Cross and Christian Discipleship
THE FOLLOWERS OF CHRIST SHOULD BEAR HIS CROSS DAILY

Scripture—Matthew 21:1-11; Luke 9:25-28; John 12:20-26; 11 Corinthians 5:14-19; Galatians 2:20-21; 6:14-17.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
THE TIME IS Sunday of Holy Week, and Jesus and His disciples are on their way to Jerusalem. "And when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and were come to Bethphage, unto the Mount of Olives, then sent Jesus two disciples."

He told them to go to the village, where they would find an ass tied, and a colt. They were to loose and bring them to Him. If anyone objected to this, they were to say to him, "The Lord hath need of them," and they would be allowed to take the beasts.

Jesus had spent the evening before at the home of Mary, Martha and Lazarus, knowing well that He would never be in that quiet, friendly household again except in spirit. Too well He knew that in going to Jerusalem, His enemies there would find a way to end His life on earth.

The disciples did as they were told and they threw their clothes on the ass and seated Jesus on her, "that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, Tell ye the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, and sitting upon an ass and a colt the foal of an ass."

A great multitude of people followed the Lord and His disciples, and some spread their garments in the way; others cut down branches from the trees (as they were in the habit of doing at the feast of the tabernacles). All the multitude cried, "Hosanna to the Son of David; Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest."

When they entered the city everyone was excited and asked, "Who is this?" and the multitude said, "This is Jesus the prophet of Nazareth of Galilee."

All the children in the Sunday school will be greatly interested in this part of our lesson, picturing to themselves the scene as it is told. The remainder of the lesson may be a little difficult for them.

Now we turn to John 12:20. Based on copyrighted outlines produced by the Division of Christian Education, National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U. S. A., and used by permission. Distributed by King Features Syndicate

Salk Test Chief Denies Report
NEW YORK (AP)—Dr. Thomas Francis Jr., head of the ultra-secret task of compiling the results of the Salk polio vaccine trials, says the official report—scheduled for release April 12—has not been written.
He said yesterday from the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor that "we know nothing about" a New York World-Telegram and Sun story saying the vaccine trials proved 100 per cent effective.
The newspaper, in a copyrighted story, said it received its information from an "unimpeachable source."

serve Me, let him follow Me; and where I am there shall also My servant be; if any man serve Me, him will My Father honor."
"He (Jesus) died for all," Paul wrote the Corinthians, "that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves; but unto Him which died for them and rose again."
Jesus died for all, reconciling us to God the Father. As we read of His blameless life on earth, and think of the lessons He taught us, surely, as Paul says, we shall be "new creatures; old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new."
For the older classes the words Paul wrote to the Galatians should be sunk deep in their hearts, and remembered in all crises in their lives.
"I am crucified with Christ; nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave Himself for me."

Spring IS A MIRACLE

Spring is so much more than just a season. It is a miracle, enacted against a backdrop of perfect days. It is the time of rebirth . . . of reaffirmation.

Spring is Christ's story, beautifully illustrated by nature. It is all the teachings of the Church, brought to reality, spread out gloriously for you to see. Nature, in her sweet, new loveliness, touches the world, touches you with the Christ-like spirit. If your vision has been dulled, she gives you the chance to see again more brightly than ever.

Palm Sunday is here again. Never before have the doors of the Church seemed to stand quite so open . . . so ready to receive you. Never has the lesson of everlasting life . . . Christ's lesson . . . been so poignant. There will be new richness in your life if you will trust in the Church. In your soul there can be eternal spring, and all the bleakness, questioning and doubt can be erased from your heart forever.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Talmadge Hits Segregation Rule

SAN ANTONIO (AP) - Former Georgia Governor Herman E. Talmadge said Thursday the Supreme Court ruling against segregation in schools is the "greatest single blow ever struck against constitutional and local self-government."
The Georgia orator addressed a meeting in Municipal Auditorium sponsored by the American Heritage Protective Committee which is sponsored by Austin Hancock. Hancock is a retired South Carolina insurance executive now living here.

25. Horses is more apt. Anybody who buys a Horse pays a substantial sum for it, because Horses command substantial prices. Horse prices vary enormously. Generally they are reasonably cheap, but people with plenty of money often pay heavily for certain thoroughbreds.

EXPLANATION OF MORE DIFFICULT CLUES

CLUES ACROSS:
6. Lame is best. For there to be any question of gaining sympathy, a man must be suffering from something, such as bad luck or injury. This clearly favors Lame. A Game boxer deserves admiration and support, but why sympathy?
10. Gold is better. What can one "argue" about the value of Gold or how can one define its Value, up or down. There is no doubt of the characteristic value of Gold, both intrinsic and social, and this is frequently a subject of argument. Thus Gold is the surer answer.

1. Call is better since the clue says "usually". When people Fall out there is always something wrong since a quarrel, of example, is, in itself, something wrong. Something being wrong is quite a usual reason for people Calling out.
2. Beam, yes, since it is definitely supposed to be strong. Signs of weakness in a Team do not necessarily imply any need for strengthening, depending entirely on what kind of Team it is. The average schoolboy Team, for instance, has many signs of weakness, but this hardly calls for "action".

Players Bear Down As Campaign Near

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Exhibition baseball almost had the air of championship competition about it yesterday, what with managers giving strategy a good workout and pinch hitters and relief pitchers getting the spotlight.

Four of the games were decided by one run, including a 3-2 decision by the Milwaukee Braves over the Brooklyn Dodgers as rookie Al Facchini broke up a 2-2 tie between the two National League contenders with a pinch single in the eighth.

With less than two weeks remaining before opening day, there was only one game that had more wallop than finesse. That was a 14-11 comedy won from the world champion New York Giants by the Cleveland Indians.

Cops' Portsider

Bob Brown, a pitcher-outfielder from Duran, Mich., has one thing in his favor in bidding for a job with the Big Spring Longhorn League entry. He's a left-hander and portsider hurlers come few and far between in the circuit.

Spirited Play Of Courtney Sparks Chicago Pale Hose

By GAYLE TALBOT

TAMPA (AP)—The brightest spot in the Chicago White Sox picture this spring, says General Manager Frank Lane, has been the spirited play of Clint Courtney, the bespectacled and belligerent catcher he picked up during the winter in one of his multiplayer deals with the Baltimore Orioles.

It was thought for a time, with some reason, that Lane acquired Courtney strictly as trading material, inasmuch as the Sox already had an established catcher in Sherm Lollar, but it is evident that he has no such thought now.

The stubby backstop from Louisiana, finally given a chance to play with a contender, is making the most of the opportunity.

"I'd say he is the one bright spot of the whole training season," Lane said. "He's made several plays that my manager Marty Marion says were as great as any he ever saw. In fact, Marty tells me that if I can get him a whole club of Courtney's and Jim Rivers he'll promise me a pennant. He says if you had nine who played the game as hard as they do, some of them couldn't help being great."

As it happens, Courtney and Rivers were the special pride and joy of Rogers Hornsby when the Rajah, now apparently washed up for good in the big show, was managing in the minors. Courtney knocked in 79 runs for him at Beaumont in 1950 and employed his ready fists to help maintain discipline on the club.

The following season Rivers played the outfield for Hornsby at Seattle and led the Coast League with a hitting mark of .352 while stealing 33 bases, Hornsby said, after the Sox bought Rivers for $65,000, that he was the only player in the game today whom he would be willing to pay his way in to see.

Jim hasn't quite lived up to that flowery notice, but he remains one of the principal cogs in the White Sox machine and both Lane and Marion feel this could be the year he attains real stardom.

Glovers Battle To A Deadlock

CHICAGO (AP)—Well-conditioned amateur boxers battled to a 4-4 team title deadlock in the annual Intercity Golden Gloves bouts between Chicago and New York last night.

The big show drew a crowd of 13,439 at Chicago Stadium and the fans had a great time, especially boosing a decision of one fight.

For 10 minutes the throng booed when James Archer, a rugged 20-year-old longshoreman from New York was awarded a split three-round decision over Willie Morton, a Chicago fighter on the Chicago team.

It was the eighth time in the 28-year series that Chicago and New York teams battled to a deadlock. Chicago has won 14 team crowns and New York six, including a 5-3 margin last year.

A team of 10 fighters from the Chicago squad of champions and alternates will be chosen sometime this month to invade England and Ireland for international competition. The team will leave the United States April 30 with bouts scheduled at Dublin on May 6, London May 11, Glasgow May 16 and Belfast May 18.

Donkey Ball Game Tuesday To Aid Teen-Age Program

A donkey ball game will be held at the Little League ball park in the northeast section of the city at 8 o'clock Tuesday it has been announced.

No admission fee will be charged but a collection will be taken at the gate. Proceeds will go toward formation of a Teen-Age Baseball Association here.

The donkeys to be used in the game are being rounded up locally. The Webb Air Base officers' group will organize one of the teams to play in the game. Identity of the other club had not been revealed at noon today.

The Teen-Age Baseball Association is replacing the Pony League here and will carry to two different age groups. Those 16 and 15 will be eligible in one division while 13- and 14-year-olds can play in the other circuit.

The drive to raise funds for construction of a Teen-Age park here has not gained much headway but $150 has already been raised toward the venture.

Tabbie Hurlers Should Be Good

By FLEM HALL

Fort Worth Star-Telegram

Fort Worth (AP)—The Fort Worth Cats probably will follow the familiar pattern set by the Brooklyn system which owns them.

That they'll turn up a little short on the infield, behind the bat or in the outfield but by the sheer weight of pitching ability and numbers they'll be in the first division.

The new manager, Tommy Holmes, carried up to 25 pitchers during his training period. Seven were returnees from last year and an eighth, John Jancec, had a 13-4 Texas League mark at San Antonio.

Mel Waters, George Thomas, Rudy Paynich, Gilbert Mills, Norman Fox, Carroll Beringer and Doug Gostlin are returning.

Other 1954 regulars available are first baseman Danny Ozark and outfielder Cal Felix.

Dick Williams, star here in 1949 and 1950, who has been with the Dodgers, is back for a new try. He has an injured shoulder.

Joe Pignatano, who caught for Holmes last season at Elmiria, may be one of the best rookies in camp.

The best showing was made by Dick Gray, a third baseman. There has been talk, however, that Cat President Spencer Harris wanted a Negro third-baseman, Clyde Parris.

Fort shortstop, the Cats purchased Robert Thomson, who had a trial with Beaumont in 1953. George Anderson, Gerald Didier, Bobby Dolan and Harry Schwegman have been competing for second base.

Stadium Facilities, Track Discussed By School Board

There was more talk of additional stadium facilities and of an adequate track at the Big Spring school board Tuesday evening.

The Red Sox ganged up on Rookie Jack Meyer for all the runs during the first six innings against the Philadelphia Phillies before veteran Murry Dickson set down nine Boston batters in the final three frames, Boston won 6-4.

The Giants and Indians each had 9 of the 18 automatic two-base hits in their 25-hit slugging contest. Cleveland clubbed Sal Maglie for eight runs and 10 hits in 3-1-3 innings. Ralph Kiner hit a two-run homer for the Tribe, Willie Mays and Al Dark did the same for New York.

The crowd caused umpire Ed Runge to rule interference in calling a Giants fly out in the ninth. That led to an argument between Runge and manager Leo Durocher of the Giants. And when the cop tried to butt in, Warneke pushed him out.

The idea of an advisory committee of a sizable number of citizens was advanced by R. W. Thompson.

McKinney said that there had been overtures from Howard County Junior College for a joint undertaking with Big Spring High School in constructing a cinder track for this spring sport. The board wanted to check into this

War Birds Depart Camp In Florida

MELBOURNE, Fla. (AP)—The remaining members of the Dallas Eagles left here today for Texas where they will hold their first practice session on Texas soil Sunday.

The Eagles and Southern Methodist have scheduled their annual exhibition game Monday night at Burnett Field, Dallas, open to the Texas League against Shreveport Wednesday, April 6.

SMU's Mustangs, with the help of a Giants fly out in the ninth, defeated the Steers 5-4 Thursday. It was the Longhorns' second loss against a victory and a tie in four starts. It was the Mustangs' second triumph over the Longhorns.

The victory gave the Methodists the top rung in Southwest Conference baseball standings.

Bob Bogan's three-run round-tripper was the difference. Tommy Bowers, working in relief, looked like a world-beater as he choked off a Texas rally in the ninth.

DALLAS (AP)—Southern Methodist opened links competition in the Southwest Conference by whipping Rice 5-1 yesterday.

SMU won four clear-cut matches and split points with Rice on two other matches.

Robison, Fuller Are Favorites

Coach Harold Bentley plans to carry about 25 members of the Big Spring High School track and field team with him to Kermit Saturday for the fourth annual Permian Basin Relays.

The Steers are counting on piling up points in the mile run, the discus throw, possibly the shot put and in the relay races.

Bobby Fuller should get 'into the money' in the mile. He improves every week. Although he finished only fourth in last week's West Texas Relays at Odessa, he turned in his best time.

Frosty Robison has won two first places in a row in discus throws at Midland and Odessa. On each occasion, he beat Midland's Wahoo McDaniel less than a foot, however.

Eighteen teams are entered at Kermit and a late entry, Colorado City, could win the team trophy.

Grandfalls and Imperial have withdrawn from the one-day track carnival.

Hollis Galney, a speedster at short distances, leads the Colorado City team into action.

Andrews, the defending State Class AA champion, remains one of the favorites to take home the team award.

McCahey and Fort Stockton are others due to make strong bids. Big Spring's sprint and medley relay teams could place without causing too much surprise. The Steer quartets ran very good races in Odessa last week, although they didn't finish in the money.

Dickie Milam of the Steers is a good bet to place in the shot put. He has been putting the shot 45 feet in practice.

Last year, 10 of the 14 records fell in the meet. Several are in danger again this year.

Fuller has run the mile a full six seconds faster than the present mark, held by Don Gooch of Andrews.

Robison threw the discus 145 feet 6 inches last week, which eclipses the Kermit record held by Sonny Langham of Pecos. Langham threw the saucer 137 feet 8 inches last year.
