Anheuser-Busch $1 Million for Scholarships

With a strong start from Anheuser-Busch Companies and its announcement of $1 million in support, the National Hispanic Scholarship Fund (NHSF) has launched its 1987 national development program. The effort represents the most ambitious fundraising and internal development program in the 12-year history of NHSF.

An estimated 250 government, business and community leaders from all parts of the nation as well as Hollywood celebrities celebrated the start-up of the drive during a gala reception held August 11 in Los Angeles.

Among those at the reception was Luis Valdez, director of the year's most successful films,

"La Bamba," and a strong supporter of organizations working to serve Hispanic young people.

"As we begin another year, it is clear ... that much work remains to be done if even more Hispanics are to attend institutions of higher learning," said Archbishop Patrick F. Flores of San Antonio, Texas, president of NHSF. He continued, "NHSF needs your help now more than ever, as the number of those in need of financial help continues to grow."

A major component of the 1987 development program, under the theme, "Join the Partnership," is fundraising. With activities scheduled for September, October and November, NHSF will reach a total of 33 cities located throughout the United States. NHSF officials pointed out that funds raised at the local events will directly benefit FHispanic students from those areas.

Gala banquets will be held in the top 14 Hispanic cities: New York City, Miami, Florida; Washington, D.C.; Chicago, Illinois; Houston, Dallas, and Corpus Christi, Texas; Denver, Colorado; Phoenix, Arizona; San Juan, Puerto Rico; Albuquerque, New Mexico; and Los Angeles, San Francisco and San Diego, California.

In addition, 19 NHSF receptions will be held in McAllen/Brownsville, El Paso, San Antonio, Laredo, Lubbock and Austin, Texas; Salinas, Stockton, San Jose, Riverside, Fresno, Sacramento and Bakersfield, California; Tucson, Arizona; Boston, Massachusetts; Colorado Springs/Pueblo, Colorado; Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; Tampa, St. Petersburg, Florida; and New Orleans, Louisiana.

Aside from the fundraising activities, NHSF is also planning to develop an alumni group, local action committees in selected cities and an Education Support Group.

Founded in 1975, NHSF awarded its first scholarship a year later. Since then, the organization has provided a total of $3.6 million in scholarships to more than 6,000 NHSF scholars throughout the United States. Recipients include students of Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, Caribbean, and Central and South American descent.

Tech-Lamar Draws Yawns, Not Fans, To Jones

Marchison

Alborn

Weather and sports boosters employed by Lubbock's three commercial and entertainment television "news" programs are not the only observers hurt and puzzled by the Alfred E. Newman "What, me worry?" attitude of Lubbock football "fans."

A tiny crowd of less than 25,000 is expected at kick-off time, 7 pm, Saturday night at Jones Stadium, when the Red Raiders meet the Lamar Cardinals.

Lamar, a Division I-AA team, is the scrub-ststitute home game replacing the zapped Southern Methodist Mustangs.

An even smaller crowd may show up if the weather continues cool and rainy through Saturday night.

Tech is favored, even though Cardinal coach Ray Alborn, a fired and so former head coach at Rice, has won some ball games as a visitor to Jones.

The Cardinals will be led by explosive Burton Marchison, a Division I-AA All-American last year.

The Raiders, coming home after another wipe-out in Florida, edged Colorado State last week.

So far, the Raiders have been led by reserve quarterback Scott Toman, halfback James Gray, and left offensive guard Mike McBride.

What to look for: Like the frat boys and sorority sisters themselves, what they'll be wearing for fall fashions if inclement weather prevails.

The Dallas Cowboys may be rescued after Sunday's game with the defending Super Bowl Champion New York Giants by an institution not exactly beloved in the contemporary mentality of Texans.

Labor unions—not Roger Staubach—probably will come to the rescue of the encircled franchise that has lost eight consecutive National Football League games.

As San Francisco 49ers Coach Bill Walsh said Wednesday, "I'm certain the NFL Players Association will strike next week."

Ownership and union membership remained far from agreement on the critical issues of free agency, minimum salaries, and guaranteed contracts Thursday.

Players representative Gene Upsahaw labeled management's latest proposals "garbage" and management representative Jack Donlan called the players' proposals "cynical."

Neither side was willing to negotiate further or to submit disagreements to arbitration.

Informed national media speculation this week indicated that the players union likely will vote to strike Tuesday. Management is expected to retaliate by fielding pick-up teams of rejects who did not previously qualify to play NFL football.

Cowboys President Tex Schramm, an ardent union foe and an influential member of the owner's executive council, was quoted in both Dallas newspapers Wednesday as implying a strike virtually was certain.

The Cowboys, who surrendered three touchdowns in the last two minutes and two seconds of their opener last Sunday in St. Louis, were 12 and one-half betting points underdogs for Sunday's 3 pm start in New Jersey.

Bad Company Good at Volleyball

Famed volleyball promoter Ray Herrera said he pulled off another major coup last week with the most successful volleyball tournament in the history of Lubbock.

Bad Company, led by Odie Olsson and Gary Gordino, out-tipped Tempo in the Herrera Classic played last Saturday and Sunday in Wagner Park. Slam Session finished third.

Other participating teams were the Energizers, Night Riders, Rookies, Ventures Communications, Sixers, Polo, Six Pac, TK 2, and last but not least, Genesis.

Herrera said he would hold his next tournament "in about four weeks if I can find me an indoor place to play."

"We urge golfers to register early for a good tee time," said tournament coordinator Gilbert Flores. However, registration will be accepted from 9 am until 12 noon Sunday.

The fee for the tournament is $30 and includes prizes for "nearest to the hole" and the "worst game," according to Flores.

Free food and keg beer also will be served to participants.

COMA Holds 2nd Annual Scholarship Golf Tourney

ESTACADO MATADORS

Estacado may not be creaming its opponents like last year, but Coach Louis Kelley keeps pulling running backs who can run like jackrabbits out of his old baseball cap.

Thursday night at Lowrey Field, the Matadors speared a game gang of Tigers from Frenship when junior fullback Clyde Boyd glided for 102 yards and two touchdowns to pace the Mats' 18-7 victory.

The previous Thursday night, a 74-yard run by Charles White helped Big Spring drop Estacado, 18-13. The Mats are now 2-1.

Lubbock High, meanwhile, lost a wild shootout in San Antonio, 49-39 to Lakeview High, despite Westerner quarterback Victor Lafebre's 301-yard gunslinging.

The Westerners face Clovis in a rare Saturday afternoon shootout at Lowrey Field this weekend.

Last Friday night at Lowrey, the Dunbar Panthers were outhit at the line of scrimmage and fell to Monterey, when Plainsman fullback Ed Crites rammed for 145 yards in 21 carries.

This Friday, Dunbar travels to Clayton.

Warriors Back To Bash Boxing Beaks

The Lubbock Warriors will be back in beak-bashing action soon.

And Johnny Almaguer will be among them.

Those are the assurances given Wednesday by Edward Hernan dez, Warrior coach.

"We'll start training soon, and we're now scheduling a card for November to put on here in Lubbock," Hernandez said. "We'd also like to put on a card here in January."

The Warriors will take road trips this year to slug it out with boxing teams in Amarillo, Odessa, Fr. Worth, Houston, San Antonio, and Wichita Falls, Hernandez said.

In addition to Almaguer, a former state boxing champion, the Warriors will feature a stable of sluggers including 15-year old Robin Brown. Hernandez said the 106 pound flyweight was the Warriors' "most promising newcomer."

Un Rayito De Luz

por Sofia Martinez

Jesucristo quiso que comenzáramos esta divina oración, llamando a Dios: "Padre Nuestro," y no "Señor Nuestro"; porque la palabra "Señor", nos da la idea de un Dios de imperio y majestad, que para adorarle se postran los ángeles, y doblan las rodillas todas las potestades del cielo, y de la tierra y de los abismos; y la palabra "Padre", nos da la idea de un Dios de amor y de ternura, que se complace en oír lo que Sus hijos le piden para responderles favorablemente. La palabra "Señor" nos inspira temor, y reverencia, y nos hace ver que somos siervos de Nuestro

Señor; la palabra "Padre" nos hace ver que somos hijos de "Nuestro Padre Dios". Porque Dios nos ama tanto que nos ha llamado Sus hijos, y esto nos da a entender que Dios nos ha criado, nos hizo de la nada, y nos hizo a imagen y semejanza de El. La Gracia Santificante nos hace tomar parte de la Divinidad de Dios y esa es la razón de que somos semejantes a Dios. Solamente Jesucristo es Verdadero Hijo de Dios, resplandor del Padre, imagen perfecta de la Divinidad. Nosotros somos hijos de Dios por la adopción que nos mereció Jesucristo, y sin ella no se nos daría la gracia que nos hace "hijos de Dios". También por el bautismo somos hijos de Cristo y de la Iglesia; y en todo eso debemos de ver, muy claro, la incomparable dignidad a donde nos ha elevado Dios, haciendonos hijos de El, y haciendose El mismo Padre Nuestro, para que a toda costa y con cualquier sacrificio conservemos este grandísimo derecho de hijos de Dios, y no lo pierdamos por ningún pecado. (1. Jn. 3,1.) Cuando oramos con el Padre Nuestro, no hablamos nomás con la primera persona de la Santísima Trinidad, que es el "Padre," sino también con la segunda, que es el "Hijo," y con la tercera, que es el "Espíritu Santo." Hablamos con Dios, que son tres personas en un solo Dios. Decimos "Padre Nuestro", y no "Padre del universo" porque es natural que no debe llamarse "Padre" de aquellas creaturas que no tienen entendimiento para conocerle, ni tienen voluntad para amarlo; ni tampoco deben de llamarse hijas de Dios, porque son solamente "corporales", y no son semejantes a Dios, porque El es un espíritu Purísimo. Después de los ángeles, solamente nosotros gozamos el privilegio de ser llamados "hijos de Dios", porque hemos sido creados a Su imagen y semejanza, y porque hemos sido adoptados por "hijos de Dios", por los méritos de Jesucristo; y por esa razón, en este mundo, nomás los humanos tenemos derecho de llamarle "Padre" a Nuestro Padre Dios Todopoderoso. (Mat. 6,9). La Iglesia Católica tiene la Biblia desde los primeros Cristianos, en aquellos tiempos todos eran Católicos, de un solo rebaño bajo un solo pastor, que llamaban a Dios "Padre" porque así les enseñó Jesucristo y, los Católicos de hoy en día, le Seguimos y le seguiremos llamando "Padre Nuestro". Mateo 6, 9-15. Luc. 11, 2-4.

El día 13 del mismo se llevo a cabo una Guardia ante el Monumento de Don Miguel Hidalgo y Costilla. Los que integraron la Comisión de Lubbock fueron los siguientes: Ray Figueroa, Grado 9º; Andy Cruz, Gr. 9º; Ramon Renteria Gr. 9º; Silvia Garcia Gr. 5º; Eleazar Gaona, Gr. 9º; Marcus J. The Challenge of Discipleship

by the Rev. Michael Dobbs B.,

Pastor of "El Calvario" United Methodist Church of Midland

I hope that everyone had a very enjoyable summer and that you are ready now to launch into the activities of the fall season with new energy now that summer is over. Since this is the week of the celebrations of the 16th of September, we do well to think briefly about what motivated Father Miguel Hidalgo y Costilla to take the drastic step of beginning a revolution against such a powerful nation as Spain. He was fighting for justice and for the welfare of all the population of Mexico, for the Indians and mestizos as well as for those of Spanish descent. Those two words "justice" and "welfare" have very deep and rich meanings rooted in the Bible. Jesus said in Matthew 6:33 that we are seek first "the kingdom (rule) of God and his righteousness (justice)". The justice of God means "what God requires". God requires and desires social, economic, and political justice as well as individual and moral righteousness for his sons and daughter and for all his creatures. "Welfare" is part of the meaning of the rich Hebrew word, "shalom". It refers to our physical and emotional needs being met. If we live within the reign or rule of God, that is with God ruling our lives, we will experience the well being that God desires for us. Surely these things were on the mind of Hidalgo y Costilla as he began the revolution in his province of Mexico. Let us think about these things during these days and may they continue to inspire and motivate us to seek the same things in our society today.

Concerning our local situation in Midland, let us pray for the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals in New Orleans this week as they are deciding the single member district issue in the Midland on the school board. There are indeed people who do not want to see such representation come to fruition and there are others who are ready to compromise with the dominant powers in Midland after this long struggle. Let us pray that they do not succeed and that finally we get single member districts and the representation we deserve on the school board.

"El Desafio del Discipulado"

Por el Rdo. Michael Dobbs B.

Pastor de la Iglesia Metodista Unida "El Calvario" de Midland

Espero que todos pasaron un verano muy feliz y que estén lanzándose con nuevas fuerzas ahora que ha terminado el verano. Puesto que esta es la semana de las celebraciones del 16 de septiembre, nos sirve pensar un momento que motivo al Padre Miguel Hidalgo y Costilla para que tomara el paso tan drástico de comenzar una revolución. Precisamente estaba luchando por la justicia y el bienestar de toda la población de México tanto los indios y los mestizos como los españoles. Esas dos palabras "la justicia" y "el bienestar" tienen significados muy ricos y profundos. Jesucristo dijo en Mateo 6:33 que hemos de "buscar primeramente el reino de Dios y Su justicia". La justicia de Dios es lo que Dios requiere de la humanidad. Hay la justicia social, económica, y política tanto como la justicia moral e individual. Dios requiere y desea todas estas partes de la justicia por todos sus hijos e hijas y criaturas. "El bienestar" es parte del significado de la palabra hebrea "shalom". "El bienestar" se refiere al hecho que todas las necesidades físicas y emocionales de uno están satisfechas. Si vivimos dentro del reino de Dios, es decir, con Dios gobernando a nuestras vidas, vamos a experimentar "el bienestar" que Dios quiera por nosotros. Muy seguro que estas cosas y sueños estaban en la mente de Hidalgo y Costilla cuando comenzó la revolución en su provincia de México. Pensemos de estas cosas en estos días y dejemos que sigan inspirando y motivando a nosotros para los mismos fines en nuestra propia sociedad. En cuanto a la situación local en Midland, oremos por la quinta corte de apelaciones en Nueva Orleans esta semana porque está decidiendo ahora la causa que pueda por fin darle representación al este de Midland en la mesa directiva del distrito escolar por distritos individuales. Hay personas que no quieren ver esto y personas que están listas para hacer un acuerdo o compromiso después de una lucha tan larga. Oremos que ellos no tengan éxito y que salgamos teniendo representación por distritos individuales por fin.

Una Comisión de MASONES Hispánicos de la ciudad de Lubbock estuvieron en Matamoros, Tamps. México en las fechas de 12 y 13 de septiembre representando a todos los MASONES de esta región ante el Supremo Gran Consejo de el Rito Nacional Mexicano.

La Masonería no es una iglesia confesional sino una Fraternidad en que pueden coincidir hombres de todas religiones confesionales. Las gentes que nada saben de la Masonería y las que juzgan esta gran fraternidad por los informes de sus naturales, consideran la Masonería una institución peligrosa o una reunión de ilusos que se juntan para perder el tiempo y conspirar.

Nada más alejado de la verdad. El día 27 de septiembre abra una tenida introregional en el Templo Masónico de Abernathy, Texas a las 5 de la tarde en la cual se le invita a todos los miembros que asistan a esta tenida para darles el reporte de los comisionados.
