CLASS AMONG THE CLASSICS-These modern "Three Graces" springing through the air are members of the Jutia Klamt dance group, rehearsing at the Reichssportfield, Berlin.

. PITY THE POOR FISH-A pompous name. Luvarus Imperialis, is borne by this toothless fish, to match its ponderous brow and weight, 225 pounds. It was caught at New South Wales.

NEXT ON JOE'S LIST-Optimistic Bob Pastor, heavy-weight challenger, squares off at his Saratoga Springs camp where he's training for a bout with Joe Louis Sept. 20 at Detroit. Pastor once stayed 10 rounds with Louis.

WHEN A HINDU 'CUTS A RUG'-This may not be a fitterbut routine, but devotees of swing could get some ideas from Ram Gopal (ceuter) and his Hindu dancers, rehearsing in London.

MONEY MAID-Election of Dorothy Comiskey (above), 22, daughter of the late J. Louis Comiskey, as treasurer of the Chicago White Sox, was a logical outcome at Sox directors' meet-ing. Both her father and grand-father had owned the club.

MEET JITTERBUGS. JR. !-Instead of dying out, the littlerbug crase has produced offspring, in the shape of a national junior jitterbug contest, and here are the winners going it strong. They are Jimmy Brennan of Elizabeth, N. J., and Tessie Fenkan of Garwood, N. J., who won a cash prize plus a Broadway night club engagement, at a recent New York contest.

FOOLERY-Fall hats haven't advanced past the foolish stage, if one can believe in this John Frederics' creation, worn by Stella Aloisia in New York. It's a monkey hat.

OUT OF MAN'S DUST-Yes sir, that's earn growing under the noses of Wall Street skyserapers. Gardener John Stehlik, thanks to his whim last April is planting some of the kernels left for birds, now has 10 stalks of evergreen corn in the historic graveyard of St. Paul's chapel, Church and Vesey streets, New York. Stalks have 10 ears, worth about 50 cents.

TROUBLED-Uneasy days has Marian Chodacki (above), Polish commissioner to the Free City of Danzig, regarded as a possible breeding spot for a general European war.

TO ARMS, SMALL BOY-Little Dickie Lee, 5, a Chinese boy from Brooklyn, found a pleasant refuge in the arms of William Bankhead, speaker of the house, during the lad's visit to Washington, D. C. Dickie, who's touring the country making speeches for a fund for Chinese refugee children, called at the capitol and made ready friends with the Alabama legislator.

UNCLE SAM HOLDS 'OPEN HOUSE'-Crowds flocked to the U. S. army al Mitchell field, Long Island, when this Douglas bomber was put on exhibit as part of the 30th anniversary of milliary avisiton. Flights by some 2,000 army planes throughout the marked the 30th year since the U. S. army purchased its first military plane. (Note the
