When the flying Texas and Pacific passenger train was derailed at Ranger, tossing the engine (lower right) and other cars off the track, the engineer, L. M. Mann, 65, and fireman Ernest Preston, 45, were killed. Joe Mann, brother of Mann, was killed similarly on the same curve 28 years ago. The engine in this view of the wreckage is covered with mud.

Great Crowd Views State Hospital

The Big Spring State Hospital received its first patient at 11 a. m. Monday following a weekend of "open house" which attracted thousands of visitors from this city and surrounding territory.

Other patients were expected soon from overcrowded institutions at San Antonio and Wichita Falls.

Amazed by the number of people who visited the state's newest eleemosynary institution on Saturday and Sunday afternoons, Dr. George T. McMahan, superintendent, indicated satisfaction with the public response to the new hospital for the mentally ill.

He could not estimate the number of those inspecting the eight buildings of the hospital unit, but remarked that it was the "most people" he had ever seen at a similar function.

The driveways at the hospital, located one mile north of town, were lined solidly Saturday afternoon when doors were thrown open to visitors. From the time first visitors were admitted at 1 p. m. Sunday until 5 p. m., several hundred cars were packed and jammed on hospital properties.

Each of the seven major buildings were acutely crowded during the entire afternoon. Staff members were on duty at all places to inform visitors about various phases of the million dollar plant.

Special Parley For Elk Lodge Set Tonight

An important meeting of the local Elk lodge has been called for 7:30 this evening in the ballroom of the Crawford hotel.

Floyd H. Brown, special deputy for the grand exalted ruler, has been in the city for several days assisting in local organization problems, and will be in charge of tonight's meeting. He said important items relating to future activity of the lodge—recently reorganized here—would come before the group, and urged all Elks to attend.

NOMINATIONS SENT UP ON MINISTERS

WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)—President Roosevelt sent to the senate today the nominations of Claude G. Bowers, of New York, to be ambassador to Chile; Edwin C. Wilson, of Florida, to be minister to Uruguay, and Douglas Jenkins, of South Carolina, to be minister to Bolivia.

The president also nominated Max O'Rell Truitt of Missouri to be a member of the United States maritime commission for a six-year term which began last September 26. Truitt was a recess appointee.

Germany Fighting Both Political And Economic 'Encirclement'

BERLIN, June 5 (AP)—By the word of Adolf Hitler and his agriculture minister, Germany is engaged in a struggle against both political and economic "encirclement"—fighting the first with military rearmament and the second with efforts toward economic self-sufficiency.

Cheered by more than 300,000 persons, according to Nazi estimates, the Reichsfuehrer told the annual meeting of war veterans at Kassel yesterday "if the English encirclement policy remains what it was in 1914, it must be observed that the German defense policy has been fundame. ally altered."

Agriculture Minister Walter R. Darre, opening the annual farm exposition at Leipzig yesterday, said Germany faced "economic encirclement" which has to be regarded just as seriously as political encirclement.

Darre said the Nazi program emphasized the mechanization of farms and development of fat and oil-bearing plants.

Hitler found time, despite entertainment of Yugoslavia's visiting regent, Prince Paul, to fly to Kassel by military plane to address his old comrades.

He told the veterans he was not impressed by threats from any side and once again rejected the thesis of German "war guilt." He charged "the treaty of Versailles

REFUGEE SHIP UNDER GUARD

MIAMI, Fla., June 5 (AP)—Coast guard and immigration officials held themselves on the alert today as the German steamship St. Louis cruised in the vicinity of the Florida coast, 807 Jewish refugees aboard it having gained their first view of the land many hope eventually to enter.

The big ocean liner was sighted by the coast guard yesterday moving slowly past Fort Lauderdale. A patrol boat dropped in behind it and trailed it until sundown.

For two hours the ship rode at anchor off the Miami channel light, easily visible from shore. The green of coconut palms and the gleaming walls of luxurious beachfront hotels must have been visible, too, to the refugees, who fled Germany for Cuba and were denied entry there.

Two coast guard planes were dispatched from Miami to keep the anchored craft under surveillance and the patrol boat hovered nearby. Then the St. Louis hoisted its anchor and, barely making headway, moved southeastward.

Early today a large steamer halted off Miami Beach fore more than an hour before it cruised slowly northward. Although its lights were visible from shore and watchers speculated the vessel was the refugee ship it could not be identified in the darkness.

Immigration Inspector Walter B. Thomas emphasized today the concern with the German vessel was a routine matter.

He had no instructions from Washington, he said, and the attention paid the vessel was only that which would be paid any craft with aliens aboard.

Quitting Date Left To FDR Peecos Boosts July Rodeo

WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)—Congressional leaders left directly up to President Roosevelt today to decide whether congress should adjourn in mid-July or stay in session until the neutrality law could be revised.

Administration lieutenants in both chambers were said to have agreed the house could approve the legislation within six weeks, but lengthy senate debate might run into August.

There has been some talk that the administration would be satisfied to have its neutrality proposals approved by the house only. Then, if foreign developments required, the president could call a special session this fall in an effort to obtain senate passage.

The house foreign affairs committee began consideration today

THREE KILLED AND THREE HURT IN CRASH

CORPUS CHRISTI, June 5 (AP)—Three men were killed and three seriously injured as two automobiles collided head-on near Premont about 1 o'clock this morning.

Candelano Perez, Alice; Fred Caranza, 20, Robstown, and Gumaro Bustos, 26, Robstown, were killed.

Carlos Correno is in an Alice hospital in serious condition. Nacimo Morales and Willie Buston also were seriously hurt.

Germany Fighting Both Political And Economic 'Encirclement'

BERLIN, June 5 (AP)—Well-informed quarters close to the foreign office reported today that Germany would sign non-aggression pacts with Latvia and Estonia Wednesday.

A treaty embodying non-aggression clauses was signed with Lithuania, a third Baltic state, soon after Germany's annexation of Memel.

Of six countries offered non-aggression pacts by Chancellor Hitler, Denmark has signed and Norway, Sweden and Finland have declined.

These objectives included robbery of our colonies, destruction of German commerce, annihilation of the fundamental basis for German existence and frustration of German political aspirations—in other words, the same objectives for which British and French politicians are striving today," he said.

WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)—In the wake of word Vice President Garner would seek the democratic presidential nomination in 1940, new dealers today took the attitude: wait and see what the president does.

While the chief executive's supporters professed to have no information as to whether he would seek a third term, they argued that until he discloses his intentions, it is futile to talk about other candidates.

Friends of Garner disclosed Saturday he had decided to let his name go before the convention next year even if the president should seek renomination.

FD'S THIRD-TERM DECISION AWAITED

WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)—A Garner-for-president organization already is operating, managed by E. B. Germany, Texas democratic chairman, and Mrs. Clara Driscoll, Texas national committeewoman. The organization has Garner's blessing, it was reported reliably, and is preparing to extend its activities throughout the country.

The vice president's name probably will be entered in the 12 states which use the primary system for choosing delegates, and his lieutenants will work for Garner-instructed delegations in the states which have the convention system.

Hague's Law Held Invalid By Court

Right Of Free Assemblage Denied, Majority Rules

WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)—The supreme court ruled today that Mayor Frank Hague of Jersey City had violated the constitutional right of free assemblage in interfering with CIO meetings.

Ordinance Invalid

The tribunal held unconstitutional a Jersey City ordinance authorizing the director of public safety to prohibit public meetings in streets or parks for the purpose of preventing "riots, disturbances or disorderly assemblage."

The Hague decision was five to two, with Justices McReynolds and Butler dissenting.

Justices Roberts and Black delivered one opinion, Justices Stone and Reed another and Chief Justice Hughes delivered a concurring opinion.

Roberts said in his opinion members of the CIO "are free to hold meetings without a permit and without regard to the terms of the void ordinance."

The tribunal upheld, in general, a ruling by the federal circuit court at Philadelphia enjoining Hague and his police from prohibiting CIO meetings, and the circuit court's finding that the Jersey City ordinance was unconstitutional.

Previously the Roosevelt administration's attempt to stabilize the milk industry by fixing minimum prices and equalizing the amount paid producers was held constitutional.

Justice Reed delivered the decision sustaining the government's program for stabilizing the milk industry in the New York area.

The opinion held that the power of congress to enact the 1937 agricultural marketing act depended upon the peculiar use and nature of milk.

Justices Black and Douglas concurred in the opinion, explaining, however, that they did not believe the court was called upon to indicate, as they interpreted the opinion to hold, that "there is such a constitutional limitation on the power of congress to regulate interstate-commerce."

It was a five to four decision with Chief Justices Hughes and Justices McReynolds, Butler and Roberts dissenting.

The Reed opinion reversed a ruling by the northern New York federal district court holding unconstitutional milk provisions of the 1937 agricultural marketing act and an order issued by Secretary of Agriculture Wallace regulating the interstate sale of milk in the New York City area.

As the justices completed the session's work, there was some

Fire Damages Refinery Still

Cracking still at the Howard County Refining Co. plant one mile west of town was badly damaged by fire Sunday afternoon.

Extent of the damage could not be learned immediately pending a check by insurance adjusters.

According to reports at the refinery, the fire broke out tubes ruptured, blowing a header, tubing, interior and roof of the still unit were hard hit by the blaze.

The fire department was called to the plant, but the flames fortunately were confined to the still, averting a threat to the entire refinery.

Business Loan Plan Offered

WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)—A proposal to use some of the book profits of gold devaluation to provide loans for small and medium-sized businesses was offered today by Marriner S. Eccles.

Eccles suggested a new government corporation be created within the framework of the federal reserve system, with about $12,000,000 capital taken from some of the $2,500,000,000 profit from reduction of the gold content of the dollar.

At the same time, Eccles told senators anyone who believed any "lending device" for business was "going to be the primary motive power in full recovery" was going to be "very disappointed."

He said the treasury had used about $27,000,000 of increment from gold devaluation to set up insurance of bank deposits and that another $112,000,000 was available for the business loan program.

He suggested that the new corporation be given $100,000,000 capital and power to issue tax-exempt debentures for five times this amount.

Of this, Eccles said, $25,000,000 should be set aside for small business loans of $50 to $25,000 that would be completely insured. He explained that these small loans could be paid in full on losses, providing no one loan was greater than 10 per cent of the loans of this type made by one bank.

Italian Demands For Voice In Suez Operations Denied

PARIS, June 5 (AP)—The board of directors of the Suez Canal company today approved unanimously a proposal to reject for the time being Italian demands for representation in its management.

The action was requested by the Marquis De Vogüe, president of the board, at its annual meeting. He criticized Italy's demands.

"These promoters and their allies—leaning on errors of fact and on errors of date and figures which denote extremely bad faith if they are voluntary and extreme ignorance if they are not—are doing their utmost to oppose our rights, to run down our management and throw doubt on our loyalty," he said.

EQUALIZATION WORK TO START THURSDAY

County commissioners court will go into session Thursday morning as a board of equalization to fix and equalize oil, utility and railroad property values for tax purposes for 1939.

LAREDO, June 5 (AP)—Officers believed today a hit-and-run automobile driver responsible for the death of Pvt. Julian Dahl, 24, of the Eighth U. S. Engineers of Fort McIntosh.

Dahl's body was found on a highway about 40 miles east of here.

HOUSE VOTES PROBE OF LOBBY ACTIVITY IN BEHALF OF SALES TAX AMENDMENT

FULL PROBE OF SUB DISASTER IS PROMISED

Chamberlain Goes Before Commons To Explain All Details Now Known

LONDON, June 5 (AP)—Prime Minister Chamberlain told the House of Commons today a full public inquiry would be held into the submarine Thetis disaster in which 99 men perished.

The prime minister, in what he called a full account of the disaster as far as details were known, declared two forward compartments in the submarine were flooded through the forward torpedo tube.

Chamberlain disclosed that after the submarine was located she was lost for nearly 18 hours, presumably on Saturday, when her marking buoy was cut away by the slipping of a wire placed around the hull.

The wire, he said "slipped the wrong way" after being placed around the Thetis at 7:15 a. m. "cutting away the indicator buoy. The submarine was relocated at approximately 11 p. m."

In describing the flooding, Chamberlain said it was found impossible to close the watertight door behind the first compartment but flooding was restricted to the second compartment.

The main ballast tank was emptied but the submarine continued to dive and struck bottom in about 130 feet of water in Liverpool bay, he said.

This impact destroyed the signaling apparatus, making it impossible for the submarine to communicate with surface vessels.

A marker buoy was released, Chamberlain said, and smoke floats sent up but they were not observed by the escorting tug which was with the Thetis when she made her tragic dive at 1:40 p. m. (7:50 a. m. C.S.T.) Thursday.

To facilitate escape of personnel, the prime minister said, all measures were taken by the crew to lighten the submarine and the stern tubes came to the surface by daylight Friday.

Chamberlain said the personnel of the inquiry board was under consideration but he could not say when the investigation would open.

After describing the finding of the submarine and the rescue efforts briefly, Chamberlain said that in view of the magnitude of the disaster it was proposed that a full public inquiry be held.

The prime minister said three men were believed to have been killed in trying to escape through the Davis lung method by which four men saved themselves.

Chamberlain related that a strong tide made diving operations difficult and efforts to raise the protruding stern higher were unsuccessful.

To attempt to cut a hole in the stern in her position then would have incurred severe risk of flooding which would have been unjustified, he said.

Before Chamberlain made his statement, R. S. Johnson, managing director of Cammell Laird, Ltd., builders of the submarine, announced the original cause of trouble in the sunken craft was water in the forward torpedo tube.

'Wall Street Agents' Draw Chief Blame

Bradbury Says People Should Know What's Going On

AUSTIN, June 5 (AP)—A resolution providing for an investigation of lobbyists declared to have assembled here in unprecedented numbers for the purpose of passing the controversial sales tax constitutional amendment was adopted overwhelmingly by the House of Representatives today. The vote was 9 to 26.

Pending in Senate

A somewhat similar resolution is pending in the senate.

The house acted after a blistering speech by Rep. J. Bryan Bradbury of Abilene, author of the investigation proposal, who asserted that if the people of Texas knew what was going on in Austin, supposedly in their behalf, there would be a revolution.

Agents of Wall street, utilities and special interests which always have opposed old age assistance and

AUSTIN, June 5 (AP)—The house refused today by a close vote to set either June 10 or June 14 as the adjournment date for the longest legislative session in Texas history. The vote was 75 to 65.

Some foes of the resolution said they did not want to fix an adjournment date until the appropriations bills returned from conference committees while others took the position there should be further tax moves before a date was set.

Other forms of social security are now pending every effort, Bradbury said, to submit the constitutional amendment and "put across the crime of the century."

Opponents of the investigation resolution which is a joint one requiring senate approval, objected it reflected on legislators who supported the constitutional amendment, which is favored by Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel.

Before final adoption, the resolution was amended to provide investigation of all lobbyists in Austin, and for the inquiry to begin immediately.

The investigating committee would examine "expense accounts, hotel bills, liquor bills and all other expenditures" by lobbyists favoring the sales tax constitutional amendment.

"The constitution," the resolution recited, "allows the privilege of petitions and of appearing before committees for the purpose of favoring or opposing legislation, but these special interest lobbyists and special agents of Wall street are not here for the exercising of their constitutional purpose. On the other hand it has been rumored they have resorted to wrongful methods in an effort to influence the action of the legislature, and are doing

Tax Revision Termed 'Duty'

WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)—John W. Hanes, undersecretary of the treasury, told the house today the administration had a "duty" to make any tax changes that might be necessary to stimulate business.

"Wherever we find," Hanes, a former Wall Street broker said, "that the tax system may be operating against the necessary incentive and is interfering with legitimate and necessary enterprise, it seems plain to me it is our duty to correct the situation."

Hanes endorsed in full the tax recommendations made recently by Secretary Morgenthau. They included removal of "tax irritants" such as the undistributed profits tax, and the capital stock and excess profits taxes.

Justifying the huge size of federal expenditures was due largely to social security, unemployment relief and other social laws, Hanes said "the social reforms desired by the people can be sustained and developed only by the recovery of private enterprise, which, after all, is the backbone of federal revenue."

Royalty Will See Niagara

SUDBURY, Ont., June 5 (AP)—Their touring Britannic majesties were back in Ontario today, making a "cleanup" visit to rich sections of the province missed on their trip to the Pacific.

Preparatory to crossing into the United States Wednesday night at Niagara Falls, the royal itinerary called for a dress civic reception in eight short stops and four that will last an hour or more at Sudbury, London, Hamilton and Niagara Falls—not to mention observation platform appearances.

Thousands of citizens from mining towns hereabouts poured into Sudbury by special train and automobile to receive King George and Queen Elizabeth at 9:30 p. m. CDT, today on their first principal stop since leaving Sioux Lookout, Northwestern Ontario, last night.

It was expected the 30,000 population would be tripled by the time the king and queen reach Athletic park, where Sudbury and Copper Cliff will tender a joint reception in view of 15,000 school children and 900 other invited guests.

A 15-minute visit is scheduled tomorrow evening for Windsor, where 600,000 persons from nearby Ontario counties and Detroit, just across the international border, are expected.

Scheduled to leave Windsor at 6:45 p. m., the royal train will carry their majesties to an hour's visit Wednesday at London, thence to Hamilton and Niagara Falls.

At Niagara Falls the royal visitors, in a three and one-half hour visit, will do raincoats and hoods like any tourist or honeymooner and view the rainbow from a tunnel cut through each of the base of the falls on the Canadian side. They will cross into the United States at 9:30 p. m.

STREET REPAIR IS IN FULL SWING

Repairing of city streets, damaged by flood waters a week ago, was in full swing Monday.

As city crews under the direction of E. J. McDaniel, city superintendent of operations, set about their job on the 300 block of Ransell street, they found that large areas of apparently sound paving top had been undermined and had to be taken up.

Scarcely a fourth of the block was in good enough condition to be left in place. Now topping is being mixed on the job out of rock aggregate and emulsion asphalt.

C-C To Help With Feeder's Day Program

Immediate and future activities before the organization were discussed by chamber of commerce directors in their luncheon session at the Settles hotel Monday.

The directors agreed for the organization to pay expense of a barbecue meal for guests at the U. S. experiment farm when that unit stages its annual Feeder's Day program on June 18. Officials from a 19-county area are to be invited for the occasion, at which results of the farm's annual feed tests will be announced.

The chamber of commerce officials also voted for the organization to sponsor and lend full support to a football game to be played here in September between Abilene Christian and Sul Ross. The chamber will not be responsible for the guarantee, which has been arranged privately, but will help promote the contest, so that proceeds above expenses will go to the high school athletic fund.

Directors were reminded of the goodwill dinner to be given in the Richmond community next Tuesday, June 15, at which time Big Spring business men will be hosts to the Richmond men.

Reports were given on the state hospital opening, and on Big Spring activities at the West Texas chamber of commerce convention in Abilene.

Marek Wins As Barons Split Twin Bill With Pioneers

The Sports Parade

By HANK HART

Anticipating their most successful season, Coaches A. C. Morris and Tonto Coleman, ACC grid mentors who came to Big Spring Saturday to assist with plans for the ACC-Sul Ross football game here next fall, have lined up an attractive card for their charges for the 1939 season.

The Christians inargurate the season against North Texas Teachers in Abilene Sept. 23, also play the strong Arkansas State Teachers in Conroy, Ark., Oct. 7 besides meeting their conference schedule.

The remainder of the schedule: Sul Ross at Big Spring (tentative), Sept. 30; Trinity at Waxahachie, Oct. 13; Southwestern at Abilene, Oct. 22; Austin at San Angelo Nov. 4; Daniel Baker at Brownwood, Nov. 11; Howard Payne at Abilene, Nov. 18; and McMurry at Abilene, Nov. 25.

Most of the 21 boys who earned ACC grid numerals last year will again be eligible. Coleman's line will be intact. The secondary, with the exception of McCaleb and Bennett, are returning.

In meeting North Texas at San Angelo last year the Christians experienced unexpected financial success. Officials were very willing to play again. The Angelo Junior chamber of commerce is again sponsoring the move to line up the November 4 game with Austin college.

The local high school athletic fund will be the beneficiary if a profit is realized on the game here. All indications point to financial success. More than 4,500 seats will be put on sale and Alfred and J. B. Collins, who are going to underwrite the guarantee, expect every seat to be filled.

No agreement was reached on the price of individual tickets. It is probable, however, that $1.10 will be the top price, these ducaats being good for the choice seats between the 35-yard lines. The remainder will go at 75 cents with students of the colleges and the local schools gaining admittance for 25 cents.

Maurice "Clipper" Smith, Villanova football mentor, stopped in Big Spring Saturday night and took occasion to visit with some old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Pickle.

Smith, accompanied by his wife, is on his way to the coast where he intends to remain until his duties call him back to Philadelphia.

His Philly gridders play Texas A. and M., incidentally, next fall in a Rose Festival feature at Tyler.

And, sounding off with an offensive note, Obie Bristow advises anyone who might be interested to keep their optics on an unheralded laddie by the name of Matthews who begins his sophomore year at Oklahoma university next autumn.

Texas League Race Is Wide Open Affair

By The Associated Press

It wouldn't take much of a winning streak to put any one of five Texas League teams far ahead of the pack.

Fifth-place San Antonio, only a game and a half from the top, jumped on Dallas, 5-5, yesterday to cut the Rebels lead to half a game. It was the 8th win in a row for the Missions.

Shreveport missed a chance at the lead as it lost the second game of a double-header with Oklahoma City, 6-3, after winning the first one, 5-1. Houston pulled back into third place, one percentage point ahead of Fort Worth, at the expense of the Tulsa Oilers, 11-3 and 5-1. Fort Worth sailed along with a 5-0 whitewash of the Beaumont Exporters.

Dallas got 12 hits but San Antonio got the breaks to score three runs on five hits in the first and five runs off four hits in the sixth. At Shreveport, the Oklahoma City Indians got a new manager when Owner John Holland replaced "Mule" Haas with Wiley Moore, pitcher, in an attempt to nip a 5-game losing streak.

The second game was cut short by rain just after the last out was made in the sixth. At Houston, the Buffs broke loose in the first game and shelled Tulsa's Lou Stefani and Lefty Jones for 14 base hits. In the after piece, they took advantage of Jack Hallett's wildness to win in the first inning on four walks and two singles.

Jack Zeller, Detroit general manager and Beaumont "angel" was in the stands to see his Exporters shut out by Fort Worth for the second time in a row. The Shippers haven't scored a run in the past 20 innings.

Leaders Shelled By Kilgore, 5-4

By The Associated Press

Vance Randolph singled and was pushed around on infield plays to give Kilgore the score which brought victory over East Texas league-leading Texarkana Liners, 5-4, yesterday.

Bryant Stephens' three-hit pitching helped Henderson beat Marshall, 5-1, in a game cut short in the eighth inning by rain. Showers twice interrupted the game at Palestine but the Pals finally won 4-2 over Longview. George Bradley got a homer, a double and drove in three runs.

JAKE MORGAN IS S'FINAL WINNER

By The Associated Press

Jake Morgan advanced into the finals of the Muni Spring golf tournament by defeating Lib Coffey, 4 and 2, Sunday afternoon at the municipal course. The duel was originally scheduled to be played over 18 holes.

The scheduled quarterfinal match between Frank Morgan and Guy Rainey was postponed until today due to the fact that Rainey was competing in the Ranger Invitational tournament. The winner of that duel will oppose O. O. Craig for a right at the playoff with Jake Morgan.

In first flight play Bert Shive will meet Skeet West and V. V. Million Wins.

Semi-final matches in championship consolation will find Sammy Sain colliding with Marvin House and L. N. Million working against Tommy Neel. Sunday Million spanked E. D. McDowell one up 12 holes, while Neel was shoving aside Elmo O'Brien, 5 and 3.

In first flight consolation L. B. Barber, Glenn Hancock and Frank Duley are the survivors. J. T. Dwan and N. G. Hillard will play today for a chance to meet Duley while Barber and Hancock are pitted against each other in the other bracket. Barber Sunday ousted Joe Glickman, two up, while Hancock was throttling Matt Harrington, 3 and 2, and Duley was getting around Beason Smith, 3 and 2.

Iglehart Paces Yankees To 11-7 Polo Triumph

NEW YORK, June 5 (AP)—Beaten in the opening match, 11 to 7, and sadly out-mounted despite their long and painstaking preparations, the challenging British polo stars were glum today about their prospects of averting defeat in the international series for the Westchester cup.

They will get one more chance next Sunday, when the second match is scheduled, but there appears only a remote possibility of the series going the limit of three games. The great 87-goal team fielded by the Americans packs too much punch.

The British found yesterday they were weak in horseflesh. Aiden Roark, their No. 2, was forced to change ponies four times in one of the late chukkers and was thoroughly disgusted.

"I don't know whether we'll change our lineup before next Sunday or change our horses," he said as he mopped his head wearily after the defeat.

The British were unanimous in proclaiming Stewart Iglehart the star of the American victory. Filling in for the injured Cecil Smith, Iglehart scored only one goal and seldom caught the eyes of the 18,000 spectators, but the British said he was the one who broke their hearts. Even should Smith recover in time for the next game, it is difficult to see how he can displace Iglehart.

Browns Prove Games Can Be Won Without Homers; Beat Sens Twice Sans Long Ones

NEW YORK, June 5 (AP)—Harry Cooper, having averaged 70.4 strokes for seven rounds over a tough par-70 course, was back to routine business today. Fresh from his triumph in the second Goodall round-robin golf tournament, and riched by $1,000, he was at New Haven, Conn., seeking to qualify for the P. G. A. championship.

But tomorrow the dapper little veteran from Eastern Point, Conn., will go to Philadelphia to put the finishing touches on his game for the national open championship, which starts there Thursday.

Given the choice of five men most likely to take the open title, the logical selection would be Ralph Guldahl, who'll try to become the second man in the tournament's history to win three years in a row; Henry Picard, Byron Nelson, Sam Snead and Cooper. That choice is supported by the odds, which make Guldahl the favorite at 5 to 1.

Cooper's two-point triumph over Craig Wood in the Goodall tourney is likely to shorten his odds even more, probably to 8 to 1. He opened at 14 to 1 in the "future books" mainly because he hadn't won a major tournament in over a year and because he's been known to blow up in the clutch.

The Goodall proved a fine tournament from all angles. Even with Cooper going into the last day with a five-point lead that grew to 14 at lunch time, there still was the possibility of a sudden turn of the tables. As it turned out, Wood and Snead came with a rush on the final 36 holes to take second and third. And the fact that Jimmy Thomson and Ben Hogan, his final match rivals, rimmed birdie putts on the 18th was all that saved Cooper from a tie with Wood.

Bobby Kamrath Seeded First

DALLAS, June 5 (AP)—Last night's downpour here washed out the start of the men's state tennis championship tournament on the Dallas Country club courts this morning.

Mary Grier Harris, club professional, said some matches in the men's singles division might be played late today if the sun, which appeared only spasmodically through the morning, bore down hard enough.

No. 1 on the seeded list, drawn yesterday, was Bobby Kamrath of the University of Texas. Kamrath moved into the pole position after Frank Guernsey, the state and intercollegiate champion from Rice Institute, announced he would not compete here.

Invaders Pull Triple Play In Second

Walton's Bat Figures; Ladies To Be Honored Tonight

By HANK HART
The "rubber" game in the Big Spring Barons' series of debates with the Clovis Pioneers will be decided at the West Fifth and San Antonio streets plant this evening, 8:30 o'clock, with Ladies Night again being featured by the management. All women will be admitted free of charge.

The two teams were originally booked to play two games, but L. E. Morris, the local club's business manager, announced that one would be played on a later date.

Jodie Marek, working very smoothly after a shaky first round, tamed the Pioneers behind some effective hitting of his Baron mates, 5-2, to record his seventh mound triumph of the year but the New Mexicans boosted along by the season's first triple play retaliated with a 5-4 victory in the seven-inning nightcap for the even split.

Miller scored in the midst of a Clovis three-hit barrage to put Marek behind in the first inning of the initial battle but Tex Walton bounced out a home run with Bobby Decker up front in the Barons' half to give Jodie an advantage he never lost.

Christi Homered
Jake Christi, who was losing the rubber for the Clovis aggregation, was keeping Baron hits to a minimum and himself clouted out a home run in the fifth inning but by that time the Big Springers had added a couple more runs.

The game-clinching uprising started in the fourth when Herb Morey singled and gained two stations on successive walks to Curt Schmidt and Marek. Bobby Decker walked in to contribute a bristling lick that scored Morey and Schmidt.

After Christi had accounted for his round-tripper the locals tallied again in the fifth when Billy Capps walked and counted on Morey's second blow.

The Pioneers went to work on Edson Bahr early in the afternoon, putting together four hits with a free pass and a sacrifice to build up a four-run lead that the Barons didn't go to work on until the second.

Bahr hung around until the second when he lost his control in giving up another run and Lefty Jankc came to the rescue. The wrong-hander throttled the Pioneers the remainder of the distance but the damage had been accomplished.

Joe Flowers surrendered four hits in going the route for the invaders but it took the triple play in the first frame and some smart fielding the remainder of the distance to "step him along."

Stage Is Set
The stage was set for the triple play when Bobby Decker, single and Curdell Loyd stroked Tex Walton, came to take his stance at the dish, promptly rapped out a drive at second base and both runners started. Dick Adkins, Clovis short trap Decker and tossed to Wagner at first to nip Loyd.

The Barons counted twice on two walks, a sacrifice and a base blow in the second, then put together a base on balls, single and triple in the fourth for their other runs but lost a chance to deadlock the score during the same frame. Tex Walton drove in the pair of runs with his three-base blow but later was retired in a try at home when Miller tossed to Stuart after taking Stacey's ground ball.

Either Art Gigg or Bahr is slated to do the pitching chores in tonight's fracas.

The Barons entertain the Amarillo Gold Sox in a three-game series beginning Tuesday evening.

ALL-STAR FIGHT CARD IS BILLED IN LOS ANGELES

LOS ANGELES, June 5 (AP)—Two of the best lightweight in the West, Tony Chavez and George Crouch, will meet on a boxing card billed as an all-star event here June 26.

Chavez, New Mexican-born Mexican, recently topped a string of victories by stopping Mike Bellows of New York, and Crouch is the dusky idol of Los Angeles' Central avenue.

And Los Angeles is about to demonstrate that New York has no monopoly on odd things in the prize fight business.

ere's the rest of the all-star attractions:
Maxie Rosenbloom is going to box Al Ettore or whatever it is Maxie does, and if that isn't enough Jack Fopler will positively return to life for his 328th comeback and meet Gunnar Barlund, the durable Finn.

Fair Weather Makes Wanderers Of Local Folk This Weekend

Population of the city must have shrunk to about half this weekend when warm sunny days lured local inhabitants to get on their trotting gear and head for open spaces.

Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Richardson spent Sunday in McCamey where they visited Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Davis and also attended the third annual Rattlesnake Derby. Mrs. Richardson said they saw plenty of snakes and they were "mighty fierce" looking.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Berry of Stanton spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. B. McLean.

Mrs. C. V. McCloskey of Denver City, Tex., is here for a three-week visit with her sister, Mrs. Clyde Hledsoe, and Mr. Hledsoe.

D. A. Ehotan and daughter, Mildred, returned Sunday from Fort Worth where they spent the week. They visited with the Jake Arrington family and Dorothy Ehotan, who is in school at Texas Wesleyan. Dorothy plans to spend the summer at the college taking courses and working in the office.

Mrs. Bernice Freeman left Monday for a two-week visit in Bonham with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Angel are vacationing in Corpus Christi for two weeks.

Richard Reagan spent Saturday and Sunday at Carlsbad Caverns.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Kean and son, James, of Dallas stopped en route to the Big Bend Country today to visit his sister, Mrs. George Garrette.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Conley and children have gone to Albuquerque, N. M., to spend a 10-day vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Wehner and John and Harry Blomsheld returned Sunday from A. & M. The Blomsheld twins will spend the summer with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Blomsheld.

Mrs. W. F. Cushing returned Sunday from a ten-day visit in Abilene. She was accompanied home by her daughter, Mrs. Franklin D. Holmes and daughter, Constance, of Jacksonville, Tex.

Mrs. R. L. Fritchett had as weekend guests from Kawana, her sister, Mrs. Carouth, and mother, Mrs. Gilliam.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Fruit spent Sunday in Sweetwater with her mother, Mrs. M. S. Sedberry.

Mrs. Gladys Corcoran and daughter, Joyce Nolen, and Mrs. Doyle Robinson and Mrs. George M. Estes returned Saturday from a week's trip to San Antonio and Corpus Christi. They visited with relatives and also attended the celebration in Corpus Christi observing the town's 100-year anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pool and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Keaton spent the weekend in San Angelo visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bob Watkins.

Mrs. R. E. Porter spent the weekend in the home of her mother, Mrs. T. W. Gobel, near Center Point, where her grandmother, Mrs. M. J. Emmert is seriously ill. Mrs. Vena Watkins of Waco was also a visitor.

Mrs. L. W. Galley of San Angelo visited Mr. and Mrs. Paul Price over the weekend. She brought home Mary Frances and Margaret Ann Price, who had been there since Thursday.

Mrs. Esta Williams left Friday accompanied by her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Vinyard of Dalhart, for an eight-day vacation. They will visit in Carlsbad, Red River, and New Mexico. Mr. and Mrs. Vinyard visited here for two days before starting on the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller Harris and Jimmy of Crane returned home Monday after spending the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Pickle.

Charlene Pinkston spent the weekend visiting her grandmother.

Cactus With Blossom Just Like Ugly Parent With Beautiful Child

By MARY WHALEY

Maybe to a native Texas seeing a cactus in bloom is no surprise or novelty but to a newcomer who never saw the plant growing except in silly little pots in florist windows, there is something remarkable about the ugly spiked plant that can produce such waxy, opulent flowers.

The other day I saw my first cactus in an open stretch of ground. The red, yellow, and orange flowers nestled among the stickers were new and strange to me. It was just like seeing a beautiful child with homely parents, you can't help wondering how it happened.

An informal gathering was held on the lawn at the back of the house where tables and chairs were set out. Games of croquet, ping pong, and golf driving provided outdoor entertainment.

Registering were Mrs. Robert B. Samworth, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Thomas, Mrs. George C. Garrette, Mrs. David Watt, Margaret Cox, Mrs. Zora Carter, Oliver C. Cox, Mrs. Otto Peters, Mrs. J. B. Young.

Episcopal Minister And Family Are Honored At Reception

The Rev. and Mrs. Oliver Cox, and family and the Bishop E. C. Seaman were honor guests Sunday afternoon when members of St. Mary's Episcopal church entertained with a reception from 4:30 o'clock to 6:30 o'clock in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Obie Bristow.

The table was laid with an Italian cutwork cloth and centered with roses and bridal wreath. Mrs. Willie Ritz was at one end of the table where she served and Mrs. William Tate at the other side poured punch.

Other members of the house party were Mrs. Bristow, Mrs. V. Van Gieson, and Mrs. Carl Blomsheld. Camille Koberg was at the guest book.

H. Clay Reads Celebrate Fifty-fifth Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. H. Clay Read celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday by quietly spending the day together. They had dinner with their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Earle Read, and visited at the new State Hospital.

Later they attended a church lecture and enjoyed a drive. Mrs. Read reported they received wires and gifts from the children, who live in other states. Concerning their long married life, Mrs. Read says "it is a blessing."

South Fights Wage Boost

WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)—Administration amendments to the wage-hour bill, guarded against change in the house by strict parliamentary rules, are likely to encounter in the senate the old appeal for a southern wage differential.

Protests already are being heard against putting into effect a 32 1/2-cent an hour minimum wage in some of the southern industries such as various industrial committees have recommended under the wage-hour law.

Senator George (D-Ga.) voiced the protests in the senate, and along with some other southerners, suggested legislation to freeze the southern wage minimum at 30 cents an hour. The national minimum now is 25 cents, but gradually rises under the law.

Five southern governors recently issued a joint statement assailing administration of the wage-hour act and saying:

"We want to get as high wages for the workers in all sections of the country, including our own, as can possibly be paid, but failure to recognize the existing discriminatory differentials will inevitably destroy the source of employment.

The southerners' contention rests on the old argument that wages all ways have been cheaper in the south, and might well remain so because of a climate which produces cheaper living costs. They argue a boost to a 32 1/2-cent rate would bear more heavily on small industries in the south than on large ones.

STRUCK BY TRAIN, HE APOLOGIZES. TAHLEQUAH, Okla., June 5 (AP)—When Harmon Reeder, deaf cobbler, was struck by a train, he didn't sue the railroad company. The wrote the locomotive engineer a letter of apology. "I want to apologize for being on the track," wrote Reeder, who was walking to work along the right-of-way. "I didn't think a train ran at that time of night."

ON 288-MILE SWIM. GLENDIVE, Mont., June 5 (AP)—A 45-year-old auctioneer, treating scurvy and bruises suffered in a 62-mile swim yesterday, confidently predicted today he would negotiate 288 miles of the swift, murky Yellowstone river June 30. Clarence Giles averaged almost nine miles an hour in his seven-hour Yellowstone swim yesterday from Terry to Glendive. Praising a new kind of body grease he used yesterday, Giles thinks it will help him attain a fresh water distance swim record in the 288-mile marathon from Billings to Glendive.

REPORT MADE ON INCOME TAX RETURNS. WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)—Individual income tax returns for income earned in 1937 and reported in 1938 from cities and towns in Texas of 1,000 or more population totaled 114,343. Guy T. Helvering, commissioner of internal revenue, in making public the figures said they were based on reports by collectors of customs and were governed by the postoffice address the taxpayer gave on his return. Single persons having net income of $1,000 or more or gross income of $5,000 and married persons having net income of $2,000 or more or gross income of $5,000 or more are required to file income tax returns. In compiling the figures in some instances the total for the cities and towns is less than the total for the country because of postoffice addresses falling outside the civil divisions tabulated. The number of individual returns by counties and including some towns, included, for Texas: Bowie 712 (Texarkana 602, De Kalb 22); Cameron 1,632 (Brownsville 648, Harlingen 602, La Feria 56, Fort Isabel 23, San Benito 245); Denton 405 (Denton 310, Pilot Point 22, Sanger 14); Galveston 5,198 (Galveston 4,333, Texas City 378); Gray 1,245 (McLean 49, Pampa 1,149); Grayson 1,554 (Denison 696, Sherman 751, Van Alstyne 24, Whitesboro 18, Whitewright 33); Gregg 3,367 (Gladewater 576, Kilgore 957, Longview 1,726); Hale 506 (Hale Center 29, Plainview 419); Harrison 850 (Marshall 761); Hidalgo 1,584 (Alamo 41, Donna 108, Edinburg 158, McAllen 487, Mercedes 166, Mission 235, Pharr 84, San Juan 50, Weslaco 182); Howard 856 (Big Spring 805); Hunt 632 (Greenville 49); Hutchinson 886 (Borger 600, Whittensburg 171); Jefferson 8,083 (Beaumont 4,245, Nederland 106, Port Arthur 3,332, Fort Neches 174); Lamar 606 (Paris 659); Lubbock 1,320 (Lubbock 1,254, Slaton 152); McLennan 2,846 (McGregor 31, Hart 160, Moody 22, Waco 2,518, West 74); Navarro 781 (Corsicana 688, Dawson 11, Kerens 35); Nueces 3,683 (Corpus Christi 3,200, Robstown 292); Potter 3,387 (Amarillo 3,387); Smith 2,528 (Amp 106, Troup 123, Tyler 2,359); Taylor 1,510 (Abilene 1,439, Markel 45); Tom Green 1,496 (San Angelo 1,424); Travis 3,712 (Austin 3,625); Webb 1,190 (Laredo 958, Miranda City 122); Wichita 2,914 (Burkburnett 87, Electra 240, Iowa Park 81, Wichita Falls 2,504); Wilbarger 374 (Vernon 362).

FIRE HOUSE BURNS. MILFORD, Utah, June 5 (AP)—When Milford's volunteer firemen heard the alarm they "came a-running." It was their own fire house. Yep, it burned to the ground.

ASSOCIATED PRESS PICTURE NEWS

HAIL AND FAREWELL—With a vigorous handwave, Mary Pickford, former movie star once called "America's Sweetheart," bids U. S. goodbye as she and husband, Orchestra Leader Buddy Rogers, sail on the Normandy for a visit abroad.

REFUGEE PROBLEM!—There's none so far as pretty Terencia Osta is concerned. A refugee from war-torn Navarra in Spain, she rehearses on the mission steps at Santa Barbara, Cal., for a role in Santa Barbara's annual fiesta Aug. 2.

SOME OF HIS LIP—That's what Manager "Lippy" Leo Durocher tried to give Harry Goetz, the plate umpire, in a Brooklyn Dodgers-Giants game at N. Y., but the Dodger boss didn't get far in the argument. Durocher complained about the umpire's calls in the sixth inning—in no avail. Despite his oratory Leo remained in the game which the Dodgers won, 7-4.

GLOBE GIRDLERS—They're on their way, and the world can expect to see more of Willie Brooch (left), 21, and Fred A. Birchmore, 27. They plan to pedal from Athens, Ga., to N. Y. and then around the world. It'll be the second such trip for Birchmore, who was graduated from the University of Georgia, where Brooch is a student. Birchmore has A.M. and T.T. degrees.

'GOOD NEIGHBOR' POLICY—Fast Rio de Janeiro's Sugarloaf mountain slips the Nashville, bearing U. S. future chief of staff, Brig. Gen. George Marshall, to Brazil. Returning, the cruiser will bring Brazil's chief of staff, General Goes Monteiro, for a visit—a fact having significance since he accepted U. S. invitation before acting on those of Germany, Italy.

NEW ROLE—Fame being what it is, Ellsworth Vines, the tennis star, rates a golfing pose since he's become a fan. He's teeing off for an amateur match in England.

DOINGS AT GRAND COULEE DAM—Here's a crane operator's view of a bucket of concrete ready for a landing at Grand Coulee dam in Washington. The dam recently made a record for concrete-placing, the mark for a day being that one of these buckets dumped its 8 1/2-ton load every 17 seconds of the three-shift, 24-hour day. Note waiting buckets (right).

MODERATOR—Election of Dr. Sam Higginbottom, 64, as moderator of the Presbyterian church in the U.S.A., marks the first time since 1927 that a layman was named to this office. He's been engaged in missionary work in India 36 years.

TOPS—Most honored man among naval academy graduates at Annapolis was Midshipman Louis Harry Roddis, Jr., who got nine senior awards for excellence in mathematics, engineering, navigation, seamanship. He's from St. Paul, Minn.

CZECHO-SLOVAKIA LIVES AGAIN—ON AMERICAN SOIL

MAN WITHOUT A COUNTRY—"Nasdar, nasdar," meaning "good luck," the crowds cried when Dr. Eduard Benes, last president of Czecho-Slovakia, placed the crown jewels of Old Bohemia in a case at the Czech pavilion at the New York world's fair. In his dedicatory speech, Mr. Benes expressed a conviction that his country—seized by Germany—would again be free.

THE HOUSE OF HOPE—To thousands at the dedication of above Czecho-Slovakian pavilion at the world's fair, N. Y., this building symbolizes a dream that the country absorbed by Nazis will again find independence. A sign explains that the structure, though unfinished, is "maintained by its friends in America," and at the right a flag flies at half staff, mourning the country that lost its liberty last March after aggression by Germany. Dr. Eduard Benes, exiled former president, and Czech Minister to U. S. Vladimir Hurban dedicated the building.

'BLUE BLOODS' OF ENGLAND—The female proved less deadly than the male in the matter of clothes recently worn to Spain. The woman is the Duchess of Norfolk whose husband (left) is the popular Duke of Norfolk. Partially snappy are Lord Rosebery (right), owner of "Blue Peter," the derby winner, and the Earl of Harrowood, brother-in-law of King George VI.

NORMAL VERSUS EMERGENCY

We've all heard so much about our tax and fiscal problem that it may come as something of a shock to be told that current tax revenue would far more than pay for all the expenses of the normal, universally accepted activities of the federal departments, and leave plenty of balance to be used for reducing the debt.

Why, then, is the debt soaring, in spite of the highest taxes in American history? The answer to that is simple—continued "emergency" expenditures, plus the vast sums of money we are spending in the name of national defense.

Vivid light on the issue is cast by a United States News breakdown of the 1939-40 budget. While congress has not yet completed its budgetary demands on the treasury, it is believed a certainty that more than nine billion dollars will be appropriated. It is known, within a very small percentage of error, where this gigantic sum of money will be spent. Close to $1,400,000,000 will go for national defense, as against the $500,000,000 appropriated to this end seven years ago. Almost three billions will be spent for public works, and for relief in all its many ramifications—work relief, direct relief, CCC camps, National Youth Administration, etc. Almost a billion dollars will be spent for paying interest on the public debt. Some $60,000,000 will go for the aid of veterans of past wars. And agriculture will be subsidized in one way or another to the tune of $1,600,000,000.

This adds up, roughly, to nearly $7,291,000,000—and most of it is going for purposes aside from the basic business of running the government. The other, regular departments of the federal machine will be kept in operation with the expenditure of a "paltry" $1,952,000,000—not much more than a quarter of what is needed for activities falling one way or another into the "emergency" classification.

'Ism Hunters' Find The U. S. A Fertile Field; Fascists Have A Militant Policy, Lack Unity

RIGHTISTS—German-Americans Give the Nazi Salute in Hammond, Ind.

By ZACH TAYLOR AP Feature Service Writer NEW YORK—Two sharply contrasted methods of "boring" from within America are being studied here by a group of "ism hunters."

Long before Rep. Martin Dies and his investigators started the country with tales of the existence of "ism" plots, the Institute for Propaganda Analysis, Inc., was reading reams of propaganda material and making conclusions.

Its analysis was used only for bulletins designed "to help the intelligent citizen detect and analyze propaganda."

But it has counted some 800 "right groups" ranging from moderates to clubs self-proclaimed as "the official Fascist party."

It counts the noses of communists too, and keeps tab on how the programs of dozens of left-wing orders compare with those of the Communist International—made in Russia.

Educators Direct Work Educators of many leading colleges are directors of the institute, which has offices on the fringe of Columbia university's campus. Dr. Clyde R. Miller of Columbia's Teachers college is secretary. Studios, square-shouldered Harold Lavine is the young editor.

"We want only to bring into the open much that is obscure," explained Dr. Miller. "The institute does not itself disseminate propaganda."

Lavine sees "right" and "left" in addition to political extremes, as two contrasting methods of boring into American political life from within.

Today And Tomorrow

By Walter Lippmann (Mr. Lippmann's column is published as an informational and news feature. His views are personal and are not to be construed as necessarily reflecting the editorial opinion of The Herald—Editor's Note.)

THE NEW SPENDING POLICY.

At the risk of seeming to have an obsession on the subject, I venture to insist that the collapse of effective resistance to public spending will have more far-reaching consequences than anything else that has happened in this congress. The general public is still under the impression that the output of speeches against spending marks the existence of a determined opposition to the spending policy. But the fact is that even last January the effort at retrenchment in the matter of relief was no more than a symbolic gesture.

During the spring, congress as a body, with only the feeblest kind of protests from several individuals, has offered little resistance, and much encouragement, to the continuation and even the increase of the large expenditures.

The one important exception has been the defeat of the Florida ship canal. But this was the kind of exception which proves the rule. Here the resolute and effective leadership of Senator Vandenberg was successful because there was a division of local and regional interests in regard to this very controversial project. That it was defeated by this combination of special circumstances rather than by conviction about economy in general was proved when the senate, without a roll call, increased the agricultural appropriation for one year by close to a hundred million dollars more than Mr. Vandenberg's estimate of the cost of the Florida canal.

The collapse of all effective resistance in congress opened the way to the new spending program of the New Deal. It is a new spending program, different in principle and much greater in scope, than anything that has yet been attempted. For hitherto spending has always been treated as an emergency measure, as a means of providing relief and for overcoming the depression that was supposed to be coming soon to its end.

But the new spending policy, of which the public has had as yet only a sketchy outline, is no temporary measure. On the contrary, it is intended to be permanent, and it will embrace nothing less than public expenditures and public control of perhaps as much as half of the national savings. The Mead bill, which would provide credit to small business under government guaranty, is only the first stage of this program; the scheme outlined by Mr. Berle, which would make the federal government the great investment banker for federal, state, and local government, and for all kinds of public enterprises, is a fair outline of what the New Deal now aims at.

It would be a mistake to underestimate the popular appeal of this policy. The chief thing that ever makes government spending generally unpopular is that the voters have to pay the tax bill. But in this new program the government will not use tax money wrongfully or the reluctant taxpayer. It will use capital that is not being invested in private enterprise.

Money will flow out from Washington to small business men, to city and state governments, to various utilities, to great groups of voters, and since there will be no effort to balance the expenditures by taxes, the process will be politically painless.

It would be a mistake also to think that this policy is merely something concocted by a coterie of bright young men who advise the president. This policy has its roots in something much deeper than the predilections of individuals.

It has its roots in the fact that a full recovery of the normal kind would require a series of measures that almost every economic interest in the nation is disposed to resist when applied to itself. Thus there has never been a true liquidation after the boom, especially in real estate and railroads. In the large industries there is a degree of control over the markets which has pegged many prices above a competitive market level. Industrial labor, partly by its own organized effort, partly with government help, partly with special legislation, and partly by means of relief as it is administered, has kept hourly wage rates at a boom level and is able, whenever recovery begins, as in the winter of 1937, to push up the rates faster than re-employment can be effected. These conditions are obviously unfavorable to the investment of new capital. They have been aggravated by a tax structure which absorbs so large a part of the profits of enterprise and by a debt structure which provides a perfect refuge for timid capital.

No one of these factors alone, but the combination of all of them, causes the stagnation which only government spending can partially overcome. No doubt, the New Deal is like to spend. But they are compelled to spend because they cannot liquidate the frozen mortgages of the boom, the frozen prices of big business, and the frozen wage rates of labor. In 1937 they tried not to spend. In fact for a few months they had the real budget in balance, and then the disastrous recession of 1937 convinced them that they do not dare not to spend.

It is now an open question whether

TWO AGAINST LOVE

Chapter 11 Arson

A nauseating odor rose from the burned wood and mixed with the fog. With powerful flashlights and hand axes the men went through the smoking ruins, searching for smoldering fires. Geoff, Thorn-dyke, and Nola joined Jocelyn and Mrs. Mack. Each one advanced a different theory as to the fire's origin, but their premises were knocked into a cocked hat when one of the firemen emerged from the wreckage with an empty kerosene can from which extended a length of blackened hemp.

"Somebody deliberately started this fire!" he growled. "I'd say it was planned and set by a professional firebug!"

Jocelyn gasped. The man turned to her. "What do you know about this, Miss?"

"Nothing—except—" "Except what? Listen, lady, if there's an arsonist around here we've got to get him before he has the whole county on fire! Come on, speak up!"

"I'm not sure this means anything—" she hesitated, then told him about her suspicious border.

"Sounds like our man." He gave orders to search the property. Frightened now, Jocelyn recalled how interested the little man had been in the fog and in the accusation of Seacraft. But before she had time to relate any of this two husky firemen appeared from the stable, dragging the weeping Mr. Jones between them.

"Sure I did it," Jones was saying. "Never figured you'd get here so quick to put it out—would've made a beautiful bonfire—beautiful!"

Rough questioning elicited further facts. He had served a five-year term for arson at San Quentin. Alienists had pronounced him a pyromaniac and recommended an asylum, but the state had decided he knew right from wrong and should be incarcerated in prison. Jones himself told all of this in detail. Vandenberg's enjoyment of his moment in the spotlight.

"Come on you! You'll be in an asylum for good this time!" As they led him away, weeping once more at the failure of his "bonfire," the Mack's old car rattled into the driveway and Bob and Gretchen jumped out.

In the midst of excited explanations Gretchen cried, "Where is Betsy? Gramp?"

"Gramp wouldn't go far away on his crutches," Tally soothed. "He's probably up in his room. Betsy and Tex are sure to be with him."

He returned a few minutes later, the answer plainly written on his distraught face. "Nobody in the house. Didn't any of you see them around here?"

The uneasy circle exchanged glances. "No," Tally rasped. "Too much excitement. Besides, the fire wasn't anywhere near them."

"But... were they... near the fire?" Jocelyn asked.

Alarmed, apprehensive, the group split into ones and twos and began a search of the house and grounds after agreeing upon a signal to be given when the lost were found. Jocelyn found herself paired off with Tally. Stealing a look at him she saw that every exposed bit of his skin was covered with a film of soot and his clothes were scorched and wet.

"You ought to go in and go to bed," she said. "You're the only one who did anything to save the house. We'd have lost everything if it hadn't been for your courage. Are you sure you are all right?"

He brushed her words aside; said: "I've got to find Gramp and Betsy. Come on if you're going with me. It doesn't seem to make sense but we'd better start combing the fruit orchards."

There was no need, now, of going around the eight-foot fence. There was no fence. There was no vegetable garden.

with kisses. "You worried us to death, Gramp," Mrs. Mack scolded, tears running down her face. "Where were you all night?"

"Well... Gramp stopped to relieve himself of tobacco juice, then continued... "Betsy came a-runnin' in and says there's a fire and she's scared. She wants to get out of the house. I couldn't do no good with these here legs 'o mine, so I just up and takes her and Tex down to that empty cottage way, and we just naturally went way off on 'other side' o' the driveway to sleep. That's all."

Tally broke in quietly: "I got burned a little, folks... you better get me a doctor..."

He fell to the ground before anyone could catch him. Once more that night a siren shrielled through the fog and drew up at Seacraft. The ambulance doctor made a superficial examination, frowned, and ordered Tally removed to the hospital in Santa Barbara.

Jocelyn spoke to the doctor before going into Tally's room a few hours later. "He's burned badly about the face and arms," he told her. "He has a high fever and his condition is to say the least, dangerous."

"Not—not—he won't die!" she pleaded. "I don't think so. He's healthy. Young. He's still unconscious, though."

"I won't disturb him, Doctor. Just—just let me stay in the room until he—he is out of danger."

Garner Nomination Means Defeat For Democrats, Maverick Claims

HOUSTON, June 5 (AP)—Mayor Matur Maverick of San Antonio asserted today nomination of John N. Garner for president would bring nothing but defeat to the democratic party. The fiery former congressman declared the country needs "a vigorous, trained, mature but not too old a man for the presidency" in an address prepared for delivery to the State Federation of Motion Picture Operators. Vice-President Garner, he said, was supported by conservatives and reactionaries in the democratic party. "All the people who hate Roosevelt, who hate democracy and who love nazism and fascism are for Garner—along with, of course, thousands of good people." Maverick said if Garner got the nomination the republicans would offer a younger man and "claim he is a progressive." "The republicans knowing well that he would be more or less a conservative fellow, would vote for the republican. The progressive democrats in disgust of Garner would vote for the republican also. So there is one thing certain—defeat to the democratic party should be nominated." Maverick urged labor unity which he said meant "the A. F. of L. and the C. I. O. should lay off each other." "Labor must get together for the good of the country and the good of itself. For a long time I have thought the C. I. O. and the A. F. of L. should join together in one big organization. But the rail brotherhoods are separate and everybody gets along with them. So why shouldn't the A. F. of L. and the C. I. O. divide the field?" YOUTH UNDER BOND SAN ANGELO, June 5 (AP)—Adolph Mikeska, 18, Concho county farm boy, was under a $4,000 bond today after being charged with assault with intent to murder Wesley Jennings, 23, of San Angelo. Jennings, shot six times with a small caliber rifle, was reported at a hospital to have a "chance for recovery." Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Strong of Acton, Eng., received a telegram of congratulation from the king and queen when they celebrated their diamond wedding anniversary. They were married in 1878 in a snowstorm.

Many Claims For Jobless Benefits Are Disapproved

More than 130,000 jobless claims have been disapproved during the 17 months of unemployment compensation, Orville S. Carpenter, chairman-director of the Texas commission, said today. "Although we have approved 300,000 and paid out more than fourteen and a quarter million dollars, the reasons are significant why individuals filing 130,000 claims could not receive benefits," the director commented. District Supervisor H. H. Rumph today explained why there have been disapprovals in the 44 counties of the Abilene district. 1. Some claimants were not able to work. To receive jobless benefits claimants must be physically able to work and must have registered with the employment service. Unemployed workers must be available to take suitable jobs. 2. Other claims were disapproved because claimants had not worked for covered employers. Benefits go only to those whose former employers have paid taxes on them. Generally employers of eight or more men are subject to the tax, which insures their workers. 3. Also some claims were disapproved because the jobless workers had not earned enough money from their tax-paying former employers. During a set 12-month period a claimant must have earned at least $50. For a claim filed in June, the 12 months considered are those ending December, 1938. Whether or not a claimant is eligible depends upon his prior earnings from tax-paying employers. District Supervisor Rumph pointed out that employees do not pay any part of the jobless benefits tax in Texas.

Universities Give Degrees

By the Associated Press Graduation exercises were held at three Texas universities today. At the University of Texas, a record graduating class of 1,381 seniors will be presented diplomas tonight by J. W. Calhoun, president in interim. The new president, Dr. Homer Price Rainey, will deliver the commencement address. The T. U. seniors last night were urged by the Rev. Everett H. Jones, pastor of St. Mark's Episcopal church at San Antonio, to become transformers of the world instead of conformers. A Baylor university class of 806 heard Dr. J. P. Boone of the First Baptist church of Waxahachie urge an "upward calling."

A SUNDAY SERMON

'Christian Unity, Practical' By Rev. Robt. E. Bowden

In the 17th chapter of St. John, verses 20-23, we read our text: "Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word; That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one: I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me." These words from the very heart of our Lord indicate clearly and distinctly His teaching relative to the relationship of the Christian people here in this world. "That they all may be ONE." No doubt divided religious effort has done and is doing today, great injustice to the Cause for which Jesus gave His life. However, there is a ray of hope appearing in the sky. Much thought is being given to the problem of Christian Unity. No doubt in the next few years radical changes will come about. Great religious bodies will unite together, and will settle many major and minor differences. We can predict such to come about when the Christian people find a closer and more intimate relationship with Christ and the fundamentals for which He stood. Spiritual people will eventually be led by the Holy Spirit to accept and embrace the UNITY for which Christ prayed. Basis for Christian Unity We must understand now, that Christian Unity is not the conforming to certain creed or creeds, or merely compromising certain traditional teaching or accepting certain platforms or peace treaties. Christian Unity is an experience of the heart, made so by Divine Grace. On the day of Pentecost when the Holy Spirit came, carnal divisions were destroyed and that primitive group went forward united as ONE in Name, Doctrine and Practice. Signs and wonders of Divine Grace were evident in their midst; multitudes of both men and women were converted; such power they experienced in prayer, even Peter was delivered from prison. God worked in marvelous ways in their midst. They possessed an active living faith. They went about doing good, fulfilling their Divine commission. It is not true today, if the Christian people would be ONE today as they were, preaching and living as they did, we would see the same results! Their standards of Christian living was much superior to that of the nominal religious world today. We need an "Outpouring of the Holy Spirit" today, a Pentecost. That would solve a multitude of our inexplicable and unsolved problems today. Too much is being done in the name and strength of humanity, leaving the Gospel and Divine Truth in the background. We need to reverse this procedure. How many preachers, how many deacons and church officials, how many church leaders, today are known in their commu-

MARTIN FACTION RETURNS TO AFL

DETROIT, June 5 (AP)—Return of the faction of the United Automobile Workers headed by Homer Martin to the American Federation of Labor added a new complication today to the already tangled labor relations of the automotive industry. Martin announced last night his independent union, which split from the UAW group affiliated with the Congress of Industrial Organizations last January, voted 66,768 to 3,870 to return to the AFL in a membership referendum. The UAW originally was in the AFL fold but switched to the CIO in 1936. Last winter's schism, climax of a long and bitter intra-union fight, left the division led by R. J. Thomas in the CIO. Each union seeks legal designation as the "official" UAW in litigation pending circuit court here.

all within their power to bring about passage of S. J. R. 12 (the taxation constitutional amendment.) ... The matter of lobbying activities in Austin long has been a matter of common knowledge and has tended in many instances to bring the legislature into disrepute and is currently subjecting members to criticism.

Old People May Register For Pensions

Men and women, who are 65 years of age or older and who are not receiving old age assistance grants, may register for application of aid in the district office at Big Spring and in six other principal cities of this district.

George G. White, district supervisor, said Monday that oldsters who meet the age requirement may register now in view of the new and liberalized state law on old age assistance. Regardless of whether they ever received a grant or not, those who are not now on the rolls must register if they expect to make application.

RE-EXAMINATION OF MANTON'S CASES IN PROSPECT

NEW YORK, June 5 (AP)—Re-examination of many of the 3,000 cases which Martin T. Manton decided in more than 21 years as a U. S. circuit judge appeared probable today as a result of his conviction for selling "justice."

Reviews already have been asked in five cases in which Manton acted. In addition, it was possible to lose in other cases which Manton heard might demand their reopening on a contention of fraud.
