American Fortresses Bomb Japan, Allies Stab Into Cherbourg Neck

Despite Heavy Counterattacks Forces Push On

By WES GALLAGHER
SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, June 15 (AP)—American troops have surged powerfully ahead in their stab into the Cherbourg neck, Allied headquarters announced today, and Berlin reported less than six miles separated the spearhead from the last west coast communications linking Cherbourg with France.

The gains were hammered out in spite of furious counterattacks all along the 100-mile invasion front in which the Germans had thrown about 20 divisions and 600 tanks.

Allied headquarters, confirming that American infantry and parachute troops, supported by tanks had scored further gains west of Carentan, said Allied soldiers were holding firm everywhere else despite the massive nature of the German counterstroke and were inflicting heavy losses on the enemy.

Further heavy counterattacks in the Villers-Bocage area were turned back yesterday evening, headquarters said, and the British were still secure in their hold on Caumont, their other most advanced point, 20 miles southwest of Caen.

Seventeen German tanks, including eight 60-ton Tigers, were knocked out in the fierce armored battling yesterday, headquarters said. The other eight tanks were Panthers armed with 75mm guns.

At the western end of the line, the Americans first moved forward on a nine-mile front to the Les Sablons-Baupie area, south of St. Mere Eglise and only about seven miles from high ground overlooking La Haye De Puits on the west coast road and rail line leading to Cherbourg.

The Berlin radio commentator, Ludwig Sertorius, then reported that they had gained another 3 1/2 miles to the west, reaching Pretot which is less than six miles from La Haye Du Puits itself.

The Americans also fought their way back into Montebourg, 14 miles from Cherbourg and headquarters said street fighting was in progress. But the fighting here was fluid, and the Germans in mid-afternoon claimed they were again in possession of the town.

The heavy nature of the fighting was plainly indicated by the German high command, which said the battle is "approaching a climax" and growing more violent every day with the Allies hitting hard in all directions to enlarge their bridgehead.

The American advance was on a nine-mile front westward from Carentan toward high ground controlling the last German roads leading to Cherbourg.

Violent German reaction to the threat to the lifeline was expected, and it was likely further American advances would be only after the costliest fighting.

The Yankees plunged to the Les Sablons-Baupie area, south of Ste. Mere Eglise and west of Carentan. Seven and a half miles to the westward, through high ground overlooking La Haye Puits, through which runs the last remaining major north-south highway on the peninsula still in German hands.

The advance placed the Americans nearly half way across the peninsula at its narrowest point. Toward the tip of the peninsula hand-to-hand fighting surged between Germans and troops of the U. S. fourth division in the streets of Montebourg, 14 miles southeast of Cherbourg.

Mickey Changes Film Salary For GI Pay

LOS ANGELES, June 15 (AP)—The screen's Mickey Rooney has a new role—and a new salary—today. The army gave him both.

A barracks bag slung over his shoulder, the 22-year-old inductee told reporters at nearby Ft. MacArthur.

"This is the biggest thing in my life. It makes me happy to know they've accepted me."

The erstwhile No. 1 boxoffice attraction exchanged that designation for an identification number almost as long as his name, and a weekly film salary in four figures for a private's pay.

He was inducted yesterday following a deferment granted to complete film work when he passed his physical last March.

Troops Advance On Italian Front

ROME, June 15 (AP)—Allied troops, breaking the stiffening German resistance of the last three days, have made a general advance all along their line in Italy taking Orvieto, Aquila and Narni and pushing toward Allied headquarters announced today.

Orvieto is 57 miles northwest of Rome; Narni, 41 miles north, and Aquila, 54 miles northwest. Along the west coast the Fifth army has advanced 79 miles beyond Rome.

As one Eighth army column entered Orvieto, an important road junction northeast of Lake Bolsena, another reached the outskirts of Terni, but was delayed by a blown bridge and a German counter-attack in the vicinity of the city.

Fifth army troops along the west coast met determined enemy resistance at Magliano, 11 miles northeast of Orbetello, but swept it aside and entered the town.

The fall of Orbetello itself, a west coast town 71 miles beyond Rome and the center of German resistance to the Fifth army's offensive, was reported last night.

In the Lake Bolsena area French troops continued to advance and the Americans reached Poggioleone, 11 miles west of the northern end of the lake, and sent reconnaissance elements farther.

Allied troops in the Adriatic sector are across the Saline river. Despite the arrival of fresh German divisions in Italy Allied armies still are encountering only formations made up of remnants of the 14th German army.

The heavy nature of the fighting was plainly indicated by the German high command, which said the battle is "approaching a climax" and growing more violent every day with the Allies hitting hard in all directions to enlarge their bridgehead.

The American advance was on a nine-mile front westward from Carentan toward high ground controlling the last German roads leading to Cherbourg.

Violent German reaction to the threat to the lifeline was expected, and it was likely further American advances would be only after the costliest fighting.

Food Dealers Urged To Attend Meeting

Retail food (grocery) dealers were urged today by the price panel of the Howard county rationing board to attend a meeting called for 8:30 p. m. Friday.

The meeting is to be in room No. 1 at the Settles hotel and possibly some district officials will be here to discuss price control with dealers.

CAPT. RADER SUCCUMBS

BEAUMONT, June 15 (AP)—Funeral arrangements were pending today for Capt. John F. Rader, 85, retired manager of Sabine Pilots association, who died at his home in Port Arthur yesterday after a long illness.

He was a native of Pike county, Ill., where as a boy he had attended the funeral of Abraham Lincoln.

Berlin Reports Attack On City Of Hannover

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, June 15 (AP)—A force of between 1,000 and 2,000 American Fortresses and Liberators and escorting fighters swept over France this morning, bombing airplane plants, airfields and railroad facilities in a dozen places.

Berlin radio reported an attack on the great industrial city of Hannover in Germany while lighter Allied warplanes from bases in Normandy and Britain continued their widespread support campaign in a smashing follow-up to an 1,100-bomber operation overnight.

As a part of the latter operation several hundred Lancasters blasted E-boat pens at Le Havre with six ton "factory busters" in daylight.

A force of Mosquito bombers attacked the synthetic oil center of Gelsenkirchen in the Ruhr last night to keep the unceasing assault on Hitler's war machine going around the clock.

The Lancasters, accompanied by fighter escort, were believed to have accomplished a successful mission yesterday in their switch to American bombing tactics, for the navy reported no E-boats at work in the channel last night.

The RAF's heavies have operated in daylight a few times in the past, notably in the D-Day preliminary assault, but never in such a heavy attack.

The tonnage dropped by the RAF on the thick concrete installations at Le Havre was estimated as high as 3,360 tons—more than most of the RAF's "saturation" attacks on German cities.

German broadcasts telling of the progress of the American daylight raiders to day reported planes over Brandenburg province, in which Berlin is situated, as well as over Hannover.

In all, the RAF had more than 1,100 bombers out last night. Their targets included another string of enemy railroad centers—Douai, Cambrai and St. Poel—and German front troop concentrations at Ervey and Aunay-Sur-Odon, only nine and 18 miles respectively, from Caen in the Normandy battle area.

Stolen Clothing Is Destroyed By Fire

A quantity of clothing stolen from a locker box belonging to Mrs. John McClame, 215 Roseburg, San Antonio, was found smoldering in the hills north of Park Hill addition late Wednesday. They had been soaked in kerosene.

A passerby noticed the flames and reported them to police who investigated. A set of tools, taken from the same locker, were still missing. They belonged to Robert J. Willhite. Mrs. McClame and Mrs. Willhite were staying in a local hotel and the locker was taken from their car.

County Gains First Beachhead In Quota For War Loan Drive

Like our soldiers overseas, Howard county has only secured a "beachhead" on the way to our goal of $1,500,000 in bonds to be sold during the Fifth War Loan drive.

Tabulations through Wednesday showed a grand total of $258,239.75 has been sold including $94,136.23 in E bonds. Much work remains to be done, committee members concluded, if the quota is to be topped in two weeks.

Highlight of Wednesday's activities was the standing of retreat on the courthouse lawn given by soldiers and WACs at the Big Spring Bombardier school. While citizens watched, the cadets and WACs marched down Main street and came to attention before the flag on the courthouse lawn. Lieut. Alice J. Armstrong was in charge of the WACs and Lieut. Harry W. Roberts in charge of the cadets. Lieut. Albert C. Andre, post adjutant, gave the commands. Standing in review was Col. John F. Kenny, commanding officer of the post; Lt. Col. Paul S. Dewell, executive officer of the field; Lt. Col. James F. Read, director of training; Jesse L. Thurman, commanding officer of Veterans of Foreign Wars; and Jake Douglas, representing American Legion.

The color guard, composed of four members of the guard squadron, lowered the flag while the AAFBS band played the national anthem. Earlier the band played several numbers while the crowd gathered.

Service club members who canvassed the downtown business area Wednesday were still working on the job. Ted Groehl, chairman, reported, but full results of their work had not been ascertained. However, the personal calls have always brought good response during the other drives, it was said.

More out-of-town firms reporting bond pledges were Empire Southern Gas and Service Co., which pledged $20,000; Gulf Oil Corporation, $5,000; J. C. Penney, $4,000; Standard Oil Co., $2,000; United Stores, $1,000; and the T&P Railroad which pledged purchases amounting to $170,000.

The first of a series of 12 radio programs to be given over KBST at 9:30 each evening netted $1,718.75 in bond pledges taken over

ALLIED ATTEMPTS TO STORM MARIANAS IS REPORTED BY JAPS

By J. B. KRUEGER
A powerful Allied naval task force is attempting to put ground troops ashore on Saipan and Tinian in the Marianas Islands 1,500 miles southeast of Japan, Tokyo radio said today.

The unconfirmed enemy announcement said Japanese defenders allowed "the invaders to approach as near as possible to the coast and then opened up a fierce concentrated fire on the enemy and foiled the attempt." A second landing attempt, it said, likewise met with heavy fire and "Japanese forces are now inflicting heavy punishment on the invaders."

Successful invasion of the Marianas—which include U. S.-owned Guam, largest of the group—would advance Admiral Nimitz's fleet bases 1,000 miles westward from the present advanced positions in the Marshalls.

The vast scale of the operation was indicated by the Allied diversions. Southwest Pacific bombers repeatedly hit at Palau and Truk south of the Marianas; central Pacific planes also hit Truk, and a second task force attacked the Kurile Islands 500 miles northeast of Japan for two days.

Meanwhile the biggest current land battle of the Pacific war centered at Changsha in central China, with Chungking reporting Chinese defenders holding off enemy forces attacking the city from three sides. The Japanese have thrown 200,000 men into the battle, Chung said.

Approval Urged For 'Hitler Doom Bill'

WASHINGTON, June 15 (AP)—Conveying the "hope" of military leaders that Germany will be knocked out of the war by next January 1, Representative Snyder (D-Pa) urged the house today to approve unanimously a $49,109,002.795 "Hitler Doom Bill."

The big bill, to finance the war department for the year starting July 1, was described by the chairman of the appropriations military sub-committee as one that also "will soften the blow to the German people if they are to be knocked out of the war."

It boosts approximately $290,000,000,000 war and defense obligations incurred since July 1, 1940.

Snyder declared it would be "unwise" to reduce the Army's budget in the midst of a life-and-death war but promised that his committee would review the program in December to determine if any savings could be effected and funds returned to the treasury.

Halsey is being assigned to a new and as yet undisclosed role in the Pacific force of the United States Pacific fleet, was accomplished in a simple ceremony in the headquarters building here.

Halsey became commander of the South Pacific area as a vice admiral Oct. 18, 1942. Forces under his command defeated the Japanese in the battle of Santa Cruz Oct. 26, 1942, and in the battle of Guadalcanal the following Nov. 13 to 15.

Nazi Sub Invades N. Atlantic And Shells Trawler

BOSTON, June 15 (AP)—A German submarine invaded the north Atlantic fishing grounds recently shelled and machine-gunned a Boston trawler and forced all but two of the crew to abandon ship.

The submersible finally left, her skipper apparently thinking the trawler would sink. Then the crew put the vessel in shape and brought her into port early today, her hull and superstructure looking almost like a sieve.

Details of the attack were given at a press conference by Captain James L. Abbott, 35, skipper of the fishing vessel, the Lark, owned by F. J. O'Hara Brothers, Boston operators. The vessel is 145 gross tons.

The sub first was sighted about 2:30 a. m., Captain Abbott said but was mistaken at first for a friendly patrol boat. Then John Aspell, at the wheel, got a good look in the moonlit night and Abbott immediately roused the crewmen who were sleeping.

The enemy fired one shot across the bow and then opened up with machine guns as the fishermen scrambled into their dories. Captain Abbott, his 74-year-old cook, Dan Maloney, and the ship's dog, Rex, remained aboard.

The sub fired from about 200 feet, the captain said, but there were no casualties. Then the undersea craft vanished and the men pulled about a mile from their ship. One dory started back, however, and the U-boat returned. This time she circled, slamming shells into the Lark.

Nip Raid Is First Assignment For Giant US Plane

WASHINGTON, June 15 (AP)—The army threw a new fighting giant into the war in the Pacific today, turning loose the new B-29 superfortress in an air attack on the Japanese homeland.

A terse war department communique said: "B-29 superfortresses of the United States Army Air Forces 20th Bomber Command bombed Japan today."

It was the first fighting assignment for the sky mammoth, and the announcement also served to disclose for the first time the existence of the 20th Air Force, a world-roaming unit under the personal direction of Gen. H. H. Arnold, chief of the Army Air Forces.

The war department withheld details of the new bombing of Japan proper—first such attack on the mainland since the Doolittle raid of April 18, 1942.

There was no immediate hint of what part of Nippon had been hit, nor from where the B-29's went into action. But Arnold said in connection with the announcement: "This employment of the B-29 makes possible the softening up attack on Japan very much earlier than would be possible with aircraft hitherto known to combat."

Bombers Introduce A New Offensive

General George C. Marshall, chief of staff, in a statement on the attack made public by the war department, said the superfortress introduced a new type of offensive against the enemy and "also creates a new problem in the application of military force."

Because of the enormous range and heavy bomb load of this newest bombardment plane, said Marshall, they can strike "from many and remote bases at a single objective."

Their power is so great, the chief of staff continued, that the (American) joint chiefs of staff decided it would be uneconomical to confine the super fortress organization to a single theater, and "these bombers therefore will remain under the centralized control of the joint chiefs of staff with a single commander, General Arnold, acting as their agent in directing their bombing operations throughout the world."

Planes To Act As Major Task Force

"The planes will be treated as major task forces in the same manner as naval task forces are directed against specific objectives," Marshall said.

"This type of flexible, centralized control recognizes that very long-range bombardment is not a weapon for the air forces alone. Under the joint chiefs of staff, theater commanders will have a voice in its employment, ensuring that maximum effectiveness will be obtained through missions which will contribute directly to the overall strategy for the defeat of the enemy."

It was the second American raid on the Japanese homeland. On April 18, 1942, when American military fortunes were at their lowest, the nation was electrified by word that Tokyo and other Japanese cities had been attacked from the air.

Doolittle's Men Made First Attack

The first announcement came from the Japanese and it was not until weeks later that it was learned that a force of B-25 Mitchell bombers under James H. Doolittle, then only a lieutenant colonel but now a lieutenant general commanding the Eighth Air Force in Britain, had carried out that adventurous mission.

The Mitchells flew from the aircraft carrier Hornet and after crossing Japan flew on to the continent. One landed in eastern Siberia, the others in China. Some of them came down in Japanese-occupied territory and a few of the later the Japanese themselves made it known that some of these prisoners had been executed.

FDR Calls For Organization Of Peaceful Nations

WASHINGTON, June 15 (AP)—President Roosevelt called today for creation of a world organization of all "peace-loving" nations to maintain peace and security—backed by force if necessary.

"We are not thinking of a superstate with its own police force and other paraphernalia of coercive power," the president said, but added that member nations of the world organization would maintain adequate forces "for joint action when necessary."

For the mechanics of a peace-promoting organization, Mr. Roosevelt proposed in a statement:

1. An international organization comprising all peace-loving nations.

2. A council, elected annually by these nations, to include the four major nations and "a suitable number of other nations."

(The big four are the United States, Great Britain, Russia and China.)

3. An international court of justice to deal primarily with disputes capable of settlement.

Mr. Roosevelt emphasized that for the need for physical enforcement of war prevention, the government is seeking agreement with other nations to have their armed forces available for joint action.

The plan set forth in the President's statement will be the basis of conversations at a meeting to which Secretary Hull has invited Britain, Russia and China to send representatives.

People Promised Lower Prices

MEXICO CITY, June 15 (AP)—Finance Minister Suarez promised the Mexican people today that prices would begin to come down after the first of July, adding that the country "has passed the critical period of its inflation."

Two main factors for a general decrease in prices, Suarez said at a press conference, are a reduction in the money in circulation and an increase in imports from the United States. He said other factors are the government's action in financing improvements out of current earnings and in forbidding banks to increase their holdings of bonds which serve as a basis for currency circulation.

The government has retired its overdraft with the government bank of Mexico, which permitted the bank to reduce the money in circulation. Suarez said reduction of export controls in the U. S. had made it possible for Mexico to import more goods reducing prices by increasing available supplies. Another $80,000,000 of government money will be spent in the U. S. this year for construction material, corn, wheat and lard, further reducing the money in circulation here.

Three Rules To Remember Before Rolling Bandages

Do you know how to roll surgical dressings? There are many captains each day at the local Red Cross room to train new workers and only three things should particularly be remembered. You should wear a cotton wash dress and head dress to completely cover the hair. Do not wear nail polish.

Women workers Wednesday morning were Mrs. T. S. Currie, Mrs. B. T. Evans, Mrs. E. J. Roach, Mrs. T. Gentry, Mrs. Olga Colar, Mrs. Beverly Manning, Mrs. M. K. Edds, Mrs. Agnes Currie.

Afternoon workers were Mrs. F. G. Powell, Mrs. Willa B. Postman, Mrs. H. J. Patefish, Mrs. R. L. Carpenter, Mrs. W. R. Davis, Mrs. Eugene Anderson, Mrs. M. H. Bennett, Mrs. M. C. Knowles, Mrs. R. E. Fires Produce Loss Of $3000 In Month

Ten fires produced an insured loss of $3,000 to buildings and contents during the month of May, the regular monthly report compiled by City Fire Marshal F. W. Bettie shows.

Only one of the fires was in an occupied dwelling and the cause of fire here was children playing with matches. Other causes included defective wiring, overheated electric motors, leaking gas, ammonia compressor explosion (no blaze), smoking while applying fire cement, possible spontaneous fire in hay stack and clothes in restroom. Only two were list of out-and-out unknown origin. Only one person was burned in a fire.

Registration Will Be Sat.

Persons interested in registering for the Presbyterian vacation Bible school are asked to do so Saturday afternoon at the church between 3 o'clock and 5 o'clock.

The school will open Monday and will be in session every day morning from 9 until 11:30 o'clock for two weeks.

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking away acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 2 pints a day. If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep, and drowsy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headache and dizziness. Frequent urination, passing urine with smarting or burning sensations shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't wait till your doctor for Don's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Don's Pills.

Teacher Honored At Party

Mrs. H. E. Dyer, teacher of the Reapers' class of the East Fourth Baptist church, was honored with a surprise birthday party Wednesday afternoon by the class in the home of Mrs. Houston Walker.

A cook book was the register and each guest signed with a recipe. Plate favors were miniature cook books.

Gifts were presented to the honoree and refreshments were served.

Those attending were Mrs. Frank Martin, Mrs. Jack Dearing, Mrs. J. W. Croan, Mrs. Bob Sanderson, Mrs. Marie Smyrl, Mrs. Inell Thrasher, Mrs. B. H. Brook, Mrs. Monroe Gafford.

Sending gifts were Mrs. Gene Haston, Mrs. Relece Jones, Mrs. Joe Thurman, Mrs. Lorene Roberts, Mrs. Gordon Montgomery, Mrs. Vera Morris, Mrs. Barney Thurman, Mrs. Velma McClanahan, and Mrs. Clark.

HOW TO RUIN DRESSES AND LOSE FRIENDS

1. It's tragic how some girls lose their friends and ruin their dresses because of perspiration odor and stains. And there's no excuse for it! It's easy to save dresses, it's easy to save friends.
2. Prevents under-arm odor. Helps stop perspiration safely.
3. A pure white, antiseptic, stabilizes cream.
4. No waiting to dry. Can be used right after shaving.

The Strongest Man In The World

REMEMBER your proud loud boast, "My father can lick your father!" Your Pop was a champion who never had to defend his title—he was the strongest man in the world—because he was Your Pop.

REMEMBER the cool spring evenings when the scrub team used to practice in the vacant lot? Sometimes Your Pop would stroll over to watch and one night he belted out a home run. Your heart almost burst with pride—you knew he could make Babe Ruth look sick if he took a notion to go into Big League.

REMEMBER the time you were saving for the bicycle in Baker's window? It had a safety brake and racing lines and you went cold with fear at the thought of someone else owning it. You saved and saved and when it seemed as though you'd never save enough, Pop asked you how much more you needed. Then he dug down, passed it over, and his only words were, "Don't tell your Mother." The most generous Pop ever.

REMEMBER the night you were struggling with the first mysteries of fractions? Your Pop passed up the sports page to struggle with you. And between the two of you, fractions went down for the count. Smartest man in the world—Your Pop.

REMEMBER the day Spot broke his leg and you thought you were going to lose your dog? Pop made a splint, gently fitted the bone together... and pretty soon old Spot was back at your heels again. Better than the best doctor—Your Pop.

And all those years you couldn't ever tell him how strong and smart and good he was. Somehow you didn't know the words. You still don't know the words.

REMEMBER Actions speak louder than words.

REMEMBER Your Pop on Father's Day June 18th

It's Time For Prayer On Home Front

"I think it is a time for prayer meeting instead of ringing of bells," a Big Spring resident said on D-Day.

of the First Methodist church and president of the Big Spring Ministers' association.

this is what Mrs. A. B. Dyer said: "I have just returned from a trip and I noticed the amount of talk and prayer on the train."

"I think the war will soon be over and I think the prayers of our people will have a lot to do with it."

The War Today Crucial Moment Of Invasion In France Is Near At Hand

By DEWITT MACKENZIE This is the beginning of the main Hitlerite counter-attack against the Allies on the Cherbourg peninsula, which means that the crucial moment of the first stage of our invasion of France is near.

the air and on the sea. One of the most important of yesterday's momentous events was the dramatic appearance of General Charles de Gaulle, the French leader, among the Allied forces on the peninsula—his first return to home soil since the fatal days of 1940.

liberated Frenchmen should pass on this great question first. The American-British decision about recognition is self-explanatory—they want the French people as a whole to make the choice in peace time.

Another person, called from the "L's," proved to be mother of a boy presumably in the invasion and an ardent believer in prayer. She is Mrs. W. A. Laswell, who said, "Of course, I haven't talked to many, but for my own self, I feel as if there is nothing like it—to get your own strength when you have someone over there. My friends feel the same way about it."

Soldiers Want Families To Know They Are Safe

Decrease In Arrests May Be Due To Fewer Drunkenness Charges

Number of arrests by city police declined sharply during the month of May and the decrease in drunkenness cases appeared to be the principal cause.

This particular type of case, however, was by far the most common of offenses, accounting for 45 of 98 arrests. Of this number, 44 were fined and one case dismissed. Nine were fined for unlawful train riding, one for reckless driving (the $50 fine indicating drinking involved), two for affray, three for gaming. Arrests and transfers to county included one for rape, one for theft, one for hi-jacking, four for burglary, four for theft, one for driving while intoxicated. Four were picked up for draft investigation but released. Four were brought in to court for sanitary ordinance violations.

During May 54 traffic tickets were issued, 38 paid fines, seven were excused and nine kept active. Of seven speeding tickets, five were fined, one excused and one kept active.

The department gave assistance in 140 cases, made 92 investigations, locked 10 business house doors, checked on six car wrecks. The police radio handled 382 local calls, received 145 messages and sent 90. Patrol cars traveled around 7,000 miles.

FINED $100

Coley Callahan, negro, was fined $100 in county court Thursday morning after he pleaded guilty to a charge of selling liquor on Sunday.

Heavy Rains In Mexico Disrupt Communications

MEXICO CITY, June 15 (AP)—Interruptions caused by heavy rains to communications became worse yesterday as the downpours continued.

Road communication with Veracruz and Acapulco has been cut by floods, which washed out bridges. Two railroad lines remain open to Veracruz, but Acapulco is completely isolated except by air.

The entire southernmost Mexican state of Chiapas has been isolated from the outside world since last Saturday.

Stevenson Makes Flag Day Address To Texans

HOUSTON, June 15 (AP)—Gov. Coke R. Stevenson, again championing states' rights, asserted in a Flag Day address here yesterday, "the flag is a banner that stands for all the rights guaranteed in the constitution, particularly in the rights of states."

He said "there are certain things better understood by states than those far removed from them and should be governed by the states."

Mrs. Ben Smith Of Colorado Dies Of Heart Attack

COLORADO CITY, June 15 — Mrs. Ben Smith, 39, member of a widely known West Texas ranching family, died here last night in a local hospital from an attack of pneumonia.

A resort to use of penicillin failed to rally her late Wednesday. She had been ill about eight days. Mrs. Smith was the former Virgie Powell, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lay Powell of Colorado City. She was born in Sterling county and moved with her parents to Colorado when she was four years of age, was graduated from the Colorado City high school, attended T. C. U., Hardin-Simmons University, and SMU.

She was married in 1937 to Ben Smith and they lived a short time in Pecos before returning to Colorado City where he bought and operated the hotel until it was sold last year to Crawford interests. Since then they had been ranching.

Survivors include her parents; three brothers, Earl Powell of Stanton, Elmer Lay Powell, Garden City, and W. R. (Jenks) Powell, Colorado City; and four sisters, Mrs. Curtis Erwin, Colorado City, Mrs. H. C. Tippett, McAlester, Okla., Mrs. Baxter Scoggins, Oklahoma City, Okla., and Winnie Powell, Colorado City.

Rites will be held at 4 p. m. Friday in the First Baptist church with a former pastor, the Rev. P. D. O'Brien of Big Spring, officiating. Burial will be in the Colorado City cemetery.

Palbearers will be Jake Richardson, Dr. R. D. Bridgford, R. H. Ratliff, Landon Dorn, Farris Lipp, Pete Alansworth, Rod Merritt of Abilene, Doss Harris of Anson.

Shack Consumed

Firemen made a run to 305 Orndorf at 5 a. m. today when fire destroyed a one-room shack. The dwelling was all but consumed when firemen arrived, but flames were prevented from spreading to a nearby structure.

While Citizens Fret Over Shortage Of Water, City Has Revenue Worries

People who worry about what the water shortage is doing to flowers, grass and shrubs should consider what it is doing to the City of Big Spring revenues.

Based on the financial statement for the month of April, this is the picture: Water and sewer service billed to consumers in April amounted to $11,379, a decrease of $3,180 from April of last year.

Comparative figures are not available on the report for May. Due to water rationing, April consumption dropped 6,664,000 gallons from March when normally it would have been showing a healthy gain. The decrease from April a year ago is 19,219,000 gallons.

According to the statement, month totaled $17,130 as against general fund receipts for the disbursements of $15,596, leaving an excess on the right side of the ledger of $1,533. Big items were water and sewer (mentioned above) and $1,563 gas franchise and $1,236 for electrical franchise. Tax receipts, included $985 delinquents, totaled $1,612.

The general fund showed a $46,251 balance at the end of April, interest and sinking fund $23,896 after payment of $9,750 in interest and $5,000 in bonds (reducing the bonded indebtedness to $835,000), the cemetery fund $9,565, airport bond to $1,401, and water and sewer bond to $9,217.

Smiles Remembered As Train Japanese-American Internees Stops In B'Spring

Chugging down the track into the station it looked just like any other train, but as the wheels ground to a stop and billows of steam heaved from the sweaty engine, maple colored faces set with almond eyes peeped out of the windows for a squint at Big Spring.

No one could determine just where the train containing Japanese-Americans had come from or just where it was headed Wednesday, but the coaches were alive with internees; old men with wrinkled faces, babies with turned-up noses and high haircuts, young girls with bright flowered dresses and exhausted patients under care of an American nurse.

They looked out the windows with an outward appearance of feeling part of the country which they traveled through and yet as far apart as Tokyo itself.

MP's strolled up and down the platform making certain that passengers did not talk to interested bystanders, but the shy little greeting and timid wave of a nine-month old girl melted even the reserve of these GI's.

When smiled at, the internees smiled back, and when given side glances which matched side-mouthed remarks by watchers, they looked resentful and stopped looking out the window.

When necessary services were made, crews changed and everything ready, the train pulled out. It was difficult not to feel sorry for the Japanese-Americans with their cherry-blossomed smiles but then most bystanders seemed to remember cherry-blossomed smiles another day in December of 1941, and they walked from the station satisfied with Uncle Sam's station satisfied with Uncle Sam's

De Gaulle Gets Warm Welcome In Homeland

LONDON, June 15 (AP)— Gen. Charles de Gaulle returned to France yesterday for the first time in four years and received a warm welcome from the people of liberated Normandy, but his relations with Allied authorities remained clouded today by a reported disagreement involving employment of French liaison officers during the invasion.

The length of his visit was not immediately disclosed, but the Brazzaville radio in French Equatorial Africa said he had stayed in France only a few hours and then returned to England, which has been confirmed.

While he was receiving his ovation in Normandy, qualified sources in London said De Gaulle had withdrawn all but a handful of Fighting French liaison officers at the very moment Allied troops were moving onto the assault beaches. A similar report came from high authorities in Washington.

It was said here that these officers had been counted upon by the Allied supreme command to act in a liaison capacity with the French people to help take over civil administration.

Referring to the Washington report that De Gaulle had cancelled orders for several hundred French officers to land with the first waves in the invasion, De Gaulle's press attache said:

"This is a most incredible report. We cancelled no such agreement for we never signed such an agreement. We negotiated several months with the Allies prior to the invasion, but as the whole world knows we reached no agreement with the American government nor with the Allied commanders, either on the government of the liberated territory or on sending liaison officers with the invasion forces."

Eddy Tests Given To Men 17 to 50

Reminder that men 17 to 50 may take the Eddy test and those passing will receive a first class seaman rating and be assigned to 10 months' training, was given Thursday by J. L. Sturges, specialist first class in the navy from San Angelo.

Sturges spends each Thursday morning in an office in the basement of the federal building.

Only about two of every 12 taking the tests pass. Those accepted and completing training receive ratings as second class petty officers. The examination includes mathematics, shop work, physics and radio questions.

Junior Girl's Auxiliary met in the home of Mrs. A. A. Watson and missionary study was directed by Mrs. L. E. Hutchins as leader.

Here 'n There

Dr. William Angle Smith, elected a bishop by the Methodist church central jurisdictional conference at Tulsa, Okla., is well remembered here. He was one of the featured speakers for the Northwest Texas conference when it met here in November of 1941. His brother, Dr. Frank Smith, is bishop of the Houston area, and his election to the bishopric makes this the third brother combination in Methodist history.

What's doing in other places: Sweetwater city commissioners have bought $25,000 in bonds for the Fifth War Loan drive; Alan Tolbert has resigned as Midland's postmaster and has been succeeded by N. G. Oakes as acting postmaster; Denison chamber of commerce has prepared 20,000 folders which fit into envelopes for mailing and which depict the Denison dam and describes a "playground of the southwest" area.

Nat Shick, postmaster, returned Wednesday after attending a State Postmasters association meeting in Galveston.

Pressure cookers will be tested at the home demonstration office from 3 to 5 o'clock Friday afternoon, Mildred Atkinson, emergency war food assistant who is spending a month here, announced Thursday. Women who have cookers they wish tested for correct registration of gauges may take them to the office. Much spoilage in foods is due to under-processing because gauges do not register correctly, Miss Atkinson said.

A total of 126 persons had purchased federal use stamps for motor vehicles up to late Thursday morning, it was announced at the postoffice. The figure was low in proportion to number of motorists in the county. Car motorists may avoid the rush before the July 1 deadline by obtaining stamps early, it was reminded.

Sam Fields, CM/1c, who has been in the North Atlantic with the Seabees for the past eight months, is visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Fields, and other relatives here while on 15-day leave. He is to return to his station from here Sunday evening via American Airlines.

Matt Harrington, member of the Army Transport Command, suffered a broken arm during the weekend when the ship in which he was riding encountered stormy conditions between Dallas and Wichita, Kas., and threw him against the ceiling.

Finns Are Hurlled Across River By Russian Forces

MOSCOW, June 15 (AP)— The Red army hurled the Finns across an important but unnamed river today as it pressed on toward the port of Viipuri against an enemy who is throwing up what Red Star described as "a multitude of obstacles."

All dispatches stressed the difficult fighting conditions faced by Col. Gen. Leonid A. Govorov's troops. In numerous places the Russians were employing special squads to cut through dense forests and build highways.

There were many indications that Finnish resistance was stiffening and that the Soviets had come up against the main Finnish defenses, but no indications that the Finns had been able to stop the Red army in any sector.

Falling back towards Viipuri, the Finns chopped down hundreds of tall firs across the highway and railroad line.

The Finns were using the forests for ambushes, causing extreme caution on the part of Soviet troops anxious to save every tank in the near-wilderness of the Karelian Isthmus.

Valley Shrubs Now Producing Rubber

EDINBURG, June 15 (AP)—T. E. McAfee, associate agronomist for the guayule project in the lower Rio Grande valley says the valley shrubs at 13 months of age produce as much rubber as two-year-old shrubs grown at the nation's guayule center of Salinas, Calif.

He said the 13-month old shrubs were grown at the Rio Farms project near Eliza in northeastern Hidalgo county, and yields from about 450 acres of Guayule in both Hidalgo and Wilacy counties were tested.

The findings are the first to Court Orders A Hearing June 19 On Demo Clash

AUSTIN, June 15 (AP)— The state supreme court has taken jurisdiction in the presidential elector fight and ordered a hearing June 19 on the subject which has caused a sharp cleavage in Texas democratic ranks.

The tribunal yesterday granted permission to pro-Roosevelt forces to file an application for mandamus which would compel the party's executive committee to certify on the July 22 primary election ballot presidential electors picked by the pro-Roosevelt in an offshoot convention from the party's regularly-constituted meet.

The regular convention named electors—and certified them immediately to the secretary of state for printing on the general election ballot—pledged to support the party's nominees unless certain conditions are met by the national convention in Chicago.

The committee, the constituted administrative group for the party, answers that only the state convention which derives its powers from precinct and county conventions can name the electors. The bolters' participation in precinct and county meets and their partial participation in the state convention waives the right of complaint as to the method of picking electors, says the committee.

PROMOTED WASHINGTON, June 15 (AP)— President Roosevelt today nominated Commodore Andrew F. Carter of Houston and Washington, D. C. for promotion to rear admiral.

He made public on valley-grown guayule and are, said McAfee, the first specific indication of the high quality of guayule capable of being produced in this section.

Dream Dinner For The Head Man

By CHARLOTTE ADAMS
 AP Food Editor
 Irma S. Rombauer, whose best-selling "The Joy of Cooking" makes her the envy of every person who ever wrote a recipe, has put her lively mind to planning a Father's Day dinner. Mrs. Rombauer is a delightful lady who has been a cook and housekeeper for many years. As a result of those activities she knows naturally what men like to eat. As a result of being a wide-awake person in a world of rationing and shortages she knows what men are likely to get to eat. The first of these menus is a dream, parts of which can be reality occasionally, even in wartime. Each of the dinners would be a delight to any man. Try the reality in your house on Father's day and watch the Head Man beam!

 Crackers Olives Radishes
 Celery
 Thick Beef Steak
 French fried or hashed brown potatoes
 Sautéed onions Creamed broccoli
 Pickles Popovers Tart jelly
 Lettuce with French Herb Dressing (or Thousand Island Dressing)
 Meringue Pie
 Coffee

Mrs. Rombauer remarks that the coffee should be served in large cups. That's for Father, certainly! And she also says, in giving us the Meringue Tart recipe below that if her larder permitted she would flavor the fruit with Kirsch or the ice cream with rum. Meringue Tart

Sift:
 1 cup sugar
 Place on a platter;
 3 egg whites
 1-3 teaspoon baking powder
 1-3 teaspoon salt
 Whip the egg whites
 Combine in a small pitcher or cup:
 1 teaspoon vanilla
 1 teaspoon vinegar
 1 teaspoon water
 Whip the egg whites until they are stiff. Add the sifted sugar very slowly. 1-2 teaspoon at a time, at ternately with a few drops of the combined liquids. Beat constantly. When all the ingredients have been added continue to beat the meringue for several minutes. Keep it upon the lightly greased ovenproof platter (or pan with a removable rim). Shape the meringue like a pie or a tart with a heavy edge, using a spatula or knife. Bake it in a very slow oven 275 degrees for an hour or longer. When ready to serve the meringue fill the center with sweetened fresh or stewed fruit. Top it with lightly sweetened and flavored whipped cream, ice cream or water ice.

And here's what Father would get if he were lucky enough to have Irma Rombauer plan his meals—or a wife who takes Mrs. Rombauer's word for what men like to eat.

Stuffed Pork Chops
 Wipe with a damp cloth and trim: 6 rib pork chops (3-4 inch or more thick). Trim off the excess fat and cut a large gash or pocket into the side of each chop.
 Prepare a dressing of:
 1 cup bread crumbs
 1-4 cup chopped celery
 2 tablespoons chopped parsley
 1-4 cup chopped onions
 Milk to moisten the dressing
 1-4 teaspoon salt
 1-8 teaspoon paprika
 These proportions and ingredients may be varied. Fill the pockets with the dressing. Sew them up with a coarse needle and thread. Sear the chops in a hot skillet and place them in a pan with a little milk or cream. Cover the pan and bake the chops in a moderate oven 350 degrees until they are done (3-4 hour to 1 hour). Thicken the drippings with flour.
 And that, says Mrs. Rombauer, she offers to the "American Father who is patient, understanding and considerate, who works hard at his job and who gives to his family generously in spirit and substance. All honor to the selfless provided and full recognition and gratitude for his efforts to establish his family in comfort and to speed their progress."
 Seems to me Father ought to have a good Day with those kind words in his mind and the "Reality" dinner under his belt.

Invasion Weapons

AP Features
 The 37mm gun—the smallest and one of the most versatile of all field artillery pieces—can be used for anti-aircraft, anti-tank or anti-personnel purposes with automatic, semi-automatic and manual feeds, it can fire 120 rounds per minute when used as an automatic weapon against aircraft.

Light in weight (912 pounds), quickly assembled, its value as a weapon of surprise is further enhanced by its small size, which makes it easy to camouflage.
 As an anti-tank weapon, it is mounted in light armored cars or on a two-wheel carriage. As an anti-aircraft gun, it is mounted on a four-wheel trailer carriage. In firing position, the chassis is lowered to the ground, taking the weight completely off the wheels, giving the gun greater stability.

Aliens Seek Draft Cards in Edinburg

EDINBURG, June 14 (AP)—The clerk of Edinburg's Draft Board tells of a problem posed to such boards by "wetbacks," those aliens who cross the Rio Grande border from Mexico into Texas to work without benefit of passport.
 The time has come for the annual migration of farm workers from the lower Rio Grande Valley to the north, explains Chief Clerk Phayne Glover of the Edinburg board, and as a result there have been many appearances at draft offices by aliens seeking draft cards—posing as persons born in Texas who are registering late.

 Without such cards the aliens know they'll never get north of the Falfurrias Immigration Checking Station, 75 miles north of Edinburg, she says.
 When draft officials find an obvious case of illegal entry they call in immigration inspectors.

Don't Believe The Enemy

If there was ever a time when we ought to be especially wary of what we read and hear from Axis sources, that time is now.

Dr. Paul Goebbels is working overtime now trying to counteract—not for his own people but for us—the effects of the recent invasion landings. He is trying every propaganda trick known to confuse us, to stir up doubt, to make us wonder about our allies, make us believe one minute that enemy collapse is only weeks away and jolt us with misgivings days later when we find that the going is slow and costly.

Not all propaganda is easily recognizable as such. If it were, there would be no point in putting it out, for it would be avoided like a rattlesnake. But by circulating stories which seem to our advantage at the moment but which eventually may be leading us into false notions, propaganda can be a dangerous and deadly weapon.

So do not for a minute believe what you see coming out of Berlin or even out of "neutral" sources. These stories may be perfectly true—and again they may be issued for a purpose. The safer rule is always to take them with the necessary grain of caution and credit them always with the thought in mind that perhaps the information cannot be trusted after all.

Repayment For Neglect

A letter, typical of many which come to police, pleads with officers to find out where a wayward daughter (married and with a baby, and whose husband is overseas) might be staying in Big Spring. "Don't arrest her," said the anguished father. "Just let me know where she is. I want just one more chance to talk with her and to try to get her on the right path."

The pitiful part about these letters is that even if the object of the search is located, it is seldom that tearful talks ever accomplish any results. Things usually have gone too far by then, and the offender is calloused enough that a heartbroken parent doesn't make much difference. And perhaps, that is payment in kind for neglect in earlier years. Hundreds of parents in Big Spring need to know that neglecting their children now will mean that it will do little good to plead with them later.

We hear a great deal about the "average man," but little or nothing about the average woman—probably because there aren't any.—Grit.

After six years of highly informative quiz programs, we now know the answers to everything except "Where are we?"—Detroit News.

Carolina Medicos Support Hospital Plan

KINSTON, N. C. (UP)—In an effort to stymie any attempt at forced socialized medicine in North Carolina, the State Medical Society is actively supporting the non-profit, hospital care plans, Dr. Paul F. Whitaker, society president, said today.

If the federalization of medicine under a bill now pending in Congress is to be avoided, the burden of spreading the services of the profession must be shouldered by the doctors of the nation, he declared.

The North Carolina society president listed five specific objections to the federalization of medicine.

1. It would subject the practice of medicine to the harmful and uncertain effects of politics.

2. It would lower the caliber of medical service now offered the American people and tend to create a lack of initiative among physicians.

3. It would seriously impair and perhaps destroy the personal relationship between physician and patient.

4. It would be entirely too expensive, calling for expenditure of more than three billion dollars annually to be collected in additional payroll taxes.

5. It would make of the surgeon-general a virtual dictator in the field of medicine; furthermore, it would not work out satisfactorily because of the different needs of the various states.

North Carolina, which is mainly agricultural, would have needs vastly different from those of industrial Pennsylvania.

Dr. Whitaker said that he was convinced that the answer to expanded medical care for the low-income groups must be found in an evolutionary method, such as promotion of voluntary hospital insurance plans and improving the scope of their services.

Dr. Whitaker said that there are approximately 14,000,000 Americans at the present time protected against the costs of hospital and medical care through enrollment in the various Blue Cross plans, and many more through private insurance companies, adding that another 1,500,000 of these Blue Cross participants are enrolled for medical and surgical protection through medical plans sponsored by state or county medical societies.

He said that in North Carolina non-profit plans have more than 320,000 members and that such plans are rapidly growing throughout the country.

Aiding Membership Drive "Here in North Carolina," Dr. Whitaker said, "the state society is urging each medical society in the state's 100 counties to devote considerable time in the next 12 months to promoting the enrollment in these Blue Cross medical and hospital plans by placing in their respective offices posters encouraging such membership."

Dr. Whitaker said that the society was backing plans suggested by Gov. J. M. Broughton that a number of small hospitals be established throughout North Carolina to bolster the services now offered by operating institutions.

Hillman Says PAC To Be Permanent

By JAMES MARLOW and GEORGE ZIELKE WASHINGTON, June 15 (AP)—Sidney Hillman says his CIO Political Action Committee intends to be a permanent force in American politics.

Recently it has been assigned much influence—probably too much in some cases—for the defeat of certain congressmen this spring. PAC itself has played pretty mum about claiming influence.

Hillman is PAC chairman. In an interview he asked him to say what the score is.

He said PAC has not taken exclusive credit for those congressional defeats, and can't. PAC gunned for the whipped congressmen but other groups were active, too.

What about these defeated ones: Senator Holman (R-Ore), Rep. Newsome (D-Ala), and Reps. Starnes (D-Ala) and Costello (D-Cal), both members of the Dies Committee, whose chairman, Rep. Dies (D-Tex), has decided not to run again?

Yes, Hillman said, in each of those cases the local PAC worked to defeat those men. But he heavily emphasized this:

The national PAC, as such, does not work for an individual congressman's defeat. That is done by the local branch of the PAC.

Hillman said PAC looks at all congressmen's records two ways: Their stand on international cooperation after the war and their home front policies.

Take the case of Holman. He was defeated by Wayne Morse, former member of the War Labor Board. Hillman said:

"Holman was an isolationist. The PAC supported Morse. When he was on the labor board, Morse handed down some decisions which antagonized labor. But we preferred him to Holman. We want a congress which will work for international cooperation."

Hillman said: "I wouldn't take the democratic party as a gift on a silver platter. But PAC is here to stay. It will not end after this year's elections. It is in permanent operation."

PAC was set up by the CIO last July. For many months, while it did its spadework quietly, it was practically ignored by the political highdomes in Washington.

But they scrambled over one another after the spring primaries to diagnose PAC.

WICHITA FALLS, June 15 (AP)—Three men, W. A. Waggle, L. E. Broome and D. L. Ring, were critically burned in a fire at the alkylation plant of the Continental Oil company's refinery near here following a series of explosions yesterday.

Less seriously burned were C. B. Nelson, K. E. Stinson, Everett B. Geyer and Henry C. Brandt.

And Nothing Can Be Done About It

NORRIS MAY TAKE STUMP FOR FD

By JACK STINNETT OMAHA, Neb.—Friends or former Sen. George W. Norris here are confident that if President Roosevelt runs for a fourth term, the state's most famous independent will take as active a part as his health will permit in seeing that the President is re-elected.

At his McCook, Neb., home the aging former senator told me over long distance telephone that he didn't want to make his statement at this time. In the conversation that followed I asked him what he would do if, the campaign were waged between President Roosevelt and Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York. His answer was: "Well, son, you can draw your own conclusions as to that."

That's what most of his friends have done. Admitting that he wasn't "feeling well," the 80-odd-year-old veteran of more political battles than any other man in the state expressed considerable impatience at being on the sidelines.

Just how much weight Norris would have in Nebraska if he is able actively to back the President for a fourth term is a question that brings few satisfactory answers.

Without campaigning in 1942 and after his voluntary retirement had been freely predicted and not always denied, Norris received nearly 100,000 votes to Republican Sen. Kenneth Wherry's 186,000 and 85,000 for other candidates. Norris still has a host of friends and followers in the state, but whether they would be numerous enough to stem the apparent Republican trend that has been mounting since 1938 is doubtful.

Many believe, however, that regardless of his influence in the state, Norris' approval of a fourth term would be of importance nationally. As "father" of TVA, Sen. Norris became the champion of the great national public power projects and in those circles, his long fight hasn't been forgotten.

His declaration for continuance of Roosevelt in office would at least provide the Democratic National Committee with some potent campaign ammunition in a number of sections of the country where the public power and irrigation projects have won friends.

The Office of Defense Transportation in Washington and the local office combined recently to play a dirty trick on the Omaha chamber of commerce. They took occasion to rap conventions in general and the 22 that Omaha had last month in particular as unnecessary travel just when the National Association of Credit Men had 1,300 out-of-towners in here for an annual session.

The C-of-C hastened to proclaim that not only was the Credit Men's gathering here "most essential," but so were 19 of the other 21 conventions.

I'm not picking on Omaha or the Credit Men, but in what reportorial traveling I've done, conventions as usual seem to be the rule rather than the exception in this third year of total war.

Barbara Britton in "Till We Meet Again" gets equal billing with Ray Milland and she had been as obscure an ingenue as ever languished on a contract list. Her role? That of a convent novice, pure in heart, beyond earthly temptation.

"The Miracle," Max Reinhardt's religious spectacle, has been owned by Warner Bros. for years, now at last is definitely on the production schedule. Whoever plays the nun will be a star.

Frank Ross' "The Robe" offers a star-maker in the role of Diana, "beautiful, high-spirited... a noble soul," as the producer's casting brochure describes her. "The Keys of the Kingdom" has its intriguing nun, played by Rosa Stradner, and "Quo Vadis" will have its beautiful Christian girl, Lyria.

All is not lost for the sirens, the alluring ones, the larcenous-eyed. "Quo Vadis" also has its Empress Poppaea. But for the first time screen virtue has a chance of being something more than its own reward.

Many careers which gained impetus from scripted vice in the last decade have continued into the 1940's. Claudette Colbert's Empress Poppaea in 1932's "Sign of the Cross" (now re-issuing), Bette Davis' "Of Human Bondage," Ida Lupino's "The Light That Failed," were all unsavory roles that lifted former ingenues out of virtuous ruts. Garbo, Dietrich, Barbara Stanwyck and Joan Crawford spent profitable years letting audiences decide whether they were more sinned against than sinning.

Perhaps this type of character will continue, even a war and the wave of religious awakening not being guaranteed to erase her from life, but the spiritual pictures already have opened the gates to the good girl. "The Song of Bernadette" was Jennifer Jones' key, marking the first time an actress won an Oscar for portraying saintliness.

More state police intelligence: The Houston district office heard from Capt. Percy R. Follis, from somewhere in Italy. He said: "Italy may be okay, but it ain't Texas."

And another former patrolman, Lieut. Vernon E. Ball, reported from England: "My only trouble is driving on the left side of the road. Most Americans seem to have the same trouble and compromise by driving down the middle of the road."

*April showers bring May flowers, they say, but a patrolman in the Panhandle offers this version: "April and May bring those fresh to occasional strong winds. Occasionally it slows down to 60 miles an hour, the rest of the time the wind blows."

Col. Homer Garrison, public safety department director, has been appointed a member of the post-war planning committee of the International Association of Chiefs of Police.

The state liquor control board, apparently imbued with the spirit of spring, printed a picture of a bluebird (or maybe it was a thrush) on the cover of its April bulletin.

Ranger Capt. M. T. Gonzaulas is taking a ribbing from his colleagues. In Amarillo a lady photographer took a picture of Gonzaulas standing beside his horse trailer, the front end of which was piled full of hay.

Reported the Public Safety Department News: "The caption under the photo was 'Texas Ranger M. T. Mike Gonzaulas stands by his crime laboratory on wheels.'"

In the course of the recent remodeling of the laboratory at headquarters, the purchase of new apparatus and equipment which will make our lab the outstanding police laboratory in the country, a modern up-to-date bay barn has been constructed and bids are being taken for three carloads of extra fine, well-seasoned hay.

Agent Asks Requests For Labor Be Filed With His Office

By O. P. GRIFFIN County Agent

It is very essential that farmers list their labor needs at the county agent's office. Before any migrant laborers can move to Howard county the Howard county agent must certify that there is need for them in this county as evidenced by requests of farmers on file in the office. If no requests are filed there will be no laborers come from other sections of the state, because they cannot get gasoline to make the trip.

Make your listing far in advance. We might be able to get being crews come from other sections, but there is at this time not a single request for hoe hands, that has not been filled.

Four farmers with large crops at Knott pooled their hoing and are getting a crew of workers from San Antonio. Others could do the same if they would act together and act quickly.

The same procedure will be necessary to get cotton pickers. It is not too early to begin now for the cotton picking season.

It costs you nothing to list your request except a promise to notify us when you hire hands. This last is very necessary to keep our records up to date.

We have request for tractor men in our files now that are a month old. We have referred workers to most of them, but neither the to return the postage free card farmer nor the worker has seen fit we gave them.

If gasoline were issued to everybody that would say they are going off to work, there would be a lot of tires worn out and gasoline used in unnecessary travel. It is to prevent this that rationing restrictions are imposed. All of the gasoline that can be made is needed in the war and in transportation that is necessary.

It would actually be less trouble and less costly to cooperate under government regulations than not to do so, if farmers would just be cooperative instead of acting as though war regulations were made just to cramp their style.

(Recipes Serve Four)

Scalloped Tomatoes And Corn
1 1-2 cups raw tomatoes, cut up
1 1-2 cups raw corn, grated
Salt
Pepper
2 tablespoons margarine

Fill a greased casserole with alternate layers of tomato and corn, seasoning each layer with salt and pepper and dotting with pieces of margarine. Bake, covered, at 375 degrees for 30 minutes.

Waldorf Salad
2 medium sized apples
2 stalks celery
Lettuce
1-2 cup mayonnaise
Shredded nuts, if desired
Peel apples and cut them and the celery into Julienne pieces. Mix thoroughly with mayonnaise and serve on lettuce beds arranged on individual salad plates. Top with shredded nuts, if desired. (Raisins may also be mixed in the salad.)

Section A Continues Bid For Local Softball Title

Section A continued its bid for the enlisted men's softball title at the Big Spring Bombardier school Wednesday with one fat inning that gave it an 8-1 win over the Wildcats. At the same time, the Station Guards had a fair time in the fourth to grab a 3-1 decision from Maintenance & Supply.

Hamilton was the big noise in the Guards' win, polling out a pair of triples. Capello slapped a homer for Maintenance & Supply's only tally. Harrell whiffed five M&S hitters and Bredemeyer sat down eight Guards.

Gunter for Section A and Ludkowski had a two base hit each for the only display of power in the other game. Valliere, Wildcat chunker, struck out three Section A men whereas Fenning sent four Wildcats swinging.

Clark Moves Back Into Demo Lead

BOISE, Idaho, June 15 (AP)—Incumbent D. Worth Clark moved back into the lead today in Idaho's see-saw battle for the democratic senatorial nomination, claiming a 10-vote margin over Glen H. Taylor, former troubador cowboy.

With returns from Tuesday's primary election in from 715 of the 845 precincts, Clark had 10,017 votes to 10,007 for Taylor.

The last previous tabulation had given Taylor a 14-vote lead and it was apparent that the victor may not be known until the official canvassing starting June 24.

Hurricane Season Due To Begin At Midnight

HOUSTON, June 15 (AP)—Noting the hurricane season starts at midnight tonight, E. A. Farrell, chief of the United States Weather Bureau at Houston, has announced lifting of restrictions to allow complete dissemination of information concerning all gulf storms.

Previously only areas which appeared to be in danger were given hurricane warnings, he said.
