Corpus Christi- The League of United Latin American Citizens, the oldest and largest Hispanic organization in the United States, will hold its national convention June 24-29 in Washington D.C., according to the president Ruben Bonilla Jr.

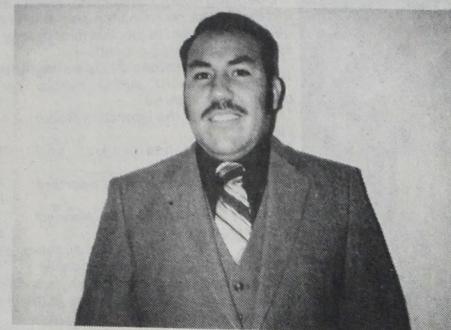

The theme of the convention will be "Hispanics: At the Threshold of Economic Development and Political Power." Numerous speakers, workshops and seminars will focus on advances by Latinos and plans for the future.

Bonilla said independent presidential candidate John Anderson has accepted an invitation to speak, and that invitations have been sent to President Carter and Ronald Reagan, likely Democratic and Republican presidential nominees.

LULAC was founded in 1929 and now has organizations in 35 states, Washington D.C. and Puerto Rico.

Two of the most important seminars will be on the administration of justice and on a possible coalition between blacks and Hispanics.

Salgan a Votar El Sabado

Manuel Flores will be on the ballot this Saturday, June 7 and is seeking to be elected to the position of County Constable in Precinct 6. The precinct covers the north and west side of Lubbock. Any registered voter can vote in the upcoming election with the exception of those persons who voted in the Republican Primary in May.

Persons needing information, help in voting, or transportation to the polls can call 744-2698.

Mexican American voting patterns reported in this study are based on aggregate voting and registration data taken from two hundred thirty-one (231) predominantly Mexican American precincts in thirty-three (33) Texas counties. The thirty-three Texas counties surveyed include Bexar, Hidalgo, El Paso, Cameron, Brooks, Harris, Nueces, Webb, Dallas, Travis, Tarrant, Starr, San Patricio, Jim Wells, Val Verde, Maverick, Kleberg, Willacy, Frio, Bee, Reeves, Dimmit, Wilson, Duval, Presidio, La Salle, Hays, Jim Hogg, Zavala, Sutton, Tom Green, Uvalde, and Zapata.

The research process entailed identifying those precincts in each of the thirty-three counties in which eighty percent (80%) of the registered voters were Spanish surnamed.

These sample precincts were then used to project Mexican American turnout and voting patterns for the entire county, using the number of Spanish surnamed voters in each county as a base for the estimates. The aggregate totals from the county estimates were then employed to project turnout and voting patterns for the entire state.

An attempt was made to select the counties that would reflect urban/rural, as well as regional, voting patterns. For the most part this was possible, with the exception of some areas of north and central Texas where the concentration of Mexican American registered voters was not high enough to guarantee some degree of accuracy.

Our voting age population estimates were computed using the Bureau of the Census's estimate of the 1977 "Texas Voting Age Population" reported in the Federal Register, March 1978, the 1978 Rand Atlas and Commercial Guide and the U.S. Bureau of the Census, Current Population Reports, p. 20, no. 317, "Persons of Spanish Origin in the United States: March 1977." Non-citizen voting age population was computed as a ratio of the number of resident aliens in Texas in 1977. It is noteworthy that approximately eighteen percent (18%) of the Mexican American voting age population are noncitizens in Texas. These noncitizens were factored out of the voting age population. Resident alien figures were obtained from the U.S. Department of Justice, Immigration and Naturalization Service.

Mexican Americans cast 270,184 votes in the May 3, 1980 Presidential Preference Primary. Of these, Senator Ted Kennedy received 183,725 or 68% and President Carter received 72,950 or 27% of the vote. All other candidates received 13,509 Mexican American votes, or 5% of the total. Senator Kennedy ran best among rural Mexican American voters, defeating President Carter in all 23 rural Texas counties surveyed in the study. The Senator's best victory margins were in Bee County with 83% of the vote, La Salle County with 77.8% and San Patricio County with 75.4% of the Chicano vote. President Carter did best in Tom Green County with 42.7% of the vote, Presidio County with 42.4% and Miembros y estudiantes del Comité para Componer la escuela Thompson se juntaron la semana pasada en un rally que se llevó a cabo en dicha Escuela. Los participantes buscan que se componga la escuela en vez de que se cierre, como quiere la Mesa Directiva de las Escuelas. Ellos presentarán peticiones en la próxima junta del 19 de Junio de la Mesa Directiva.

Juntan Firmas Para Apoyo de Thompson

Padres de estudiantes y residentes de la área de la escuela Thompson lanzaron una campaña para juntar firmas para mantener dicha escuela abierta. Las peticiones mencionadas serán entregadas a la mesa directiva de las escuelas para tratar de convencerlos que cambien su decisión hecha la semana pasada de cerrar la escuela este próximo año por razones de que el jefe de bomberos declaró que la Thompson no estaba asegurada contra incendios.

En la reciente alegata sobre la escuela Thompson Jr. High se han proporcionado muchas razones porque no se debe mantener abierta. La posición de los de la Mesa Directiva explican que por acaos de costos, ciertas decisiones se tienen que llevar a cabo. Aparte de las investigaciones ya hechas, varias opiniones se han otorgado que conflictan con aquellas de los oficiales formales.

El Comité dijo que "al fin y al cabo, y tomando todo lo antes presentado en consideración, hay prueba que el edificio tiene mucho mérito físico porque salvarlo. Sin embargo, uno tiene que pensar el 'porque' se hizo la decisión de cerrar las puertas de esa escuela tan interna a nuestra comunidad."

En la carta enviada a las diferentes organizaciones de Lubbock solicitando su ayuda para juntar firmas, el Comité dijo que se ha determinado que el edificio es muy firme y capaz de seguir como institución educativa. "Lo importante es que el costo de edificar una escuela nueva costaría más que cinco millones de dólares. Al reformar la presente, se llevaría simplemente menos de setecientos mil dólares," dijo el Comité.

Terminó el Comité diciendo que lo más importante es que la comunidad debe tener su voz y poder. "A este punto no se les ofrece a nosotros ese hecho pero con la cooperación de todos nosotros siempre habrá éxito."

Las firmas serán entregadas el día 19 de Junio en las oficinas administrativas de las escuelas ubicado en el 1628 19th St. La junta será a las 7:30 de la mañana.

Hearing To Be Held

A meeting between federal Judge Halbert O. Woodward, government attorneys and school attorneys and officials concerning the closing of Thompson Junior High has been set for June 18, a school attorney said Thursday.

Charles Cobb said the meeting is scheduled for 10:30 p.m. June 18 at the federal courthouse in Abilene.

School Supt. Ed Irons; Dr. E.C. Leslie, assistant superintendent for administration; and Monte Hasie, school board president will represent the school district along with their attorneys.

The school and federal government representatives must meet to work out an agreement because of the impact the closing of the central city junior high will have on the present Lubbock school integration plan and on any forthcoming revisions in that plan.

School officials and Justice Department attorneys are awaiting a decision by Woodward on the fate of the limited desegregation plan in force here.

Woodward's ruling on the federal government's appeal for systemwide integration will then go to the Fifth

Circuit Court of Appeals which will issue a decision.

Cobb said today that representatives at the meeting probably also will discuss the magnet junior high program which trustees voted to implement beginning this fall. They have not yet chosen a location for the program.

School board members voted unanimously May 21 to close Thompson for junior high use in the fall after City Fire Marshal Robert Stokes reported that the building is a firetrap that is unsafe for use by schoolchildren.

Trustees said the final decision on whether to close Thompson and where the students from the school will be reassigned will depend on the outcome of the meeting with Woodward.

They have proposed sending Thompson students to Hutchinson Junior High, which has been predicted to have a slight decrease in enrollment during the next five years.

Hasie said today school officials may have a report on the outcome of the Abilene meeting at the school board meeting scheduled for June 19.

Habrá además, lo que llamamos testimonios, de una persona que sufre del cancer; otro testimonio será de una persona que ayuda a su esposa a descubrir el cancer a tiempo, hace veinte años, y con un tratamiento oportuno, la señora goza ahora de salud. El Kick Off incluye el siguiente Programa, tentativamente:

Esta persona puede ser usted, su vecino, su esposa u otro ser querido. Por eso todos están invitados al Kick Off, para aprender más sobre el cancer. La mejor manera de vencer el cancer es conocéndolo. este programa será en español. Los casos de cancer son tan numerosos en nuestra comunidad, como en la comunidad blanca. La comunidad negra, nacionalmente hablando sufre más casos de cancer que las demás comunidades, en proporción con el numero que la intergrá. Esta invitación al Kick Off es para ti que hablas español; ahí aprenderás como cuidar mejor de tu salud y de la de tus seres queridos. Recordemos que la salud de nuestra gente es tan importante como la salud de cualquier otra comunidad.

West Texas Legal Services Files Intervention on Behalf of Coronado Tenants

West Texas Legal Services filed an intervention Friday morning on behalf of residents of the Coronado Apartments in Judge Robert Wright's 137th District Court in an effort to get money to pay their delinquent utility bills.

Judge Wright limited the hearing to the question of Jesse Cavazos' legal status as a receiver. However, he gave West Texas Legal Services leave to intervene on the merits of the controversy between the two owners, Ben Snyder and Lester Payne. At this time there is no legal receiver for the Coronado Apartments and no receiver was appointed today.

In talking with the tenants after the hearing Legal Services Community Educator Robert Chavez said "the tenants at Coronado are now at a complete loss. Since Cavazos is no longer the receiver, they have no idea who they're supposed to pay their money to".

A three o'clock meeting has been set with Lubbock Power and Light to begin negotiations for continuation of services for the remaining Coronado tenants. Legal Services staff attorney Stephen McIntyre said "while accepting LPL's offer to negotiate on behalf of our clients Monday afternoon, we are not admitting that LPL has given residents of Coronado due process under the 14th Amendment."

Este Sabado tendremos la mejor oportunidad que hemos tenido en mucho tiempo para elegir a dos personas que nos representen en el gobierno del condado de Lubbock. Elos son Eliseo Solis y Manuel Flores.

Si se logran estas elecciones sera para nosotros los Chicano un avance tremendo en nuestra participación política en Lubbock. Se mostrara verdaderamente el poder de nuestra gente cuando se une con otros grupos pobres de Lubbock. Pero para logra una victoria se va necesitar la participación de todo votante Chicano. Sera verdaderamente una vergüenza si 2000 de nuestra gente no tome la iniciativa para ayudarnos a ganar la elección. Le urgimos a toda nuestra gente que no deje de votar este Sabado. Le urgimos a toda nuestra gente que sea responsable y piense de los afectos que puede tener en sus vidas si ganamos. Como se ha dicho muchas veces; Si ahora no cuando, Si nosotros no, quien?

ORENDAIN Critica

Antonio Orendain, dirigente de la Unión de Campesinos de Texas, criticó la propuesta del Gobernador Bill Clements de establecer un programa de "trabajadores inmigrantes temporales" como solución al problema de la "inmigración de indocumentados a este país".

Orendain señaló que el plan de Clements es en realidad el regreso al viejo "programa de braceros" y que en caso de ser establecido, el trabajador indocumentado no gozará de ninguna protección legal para defenderse de los abusos y la voracidad de los patrones.

El líder de la Unión de Campesinos de Texas participó recientemente en la I Conferencia Internacional por los Derechos Plenos de los Trabajadores Indocumentados celebrada en la Ciudad de México y en la cual participaron alrededor de 50 organizaciones sindicales y civiles tanto de Estados Unidos como de México. La conferencia, promovida por individuos y organizaciones interesadas en mejoras del nivel de vida y las condiciones de trabajo de los trabajadores indocumentados que se encuentran en este país, resultó en una serie de resoluciones y planes de acción en defensa de estos trabajadores.

Orendain, que fue elegido al presidente de la conferencia, manifestó su apoyo total a las resoluciones finales. La principal de ellas es una denuncia de los planes gubernamentales de ambos países para permitir la permanencia de trabajadores indocumentados en los Estados Unidos pero sin las garantías individuales necesarias.

Dijo Orendain: "¿Cómo podremos esperar que Clements proponga un plan que pueda garantizar los derechos de los trabajadores indocumentados cuando él se ha opuesto sistemáticamente a otorgar derechos de negociaciones colectivas a los trabajadores agrícolas que ya se encuentran en Texas?"

Luego, Orendain señaló que la única garantía verdadera de protección legal bajo la ley. Señaló que en Texas, la falta de una ley de Relaciones de Trabajo Agrícola así como la existencia de la antilaboral ley del "derecho a trabajar", dificultan la organización de los trabajadores no-organizados, por lo que los trabajadores que sean traídos bajo el plan propuesto por Clements, será explotado de la misma forma que ahora lo son los trabajadores agrícolas de Texas.

La Unión de Campesinos de Texas está compuesta tanto de trabajadores agrícolas de Estado, Unidos como del vecino país. Al respecto, Orendain declaró que continuarán organizando a trabajadores de ambos países, sin importar su estado legal, porque lo que afecta a unos afecta igualmente a los otros.

QUE VIVIA LA UNION!

Continuación de la Semana Pasada

Desde luego que yo, como amiga íntima de la familia, contaba con la absoluta confianza de Ana María y sus padres, a quienes había tenido el placer de conocer hacia varios años. Fue por eso, que al enterarme de la repentina desaparición de Ana María, me diriji a casa de sus padres, los Jiménez, para averiguar la realidad sobre los diferentes rumores que circulaban en aquellos días.

"No se crea Ud. de los cuentos de la gente," me aseguró Dña. Leonides, madre de Ana María.

"¿Qué no diera yo, porque mi hija se hubiera casado de nuevo? Cuando menos, ya sabría que estaba bien," siguió diciéndome aquella afligida mujer.

"Lo que pasa, es que la pobrecita de mi hija, ¡Está burlada, Chelo!" Casi ni terminó de darme la noticia, cuando se quebrantó su voz en un llanto angustioso.

Sorprendida por la aclaración que me acababa de hacer aquella amiga, empepéz a preguntarle por algunos datos. Creí que tal vez, yo había mal-entendido a Dña. Leonides, o había algún equívoco de su parte. ¡Burlada! ¡Esa explicación, no cabió en lo posible!

"Si Chelo," me aseguró de nuevo. "La verdad, es que mi Ana María, há perdido la razón."

No podía resignarme a creer lo que acababa de escuchár. Pero, de sobra sé, que el corazón de una madre, raras veces se equivoca.

Poco a poco, me fui contando la situación de su hija. Me dije que a Ana María, la habían encontrado en un estado raro y ajeno a sus costumbres. Yo siempre lo había admirado por su comportamiento y su firme carácter. Sin embargo, Dña Leonides me contó, que en la mañana en que ella fúe avisitar a su hija, ¡La encontró trepada sobre el respaldar de su camal! Dijo que estaba gritando como gallo y a veces como una lechuza, mientras permanecía allí sin bajar para nada. ¡Y completamente desnudal!

"Si Ud. La hubiera visto, Chelo," me dijo. "No era mi hija. Parecía más bien, un animal en forma humana."

Después de un buen rato que permaneció sin decir nada, y después que ya se calmó de llorar, le pregunte por su hija.

"Tuvimos que llevarla a un manicomio," me contestó.

"...¿Qué esperanzas hay de que se recobre?" le pregunte.

"Los medicos me han dicho que no hay ninguna esperanza," me dijo en un tono de tristeza.

"...¿Qué piensa Ud. hacér?" terqué yo.

"Ay Chelo. ¡Pues qué más podemos hacer! Si los doctores no han podido hacér nada, solo nos queda la voluntad de Dios."

Bueno, pues yo no sé si fué la voluntad de Dios la que causó ese cambio en Ana María. Lo que pasó, después fue un raro acontecimiento, que hasta la fecha, no se ha olvidado entre los que presenciaron aquél extraño caso.

Hortalizas Caseras*HORTALIZAS CASERAS — UNA RESPUESTA AL COSTO DE VIDA

UVALDE - El aumento en el cosot de vida es el problema número uno, las hortalizas aseras son una namera efectiva de controlarlo, dice el Dr. Jerry Parsons, especialista en vegetales en el área de San Antonio, quien trabaja para el Servicio de Extensión Agrícola de Texas, Sistema de la Universidad de Texas A&M.

Casi todos estamos de acuerdo en que se presentarán épocas difíciles estilos de vida en el futuro, indica el especialista.

"Los productores agrícolas de la nación están experimentando las dificultades del aumento en precio de combustible y porcentaje de interés de una forma más fuerte que la mayoría de los ciudadanos. Los agricultores constituyen ssolo el 4 por ciento de la población, y sin embargo ese pequeño porcentaje alimenta al resto del país y todavía tiene sobrantes para exportación, agrega Pesons.

La nación no se morirá de hambre, pero se espera ciertos cambios en producción. Después de perder más de $1.000 por acre en la producción de lechuga en 1980, muchos de los productores de California dejarán de cultivar lechuga. Otros productores de cultivos que requieren grandes cantidades de mano de obra, como tomate, zanahorias, espárragos y pepinos, se convencerán de que no se puede obtener ganancias razonables y dejarán de sembrarlos. Estas medidas harán de los vegetales un lujo en el futuro, predice Parsons.

La producción de vegetales en los patios caseros ha sido un atractivo pasatiempo para muchas personas durante los últimos 10 años. M5as del 50 por ciento de las familias norteamericanas tienen algún tipo de hortaliza casera. Algunos lo hacen para saborear vegetales frescos, otros por ejercicio y la mayoria tan sólo por el placer de "producir sus propios vegetales."

"Este pasatiempo puede ser la solución para disminuir el costo de los vegetales, conservando los recursos naturales y proporcionando a cada persona vegetales nutritivos para su uso diario," explica Parsons.

El precio de los vegetales en el supermercado es una prueba de los recursos naturales que se requieren para su producción. Tales recursos incluyen el gas al productor por su tiempo, energía e inversión; cosecha; procesamiento, empaque transporte y acarreo; y costos de mercado.

A medida que aumentan los costos de estos recursos, los precios de los alimentos aumentarán hasta alcanzar cierto punto, en el cual algunos consumidores tendrán que dejar de comprarlos, o los producirán ellos mismos," señala Parsons.

Cuando llegue ese momento, las hortalizas caseras serán una necesidad y no un pasatiempo. Tales ya el caso en muchos países desarrollados y en Rusia, explica Parsons.

Según él, una hortaliza bien cultivada es "algo bello y permanente," que proporciona el ejercicio más productivo.

Existe un experto en hortalizas en cada condado, el agente de Extensión, quien puede ayudarle si usted requiere mayor información.

Local Player Named To All-Series Team

Seniors Kenny Toney and Tim Leslie, two Lubbock Christian school players to compile a .300 plus batting average in the NAIA playoffs in 1980, were both named to the World Series All-Tournament team.

Third baseman Toney hit .383 in the playoffs with four doubles, four homers and 10 RBIs, which included one game-winning hit. He also walked once and struck out only three times in the 11 playoff games.

During the four games in Nashville, the LHS went eight-for-19, a .421 clip, with two doubles, a homer and five runs batted in.

First baseman Leslie, a first-team All-America selection as a sophomore and junior, hit .370 in the playoffs with five double, four homers, 14 RBIs and two game-winning hits.

Leslie played the final two games in Nashville with a swollen ring finger on his throwing (left) hand. He suffered the injury in a slide at home plate in the third inning of the 10-4 victory over William Jewell. He was unable to swing the bat in which LCC lost to Lewis (Ill.) University.

Leslie went seven-for-18, a .389 clip with three doubles and eight RBIs in the World Series.

In individual competition sports such as track, golf and tennis, the points accumulated by the ineligible players will be subtracted from the school's total.

West Texas did not appeal the findings.

The only title won by West Texas during the period involved was the 1979 indoor track championship. However, the school had sufficient points without the ineligible players to retain the title, the conference said.

The conference ordered basketball grants-in-aid cut from 15 to 13 during the 1981-82 school year.

This penalty prohibited the football team from participating in a bowl game during the probation period, the basketball team from competing in conference or NCAA post-season tournaments and teams in all other sports from participating in NCAA championships.

West Texas will not be permitted to take part in the conference-sponsored basketball television program and will receive no funds from the regular season basketball program, the conference post-season basketball tournament and the NCAA and NIT basketball tournaments.

Findings of the summary included:

One student-athlete was permitted to compete although ineligible because he had not graduated from the junior college where he had been previously.

Three athletes competed in 1978-79 without staying out for one year of residence after transferring from four-year colleges.

One competed in 1978-79 after he dropped below 12 hours of enrolled classwork.

A "high degree of probability" existed that a member of the basketball staff transported a prospective student-athlete to Amarillo to enroll at Amarillo Junior College for the 1979 fall semester.

Four basketball athletes were given pre-paid airline tickets through a local travel agency from their home to Amarillo in 1979, although other university students were not given the same service.

Basketball staff members arranged through a travel agency in Amarillo for two prospective students to attend the university in the summer of 1979.

Basketball staff members made a minimum of five in-person, off-campus recruiting contacts with a prospective athlete during the spring and summer of 1979.

One prospective basketball player was visited at his junior college in the spring of 1979 without permission being given by that school's chief executive officer or his authorized representative.

Enrolled student-athletes participated in basketball activities with prospective students at the activity center and not in the regular basketball practice facility.

A basketball staff member "purchased a hamburger and soft drink" for a prospective player in the spring of 1979 while visiting the prospect.

Querido Dr. Cariño:

¿Porqué sera que cada vez que yo resulto con un malestar venoso, mi esposa me echa la culpa a mí? Yo se que ella tiene la misma oportunidad que ella tiene la misma oportunidad que yo. Y a la mejor, hasta tiene mas oportunidad ella, que yo.

De todas maneras, aunque ella duerme fuera de la casa y no vuelve hasta la tarde del siguiente dia, yo siempre soy el culpable.

¿Que puedo hacer, Doctor?

—Firma: Culpado—

Querido Culpado:

Lo siento, pero no voy a contestarle su pregunta. No crea que es por falta de voluntad o por falta de profesión. No sé si Ud. comprenda lo que se llama "ética," pero eso es es.

No quiero darle mas "parque" a una difusora local, que ya describe mi columna como: "erótica, vulgáre e indecente."

Con todo esto, ¿Para que le buscamos tres patas al gijero?

Cúrese Ud. como pueda:

Querido Dr. Cariño:

Yo soy como Doña Andrea—no me asusto, ni me espanto, aunque la cosa este fea. Pero ya me anda con mis vecinos.

Cada fin de semana, me dejan la yarda llena de botes de cerveza. Parece que no tienen botes de basura y tienen que aventarmelos a mi. ¡En mi yarda!

¿Que debo hacer?

Su Amigo — El Basurero

Querido Basurero:

¡Para qué se queja? Junte los botes en su yarda y lleveles a vender. Ademas, digales que le echen todos los botes a su yarda ya que estan a buen precio!
