Garner-Forsan Game Open To Defense Stamp Buyers

Uncle Sam will be the winner when Forsan and Garner, traditional intra-county rivals, tangle in a featured basketball game at 7 p. m. today at the Garner court.

In basketball, both Garner and Forsan are tied in the district 25-B race, each having lost one game while winning three. Both were defeated by Sterling City, the major dome of the loop. Garner took it on the chin in the opener, 35-12, and last week Sterling plastered Forsan, 35-12. Garner has disposed of Westbrook, 25-12, Combs, 24-14, and Garden City, 27-15. Forsan has had a slightly easier time with the opposition.

Bobby Riggs Blasts At Tennis Amateur Moguls

NEW YORK, Jan. 27—Bobby Riggs, revealing he expects to make $50,000 out of his pro tennis activities, admits it was the sugar that tempted him to take, but insists there is a side to his story far deeper than the mere mercenary angle which provoked him to give up his amateur racket for the pro racket.

Writing his expose in the current Liberty magazine, which comes on the heels of the U.S.L.T.A.'s reprimand to three of the nation's top-ranking players for "padding expense accounts", Riggs describes his trouble with the grass court moguls who took it upon themselves to interpret his activities and eventually marked him as the bad boy of tennis.

Steers Host To Powerful Abilene Five

Angelo And Lamesa, Other Loop Leaders To Tangle

This is the crucial night for district 2-AA basketball. Every team that is deadlocked with another meets a team of equal standing. After this evening, the persistent four-way deadlock for first place will be sliced in half.

The neck-and-neck race between these arch-rivals—Sweetwater and Odessa—for fifth and sixth places will be broken, and Colorado City and Midland will settle for the time being, at least, the ownership of the cellar.

There never was, and perhaps never will be, another night of such portent for the district.

Most crucial of all the games seen Abilene coming here at 7:30 p. m. to test the Big Spring Steers, the surprise team of the loop.

Schlitz Grabs Twin Bill In Classic Loop

Red-hot Schlitz bowlers Monday night blasted their way through a double-header attraction in the local alleys to move smack abreast of Cosden for the classic league.

Schlitz entrants white-washed R. & R. and Clay's No-D-Lay rollers in successive events.

In the first round Cosden nosed out Lee Hanson, 3-1; Schlitz took R. & R. 3-0; and Big Spring Motor handled Clay's, 3-1. For the second round of the evening—the double-feature was occasioned by a make-up—Cosden handled R. & R., 3-1; Schlitz thundered over Clay's, 3-0; and the Hanson-Big Spring Motor tilt was postponed.

All in all, it was a crazy evening. Hiram Brimberry waxed warm to smash Luke LeBlou's high game record of the tourney with a roaring 248. But before the evening was over, Jack Smith shattered it with a 254, and then Ward Hall added to matters by eclipsing even this with a 256. Hall also beat Brimberry out for high series honors with 422 to 420, but neither was good as the 460-odd record posted by LeBlou earlier in the campaign.

Schlitz had the high three game series with an even 2,700 pins rolled in the first round. This was the season's record.

own field where it has yet to defeat this season, makes the Tornadoes favorites in this fight to see who will share the loop lead with the winner of the Big Spring-Abilene game.

Sweetwater must go to Odessa this evening, and how those Mustangs must dread it. There has been bad blood between the two teams since the Mustangs tied Odessa for district grid honors, although Odessa defeated Sweetwater, and then took the title in a courtroom battle. Too, both teams were originally listed among the favorites of the district. But after winning their first two encounters, they crumpled miserably and have not won since.

At Midland the heated battle to crawl out of the cellar will be in progress tonight when Colorado City moves in. Midland has slightly the best offensive record, but Colorado is considerably better on the defense. All things considered, Colorado is the favorite, but by the slimmest of margins.

Carnett Pounds Crystal, Moves Up Into A Tie

Carnett's that up-and-coming bunch of eagles, shattered the Crystal bubble in city fast league Monday evening, 34-28, to tie the cafe team for the leadership of the league.

Cosden was having trouble with Vaughn's but sailed through and all added up to a mighty climax ending for the league a couple of weeks hence.

Carroll led Carnett's with 18 tallies and Dawson tossed in 10, but neither was as good as the 14 thrown in by Hunt for Crystal Cafe. Led by Gartman, who tossed

AIRMAN HEADS AEF UNITS

A NORTH IRELAND PORT, Jan. 27 (AP)—Maj. Gen. James E. Chaney, rated both as a combat pilot and a combat observer by the U. S. Air Corps, has been named commanding general of the United States Army Forces in the British Isles, it was officially announced today.

The announcement said the first United States combat troops to arrive in the European combat zone could be regarded as the vanguard of others to take up stations in the British Isles.

"A special observers' group" augmenting a large staff of attaches, it reported, made a special study of British combat procedure for movement of United States troops in this zone if and when it becomes advisable.

General Chaney, 55-year-old native of Maryland, was graduated from the United States Military Academy in 1908. He transferred to the air corps after long service in the infantry and signal corps.

Ben Hogan Adds Frisco Purse To His Prize List

For 75 holes Hogan battled a soggy, slippery course to lead the way from start to finish. Less than three weeks before he won in the Los Angeles Open, worth $3,000 plus an extra $1,000 from the play-off gate receipts with Jimmy Thomson.

Hogan, former Fort Worth, Tex., caddy, is the Candy Kid of Hershby, Pa., now and as usual, the one to beat in every tournament. He undoubtedly will be the favorite to knock over the 36 hole event at the Rancho Santa Fe, last on the California leg of the winter circuit, this weekend.

Three strokes behind Hogan, charging like the light horse brigade, came Sam Snead. The Hot Springs, Va., ball beller brought in two dazzling rounds of 69-68 to take second money of $750 with a total 252.

Lawson Little finished third with 264. He needed out Dick Metz, in at 285, and the latter sharded three men at 296—Al Zimmermann of Portland, Ore., and two Californians, Lloyd Mangrum and Harry Blasser.

Byron Nelson, winner of the Oakland Open last week and twice a national champion, was next with 287. He deserved much credit, starting as the favorite in the San Francisco renewal. On his first round he staggered in with a 78. He finished with a 67, the second best round of the tournament.

Local Boxers Win Decisions At Odessa

Both Big Spring entrants in the district Golden Gloves eliminations at Odessa Monday evening sailed through with flying colors, taking decisions.

Pepper Martin blasted his way to a clean-cut victory over Junior McLaughlin in a welterweight tangle, and Kid Glover slammed his way past Otis Weftall, Grand Falls, in a lightweight encounter.

Martin stepped around to out-box McLaughlin, a former state TAAF lightweight titlist from O'Donnell, for two rounds. C. F. Whittington, trainer and coach of the Big Spring boys, told him he had the rounds sewed up. Martin misundarstood—thought Whittington said McLaughlin had taken them. So he stepped out furiously in the last round and removed any doubt whatsoever with his fast finish.

Glover, who has been trying to fight in close and failing to look too good, stopped back Monday evening at Whittington's advice and paced the far out of Weftall. Glover looked the best he has since he started training.

Both fighters will return to Odessa Wednesday evening for finals of the district tournament and for a right to go to the state tourney in Fort Worth next month.

Tax ALL Chattel Property Alike

Announcement of rates on which assessment of certain personal property will be based this year is a subtle notice that the county is going out after these items.

That's well and good, generally speaking, for property is property just as gold is gold. Some may be worth more than others and some may be more difficult to collect upon.

Some of the greatest squawking will come from the hinterlands where chattel property has escaped in whole or in part. It is not right that one cow, one sheep, one tractor, one can of groceries, one bill of goods, one foot of ground, or one piece of improvement should escape its pro rata share of liability for the public expense and debt.

And those who will deliberately move stock from one pasture to another, yes those who will not admit to owning a tractor, and indeed those who falsely about inventories to escape assessment are cheating the government.

Hollywood Sights And Sounds—New War Brings New Mellerdramer Stories

By ROBERT COONS HOLLYWOOD — It was in Shanghai, on December 6, 1941. The drab little office with the opaque glass door had a flag on the wall—the Setting Sun of Japan.

DANGEROUS BAGGAGE

BY ELEANOR ATTERBURY

Chapter Two Dale With The Boss Mr. Goodwin smiled at Sharon across the polished expanse of his huge mahogany desk. Out of the corner of her eye, she was aware that Tom Stafford unfolded himself from the armchair as she came in.

But Mr. Goodwin wasn't seeing the Bay nor the tug boat nor the wind-swept sky. She knew that from the tense concentration, the almost unnoticeable squaring of his shoulders under his perfect-fitting coat. Little signs by which she was already learning to interpret his moods.

And phone the plant foreman to expect him. Take any long distance message that comes for me. That's all.

nothing very secret about the arrival of someone you'd been told to expect. Still, hers not to reason why. But here to wonder how she'd happened to choose this morning of all the others to wear her new suit—the first really good outfit she'd ever had!

"Thank you, sir. I'll do my best." "Temporarily, you'll share Miss Doyle's office." He turned to Sharon. "Have that vacant desk moved nearer the window and see that another telephone is installed at once."

Sharon felt her cheeks go crimson. If only she could master her baby trick of blushing every time Harvey Goodwin looked at her. But this was the first praise she had had from him. "Thank you, Mr. Goodwin, I'm lucky to be here."

She went to the wall safe, took out the code book. Sharon was aware of a new thrill as, catching sight of her, he smiled, made his way toward her, obviously eager.

The lowly private seems to be coming into his own. In the House of Representatives, they are pointing with pride to Pvt. Frank C. Osmer of Haworth, N. J. Private Osmer was serving his third year in the House when he voted for war on Dec. 8 and immediately went out and enlisted.

"I'm not so sure of that." Dropping into his heavily carved chair behind the desk, he leaned toward her. "You don't like our new engineer, do you?"

Sharon started. "Why — I — scarcely." Then meeting Goodwin's grey eyes intent upon her, she added more positively, "I didn't like my first impression. He appears young, inexperienced, and terribly irresponsible. But that is probably as untrue as most first impressions."

Washington In Wartime — Epics Of Congressmen Army Privates Recalled

Brooks, a negro and the first member of the armored forces killed in the present war. Private Brooks was killed in the Philippines the day after Pearl Harbor.

Pvt. Johnny Allen made considerable use of his lack of commission, too, when he was running for Congress against the Confederate General Tucker. The doughy general closed one of his speeches by saying: "Seventeen years ago last night, my fellow citizens, after a hard-fought battle on yonder hill, I bivouacked under yonder clump of trees. Those of you who remember, as I do, the times that tried men's souls, will not forget their humble servant when the primaries shall be held."

After praising the brave general and saying that what he said was very true about his having slept in yon clump of trees, Private Allen added: "It is also true, my fellow citizens, that I was victoriously plucked, and stood guard over him while he slept. Now then, fellow citizens, all of you who were generals, and had privates to stand guard over you while you slept, vote for General Tucker; and all of you who were privates and stood guard over the generals while they slept, vote for Pvt. John Allen."
