Solons Can Act Only On Road Bonds

Stevenson Says He Will Not Submit Any Other Subject

AUSTIN, Sept. 8 (AP)—Governor O. B. Stevenson today completed his message to be delivered to a special session of the legislature convening tomorrow and reiterated that he would submit no subjects except county road bond financing. Meanwhile, legislators were arriving, and numerous informal conferences, among themselves and with the governor, were held. The governor had said that his message would recommend a plan to compromise the controversial bond matter which would have the support of a majority of both senate and house of representatives. The issue, which caused a deadlock in the general session which ended July 4, is over disposal of a $2,500,000 surplus in the county and district road bond indebtedness fund.

Asked at a press conference about submission of other subjects, Governor Stevenson pointed out that his proclamation calling the special session had not contained the customary "savings" clause. Such a clause usually says the legislature may consider subjects not named but which the governor may submit from time to time. At special sessions only specific submissions of the governor may, under the constitution, be considered. Closely tied to the matter of additional subjects was that of the session's length. If only bond financing was considered the session might end in comparatively short time. The constitutional limit for a special session is 30 days.

Governor Stevenson declared that the subject of appropriations for miscellaneous purposes had not been opened. He expressed the opinion that any bills on bond financing normally would go to the highways and motor traffic or the state affairs committee of both houses.

New Salvation Army Citadel Is Dedicated

Before a crowd which filled the new building's auditorium, the Dora Roberts citadel for the Salvation Army was dedicated formally Sunday afternoon as the "place where modern miracles can be wrought." Lt. Col. William George Gilks, divisional commander, delivered the dedicatory address, expressing the prayer that the citadel would be utilized as an instrument of "giving the cup of water in His name . . . and radiating love and fellowship."

The Salvation Army, he said, is the "engineer" of the church, fitting into the church's program. It still stands for "soap and salvation, and against dirt, debt and the devil." Lt. Col. Gilks spoke after Cliff Wiley, member of the advisory board had expressed appreciation for the Salvation Army's work and had seen the citadel and new officers quarters as a tool for building Christian character. Presence of the structure, he felt, constituted a new challenge.

Public thanks were expressed by the divisional commander to Mrs. Dora Roberts for her gift to the building program; to Mrs. Cora Holmes who also gave and who furnished the auditorium in memory of her daughter, the late Frances Melton Boyle; and to J. M. Morgan, the builder.

Local ministers participating in the ceremony were Dr. J. O. Haynes, the Rev. O. L. Savage, the Rev. Homer W. Har, the Rev. C. E. Lancaster. Other ministers were in the congregation. Song services were held by Maj. Ernest Pickering, divisional secretary, and Lt. Juan Mason directed a special number by Salvation Army young people. Presiding officer was Robert T. Piner, chairman of the advisory board, and members of the board present included Wiley, J. H. Greene and G. H. Hayward. Maj. and Mrs. L. W. Canning, in charge here, were on the rostrum. Mrs. Winston Canning favored with a vocal solo.

Colors were presented to Maj. Canning by T. C. Thomas and Mrs. Fontaine Hair, representing the American Legion post and its auxiliary.

At noon visiting Salvation Army workers and members of the advisory board had dinner at the Crawford where Lt. Col. Gilks and Maj. L. W. Canning spoke briefly. Visiting Salvation Army officials included the divisional commander and Mrs. Gilks of Dallas, Maj. and Mrs. Ernest Pickering, Dallas, Maj. R. E. Clevert, Dallas, state director of public relations, Capt. T. J. Smith, Pampa, and Maj. and Mrs. W. E. Faulkner, San Antonio. Scores of people inspected the new citadel and officers quarters before and after the ceremony. The plant is located at 4th and Aylford streets.

President's Mother Dies; Broadcast Is Postponed

Death Attributed To Advanced Age; Funeral Tuesday

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Sept. 8 (AP)—The president's mother is dead; and a nation joined its chief executive in mourning today. Mrs. Sara Delano Roosevelt, who thrice saw her only son inaugurated as President of the United States, died yesterday at the rambling old house which has been the Roosevelt family home for three quarters of a century. She would have been 87 years old on Sept. 21. Her death, attributed largely to her advanced years, resulted in the postponement from tonight until Thursday night (at 8 p.m. CST) of a presidential radio address which the White House said would be of "major importance."

SARA DELANO ROOSEVELT

The speech, it is expected, will embrace a discussion of the entire international situation and, in particular, the naval action last Thursday between an American destroyer and a German submarine off Iceland. From lowly citizens and from many highly placed in the life of the nation, came messages of sympathy for the president. Telegraph offices were flooded, and special wires were set up to handle them. From late Saturday night on, President Roosevelt and the first lady had kept a sorrowful watch by the bedside of his mother. They were with her when the end came shortly after noon yesterday. The family physician, Dr. Scott

Important Speech Slated Tonight Now Due Thursday

L. Smith, said the mother of the chief executive had had "an acute circulatory collapse, due principally to her advanced age." The funeral, limited to relatives and to old neighbors and friends, will be held at the family residence tomorrow. Mrs. Roosevelt will be buried in the family plot in the churchyard of picturesque St. James Episcopal church. Several generations of Roosevelts have worshipped at the little church, and behind it, under a canopy of aged oaks and elms, is buried the president's father. The chief executive was only 18 when his father, James Roosevelt, died in 1900, and he and his mother have been exceptionally close. Her home has been his home all his life. The president is expected to inherit a considerable fortune, along with Hyde Park house and the part of the estate not already in his name. At his death, the stone and stucco home and its grounds are to be transferred to the government.

NAZIS ARREST 100 HOSTAGES IN FRANCE

VICHY, Unoccupied France, Sept. 8 (AP)—More than 100 Jews and two prominent French lawyers, one of them a minister of justice in the old republic, were reported today to have been seized as hostages by German occupation authorities in Paris because of attacks on members of the German army. It was in these new mass arrests that the Germans took the two once-prominent lawyers, former Justice Minister Pierre Masse, who is a Jew, and Theodore Valenai, a former deputy, who is a native of Corsica. Vichy no longer tried to hide the gravity of the strife in the occupied zone or the fact that reprisals are only making things worse. "We can expect to see street incidents multiply," the official government news agency told its papers.

German Submarine Captured 'Alive'

LONDON, Sept. 8 (AP)—A German submarine has been captured in the Atlantic, damaged by aerial attack which forced it to the surface, the admiralty and air ministry announced today. The U-boat lay in a gate-tossed sea while the British kept guard in the sky overhead until British warships could reach the scene and take over and bring the prize "successfully into harbor."

In New AAA Program -- Emphasis On Food Production

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8 (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Wickard announced today a 1942 farm program calling for "the largest production in the history of American agriculture" to meet the expanding food needs of this country and nations resisting the axis. Production goals set up under the program call for the largest output in history of such vitamin and mineral-rich products as pork, eggs, evaporated milk, dry skim milk, cheese, poultry, vegetables, and such edible-oil producing crops as peanuts and soybeans. Although providing for bigger crops in many products, the 1942 program continues rigid production and marketing controls for commodities of which there are large reserves, namely cotton, wheat and tobacco. The sharply-expanded food production program is based, Wickard said, on a "thorough canvass of the needs for improved nutrition in this country and the needs of the nations that still stand between this country and Hitler."

C. Of C. Asks Phone Service Investigation

Committee To Probe Reports Of Poor Telephone Operation

Chamber of commerce directors Monday went on record favoring the appointment of a committee to investigate reports on inadequate and poor telephone service. The action came after a debate of the issue at the regular board meeting Monday noon when the case of a family moving to another city solely because of inability to get a telephone. J. H. Greene, manager of the chamber, outlined details of the case, explaining that the man involved had rented a house and had to relinquish it because his business required a telephone. Others in the board cited similar examples, and some raised the question of service in general. While the committee would be appreciative of constrictions brought about by national defense, it was the spirit of the motion that the local situation be prosecuted vigorously.

WTCC Asks Support From Local People

Appeals for cooperation in the West Texas Chamber of Commerce program for regional affairs and the announcement of an "inter-community defense and preservation" contest sponsored by the WTCC were sounded by M. G. Ulmer, Midland, WTCC vice-president, and Max Bentley, regional chamber activities director, at the chamber of commerce directors meeting Monday. Ulmer urged continued and solid support of the regional chamber, asserting that its "intangible benefits" came back to "individual communities as the result of collective efforts." Unity of purpose, he said, meant greater power of voice in state and national affairs. He also cited the WTCC platform of curtailing public expenditures during a period of national emergency and said that all public appropriations should be based on a well-defined and urgent need. Bentley, after reviewing the WTCC and its affiliates, the Freight Rate Equality Federation, fight for freight rate adjustments, announced a defense contest open to communities associated with WTCC.

It would be based, he said, upon civilian and military defense activities, production defense activities, and territorial preservation activities. Chamber commerce leadership manifested would be figured in the judging. Prizes would be $250, $125, $75 and $50 to the four top communities. Such projects as collection of supplies essential to defense production, sale of defense savings stamps and bonds, anti-sabotage and strike activities, morale building programs, volunteer enlistments in armed forces, selective service results, home guard activities, etc., were suggested by Bentley, although each city could develop others. Briefly, his review of the freight rate program included: Opposition to the class 1 railroad request that the ICC inquiry into the national rate structure be dropped due to the national emergency; participation in a hearing set for Sept. 24 to get a 15 per cent reduction in class rates; and prosecution of the differential abolition case now thrown into the courts through failure of an attempted compromise before the state railroad commission last week. The anticipated compromise, he indicated, collapsed when the commission refused to yield on the point of releasing a million dollars of impounded differential rates and the suggested replacement by railroads of the origin differential charge on grains by an increased haul length charge.

Case set for trial was that of the state against Lillie Boren, George Beard and N. F. Knoll, all indicted in Glasecock county for burglary of the J. W. Patterson residence. The case had been transferred here for trial. Boren entered a plea of guilty before the court and was assessed a two-year penitentiary sentence. Trial of Beard and Knoll was to begin as soon as additional jurors could be found.

Berlin Suffers Heaviest Raid

British Assault Comes Just One Year After First Big London Raid

LONDON, Sept. 8 (AP)—One year from the night of the luftwaffe's first mass attack on London, hundreds of planes of the American-strengthened RAF rode in moonlight over Europe and bombed Berlin from midnight to almost dawn today. It was the heaviest raid ever made on the capital of the reich, the British air ministry said. On the night of Sept. 7-8, 1940, the Germans pounded London for eight hours and 18 minutes, losing 65 planes, according to the British count, but executing what the air ministry called the first big aerial assault on the British capital. (Signs of the intensity of the raid came from Berlin itself in acknowledgment of 27 fatalities, damage to apartment houses and accounts in the Berlin press of the effect on the population whose reaction, it was said, ranged from "exemplary discipline" to the fear shown by women. The Berlin newspaper Nachttausgabe called the attack "especially low-down and contemptible.") The British lost 20 bombers out of what was described as a "very powerful raiding force. Four German night fighters were said to have been shot down. One British fighter was missing from attacks on German-held continental air-dromes. A communique said that "a great number of high explosives and incendiary bombs were dropped" in Berlin and that "great fires sprang up in the city and extensive damage was done." BERLIN, Sept. 8 (AP)—An early morning British air raid in which at least 27 inhabitants of Berlin were killed was played up under two-column headlines today and one newspaper, the Nachttausgabe, bitterly assailed the attack as "especially low-down and contemptible." Obviously with the permission of authorities, the press went beyond the customary mere publication of the high command communique. At least a column was given to description of the attack (which the British said lasted from midnight almost to dawn and was the heaviest RAF blow on Berlin so far).

Cotton Forecast Reduction Small

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8 (AP)—The agriculture department today forecast this year's cotton crop at 10,710,000 bales, based on Sept. 1 conditions, compared with 10,817,000 bales forecast a month ago, 12,566,000 bales produced last year and an average of 13,246,000 bales in the ten years, 1930-39. The condition of the crop on Sept. 1 was 65 per cent of a normal, indicating a yield of 226.8 pounds to the acre, compared with a condition of 72 per cent a month ago and an indicated yield then of 224.4 pounds. The condition was 74 per cent of a normal a year ago and the final yield, 252.5 pounds, while the 1930-39 ten-year Sept. 1, average condition was 63 per cent and the average yield, 205.4 pounds. The census bureau reported that 504,125 running bales, excludinglinters and counting round as half bales, of cotton of this year's growth had been ginned to Sept. 1, compared with 605,764 bales a year ago, and 1,401,891 bales two years ago. The acreage remaining for harvest, condition of the crop on Sept. 1, indicated acre yield and indicated production in 500-pound gross weight bales, by states, include: Oklahoma 1,625,000; 74; 185 and 627,000; Texas 7,322,000; 70; 175 and 2,888,000. The census bureau reported ginnings to Sept. 1, by states, with comparative figures for a year ago, as follows: Oklahoma 108 and 181; Texas, 117,867 and 438,537. The September estimate is 307,000 bales less than the August forecast, the crop reporting board saying the indicated production had been reduced in the central part of the belt. This decline was offset somewhat by increases in Oklahoma, Texas, New Mexico, Virginia and North Carolina. In Oklahoma and Texas favorable moisture conditions were said to have stimulated plant growth and weevil damage was said not to be generally serious this season. The crop in Oklahoma and Texas was reported about two weeks later than usual.

First Cotton Pickers Move Into County

Vanguard of the cotton picker movement from the lower Rio Grande valley to the South Plains area began arriving here during the weekend. But even as the first small crews rolled into town, O. R. Rodden, local manager for the Texas State Employment Service, said there was a demand for 1,000 to 1,500 pickers in Howard and Dawson counties. One farmer asked the TRES for 100 Mexicans to go into an 800-acre field. With fair, hot weather continuing, the demand for pickers was expected to grow increasingly acute. Most of the Mexicans arriving here were those who have agreements with individual farmers and did not help to relieve the load of requests upon the TRES. Anticipating a clamor for pickers in Dawson county, Rodden said that M. E. Harlan would be dispatched to Lamesa next Monday. Price for picking in this area was expected to attract pickers in a heavy volume. Most universally accepted figure here was $1.00 per hundred pounds. Some were contracting for 75 cents and there were rumors of bids up to $1.25, although the latter figure was accredited by several farmers and ginners as a quiet effort to bid up the price. At $1 for picking, the processing cost, including ginning, bagging and ties, would be around $12 a bale.

Germans Say Leningrad Is Now Isolated

Nazis Take Rail Center Only 21 Miles From City

By The Associated Press Adolf Hitler's high command reported today that German troops had cut off Leningrad from all land connections and captured the railroad center of Schussenburg, only 21 miles east of the old czarist capital. Schlussenburg lies across the Neva river from Leningrad. The Russians admitted that a fierce battle was raging outside Leningrad, with the Germans smashing in major offensives at the west and south approaches of the city. Leningrad itself has been under German shell-fire since last Friday, the Nazis said. German motorized divisions, supported by warplanes, reached the Neva river "on a broad front" east of Russia's second greatest city, the Nazi high command announced, cutting off all communication except by sea. Simultaneously, the Finnish radio asserted that "the fall of Leningrad is a question of a few days." Soviet military dispatches said the Nazi invaders so far had failed to score a serious breakthrough, and a Leningrad broadcast, pleading defense of the "cradle of the blessed (holobovik) revolution" to the death, voiced optimism that the city would hold out. "We have erected a steel wall around Leningrad," the radio said. German front-line dispatches conceded that the Russian troops were making a bitter village-to-village stand. Elsewhere on the muddy, rain-soaked front, Moscow reported that their armies were pressing the initiative on a broad sector around Gornal, taking a bloody toll of German casualties, while Soviet guerrillas roved far behind the lines stabbing at Nazi columns. The German news agency said Russia's air force, battered by hundreds of Stuka dive-bombers blasting at Leningrad's defenses, lost 71 planes yesterday.

Rivers, Harbors Bill Draws Fight

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8 (AP)—A senate fight against a big new rivers and harbors bill was in the making today even before the measure cleared a house committee, and Senator Clark (D-Mo.) called the legislation "the most colossal pork barrel proposition in history." The bill, which now contains authorizations for 175 projects totaling $675,000,000, is pending before the house rivers and harbors committee. The committee will consider an additional 50 projects when hearings resume Sept. 23. LULACS ADJOURN AUSTIN, Sept. 8 (AP)—More than 100 delegates to the state convention of the League of Latin-American citizens trekked homeward today after concluding a one-day assembly with a pledge of support to the national government.

Confessing Crime, Man Kills Self

PORT STOCKTON, Sept. 8 (AP) — S. C. Husted, 67, jumped to his death from the third floor of the Pecos county courthouse today shortly after he signed a statement admitting the slaying of Mack Reed, whose body was found in his burned ranch home last Tuesday night.

District Attorney Alan Fraser of Alpine said the Grand Falls filling station operator eluded a group of officers and died instantly when his body struck a concrete porch 25 feet below.

The statement related that Husted struck Reed with a hammer on the back of the head after a quarrel. He then set fire to the house to assure Reed's death and destroy evidence. Husted's automobile struck a gate as he drove from the burning house with his car lights off.

The July placements were six per cent above June, reversing the usual July decline in employment.

During the first seven months of 1941, McNutt said, the state services filled approximately 3,000,000 jobs, against 1,900,000 during the same period of the previous year.

Miss Laneous Notes

By MARY WEALEY

The fun is over as of today. School kids, teachers and parents by necessity enter the long winter grind all aimed toward giving the children an education.

Today the youngsters and teachers will meet and size each other up. And whoever gets their bluff in first will win the first round. Heaven help the teacher if she loses! The youngsters will be able to decide in one look whether they will like her or not. The teacher may take a few days but she'll be able to pick out the bookworm, the too sophisticated and the dullards in her first day.

After three months of waiting their parents, the children will start to work on fresh game. After that wild rush of getting the early breakfast for the family, mothers will probably collapse in the nearest chair. By the end of the month they'll get their old system working, but not right at first.

Tonight the family will pounce on Junior to find out who his teacher is. Teacher will be just a name to them now, but in a few months she'll be a force in Junior's life.

Parents will get to know her too, maybe only by proxy depending on Junior's behavior and grades, but her influence will be terrific. From now until June students will be under her wing. With students working on teacher and teacher on students, only time will tell the outcome.

In China's Capital, Chunking, You Learn Descriptive Word For War

AP Feature Service
CHUNGKING — Uncertainty is one of the principal ingredients of life in Chungking today—uncertainty over the prospects of having your home smothered in the next air raid.

The Chinese accept the Japanese attacks as an inconvenience to which life has to be readjusted, and do their best to minimize discomfort.

Life is compounded principally of discomfort, inconvenience and hardship, and only the same of grim purpose to defeat the enemy, amounting in some cases to a kind of exaltation, makes many Chinese accept as inconsequential the conditions which would try the stoutest hearts.

Torrid, enervating heat from which rain offers only occasional and all too brief respite, is one of the many enemies of physical comfort.

Temperatures indoors in the crude makeshift structures which form so many Chungking homes and offices is nowadays about 100 degrees. Nights are sultry and sound sleep is a luxury often denied.

Chungking has the unhappy reputation of being the world's most uncomfortable capital—a reputation which no one living here challenges.

ning water except when it rains. There are only a few restaurants where "foreign chow" is offered and where it is, one's dream of a juicy steak is likely to turn into the sad reality of buffalo meat.

There is no rationing in Chungking and restaurants are able to serve tasty and lavish Chinese meals—meals which many foreigners would find appetizing but for the Chinese indifference to flies. There are occasional rice shortages in which the poorer classes are principal sufferers.

Telephone service works only occasionally because repairmen are unable to keep up with the destruction of Japanese bombers.

Social life is, affected by the discomforts of travel and the distances, yet many a foreigner will go a long way if he has a friend at whose home he may have a proper bath. A new form of invitation whose propriety is never questioned is "Would you like to have a bath?"

Hospital Conditions Appalling
 Air raids always bring their misery, but to none more than to patients in hospitals whose removal to dugouts is a sore trial. Most Chungking hospitals have been destroyed and in the few still standing conditions are appalling. Prices of patent remedies known to the world over reach their zenith here.

The marvel re-enacted every time the raiders come is the disappearance of the inhabitant and much of the capital's movable property into dugouts. So efficient is the system of warnings that Japanese raiders never have visited the city unharmed.

There are discomforts here, it is true, but Chungking is in a business of keeping Chiang K'ai-shek's war machine running.

'41 Slated To Be Pro Golf's Greatest Year

CHICAGO, Sept. 8 (AP)—Professional golf has 1941 marked down as the greatest year in its history. With some half dozen tournaments remaining in the program, the game already has drawn more than 400,000 fans through 28 venues according to Fred Corcoran, tournament bureau manager of the PGA, with yesterday's $11,000 Tam O'Shanter open windup providing a smashing high point to the season.

This tournament, first in a series which officials claim will see the event built up to one of some $20,000 value, went to Byron Nelson of Toledo on another of the great stretch finishes which have made him famous.

Two strokes back of Leonard Dodson of Kansas City after 54 holes, Nelson fired three birdies in a final round two under par 70 which brought him the championship and $2,000 first money on a 72-hole total of 278 strokes, 10 under par.

Dodson, leader through the first three days of a tourney which drew 23,000 fans on its final day—a crowd said by Corcoran to be the greatest in American golf history—had a final round 73 for a 279 aggregate. This figure was matched by Ben Hogan, leading money winner of the season, who finished with a 70. Nelson's previous rounds were 67-69-72, with Dodson starting with 65-68-73 and Hogan 73-66-70.

Hogan, sharing $2,400 with Dodson, tightened the grip on his position as top money earner of the year, with $14,933 to his credit. He also made it a 50th straight tournament in which he has placed among the money winners.

The big four in earnings are Hogan, Sam Snead at $9,908, Nelson at $8,752 and Craig Wood, national open champion, at $8,448. Snead tied Ky Laffoon of Miami, Okla., and John Bulla of Chicago yesterday at 28, each edging $700.

400 Persons Attend Franklin County Reunion At City Park

Bigger than ever before, the sixth annual Franklin County Reunion attracted approximately 400 persons here Sunday from 21 counties from Matagorda to Potter and from Midland to Titus.

Families came by truck and bus from distant points and the Rev. Ross C. Smith, pastor of the First Baptist church at Santa Anna, flew here for the unique gathering. More than a score of people came from Mount Vernon to visit with relatives who long since had migrated to this area.

L. H. White, Stanton, president and founder of the reunion, was renamed its head while Finley Moore, Seminole, was returned as secretary. Directors re-elected were T. J. A. Robinson, Lee Ashley, Emsey Newton and G. C. Broughton of Big Spring and W. C. Holcomb, Lamesa.

Only address of the day was by the Rev. Smith. Mrs. Belle Johnson Barker, who succumbed recently at Stanton, was mentioned in neurology rites.

Although families brought bulky picnic baskets, barbecued beef, beans and son-of-a-gun were furnished as a supplement.

Pleased over the response, White announced that the seventh annual reunion would be staged on the same date and the same place—the first Sunday in September at the city park—in 1942.

Curiously enough, this reunion which now attracts hundreds, grew out of a routine family visit of Zack Jagers with White in Martin county seven years ago. Jagers insisted that White, who was a schoolmaster in Franklin county for 39 years, repay the visit so he could invite in some old friends.

Forty showed up for the affair, said White, and it was decided to convert it into a reunion. The first annual event attracted 75 former Franklin county residents, among them T. J. A. Robinson, Big Spring, who insisted on furnishing a beef if the meeting could be moved here.

Since then the gathering has been held at the city park, drawing increasing numbers.

Why so many former Franklin county people are in this area was explained by White. Two score or more years ago the county drifted into a condition similar to Alabama in the old days—fields were washed away and bottoms had gone to Bermuda. The area was densely populated and migration was the only solution.

So they went west. Now the reunion is furnishing a means for a whole series of family reunions. Over the park grounds were little knots of people—brothers and sisters and the few remaining old folks. Here and there men walked up to clap an old friend on the back, renewing for the first time in 40 years friendship born in the rural section of Franklin county.

Public servants in many small townships in the United States are able to carry on the administration of governmental services in conjunction with private employment. In townships under 10,000 population, Census estimates show that over 80 percent of the non-school employees are on a part-time basis.

Maneuvers Are Amusing— It's A Rocky Road To Romance In The Army

By JOHN GROVER
AP Feature Service Writer
 LAUREL, Miss. — Uncle Sam's soldiers are catching more woo than they're pitching.

Riding with the 62nd brigade from Florida to Louisiana, it's easy to see that Miss America is definitely daffy about uniforms. What's more, she isn't sitting demurely home with her embroidery, waiting for romance. She goes and gets it.

One girl puts her chosen soldier boy in a hospital at Waynesboro, Miss. She throws a note with her name and address into his truck. Trouble is, she's tied it to a rock, and it makes him the maneuverer's first casualty.

That isn't an isolated instance. Outside Donalsonville, Ga., I get a flash of a missile heading our way. Prudently I duck. It catches Maj. Harold Nathan, knocking thinking I'll get the dope on army hell-raising.

"These kids behave. Better than civilians the same age. Discipline's the answer. Folks were dubious at first about having an army on their hands. Now they're glad to have the boys stop."

That's the consensus. They prove it. At Andalusia, the MP's didn't arrest a single soldier for breaking the 11 p. m. back-to-camp curfew. Not a single case of drunkenness reported.

Cooperation
 You see other instances of civilian goodwill. In Thomasville, Ga., I wanted a cold watermelon for the mess. No grocery had 'em on ice. I called Jim Keaton, ice plant executive. He didn't know me from Adam. No, they didn't have 'em to sell, but he'd fix me up. Insisted I take five.

"Nobody in Georgia eats less'n half a melon at a sitting," he explained.

"That's the way it goes. Townsfolk are 99 44-100 friendly.

Immortality? Vice? Army doctors say it's largely exaggerated poppycock. Venereal disease is far less in the army than in comparable civilian age groups.

"Take a walk downtown and see for yourself," an army doctor advised. "If you don't find 250 at the dance with decent girls for every one you see going up to that brothel—and we know about it—I'll buy you a hat. I'll bet you another hat I can show you ten drinking sodas for every one taking liquor aboard. Go see for yourself."

I did and he's right.

A little care makes mishaps rare. Your side of the road is the Right Side.

Don't get caught with your battery down.

These industries accounted for 5,902, 4,117 and 4,089, respectively, of the total of 30,308 persons in Alaska reported as having gainful occupations. Of the 4,117 hunters and trappers, 349 were women.

O'Daniel Tells Of 'Anti-Texas' Laws

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8 (AP) — Senator O'Daniel (D-Tex.) today was on record as saying that the alleged gasoline shortage in the eastern states is a myth, that Texas husbands and wives ought not to have to make consolidated income tax returns and that Texas cotton farmers are being prevented from taking full advantage of the present demand for their product.

Texas Playoffs Open Up Tuesday

Houston Due Tough Tussle In Finale

Rebels Invade Buffs' Grounds, Oilers Tee Off In Sports' Precinct

By The Associated Press
Four Texas league teams were set today for the Shaughnessy playoffs opening tomorrow night.

Dallas goes to Houston and Tulsa to Shreveport.

Houston, out front by more than a score of games in the regular schedule was pictured as having rather a doubtful chance in the playoffs.

The Buffs' winning combination was broken up by the sale of Howard Pollet to the Cardinals and Second Sacker Danny Murtagh to the Phillies.

Dallas will be without the services of Gray Clarke, the loop's batting champion for the year, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis. George Janco, second baseman, suffered an eye injury last week but is expected to play.

Shreveport's first baseman, Murrell Jones, suffered a couple of broken ribs when hit by a thrown ball last week, but he may get into the series.

That left Tulsa the only full-strength team in the playoffs, and many experts were choosing the Oilers to capture the pennant.

In yesterday's game, Earl Caldwell marked up his 22nd win of the season as the Fort Worth Cats bested Houston, 5 to 1.

At Oklahoma City the Indians and the Shreveport Sports divided a double feature. The Sports won the first, 14 to 2 and the Indians the second, 7 to 2.

Tulsa dropped a game to Beaumont, 12 to 6, as Ed Zydowsky, the "mild Russian" played all nine positions.

The Dallas Rebels plastered the San Antonio Missions, 9 to 3.

Lookin' 'em Over

WITH JACK DOUGLAS

"Now we've got 'em—what'll we do with 'em?"—such seems to be the general attitude in the Big Spring Bomber camp in regard to their championship playoff with the Clovis Pioneers.

After thinking mostly in terms of the Borger Gassers and Manager Gordon Nell up until the last week or so, the Bombers and Skipper Jodie Tate have been sort of handed a distracting setup. Not that they have any doubt about being able to lick the Pioneers—they've just not had time yet to become accustomed to the idea.

It goes without saying that Brother Grover Seitz is a crafty soul and if managing can win a series the Clovis pilot must be accorded an outside chance of coming out on top. In fact, this tussle might develop into a battle between skippers.

Needless to say, Big Spring's Uncle Jodie is no slouch when it comes to doing a bit of finagling in the heat of a ball game. If Tate wasn't a cagy customer in his own right, it is doubtful if Big Spring would be in the league finals—holding the favored position.

Contrary to the Big Spring-Amarillo fracas, the prospect of Big Spring copping the series opening tonight is anything but a foregone conclusion.

Although Clovis is possessor of a pitching corps that is capable, it is nothing to get particularly excited about. Big Spring's? Well, that is an entirely different proposition.

Jim Rollins is Clovis' white-haired boy on the mound. The statistics give him an impressive showing—20 wins, 8 losses. But, Big Spring's Charlie Whelchel equals that mark and Willard Ramsdell beats it by five. Buck Schulze lacks one game of being even with the Clovis ace's count and Bob Kohout is just three shy. Mel Kramer is next in line for the Pioneers in regard to games won. He's chalked up ten victories, while Bill Hewitt and Clovis Bridwell have nine wins each, according to the statistics. The Pioneers' lefthander, Ken Wyatt has chalked up six wins.

Acting on the suggestion of Lubbock fans, the Chicago White Sox have sold out the Hubber club, lock, stock and barrel. Sam Rosenthal, Lubbock clothier, and his associates have bought the franchise.

Dissatisfaction with the quality of material sent Lubbock by the parent club was given as the reason for the change in ownership.

Woodrow Harris of Big Spring is one of those contributing to the woes of Coach Al Garten, football coach at Eastern New Mexico college at Portales. Harris is scheduled to go into the army September 9, foregoing a spot on the New Mexican eleven. What has Garten sad is that he is faced with a back-breaking card, regardless of his player losses.

Aggie Coach Haunted By Frankenstein

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. 8 (AP)—Genial Homer Norton, headman of Texas A. and M., gridiron fortunes, is haunted by a Frankenstein.

Norton was one of the originators of the unusual defense clogging up passing and running games that would have been world-beaters a decade ago.

And now he's working to perfect an offense to offset those same defensive tactics that made his teams at Little Centenary giant-killers of the Southwest before A. and M. decided the best way to get rid of the jinx was to hire him.

As Texas A. and M. hits the trail in an effort to emulate two illustrious predecessors—the unbeaten Aggies of 1939 and the Cotton Bowl champions of 1940—Norton announces his latest move to beat what he terms the "screwy defense" of four and five-man lines, etc.

Basically the graduation-riddled Aggies, ranked by the critics as no stronger than fourth place in the Southwest Conference race, will have the same offense of the box and double wingback with balanced line.

But this year, in an effort to spread the opposition's defense—and also to help the Aggie running game—Norton is resorting to the man in motion and mixing in more punter plays.

He does not expect the Aggies to approach the record of the last two seasons although he doesn't think A. & M. will be a setup for anybody—especially the favored Texas Longhorns.

"If we get the guards and a center to fill those shoes vacated last fall and if we get a passer we could be right up there," Norton declared.

He pointed out that he was depending on a boy to do the passing who never before has flipped the ball in actual play.

Derson Moser is the Atlas delegated the task of carrying the Aggies on his shoulders. Moser is a fine back—a good punter, runner and safety man.

There are 49 boys on the Aggie squad, but only Moser and Jim Sterling of the 1940 starting team are back. In all there were 19 lettermen to depart, five of them on the all-conference team.

Pollet Called Greatest Rookie Since Ol' Diz

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 8 (AP)—They are calling Howard Pollet (pronounced pol-let) the greatest rookie pitcher prospect since Dizzy Dean.

He is a left-hander but rivals Diz in every other way—except talking. Yet, even Diz at his best was never more certain of himself than the Cardinals' new boy wonder plucked off their Houston farm in late August. He proved this his very first day in the big show.

It was a crucial moment in the ball game. The Cards were leading by a single run and the Braves had runners on first and third with only one out.

A tough spot, one would think for a young pitcher hardly out of his teens.

Manager Billy Southworth hit his last fingernail and hustled from the dugout to confer with the veteran catcher, Gus Mancuso, who was breaking in the youngster.

"I think we'd better send in another pitcher," Southworth said. "We have this young fellow in a tough spot, and I think it only fair to call on an older hand."

Then young Pollet spoke up, calmly but with conviction: "Hell, Mr. Southworth, I'm not in any spot. I like spots like this one."

"All right, then, stay in there and get them out," Southworth replied.

Howard, unperturbed, returned to the mound showing no strain whatsoever and retired the next two batters in order on five pitched balls, one on a strikeout.

And so the kid from New Orleans, probably the most sensational minor league pitcher of the year, won the first major league game of his career to become a star almost overnight. To prove it wasn't luck he won two of his next three starts, one of them a 3-hit shutout. A remarkable beginning for a 20-year-old lad.

Branch Rickey broke one of his own rules in acquiring Pollet to brace the Redbirds in their red hot pennant drive. It has been the almost unalterable policy of Rickey not to disturb a star on a farm club during the heat of a minor league campaign.

However, in the case of Pollet, the Houston team, for which Pollet had won 24 games already this season, was 20 games ahead of the second-place club at the time and a virtual cinch to win the Texas league championship.

Texarkana Printers Conclude Strike
TEXARKANA, Sept. 8 (AP)—Union members of the Texarkana Gazette and Daily News were back at work today after a three-day-old strike involving 20 workers was ended by an agreement reached yesterday.

Under the terms of the agreement reached by representatives of the management and a committee from Texarkana local No. 573 of the International Typographical Union the printers were granted the following:

The wage increase of four cents an hour; a five day, 37 1/2-hour week; one week's vacation with pay for all regular job holders with five years of service.

Dodgers Ride Easy On Lead Of 3 Games

'Dem Bums' Slated To Maintain Margin, At Least or A Day

By The Associated Press
Around and about in the National league today, the boys and girls were wondering if maybe the Brooklyn Dodgers weren't suffering from hallucinations.

"Who," they were asking, "do those Brooklyn boys think they are—the Yankees?"

Now, the Dodgers insist they haven't been reading the Yanks' secret. However, the fact remains that what was once a standing pennant race, as close as the installment collector chasing his monthly payment for the piano, has now become actually about as close as Bill Terry and the baseball writers.

At this writing, "dem bums" are bouncing along on a three-game lead, and they'll hold it all day today, for the whole outfit, National and American leagues both, take a holiday.

The bottom didn't quite fall out of the house of Cards during the week-end, but the foundation took on a marked resemblance to grape jelly when Cincinnati grabbed Saturday's single contest and split yesterday's twin bill with St. Louis by picking up a 3-2 decision in the nightcap after the gas huffers did some gas-housing to win the opener, 11-7.

While this was going on, the Dodgers were proving that Brooklyn is still in the league. They did this by sweeping a three-game set with the Giants, climaxing the job with yesterday's impressive doubleheader win.

In the opener, the Brooks just up and knocked the ears off their ancient enemies, 13-1.

The nightcap, however, was a horse from a different garage. The Terry terriers whacked Whitley Wyatt for three runs in the seventh inning to take the lead. However, in the ninth, Ducky Medwick's single sent two tallies home to tie, and in the tenth Pete Reiser poked out a hit to push a run across for a 4-3 Brooklyn win.

The Cards won their opener only after they almost tossed it away. They were rolling along on a 4-1 edge until the Reds blew Howard Krist right out of there with a five-run game-tying spree in the seventh.

But St. Louis came back with five markers in the same inning, and from there on it was just a breeze. The nightcap, out to eight innings by darkness, saw Elmer the great Hiddle toss a seven-hitter for the Cincinnati win.

The Yankees slipped the second-place Boston Red Sox, 8-5, yesterday to stretch their league lead to 20 1/2 games.

The St. Louis Browns excelled their jinx on the third-place Chicago White Sox again for a 3-1 win and Tommy Bridges celebrated "Bridges day" at Briggs stadium by trending himself to a six-hit allowing job for a 4-1 Detroit victory over Cleveland. Washington climbed to a half-game from the doorway out of the cellar by trouncing the Athletics twice, 3-2 and 4-2.

Valie Eaves served up a five-hitter and pitched the Chicago Cubs to a 3-1 triumph over the Pittsburgh Pirates. But the day's biggest laugh was how Casey Stengel turned loose when his Braves, the supposed hitless wonder, strayed 35 hits to pretty nearly all sections of Boston to pound the pathetic Phillies twice, 17-4 and 10-2.

But, look at it as you will, tonight starts an array of baseball fare that has seldom been equaled in this rampaging league. Matched for final honors are a pair of clubs that were considered orphans, the poor Johns, of the loop in pre-season listings.

They went into the year's roundelay as timid entrants in a rough and ready battle—they took everything the powerhouses had, whipped them soundly, and left no dispute as to which team should be in for the kill.

Luck played no part in these club's final standings. Just one thing, hard, hustling baseball, gave them the nod.

Looking at Big Spring's hitting record, the Bombers must give ground in the wallowing angle.

Two Bombers are bettering .300. Hayden Greer is on top with .390 and J. L. Haney is the other with .312.

Never particularly impressive in the pitching department, the Pioneers have wound up in the finals because of a brand of hitting that delivers the goods in the clutch. Clovis has shined its best when on the short end of the run column, although it is third in team batting ranking with a .376 Big Spring is fourth with .328.

Top Pioneer hitting strength is delivered by lefthanded Paul Schoendienst, first sacker. Schoendienst marked up a .358 walloping average over the season and was given a hot race for club hitting honors by Walter Schmidt, catcher. Other Pioneers hitting on the bright side of .300 are Bill Daniel, 311, Ray Surratt, 304, and Ken Wyatt, 303.

Whelchel Assigned Opening Hurler

Tonight Big Spring fans will for the first time in the history of West Texas-New Mexico baseball see the opening of the final round of a Shaughnessy playoff for the championship of league—Big Spring's Bombers throw up their defenses against a glory-bound crew of Clovis Pioneers.

Monday morning Manager Jodie Tate said the two clubs would square off at 8:30 tonight in the first of the four-out-of-seven affairs, will continue Tuesday night, and resume at Clovis Wednesday and Thursday and, if need be, return to Big Spring for the last three games.

Clovis reached the finals Sunday with a 4 to 3 victory over Borger for the third time in the five-game series. Pitcher Bill Daniels singled into deep right field to score Mac Quillen and break a deadlock standing at 3-2.

Big Spring romped into the windup series by virtue of a three-run straight victory over Amarillo.

Charlie Whelchel has been given the inaugural hurling assignment by Skipper Tate. Over season, Whelchel has clashed with the heavy-hitting Pioneers four times—has whipped them each time—Monday morning the gangling fireball artist said he was in fine trim for the opening round.

Clovis' Pioneers have been through a season in which they started off slow, picked up momentum as the schedule shortened, then, under the capable guiding hand of Manager Grover Seitz came roaring in for a third-place finish. By the time they reached Borger in the first round of the Shaughnessy they were being looked on as the club that made the greatest fight against odds in the circuit.

RIGGS CONCEDED SMART NETTER BY OPPONENT'S COACH

NEW YORK, Sept. 8 (AP)—On no less an authority than the coach of the player he out-thought and humiliated in the final match for the national tennis championship yesterday, Bobby Riggs is the smartest tennis player who ever stayed up nights inventing new ways of confusing an opponent.

George Hudson, who has been coaching Frank Kovacs for eight years, made no effort to conceal his admiration for Riggs after the little guy had given Kovacs the works in the big match before 10,000 fans at Forest Hills. The scores were 5-7, 6-1, 6-4, 5-3.

"I'll swear," swore Hudson, "I've been playing and coaching tennis for 35 years and that Bobby is the smartest player I ever saw. There have been greater players, but not smarter. He had no right in the world to lick Frank like that, but he did it, and you've got to give him credit. What a brain that littleascal has."

The new women's champion is Mrs. Sarah Paulfrey Coles. She trimmed Pauline Betz, of Los Angeles and Florida, in their final match, 7-5, 6-2.

NORTHERN MEXICO Highway Urged
 MEXICO CITY, Sept. 8 (AP)—A concerted campaign for construction of a modern highway along the Mexico-United States frontier from Matamoros to Nogales has been organized by chambers of commerce in the five border states it would serve.
 The national confederation of chambers of commerce reported support of the state governments of Tamaulipas, Nuevo Leon, Coahuila, Chihuahua and Sonora would be sought for the campaign. Mexico now has no important east-west thoroughfare in the north. Matamoros is opposite Brownsville, Tex., and Nogales, opposite Nogales, Arizona.

Fewer WPA Men On Airport Job

Movement of dirt at the airport, where excavation for runways is in progress, is averaging around 4,000 cubic yards daily. City Manager E. J. McDaniel reported Monday.

Meanwhile, the number of WPA workers reporting to the project appeared to be declining. The average now is around 130 and varies between 120 and 150.

All materials—rock, asphalt, concrete, gravel, etc.—has been ordered for the job, set up in the neighborhood of $670,000 for four runways, topping, drainage, fencing and lights.

Only other city project in progress at the time is the 50-foot extension for the Powell Creek service spillway. This is to prevent eddy damage from cutting back into the dam.

only window dressing. See, I've got a pretty kiss for you! Come and get it!"

Jerry laughed gently. "Mink!" he said good-humoredly. "If I hadn't fallen so in love with Pam I'd succumb to you. Be as sweet as you look, Freda, and give me back my ring, or at least the promise it stands for. I don't really want the diamond, Freda. Accept that with my best wishes."

"It isn't best wishes I want from you, Jerry."

"He looked at the girl earnestly. His arm was around her as they began a slow stepping to the music.

"I can't give you what you should have from the man you marry, Freda. The least and the most any girl can get out of marriage is love. I mean real love, Freda. I'd never thought much of that sort of thing until Pam began to do things to my ideas and ideals."

"It's the place, darling. It's made you romantic."

They had danced through the door and out onto the piazza that looked down over the garden, lovely under its soft lights. A far-off boat whistle sounded faintly through the night. A white Ferris wheel cat moved through the shadows, like something floating, disembodied. Scent of flowers came in waves on the breeze. The sky was gemmed with an infinity of stars. Jerry's voice came through the quiet beauty:

"Freda, make an honest man of me. Release me."

She turned to him impatiently. "What a one-track mind you have! Darling, can't you put some other record on that precious mouth-organ of yours?"

"All right. So you won't. Is that it? Well, I'm releasing myself then, this minute. I'm serving notice, Freda. You and I are no longer engaged."

"That's only one man's opinion, darling. It takes two to make a bargain and two to break it. Anyhow, I'm going to save you from yourself. From your foolishness."

Words, words, words, thought Jerry. Would he never be able to untangle his life? Would Freda never come to her senses and see that he was asking something that was best for both of them?

Antoine

Meanwhile, Pam moved on alone through the beauty of the night. Once out of the building and off of the premises, she didn't hurry. There was a friendliness about the early morning quiet of Key West that Pam liked. She knew every nook and corner of the town so well she had no fear.

Pam didn't turn at the sound of a car behind her. But she started when a voice spoke her name. "Pam! Wait a minute!"

The car had stopped beside her. Someone was getting out and coming around toward her. Pam knew a momentary impulse to run, but forced herself to stand and wait. That not giving way to her fears or impulses was something she had inherited from her mother who had, in turn, inherited it from her own New England grandmother.

"Pam, I saw you go." It was Edmund Antoine's voice. "You frightened me. Alone on the street at this hour..."

Pam smiled through the faint light. There was no use of being angry at Antoine. He'd been a party to that bet, but he hadn't done what Jerry had—made love to her, tried to make her think he was sincere while the others of his set looked on and laughed.

"But there's nothing to be afraid of," she said easily.

"That's what you think." He caught her hands. "If you knew how I feel this minute you'd be frightened to death. I'd like to steal you!"

Children Suffocate As Mattress Burns

HARDWICK, Minn., Sept. 8 (AP)—Punies from a smoldering mattress suffocated the three children of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Swenson at their home near here last night while the parents were away from the house.

The three children—Frances, 5; Orval, Jr., 3; and Merlye, 1—were sleeping in an upstairs bedroom. Authorities said the mattress on the parents' bed, in the same room, unexplainably became ignited and the fumes filled the room, in which the windows were closed.

Sheriff Neil Roberts said Mr. and Mrs. Swenson had put the children to bed before leaving to attend a movie. They found the children's bodies when they returned about 11 p. m.

Henderson Denies Dies' Charge That He Is Communist

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8 (AP)—Martin Dies and Leon Henderson locked horns today over the question of whether the boss of the Office of Price Administration and four aides should be fired from the government service on the ground that they held or condoned communist views.

Dies, house member from Texas and chairman of the committee on un-American activities, made public yesterday a letter to President Roosevelt urging that Henderson and the four employees be dismissed immediately.

To this Henderson promptly replied that he would turn the accusations over to the civil service commission, and if the commission held the employees to be unfit he would discharge them as soon as he could get to a telephone. He added, however, that "summary punitive action on the basis of one man's opinion is as un-American a procedure as anything to which Mr. Dies has yet given his attention."

To Dies' contention that Henderson himself once had connections with communist "front organizations or 'transmission belts,'" the price administrator declared at a press conference yesterday that he was not now and ever had been a member of any communist-controlled organization.

Germans Removed From Volga Valley

MOSCOW, Sept. 8 (AP)—The Soviet government declaring the lower Volga had become a haven for Nazi spies and saboteurs, directed today that some 390,000 persons of German extraction be uprooted from their homes in that area and resettled in various parts of Siberia.

Those affected by the mass migration order—descendants of German families whom Catherine the Great invited to settle along the Volga in 1828 as a barrier to Tatar invasion—will be given land and state aid to start life anew, the government said.

Nazis Stick To Submarine Story

BERLIN, Sept. 8 (AP)—Germany's official statement that the U-boat which fired two torpedoes at the U. S. Destroyer Greer was attacked first by the warship was pronounced by a spokesman today as an "unchallengeable statement of fact."

On the surface, there was no indication of extraordinary agitation over the matter, but German sources, nevertheless, would not say the incident was closed.

Germans Claim 71 Red Planes Downed

BERLIN, Sept. 8 (AP)—The official German news agency reported tonight that the red air force, buffeted by hundreds of German dive-bombers smashing at Leningrad's defenses, lost 71 planes yesterday. (German losses were not given.)

DNE said that nine of the planes were wrecked before they could take off from their landing fields. The others were said to have been downed in combat or by anti-aircraft fire.

More Bombers Arrive At Singapore Fort

SINGAPORE, Sept. 8 (AP)—The RAF's offensive strength in the Far East was further increased today by the arrival of what was officially described as "large numbers" of the latest type of British-built Bristol-Blenheim bombers.

The United States has furnished most of the recent reinforcements of Britain's air power in the South Pacific—Lockheed Hudson bombers, Brewster Buffalo fighters and Catalina flying boats—while Australia has provided a steady flow of trainer-fighters.

SNOW AT DENVER

DENVER, Sept. 8 (AP)—Big snow flakes floated down on Denver today in the city's earliest autumn snowfall in 12 years. In 1929 a snowfall trace was reported on Sept. 7.

Houston Freight Workers Strike

HOUSTON, Sept. 8 (AP)—A strike affecting five Missouri Pacific freight terminals in South Texas was in effect today after negotiations between the management and the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks fell through at a meeting last night.

The strike affects Houston, Freeport, Palestine, Raymondville and Corpus Christi.

H. R. Lyons, union vice president, said the union was asking 75 cents an hour for all employees and a maximum work day of eight hours.

Dock hands now get 36 cents an hour and drivers get $17.50 a week for a minimum of 500 miles.

Arms Production To Hit Top Speed Early In Spring

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8 (AP)—Defense officials predicted today that American war supplies would be flowing in greatly increased amounts to axis opponents all over the world in another six months.

Already, supplies—both of the lease-lend and cash variety—are moving from America's rapidly expanding "arsenal" in China to help build a railroad supply line supplementing the Burma truck route; to Britain for all purposes, to the Middle East, the Netherlands East Indies, Russia, the Free French forces, and Polish war trainees in Canada.

But the real magnitude and nature of the vast program defense officials said, will begin to be realized only when American production takes the sharp curve upward that is expected next spring as big factories hit a high speed mass production tempo and the volume of supplies is swelled by the output of small plants and back-alley machine shops now being lined up for defense orders.

Aircraft Warning Will Receive Test

WITH THIRD ARMY IN LOUISIANA, Sept. 8 (AP)—The army's principal aircraft warning systems, observation by civilians and location by a radio system like that being used in England, will be tested in the Louisiana war games, officers disclosed today.

Sixteen thousand citizens of Louisiana and East Texas, like others being organized throughout the nation, will take part Friday in a full dress rehearsal preliminary to the climax of the war maneuvers that will pit the Third Army against the Second Army for two weeks, beginning September 15.

Highway Committee Of CC To Meet

Highway committee of the chamber of commerce was to go into session at the chamber offices at 4 p. m. Monday, Dave Duncan and G. C. Dunham, co-chairmen, announced.

The committee has been given a docket number for the state highway commission hearing at Austin on Sept. 15 and plans for attending the hearing will be developed.

On the committee are Taylor Emerson, Joyce Fisher, Herb Keaton, H. W. Wright, H. W. Smith, G. H. Hayward, W. S. Morrison, Charles Sullivan, T. S. Currie and B. J. McDaniel.

Phillips Good Host, Stevenson Reports

AUSTIN, Sept. 8 (AP)—Terming Governor Leon C. Phillips of Oklahoma "a charming host," Governor Coke Stevenson at a press conference, today discussed matters pertaining to the interstate oil compact which he looked into the past weekend.

Stevenson said no decisions were made but that he, Phillips and compact commission officials talk over such subjects as operating costs, the next meeting of the commission and whether it should employ a technical engineer.

Markets At A Glance

NEW YORK, Sept. 8 (AP)—Stocks with a war rating, notably aircraft, negotiated a brisk recovery offensive in today's market without much assistance from generally tired-looking leaders in other divisions.

Transfers were around 800,000 shares, despite frequent slow-downs. It was one of the largest turnovers in a month.

Stocks at new highs for the year including Boeing, Glenn Martin, Consolidated Aircraft, Grumman Aircraft, N. Y. Shipbuilding, International Nickel and Western Union.

Other performers on the upside the greater part of the day were Douglas Aircraft, United Aircraft, Sperry, American Sugar Refining, Sears Roebuck, Montgomery Ward, Studebaker, U. S. Steel, Santa Fe, Texas Corp., and U. S. Rubber.

Occasional backwardness was displayed by Anaconda, Kennecott, General Motors, Chesapeake & Ohio, North American, American Telephone, International Harvester, Du Pont, Union Carbide and Eastman Kodak.
