YCH Foundation annual Gala in final plan stages

The very first fund raising event staged by the Yoakum County Hospital Foundation was a solid success New Year's Eve, December 31, and the fourth Gala event promises to be "be bigger and better", according to many volunteers helping plan the event. Because New Year's Eve falls on a Sunday this year, the 'fun and fund raising' bash will take place at 7 PM, December 7 at the downtown Denver location of 116 North Main Street.

According to current reports of ticket sales, if you plan to be part of the nights events you should purchase your tickets NOW - Only 200 hundred will be sold, and tickets must be shown at the entry door.

This year's theme for the event is "Denim & Diamonds present the Caribbean Cowboy" night of food, fun and dancing. During the evening bot Silent and Live Ausctions will be held, with bidding on some fabulous prizes up for grabs - valuable firearms, a trip for two anywhere Southwest Airlines flies in the United States. At this time $20 tickets are being sold on a custom designed golf cart - the vehicle may not improve your game but your transportation around the course should draw plenty of attention.

Movers and shakers boosting the Denim and Diamond affair include Suzie Parker, Gala chairperson, Joanna Marion, decorations, Denise Dean, fundraising chair, Mara Fortner and Joe Kay, fidd chairs.

$100 tickets for the fourth annual event can be purchased most of the above volunteers, as well as Edith Kidd, Sandy Bell, Terri Deaton, Janet Andis and Beverly Mills.

Funds raised by the Gala will help the YCH Foundation purchase equipment for the hospital. The last three Denim and Diamonds Gala have funded the purchase of the following hospital equipment:

$23,000, new patient beds; $7,400, patient room TV's; $7,276, room IV poles; $9,971, IV poles and infusion pumps; $4,700 for patient lift; $2,300, wound care equipment, and $3,259 fir the Fun Center.

Cowboys fall prey to O'Donnell 35-6 Eagles defense foils Cowboy running game

Last Friday night the Cowboys created an unusual statistic: They had possession of the football over 26 minutes of the game's total 48, running 60 offensive plays compared to the O'Donnell Eagles 22 minutes generating only 55 plays - but a lopsided Eagle win. The Cowboys simply could not generate an effective ground game against the Eagle defenders. The PA system at halftime reported the Cowboys gained one yard on the ground in 9

Opening of new classroom signals quantum leap for Learning Center

South Plains College and Work Source of the South Plains held a grand opening of the new Interactive Television classroom October 23 at the Yoakum County Learning Center in Denver City. The ceremony focused on educational opportunities not only in general education curriculum, but will provide courses essential in training area students in the always expanding fields of the medical industry.

Kathy Clark, director of Yoakum County Family Literacy, told dozens of well wishers and guests at the opening "The partnership between Work Source and SPC has taken the Yoakum County Family Literacy program to a higher level of educational services for county and area residents. This ITV classroom allows students the opportunity to complete their educational goals close to home."

One of the special features of the new classroom is a giant two way monitor and computer. The instructor is seen and heard by the students, and they are able to address questions and information to the instructor in 'Live Time'. This interaction provides the atmosphere of a traditional class room.

Work Force provided the technological equipment for the ITV classroom, and South Plains College is offering a variety of subjects which will be offered starting in January.

The ITV classroom is a culmination of distance learning efforts to provide education services to Yoakum County and area towns, with assistance and support from sources other than SPC, Work Force and the Learning Center; Yoakum County Hospital, Denver City and Plains School Districts, Yoakum County Commissioners Court, Region 17 Educational Service Center, city governments of both Denver City and Plains.

Making welcoming and congratulatory remarks at the grand opening were Denver City Mayor David Bruton, Dr. Kevin Sharp, Pres. of SPC, Martin Aguirre, Work Source

CEO, County Judge Dallas Brewer, Mike Fears, Dir. of Economic Development, Denver City, Dag Azam. Superintendent Denver City School District, Clay Taylor, Administrator, County Hospital, Victor Lozano, Work Source Board member, Laura Turnbough, Executive Director Denver City Chamber, representatives of US Senator John Cornyn and US Congressman Randy Neugebauer. Dr. Kevin Sharp, SPC, explained and demonstrated the electronic equipment.

Cowgirls advance to Area competition

Cowgirls get final word from Coach Eddleman before practice scrimmage against Brownfield October 28 rushing attempts, and only 48 yards in 17 runs the second half.

The Eagles took the opening kickoff and quickly set the tone of the game. From their 43, they quickly ground out two first downs and a 19 yard dash around left end for a 6 point lead.

The Cowboys could not move the ball, and Mayes punt gave the Eagles the ball on their 34. They ran the ball for three quick first downs before Cowboy defenders Antonio Martinez and Sergio Olivas sacked the quarterback for a nine yard loss and the Cowboys were in possession at the 37.

Chase Guetersloh's throw to Mario Ruvalcaba was intercepted, and the Eagles were off to two quick firsts, but a fumble forced a field goal and the

Elect Tim Addison
Yoakum Co. Commissioner
Precinct 4

In the past few months, I have been fortunate to meet and discuss the issues with many of you. I appreciate all of your comments and I tried to compile a list of things that you told me were important to you. Space limits me in mentioning all of them, but I would like to touch on some of the major points.

- Taxes and Finances- Commissioner's Court has a responsibility to spend your tax dollars wisely. A workable budget must be created and strictly adhered to. Cost overruns and unplanned spending can lead to raising your tax rate.
- Improved Roads and Streets- Agriculture and Oil are the two main industries in our county. They depend heavily on a road system that will adequately meet their needs. Roads in poor repair not only affect productivity but can create an unsafe environment.
- Capital Improvements and Expenditures- New projects must be carefully evaluated to see that their cost does not outweigh their benefit. Most proposals brought to Commissioner's Court have some merit but must compete for a limited amount of funds. Projects must be categorized in order of their impact on the citizens of Yoakum County in relation to their cost.
- County Services- We are very fortunate to live in a county that has a large tax base in proportion to the size of its population. This allows us to maintain an outstanding medical complex as well as a very capable law enforcement agency. We must not allow these services to be interrupted because of a lack of adequate funding. A conservative approach to spending on new projects must be implemented with special attention given to future associated operating costs.

I have lived in Yoakum County for 43 years and have owned and operated my own farm since 1985. My wife, Judi, and I have three children and we attend First Baptist of Plains where I serve as deacon. I have served as President of the Plains ISD Board of Trustees and currently serve as Vice President of Yoakum Co. Farm Bureau. Upon completion of my education at Texas Tech in Economics and Finance, I worked in Denver City at Wells Fargo as a Business Banker. I feel that my experience in banking and running my own business for 21 years has given me a unique perspective of County Government. Please help me keep Yoakum County a great place to live by supporting me with your vote on November 7th.

Election time is almost here and I encourage you to exercise your right to vote. Early voting is from Oct. 23rd. to Nov. 3rd. and regular voting day is Tuesday, Nov. 7th. I am the current Commissioner of Precinct 4.

Yoakum County has been my home for most of my life. I am a graduate of Plains School and hold a Bachelors Degree from Howard Payne University along with a Masters Degree from Texas Tech University. I taught school for fifteen years, twelve of those serving as a High School Principal. I have farmed and operated my own aerial spraying business.

My wife Janelle and I have three daughters, Kristi, Karen, and Kemi. I have served on the Plains School Board, am in my twentieth year of serving on the Yoakum County Hospital Board, and am a Deacon for First Baptist Church of Plains.

ORGANIZATIONS

- Texas Integrated Pest Management Board of Directors
- Texas and National Sorghum Producers Associations Board of Directors
- U.S. Grain Council Executive Board
- South Plains Association of Governments Executive Board
- Baptist General Convention of Texas Executive Board
- Texas and National Association of Counties
- Texas Baptist Disaster Relief
- Municipal Solid Waste Advisory Council for Texas Commission on Environmental Quality

In the last eight years, serving as Commissioner of Precinct 4, I have had the Opportunity to become familiar with County Government and feel certain that I can continue to make decisions that will benefit the citizens of Yoakum County. I am very committed to Yoakum County Hospital and will do everything I can to keep it as a viable institution in our community.

Your vote for me as Commissioner of Precinct 4 and the opportunity to continue to serve the People of Yoakum County would be greatly appreciated.

OFFICIAL BALLOT - GENERAL ELECTION
(BOLETA OFICIAL) - (ELECCION GENERAL)

Voters across Texas are currently taking advantage of our early balloting procedures and making their preferences known for those who will serve in federal, state and local offices.

If recent trends are any indication, fewer than half of all eligible voters will cast a ballot by time polls close on election day, November 7. This is disturbing. The United States has been the world's leader in promoting democracy around the world, and we shouldn't take it for granted here at home. Though it hasn't been widely noted, we've made steady progress in recent decades to help extend human rights and democracy to millions of people worldwide.

Freedom House, a non-profit, non-partisan organization working to promote democracy and economic freedom, does an annual survey of political conditions around the globe, evaluating countries based on their open political competition, respect for civil liberties, and independence of their news media among other factors. In 1972, only 42 countries - accounting for less than a quarter of the world's population - were rated as "free."

But by last year that number increased significantly, with 89 countries advancing to the "free" category, representing 46 percent of the world's 6.5 billion people. The entire Western Hemisphere (except for Cuba) has moved to "free" or "partly free" during that time, thanks in large part to U.S. leadership.

Unfortunately, their remains large segments of the globe, including Russia, China and the entire Arab world, that remain in the third Freedom House category: "not free."

The United States has a vested interest in promoting democracy. When human rights are respected, including equality for women and minorities, the discontent that breeds terrorism is removed. History teaches democratic governments are far less aggressive toward their neighbors - and the peace freedom promotes is of value not only regionally, but also to the entire global community.

Although some claim democracy is not possible in certain cultures, the fact is ALL people yearn to be free. And all human beings yearn to escape from the yoke of repression. We've seen this most recently in Afghanistan and Iraq, where millions of people braved extremist threats to life and limb in order to cast ballots as real democracy was introduced for the first time.

We all remember the televised images of Afghans and Iraqi proudly displaying purple finger after voting for the first time. Last year in Iraq, 58 percent of eligible voters cast votes in their first election. That was followed by a national referendum with 63 percent turnout, and then a parliamentary election with 77 percent turnout - all with the threat of violence and physical retaliation not far in the background. It is clear these people appreciate the ability to make their voices heard, and that they understand the importance of participating in elections.

We in the United States are privileged to live in the greatest democracy in the history of mankind (or, that the world has ever known... either way). Americans do not have to worry about the same threats faced by the Iraqi or Afghan people as we head to the polls. For most, the question of whether to vote is merely a matter of interest or convenience.

Our blessings are often more noticeable to outsiders. In October, Michail Gorbachev, the last president of the Soviet Union, visited Midland, Texas. He spoke to the crowd in his native language, and praised the U.S. devotion to democracy, and the uplifting freedoms inherent in our system. His remarks were a potent reminder to us all of the freedoms we enjoy. I urge Texans to help keep our democracy strong 9-0 lead to start the second period.

The Cowboy ground game went nowhere, and Mayes was forced to punt to the 47. Two quick Eagle dashes went 47 yards to cross the goal and a 15 point lead.

With just over two minutes left in the first half, Chris Addison threw effectively to Rudy Gonzales for 21 yards, Chris Gonzales for 4, Guetersloh for 9 and another first down, Justin Vasquez for 15 and another first down, but then Addison was sacked for a 11 yard loss at the 16. The Cowboys called time out with 12 seconds on the clock. On fourth down, Addison launched a Hail Mary throw which Chris Gonzales ran under in the end zone as the clock ran out for a halftime 15-6 score.

In the third period the Cowboys managed a pair of first downs from runs by Mayes and Tyson and receptions by Ramos and Rudy Gonzales, but they could not advance the ball past the Eagles 24. They would again grind down the field for another score and 22-6 lead going into the final quarter.

The Eagles pushed their lead to 28-6 early in the final period

The Cowboys managed a first down with runs by Tyson, and Mayes, but a fumble gave the Eagles the ball at the 45, and on second down they would score again for the final 35-6 win.

Individual performances included rushing by Tyson for 36 yards, Mayes 34, Addison completed 18 of 31 passes and no interceptions, Rudy Gonzales had 4 receptions, Chris Gonzales 3, Mayes 2, Ramos 2, Guetersloh, J. Vasquez and Scott Addison 1. Leading tacklers were J. Vasquez 8, Braden Loya 6, Cody Mayes 5, C. Gonzales, M. Ruvalcaba and S. Olivias 4 each. Vasquez was credited with a quarterback sack, and A. Martinez and S. Olivias shared a sack

The Cowboys have only two games remaining on the schedule. Morton and Smyer. They have not given up, nor should you give up on them.

P.I.S.D. Happenings

Jr. High Football:

The 7th grade Wranglers dropped a close 29-24 game to Lubbock Christian Jr. High October 26 in Lubbock. They were powered by three touchdowns and three two point conversions by Miguel Carrillo. Defensively they had fumble recoveries from Jesus Chavez, Miguel Carrillo and Hunter Parrott. Parrott, Carrillo, Sam Melendez, Gerardo Rojas and Shawn Flores all contributed quarterback sacks. Coach Steven Bunch said "Our kids showed a ton of heart and character. It would have been easy to give up. The Lubbock team was mostly 8th grade athletes." The 7th graders record is now 3-2.

The 8th Junior High team visited O'Donnell and beat them 22-0. In the first quarter Dylan DeBusk found Jeffrey Barrientes open for a ten yard scoring pass, then threw a two point conversion pass to Robert Reyna. In the second quarter DeBusk again found Barrientes open for a 11 yard scoring throw, and Jaron Bell ran the two point conversion for a 16-0 score. The defense continued the shut out, and Jaron Bell's four yard run made the final score 22-0. Coach Tom Harvey praised the 8th graders for staying focused, particularly the defense which didn't allow their goal line to be threatened. Their record is now also 3 and 2.

PHS Volleyball

On Oct. 24 the JV Cowgirls beat McCamey 25-18 and 25-15. The JV ended the season with an overall record of 8-13 and district record of 4-2

The Varsity Cowgirls also beat McCamey 25-17, 25-11 and 25-11. Joani Bell had 1 dig, 15 kills, 6 blocks, Katie Winn 6 digs, 10 assists, Reyna Gallegos 9 digs, 3 kills, 2 aces, Desiraye Broome had 4 digs, 7 kills, 1 block, 2 aces, Lauren Hise had 1 dig, 4 kills, 4 blocks, 2 assists, Liz Perez 5 digs, 13 assists, 1 ace, Regina Morales 20 digs, M'Leah McKinzie 5 digs. The Cowgirls had a district record of 6-2 and are District 3 1-A runner up. On October 28 they played a warm up game against Brownfield and lost 24-26, 25-23, 19-25, 27-25 and 13-15. Joani had 8 digs, 13 kills, 12 blocks, Katie 6 digs, 18 assists, 1 ace, Reyna 19 digs, 2 kills, 2 blocks, 1 ace, Desiraye 4 digs, 8 kills, 10 blocks, Lauren 10 digs, 5 kills, 3 assists, 7 blocks, Kimber Williams 7 digs, 3 kills, Regina 36 digs, 1 assist, Liz Perez 5 digs, 14 assists, Meghan Garcia 13 digs, 2 kills, M'Leah McKinzie 12 digs. The Cowgirls overall record was 19-13.

Student of the Week

Student of the Weeks is Bradon Loya, a junior and the son of Alfred and Sonya Loya. He was nominated by Matt Hill, who said "We are constantly evaluating students potential and trying to help them rise to meet those abilities. It can be frustrating when a student has so much capability, but does not seem to be reaching toward it. On the other hand, sometimes a student will suddenly 'wake-up' and begin doing the quality of work we had always suspected they were capable of. Bradon has recently had an academic awakening. Dread of misbehavior in the classroom and feeble half-hearted attempts at learning have been replaced with attentiveness, along with consistent accuracy on work and high marks on different exams. For me, it is awakening such as these that keep me coming back to teach more."

A TRIP HOME

Editors Note: The following has been circulating the halls of PSD, and I thought it more than worthy for these pages:

Last week while traveling to Chicago on business I noticed a Marine sergeant traveling with a folded flag, but didn't put two and two together. When we boarded I turned to the sergeant who'd been invited to sit in First Class, just across from me, and asked if he was heading home. He said no, so I asked if he was heading out. He said 'No, I'm escorting a soldier home.' I asked if he was going to pick him up, and he said, 'No, he's with me right now. He was killed in Iraq. I'm taking him home to his family.'

The realization of what he had been asked to do hit me like a punch in the gut. It was an honor for him. He told me although he didn't know the soldier, he had delivered the news of his passing to the soldier's family and felt as if he knew them after many conversations in the few days. I turned back to him, extended my hand and said 'Thank you. Thank you for doing what you do so my family and I can do what we do.'

Landing in Chicago, the pilot stopped short of the gate and announced, 'Ladies and gentlemen, I would like to note we have been honored with having Sergeant Steeley of the United States Marine Corps on this flight. He is escorting a fallen comrade back home to his family. I ask that you please remain in your seats when we open the forward door to allow Sgt. Steeley to depalm and receive his fellow soldier. We will then turn off the seat belt sign.' Without a sound all went as requested. I noticed the sergeant saluting the casket as it was brought off the plane, and his actions made me realize I am so proud to be an American. So here's a public Thank You to our military men and women for what you do so we can live the way we do.

Tsa Mo Ga members hear health tips

By Rennetta O'Quinn

Family Nurse Practitioner Mark Anna spoke to Tsa Mo Ga members October 23 with medical hints and information.

Program coordinator Zareta Winn introduced Anna who addressed the topic of "Medical Awareness For Ladies." His focus was on the most prevalent problems affecting women today: heart disease, diabetes, cancer, stroke, Alzheimer's and shingles.

"A woman's chance of having a heart attack is equal to a man's after menopause," Anna said, citing loss of estrogen as a factor in women's risk.

As for Alzheimer's disease, Anna said, "Treat your brain like a muscle - use it. Read, keep the mind active, use discussion."

Diabetes can be controlled by diet and exercise and eating less processed foods. "Keeping sugars out of the body is important and making it a lifestyle, what you do day after day," he said.

As for shingles, Anna said, "The quicker the treatment the better." His advice on the controversy of flu shots: "Taking one is advisable."

Hostesses for the meeting were Sarah Field, Maria Hernandez and Rennetta O'Quinn.

Seniors Corner

By Claudia Sue Ferguson

Welcome from the Center. The week has been better but we still grieve for the loss of our member Billy Ray Moore. We have learned that sooner or later we are going to lose members. We all age and the day will come when we have to leave the earth, hopefully for a better place in Heaven. I know that is where Bill Ray is, well and happy, as I know Benny Bridges is also. I hope all who read this column will also be there someday. We are also praying for the family of Elaine Hicks Schneider.

We have finally heard from Spencer Randolph. He has moved to a retirement center close to Granbury, near his kids. He will be missed, always smiling, such a good man.

The site council met Tuesday, and we are planning a bake sale before Thanksgiving and another before Christmas. They always go well and help raise money for the center. We also need bookcases. If anyone has an old bookcase no longer needed you can donate it to the center. We have quite a collection of books and not enough cases.

The center is a wonderful place for seniors to fellowship together and laugh, with lots of hugs and smiles. I encourage any seniors in Plains and Denver City to come see us. If unable to drive, the center has a van to pick you up and after eating lunch take you home. We have home deliveries in both towns if you qualify. Our cooks are unusually good and there is plenty of food, but they have to know numbers to prepare for, so its important you call before you come to eat.

We thank the Good Lord we have such a great place. We are still looking for a director. Ayde is doing a wonderful job in the office, but we still need a leader. Pray we find the right one - and pray the weather stays good for the cotton and peanut farmers.

I've always been independent, and I don't see how it conflicts with femininity..... Sylvia Porter

A Summer Sunday Morning

*He was just a little boy, on a week's first day.
He was wandering home from Sunday School, dawdling on the way.
He scuffed his shoes into the grass - he found a caterpillar.
He found a fluffy milkweed pod, and blew out all the 'filler'.
A bird nest in a tree overhead, so wisely placed so high,
Was just another wonder that caught his eye.
A neighbor watched his zig zag course, and hailed him from the lawn, Asked where he'd been that day, what was going on.
"I've been to Bible School," he said, and turned a piece of sod.
He picked up a wiggly worm, replying, "I've learned a lot of God."
"A very fine way," the neighbor said, "for a boy to spend his time. If you'll tell me where God is I'll give you a new dime."
Quick as a flash the answer came, nor was his accents faint. "I'll give you a dollar, Mister, if you can tell me where God ain't."*

From The Hack

I had the distinct honor of being invited to participate as the most senior member of a distinguished group of mass culinary, less than genius men last Sunday - the First Baptist Men's All Too Often Exhibition Of Culinary Sheer Ignorance, the men taking over the cavernous kitchen where all sorts of mysterious utensils and vessels rest peacefully - until numbers of men show up at hardly Holy Hours, jerking open drawers and doors, muttering, "jeez, I wonder what they do with this gizmo? Looks like a torture tool from the Inquisition!", which naturally created the natural response, "What's an inquisition?" Eager to be helpful, one would - be chef opined, "It's something they use in this new thermal/ nuclear cooking routine," only to be rebuffed by an even more advanced genius, "Oh, Bosh, it's a new style potato masher, that's all!"

The first twenty minutes went fairly well. At least 3/4th the chefs now had aprons on, probably 18 percent on the correct side of their anatomy. One 'cook' however had managed to tie his thumb so tightly behind his back his face was turning purple, and an experienced, well trained cook sped forth with knife in hand to free the now swelling thumb, frightening the guy so badly he screamed and fled towards sanctuary at the Church of Christ to the north. It is rumored he will probably return to the fold when he learns they do not have a piano.

Some thoughtful, efficient organizer had laid out the essentials for the AM Feast - At least a small pig farm of bacon and sausage, probably three days production of eggs from four East Texas counties. A HumVee load of pancake stuff, enough gravy mix it had to be wallowed around in a 55 gallon barrel - when the Major-domo of the Olympic sized event said in his military best voice, "OK, troops, time to get cooking - Let's start some sizzling!" Easy for him to say - he had somehow come up lame overnight, his foot and ankle wrapped about the size of a New Tex Gin cotton bale. Well, perhaps a bit larger.

At that moment I was seriously thinking, "Go AWOL! NOW! Churches don't shoot you for deserting! Do They?" At that time the guy who stands behind the podium each Sunday stroled in, all cheery and glowing.

The atmosphere changed abruptly. One 'cook' reported he had no idea he was talented enough to crack two eggs at the same time while chewing gum. One guy without a cooking job was unanimously elected chief pot washer, and became so skilled, if the dumb pot required more than 47 seconds of scrubbing it immediately was dispatched to be hidden in the dirty linen barrel - which probably puzzled the clean up ladies the next day, who'd never heard a dirty table cloth Clank!

Finally the faithful sheep were shorn. I mean fed. The number one guy again announced, "Alright men, you have two choices: You can get started cleaning up this pig sty, or come listen to me preach and face the regular kitchen ladies in the morning."

Amazing what a bit of patient, warm encouragement can do. In about an hour, which seemed much, much longer, the kitchen would have made even Old Blood and Guts George proud. I felt so good about the uplifting experience the first thing I did when I got home was to look in the mirror. I was bitterly disappointed to see I had yet to sprout Angel wings. Time appropriate; Henry Adams described politics as "the systematic organization of hatreds." The word politics has real meaning - poly means many, and ticks mean blood-suckers.
