

Geneva Meet Delegates In Secret Talks

By MAX HARRISON
GENEVA (AP)—Indochina conference delegates worked in private meetings today to arrange military negotiations for a cease-fire in Laos and Cambodia. The formal nine-power sessions were recessed until tomorrow.

Red China's Premier-Foreign Minister Chou En-lai was the only top conference figure still in Geneva.

U.S. Under Secretary of State Walter Bedell Smith, British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden and Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov all flew home over the weekend.

Chou was reported ready to follow their example later this week.

French Premier-Foreign Minister Pierre Mendes-France delayed his arrival at the conference to actively push his campaign for peace in Indochina. He promised the French National Assembly he would resign unless he got an armistice by July 20.

French delegation sources expected him here sometime later this week.

Before their departure, Eden, Molotov and Smith agreed with the other conference delegates that separate, direct military negotiations would be held on Laos and Cambodia. They already are under way for Viet Nam.

Cambodian Foreign Minister Tep Phann opened discussions with Chou yesterday but there was no immediate contact between the representatives of Laos and Cambodia and those of the Communist-led Vietminh.

A main question to be decided was who would take part in the direct talks and whether they would be held in Geneva or in Indochina.

The two Indochinese kingdoms have made it clear they will not negotiate with representatives of the Communist "resistance governments," which they and the French contend are "phantoms" with no popular support.

The Laotians and Cambodians want to deal only with the Vietminh, charging it is their forces who have invaded their territory.

Saturday's agreement called for the military representatives to report on the cease-fire talks for all three Indochina states within three weeks, or by July 10.

Smith blamed "inflexible opposition by the Communists" for failure of the Geneva talks to arrive at a permanent settlement for Korea.

His return from the talks with the Reds precedes only a few days a visit here by Britain's Prime Minister Churchill during which President Eisenhower probably will urge British cooperation in setting up an international conference on anti-Communist defenses in the vital Southeast Asia sector.

Hopes the British were ready to go along on such a plan had begun to wane over the past weekend, however, partly as a result of French political developments and partly because of apparent concessions made by the Reds to keep the Geneva talks going.

The French development which dimmed the united front outlook was the installation of a new French government headed by Pierre Mendes-France who promised a settlement in Indochina or his resignation—within a month.

Smith, arriving in Washington at 8:58 a.m. EDT after a seven-week stint as chief of the American delegation in unsuccessful talks with the Reds at Geneva, stopped in Paris yesterday for confidential talks with the new premier.

Asked whether those conversations aroused fear that the new French leader might offer sweeping concessions to the Reds in order to obtain a cease fire, Smith replied: "I have nothing to say about that."

"On Indochina, the basic issues between the two sides have also been made clear," he told reporters.

"We have stated unmistakably the principles which we believe are essential to a just and lasting settlement. In an effort to establish those principles, the United States and its associates have made a sincere, patient effort to negotiate, and this effort will continue."

The United States' role during the rest of the Geneva meeting, he said, will be that of a "friendly and interested nation, neither a belligerent or a principal in the negotiations."

In talking about the Korean phase of the Geneva parley he declared: "During the Korean phase we explored every possibility of a settlement. We met with inflexible opposition by the Communists, and we were unable to make progress toward the unification of Korea as a free and independent state."

"We exposed the fact that at least for the present the Communists are unwilling to recognize the role of the United Nations in Korea, or to permit the Koreans themselves to decide their own future."

Smith is expected to make a more detailed report soon to President Eisenhower.

Shursen Trial Begins Today

MIDLAND (SC)—Selection of a jury for the trial of Lloyd Oliver Shursen, Big Spring, on charges of murder was started in 70th District Court here today.

Three prospective jurors had been interviewed up to noon, but none had been accepted. All witnesses were excused until Tuesday morning as it appeared no testimony could be heard today.

Shursen, Big Spring painting contractor, was charged in connection with the death of Kenneth H. Landrum, 41-year-old carpenter, last Dec. 18. Landrum died of bullet wounds shortly after staggering into the Blue Grille Cafe on East Front Street.

Shursen was arrested in a Big Spring hotel several hours later and officers said he had a .32-caliber pistol in his possession. A chart in the case listed the names of Landrum and Shursen in connection with a shuffleboard contest.

Members of the jury panel questioned this morning were not qualified on the death penalty. Defense attorneys are H. C. Hooser Sr. of Big Spring and Leonard Howell of Midland.

District Judge William B. Deaderick will preside over the case. District Attorney Warren Burnett is conducting the prosecution.

Asked whether those conversations aroused fear that the new French leader might offer sweeping concessions to the Reds in order to obtain a cease fire, Smith replied: "I have nothing to say about that."

Martial Law Declared As Rebels Push War

U.N. Security Council Makes Truce Request

By WILLIAM N. OATIS

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. Security Council

unanimously last night for a cease-fire in Guatemala and for all U.N. members to withhold aid from the fighting forces there.

The action came after the Soviet Union cast its 60th veto in council history on behalf of Guatemala's leftist government. The veto defeated a motion to refer the Guatemalan complaint of aggression to the Western Hemisphere's regional organization, the Organization of American States (OAS).

U.S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., council president for June, said the Soviet veto showed obviously the Russians have "designs" on the Americas. He warned angrily:

"I say to the Soviet delegate: Stay out of the Western Hemisphere. Don't try to start your plans and conspiracies here."

Despite the Russian veto, Guatemala had already asked the five-member Inter-American Peace Committee of the OAS to help stop the invasion against President Jacobo Arbenz Guzman's government. The committee scheduled a meeting in Washington late today.

The cease-fire call was voted after Guatemalan Delegate Eduardo Castillo-Arriola charged neighboring Honduras and Nicaragua, backed by the United States and the United Fruit Co., had conspired in an aggression against Guatemala's territory by mercenary expeditionary forces.

Lodge hotly defended his government and denied the charges. He said information available to the United States "strongly suggests that the situation does not involve aggression, but a revolt of Guatemalans against Guatemalans."

The council took no action on Guatemala's request that it send a peace observation commission to "to prove the connivance" of Honduras and Nicaragua.

The Guatemalan delegate told the council his country had been invaded from Honduras Friday by mercenaries and bombed by P47 planes of North American manufacture, the latter coming from bases on Nicaragua and Honduras.

He claimed to have documentary proof linking the leader of the invasion, Guatemalan exile Col. Carlos Castillo Armas, with Nicaragua and "the government of the North," an obvious reference to the United States.

He accused the U.S. State Department of defaming his government with its charges that it is Communist-influenced and said American bans on arms shipments to his country had left it defenseless.

He charged the invasion had had "a certain support" in Guatemala and said even if it were outlawed "this campaign would find another pretext."

He charged the invasion had been sparked by the fruit company because his government is expropriating large tracts of company land under its land reform program.

It also produced the surprise charge that two fliers of U.S. citizenship had crash-landed, wounded, at Tapachula, Mexico, yesterday after an attack on Guatemala. In Mexico City, the Mexican air force chief of staff, Col. Carlos R. Bergunza de Victoria, said he had no report of any such incident.

The resolution to refer the Guatemalan complaint to the OAS for "urgent consideration" was introduced by Brazil and Colombia. Opposing it, Russian Delegate Semyon K. Tsarapkin said Guatemala would be "squashed" before the organization acted.

The vote was 10-1, the lone Soviet negative killing the proposal.

The cease-fire resolution then was introduced by French Hoppenot of France. All 11 members voted for it.

In it, the council "calls for the immediate termination of any action likely to cause bloodshed and requests all members of the United Nations to abstain, in the spirit of the charter, from giving assistance to any such action."

Guatemalan Invasion Points

The black arrows on this map point to Puerto Barrios and San Jose, ports which anti-Communists invading forces claimed as captured in Guatemala. The anti-Communists said they may also control Zaopla and Retalhuleu, inland towns shown on the map. The arc and distance around it point to the fact that Guatemala City is just 800 miles distant from both Florida and the Panama Canal. (AP Wirephoto Map).

Guatemalan Regime Set For Battle

By SAM SUMMERLIN

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras (AP)—President Jacobo Arbenz Guzman

of Guatemala proclaimed martial law throughout his invaded country today as his Communist-backed government mobilized for a showdown battle with anti-Red rebels.

Insurgent leaders claimed their forces were pushing ahead in a three-pronged drive aimed at key rail and road communications in the southern part of the country.

The martial law decree was announced late last night after a government appeal for all private cars to be turned in for use in moving troops. Reports from Guatemala said the decisive phase of the battle for that neighboring Central American nation may come within 48 hours.

Associated Press Correspondent Jack Rutledge, in Guatemala City, quoted Guatemalan army officers as saying no field action had yet been fought. They added, however, that a battle could not be delayed much longer.

The U.S. Embassy in Guatemala City announced it is making plans to evacuate wives and children of U.S. citizens. With a wave of anti-U.S. feeling sweeping the city, the embassy reportedly feared violence might break out against North Americans. There are about 1,200 U.S. citizens in Guatemala.

Part of the rebel force was reported striking toward the Pan-American Highway, near the Salvadoran border. This is a two-headed drive from Nueva Ocotepique, Honduras, toward the town of Jutiapa.

Another invading column reportedly was moving in from Macaula, Honduras, about 20 miles west of Puerto Barrios, Guatemala's chief Caribbean port.

The third was reported toward Zaopla, midway on the vital rail line between Puerto Barrios and Guatemala City.

Rebel sources said their planes also are dropping arms in western Guatemala, where a uprising against the government has been reported.

President Arbenz reportedly has taken personal charge of defense strategy. It was speculated the taking-over of private automobiles could mean he plans to emulate the famous "taxicab army" which France rushed up to defend the Marne River during World War I.

There was no immediate reaction to diplomatic developments at the United Nations and elsewhere on Guatemala's charge it is the victim of aggression.

At an extraordinary Sunday session, the U.N. Security Council unanimously called for a cease-fire in Guatemala. The resolution, proposed by France, also urged all U.N. members not to aid either side in the struggle.

The move came after the Soviet Union vetoed a U.S.-supported bid to turn the complaint over to the Organization of American States and demanded the council itself act on the case.

Chinese Admit Americans Held

By EDDY GILMORE

GENEVA (AP)—The Chinese Communists confirmed today they are holding 30 American civilians in a prison, but said one civilian and a number of military personnel listed by the United States as detained were either dead or missing.

This information was passed to the United States in the fourth meeting between representatives of the U.S. and Chinese Communist delegations on the exchange of detained persons.

The United States agreed to permit 15 detained Chinese nationals to leave the United States and return to the China mainland.

The Chinese, on their side, supplied preliminary information on the list of approximately 33 American civilian and military personnel believed by the United States either to be in prison or to be prevented from leaving China.

The Chinese said W. L. Winter, a missionary, had been arrested for espionage, but died in prison Feb. 27, 1951. Winter was a mission worker in a leprosyarium in Kiangsi Province.

In the military category, the Chinese said three fliers—P. E. Voorhis, H. D. Weese and A. E. Hart Jr.—had died of injuries received when they parachuted from their plane over Antung, North China.

(In Washington, Air Force records indicated that the three Americans identified by the Communists are Lt. Paul E. Van Voorhis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Van Voorhis, Glen Cove, N.Y.; Lt. Henry D. Weese, husband of Mrs. Henry D. Weese, Knobel, Ark.; and Airman I.C. Alvin D. Hart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin D. Hart, Saginaw, Mich.)

The United States had listed 11 crew members of a U.S. Naval patrol plane and a rescue plane as probable detainees, but the Chinese representative said the two planes crashed into the sea and the men were missing. The names of these 11 were not disclosed.

The Chinese said one of the 32 listed by the United States and being in prison was never detained and is now living in Human Province. He is the Rev. John E. Maye of Scranton, Pa., a Roman Catholic missionary.

The Chinese did not say when any of those detained would be released—if at all.

Landy today also set a new world's record for 1,500 meters with 3:41.8 in the Turku Stadium.

Gets After Roaches

Johnston's No-Roach kills roaches and other crawling insects, such as ants and water bugs, on contact. Johnston's No-Roach is a stainless, colorless liquid which may be brushed around baseboards, door and window sills, cabinets and other places which harbor insects. When a roach walks across the substance, the chlordane it contains paralyzes and kills the bug. No-Roach may be applied with a small paint brush and one application lasts for months. A few drops poured in an ant hill is said to kill all the occupants of the dwelling.

Wentz Policies All Registered

Frank E. Wentz, local representative of the Plymouth Life Insurance Company, has a mortgage redemption service which he says has a three point guarantee.

He lists the guarantees as being (1) a debt-free home for the duration of the mortgage period, (2) paid up life at the end of the period that provides a permanent minimum estate, and (3) monthly lifetime income that provides a retirement fund.

The agent points out that a good mortgage plan, such as his, should provide for a permanent minimum estate in the event of uninsurability.

Wentz explains that all his company's policies are registered. By this he means that the company has on deposit with the State Insurance Department of Texas approved securities equal to the full net legal reserve of each policy.

The ratings of the company by one of the largest independent insurance reporting companies on Jan. 1 were excellent, he says.

Wentz, whose office is located at 407 Runnels, points out that he is available at practically any time to explain the details of any and all policies he handles. He has plans for family income, education, retirement, savings, emergency, business and tax, partnership, and others.

MORTGAGE PLAN THAT GUARANTEES

1. Debt-free home during mortgage period for family.
2. Paid-up life at end of mortgage that provides permanent minimum estate.
3. Monthly lifetime income that provides retirement fund.

Rate Of New Wells Continues Gaining

AUSTIN, June 21 (U)—Operators drilled 448 wells last week and brought in 264 oil wells, 23 gasers. They plugged 161 dry holes.

Of the 264 oil wells, 13 resulted from wildcatting. There were five wildcat gas wells and 15 wildcat dry holes.

Oil well completions for the year climbed to 5,577 compared with 4,732 a year ago. The gas well completion total was 578 against 421.

Plugs went in 57 commercially depleted oil wells and three gas wells.

The total average calendar day crude oil allowances as of today was 3,005,476 barrels, up 11,538 from a week ago.

Police Stationed At San Antonio's Pools

SAN ANTONIO (U)—Police were stationed at each municipal swimming pool today to prevent any incidents after six Negroes went swimming last week in a northside pool that always had been used by whites.

A crude burned cross was found at the pool the following morning. The City Council hastily passed an ordinance against Negroes using the facilities.

Nolan Rancher Dies

SWEETWATER, Tex. (U)—Services were to be held this afternoon for a prominent Nolan County rancher, Marion Velta Brownfield, 63, who died Saturday. He is survived by his wife and one daughter.

UNCLE RAY

Five total eclipses which will interest North America.

Perhaps you read an article which I wrote about eclipses 18 months ago. In that article was a paragraph which spoke of the total eclipse which is due on the last day of June this year. I spoke about this again the past December.

Now there is growing excitement about the coming event. Millions of persons are planning to watch the total eclipse, and some will make trips of hundreds of miles, or even thousands, to be on the dark pathway.

Outside of the pathway, there will be a partial eclipse of the sun.

California and much of Mexico will miss even a partial eclipse, but most people on the continent will be in for the treat—if they wake up early enough.

Astronomers will go to various places to make studies. The band of darkness will stretch from Nebraska through Minnesota and western Ontario to James Bay at the southern end of Hudson Bay. Later it will cross the Atlantic, touching southern Greenland, and will continue through Europe and far into Asia.

Canadian astronomers will take a prominent part in study of the eclipse. One party—from the Dominion Observatory—will be stationed near the village of Oba. Another party, from the University of Toronto, will work at Matice. A third group, from the Astrophysical Observatory, will take another station between Lake Superior and James Bay.

These astronomers have a special purpose in mind—to learn more about the "flash spectrum."

During each solar eclipse there is a beautiful burst of light just before the eclipse becomes total. For two or three seconds, photographs can be taken to help provide the needed facts about the flash spectrum.

I wish to thank Dr. John F. Heard, president of the Royal Astronomical Society of Canada. Dr. Heard has sent me advance information about the flash spectrum plans, and explains that cloudy weather may spoil the chances for good work. That is why the three parties will take stations many miles apart.

McCarthy Issue In Maine Primary Vote Set Today

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
PORTLAND, Maine (U)—Maine puts its vote on the line today in a primary in which Sen. Margaret Chase Smith contends that Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) apparently planted the man opposing her.

That is the closest Mrs. Smith has come to openly accusing the Red-hunting Wisconsin Senator of attempting to engineer her defeat in the Republican senatorial primary.

And it was her nearest approach to a direct attack on her competitor, Robert L. Jones.

Jones is a McCarthy supporter. Mrs. Smith definitely is not. The contestants closed their campaigns last night with tandem television appearances from the same Portland studio.

They met head-on in a corridor with no exchange of pleasantries audible to by-standers.

Jones told reporters he did say "How do you do?"

Mrs. Smith had spoken of McCarthy in an earlier TV interview with commentator-columnist Drew Pearson that was filmed several days ago in Washington.

Jones followed through by saying Pearson was "brought in here to try and ruin me."

And he said Pearson "was called a liar by four presidents, 250 congressmen and 85 senators."

The race between the 56-year-old Senator and the 34-year-old Jones, a novice in politics, is the only statewide contest in today's primaries.

A Jones victory would be a tremendous upset and political fore-casters around the state picked Mrs. Smith as an easy 3-1 or 4-1 winner.

The only other competition above the local and county level is for the Republican and Democratic nominations in the 1st Congressional District.

Rep. Robert Hale (R-Maine) seeks GOP renomination for a seventh term.

Mrs. Smith's mention of McCarthy struck a belated spark in what has been an unexpectedly drab campaign.

Siam Fears New 'Korean' Danger

BANGKOK (U)—Thai Premier P. Pibulsonggram today expressed belief that a situation might arise in which the United Nations might take action in Thailand similar to that taken in Korea.

Pibulsonggram asserted at a news conference that the Southeast Asian political and military situation seemed to have deteriorated the past three months.

He emphasized Thailand is willing to cooperate with any friendly nation in stamping out Red aggression, and hopes for similar cooperation here.

He said that under the existing agreement with the United States, more planes to build up the Thai air force and men to train three branches of Thailand's armed forces are expected shortly.

The Premier outlined five steps which the Thai government is taking to stamping out internal communism. These are:

To close all frontiers in an effort to prevent Communist infiltration.

To keep close surveillance on all Communists already in the country and their activities.

If known Reds are obviously engaging in activities threatening Thailand's peace, to prosecute them if sufficient concrete evidence exists.

To work for cooperation between the police, the military and population at large to stamp out communism.

To improve the living conditions and general welfare of the Thai people, thus removing any attraction communism might have.

Marines To Alter Enlistment Rules

This is the last month in which married men may enlist in the Marine Corps, according to T-Sgt. Welsey Ward, in charge of Marine recruiting in this area.

Men must not have more than one dependent, including a wife. All married men must enlist for a two-year period of duty. Single men may enlist for the same period this month, Ward said. Ordinarily, enlistments for single men are for three- or four-year periods.

Men applying for enlistment are sent to San Antonio by bus for physical and mental examinations. Those who pass are then flown to San Diego for 10 weeks of basic training. They are given a leave upon completion, then assigned to one of the Marine air wings, or duty aboard a Navy ship or with a ground unit.

Further information may be obtained in Room 17, Post Office, each Tuesday afternoon or all day Wednesday or Monday through Friday in Room 201, San Angelo Post Office.

Carrollton Store Swept By Flames

CARROLLTON, Tex. (U)—A $50,000 fire that swept through a supermarket and routed guests at a nearby hotel brought fire fighting equipment from Dallas and adjacent towns here yesterday afternoon.

Two men were slightly injured while fighting the fire in Perry's Supermarket, a combination grocery, food locker and slaughterhouse.

The fire raged in around the center of the building, which occupies about a quarter of the south side of the town square. The fire was confined to the Perry building, but about 20 guests at the Carrollton Hotel, three doors away, were driven from their rooms by smoke.

Baptists Renew Ties With Church In Russia

MOSCOW (U)—The World Baptist Alliance renewed its communion with Russia's half-million Baptists after a 20-year lapse yesterday.

Dr. F. Townley Lord of London, elected president of the alliance at Cleveland, Ohio, in 1950, told a jam-packed church in Moscow, "I bring you greetings from 20 million Baptists throughout the world."

Glamour Suggestions

Mara Corday, soon to be seen in Universal-International's "Three Cobs in Paris," talks with Lydia Lane about some of her favorite glamour tricks.

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

Glamor Means Paying Attention To Details

By LYDIA LANE
HOLLYWOOD — Mara Corday is the exception to the rule that Hollywood girls have to go to New York to be discovered by talent scouts, for this attractive newcomer received her contract with Universal-International right here in her home town.

"I always wanted to be in show business and at sixteen I was one of the Earl Carroll girls in his restaurant here," Mara told me on the "Three Cobs in Paris" set the other afternoon. "And when that closed I acted in little theatres and worked on TV but the interesting thing is that I got my contract from a photograph in a magazine. But it doesn't matter where your break comes from, if you are ready."

We chatted about what an advantage a girl living in Hollywood has to become familiar with glamour.

"It's a funny thing but most of the fellows say that they prefer girls without make-up," Mara remarked. "Still it happens that the ones who get the most attention are glamorous."

"What does glamour mean to you?" I asked.

"I think that cleanliness and taking care of little details is the most effective kind of glamour, plus a certain attitude."

I wanted to know more about these "little details."

"For example, glossy lips," she said. "There's nothing like it to give you that extra something. Some of the girls put vasoline on top of their lipstick but there is a special gloss made for this and I like it better."

"When you are out at night, put on more eye shadow. But study your face to be sure you're using the right color and putting it in the right place. The kind of shadow you use makes a difference too because some are too greasy and have a tendency to cake in the creases of your lid. Powdering down will help this but you have to put a little oil on your lid again to make it shine.

"But don't get carried away and use too much make-up," Mara cautioned. "If you do you destroy the very effect you are trying to create. But try to be individual. I have a little mole near my eye—just a perfect spot—but when I put on make-up it gets covered up so I make a mark with my eye pencil over it."

"What about an attitude of glamour?" I reminded Mara.

"It's something you have to work on," she explained. "You have to feel desirable to yourself so that when you walk into a room you have assurance. If you are naturally shy this is not easy but even though you are scared to death, never let it show."

Indoor Sports Have Lunch, Installation

Over fifty people were present for the luncheon and installation of district officers of the Indoor Sports Club Sunday at the Settles Hotel. The invocation was given by Frances Ferguson, of the Indoor Sports Club of Weatherford. This was followed by the Pledge to the Flag, repeated by the group.

Dr. P. D. O'Brien offered a prayer, and Judge R. H. Weaver gave an address of welcome. A memorial service was held, with a white flower placed in a wreath for each departed member, and Kenneth Briden sounded taps.

During the introduction of guests, talks were made by Shine Phillips, Mrs. Joe Roberts, Jimmie Greene, Stella Lauran of Tucson, second vice president of District 6 of Indoor Sports, Harry Gorodess, of Tucson, treasurer of Good Sports, Mrs. Homer Dodds of Tucson, National vice president of Indoor Sports, Inc., and Mr. Dodds, who is International president of Good Sports. A gift was presented to Mr. Dodds in appreciation of his work.

The district president, Mary Spence of Amarillo, was mistress of ceremonies, and she was assisted by James Horton, outgoing president of the local chapter. For the installation service, using a rainbow theme, candles were used to represent the colors of the rainbow. Mrs. Dodds was in charge of this service and she was assisted by her husband.

Officers were in front of a large rainbow on a placard, and as the duties of each were enumerated, Mr. Dodds lighted a candle for that person. The following officers were installed: Mary Spence, president; Travis Edwards, 1st vice president; George Choate, 2nd vice president; Willa Mae McCandless, recording and corresponding secretary; Marvin Wells, treasurer and James Horton, executive secretary.

Directors installed included Hope White, Claudia Arrick, Bob Drake, Clinton Elliott, Evelyn Handorf and Milburn Mitchell. Delegates to the national convention are James Horton and Miss McCandless. Miss Spence is a candidate for the post of vice president and Mr. Horton is a candidate for director. The next convention date for this district was set for the first week in June, 1955, in Weatherford.

At the district convention this weekend, a chapter of Good Sports was organized with the following officers: Mrs. James Horton, president; George Mclear, vice president; Mrs. Armour Long, secretary; Joe Roberts, treasurer. Directors are Mrs. Joe Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hill.

Mary Margaret McBRIDE SAYS

The nicest thing that ever happened to me was having a rose named for me 13 years ago this very month. Since then the Mary Margaret McBride rose has come in first in the great rose derby, the All-America, has been planted in thousands of gardens the world over and I've gotten used to finding it mentioned in everything from horticultural magazines to the latest who-dunnits.

I often receive delighted letters like the one from Margery Abell of Escondido, Calif., this week. Says Miss Abell, "Because I read you, it was a double pleasure to win first prize at our flower show with the rose named in your honor. Every bud was a perfect specimen!"

Equally pleasant was the note from publisher Dale Warren of no less a place than Boston promising, "Little by little I am weeding out all the much touted roses named for kings and presidents and filling their places with Mary Margaret McBrides."

If I sound braggish, it's no more than that I am whistling to keep up my courage, for in any one week I am also likely to be embarrassed by reading that I am a heavy feeder or a sparse bloomer and in just ordinary conversation gardening friends remark without apology that I am full of lice or afflicted with black spot.

While there's a kind of immortality to being a rose, there is also a fearful responsibility. When Charles Perkins named the flower for me he explained that they never change a rose's name. If I should commit a crime, he said, the Mary Margaret McBride would still exist—but nobody would want her in his garden and I should be destined to bloom alone and ignored in the hybridizer's field.

When you reflect that it took nine years of actual cultivation to make Mary Margaret McBride and no telling how long to study the background and characteristics of possible parents you can see how tragic it would be if I failed to live up to my namesake. And plant researcher Gene Boerner estimates that out of 10,000 seedlings into which all this effort has been put, the average is three new roses worthy of national introduction.

Though I've tried, I can't find out the secret patent names of my parents (I had a wild dream that they might have been Mrs. Marie Curie and President Hoover). I have been told, however, that there's a wild rose on my genealogical chart (this is usual with hybrid teas) and I do know that if I hadn't been vigorous enough to stand up under life in 100 test stations throughout the United States, I wouldn't be a rose today—just a forgotten number 34-14168.

P. S. I'm pink with a glowing, golden heart!

Of Bermuda, Handbags, And Linnets

It's funny how inconsistent Bermuda grass is! I have been trying to get some started in my drying yard, and I pamper and water it and try to keep it as free from weeds as possible. And what does it do? It just sits there. Outside the fence, the grass is growing like crazy, with no help from me, down over the curb and out into the street where the recent rains have brought sand deposits.

Salmon Souffle

"Salmon Souffle" is an ideal method of preparing this appetizing, nutritious and economical food.

SALMON SOUFFLE

1-pound can salmon
2 tablespoons butter or other fat
3 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup liquid (liquid from canned salmon plus milk to make volume)
3 eggs, separated
Dash pepper
Dash nutmeg
Drain and flake salmon, saving liquid. Melt butter; blend in flour and seasonings. Add liquid gradually, and cook until thick and smooth, stirring constantly. Stir a little of the hot sauce into beaten yolks, and add to sauce, stirring constantly. Add salmon. Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry. Fold gently into salmon mixture. Pour into well-greased casserole, and bake in a moderate oven, 350 degrees F., for 45 minutes. Serve immediately, plain or with a sauce. Serves 6.

Ham Cornbread

Leftover ham cut into cubes finds tasty use with cornbread. Heat the ham cubes in a cream sauce, then serve over split hot cornbread squares.

the time I'd be stopped by a cop. Things I like: A little linnet that sits in a tree nearby and sings while I work on that Bermuda grass—I have a sneaking idea that he is jingling to his mate, but I eavesdrop just the same; the sunsets out in this part of the country; watermelon; the clean smell in the air after a quick rain; giving book reviews; mowing the lawn and writing accounts of weddings.

I believe the biggest nuisance that women have to contend with in dressing is this business of changing purses to match or contrast with each costume. And it seems that the one you need at the present time is never the one you used last. No, things don't happen that way. You have to get busy and change everything to another bag.

It's nice in the summer to have a natural straw bag that will go with nearly all the colors, but even then, there are times when a change has to be made. For the sake of secrecy, I won't enumerate all the things that have to be transferred from one to another, but I live in dread that I will omit my driver's license—and that would be

CANDIDATES TOUR STATE

Battle On Democratic Meet Delegates Continues Today

By ROBERT E. FORD Associated Press Staff While candidates for major Texas offices cruised the state Monday afternoon for votes, a battle over Democratic party delegates raged on.

It was the old familiar battle: Shivers supporters vs. National Democratic Executive Committee supporters.

Here were the major political developments Monday. 1. Gov. Allan Shivers Monday night was to formally open his campaign for re-election while two of his most active opponents, Ralph Yarborough and J. J. Holmes, toured the state.

2. Byron Skelton, on whom the National Democratic Executive Committee leans for Texas leadership, said the Texas Democratic Executive Committee, in determining convention delegate strength, has pulled "one of the biggest political double-crosses in Texas history."

3. Yarborough asked the Texas committee to allow filing for the vacancy on the Texas Supreme Court to extend through June 25. The vacancy was created by the death of Associate Justice Graham B. Smedley.

4. Rep. George Hinson, candidate for lieutenant governor, accused Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey of trying to "whitewash the insurance racket."

5. Sen. Albert Gore (D-Tenn.), speaking before approximately 500 Rio Grande Valley Democrats, blasted the Republicans, called the McCarthy-Army hearings a disgrace and said the GOP had "sought tax relief for the rich at the expense of the poor."

Skelton, Temple attorney, objected strongly to the Texas Democratic Executive Committee's decision to count both the Democratic and Republican votes cast in the last general election for Shivers, who was cross-elected on both tickets, as a basis for determining delegate strength in county and state conventions.

Skelton declared the decision would keep control of the party machinery in the big cities, where Republican strength is greatest.

He called the decision a "double cross" and "strictly illegal." He cited Dallas County, where, he said, if both parties' 1952 votes for Shivers are counted, the delegate strength would be increased from 282 to 567.

"If they (the committee) could succeed in this plan... they would disfranchise farmers, ranchers, the small towns and counties..." Skelton said.

Shivers will make his formal opening speech for re-election Monday night at Lufkin and then go campaigning in West Texas Tuesday, Thursday and Friday.

SURVEY SHOWS PAPA DOESN'T RATE LIKE MA

Dear old Dad may be taking a back seat to Mom when it comes time to honor him on his "day."

Local telegraph offices reported that only 10 per cent as many Father's Day communications were sent yesterday as on Mother's Day, May 11.

Telephone calls were nearly 200 less than on Mother's Day and about the same number as last year.

This year's Mother's Day purchases were upped 8 per cent over last year, but Father's Day purchases were about the same, a local department store reported.

But Dad shined in a local men's store, for his sales totals were 20 per cent higher than the same week last year.

Two Big Spring men became fathers yesterday, one for the first time. Sons were born to Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Winn and Mr. and Mrs. Don B. Cooper. The Winn's child, their first, was the day's earliest, being born at 2:10 a.m.

Schine Case Meet Delayed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Mundt (R-S.D.) said today senators could spend the next 20 years investigating the McCarthy-Army row, and still not get all the facts.

But he told reporters he believes the 36-day televised public hearings at which he presided "brought out the salient facts."

Mundt made the statement as he announced postponement of what he termed "consultative talks" to explore the possibility of agreement among the four Republicans and three Democrats who conducted the hearings.

Floods Hit More Areas In Iowa; Death Reported

DES MOINES (AP)—Floods hit more areas in Iowa today. Ragging waters claimed one life and caused hundreds of fresh evacuations.

A flash flood in this capital city drove scores of families from their homes and closed U.S. Route 4 through Des Moines during the night. It was reopened today.

The torrential rains in Iowa and northeastern Nebraska were part of a belt of thunderstorms running eastward through northern Illinois, southern Wisconsin and lower Michigan.

Walthill and Winnebago, Neb., small towns south of Sioux City, Iowa, were flooded. Flood water in Nebraska blocked highways 275 near Norfolk and 35 at Winside and was threatening the town of Pender. Two tornadoes were sighted in Nebraska but no damage was reported.

The storms brought only limited relief from the stagnant, sultry heat that in Chicago, on this first day of summer, approached a record 11 straight days of 90 degrees or higher. Similar readings or higher were the rule yesterday from the storm area southward to the Gulf, and were expected again today.

The western Dakotas, eastern Wyoming and northwest Nebraska were a bit cooler, but to the west and south it was even hotter. Sunday readings of 110 were common in the desert Southwest, and Yuma Ariz., had 115.

Most of northern Iowa was polka-dotted with small lakes created by torrential rains. Crop experts said damage would run into millions. Highway and rail traffic were interrupted at many points.

GUATEMALA

(Continued From Page 1) toward the Pan-American Highway was aimed at Jutiapa, a town of 5,000, some 45 miles south of Guatemala City. It lies 20 miles north of the El Salvador border.

Other rebel units also were reported heading toward Asuncion Mita, a town of 2,000, 13 miles northeast of Jutiapa.

Rebel headquarters inside Guatemala, the spokesman said, small towns, such as Retalhuleu and Escuintela, towns north and west of Guatemala City, nearer the Mexican border.

Rebel headquarters claimed government soldiers "are deserting to our side" and declared the Arbenz government had no confidence in its army. Spokesmen gave no estimate on the number of deserters, however.

A spokesman said the rebel force consisted of 5,000 men, all Guatemalans.

The Arbenz government has charged Castillo Armas received aid from Nicaragua. It also has asserted the rebel force is composed of adventurers from other Central American nations, in addition to Guatemalan exiles.

The Guatemalan fighting has sparked some anti-U.S. demonstrations in other Latin-American nations.

In Havana, police reported a group of Cuban Communists attacked the office of the United Press, throwing stones and other objects at the news agency quarters. Windows were broken but no one was injured. Police said they made some arrests.

Chilean students shouting pro-Guatemalan slogans burned the U.S. flag in downtown Santiago Saturday night. The demonstrators represented seven political parties, ranging from left-wing Socialists to conservative Social Christians.

In Buenos Aires, the pro-government newspaper Critica said Guatemala is "surrounded by enemies" giving help to "ousted Guatemalan revolutionaries." In the first Argentine newspaper comment on the uprising, Critica said the Guatemalan government "clashed with the powerful interests of the United Fruit Co. and its subsidiaries" while fighting for national sovereignty.

Man Is Quizzed In Alabama Death PHENIX CITY, Ala. (AP)—Officers announced today that another man was picked up yesterday and is being held for questioning in the A. L. Patterson murder investigation.

Sheriff Ralph Mathews of Russell county withheld the man's name.

The sheriff declined for the time being to give any information, explaining it might hinder his investigation. Nine or 10 have been questioned since the anti-vice crusading Democratic nominee for Alabama attorney general was shot to death in his parked car in downtown Phenix City Friday night.

Meanwhile, a former FBI agent was assigned to help with the investigation while grieving relatives prepared for Patterson's funeral.

Fire Extinguished Firemen early this morning extinguished a blaze under a coffee urn at Everybody's Drive Inn on West Highway 80. The fire did little damage and was confined to the coffee urn area.

Lubbock Firm Low On Laundry Bidding

Plains Laundry of Lubbock is the apparent low bidder on laundry service for Webb AFB hospital for the next year.

The laundry submitted a low figure of $13,000 covering the period July 1, 1954-June 30, 1955 for laundry of bags, bathrobes, blankets, caps, wash cloths, pajamas, operating and ward clinic coats, mattress covers, surgical drapes, operating gowns, surgical masks, operating pants, pillow cases, sheets, canvas shoes, towels, wrappers, baby shirts, diapers, bands, receiving blankets, cook's apparel, butcher's frock, table cloths, napkins, nurses' uniforms.

Acting Judge Fines 8 In Light Session Attorney George Thomas, who is acting city judge this week, had a light court session during his first day on the bench. He fined eight people a total of $77.50.

Traffic fines were $5 for driving on the wrong side of the street, $5 for parking in a prohibited zone, $5 for parking on the sidewalk, and $5 for following another car too closely. All those charged pleaded guilty.

Two men arrested Saturday night after an affray in a Northwest Big Spring establishment were fined $20 each. The fines were $10 each for drunkenness and $10 each for affray. Another man who pleaded guilty to drunkenness charges was fined $12.50.

Only one person pleaded not guilty in court, and he was found guilty in trial. He was fined $5 for creating excessive noise Saturday night.

Two Homes Entered, Clothing Is Stolen Two pair of blue jeans and three new nylon shirts were reported stolen sometime Saturday night by Gene Letty. The articles were taken from Letty's home at 207 Runkle, he stated.

Another home burglary was reported at 825 Settles sometime Sunday night. Officers said entry was made to the house through a window. Nothing could be found missing by the occupant, a Mrs. Beckwith.

Suspected Of Theft Police arrested a man in the 300 block of North Gray early Sunday afternoon for investigation of theft. The man had some yard tools in his possession, and officers believe they were stolen.

SMOKERS

(Continued From Page 1) were twice as high among pack-a-day smokers aged 50 to 64 as compared with nonsmokers. Among men 65 to 69 years old, there was not much difference.

Fewer men, percentage-wise, in the 65 to 69 age group had been inveterate cigarette smokers as against those 50 to 64, the report said. And perhaps more of the heavy smokers had already succumbed to heart attacks or other ailments before reaching the 65 to 69 year span, it added.

Altogether, 844 of the men have died of cancer, including 167 with lung cancer.

Figures on lung cancer are preliminary yet, said the report, but they indicate lung cancer deaths are at least three times more common among men who smoke cigarettes as among nonsmokers, and may be nine times as high.

For men who smoke a pack-a-day or better, lung cancer deaths are at least five times more common, and may be 16 times as great.

Aids from lung cancer, regular cigarette smokers still show more deaths from other types of cancer than nonsmokers.

For men smoking a pack-a-day, the general death rate from all causes was 75 per cent above that of nonsmokers. For men smoking cigarettes along, the death rate was 83 per cent higher counting all causes, but 82 per cent higher for heart attacks and 106 per cent higher for cancers.

Dr. Hammond and Dr. Horn said "it seems probable that nicotine is at least partially responsible for the findings" about increased risk of heart attacks. "Other than this, we would not hazard a guess at the present time."

They said no single bit of evidence alone proves the theory that smoking is a cause of death, but that many different bits of evidence support the idea.

Among other evidence they cited: An increase of 456 per cent in cigarette consumption since 1930. An increase in death rates from heart disease and cancer while the overall death rate for the white population has declined in the last two decades. Evidence that cigarette smoking correlates with cancer, links up with death and blood pressure. That in New York during World War II when cigarette smoking declined, deaths from heart disease also declined.

Police Checking Death Of Young Heir In Chicago

CHICAGO (AP)—Authorities today intensified their investigation of the mysterious death of the 20-year-old heir to a million dollars after being told the young man revised his will recently to make his fiancée principal beneficiary and had expressed doubt he would live to come into his own inheritance.

Montgomery Ward Thorne was found dead in his studio apartment Saturday, Coroner Walter E. McCarron said there were four needle marks on his arms but no evidence he was a user of narcotics. The coroner ordered an analysis of vital organs. He said he also has sent investigators to Birmingham, Mich., to interview the 25-year-old daughter of a prominent Birmingham family. He said the girl, an art student, occupied an apartment adjoining Thorne's unit Friday, McCarron did not name her.

Jay Stough, who said he had been young Thorne's lawyer for some time, told Detective Capt. Harry Penzin that Thorne less than 10 days ago changed his will to make Miss Maureen Ragen, 18, chief beneficiary and executor. Penzin quoted Stough as saying Thorne, grandson of a former president of Montgomery Ward & Co. "was afraid he would never live to collect his inheritance. He asked me to assure that there would be a very thorough investigation... if he died."

Stough said Thorne would have begun receiving $1,000 a month income from the estate of his father, Gordon C. Thorne, after his 21st birthday in October. The father will provide the income would jump to $3,000 a month at age 30 and the son would be allotted the principal of his inheritance—estimated at a million dollars—at age 35, the lawyer said.

Miss Ragen, to whom young Thorne's new will left half of his estate, is the granddaughter of the late James M. Ragen, racing news service publisher who was shot down by gang assassins in 1946. The new will directs the remainder of young Thorne's estate be divided among relatives, including one eighth to his mother, Mrs. Marion Thorne.

Mrs. Thorne, fourth wife of Gordon C. Thorne, whom he married in 1929 after she, a nurse, cared for him through an illness, was sole beneficiary under the son's original will, Stough said. That will, the lawyer said, was drawn soon after the boy's 18th birthday. Young Thorne, a freshman at Fordham University, and Miss Ragen had been planning to be married in December, Stough said.

Would Expand Line WASHINGTON (AP)—The Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Co. has asked the Power Commission for permission to start proposed expansion of its Texas-to-Michigan natural gas pipeline. The expansion would cost $60,750,000 for some 204 miles to be added at intervals along the transmission system.

Knowland Confident Senate To Beat Down Tariff Move

By EDWIN S. HAAKINSON WASHINGTON (AP)—Republican Leader Knowland of California said today he is confident the Senate will beat down Democratic efforts to revise the administration's reciprocal trade and tax revision bills.

"I may be unduly optimistic," he said in an interview. Knowland and other Republican congressional leaders planned the usual Monday conference with President Eisenhower to map immediate steps in the legislative program.

They are aiming at adjournment by July 21 while conceding there will have to be a speedup to meet that target. Neither the Senate nor the House planned any business today. Both arranged brief sessions to pay

Sen. Potter Set Washington Astir With Blast On Hearings

By JOHN CHADWICK
WASHINGTON (U)—Charles Edward Potter, 37-year-old Republican senator from Michigan, has two canes he sometimes calls his "whistle sticks."
The canes, made of a transparent plastic and rigged up with batteries and bulbs, light up when he presses a button. Potter, a legless World War II veteran, jokes about them being handy for flagging down taxis.
But the senator needed no "whistle sticks" to catch the eye when he set off a thunderbolt at the end of the tumultuous hearings into the charges exchanged by Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) and Secretary of the Army Stevens and their aides.
Potter let loose with a statement saying he was convinced the testimony bore out "the principal accusation of each side."
What's more, he said, the testimony was "saturated" with untruths and, if put before a grand jury, he believed "a criminal case against some of the principals might be developed."
He said he would propose the dismissal of those employees who have played top roles on both sides.
How did he happen to make his statement—an unexpected climax to 36 days of hearings in which, as a member of the Senate Investigations subcommittee, he had voted with his Republican colleagues on all the disputes that arose?
The chain-smoking senator (four packs of cigarettes a day) said he had written it in his office the night before.
He said he didn't consult with anyone about it, that he just expressed the convictions that churned up within him after listening to the mass of testimony.
"I meant what I said," he said succinctly.
If the Michigan Republican should line up with Democrats on issues still to be settled, his vote could be decisive on the seven-member subcommittee.
Potter, elected to the Senate in 1952 and its third youngest member, is a man who makes light of his own physical handicaps but who is described by close associates as deeply sympathetic with others similarly disabled.
Some of his friends josh him at times about being "the mechanical man" because of the two artificial legs on which he gets around with the aid of his canes.

SEN. POTTER ... Sets Off Thunderbolt

Potter, who wears horned-rimmed glasses and has thinning black hair, accepts their jokes in good spirit.
He lost his legs in Europe at the end of January 1945. In the early morning darkness he was leading a patrol assigned to wipe out a German machine-gun nest. He leaped from the top of a dike and came down on a land mine left by the retreating Germans.
His chance came the year after he was discharged and had gone to work here as a vocational-rehabilitation adviser to the Labor Department.
On the death of the late Rep. Fred Bradley of Michigan's 11th District, Potter was urged by friends to run in a special election. He did, beating out seven other Republican candidates in the primary and then winning the election held Aug. 26, 1947.
He was re-elected to the House in the two succeeding Congresses and then, in his toughest political battle to date, he defeated incumbent Democratic Sen. Blair Moody, a Detroit newspaperman, for election to the Senate in 1952.Before the election Potter had helped to make himself better known in the state by holding hearings in Detroit as chairman of a House Un-American Activities subcommittee investigating Communist infiltration of labor unions.
Potter, the son of a Michigan potato grower, was born at Lapeer, Mich., Oct. 30, 1916. His mother was active in local politics and Potter says it was from her that he became interested in public life at an early age.
The family was hit hard by the depression, and Potter worked as a waiter, in canneries and sawmills and did other odd jobs while he attended high school and Michigan State Normal College, where he majored in sociology.
Without the money to go to law school, as he had hoped, he got a job in Cheboygan with the county social-aid bureau in 1938 and worked there until he went off to war. He married his wife, whom he met on a blind date, in 1939. They have no children.
Except for not driving a car, Potter says he leads a life about like anyone else despite the loss of his legs.
"You can adjust to anything if you'll really try," he says.

In Coma 6½ Years, Woman Still Lives

PASADENA, Calif. (U)—A doctor says it is a "medical miracle" that after 6½ years of unconsciousness Mrs. Ada Wrigley, widow of William Wrigley Jr., of baseball and chewing gum fame is still alive.
Mrs. Wrigley, who kept her age a secret but is believed to be 83 or 84, suffered a stroke at her mansion here Dec. 23, 1947. She has been in a coma since and is almost completely paralyzed.
Dr. William G. Hibbs, her Chicago physician, said: "It is the medical miracle of my life and, so far as I know, is along in the literature of medicine."

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to take this opportunity to express to each of you our deep appreciation for your prayers, the lovely flowers, food, and your kind words of sympathy during our time of sorrow. May God bless you.

He had enlisted in May 1942 as a private, leaving at home his wife the former Lorraine Eddy of Cheboygan, Mich. He later became an officer.
He was discharged from the Army as a major, in July, 1946. He had been awarded the Silver Star, the Bronze Star, the French Croix de Guerre with Silver Star, and the Purple Heart with two clusters.
While he was being fitted with a leg at the Army's Walter Reed Hospital here, he spent many hours in the galleries of the House and Senate watching Congress in action.
He says that ever since I was "that high" — holding his hand not far above the floor — he wanted to be a member of Congress.

A Way To Let Friend Know About Pictures

Dear Miss Brandon:
A couple of months ago my boy friend asked me for a picture. I told him I didn't have one and the matter was dropped.
Now I have had some made and would like to give him one. How do I bring the subject up? We still date just as much as when he asked.
Joyce
Have some of the proofs out in plain sight, like on the coffee table when he comes over. Make it look casual like you just neglected to put them away.
If he brings a picture very much he'll bring the subject up himself. You can comment as you come into the room, "Oh I forgot to put these away. I just had them made. Haven't had any late ones for quite a while, you know."
When he asks for one, tell him you'll be glad to have one made up. When you do, for goodness sake don't give him one the size of a Fire Prevention poster. A five by seven inch is plenty big. You can have it framed if you've got the money to spend and want to, but be sure to get a masculine frame.
Dear Miss Brandon:
What age should a boy be to wear a tie and hat?
Puzzled
Any boy who has reached his teens is plenty old enough to wear a tie, but a hat is for older men only.
Ties and coats are never sluffed and at certain times and in certain places going without them is as improper and out of place as riding horseback in a tuxedo would be.
Do remember this, fellows. Ties and coats always go to church, to dances, and to visit your girl friend. (Unless you're taking her swimming or on a weenie roast.) Sport clothes are for sports wear. Use them for the purposes I just named and you label yourself an ignoramus and a country bumpkin to masculine big wheels who are "in the know" as well as discerning girls of good taste.
(Do you have a dating or parent problem or perhaps a question on etiquette? Beverly Brandon will be happy to answer you personally if you write to her in care of The Herald, and of course everything you say will be held strictly confidential.)
