Back To The Farm
No aspect of the depression is much more interesting than the way in which out-of-work city people have been slipping back to the farm lately.

In nearly every part of the country there is going on a quiet but steady exodus from the city to the country. Abandoned farms are getting new tenants. Men who have tilled in factories for years are getting out on the open acres to try their hands at agriculture. Children used to cramped city streets are discovering that country fields can make fine playgrounds.

To be sure, the plight of agriculture is very little, if any better than that of industry. The farmer is having his troubles just as the city man is—has been having them, in fact for years. Prices paid for farm produce are down, and if the number of farmers is to increase they probably will go still lower. But the exodus continues; for when it gets right down to a struggle for the bare necessities of life, the man on a farm enjoys an enormous advantage over the city chap. The farmer may be plagued by mortgages, high taxes, overproduction and so on; but, unless he is a one-crop specialist, he doesn't starve to death. He may not have a dollar in the bank, or any immediate prospect of getting any, but he has food in his larder, and he knows where tomorrow's meal is coming from.

The factory hand—perhaps it would be better to say the ex-factory hand—seems to have been pondering over this fact. As a result he is heading for the country. A few acres along a dusty road look good to him, even though he knows that they'll never make him rich. They'll take him out of the headlines.

The danger in all of this is that many people utterly unskilled to farm life are apt to try to make farmers out of themselves. For such people—those who know nothing whatever about farms, and have no capital to get them started—the change is likely to be a leap from the frying pan into the fire. But for those who are willing to work, who know something about farming and who go into it with a full realization of the difficulties ahead, it ought to be an excellent move.

BEGIN HERE TODAY
MONA HOBAN, schoolteacher in a Wall Street law office, goes with her childhood sweetheart, STEVE SACCARRELLI, to a popular supper resort, the Halcyon Club. Mona lives on Third Avenue, supports her invalid father, mother, little sister, KATE, and her do-well brother, BUD.

Steve has been mysteriously absent from New York City for three years. Now he appears, well dressed and prosperous. With no thought of impropriety, he has ordered a gown and wrap sent to Mona which, after much indecision, she decides to wear.

At the office that day Mona has met BARRY TOWNSEND, rich and socially prominent, but refused to dine with him. However, she cannot dismiss Barry from her mind. Mona is pleased at the improvement in Steve's appearance and manner but does not think she is in love with him.

They find a table and Steve exclaims, "Look what here!"
NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER VII

Bud Moran slid through the door of Buck Harkins' private office at the Halcyon Club. He closed the door softly and leaned against it as he gazed quickly over the room.

Buck, wearing full evening dress, bent over a cigarette-soaked desk, his round face peering beneath the hanging electric light. The green shade bathed him in a sickly hue. He looked up inquiringly when applied himself to his task again in silence.

"Well, kid," he said at length, "How's tricks?"

Buck's expert eye surveyed Bud for a brief instant, noting the boy's perturbation. "What's wrong, kid? Somebody take your stick of candy?"

Bud threw out his hands with a gesture of irritation. "I see my sister out front, Buck."

"Sister?" Buck Harkins' voice dropped to a purr. "Well, lots of folks' sisters out front tonight, kid. We're doing a fine business here. What's wrong with that, kid?"

Amin Bud made the gesture of fury.

The older man motioned him to a chair and with a sudden slump of the body sat down. He drew a package of cigarettes from his pocket and whiffed one. Buck watched with amusement so young and so much so smart! But excellent material for the gang's purposes.

"She didn't tell you, did she?" Buck asked seriously as if this were the one calamity that could befall his gang. "Your sister told here first, didn't she? Well, what are you kicking about? Maybe she didn't even spot you."

"She saw me all right! But I had her door half open, see? I couldn't turn back!"

"No," responded Buck significantly. "You couldn't turn back! Not few days only to save 30% and tax on tires—Firestone—adv."

"Tell her the boss sent you down with a note for me," Buck continued briefly. "Take $20 home to your mother every Saturday. That'll fix her—makes you a steady guy, good to your family. You sleep there, eat there and stick around when we don't want you. Kid your sister a quarter from her today. Bud said, grinning.

"Fine! Pay her back Saturday. Make them think you are on the up and up. A boy's sister is a good friend if he gets in a jam. Family stuff. That goes down deep with a jury."

If Bud's eyebrows heightened, Buck went on coolly. "Don't let on that you see her tonight. If she

Rogers Hornsby Fired As Manager Of Chicago Cubs

Bill Grimm Succeeds Famous Player; Veeck Says Action 'For Good Of Club'

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—William L. Veeck, president of the Chicago Cubs, announced Tuesday Rogers Hornsby had resigned as manager of the club and has been released as a player, and that Charlie Grimm would be manager effective immediately.

"Veeck said that in a conference between Hornsby and himself it had been decided "it was to the best interest of the club" for Hornsby to retire at this time. Hornsby's salary will be paid him until the expiration of his contract December 31, 1932, Veeck said.

Beyond the fact Hornsby would leave tomorrow for St. Louis, Veeck said he had no knowledge of Hornsby's plans.

Hornsby confirmed the announcement that he had been released following a conference with Veeck. "We just thought the best interests of the club would be served by my retirement," Hornsby told the Associated Press.

"Mr. Veeck decided he wanted the move and it's perfectly all right with me," Hornsby said.

Hornsby became manager of the club during the last week of the 1930 season, replacing Joe McCarthy, now manager of the New York Yankees.

Fastest 800 Meters Of All Time Feature

British School Teacher Chalks Up 1:49.8; U. S. Leading

LOS ANGELES—Under another beamy sun, the world's greatest collection of track and field talent ran wild Tuesday in the Olympic championships in a record-battering jubilee featured by the 800-meter triumph of Tom Hampson, British school teacher, in the world record time of 1:49.8 and climaxed by four successive record paces in the 200-meter quarter-finals.

Eddie Tolan and Ralph Metcalfe, the twin American negro thunderbolts who ran one-two in the 100-meter final yesterday, came back with a rush to lower the 200-meter Olympic mark to 21.5 seconds. No sooner had a crowd of 45,000 finished cheering these stars, however, when Carlos Luti, Argentine, and Arthur Jonath of Germany, came along to wage the main fight in 21.4 seconds each, in the remaining heats, to finish the wreckage of an Olympic record that has stood since 1904.

Exports Win In 11 Innings

Houston Beats Dallas; Cats Licked By Galveston; Sports Take One

BEAUMONT (AP)—Beaumont had to travel 11 innings to beat Longview Tuesday afternoon in the last game of the series. Holley's triple scoring Collier from first to give the Exports an 8-7 victory.

Rows started for the Exports but blew sky high in the ninth, allowing the Cannibals to tally two runs and send the game into extra frames. Jelly Collier came to his rescue and received credit for the win. Byram, who succeeded White at the beginning of the fourth, had the Exports under control until the 11th.

Paul Easterling plastered out his 23rd homer of the season in the third with a man aboard.

Galvez's Cats 1

GALVESTON (AP)—Cromer took a pitching duel from Whitworth here Tuesday night, 3-1, to give the Buccaneers a clean sweep of the Fort Worth series and their sixth victory in eight games of the current home stay. Cromer did not allow a hit until the seventh inning and then two consecutive hits after two were down failed to produce a run. Beginning the eighth, however, Kott tripled and Warren singled to keep him from a shutout.

Sports 4, Indians 1

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Joe Jacsym subdued the San Antonio Indians here Tuesday night, one bad inning wrecking his shutout. The Sports won four to one to sweep the series of three games. Joe Vance was no puzzle allowing fourteen hits.

The game was played under protest due to a double by Cashion in the fourth that perpetuated what eventually became a three-run rally. Balls going into the score board are ruled two base hits but this one hit the board and bounced back into play. Cunningham was out at the plate trying to score from first, but the umpires sent him back to third safe, and the protest followed.

Art Shires Is Released

Colorful Texan As Usual Could Not Get Along With Boss BOSTON—With an unconditional release hanging over his head, Art Shires appeared today as a defendant in a case which was doctored to some more minor league experience. The Boston Braves' colorful first baseman, who was benched last Sunday, was fired by Manager Bill McKechnie Tuesday when he objected to the pilot's disposal plans. The manager intended to use Shires in a trade with an unnamed minor league club and the "Great One" voiced strenuous protests. McKechnie notified President Emil Fuchs on the road seeking another first baseman, of his action and was advised to hold off until Fuchs returns tomorrow. Shires has been handicapped by an injured left knee most of the season. Reports of friction between Shires and the Braves' management, always denied, have been circulating here several weeks.

SPORTS ON PARADE

By CURTIS BISHOP An interesting comparison is made by Grantland Rice concerning the comparative accomplishments of men and women athletes in the Olympic games. So far the masculine cinder artists have chartered only one mark, while their feminine teammates have broken three. Babe Didrikson shattered the javelin throw mark to make her reputation world-wide instead of national. The Pittsburgh Pirates, that team of rookies who have held the lead in National League almost all season, have dropped four straight and again the experts are smiling. Philadelphia Phillies is the club responsible for the feat, but the Chicago Cubs have dropped three games in as many days to the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Football fans in District 3 this year will have to suffer a 10 per cent amusement tax, an additional cause for grief to the public that pays and pays for the privilege of keeping grid-iron heroes on the front page and carrying on for their lady friends. And furthermore it is very doubtful if prices will be reduced any over last season's scale. A mistake in the story of the Snyder-Big Spring golf match Sunday detracts a bit from the ability of Doc Akins. He played No. 4 man instead of Hayden Griffith, as the story in the Herald ran, and won his match 3 up and 2 to play. Doc defeated Griffith in a challenge match 6 up and 5 to play a day or two before the Snyder contest.

Recently this writer read a statement of Smitty Smith of Brady that Blonny Cross of San Angelo was the greatest, wisest, and most truthful sports chronicler in West Texas. Feeling very good at the moment we commented that once we had drunk some of that stuff and that night had kicked the clock out doors and wound up the cat. Mr. Cross not only agrees with the writer but insists that we are still suffering from the effects. This department has made his last crack concerning Mr. Cross. For we know when we're licked.

And who should appear next on the list of attempted come-backs but Harry Wills the ebony batter that Jack Dempsey didn't want to meet, and who was softened up considerably by Jack Sharkey, the heavyweight champ, years ago. Wills is signed against Vinko Jankassa, who may or may not be an Irishman.

Enforcement -Not Repeal

The Supreme Court of the United States Has Ruled: That there is no inherent right in a citizen to sell intoxicating liquors. That prohibition takes away no personal rights and no property right of the citizen. That the Legislature cannot barter away the public health and the public morals for a few dollars.

That prohibition itself is a fundamental principal of government. "How are you going to control the method and manner of liquor sales after you once concede that the sale is legal? You couldn't put enough men in New York or Chicago to control how they'll sell it. Once you restore liquor to the avenue of legal trade, the Federal Government can't control it. How are you going to prevent the return of the saloon in the states? Be specific, give us a bill of particulars. There is nothing here but generalities, which can be construed into nothing. — Senator Borah.

Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging; and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise. — Proverbs 20:1. WILL ROGERS (May 1932) SAYS: "SANTA MONICA, Calif., May 22, 1932—The other day I wrote a little 'gag' about the main thing that handicapped repeal of the Prohibition was the wrong people are for it. I still claim its true. Prohibition is not a party issue. It's not a wet and dry issue. You will find it is COUNTRY AGAINST CITY. Your city's wet and the country is against it, more because it's the city dictating to them what to do. And if you don't think it's that way, you WAIT TILL YOU COUNT THE VOTES."

Again Henry Ford, America's foremost automobile manufacturer, supports prohibition with a ringing statement. "I give unreserved support to the 18th amendment," he said in a telegram to the Methodist Episcopal Church General Conference May 16, (1932) "and to the prohibition laws because they provide the degree of control over liquor which is necessary for national sobriety. As between a law which favors drinking and a law which favors sobriety, the American home, and church, and school, and workshop stand for the latter. "Prohibition is the best method that has yet been devised to give effect to the sober sentiment of the nation. We have always had excellent official cooperation in its enforcement."

Edgar E. Witt Is Taking No Part In State Race WACO (UP)—Lieut-Gov. Edgar Witt has advised managers of Gov. Ross Sterling's campaign he will not participate in the campaign for either of the two contestants. Witt before leaving for the American Legion convention at Corpus Christi wired Ernest Alexander manager of the Sterling campaign, saying he would not attend the rally for the governor at Fort Worth today. In part Witt's wire read: "My position is that as the Democratic nominee without opposition for the lieutenant-governor it is my duty to the whole electorate and to my further usefulness as lieutenant-governor to not take part in other candidacies." Mrs. Witt accompanied her husband to the legion convention.

Governor's Dates For Week Listed FORT WORTH (UP)—Speaking engagements for this week for Governor Ross S. Sterling in his campaign for re-election were announced by his campaign manager, Ernest Alexander. The governor will appear at Brownwood tomorrow night, Cleburne Wednesday night, Emma on Thursday night, and at Mexia and Georgetown probably Friday and Saturday, although the exact time for these two has not been set. Mrs. Sterling, wife of the governor, who is accompanying him on much of his campaign, was presented at today's rally here and declared herself ready for a strenuous campaign.

Galveston Man Shot To Death GALVESTON (UP)—Hans Guldmann, 50, well-known in cotton seed products circles, and long prominent in civic and port activities, was found shot to death in the bathroom of his residence Monday. 75 SCIENTIFIC TESTS PROVE OLD GOLD THE COOLEST, THROAT-EASIEST CIGARETTE

Next time you listen to an argument as to which is the best cigarette, you can chip in with something more than an opinion. You won't have to say: "I think the tobacco in OLD GOLD is purer and finer." Instead, you can say: "I KNOW OLD GOLD is better; it's made of finest natural flavored tobacco. Science has proved it!" As surely as Science can assay pure gold, so it can tell which cigarette is basically the choicest. It did that with 4 leading brands. It made 75 tests of 4 competing cigarettes... and found the smoke of an OLD GOLD definitely cooler... indicating its superior tobacco quality and purity. "Coolness" is the clue to cigarette quality. Only the finest and purest tobacco burns "cool." That's the tobacco in OLD GOLDS. The choicest Turkish and domestic leaf; free of heat-making flavorings. Evidence, not adjectives. If you welcome this change in a cigarette advertisement... you'll welcome a change to pure-tobacco OLD GOLD. NOT A COUGH IN A CARLOAD

The Verdict of Science This is to certify that in 75 repeated cool tests made of the 4 leading cigarette brands... measuring the heat content of each cigarette in B. T. U./lb. with the Oxygen Bomb Calorimeter, it was shown that: Old Gold averages 112 B. T. U's. Cooler than Brand X Old Gold averages 155 B. T. U's. Cooler than Brand Y Old Gold averages 156 B. T. U's. Cooler than Brand Z. Tests of the heat of the smoke showed Old Gold smoke definitely cooler than the other brands. (Signed) NEW YORK TESTING LABORATORIES G. Briston Jack, Jr., Director NOTE: These tests were checked and verified by the scientists of two leading Universities. Their signed reports will be sent on application to P. Lorillard Company, Inc., 115 West 66th Street, New York City.

OLD GOLDS ARE PURE TOBACCO • NO ARTIFICIAL FLAVORING
