Agreement On Local Rodeo Is Reached

Show Will Be Held Early In August; Two-Day Event

Big Spring definitely will have a rodeo this year. Chamber of commerce officials and directors of the Big Spring Cowboy Reunion and Rodeo association Tuesday afternoon reached an agreement whereby the show, which has been staged here for the past six years, will continue without interruption.

Dates were not fixed for the affair, but it will be staged early in August. Rodeo and chamber representatives agreed to streamline the program this season and to condense the event into two days. Competition will be wide open to amateurs and professionals alike.

Under a series of underwriters agreements, Big Spring businessmen have agreed to absorb any possible deficit up to $1,000. However, plans will be made to stage such a rapid-fire show that it is hoped that the annual event will be returned to the profitable basis it enjoyed for five years.

As in the past, it will be staged on the rodeo grounds in the eastern part of the city.

Previously, it had been doubtful that a show could be held since rodeo directors said they were unable to continue without assurance of outside financial help in event of deficits.

Expansion Bill Has Approval Of President

Plans Would Create Enough Ships For Both Oceans

WASHINGTON, June 19 (AP)—Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) said today the $4,000,000 naval expansion bill recommended by the house naval committee yesterday has President Roosevelt's approval.

"I am authorized to state," Vinson said, "that the bill we approved yesterday is in accordance with the financial program of the president."

Appearing before the rules committee, a short time later on the question of taking the bill to the house floor tomorrow, Vinson said the fleet expansion was designed to give the nation what would amount to a two-ocean navy.

"It will be equivalent to a fleet in the Atlantic and a fleet in the Pacific," he said. "It has that purpose and that accomplishment."

Vinson said that with the program already under way, the new expansion bill would provide for a total expenditure of $6,000,000,000 for naval vessels in the next seven years.

The measure would merely authorize the expansion. It would carry no funds although Admiral Harold R. Stark, chief of naval operations, who recommended the huge, seven-year program, said that if congress approved it he would ask at this session for $175,000,000 to start construction.

Other Items Okeyed The senate appropriations committee, meanwhile, approved another item of the president's defense program, the $1,777,489,788 emergency supply bill carrying funds for a great variety of armaments and munitions. As recommended by the senate committee the measure totaled $71,436,000 more than when passed by the house. This net increase resulted when the senate added $104,435,880 in actual cash but reduced the amount of contract authorizations approved by the house.

The question of compulsory national service for American youth—now being studied by President Roosevelt—soon may be put squarely up to congress, where a mixed reception was indicated.

The chief executive discussed universal training during his press conference yesterday, saying that he might communicate with congress on the subject within the next three or six weeks.

An administration lieutenant, Senator Byrnes (D-Sc.), followed up with the statement he understood the war department already had worked out plans for such a program.

Negotiators May Meet With General Franco In Madrid

By The Associated Press BORDEAUX, June 19—France met Germany's first request in her efforts for a "soldier's peace" today by naming a group of men who will receive from the reich's government its expected severe terms for an end of the fighting.

While the cabinet designated the plenipotentiaries Germany demanded as a prelude to peace negotiations, the scattered French armies continued resistance at some points.

In the main, the German advance continued to engulf French territory. The Spanish ambassador, Jose Felix Lequerica presented Adolf Hitler's reply to the French plea to Foreign Minister Paul Baudoin at 8 a. m. (1 a. m., C.S.T.) The waiting ministers were telephoned and the cabinet met within an hour.

The newspaper Figaro predicted that the French and German peace negotiators would meet in Madrid at the residence of Generalissimo Francisco Franco.

The names of the French plenipotentiaries were not announced. The government of the reich will make known the date and place where they will be received as soon as they are announced.

The German reply considered by the cabinet this morning demanded the naming of plenipotentiaries as a prelude to considering the French request for the ending of hostilities.

The text of the communique issued after the cabinet meeting follows: "The cabinet met this morning at 9 a. m. (2 a. m. C.S.T.) under the presidency of President Lebrun.

"The cabinet learned that a communique from the government of the reich had been transmitted by the ambassador of Spain in France. "According to the terms of this communication the government of the reich is ready to make known to the French government its conditions for the cessation of hostilities. "As soon as the names of the French plenipotentiaries are announced the government of the reich will make known the date and place where these plenipotentiaries will be received.

"The cabinet named these plenipotentiaries." (End communique.) The names, however, were not disclosed.

Meanwhile France acted to protect her cities and population from the southward advance of the German armies.

With the Germans now holding approximately the northern third of the country and gaining more almost hourly, the government declared all cities of more than 20,000 population "open." This is the military device that spared Paris a siege.

The government also ordered an evacuation of the population of the center, crossing the Loire river between Orleans and Nevers, and "continued to advance" down the eastern side of the country along the Swiss border.

In Alsace and Lorraine, in northeastern France, trapped French troops were said to be "holding the enemy."

Rain Revives Chances For County Crop Production

Plan Toward July 4 Fete

Determined that Big Spring as the manspring of West Texas should not let July 4th pass without a major celebration, chamber of commerce, civic club and other leaders Wednesday launched plans for a colorful holiday attraction.

The event, now in preliminary stages, will center around the formal dedication of the city park amphitheatre, a massive stone bowl which will seat 6,000 persons.

Efforts are being made to finance a gigantic fireworks display which would climax the dedication and which would be free to the public.

Under arrangements sketched at conferences Wednesday morning, the celebration would be led off by a dance at the Settles hotel the evening of July 3. Next day such things as a golf tournament, polo game and other entertainments were in prospect.

Rhineland Sector Bombed By RAF

LONDON, June 19 (AP)—Oil supply centers, railway marshaling yards, power stations and rail communications in many parts of northwest Germany and the Rhineland were attacked Tuesday night by Royal Air Force heavy bomber squadrons, the air ministry announced today.

Targets near Hamburg, Bremen, Frankfurt, Essen, Castrop, Sterk and Hanover were reported heavily bombed.

At Bremen more than 250 bombs were dropped within ten minutes, causing heavy explosions among oil tanks and starting numerous fires, the announcement said.

BACK TO GERMANY NEW YORK, June 19 (AP)—Alexander Kirk, charge d'affaires of the U. S. embassy in Berlin, will leave by clipper tomorrow to return to his post, accompanied by A. W. Horner, a member of his staff.

The two returned to this country about ten days ago.

Baseball Games, Barbecue And Dance On Juneteenth Program

Negroes from Big Spring and surrounding towns Wednesday prepared to brave showers and stage one of the biggest "June 'teenth" celebrations here in years.

At 1:30 p. m. a caravan of decorated cars and trucks carrying a cargo of gaily clad negroes paraded through the downtown section. The procession was led by the United States flag, accompanied by an armed color guard. Most of the cars and trucks carried Americanization placards and slogans. Baseball players brought up the rear of the unusual parade.

Whether showers which started falling at noon would interfere with a scheduled program and baseball game during the afternoon was questionable. Unless the down-

Fall Heaviest In Northeast Sector, City

Planting moisture fell over half of drought-stricken Howard county Tuesday afternoon and revived chances for crop production in many barren communities.

Heaviest downpours were reported in Big Spring and in the north-eastern part of the county. The U. S. department of commerce bureau at the airport measured only .06 inches of moisture Tuesday and a trace at noon Wednesday while the U. S. Experiment Farm gauge showed .46 inches Tuesday evening. In some areas of southeastern and southwestern Big Spring the fall was measured at more than an inch.

The shower broke southwestward toward Elbow, but missed the T.P. lake water shed and those of the Moss Creek and Powell Creek city lakes. In the city water overflowed damaged streets, and Johnson street presented the unusual sight of carrying the largest volume of water, indicating the spottedness of the rain.

North of Big Spring and east of the Gail road beneficial showers were reported. Around Center Point the fall was more than an inch. Sprinkles fell at Vealmoot but to the east the amount was substantially higher and ranged up to two inches in spots. Virtually all of the northeastern quarter of the county was believed to have had enough or almost enough rain on which to plant.

Spotted but helpful showers were reported in the Hartwells community but generally the territory to the north and west of Big Spring was not helped greatly. Southwest the fall was alternately light and heavy.

Downpours were general over an area surrounding San Angelo. Other rains as reported to the Dallas weather bureau up to 8 a. m. included: Brady, .98 inch; Austin, 1.13 inches; Dallas, .24; Houston, 2.06; Laredo, .30, to which rains later today were added; Palestine, .39; Ballinger, 1.10; Bronson, .76; Brownwood, .30; Carrizo Springs, 1.50; Dilley, 2.72; Eastland, 2 inches; Lampasas, .80; Temple, 1.62; Uvalde, .62.

Conspiracy Trial In Hands Of Jury

NEW YORK, June 19 (AP)—After an 11-week trial, the case of 14 men charged with complicity in a conspiracy to overthrow the U. S. government went to the jury in Brooklyn federal court today.

The 14 were in a group of 17 arrested in January and charged by J. Edgar Hoover, FBI chief, with being members of an undercover organization plotting to seize armament officials, and blow up strategic institutions and seize others.

One of the defendants killed himself and charges against two others were dismissed.

TO PORTUGAL

IRUN, Spain (On The French Border), June 19 (AP)—The three children of King Leopold of Belgium entered Spain last night by automobile en route to Portugal.

Former Belgian Premier, Paul Van Zeeland and other Belgium officials and diplomatic and consular officers of several nations also crossed the border from France.

U. S. Warns Axis Powers Of Violating Monroe Doctrine

ROME, June 19 — The United States government, citing the Monroe Doctrine, has warned Italy it will not tolerate German or Italian interference with French or British possessions in the western hemisphere, a reliable source said today.

Word of the warning came even as Virginia Gayda, answering "sentimental appeals" of American and Swiss newspapers for consideration for France, declared in Il Giornale d'Italia, that Italy can see "no reason to show pity for France in the present case."

Gayda, fascist editor of the paper, who frequently speaks for Premier Mussolini, indicated France would be required to yield some of her territory, and said that only a new European order "can restore national unities and distribute justly political power and overseas colonies."

French colonies in the western hemisphere are French Guiana, Martinique and Guadeloupe in the West Indies, and St. Pierre and Miquelon off Newfoundland.

Stationing of an Italian-German army of occupation on French soil was foreseen by some political circles as a probable condition of the terms which Premier Mussolini and Adolf Hitler decided yesterday France must accept to obtain peace.

No Slackening There was no hint, meanwhile, of any slackening of Italian military activity.

Preparations to protect the civilian population against the German and aerial warfare have been continuing along the far-flung Mediterranean outposts, where Italian, French and British possessions lie close together.

(From Cairo it was reported that a British raiding party had penetrated deeply into Libya, capturing an Italian general.)

Dispersal of a British armored column which attempted to penetrate Italian lines in East Africa allegedly under cover of the Italian flag was reported today by the Italian high command.

The communique said Italian planes sank an enemy submarine and continued attacks on allied air bases in East Africa, resulting in the burning of three planes.

The newspaper Il Popolo di Roma said Germany and Italy would demand the unconditional surrender of France.

Its Munich correspondent said a precise plan had been drawn up for division of French territory between German and Italian armies to prevent the French from aiding Britain any further.

German and Italian plans for an armistice, he said, likewise will require France to hand over all her gold, raw materials and factories for use in the fight against Britain.

An agreement settling "certain problems of war economy" between Germany and Italy was announced officially today but details were withheld.

have had fighting experience under modern conditions." The defenders it was said, are "certain in the knowledge that they are better men than the Germans when they meet them under equal terms."

Reports of Germans terms for France contained the worst of implications for the British—that Adolf Hitler would demand surrender of the French fleet which the British hoped to add to their own.

The German air force encountered stiff resistance from the embattled British last night—screens of searchlights and anti-aircraft fire and the swift-rising attacks of Attack On English Coast Overture To Offensive?

LONDON, June 19—Amid reports that Germany had decided in her total war or total capitulation as the price for peace for France, the British set themselves grimly today for the battle of England, which actually may be in its opening stages.

The British expeditionary force, it was announced today, has been withdrawn from France to bolster the defense of an island kingdom not invaded since 1066.

The overture, at least, of the battle of England may have been aerial bombardments which the German and British air forces have traded within the past 48 hours.

About 100 German planes slashed at British coastal airports in the night—retaliation for widespread attacks the night before on cities in western and northern Germany. Seven of the German raiders were shot down and when the assault was finished the British counted 12 civilian dead and 12 injured.

(A German report of allied raids in Germany said 18 persons were killed in attacks on "non-military" objectives.)

British forces were returning from France.

Whether these were included in Prime Minister Churchill's resumé of British strength was not known. Churchill said that soldiers under arms here number 1,250,000, not counting emergency defense organizations.

Military circles said that the withdrawn B.E.F. would devote itself now to "one tank"—home defense, battle-trained on the abandoned fields of France and still holding "large quantities" of guns and stores brought back with it.

"Never before," said a military commentator, "have so many troops been in England and never before have we had so many who interceptor planes. Damage, the British said, was slight and most of the casualties were in Cambridgeshire, where bombs plummeted into the streets.

About 40 raiders approached the East Anglian coast in relays at quarter-hour intervals, but one by one the waves were broken and the planes prevented from penetrating deep inland by "intense anti-aircraft fire and fighter hostility," as the air ministry put it.

Bombs were dropped at three points along the Thames, apparently to damage crowded shipping and industrial areas. The civilian dead included two infants and two young girls.

LATE BULLETINS

NEW YORK, June 19 (AP)—In a special broadcast picked up at the CBS short-wave listening station at 11:01 a. m. C.S.T. today the German high command announced: "Luneville and the fortress of Touh have been taken. The German flag was hoisted on Strasbourg cathedral."

LONDON, June 19 (AP)—The British government is studying the possibility of negotiating with Soviet Russia for purchase of tanks, guns, airplanes and other war weapons, Richard A. Butler, permanent undersecretary for foreign affairs, told the house of commons today.

MADRID, June 19 (AP)—Diplomatic circles here said today they had heard that France had accepted the German-Italian armistice terms, involving unconditional capitulation, the occupation of France until the war is over and surrender of the French fleet.

PHILADELPHIA, June 19 (AP)—Peter J. Grossmann, Netherlands' count, announced today that all male Netherlands in this country born between 1904 and 1920 (inclusive) had been ordered to report for military service.

Early To Bed-Early To Rise Might Be Theme Of Scenic Conference For Christian Young Folk

By NANCY PHILLIPS
Early to bed, early to rise . . . makes you healthy and wise . . . might well be the theme of the Big Spring scenic conference for young people of the Christian churches of West Texas. Rain or shine the day's routine begins at 6 o'clock in the morning and lights go out at 9:30 o'clock in the evening. That may seem early but it's not when the day has been crowded with classes, delicious meals, baseball, swimming, horseshoes, volleyball, group singing, and chapel. A well rounded day makes it easy to hit the hay early.

The conference began Sunday and the register shows sixty-five young people and fifteen faculty members representing an area from Pecos to Cisco and from San Angelo to Spur. This area is represented by Abilene, Brownwood, Stamford, Monahans, Mertzon, Lamesa, Brownville, Odessa, Midland, Fort Stockton, and Pecos. This conference is one of sixteen camps and conferences in Texas—five pioneer camps for intermediates, eight conferences for young people and 3 conferences for adults. The Rev. Homer W. Haislip, pastor of the First Christian church of Big Spring, is the local director aided by Charles M. Ross, state director

Mexican Banquet Is Given For Campers At Waldemar

HUNT, June 19 (Sp)—It happened in Camp Waldemar, but it looked like Monterey Saturday evening, June 15, in Cyprus Lodge, Big Spring, Colorado, and Odessa girls attended the Mexican banquet that anticipated a trip to the real Monterey in the future.

Mexican carts drawn by oxen, adobe houses, and tropical fruits centered the tables, and by each plate were Mexican flags and nut cups designed as sombreros. Churn strings bordered the orchestra, and long, twisted balloons in blue were suspended from the ceiling.

Chili, enchiladas, tortillas, and other Mexican dishes were served to campers who came attired in Mexican costumes.

After the dinner the girls attended a movie in the camp's amphitheater. Big Spring camp guests were Louise Bennett, Janet Robb, Beverly Stutting, Marijo Thurman, and Mrs. Ira Thurman, camp hostess. Joan Mills of Colorado, Adele Jo Bradley, Mary Ada Lea, and Sally Peery of Odessa were among the other guests.

IODINE MAKES HUMAN MOTHERHOOD EASIER

SEATTLE, June 19 (AP)—A discovery that iodine makes human motherhood easier was reported to the American Association for the Advancement of Science here today. Small quantities of iodine were given to expectant mothers at the University of Oregon medical school. Some remarkable results were reported by Doctors F. B. Zener, Milkamth M. Phatak and N. A. David.

The women reported a greater sense of well-being before 12 babies were born. There were fewer abnormalities of labor during birth. Afterward they were better able to nurse the babies. Finally they recovered more quickly.

Then, as if to make up for the peace, bedlam breaks loose at 3 o'clock when the conferenciers come whooping down the hill to the swimming pool. So far there have been no casualties—they all make it down the hill.

After the swim they come dripping back to camp for dinner and vespers, social life and games. The conference is divided into four groups which compete in baseball and other recreational activities.

Under a bright moon, the groups gather for the goodnight circle and then go to their respective cabins and to bed. Then, quietly, ever so quietly, the lights go out.

MISS LANCIOUS NOTES

By Mary Whaley

The only thing we know that will rival a little boy's pockets with regard to quantity and variety of articles is a woman's pocketbook.

The things they produce from a seemingly small space are remarkable.

To watch a woman open her purse you never know whether she will bring forth a comb, cigarette, toothbrush, or the evening paper and as far as we are concerned it is a fascinating thing to watch her produce every-thing but her lunch from a tricky colored piece of leather.

We have known some women who carried an extra pair of hose, a collapsible hat and a fresh pair of gloves in addition to just everyday things such as an infinite number of jars, tubes and boxes guaranteed to keep the blushing cheek blushing and the rosy lips still rosy after several hours application. Most women will include a fountain pen or pencil although they seldom use them and dog-eared letters from Aunt Susie that they intended answering right away.

They will pile in half a box of Kleenex, just in case of a cold, a snapshot or two of Junior at various ages and bills with "Please remit" in red at the bottom. Then of course there are the car keys and the door keys which are usually at the bottom of the purse when they are needed.

There is only one thing you can bet they won't have any of, especially if they run out of gas or meet an emergency, and that is money. Nothing else can be counted on NOT to be produced from the interior of most women's purses.

Two Dead In Suicide Pact

FORT WORTH, June 19 (AP)—Justice of the Peace Frank Hurley today termed the deaths of Mrs. Evelyn Ruth Inman of Sherman and Alton Dickens of Fort Worth a suicide pact on the basis of a note found at the time the bodies were discovered at a residence here.

Justice Hurley returned an inquest verdict finding Dickens shot Mrs. Inman, then died himself of poisoning.

The bodies of Dickens, 34, former a resident of Bella, and Mrs. Inman were discovered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Johnson last night.

Mrs. Johnson, Dickens' sister, said she recognized signatures on a note which said "I can't live without her and she can't live without me" to have been written by Dickens. The note was dated Monday.

Mrs. Johnson discovered the bodies when she returned from a vacation.

The body of Mrs. Inman, who was not married at the time of the shooting, was discovered in a bedroom and Dickens' body in another bedroom.

Hurley said that the note requested the bodies be buried together at Sherman.

Conquered Nations Meeting Economic Re-Adjustments

BERLIN, June 19 (AP)—A great part of Europe—eight formerly independent nations and now probably France—must find a place for itself in Germany's totalitarian economic and industrial scheme as a result of German expansion and war victories.

For the nations already absorbed, world trade has disappeared, and business is upside down as it tries to adjust itself to the German system of barter and planned economy.

In many of the lands through which the blitzkrieg has passed at least the outward appearance of normalcy is being restored in a surprisingly short time.

In Bohemia-Moravia, which got a pre-war taste of German economic management, fields are being plowed, factories are operating and people are working.

An effort is being made to make the same conditions prevail in Poland, where there is a demand for all the food that can be produced, although that country was severely hit by last autumn's war.

In Denmark, Norway, and to a lesser extent in Holland and Belgium, too, the rich is bending every nerve to keep the people working, the fields producing, the factories turning.

But terrific problems of readjustment remain to be worked out. Germany herself avoided any sudden increase in unemployment at the start of the war. War industry and the army absorbed workers whose jobs disappeared as the production of luxuries and unessential goods was curtailed.

Now war industry is so busy that thousands of workers have been imported from Bohemia-Moravia and Poland.

The reich's great need for every conceivable product gives a natural market for countries successively occupied by the German army.

The easiest adjustment probably is being made by Denmark, where no physical damage to industries or the countryside occurred to interfere with the normal processes of industry.

Denmark's biggest jolt was the sudden and total loss of the British market for bacon and dairy products.

Germany, to an increasing extent, is taking these supplies, but the problem of payment has not been completely worked out.

Denmark also was threatened with a shortage of feed, which she largely imported, for her cattle, but the Germans say they managed to supply enough until summer pasturage became available and now the problem is solved until next winter.

An adequate supply of corn and barley for Danish chickens was a more troublesome problem because these supplies must be obtained from the Balkans, and the long rail haul, when railroads are busy with war transportation, is a factor.

German intervention in domestic affairs has been more energetic in Norway where there was considerable property damage and unemployment as a result of the prostrating blow by the German army.

Under German direction, a Norwegian administrative council established a voluntary work service to rehabilitate the regions where fighting took place.

The volunteers received their keep and pay up to 15 cents a day. The council emphasized the need of increasing food production. Consequently loans were made available to land owners and soldiers were urged to turn to farming when demobilized. Considerable numbers of unemployed were set to work felling trees.

The Norwegian pulp industry seemed to face special difficulty because Germany does not need to import much paper but hope was held out that a process to convert pulp into food for animals might be feasible.

BRITISH TO GET 20 SUB CHASERS

WASHINGTON, June 19 (AP)—The navy disclosed today that it had cleared the way for the Electric Boat company of Groton, Conn., to sell to the British 20 high speed submarine chasers and motor torpedo boats originally ordered for the United States fleet.

The navy department changed its contract with the boat company, officials reported, to provide for a delay in delivery of 20 vessels ordered by the navy.

The manufacturing company thus will be able to sell that number of craft to the British.

Some members of the senate naval affairs committee, meanwhile, demanded an investigation of the navy's action.

At the White House Stephen Early, press secretary, said President Roosevelt had approved recommendations of the navy and treasury departments for the transaction inasmuch as torpedoes for the ships could not be ready before late fall.

WASHINGTON, June 19 (AP)—Approximately 100,000 radio operators were ordered today by the Federal Communications Commission to submit proof of their citizenship.

Previous commission orders forbade amateurs to communicate with foreign countries, sharply curtailed activities of mobile transmitters, and ordered ship and other operators not to carry on unnecessary conversations.

Today's decree applies to all operators, both amateur and commercial. It calls on them to file proof in the form of affidavits, fingerprints and photographs before August 15.

English Adopt New Tactics In Plans For Defense

LONDON, June 19 (AP)—England has adopted early American anti-Indian defense tactics with the erection of blockhouses over the countryside to combat an expected German invasion, it was disclosed today.

War Minister Anthony Eden, in a written answer to a question in the house of commons, said the following measures had "been noted":

1. Erection of blockhouses or elevated armored machine-gun posts in various parts of the country, especially flat areas;
2. Provision of rockets to spread the alarm of enemy parachute descents "with a view to possible interruption of telephonic and telegraphic communications";
3. Protection of buses and trucks with bullet-proof armor, arming them with Bren guns, and holding them at strategic points to guard against parachute landings, troop-carrying planes and speed-boats;
4. Supplying arms to railway signal posts, especially in isolated areas, and adequate steps for the protection of locomotive sheds.

Beautician Is Better Known For Fists

NEW ORLEANS, June 19 (AP)—The sign above the door says "Hortense Beauty Shoppe," and you'd scarcely expect to find a topnotch prizefighter inside gently clamping gadgets onto a girl's tresses.

Putting waves in ladies' hair and gentlemen's noses, however, are alike in the day's work to Jimmy Perrin, variously recognized as featherweight champion of the world and as No. 1 challenger for the title.

That's not all. Perrin—whose real name is James Lacava—started his public career as a fancy dancer. As a boy he appeared many times with June Preisler now of the movies, and her sister Cherry, who married Harry Hopkins, Jr., after a long career as a team with June.

Started As Filler— "My stepfather, Ernie Perrin was coach at the Elks club," he explains, "and once a kid didn't show up for a bout in one of his shows, I was the same weight, 72 pounds—so I filled in. I had never been in the ring before. But I won, so I kept on fighting."

He was 12 years old then. Jimmy had 95 fights as an amateur, and was on the 1932 Olympic team as an alternate in the 112-pound class.

As a professional he has fought 45 times, and his managers say he has lost only four fights. Only two featherweights—Henry Hooks and Frankie Covelli—have beaten him. And Jimmy later defeated both those boys.

Three times he quit boxing when the game here seemed dead and purses were small. Once he went on the WPA.

Then his present managers, Ernie Bruneau and Sam Weaver, took him over in 1936 and his climb has been steady. When the NBA took Joey Archibald's crown away and gave it to Pezzy Scalzo, it named Perrin No. 1 challenger.

Perrin, now 25 years old, is recognized as champion in Louisiana.

Lost Once In '30— Jimmy fought 13 times in 1930 and lost only once, to Leo Rodak, a lightweight. This year he has beaten Archibald, Al Reid and Bobby Ruffin in his only starts.

A master boxer who delights in humiliating an opponent by making him miss, Perrin believes his lessons in tap and fancy dancing have been a big help in footwork.

Jimmy said he just "naturally" took up beauty culture.

"My mother and my aunt were beauty operators," he explained. "I had always been around the shop, and I thought it would be a good way to spend my spare time."

He took a course in beauty culture in New York and another in New Orleans, and now operates a shop of his own. His wife, Hortense, runs the shop while he trains.

He says the boys around the gym don't kid him about it. You can scarcely blame them, under the circumstances.

Engraving of name began in the year 1169. Before that date they were in manuscript.

Buck Schulze Hurls 7-3 Win

Bucky Walters Loses Fourth Straight, 3-1

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

Joseph (Muscles) Medwick, the big batter and leg man who was supposed to bring the Brooklyn Dodgers a pennant, is lying in a hospital today and the question is whether he took the Dodgers' championship with him.

Medwick suffered a concussion of the brain yesterday when hit by one of Bob Bowman's pitches in the first inning of a game which the St. Louis Cardinals ultimately won 7-5 in eleven innings. He's expected to be out of the lineup about three weeks, after which he may return as good as new—or he may not.

Loss of a player as valuable as Medwick is nothing less than heart-breaking to a club in the heat of a pennant chase. It puts the Dodgers right back where they were before they spent that estimated $150,000 and four players for Medwick and Pitcher Curt Davis a week ago today.

Their defeat yesterday was the fourth straight. It was the sixth straight win for St. Louis.

Bucky Walters, who won nine games in a row at the start of the season, was beaten for the fourth time in a row last night as the Phillies pounced upon the Cincinnati Reds 3-1.

At the same time the third place New York Giants were getting a 6-1 going over by the Chicago Cubs.

The six-game winning streak of the Boston Red Sox finally was snapped at St. Louis in a motion picture finish that starred John Berardino. He came to bat in the tenth inning with the score tied and the bases loaded—and hit a home run for the Browns' 11-7 triumph.

Lefty Al Smith obtained his seventh victory against one defeat as the Cleveland Indians nosed out the Washington Senators 2-1 and moved into a tie with the Detroit Tigers for second place in the American League.

The New York Yankees were set back for the third straight time as the Chicago White Sox ended a five-game losing streak of their own, 5-3, behind the six-hit hurling of Southpaw Ed Smith.

Cats Repulsed In Twin Bill

By The Associated Press

The Texas league always has been known as "the pitcher's league."

Last night was a good example. In three games there were four, five and six-hit exhibitions.

Paul Eubank of Tulsa hurled a nine-hitter in beating Fort Worth 7-1 in the first game of a double header. Then in the afternoon Cliff Kuhn and Ash Hillis hooked up in a twinning duel with Kuhn allowing seven and Hillis six. Tulsa won 12-2.

The Houston Buffs rolled on at the head of the pack with a 4-2 cushion over second place San Antonio with Ted Wike setting the Missouri down with five blows.

Rain halted double headers at Dallas and Shreveport.

ZUBILLAGA AND BOLTON LEAD BAT ATTACK

BORGER, June 19 — The Big Spring Barons got behind Buck Schulze's stingy twirling with a 15-hit assault to score a 7-3 triumph over the Borger Gassers here Tuesday evening and protect their tie for fifth place in WT-NM league standings.

The Big Springers trailed until the eighth round when they routed Johnny Tysko from the mill. His successor, Ben Franklin, fared little better. Tysko absorbed the loss.

Abel Zubillaga paced the Barons offensive, collecting a double and three singles and driving in three runs. Stan Bolton had a home run. Every man in the lineup with the exception of Woody Lundberg collected at least one safety.

Schulze, in recording his second victory of the campaign, struck out nine men and lauded six walks. Of the 12 hits he gave up, two were triples. Ernie Potocar had three of the blows.

The two teams again set off tonight with Andy Mohrlock slated to do mound chores for the Barons.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By EDDIE BRIETS
NEW YORK, June 19 (AP)—Even Arthur Donovan's best friends can't see how they can let him work Louis-Godoy tomorrow night after that magazine story in which Donovan picked Louis to win.... Up to yesterday, Dodger hurriers had been nickered for an even 50 homers.

Jack Dempsey and Mike Jacobs are supposed to have buried the hatchet, but one paper reports the first conference Dempsey held in his new offices had to do with plans to bust the Jacobs boxing combine wide open.... Edwin Puck, pitching star at Iowa State college, ended the season with a stretch of 30 innings without a walk.

Mike Haalin of the San Diego (Coast League) club, drove a home last winter.... Paul Gregory of Seattle sold tombstones.... May combine their talents this fall.

ONE-MINUTE INTERVIEW
Joe McCarthy: "The owners of the Indians should have backed up Oscar Vitt with a new two-year contract.... Do you know what's wrong?.... The parents of the U. S. obey their children.... In that way we breed a race which does the sort of thing those Cleveland men did to Vitt."

Joe McCarthy is threatening to shake up the Yanks again and has been giving Tommy Henrich workouts at first.... Night games are family affairs out in Joplin, Mo. Special prices of 26 cents admits moon, pop and all the kids.

TODAY'S GUEST STAR
Billy Stepp, Portland Oregonian: "Snap out of it, Mr. Dempsey—Let Cowboy Luttrell beef and stew.... What if you should happen to run into a wild haymaker?.... Then the country from ocean to ocean, border to border and God Bless America would laugh out loud."

In early presidential elections no uniform method of choosing electors was followed. The legislatures frequently named them.

UMPIRES ARGUE, TOO—Player arguments with umpires are frequent but it's rare that a pair of arbiters are found tiffing. Bill McGowan and John Quinn (right) American league play-callers, had a brief verbal tussle the other day in Washington over a decision by Quinn. Zake Bonura, Senators' first sacker, seems to be enjoying the fuss.

Forced to cancel their game with the Midland Herefords because of rain Tuesday, Robert Moore's Brown Bombers prepared today to square off with the East Texas Jitters in a doubleheader at Barons park.

The two teams will also play Thursday night, 8:30 o'clock. Both Eburri Williams and Snooky Ringo were scheduled to see action on the hill today.

Moore has recruited a strong team for the three game test.

CONFIDENTIAL REPORT
ST. LOUIS, June 19 (AP) Police received what they said was a new high in tips on "fifth column" activities.

A woman telephoned to report she suspected her husband is connected with a spy ring for a foreign government.

Officials planned a playoff for the leading trio later in the week to determine the winner of the medalist prize.

Doing all he can to block transfer of the Big Spring WT-NM baseball league club to Odessa, protect local rights in the matter is Bob Cook, former president of the Barons.

Cook was not informed of Tony Rego's intentions to move until after Sunday afternoon's game with Lamesa, then wasted little time in contacting Milton E. Price, league president.

Following the Monday night game, Cook sent this wire to Price:

"HAD ONE THOUSAND AT THE BALL GAME HERE LAST NIGHT STOP OUR BALL FANS ARE NOT SATISFIED WITH THE CLUB TO MOVE STOP HOPE YOU WILL WAIT ABOUT THREE DAYS BEFORE YOU COMMIT THE MOVEMENT, OUR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AND ALL SERVICE CLUBS ARE NOT SATISFIED AND TONY (REGO) IS OBLIGATED TO MANY BUSINESS FIRMS ON THE SIGNS ON FENCE, SEASON TICKETS AND SUCH LIKE STOP WE DON'T LIKE TO GIVE UP WITHOUT A FIGHT. IT LOOKS LIKE WE ARE BEING BLITZKREIGED."

Many a local fan has approached Cook with offers to lend cooperation. The former executive revealed that he thought there was as much or more interest in the game as at any time in the past.

At any rate the fight to retain Big Spring's league rights is not yet lost.

There is every indication that the league season will be split around June 26, that only the club in first place at that time will be guaranteed a place in the September Shaughnessy playoff.

The plan to play through a full season was originally agreed upon but at least one of the units is already out of the running for a first division berth and what with Pampa and Amarillo dominating the field, other clubs are appealing for a new start to re-create interest at the gate.

Indications are now that the Lubbock Hubbers can make a serious bid for first place should the season be split. The champions are playing better ball than any team in the circuit at the present.

Don Schumacher Low At Tulsa

TULSA, Okla. June 19 (AP)—Sixty-four shotmakers who survived the qualifying grind in the 40th annual Trans-Mississippi golf tournament teed off in the first round of match play at Southern Hills today.

Tied for medalist honors were former champion Don Schumacher of Dallas, Tex., John Kraft of Denver, two-time Colorado champ, and Ben Sanders of Tulsa. Officials planned a playoff for the leading trio later in the week to determine the winner of the medalist prize.

Probe Report Of A Nazi Plot To Take Over Uruguay

MONTEVIDEO, June 19 (AP)—After an all-night secret study of a special committee's report on charges of a Nazi plot to occupy Uruguay, the chamber of deputies voted to reassemble June 24 to map a course of action.

The report declared that the existence of German motorcycle units composed of more than 150 persons each had been uncovered. The investigators also said, the German legation at Montevideo was directing Nazi propaganda in Uruguay and harboring under diplomatic immunity the chief of the Nazi units in the country, who was identified as Julio Daldorf.

Once again the advocates of compulsory, universal military training are in the saddle in this country, with public opinion more favorable to the idea than ever before.

Washington Daybook

WASHINGTON: The other day, I went to the Norwegian legation, where a tiny party gathered around Minister Wilhelm Munthe de Morgenstjerne and toasted the 25th anniversary of the independence of Norway.

There are times when I wish I could do a job-sister act and this is one of them. Never before have I sat up with the corpse of a nation.

Mr. Morgenstjerne spent minutes diagnosing the condition of his country as he saw it at the time.

Man About Manhattan

NEW YORK: If the peculiar talents of Dr. Henry Lee Smith, Jr., who joins the faculty of Brown University this fall, were solicited by the police they no doubt would be inestimable value in the detection of crime.

Dr. Smith, however, employs these talents for pleasure and for profit. His specialty concerns the fundamentals of public speaking and his special gift is this:

He can "place" you by listening to you read a few simple lines. By "placing" you he can tell you whether you come from Brooklyn or Des Moines, San Francisco or Dallas.

The Dr. says the principal classification of American speech are: New England, which divides into coastal and interior, South, which divides into tidewater, or general plantation, or southern hill, and Midwestern, which includes the phonetic bulk of American speech.

The Bronx and Brooklyn are only a few miles apart, yet there is a vast difference in the pronunciation of words.

So widely has his name spread that this 26-year-old native of Baltimore, Md., now conducts a weekly broadcast over a wide network. Guests who are total strangers to him are invited to read a few simple lines. After listening to them,

HOLLYWOOD: James Cagney is in training again. Daily, for a month, he has been working out with stunt man Charley Parry in preparation for his role in "City for Conquest."

Just to see Cagney in the ring, working up a genuine sweat and cutting down his waistline by inches, is a reminder by contrast of old movie ring days when "training" was a major amusement. The boys who play "Cagney roles" today are different from some of their silent screen predecessors, who really suffered when they drew a pugilistic past after a merry round of non-pugilistic pasties.

I remember the chaos at one of the lots in the old days when the slated hero of a boxing melodrama, told to "train," turned up missing. He was drunk not again, but yet. And the trainer, youths each year, we would have a potential army of 5,000,000 in five years. That is as large an army as it is practical to have, under any circumstances. It is, in fact, much too large unless it has modern equipment and the knowledge of how to use it effectively.

Our need is not to train all the young men for military service, but to take note of the qualifications of those who could serve better in the factories where warships, planes, artillery and tanks are made. There would be many who would be far more useful performing such work than they could possibly be in training camps.

time. There was, he insisted, no reason to give up all hope. There was not one word of truth, he insisted, about there having been a fifth column in Norway made up of Norwegians.

There was just the testing ground for the nazis' major offensive and they were doing all they could to keep their methods secret. Less than one-half of one per cent of the Norwegians were traitors. The fifth column, he maintained, actually was composed of German tourists, salesmen and business agents who had filtered into the country by the thousands, and because of Norway's neutrality could not be kept out.

TWO MONTHS—A RECORD

With tears in his voice, if not in his eyes, the soft-spoken, outwardly unemotional representative of the only small nation invaded by Germany which was able to cling to a bit of its soil for as long as two months, reiterated his faith that the nazis would lose their great offensive—maybe not soon, he said, but in the end.

He admitted he had received no word from King Haakon on the 25th anniversary of the day when Norway, by mutual consent, dissolved its long federation with Sweden and became an independent nation. He said he himself had sent no message to the two million persons of Norwegian descent who live in the United States. There would, he said, be a happier time for that.

he analyzes their speech and tells what section of the country they are from. On a recent evening he correctly placed a woman who had lived in New Orleans, and two people who had been childhood friends but who hadn't seen each other for years. They are from cities in the West just 60 miles apart.

To outward appearances the war hasn't had much effect on the New York theatre; there is, in fact, only one war play on Broadway. But underneath, in the unseen records of the box-office and in the piled up scenery in the warehouses, the effect has been tremendous. It boils down to this: the public is puzzled and troubled. It has neither the time nor the inclination to waste money on mediocre plays. A tipoff was the failure recently of George M. Cohan, who is a beloved figure and, more than that, a tradition on Broadway. In other years he only would have had to wave an American flag. This season his play, "The Return of the Vagabond," was gently and sympathetically ushered off the boards by a public that is too interested in newspaper headlines and radio commentators to bother with second-rate entertainment. Good plays receive the attention they merit. Bad ones are cut down, bluntly, by what can be described only as the sobered apathy of a public that is thinking of today and its realities, rather than the make-believe of the theatre.

Horseshoe, New York, has only one all-year round resident. He is Joe Heller, nephew of a famous New York fur house executive and owner of the Horseshoe Lake Ranch.

Hollywood Sights And Sounds

after the actor was located, had to keep an eye on the bottle as well as on the actor. That sort of stuff hasn't gone in this town for some years now. It never did with Jimmy Cagney. For one thing, he's not the partying type. For another, he couldn't be the type if he cared about it. The only picture Cagney ever had without at least one scrap was "A Midsummer Night's Dream." Usually, if it's a real Cagney picture, the hero gets embroiled two or three times.

"Takes at least a day to get through a fight scene, sometimes more," says Jimmy, removing his rubber "teeth" after sparring a few rounds with Parry. "You've got to keep in shape to take it."

The Cagney-Parry schedule is no power-puff routine. They're up at 7:30 for a wind-building jog of 5 to 6 miles. During the day there are six rounds of boxing and a couple of rounds of shadow-boxing, plus calisthenics. For six weeks before serious training began, they spent a vacation on Cagney's boat at an isolated cove on Catalina, swimming and fishing, climbing hills and sparring.

"City for Conquest" story of an East Side boy and a dancer (Ann Sheridan), is a four-year-old book by Aben Kandel. Cagney's brother Bill, the agent, finally talked the studio into buying it for Jimmy, and the book has been catching on belatedly. Frank Craven, Anthony Quinn and Blanche Yurka are among the players cast.

Miss Yurka, in her third film, has only a brief but important role as Sheridan's strident, voiced mother. If you saw "Queen of the Mob," you know how she can dominate a picture. If you mention this to Cagney, you'll get no reaction of the usual stellar sort.

"You hear a lot about actors stealing pictures," he'll say, "but I've never seen it deliberately tried. Actors are pretty grand people."

Texas produces two-fifths of all the petroleum produced in the United States.

More than half the counties of Texas, or 157 out of the state's 254, now produce oil or gas. In 100 more, oil or gas exploration is now under way making a total of 247 out of 254 counties with oil or gas activity.

Texas has more than 90,000 producing oil wells. Last year each well averaged less than 15 barrels a day.

High Tide

Chapter 25 'JEKYLL AND HYDE' Without speaking Lenore settled in the seat just vacated by Rose. His face hardened, darkened; his long fine hands showed white where the fingers gripped the steering wheel. He set the tram rolling toward the end of the line a few blocks ahead.

"Not to me," he toyed with the idea of telling her he'd lost all his money, but no, she could check on that too easily. "The girl I saw you with, then?" she asked, lightly. "She seemed rather a pretty little thing, the flash I had of her. But why all the elaborate mystery of going to China? Oh, yes, I have friends at Malibu, too. They thought it strange, to say the least, that you paid up rent for the entire summer, locked your house, locked your car in the garage, left a note on the door and adventured off without a word to anyone."

"I mean seriously? How would you like a million dollars cash?" She observed he was in earnest. What vagary was upon him? she wondered. "I don't know," she said. "Not really I have no comprehension of that much money. I don't think money makes people happy."

"Then I can think of nothing more fascinating than spending a hot Sunday afternoon riding beside you, my dear." A flush of angry annoyance crept up under his bronzed skin. Lenore was quite capable of making a scene, he knew. A quite dignified scene—still a scene. "You win," he admitted ungraciously. "I'll call for you a little after six."

Trailer Tintypes

How do I know? I wouldn't want it unless I earned it and that's impossible. I certainly have no rich relatives. And stop trying to get around your lecture, my fine friend. I'm all set to nag, hard, because you've not touched the piano. I want you to try, Derek. "You won't tell me what you're trying to do these days with your painting," he parried, achieving a comic expression of injury. "I've snooped into everything on the roof, but so far I haven't a clue, or is it a leg, to stand on. However, I've noticed a look of very smug self-satisfaction on you of late."

"I'll tell you as soon as—" she hesitated—"as soon as I'm finished." "Be secretive," he growled in mock anger. "You're the first woman I ever knew who could keep a secret!" But she wasn't, he remembered suddenly. Lenore had kept plenty of secrets, and kept them well, but not quite long enough. "Jobless Again" "Jan," he said meekly. "I'm out of a job again."

"What started this fight?" she moved her thick, taffy hair back of her ears and set her arms akimbo. "Nothing. I mean there was no fight. I, well, I just decided I was getting into a terrible rut and I'd like to take a crack at something else. I'll get another job right away, Jan. Now, wait a minute before you unleash your fury." He reached in his pocket and brought out all of his pay. "There's enough here to pay my board for three weeks," he said, handing her three five dollar bills. "I suppose it's none of my business what you do as long as you pay me," she said. "I am disappointed in you, though. I thought you liked this job. I oh, what's the use of scolding? While you're looking for something else you can just practice scales and arpeggios start playing again. Would it do any good if I stood over you with a baseball bat?"

Trailer Tintypes

They say she has an extra trailer just for the help—IMAGINE!

Would you go up and talk to Jim a while?" "Of course. Say, Jan, if you do me a favor? If any strange person comes here looking for me will you pretend you don't speak English? I've a hunch I might be traced here. If I'm found, I'll have to leave."

A week then two weeks, ran on to join in the first bright day of June and Derek went to the piano only twice for a brief while, doing little beyond running a few scales. He was out of the house a great deal of the time and Jan wondered where he went the times he put on his good clothes and with them, a forbidding scowl. He did not tell her that the first week he had found a job piloting rental sail boats at the yacht basin in Santa Monica for he was a good sailor and had proved it, but he'd had to quit the same day he obtained the job because Lenore found him and threatened to visit him the following day with a fleet of newsreel cameramen unless he came to see her. She seemed ubiquitous. He could go nowhere on the beach without bumping into her. When she pressed him he told her he lived in Santa Monica, keeping his fingers crossed for luck, hoping she would not learn his actual residence. He was known in Sea Tide as Jan's protege, was privately considered her sweetheart, had her friends' stamps of approval, but in Santa Monica he was just a drifting job hunter and Lenore, fortunately, did not connect him with Sea Tide.

Further Probe In Trotsky Conspiracy

MEXICO CITY, June 19 (AP)—Police called upon newspapers and radio stations throughout the nation today to assist in a hunt for David Alfaro Siqueiros, well known Mexican artist, who, they alleged, had been identified as a conspirator in the machine-gun attempt on the life of Leon Trotsky May 24.

Siqueiros and three others have been implicated by several confessed participants, declared Gen. J. Manuel Nunez, chief of the federal district police. Thirty persons have been detained.

Nunez said he had obtained information that the plot was directed by foreigners among whom, he asserted, apparently were several members of the Russian secret police, on whom Trotsky blamed the attempt on his life.

Siqueiros, a communist leader, was a colonel in the Madrid army during the Spanish civil war.

RED TAPE SLASHED FOR SHIPMENT OF SUGAR FROM U. S.

SUGARLAND, June 19—Munitions and armaments aren't the only things that the United States is rushing to the hard-pressed Allies, according to officials of the Imperial Sugar company, who announced here today that the government had cut all red tape in connection with a 12,000-ton shipment of Imperial sugar, part of which is scheduled to leave Galveston sometime this week.

Approximately 7,000 tons of the sugar are now being taken aboard the former Belgian freighter, Bruxelles, now controlled by the Allies, at Galveston. The Interstate Commerce Commission, in order to expedite the 12,000-ton shipment of Imperial sugar, is permitting Texas railroads to reduce rates between Sugarland, Houston and Galveston without observing the usual 30-day waiting period.

The reduced rates, which were put into effect with only a four-day waiting period, are 9 1/2 cents per 100 pounds between Sugarland to Houston and Galveston, instead of 11 cents to Houston and 12 1/2 cents to Galveston and Texas City. At the same time the railroads were permitted to raise the carload limit from 80,000 to 100,000 pounds per car.

A second ship will take the final part of the shipment, about 5,000 tons of Imperial sugar, about July 1, probably from Houston, it was said.

U.S. INVOLVED IN WAR WITH BUGS

WASHINGTON, June 19 (AP)—The United States already is engaged in a terrific war—on bugs.

The 17-year locust is coming around again...the house appropriations committee recommends a $500,000 fund to battle the chinch bug...the agriculture department asks an additional $380,000 to combat the pink bollworm.

Bing, bang, and boom! Rumors are afoot.

The agriculture department has received a letter from a woman in Indiana who asked if it were true that a European power had developed a super grasshopper which could leap across the ocean.

"The department, however, is calm.

"The insects are bad," said an expert, "but generally speaking, they are no worse than usual."

Few people, especially city dwellers, know it, but the United States abounds in borers-from-within, and the government annually spends thousands of dollars tracking them down.

There are the squash-vine borer, the flat-headed apple tree borer, and the round-headed borer.

Florida officials announced plans for a $6,750,000 road building program to be completed in 1939 contingent upon approval of federal agencies which would provide half of the money.

It's Fresh!
It's Always Good!

Mexican Congress To Study Military Training Law

MEXICO CITY, June 19 (AP)—The Mexican government began preparation today of a compulsory military service law which President Lazaro Cardenas said would be presented soon to a special session of congress.

Approval of the government plan, which Cardenas announced last night, was regarded as certain in the pro-administration congress.

Although no date for the special session was fixed, political circles mentioned July 10—four days after the presidential elections—as a likely choice.

In addition to compulsory military service Cardenas urged adoption of measures to establish an army reserve and a supreme defense council.

The president, in a statement, asserted that "the present situation in Europe requires urgently that countries take adequate means to prevent unjustified aggressions."

Informed quarters regarded Cardenas' move as a gesture to strengthen relations with the United States. The government recently has expressed its friendship for its big northern neighbor and its sympathy for France.

Goodyear Marks Quarter Century Of Tire Selling

"Celebrating its twenty-fifth successive year during which, based on production and sales records, an accurate estimate is that more people have ridden on its tires than that of any other manufacturer, The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. is marking the occasion with a July 4th tire sale," said Troy Gifford, local company dealer.

Featuring the Marathon, introduced more than two years ago and successfully proved by billions of service miles on the road, as well as the recently announced All-American tire, built to reach 70 per cent of the majority market of users, Gifford said that, currently he was able to offer the Marathon in sets of two or four tires to meet the peak market in which there should be more replacements, either in sets or units, of worn out casings now running on the highways.

"It is true, as everyone in the great middle class group of car owners realizes, that tires ought to be replaced more often especially in the heat of summer driving when there are more cars moving on the roads and tire failures endanger a greater number of persons, but the matter of cash outlay has prevented buying more than one tire at a time," explained Gifford. "That is, owners could not buy the tire of a recognized manufacturer at a price that would permit replacement of two or four tires, and the thrifty person wants to get as much in quality for his outlay as he can. So, when we offer the Marathon with its high-wide tread, new roll grip non-skid and dual cord breaker protection against bruises and punctures, and stand back of it with a lifetime guarantee, we believe we are doing our part to put good, lower-priced tires within the reach of the majority, thus furthering highway safety."

SUCCESSFUL ATTACK ON ITALIAN SUB IS REPORTED BY RAF

CAIRO, June 19 (AP)—An "entirely successful" dive-bombing attack on an Italian submarine in the Mediterranean was reported today by the British Royal Air Force.

An R. A. F. communique added that in a British attack yesterday at Tresselt, Italian Eritrea, a hangar was hit and believed to have been destroyed. Raheita, also in Eritrea, was twice raided and bombed.

The southern Rhodesian air force carried out a "most successful" offensive and reconnaissance over southern Ethiopia, it was said. These airmen bombed a military post.

AN ANALYSIS OF THE WAR DEVELOPMENTS

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

The delay in the Franco-German armistice negotiations, imposed by the Nazi demand that a plenipotentiary be sent to receive the closely guarded terms, gives the invaders a chance to continue their efforts to smash utterly the French army.

The more desperate the position of the defending forces, which now are split into four hard-pressed sections, the more difficult will the French government find it to evade capitulation.

Hitler naturally wasn't unmindful of this in demanding a procedure which would give his war-machine more time to grind finer. All of which doesn't tend to lessen the belief that the terms for surrender are going to be harsh.

There have been many rumors of the character of the mess of pottage which Hitler and Mussolini have cooked up for France to eat, but the terms have been closely guarded, although complete capitulation is said by authoritative quarters in Berlin to be demanded.

Meanwhile, advance notice of the fierceness of the coming "battle of Britain" was served last night in the Nazi blood-bath administered to the east coast of England in a great air-raid of 100 planes which killed at least twelve civilians and wounded thirteen more.

Maybe this was Hitler's answer to British Premier Churchill's defiant speech in which the latter declared England would fight to a finish and would vanquish nazism. Those words must have sounded hard on the Führer's ears.

Be that as may, the raid was a patent reminder that this last act of the Hitlerian blitzkrieg which is about to open is going to be war to bloody death.

Upon this final conflict depends whether the French and British empires shall be crushed and dismembered. Upon it depends whether Hitler shall profit by the conquests he already has made or whether they shall be wiped out.

Everything up to this juncture has been merely preliminary to the assault on England.

So great are the issues involved that we are likely to see "total warfare" carried to extremes which will exceed the terrors already revealed since Hitler first lashed out at Poland.

With the beginning of the Nazi offensive against England the blitzkrieg will enter a new phase. The clash between vast land forces, which has ended in the collapse of France, is over for the moment.

This will now give way at the outset to a conflict in which the powerful German airforce will be pitted against the British navy and airfleet. Infantry and mechanized columns won't be called upon to

Kiwanis Maps Aid To Youth

MINNEAPOLIS, June 19—Community-wide social service by Kiwanis clubs during 1940-41 were prompted today in an effort to assist in understanding youth problems, according to Glenn L. Cavanaugh, of Omaha, Neb., chairman of the boys' and girls' work committee for Kiwanis International.

"Such surveys will reveal the cause for juvenile crime and make apparent remedies for assisting an employed youth," said the service club leader.

"Unemployment can be relieved by attendance at night schools, continuation and vocational schools and participation in active church groups. The immediate question which confronts Kiwanis in its relation to youth is the development of opportunity for young people of all ages to participate in health education, character building and intelligent citizenship training. Youth must be given the opportunity to adjust itself to social, educational, economic and moral demands," he said.

Youth Conferences

The youth conferences at the convention were crowded by thousands of parents, educators and doctors, who were asked to keep faith with American youth and provide opportunity.

The work with boys and girls, Mr. Cavanaugh criticized, must not be thought of as an underprivileged child activity. "It must be remembered that 90 per cent of our young people are normal, healthy human beings," he continued, "but unless they are given assistance to adjust themselves to social, economic, industrial and moral demands of society, they cannot be expected in the future to take an intelligent part in every-day affairs."

"The entire youth program will be undertaken by an international organization described as Young Builders. These youth groups will be established in every community in the United States and Canada and will be sponsored by Kiwanis clubs.

"Young Builder groups are to be organized to give youth an opportunity to become more effective in their future citizenship obligations. The program will also give all adults in a community, whether they belong to Kiwanis or not, an opportunity to be of service to young people."

Recent amendments to the federal duck hunting regulations make allowances for "mistaken identity" in shooting prohibited species like redheads, varnashbacks, buffheads and ruddy ducks.

Maginot Line Forts Are Abandoned By French Units

BASEL, Switzerland, June 19 (AP)—Great Maginot line forts on the Rhine north of Basel were abandoned by their skeleton French garrisons this morning.

Powerful French forts of St. Louis, Hunique, Village Neuf and Rozenau fired their last shells at German positions in Baden at 2:45 a. m. today and their garrisons retreated west toward Belfort.

Apparently at least one of the forts at the Burgundian gate near Belfort still held out, however, for sounds of artillery and machine-gun fire from that region reached Basel.

Nobody Works But White Folks Today, It's Emancipation Day

DALLAS, June 19 (AP)—At cock's crow today field hands just rolled over and snoozed.

When the old rooster got too rambunctious they wrung his neck and pitched him in a pot.

It was Juneteenth—the anniversary of the Emancipation of Texas slaves. Nobody but white folks stirred unless he wanted to.

There were fish-frys and barbecue galore.

Cooks, maids, chauffeurs, field hands, dock wallpers and pool room loafers went on excursions.

Bull fiddles groaned and saxophones moaned and folks danced and danced and danced.

Even convicts had a holiday dance and have a big time.

They ate fried chicken and danced with girls they knew in the outside world. The guards didn't care as long as nobody ran off.

Folks around Centerville, the black-eye pea capital, ate a big mess of poorjohn. Poorjohn is peas cooked with a slab of fat bacon, topped with raw onions and cornbread.

In South Texas there were red-ripe watermelons.

Nearly everybody had side-meal, pork ribs, rice, chicken, crawfish, catfish or perch, turnip greens and sweet potatoes.

People like Juneteenth: folks don't have to work, just eat and dance.
