Roots Historical Arts Council Plans Mural Project

Members of Lubbock's Roots Historical Arts Council are busy planning history and art related activities for the economically disadvantaged citizens of Lubbock. Their plans include the building of a sculptured mural depicting the History of the Black West. The group has been busy researching the history of the Black West for a Mural to be placed in Lake Six of the Canyon Lakes. The group has approved Eddie Dixon as the Artist for the project. Dixon has worked in museums across America. Recently, he has begun a series entitled "The Black West." He is a native of Lubbock. The group has also hired Rudolph Davis as the "Roots" director. He is from South Carolina and is a doctoral candidate at Texas Tech University. The group plans to finance the project by initiating a fund raising campaign this month. Fund raising activities will include bingo. The group will also provide scholarships for college students majoring in any art form and chosen by the nomination committee. The group has given a scholarship this past fall. Eric Strong, "Roots" president, says that the main purpose of the group is to encourage participation in the Arts among the economically disadvantaged by both charitable and educational activities. The group will also provide free music lessons to deserving students and present talented individuals and groups in an "Eastside Talent Showcase." Winners will be awarded substantial prizes. "All this is to encourage the arts," says Strong.

The office of the Roots Historical Arts Council are located at 2812 Weber Drive. Strong feels the location is ideal for researching the target population.

Concerning the Mural Project, Strong adds, "The history of Blacks in West Texas is fascinating and full of surprises. The completed sculptured wall will be something all of Texas will be proud of."

Saviours' Day 1984

Opportunities to be involved in historic moments destined to change the course of man's life on earth rarely are announced. Usually the event happens and then its historic impact is felt down the corridors of time.

But on February 24th through 26th, in Chicago, Illinois, Minister Louis Farrakhan and the Nation of Islam have planned such a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity, and all the world is invited to Saviours' Day 1984, an interfaith gala celebration of unity in the black community and a planning session for progress.

The Nation of Islam under the leadership of Minister Louis Farrakhan will return to the site of the final Saviours' Day address given by the Hon. Elijah Muhammad in 1974, the Richard L. Jones Armory to commemorate the 1984 Saviours' Day. This convention will be an unforgettable union of men and women from throughout the United States of America and the Third World.

Rev. Jesse L. Jackson will join Min. Louis Farrakhan and the Nation of Islam on Saturday evening for a mass political rally entitled "A Unified Political Strategy," at the R. J. Jones Armory. The Nation of Islam will gather over 17,000 people to attend this rally in support of Rev. Jackson's run for the Presidency.

Mayor Harold Washington of Chicago, who was proclaimed February 24, 25 and 26th to be Saviours' Day in Chicago in recognition of the 44 years of work of the Honorable Elijah Muhammad toward "the improvement of the spiritual, social and economic conditions of black people," will open the convention on Friday, February 24.

Don Richards Issues Debate Challenge

The campaign to select a new congressman for West Texas heated up recently when Democratic candidate Don R. Richards challenged his Democratic opponents to debate.

Richards, who was the first Democrat to announce five months ago, issued his challenge to Democratic opponents Delwin Jones, John Selby, Gary Condra and Tom Richards, who is unrelated to Don Richards.

"A series of public forum debates in the various towns in the 19th Congressional District is the best method for the voters to be able to select the best candidate to follow Kent Hance and George Mahon in representing West Texas in Washington," said Don Richards during a recent press conference. "A public debate will give the voters the best opportunity to see all the candidates, examine their qualifications, and listen to them address the issues."

Don Richards

Richards call on "neutral organizations" in each community in the West Texas congressional district to take the initiative in sponsoring the debates in their town. "The League of Women Voters or Chamber of Commerce committees could provide a real service to local voters in each community."

Richards, a former administrative aide to Congressman Hance, stressed his experience in Washington and his knowledge of the issues, in inviting his opponents to debate.

"Debates have been historically popular as a forum for allowing the people to examine candidate candidates for public office. This is a crucial political year for West Texas and the

Advice With You In Mind

There's A Lesson Be Learned From A Negatives Childhood

DEAR YOLONDA: I'm a 17-year-old female with a serious problem. I live in a home for unwed mothers. When I got pregnant, my mother put me out. She threw me out because of my baby, forgetting (or ignoring) the fact that she was only 14 when I was born. Funny, isn't it?

My mother never really loved me. Now I think I know why. One of my cousins recently pointed out to me that part of the problem is that my mother and I look so much alike. She's jealous of me because I'm a younger version of her.

My mother and I don't talk anymore, but last time we did we had an argument to beat all. I told her that all of my life she made me pay for her mistakes. When I was younger, she'd call me names for the least little thing. She would slap me for little or no reason. My mother called me out of my name so often, I asked her if she remembered the name she had given me at birth.

Today, when I see a mother and daughter with a good relationship, I get jealous. I can't help it. I hate the fact that I don't have anyone to have a good relationship with, except the counselors here. They are all trying to help me but it's 15 other girls here with the same problem. They can't help everyone all the time.

In a way, I'm glad to be away from my mother, but in another way, it hurts me to be "out here" by myself. I would like to stop allowing my mother's put-downs of me hurt so, but truthfully, I can't seem to stop the pain. I learned nothing but hatred and jealousy from my childhood.

Please help. Any advice?

Madline

DEAR MADELINE: Yes. Actually, your childhood taught you more than you think. You learned child raising techniques that breed hatred instead of love. Your option is to refuse to treat your own child in any manner that resembles the treatment that you received.

Perhaps a sincere, non-accusing letter to your mother will open dialogue, and just might become the first step in building the relationship you crave.

Do Live-in's Consider Themselves Married?

DEAR YOLONDA: I'm very much interested in a guy on my job. He's single (so am I), but he's living with a woman.

John and I work on many projects together and we seem to have much in common. I've seen his girlfriend, and I can't imagine what they have in common. She's a dud.

I think John is interested in me, too. But my question is, do live-together couples consider themselves married? Should I wait to see if John and his friend break up? I still consider John single.

Diane

DEAR DIANE: My observation, it's clear that some live together couples consider themselves married. Some don't.

But to get a better reading on whether or not you should wait on your intended, I polled several guys who, because of their own living arrangements, had extra insight. Responses ranged from: "We are married... spiritually," and "We are in our arrangement to hold down finances," to "As soon as we get around to it... (They had lived together seven years).

In your case, I suggest that you ask John whether or not he's planning to marry soon. If his answer is vague he still considers himself eligible.

Learn To Think First, Talk Second

DEAR YOLONDA: This may sound like a stupid question, but I'm trying to figure out why I say things, then right afterwards, I hate myself for saying it. For example, today at work I made a stupid comment to a co-worker who I really like. Right after I said it, I wished I hadn't, but it was too late. She's the sensitive type, and immediately took offense. She then told some of the others I work with that I had a foul mouth (true).

Why do you think I do this. Any suggestions? Virginia

DEAR VIRGINIA: People say things for many reasons. Sometimes because they have nothing better to say. Other times because they want to be "cut," or noticed.

In your case, it really matters less why you said what you did. What's important is that you learn to think before you talk. Let's face it -- wars are fought over the wrong words.

Go up to that co-worker and apologize, then vow to do better.

Why, Oh Why Are We Treated This Way!!

by
Eddie P. Richardson

Last week, we talked about African Americans contributions to and treatments in America. We fought and died in all of America's wars. We are the only immigrants to come to these shores as slaves against our will. Others came for freedom and seeking a thrill and a better life - not us!!

We are not minorities, we are not others, we are Blacks and we have paid the price. Last week, we listed a few of the many professions, trades and activities to Blacks in America over the years. We stopped with Foreign Rulers and Leaders. This week we will start with the following:

Fugitive Slaves: William and Ellen Craft; Government Officials: David Donald Albritton, Charles W. Anderson, Jr., William L. Dawson, Pickney Benton Pinchback, and Adam Clayton Powell; Historians: Abdurrahman Es-Sadi, Lorenzo Johnson Green, John Hope Franklin, and Carter Goodwin Woodson; Insurrectionists: Joseph Cinque, Gabriel Prosser and Nat Turner; Inventors: Jon Ernst Matzelliger, Garrett A. Morgan, Norbert Rillieux, and Granville T. Woods; Journalists, Publishers and Other Contributing To The News Media: Robert S. Abbott, Samuel Cornish, Frederick A. Douglass, John H. Johnson, John Henry Murphy, and John B. Russett; Labor Leaders: Isaac Myers, Asa Philip Randolph, and Saxby Ward Townsend; Lawyers and Judges: Raymond Pace Alexander, William Henry Hastie, Thurgood Marshall, Constance Baker Motley, and Jonathan Jasper Wright; Musicians, Singers and Composers: Marian Anderson, Louis Armstrong, James A. Bland, Edward Kennedy Ellington, Lena Horne, Mary Leontyne Price and Paul Robeson; Patriots of The American Revolution: James Armistead, Crispus Attucks, Prince Whipple, Flora Williams, Tack Sisson, Joseph Ranger, Peter Salem and Lemuel Haynes.

Also: Philanthropist: Josephine Baker, Mme. Bernard Courvent, Wheeline Gaunt, Tony Lator, and Theodore; Physicians: Caroline Virginia Anderson, Martin R. Delany, James Derham, Charles Drew, Theodore K. Lawless, and Daniel Hale Williams; Pioneers: James P. Beckwourth, Edward Booth, George Bush, Jean Baptiste Pointe DuSable, and George Washington; Poets: Gwendolyn Brooks, Paul Lawrence Dunbar, Frances Ellen Watkins Harper, James Langston Hughes, Charles L. Reason, and Phillis Wheatley; Populist Movement Leader: John B. Rayner; Religious Leaders: Richard Allen, George Lincoln Blackwell, Father Devine (George Baker), Elias C. Morris, Elijah Muhammad, Adam Clayton Powell, Jr.; Scholars: Mercer Cook, Alain Leroy Locke, Howard Thurman, Wilhelm Anton Amo, Jacques Elisa Jean Captein, Nathan Monroe Work, Edward Franklin Fraizer, and Augustus Tolton; Scientists: Benjamin Banneker, George Washington Carver, Geoffroy Lislet and Jan Baptiste; Seamen: Nathaniel Hugh Mulzac and Gustarus Vassa; Supporters of John Brown: Lewis Sheridan Leary and "Mammy" E. Plesants; Later American Military Figures: Clifford Alexander Davis, Benjamin Oliver, Oliver Benjamin Lewis, Jr., Henry Ossian Flipper, Bernice Gaines Hughes, Henry Johnson, Dorris Miller and Charles Young; Underground Railroad Agents: Josiah Henson, David Ruggles, William Still, Harriet Tubman, and Theodore Sedgewick Wright.

We have paid or dues. We are not newcomers. We have been involved in all facets of American life, including everything from Cotton Pickers to Philanthropists, and everything in between. The history of the Black Man in America, as we know it, began with the first African captives who arrived at Jamestown in 1619. They came, originally, as independent servants, filling the need for labor in the developing of the Virginia Colony. Soon they were followed by more of their fellow Africans. All ostensibly were brought here as servants, but most remaining under a modified form of slavery. The severe shortage of labor throughout the colonies as the early settlers struggled for survival in those formative years was met primarily with the importation of African slaves.

From 1619 to 161, the Black man enjoyed the possibility of gaining his freedom in the new land to which he had been brought. In the later years, Virginia followed in 1662 by Maryland, passed laws that legally recognized the slavery that already had begun in many areas. It was not long before the other colonies followed the example of Virginia and Maryland and passed legislation placing the Black man in perpetual bondage. The first recorded protest, made in 1788, was a Black man whom we know only as Othello.

The struggle has been on every since. We have come a long way, but we still have a long way to go! So you see, we were the only people on these American shores who were kept out of the melting pot by color and legislation. But the struggle is not over. We are going to hang in there and we are going to win.

We are going to have our ups and downs, probably more downs than ups, but we are going to hang in there and one day, we will have more ups than downs. We will gain our rightful place at the market place and in the economic arena because we are right and God's people, and He did not bring us this far to let us down!

The Law And Legal Services

by
Marcy Wenzler

Residents of Hub Homes, parts of the Lubbock Housing Authority, may want to have their December utility bills checked by the Housing Authority office because of a potential error in billing.

Some December bills were apparently sent out before they could be refigured under a new rate by the utility company. If your December bill was especially high, you may not owe as much on your bill if it should have been figured under the new rates.

Residents of public housing have a right to question any bills or charges that they believe are not right and ask for an informal hearing to review those charges. If their questions are not satisfactorily answered or resolved at the informal hearing, then a formal hearing may be requested.

The informal complaint may be made orally or in writing, but it is a good idea to make all complaints in writing, date them, have them signed by someone in the Housing Authority, and keep a copy for yourself.

After the complaint is considered informally, the Housing Authority will give the resident a summary of the meeting and what they plan to do about the complaint. If the tenant wants to file a formal complaint, he or she should ask for one in writing to the Housing Authority office and state the reason why you are asking for relief.

If the complaint is over the amount of rent, the tenant must pay the Housing Authority the amount of rent due the month before the complaint arose before a hearing will be set. That amount will be required to be paid each month in escrow until the dispute is finally settled.

The tenant has the right to help select an impartial hearing officer for the formal hearing. At the formal hearing, the tenant has the right to inspect all relevant records in possession of the Housing Authority, including looking at complaints made by other tenants against you. You also have the right to be represented by a lawyer or other representatives. You may present evidence and cross-examination witnesses presented by the Housing Authority.

The tenant should receive a copy of the decision written within five days after the hearing. If the tenant is still not satisfied by the decision, he or she has the right to bring a lawsuit and have a judge consider the dispute based on all the evidence.

Small-business Angle

by John Sloan

SOUND BUSINESS MANAGEMENT TECHNIQUES COULD CUT DEFICITS

It was not long ago that high interest rates were the main concern of small-business owners. Now that interest rates have come down some, the climate for small business is improving, and we think 1984 will be a good year. But there is one significant threat to continued strength in the economy: the huge federal deficit. Small-business people I have been talking to are concerned. They ask, "Why can't the federal government do something about the huge deficits?"

One way to reduce deficits is to cut the cost of running the government. The President's Private Sector Survey on Cost Control - a commission looking for ways to cut the cost of government - recently handed its report to President Reagan. The report identified more than $400 billion in savings which could be realized over a three-year period.

Small business was well represented on that commission. Wilson Johnson, board chairman of the National Federation of Independent Business, headed a key task force. NFIB board member Bruce Fielding and another NFIB member, William Onsted, handled the day-to-day operations of the task force. The NFIB-led task force produced cost-cutting recommendations amounting to $72 billion.

Bruce Fielding says there are no "miracles" in the task-force findings. "All we did was apply common business sense," he says.

For example, the group found that the government could save $6.4 billion over three years by paying bills when due. Not many small-business people I know pay bills ahead of time, but some government agencies are doing just that.

Or consider the case of sub-agencies, such as the Farmers Home Administration: They are using what Fielding calls "the old cigar box" technique of depositing receipts. The receipts pile up in boxes for as much as two weeks before being deposited. The task force said use of a national lock-box system, allowing centralized agencies to make daily deposits, could save another $6 billion over three years.

President Reagan can act on 40 percent of the commission recommendations without a congressional OK, but Congress has to act on almost two-thirds of them, and that could be trouble. In an article in the January issue of Reader's Digest, Trevor Armbuster illustrates how difficult it will be to move Congress to act. He says the commission report found that of 4,000 military bases in the continental U.S., only 312 are considered vital to national security. "But," says Armbuster, "any time the (defense) department wants to save money by shutting down a base, Congress won't hear of it." The commission report says it costs $2 billion to $5 billion a year to maintain those bases.

Small-business owners do not understand the reluctance of the Congress to take action. Pork barrel projects and underused bases may have been the stuff of re-election in the past, but with a federal deficit of $170 to $200 billion staring us in the face, and the high interest rates a real possibility again, Congress should pay close attention to the people I hear from and act soon on the recommendations of the Private Sector Survey on Cost Control. There is a real opportunity to cut federal spending, but 60 percent of the $100 billion in savings will require action by your representatives and mine.

The Black Press: Guardian Of Human Rights

30' For Our Publisher - When a newspaper reporter and writers complete a story or an article to be published, they write "30" to indicate that the article has been finished. The end has been reached. Recently "30" was written to indicate that the long, rich, colorful career of Ada Croghan Franklin, publisher of The Call had ended. God has called her home.

The staff of The Call mourns and grieves at the death of Mrs. Franklin, publisher of The Call and widow of its founder, Chester Arthur Franklin. She lived to a ripe age in the upper 90's.

The life of Ada Croghan Franklin spanned nine decades, for more than the three score and ten which many have come to regard as a normal life span. Mrs. Franklin's association with The Call covered a period of 58 years. For thirty of those years, she supported her husband as he edited and operated the newspaper which he founded in 1919.

During the 28 years since her husband's death in 1955, Mrs. Franklin inspired the staff to continue Mr. Franklin's high standards in producing a clean, family newspaper - one which Mr. Franklin used to say, could be opened and read on a public conveyance without shame or embarrassment - a paper free of sensationalism, gossip and yellow journalism.

Mrs. Franklin lived a strong, fruitful and rich life, dedicated to the uplift of humanity. Throughout her life, she sought to improve the communication among the people of the city, the nation and the world. Her association with the People to People Movement was one means through which she sought to carry out her ideals. After 58 years, The Call office will never be the same without Mrs. Franklin. May she rest in peace. From an editorial in The Call.

Black Theology

Black Theology has been called a theology of survival. According to L. V. Stennis, it should not be forgotten that of all the ethnic groups to emigrate to America, the Black Americans were the only ones who did not come here voluntarily. The first black settler in the New World was a kidnap victim: Since the slave masters were among the world's most efficient businessmen, they did not believe in wasting as much as a minute of time during business hours.

During the period of slavery in America, the rulers of the slave business realized the potential powers of a religious movement among the slaves and therefore saw to it that black religion was a controlling, rather than a liberating force. The message of the sermons given to slaves was obedience to God and their masters with heaven as a reward.

The Civil Rights Movement, which began at high speed in the early 1950's offered the greatest need for black moral leadership since reconstruction.

The whole Civil Rights Movement was the work of religious groups. Quite possibly a majority of the freedom marchers had nothing to do with any church, but it was the churches that had the means, the necessary numbers of volunteer workers and the tax-free financial setup, that made it possible to transport, feed and organize the demonstrators into an effective protesting unit.

The Civil Rights Movement taught that survival comes from strength and that if black theology is to survive in America as an individual entity which represents the best interests of Black America, it will have to be supported by financial and political muscle in the same way that the white theologies rely on politics and money for their support.

Lincoln and Kennedy—The Common Thread

Part IV of Four Parts

In our final segment on the ironic twists between the lives of Abraham Lincoln and John F. Kennedy, one perhaps could not help but be amazed at the seemingly coincidental events that took place in their lives although they were elected to office 100 years apart. So perhaps it is best to study one's past history to project one's future history. Last week, we gave the first 18 examples. This week, we'll continue with 18 more.

19. Both Lincoln and Kennedy were shot in the presence of their wives.

20. Both were shot from behind and to the head.

21. Booth shot Lincoln at a theatre and fled to a warehouse.

22. Oswald shot Kennedy from a warehouse and fled to a theatre.

23. John Wilkes Booth had 15 letters in his name.

25. Lee Harvey Oswald had 15 letters in his name.

25. Booth shot Lincoln on a Friday.

26. Oswald shot Kennedy on a Friday.

27. Booth and Oswald never made it to a trial—they were both shot and killed.

28. Both Booth and Oswald were ruled by the planet Venus—Booth in the sign of Taurus (May 10, 1838) and Oswald in the sign of Libra (October 18, 1939).

29. Both Lincoln and Kennedy were born 108 years apart:  $1 + 0 + 8 = 9$ .

30. Lincoln was born in 1809:  $1 + 8 + 0 + 9 = 18$ ;  $1 + 8 = 9$ .

31. Kennedy was born in 1917:  $1 + 9 + 1 + 7 = 18$ .

$1 + 8 = 9$

32. The name Lincoln, under the Chaldean system, adds up to 27:  $2 + 7 = 9$ .

33. The name Kennedy, under the Chaldean system, adds up to 27:  $2 + 7 = 9$ .

34. Both Lincoln and Kennedy were shot and killed in the period of the 9 (April and November, respectively).

35. Lincoln was shot on April 14th:  $4 + 1 + 4 = 9$ .

36. Kennedy was shot on November 22nd:  $1 + 1 + 2 + 2 = 6$ —the "9" upside down.

ARIES—March 21-April 20
An unexpected development in the love department is indicated for you as you enter this weekend. The problem, however, comes on Sunday—in relation to money matters or matters of the past. Use the number 9 to guide you. ARIES BORN: Marvin Gaye, singer/composer.

TAURUS—April 21-May 20
This will be a mild type of week for you, to say the least. There is nothing outstanding or unfavorable for any of your activities. So in the end, your personal attitude will swing the tide of things now. Your Master Number is 11—use it. TAURUS BORN: Granville T. Woods, famous electrical inventor.

GEMINI—May 21-June 20
This week will seem to offer an extreme in cosmic moods—one day, up on a roller-coaster, and the next day, perhaps down in the dumps. Late Tuesday of next week there will be a change. 22 is your Master Number. GEMINI BORN: Nikki Giovanni, writer.

CANCER—June 21-July 21
It seems that new activities and events are on the horizon this particular period. However, all will not appear rosy over the weekend, and it is suggested that you'd best be very careful. Think of the 4 as you go along. CANCER BORN: Bill Cosby, actor, entertainer and businessman.

LEO—July 22-August 20
According to the stars, you should have some favorable as well as productive days coming your way, especially Thursday and on into Friday. And next Monday and Tuesday will find you in extreme situations—use it as best you can. The number to look for this week is a 6. LEO BORN: Ken Norton, boxing champion.

VIRGO—August 21-September 21
You may find yourself being tested on the "homefront". It will be this coming Sunday and Monday that a financial opportunity is likely to come into the picture. Your number this week is the 5. VIRGO BORN: Charlie Warfield, New York business administrator.

LIBRA—September 22-October 20
If a quick overview of this particular time frame had to be described as favorable or unfavorable the favorable dates to look for would be the 24th and 28th. The challenge, however, is likely to be on the 26th. Use the number 8. LIBRA BORN: Ruby Dee, famous actress.

SCORPIO—October 21-November 21
From the planetary arrangements, the momentum of the earlier part of this week should still be in effect. The only opposition ahead is next Tuesday. And it's only minor as that. Your number is 7. SCORPIO BORN: Pat Atwell, New York radio sportscaster.

SAGITTARIUS—November 22-December 21
Both Thursday and Friday of this week are listed as extremely favorable for any activity you may have in mind. There are no cosmic obstructions whatsoever. It's yours for the taking. 2 is for you. SAGITTARIUS BORN: Guy Bluford, first Black American to go into space.

CAPRICORN—December 22-January 20

This week should be quite calm for you. But get ready to go full speed ahead, especially during both Saturday and Sunday—it will be great for you to do so. 3 is the number to watch. CAPRICORN BORN: Sergio Dean, New York air personality.

AQUARIUS—January 21-February 19
This is an excellent week to get something new started, or to get more involved with those in positions of authority. And next Monday and Tuesday will be exceptionally good days for you. So use the 1. AQUARIUS BORN: Lloyd Strayhorn, nationally syndicated columnist and New York radio host of "Numbers and You".

PISCES—February 20-March 20
Late Thursday and on into Friday may find you in the middle of a domestic mess, if you don't watch your step. And it will seem like you're walking on eggshells 'til around Sunday evening. Things go your way afterwards. Your Master Number is the 33. PISCES BORN: Vanessa Williams, Miss America 1984.

ANOTHER EPISODE IN WEST TEXAS HISTORY

BUFFALO SOLDIERS

Right after the Civil War, the U.S. Army recruited ex-slaves to fight the Indian Wars. Whites protested; but in their time, there were no better fighting men in the world. Their attitude was reflected in the motto of the ninth: We can and we will. They were called many names: Niggers, Darkies, Brunetts, Moacs, and Cons are but a few. The Indians dubbed them "Buffalo Soldier". Among the Indians, the buffalo was held in high esteem. It was a sacred animal. The Buffalo Soldiers were both feared and respected by the Indians. The men accepted the title and wore it with pride.

ANOTHER EPISODE IN WEST TEXAS HISTORY

CHEROKEE BILL

Because he just couldn't get along with his new stepfather, a twelve-year-old black boy, named William Goldie, left home and was thrust into the rough hard life of the WEST TEXAS frontier. Soon after, he did two things that forever changed his life: he killed a man, and joined a gang. He became Cherokee Bill, and with each new bank clerk, law man, or ticket agent he killed, his reputation spread like the plague.

In doing so, Cherokee Bill, a love affair with a U.S. Marshall's wife, was what finally led to his capture. Hunted to death, he was delivered to the famous "hanging judge". The judge responsible for sending twenty-nine men to the gallows had special words for Cherokee Bill. He looked BILL as the most handsome man he ever stood before the bar. Bill said that some money day in 1926 was a good day as any to die. At the gallows, the thirteen-year-old boy soldier was asked for his last words. He looked at the huge crowd that came to witness his death, and said his last words: "I didn't come here to go to a school, I came here to die."

Worship as a Family This Week

Gospel Tag Team

Tag Team: Rev. A. L. Sneed & Rev. Arthur L. Sneed, II

The Missionary Society of the Greater St. Luke Baptist Church, on the corner of East 26 and Cedar Avenue, will present a father and son tag team. The Rev. A. L. Sneed, pastor of the New Jerusalem Baptist Church, 6605 Riverside Drive, Austin, Texas, along with his eight year old son, Rev. Arthur L. Sneed, II, will be the tag team guest. Come and witness this great occasion, Saturday, March 3, 1984 at 5 p. m. in the Church auditorium.

Dr. Jemison As For Support Of Jackson

Baton Rouge, La. -- When Dr. T. J. Jemison made his acceptance speech in September 1982 as the new president of the 6.8 million member National Baptist Convention USA, Inc. his first comments were: "We are going to turn this convention back to the people where it belongs." There was much rejoicing here January 18th at the huge new downtown Riverside Centroplex where 3,500 Baptists gathered for the mid-winter sessions of the Board of Directors meeting because the President had kept his word, and made relevant the theme selected in Miami Beach, "The Convention Cares."

During the Baton Rouge session donations were made by the Convention of $20,000 to Black colleges throughout the country, leading of with $50,000 for Fisk University. This total does not include an $80,000 loan that Dr. Jemison had previously arranged for the J. A. Caldwell Baptist World of Learning in Detroit, that the school could keep operating last fall.

The Board of Directors also voted to start immediate negotiations the creation of a National Baptist World Conference Center in Nashville, Tenn. to be built on land already owned by the Convention. The President then, made announcement that the January 1985 Board of Directors meeting would convene in Nashville.

Another important issue was the amending of the constitution from annual elections to five year terms by instituting tenure. Dr. C. A. W. Clark of Dallas was appointed to head the committee, which will bring its first report at the National Congress meeting in Gary, Ind. in June.

If the constitution is approved by the Convention's board of directors in June, the tenure agreement (constitution) will become official at the September session in Washington, D. C. and the office for five year terms will begin.

Another issue to be included in the constitution is the proposal that no churches, individual, or group belonging to, or affiliated with the National Baptist Convention USA, Inc. be allowed to take the Convention, or a member church into court on civil matters.

Dr. Jemison expressed his disapproval of officers and lay leaders in the churches trying to "take over" and ending up in court, which he called a shame "for the black Church to go into court to try to settle matters which they could settle themselves."

He stopped short of appointing, or even saying that an ethics committee would be appointed to deal with such issues, but did approve a delegate's suggestion that a committee be formed to explore the grievances.

The Rev. Jesse Jackson was a guest of the Convention. Although he is a member of the Convention and has been a delegate for several years, he came this time seeking votes and moral and financial support for his candidacy for President of the United States. He left with a promise of all three. After Dr. Jemison had introduced Rev. Jackson, the Rev. Jasper Williams of Atlanta came onto the stage to lead in "Run Jesse Run," and the thousands of delegates joined with him.

"I'd be a fool or an ingrate not to endorse Jesse," Dr. Jemison said. So he endorsed him and gave a $1,000 check for the campaign.

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast

Friends and neighbors of the Outreach Prayer Breakfast met in the lovely home of the president, Mrs. Juanita Sowell last Saturday morning at 9 a. m. with vice president, Mrs. Christine Hysom presiding.

After brief remarks, singing and praying filled the air.

The morning devotion was conducted by Mrs. Mildred Bogus. The scripture lesson was taught by Rev. J. V. Harris. His subject was "Go Back To The Old Path And Walk Therein." His scriptures were Jeremiah 6:16 and Psalm 11:3.

"Thus saith the Lord, stand ye in the ways, and see; and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls, but they said, we will not walk therein.

"If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?"

This speaker said what he means by go back and have choir members singing in the choir every Sunday. And also have Deacon Board, Missionary, Laymen and Preachers. They haven't repented.

When you seek God, it will bring a glow to your outward appearance. And when we all start doing his will as he would have us, things will start happening. The Lord wants us work through us so we can bring light to the world. You can do so bad so long. Your conscientious won't bother you.

The Church wasn't born in the air. It was born on your knees. You will have to come to get the full message. This pastor did a good job last Saturday morning. This group loves him a bunch!! How about you? Limited remarks were given by all.

Our guest list included: Rev. and Mrs. Tony Williams, Rev. J. V. Harris, Mrs. Beck Mendez, Mrs. Josey, Hazel Duxon, Tony Sowell and Craig Sowell. Hope to see each of you next Saturday, please.

Those on the sick list this week include: J. C. Darty, Roberto Fountain, Ruby Johnson, Hattie Henry, Etta William, Mrs. Ellen Allen and Mr. Andrew Williams.

We're sure there are others not mentioned, but God cares about you, and that's the truth!

"Let's Pray"
God of mercy teach us how to wait, work and watch. For your return with the right priorities in life. In your name, Jesus, we pray. AMEN

Prayer is necessary in life of the believer. If we can be of help to you, call us. We are servants to you, the people. Write us at: P. O. Box 1223, Lubbock, Texas 79408 or call either 762-3347 or 747-7326. We are waiting for your call.

This group will walk by faith and not by sight. Closing prayer was offered by Rev. Tony Williams. Mrs. Mildred Bogus read II Chronicles 7:14.

The next meeting place will be in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Smith, 1313 East 16th Street. You are so welcome to come!

There will be a film shown at Lyons Chapel Baptist Church Saturday, February 25th at 7 p. m. It is called "Burning Hell."

It is best to be scared now while you can correct your life than to wait until it's too late and be scared when there will be no hope.

If there isn't a hell, live like there's one. This makes good sense. Come-Come-Come!! Sponsors of this film is the Bible Training Union. This film will be shown by Rev. Lewis of Fort Worth, Texas.

Mrs. Juanita Sowell, president; Mrs. Christine Hysom, vice president; Mrs. Mildred Bogus, acting secretary and Mrs. Dorothy Hood, reporter.

Post, Texas

Pleasant Home Baptist Church

East 14th & Avenue F

Post, Texas

Services were great last Sunday. It all began with Sunday School. The subject of the lesson was: "Come to the Feast." Scripture was Isaiah 55:1-3; 6-11. The key verse: "Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near." Isaiah 55:6.

It was a very beautiful lesson. Everyone was at their post of duty.

During the morning worship hour, songs of praises were sung by the choir. Altar call was highly prayed by the pastor, Rev. Arthur Kelly. God truly was in the midst. Devotion was led by Deacon Jim H. Osby, Sister Mozella Mitchell and Sister Thelma Moore. Sister Mitchell read the entire Number 133 Psalm.

Rev. Kelly preached from the Book of Psalm, entire Number 121. His theme was: "Worship and Protection." He preached from his heart and soul. He preached to the Loving Father. God really was in our midst in that Holy Place last Sunday morning.

Among our sick and shut in members this week include: the First Lady of the Church, Sister Lela Kelly, a patient in Lubbock General Hospital, Room 310, Lubbock; Sisters Siloma Steel and Lizzie Milo; Brother Harry Trueblood, all residents in Golden Plains Care Center.

Sisters Della Smith, Elizabeth Iles, Emma Griffin and Ola Harrison are ill in their homes.

Please continue to pray for their speedy recovery. Rev. Arthur Kelly, pastor; Rev. John James, Jr., associate pastor; and Sister Annie V. Gilbert, reporter.

"We Thank God For Jesus"

"Lord, I'm Young and Restless. Why?"

Isaiah 56:10-11 -- His watchmen are blind; they are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber. Yea, they are greedy dogs which can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand; they all look at their own way, ever one to his gain, from his quarter.

Lord, My heart is heavy, there's tears in my eyes, I'm young and restless, & I don't know why!

Lord, I was raised in a Christian Home, But when I got 3, I went out on my own.

Lord, I'm Young & Restless, Why? Exodus 20:3 -- Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

Psalms 141:3: The fool hath said in his heart, there is no God, they are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good. The Lord looked down from the heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, and seek God.

They are all gone aside, they are all together become filthy, there is none that doeth good, No, Not one!!

Lord, I walked the streets singing, I'm so proud!

Now I'm misery & I'm crying out

God is not through with us yet, let's pray for one another always AMEN!!!
