East Lubbock Talk King Blvd Issue

by Denise Kinner

Last week the United Political Action League (UPAL) held a public meeting to renew community interest in continuing the fight for the renaming of Quirt Avenue to Martin Luther King Blvd. The renaming of Quirt Avenue began in 1979 after East Lubbock citizens presented the plan to the Human Relations Commission. However, when the HRC presented the plan to the City Council they ran into opposition. The council pointed to a 1949 city ordinance stating that no street shall be named after an individual. When faced with that setback, east Lubbock citizens in December 1980, circulated a petition to have the proposal placed on the ballot. That initiative fell short when more than 2,100 signatures on the petition were disqualified. Since that time UPAL president Vera Newsome says the community has not been doing anything concerning Quirt

Avenue, but that has to change. Newsome says. "The council people play with us at times -- thinking we'll get tired of it and go on to something else. I think we've run out of intelligent tactics in dealing with the City Council." Some of the ideas emerging from the meeting to re-ignite the community were holding a public rally sometime in June and getting black ministers and their congregations involved.

"We need dynamic leadership from about 5-10 of the major black preachers in east Lubbock because the white man respects that black minister," said Harold Chairman. Joan Y. Ervin stated that although there was great community support in 1979, more is needed now if Martin Luther King Blvd. is ever to be. "We've come through so much BS with our city elected officials. We have really turned out at the town meetings that were held on the issue, but just from east Lubbock, but west Lubbock as well, but we need twice as many people this time."

Important Meeting!!

Mrs. Katie Parks would like to meet with all interested persons wishing to perform for the Juneteenth Celebration. According to Mrs. Parks, if you can sing, dance, act, play an instrument or perform in any fashion, please be at Mae Simmons Community Center on Friday evening, May 28th, at 7:30 p. m. This meeting was originally set up for Friday, May 21st, but it has been changed to May 28th. Please prepare and attend this important meeting. Your talent is really needed," said Mrs. Parks.

Alhaji T. A. B. Shonibare, a branch manager with the Union Bank of Nigeria Limited, and his first cousin, Alhaji R. Ade Lawal, sub-accountant with the Union Bank of Nigeria Limited, Idiaraba, Surulere, Lagos, flew from Nigeria to attend the 1982 graduation of Miss A. F. Shoribara, who received a Master of Arts degree in Economics. Mr. Shoribara will be returning to Nigeria in two weeks and is expected to fly back with his daughter. The trio are from Lagos State, Nigeria. (Photo by Utok Etukudo)

Deltas Award $300 Scholarship

Cynthia Davis, a senior at Texas Tech University, received a $300 scholarship from the Lubbock Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. According to Davis, if she had not received this financial help she would have been able to stay in school this past semester. "It really was a blessing. It came at a time when I really needed it. I really don't know what I would have done if I hadn't received the scholarship." Davis, who is majoring in Finance, will Cynthia Davis graduate in August. She is the daughter of Mrs. Catherine Black of Odessa, Texas.

Matadors Win State Track Meet

Estacado's Track Team won the State Championship at Austin this weekend with high point leader, James Collins chalking up 22 points as he spanned 22.3 11 1/4 inches to take first place in the long jump. Collins also set a new school record with 37.7 time in the 300 meter hurdles to take second place in State Competition. Kelvin Johnson added to the team's victorious showing as he placed third in the 100 meter dash with a time of 10.5. Members of the 1600 meter relay team, Kelvin Johnson, Donald Gray, James Collins, and Jeff McKinney won 2nd place in state with a time of 3:15.7 and members of the "Matador 400 Relay Team, Leo Richards, Kelvin Johnson, Derrick White, and Jeff McKinney placed 4th with a time of 41.5. Coach Percy Hines said that he was proud of his team and "was elated" with "this year's championship." Hines commented "we've been close so many times, and we felt this was going to be our year." In recounting the success of team members, Hines related that he was especially proud of his tracksters for keeping up the morale during competition as things started with the 400 meter relay team receiving a 4th instead of the top time they had hoped for and Collins hurt his leg before the final competition started. Hines praised team members for "not getting down" and noted their efforts were well repaid as "they came back to win the championship." Coach Kines extended his praise to note that James Collins set a record at EHS by qualifying in the four events at a State Meet, and he relates, "This represents a good strong overall team effort -- and the performance of the team is what we have been stressing all year long."

Coach Roy Farmer and Head Track Coach, Percy Hines, display trophy won as Estacado wins the State Track Meet.

Home Health Care Under Medicare

Home health care, a service that Medicare may help pay for under both its hospital insurance and medical insurance provisions, is a program that is medically sound, economically feasible, and humane. It enables patients who do not need full-time skilled care in a medical facility to receive the services they need while they remain in their homes.

Home health care services include part-time skilled nursing care, physical therapy, and speech therapy. Moreover, if any of these services is needed, Medicare also may pay for the part-time services of an occupational therapist, home health aide, or medical social worker, as well as for medical supplies and appliances, furnished by a home health agency. A home health agency is a public or private organization that specializes in providing skilled nursing and other health care services to patients in their own homes.

Four criteria must be met if either Medicare hospital or medical insurance is to pay for home health care: (1) the patient must need part-time skilled nursing care or physical or speech therapy; (2) the patient must be confined to the home; (3) a doctor must prescribe home health care and establish a home health care plan; and (4) the home health agency must participate in Medicare.

If these criteria are met, either Medicare hospital or medical insurance will pay the reasonable cost for unlimited covered home health visits. In most cases, hospital insurance will pay for the care.

More detailed information about Medicare is contained in Your Medicare Handbook.

Question: My mother is receiving home health care, but she is badly in need of homemaker services. Is this covered under her Medicare health insurance?

Answer: Homemaker services, such as preparing meals and helping to meet personal care needs, are not covered under Medicare. Under the law, Medicare is limited to services that are necessary only for the diagnosis and treatment of an illness or injury.

Question: My father received service by a home health agency in the morning and afternoon of the same day. Is this counted as one visit or two for purposes of Medicare?

Answer: Under Medicare, a visit is counted each time a person receives a covered home health service. If a patient receives either the same service twice in the same day, or two different ones on the same day, they count for two visits.

Sheridan's Ride

by Jack Sheridan

Commenting on a film like "On Golden Pond," still heralded at the Fox Complex on West 19th Street after a couple of months or so, five months after its initial national bow, is like reviewing the famed German Passion Play. It's achieved an immortality and a familiarity nationwide to the tune of more than $100 million at the box office and a number of hefty honors such as Best Actor and a number of Academy Awards honors and others.

"On Golden Pond" is not a "blockbuster movie" as movies go; it is restrained and gentle and avoids much of the potential bravura drama-wise that it could have milked out of the gold-plated casting of Henry Fonda and Katharine Hepburn (teamed together for the first and only time in their heritage vintage careers) with daughter Jane Fonda (on screen and real life to Henry).

It tells of the trials and communication problems of a family whose head, Henry Fonda, is nearing his 80th birthday and his inevitable death in future, ably supported by his wife, Katharine Hepburn. The grown daughter, Jane Fonda, arrives with her intended husband, Dabney Coleman, and Jane's young son, Dough McKeon. The latter, a teenager vulgar mouth, is taken in tow by Grandpa during this summertime retreat on a New England lake, while mother wrestles with her guilts and her communications problems with her father. Hepburn is the constant, the peacemaker, the comfort and the strength, the family protector.

The film's most moving moments are a near-death scene that brings the volcanic, sympathetic and probing acting talents of the two stars to a peak. Both stars are in their 70s (Fonda is 77 this week and ill) and this underscores the entire motion of the pairing.

Young McKeon holds up superbly, pitted with the two Fondas and Hepburn, and Coleman is not cowed not fazed by his towering co-players. It's a fine film, deserving everything it has gained and it will continue to delight and move audiences from time on, as it has been doing from coast to coast.

Incidentally, the dates for the Summer Rep. musicals "Jesus Christ Superstar," "Pirates of Penzance" and "Cabaret" two weekends each at the Civic Center Theatre start June 18 and run through July 27. More on this later.

Business Hints

By Lorene Phillips

FIVE KEYS TO BUSINESS SUCCESS

Just as we have a different key for the house, car and other objects, we have a different key to open the many doors to business success. However, placing a key in the keyhole is of little value unless the key is turned to the proper position and clicks to open the door.

Likewise, it is of little value in a business operation if one does not put the key into the keyhole and turn the key to the right position to open and complete a business transaction.

The first business key is knowledge. Knowledge is the acquaintance with facts, truths, or principles as from study or investigation. Knowledge is obtained through experiences, books, seminars and other people. Interrelating the latter will keep a businessperson aware of not only his business, but other related and unrelated businesses as well.

The second key is application of business knowledge to your business. Knowledge is of little value if the businessperson does not apply all applicable ideas and conform to the particular business industry. And of course this may mean that the one way you may have started out with your business is not presently the best way.

The third key is none other than change. There are times when the key or knowledge must be changed to a new key of knowledge in keeping abreast with today's changing marketplace for survival. And only the businesspersons who are flexible and willing to change the old key for the new key will survive.

The fourth key is turning your business knowledge into profit. There are three kinds of profits that one can earn in the business world: an honest profit, under-profit and over-profit. Each one takes its toll.

The honest profit, of course, is the best profit because the businessperson is neither over or under pricing his product or service. The under-profit, just to make a sale, will usually end up with a business loss. And the over-profit normally will leave the businessperson looking for sales when customers discover that he is overcharging.

The fifth key is common sense. If one does not mix common sense to know what knowledge to use, where to use it, when to use it and how to use it, all the knowledge in the world is of little value.

Thinking that you know about your business is entirely different than knowing and understanding your business as it pertains to both you and the business world.

The services at New Hope Baptist Church were carried out as usual last Sunday. It began with Sunday School, Sister R. B. Thompson at her post.

The morning worship service devotion was led by Deacon Givens and Deacon Swain. The Choirs were at their post of duty.

The sermon of the hour was delivered by Rev. T. Oscar Choppe of the Eastern Baptist Church of Okmulgee, Oklahoma. His subject was "The Disappointing Christ." His scripture was Isaiah 53:1-5. It was a beautiful message.

The members of the New Hope Baptist Church are still without a shepherd, but according to members, the Lord is blessing them each Sunday. The bread of life has been broken each Sunday since the retirement of Rev. A. L. Dunn. Everything is okay. Let us keep praying that God is on their side. Just keep the faith!

The Sunday School and Baptist Training Union Congress of Christian Education will be held at the Lyons Chapel Baptist Church June 7 thru 11. Dr. Floyd Perry, Jr. is host pastor.

Mr. Earnest Swain's mother had eye surgery. It is reported that she came through just fine. Brother Swain would like to thank the church for praying for his mother.

Mrs. Olla Scott lost a sister in Rosenberg, Texas. She was buried Wednesday, May 12th. Sister Scott was unable to attend due to health.

A three minute memorial service was held at the New Hope Baptist Church last Sunday for Mr. Earnest Brooks. The musician played softly "What A Friend We Have In Jesus." Sister Dorothy Kinney quoted two verses of "Does Jesus care." Mr. Davis was in Sister Kinney's Sunday School class. Prayer and sympathy go out to his mother, Mrs. Fannie Price.

Let us continue to pray for our sick and shut in. Among them are Mr. N. P. "Beauty" Holmes who is home from the hospital. Mr. Frank McKinney shows slight improvement. Mr. C. F. Cooke, Jr. is back in the hospital.

Let us also pray for others whom we may fail to mention.

Mrs. Nellie Fuller, a resident of Cleburne, Texas, was house guest of Mrs. Ora Craven last week. She visited St. Luke Baptist Church last Sunday and was able to talk with many of her friends in the "Hub City."

Mrs. Edith Quinney motored to Waco.

Texas last Thursday to witness the graduation exercises of her nephew, Rev. Cleophus James Larue. He received his Master's Degree. He is pastor of the Triliver Baptist Church. A former resident, Mrs. W. M. Cox, is a member of this congregation in Waco. Mrs. Quinney was accompanied by her brother-in-law, Mr. James Thompson. Mr. Thompson had an opportunity to visit his sister and other relatives in Hubbert, Texas. They had a wonderful trip.

"Why Not?"

It's All Up To Me (Us)!!

by
Eddie P. Richardson

Miami Beach, Florida -- Miami Beach South Florida is the 9th Wonder of the World, but the island between the Atlantic Ocean and other bodies of water is a miracle within itself. There will be a lot of information forthcoming in the travel, tour and convention business as it relates to Black people. Miami Beach is the most luxurious as anyone place in Miami Beach, but never everything in the city.

In our meeting recently, we had members of national and regional convention planners and Black Media, Inc. Publishers. We were treated with royalty by Eastern Airlines, the City of Miami Beach Visitors and Convention Authority, American Sightseeing Tours, Don Griffin, Assistant Secretary of Commerce State of Florida, the Florida Department of Commerce -- a Division of Tourism, and our friend, George Jackson, executive director of the Association of National/Regional Convention Planners. Others included: Kanover Hotel, Carillon Hotel, Deauville Hotel, Doral Hotel, Eden Rock Hotel, Fontainebleau Hotel, San Souci Hotel, and of course, Charles E. Wright of Eastern Airlines, and the officials and staff of our own BMI. There were also General Foods, Heublein Corp., Schenley Affiliated Brands, Travels and Leisure Publications, Eastman Kodak, Philip Morris, Inc., UniWorld Advertising, Hill and Knowlton, Meeting News, ITT, On Line Executive Data and Budget Rental Company. All were great!

The participants of this historical Black gathering included top Black publishers of Black newspapers from across America, presidents of major Black national powerful organizations, i.e. social, Greek letter, professional, religious and others. In short, the doers, movers and Black community builders across America -- which was beautiful -- were present. What we learned and shared we will all go back to our respective communities under a national umbrella dedicated to moving and building our communities. All of this will be done with a major united thrust on saving and saluting our Black youth with over 44 percent of them, 18 years old and over, being functional illiterate.

In the near future, there will be a mass attack on illiteracy among our young Black people from a national, regional and local level by participating newspapers as well as regional and local branches and chapters, etc. of national organizations, collectively. With all the luxury of all these great minds, all of these rich upper middle class, middle class, lower middle class and moderate income, there were no low income Blacks in attendance.

But get this, just 30 miles down the road, from the convention, the sight really upset, disgusted, and hurt all in attendance. You see, this was the site of the Krone Detention Center. In other words, a JAIL! This jail was used to house Black people. These were Black people who look just like another Black. It is just funny how skin color makes the difference. We (publishers) will call this to the attention of all major Black national organizations and publish this in all Black printed media.

The interesting part is that Blacks now in America never melted into the melting pot, because of skin color and legislation. Now, today, we have Blacks coming to this "promised land" along with people from other countries. The only difference is that the other people (non-Black) from other countries are put into refugee camps -- not jails -- or even sponsored by organizations, families, and, in most part, furnished food, shelter and employment. Even people whom America has been at war with, i.e. Nazis and others, get better breaks. This doesn't matter if you are not black. Even Russians, who do not have the dark skin, are treated different than Blacks. It's just that skin color plays an important role in how you are treated.

At Krone Detention Center, the condition is deplorable. Can you imagine four women sleeping on a board the size of a cot. At the same time, "Old Glory" flies so beautiful over the land and over sea, long may she live with 50 stars representing you and me. Land of the free, home of the brave. My country tis of thee of the sweet land of liberty. God shed his grace on thee. Land of opportunity, sweet land of liberty. The melting pot for people of all lands not so. With our Black Brothers and Sisters from Haiti.

Mr. President, Senators, Congressmen -- Black people and other concerned Americans are asking you WHY?? As if we didn't already know the real answer!!

In the recent political elections, the Lubbock Digest had a batting average of 80% in picking winners. Among some of our victories were: Bud Aderton, Bill McAllister, Alan Henry, Doug Boren, Travis Ware, John T. Montford, Froy Salinas, Jim Mattox (run-off), Mark White (run-off), Ann Richards and the real biggie, Jim Higginer, thanks to racist Reagan Brown. That's one he made easy for us.

This shows one thing, others could have become winners if they had come by the Lubbock Digest office with desires and programs. But they succumbed to other claims even though they had no track record and hence, they lost.

As the Big Man from Big "D" -- Tony Davis -- says: "A well known fact is that none of us are any smarter than we know how to be. Needing to do something or wanting to do something or desiring to do something... That is beyond the ability of the person seeking same is nothing more than a lesson in futility".....

Everyday programs, projects and even people running for office go down the drain because of

"REFUGEE" CAMP

Ringing The Bell

by
Bob Tieucl

Dear Bellringer -- Midland-Odessa area bellringers and some religious black leaders are puzzled somewhat when it was recently revealed that the Midland-Reporter Telegram, a Hearst owned daily newspaper, would no longer carry the "Ringing the Bell" column after a run of some six or seven years.

The Telegram was purchased by the Hearst newspaper corporation several years ago after a long run as an independent newspaper -- owned and published by the Allison family for many years.

The Odessa-American, which is a Freedom corporation newspaper, is without a doubt the most popular daily with Blacks in the Permian Basin. It was the first daily in the Permian Basin to carry a black columnist on its staff: Bob Tieucl's "Ringing the Bell" column some ten years ago.

It is reported that an effort to induce the Odessa American to reinstate the RTB column and thus again become the No. 1 daily in the Basin carrying the "black experience".

Commenting on the situation, the veteran minister-newsman, Bob Tieucl, Jr. said: "While I would be happy for the American to reinstate the column as I believe all Americans should have some exposure to the Black Experience, it seems to me that the Lubbock Digest is in a much better position to acquaint all Americans of every ethnic group, with the Black Experience. There are several crack black columnists in the country, much better than I am, and there is no reason why any daily newspaper would be without the opportunity to engage them in sharing this black experience," he added.

It is good news to hear that there are plans to enlarge the coverage of the Digest which would include the Southwest at large with special coverage of the Midland-Odessa area, Southeastern New Mexico and many other areas with a portion of black people. All of our problems are similar, with the main one of becoming a part and parcel of America's mainstream.

To publish a great newspaper, whether it be black or white, it takes money. This correspondent would like to see the Digest open up an sell common stock to those blacks who want a strong voice in the affairs of their respective communities. When sufficient capital pettiness, friendships, inability, lack of knowledge and experience in making things work or happen because of ego tripping and envy. We are going to have to learn to go with winners, clout, credibility and the movers and doers if we want things to work for the good of all of us. We must realize and admit to ourselves when we reach our level of incompetence.

Get some know how and what, and in some cases, move over and work with the movers and doers when we can't move. The task before Black folk is too great, too much at stake, the risk is too high for us to play games with and kid ourselves. Because the only ones who can save us from us is us. Collectively working in the position where we can be most effective for the good of all of us.

Mr. Mack Hannah, one of America's richest Black men who happens to be a Texan says his rather took integration to the bank every Monday morning. One of his employees, Shirley Bradford, says he told her on her first day at work: "Forget everything you have learned. The way to make money is not in a book." Mr. Hannah owns funeral homes, savings and loans institutions, real estate, housing projects and other endeavors.

NOTE!! NAACP is gearing up for economic development. That is one of their major thrust. Black Lubbock, the nation is tiring away from social programs to economic development. NUF SEDI!! WHY NOT??

had been acquired, paid news correspondents could be added to the staff and a big subscription campaign launched and the Southwest Black Digest would be on the way. Advertising would be no problem with a creditable reading circulation. Certainly there ought to be at least five hundred (500) Blacks in West Texas and New Mexico who wouldn't mind investing $50 in a strong black voice and at least one hundred (100) who would throw in a hundred dollars each for the same purpose.

Certainly hope that the publishers of the Digest will consider seriously the idea of incorporation. We need to get the people involved and this is a good way to do it. Don't you think so? And don't forget there are justice loving and God fearing whites who would invest in this venture too, if given the opportunity.

We believe the Black Church and its leadership can point the way in this direction and should by all means. The black minister must become interested in more than just big appreciations and anniversaries. More and more of our people in the coming Reagan years, will have to look to the Church for help and guidance and we must not fail them. Let's build a black newspaper in West Texas and S. E. New Mexico that we can all be proud of. And the time to start is now.

For the past four years, we have given our best to the ongoing of the Black Church. We know that God is able and can give strength to the feeble knees. We ask your prayers that all of us will work until we hear the final: "Well Done." Can we expect to do less. Let us charge the enemy and go forward in His name. OK bellringers?

VIEWPOINT

JULIAN BOND

Will the act be emasculated?

By Julian Bond

WASHINGTON (NEA) -- The lines have been drawn. On one side are President Reagan, Attorney General William French Smith, Senate Judiciary Chairman Strom Thurmond and Chairman Orrin Hatch of the Judiciary Subcommittee on the Constitution.

On the other side is the entire civil-rights community -- from the American Civil Liberties Union to the Urban League, from the NAACP, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference and Operation PUSH to the League of Women Voters, the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, the AFL-CIO and every other organization devoted to equal justice before the law.

The issue? Whether black and brown Americans and language minorities will have effective protection against discrimination at the ballot box and throughout the political process. In other words, whether the Senate will pass an effective renewal of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, major portions of which are scheduled to expire this August.

Few doubt that the act will be renewed. But important questions remain: Will the act contain legal protection for the victims of racial gerrymanders and other discriminatory election schemes? Or will it prohibit the wrong without guaranteeing the right?

The jury in this case is the 98 men and two women in the U.S. Senate, which soon will be engaged in full-blown debate on the future of the Voting Rights Act. If the Senate version of the act differs from the strong version passed 389-24 by the House last October, a conference committee will determine which legislation will face the president's pen.

Some 64 senators -- 40 Democrats and 24 Republicans -- are co-sponsoring legislation identical to the House renewal bill. But some of these senators may accede to the changes sought by the Reagan administration.

Under Hatch's relentless attacks, an emasculated version of the renewal legislation emerged from the Constitution Subcommittee in late March. This substitute, sponsored by Iowa Republican Charles Grassley, is a simple 10-year extension of the existing act.

The Grassley bill would allow protection for language minorities to expire in 1985 and would lock voting-rights litigants into the "intent" standard that most legal authorities say is impossible to prove.

The House version would extend the provisions covering language minorities until 1992 and shift the standard used to prove discrimination from "intent" to "results."

From 1965 until 1980, plaintiffs in voting-rights suits had only to prove that a particular electoral procedure produced discriminatory results. In 1980, the Supreme Court ruled in the Mobile case that aggrieved parties must prove a specific intention to discriminate. That requires discovery of the "smoking gun" that elected officials never seem to leave behind.

In month-long hearings that began in late January, Hatch led the attack on the House-passed version of the renewal legislation. Hatch and Attorney General Smith argued that the "results" standard would lead to proportional representation or quota politics.

That's a view that few others share. The Anti-Defamation League, a fierce opponent of quotas, dismisses the Hatch-Smith thesis, as do a host of legal scholars. But the thesis may win over enough senators to pass Grassley's weakened version of the renewal legislation.

President Reagan has offered little more than bromides on the topic of voting rights. Reportedly, he once agreed to accept any version of the renewal legislation that emerged from Congress but was argued out of that position by Smith in a White House confrontation.

Reagan has since let Smith and Assistant Attorney General William Bradford Reynolds carry the message that the administration wants to weaken the right to vote.

That message widens the vast rift between Reagan and the large community of Americans who believe in fair play. And it reinforces the growing feeling that this president is aggressively indifferent to the racial realities of the 1980s -- just as he is to the misery that his economic policies have produced.

Joblessness for America's workers and hopelessness for America's minority voters -- is this what the president intends?

Satan's Gift

It would seem to me and to the normal person, that to receive a gift that was against one's self would cause one to reject it.

I would get an AMEN from mostly all of my readers; however, let us see if we're normal. The glory of the Kingdom of the world which Satan gives to his followers is:

- (1). Unjust riches that fade with time;
- (2). False fame from man that produces pride;
- (3). Physical and mental dependency on
 - (a) alcohol
 - (b) drugs and
 - (c) tobacco; AND
- (4). BONUS GIFTS are separation between families;
- (5). Inability to maintain faithfulness between marriage partners (adultery);
- (6). Detrimental consent to pre-marital sexual involvement (fornication);
- (7). The practice of witchcraft;
- (8). Murderings;
- (9). Release of pressure through suicide;
- (10). Loss of confidence in the truth and reasonableness of the word of God; and
- (11). Unwillingness to accept Christ as Saviour.

I guess you may wonder who would accept such "Gifts", for if one did, he would not be concerned about himself.

You have seen and may be experiencing the consequences of accepting such "Gifts" from Satan. If overlooked, Satan's "Gifts" will eventually lead one to destruction even through life, and then eternal damnation (suffering) in hell after this life.

Jesus came to release us from Satan's "Gifts", dominion and fear, to give us the right standing with God, the ability to live according to God's word, and the right to receive all the promises found in God's word for this life and the life to come.

The thief (Satan) cometh, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy; I (Jesus Christ) am come that they (us) might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. St. John 10:10. Trust Christ today.

Sunday School was well attended as usual last Sunday morning. Classes were taught by Sister Edna Jenkins and Rev. Wilson Baldwin. During the devotion services at morning worship, Sister L. Baldwin and Brotherhood were busy preparing dinner for mothers of the church. Altar prayer was led by Rev. B. D. Baldwin. A lovely song was sung by the choir. Our pastor, Rev. Baldwin, brought the message of the hour. His scripture was found in St. Luke 10:38-41. "The hand of Martha and the mind of Mary." There is something special about Mother. Above all others. Fellowship of churches were held in Mulshoe, Texas on Mother's Day and Rev. Baldwin was the guest speaker. Members are still talking about the delicious meal served by the Brotherhood of the church to the mothers of the church on Mother's Day. The menu consisted of Bar-B-Que Beef, Pork Ribs, and Ham. The desserts were great.

Visitors last Sunday included Mrs. Opal Coleman and son. Our sick and shut ins are Mrs. Juanita Bartlett and Bro. Granville Wallace. Mrs. Bartlett is a patient at West Texas Hospital, room 450. She is the prenatal grandmother of Alisa Henderson. Rev. F. B. Bell is pastor; Ms. Alisa Henderson is reporter.

"Come Let Us Reason Together Saith The Lord" Isaiah 1:18

Thank God For Jesus (Repent) "All My Children"

Now before the Morning died and went home, Saying I'm leaving "All my children" to the Lord on the throne. He's helped watch over you all; He's my friend, He's Alpha and Omega - the beginning and end. She said I was in the world of sin, and met him here!

I called on Him in a world of prayer, 1 John 1:9 -- "If we confess our sin, he is faithful and just to forgive our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

With Him I've raised you all the best I knew how. I'll wait for you all in heaven, at the beautiful gate! So don't go out with Satan, he'll make you all late! You see Satan is lying and covering the children's eyes.

Saying you've got plenty of time; there are no clouds in the sky!

Matthew 24:4-7 -- "And Jesus answered and said unto them, take heed that no man deceive you. For many shall come in my name, saying, I'm Christ, and shall deceive many. And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars; see that ye be not troubled; for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. For nations shall rise against nations, and kingdoms against kingdoms; and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes in divers places." So children, stay ready, ask God to wash away your sins.

The Lord said he's coming back to judge men, Children it's going to rain, leave those clubs, Stop that drinking, don't spill your blood, Children it's going to rain, leave that man's wife, He's going to catch you all, take your life! Children it's going to rain, leave those drugs alone!

It makes you hate your brother, when there should be love!

Children it's going to rain, leave that gambling alone!

Spend that money at home on your family! Children it's going to rain, leave that cursing, When the Lord comes it makes things worse! 1 John 2:1-3 -- "My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; And He is propitiation for our sins: And not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world. The Outreach Prayer Breakfast

The members and friends of the Outreach Prayer Breakfast met last Saturday morning at 9 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Artie Mae Washington. This was a good day for all.

Opening devotion and business were led by Mrs. M. Ward, Mrs. C. E. Brown and Mrs. M. Bogus. The morning devotion was led by Mrs. Bogus, who presided over the program.

The morning scripture lesson was taught by Mrs. Annie Day. The scripture was found Matthew 5:12-16. The subject was "The Best Thing on the Table."

"Rejoice and be exceedingly glad: for great is your reward in heaven; for so persecuted they, the prophets which were before you. (Key verse): "Ye are the salt of the earth; but if the salt has lost his savour, where with shall it be salted? It is thenceforth good for nothing but to be trodden, under the foot of men."

This speaker said the Black race is a beautiful race and she thank God for being Black. Also thank God for the gift he gave to the world on that special day.

You know with God all things are possible. Salt is very good for a lot of things. It has saving power and you and I should rejoice because we are the salt of the earth. So rejoice and be exceedingly glad for great is your reward in heaven. Isn't that good news, people?

God uses special people. This lady is one of them today. This group loves you; really we do. Remarks were given by all in attendance. Thought for the week: "A lie has wings to fly, but no feet to stand the truth have feet to stand, but no wings to fly." Think about it!

Mrs. Lillian Howard led the group in the singing of "The Old Ship of Zion."

The guest were welcomed by Mrs. C. E. Fair.

Breakfast was served piping hot. The only invitation you need is a good appetite -- physically or spiritually.

Our guest list included: Mrs. Lillian Howard, Mrs. Louzada Jones, Mrs. Douglas, Mrs. Ola Sneed and Mrs. Eva Lois Love. We love each of you. Do come again!

The group enjoyed singing "Shine On Me." Our sick and shut in list this week include: Mr. D. C. Fair, Sr., Mr. Frank McKenry, Mrs. Zora Phillips, Mr. Sanders, Mrs. Elevans, Mrs. Juanita Bartlett, a patient at West Texas Hospital, room 450; Kate Pickard and Andrew Williams.

Matthew 8:13 -- "And Jesus said unto the centurion, go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour, believe and receive."

God loves you. The Project Blessing went out to Mrs. Fannie Braey of Oklahoma, the mother of Mrs. Gracy Fulson. Mrs. Gracy, your faith will make you whole. His word is true and real. It still works for you.

Prayer request was made. If you have any, come by or write. The address is: Outreach Prayer Breakfast, P. O. Box 1223, Lubbock, Texas 79403.

Texas 79403. The prayer of blessing was offered by Mrs. Lillian Howard. Opening prayer was given by Mrs. Mildred Bogus. Can any good come out of Nazareth?? The next meeting will be held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bogus, 209 Beech Avenue.

"Come and Seel!" Mrs. Mary Ward is president; Mrs. C. E. Fair, vice president; Mrs. C. E. Brown, secretary; and Mrs. Dorothy Hood, reporter. Sauerkraut was originally a Chinese dish, not a German one.

He did receive 36% of the state vote and 73% in Lubbock County.

NAACP WILL MEET IN BOSTON! The 73rd National Convention of the NAACP will be held JUNE 23 THRU JULY 2 in Boston, Mass. THIS N THAT has learned that the veteran civil rights organization will be focusing on key political and social issues that are at the top of the agenda for BLACK AMERICANS. Of most importance will be ECONOMIC ISSUES that are directly related to jobs production. Much attention will be given to a drive to increase the NAACP's membership. Better still the NAACP is most concerned about ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT IN THE BLACK COMMUNITY. Hope this is heard in Lubbock.

SCNG DEDICATED FOR DR. KING! A Macon, Georgia entertainer BILLY YOUNG has written and recorded two songs dedicated to the late Civil Rights leader the REV. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. One is called "THERE WAS A BOY" DIGGS IS FIRST! in Area Seven of the United States Navy there is a Black who is the first to hold such position as chief educational specialist. He is CHARLES DIGGS. He has just completed a successful conference in Albuquerque, N.M. via a educational specialists and campus liaison officers. It was a great session. People like DAVE CABOUGH and LEW SYALLMAN worked hard to make it become a reality.

HAVE YOU HEARD? THIS N THAT wonders how many of you have ever heard of a BLACK BROTHER named BERNICE P. POWDRELL who owns POWDRELL'S BAR-B-QUE in Albuquerque, N.M. If you are ever in Albuquerque go by 11309 Central Avenue N.E. and have a good feed. Mr. Powdrall and wife CATHERINE once lived in Crosbyton, Texas and has been in business there since 1963. He's quite a person to talk with. THIS N THAT had this opportunity last week. More about him later. OKAY??

MAYBE A BLACK NEXT??? Since the president of Texas Tech University DR. LAURO F. CAVAZOS invited his brother U.S. ARMY GENERAL RICHARD E. CAVAZOS to deliver the address to the 1982 Graduating Class last week maybe next year some outstanding BLACK somewhere in America will have the same opportunity. If THIS N THAT understands what the affirmation action officer JULIO LLANAS is saying let's see if it will become a reality. It would be a longshot!

WATCH FOR THOSE HOT CHECKS IN LUBBOCK! If you have any HOT CHECKS out in Lubbock you had better be careful. There were 30 PERSONS who were arrested last Friday for hot checks in Lubbock County.

WADLEY CASE PASSED! The Lubbock Grand Jury meeting last week has passed the LORENZO WADLEY murder case to another jury. Wonder why???

LOOKING GOOD! People who own property in East Lubbock can appreciate the efforts of our brother JOSEPH WILLIAMS who has put together a plan of action which is apparently working to keep the weeds down in East Lubbock. It looks good. BYOTER WILLIAMS. Evidently the City of Lubbock has adopted that plan we saw last year. It is really looking SO FAN! Hope it stays like so!

CONGRATS! THIS N THAT would like to congratulate all those you people who are graduating from high school this month. You must remember however that your schooling is just now beginning.

BLACKS NOT INVOLVED! After attending the Lubbock County Democratic Convention last Saturday at Estacado High School it was quite obvious that our Mexican American Brothers and Sisters are more involved in the political arena than BLACKS are in Lubbock County.

MEXICAN AMERICANS are concerned about being represented at all levels and are willing to fight for representation to state and national meetings.

BLACK BROTHERS and SISTERS we had better wake up and do what we can to get involved.

STANDING TALL! Our friends JOHN T. MONTFORD TRAVIS WARE FROY SALINAS and LORNEZ SEDENO were standing tall last Saturday at the Democratic Convention. Even COY BIGGS spoke to THIS N THAT!

NOTHING WRONG WITH IT, BUT! There is nothing wrong with renaming QUIRT AVENUE DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING BLVD but there are BLACK BUSINESSES on that street who need our help. In the meantime while the forces are still fighting for the name change why not help such businesses as DILLARD'S KWIK-STOP DRIVE-IN 1710 East 4th Street. The LUBBOCK DIGEST will do something in the very near future to help BLACK BUSINESSES in East Lubbock. We can't do it by ourselves but we can serve as a catalyst to open some other eyes in East Lubbock. Anyway good luck toward renaming QUIRT AVE!

IMPORTANT MEETING! Why not go to an important meeting to help get the DRAMA together for the Juneteenth Celebration. Let's meet with MRS. KATIE RABFS 711 Main Street. Community Center. Friday, May 28th at 7:30 p.m.
