Kathy Richardson Receives Certificate

Broome, at far right. "Because of what you did and your concern for your fellowman, we, the people of District Two of the City of Lubbock, would like to show our appreciation," said Patterson. The certificate was presented before the entire student body of Estacado High School recently. Also shown is her husband, Eddie P. Richardson, executive director of the Lubbock Black Chamber of Entrepreneurs (LBCE).

Jesse Jackson Speaks Loud & Clear Here!!

by
Mattie Henderson

This past week, in Lubbock, we as a city made history with the first Black presidential candidate of the United States of America Jesse Jackson visiting our city.

Sponsored by the South Plains Democratic Council in a fund raiser breakfast at KoKo Palace.

At the early Friday morning breakfast and opening of the Democratic Headquarters in Lubbock, Jesse Jackson spoke to the more than 500 people in attendance at the breakfast. He made it loud and clear that in order for us to have the kind of government we deserve and fix the national debt, we must put the people together and be on common ground.

"We don't want welfare, but a fair share. We need to put Americans back to work so we can end economic violence, obtain civil rights, economic justice, and raise social justice. On the front side, you have child care, jail care, and welfare, but on the backside, we must end economic violence," said Jackson.

"It is time to put the citrus workers, textile workers, family farmer, Cain cutters and oil men back to work. No matter what color you are when you are out of work hunger hurts. So we the people must come together," continued Jackson as he spoke with authority.

"This is the age of Baracudas vs Goldfish; Robin Hood in reverse. Big business eats up little businesses, so Baracudas eat up goldfish -- given a chance the little goldfish can swim, don't worry about the little fish -- watch out for the Baracudas.

"We can become economically efficient in our own country. We need hope over dope; equal share over welfare for our future is in pulling together. Get out and register and vote for every vote counts. Together we can make change," he continued.

After leaving the Democratic Headquarters meeting with some local farmers, he traveled by motorcycle to Lubbock High and Estacado High School where he was received highly.

At both high schools, he asked the young people to leave drugs alone, because they destroy your bodies.

"Lubbock is quite a place, and we must come back to this city," he told many.

EEB Productions

"Sweetheart Extravaganza"

EEB Productions, a locally owned production company, is sponsoring the Lubbock Black Chamber of Entrepreneurs' first annual "Sweetheart Extravaganza" on Friday, February 12, 1988. EEB's owner, Ms. Emma Bradley, has been sponsoring the successful "Springfusion" at the Lubbock Coliseum, Bobby Blue Bland at the KoKo Inn and numerous fashion shows.

Ms. Bradley states that her company desires not only to bring entertainment to the people of Lubbock, but also to promote the businesses within the city by having functions at different locales. The "Sweetheart Extravaganza" will be held at the Holiday Inn Civic Center. Plans are in the making for events to be held in East Lubbock at the VFW in Yellowhouse Canyon and Manhattan Cove, located off of Quirt Avenue.

The "Sweetheart Extravaganza" is being held to promote and assist the LBCE as a viable and productive avenue for the black community as well as the city. Ms. Bradley stated: "As long as God continues to bless me with the ability, ideas and methods, I will promote and assist who and where I can."

To further show her desire to promote Lubbock, Ms. Bradley has secured the locally based group MASTER PEACE to entertain at the "Sweetheart Extravaganza." This talented and versatile group has played to packed houses at Bourbon Street, Oliver's, Chances, and Chips in addition to the Lubbock Country Club set.

MASTER PEACE's male vocalist, Michael Matthews has the talent and showmanship to be a stellar performer on the Las Vegas "strip". The female vocalist, Brigitte Hayes, though petite in size, has a "mood setting voice" that compels one to seek companionship. When they perform duets, you will find it enjoyable either dancing or listening. With the master of background sound, Walt Driscoll on guitar and Mike Swafford, a whiz on the keyboard, this group is truly a MASTER PEACE.

For a night of entertainment and one certainly to remember, plan to be a LBCE's "Sweetheart Extravaganza", Friday, February 12, 1988 at 8:00 p. m. Don't on Page 8

WOMAN reported to Lubbock police that she received a swollen eye, swollen left face, and complained of pain in her stomach area and left shoulder.

According to the police report, she said her boyfriend of two years assaulted her after an argument had happened.

She said that he hit her with his closed fist, threw her against the wall in the hallway of the apartment, and kicked her in the stomach.

She told police that he assaulted her because of a smart remark she made to him and he was teaching her a lesson for talking to him like that.

Well, who ever this boyfriend is, he must remember that the BLACK WOMAN is the beginning of our Black civilization. Will someone advise this Black brother, or should we call him brother?

A 21-YEAR OLD BLACK WOMAN reported to Lubbock police that a man was over to her house one night this week when they got into an argument and eventually a fight.

A rebus is unique in English. You take letters of the alphabet and add or subtract them to or from other letters. If you do this correctly, you end up with words! For example: N + D = N - Indian. See how good you are at rebuses. Read each sentence. Write the rebus word. Then look up and write its definition.

1. "I will have to X + M + N this dog," said the vet.
2. The N + D + N made a strong T + P.
3. What is your favorite N + M + L?
4. "Sometimes Laura acts like my N + M + E," declared Sam.
5. Did you read the story of the C + T mouse and the country mouse?
6. If I climb too high, I feel very D + Z.
7. My new puppy is a real Q + T.
8. All her grades were X + L + NT.
9. I wish I had a pet L + F + NT.
10. Alice says her grandmother was a GP + C.

There is no mistake so great as that of thinking you are always right!

A busy person may not be happier than an idle one. He just doesn't have time to notice it!

Holding Up Your End

To find words for the puzzle, read the verses listed from Ill John in your Bible. The key word running down the center tells something Christians should be doing for each other.

1. Christians should walk (live) in the ... (verse 4).
2. What John calls himself (verse 7).
3. What John feels for Gaius (verse 1).
4. A blessing John desires for Gaius (verse 14).
5. Someone John praises for his love (charity) in the church (verses 1, 6).
6. Writer of the letter.
7. A person who is of God does ... (verse 11).

It Needs To Be Said

by
The Mystery Writer

The time has come for the "positive thinkers" within east Lubbock Blacks to come forward to take the reigns of community leadership. The leadership of now has made tremendous strides in our struggles for equality and a piece of America's pie. Age, illness and other factors make the current leadership unable to give the 150% effort needed to continue the "progressive way."

With new leadership, our community should become more in line with other communities across our great state and nation. Monthly, more and more of east Lubbock's 60's and 70's graduates are returning to their place of roots. Each of them brings new ideas, methods and experiences acquired from their residing in cities across our nation and the world. We can not strifle or ignore them, they must be afforded the opportunity to utilize whatever they have to offer.

To those returning home, come forward, let the community know you are back, that you desire to offer your expertise and experience for the betterment of our community. Do not allow the negatives to turn you against making your contribution to the community. Maintain a positive attitude, do not be deterred, keep striving forward and you will soon find others that are ready, willing and able to support you.

To those who have been waging the battle, don't be "black hearted" against newcomers. Coupling your knowledge of the way things are, REALITY, with the new knowledge of the way things can be done EXPERIENCE our community can reach unlimited potentials. In combining the old with the new, we should emerge with a competitive plan that will bring forth those things we need and desire.

Already, there are some returnees that are proving that Blacks can be a positive competitor within our city. These individuals are not limiting themselves just to the east Lubbock resource market. Their base of operation is east Lubbock, but they market their services throughout the city and west Texas. This method does not place the entire support burden on just east Lubbock blacks, it adds Hispanics and Whites. Also, by bringing in the surrounding cities, including Reese, available resources are increased threefold.

Old projects and events those that met with "so so" results now have the chance of greater success. We must no longer limit ourselves to just east Lubbock, we must expand our market. Amarillo, Clovis, Abilene are not outside the Lubbock marketing area. For those of you who have businesses, have you considered the Slaton, Levelland, Post and other areas within a one hour drive of Lubbock. The future requires positive thinking, acceptance of the challenges of expanding and a belief that your individual talents, abilities and need of your services are unlimited. That the only hold back to unlimited success is your FAITH.

From the returnees I have been re-enforced in one thing that most old time east Lubbock resident refuse to accept. That being, Lubbock Black are unique, they are not like the Blacks in other cities. Well, folks, Blacks are black folks wherever they are. Being the Blacks in Lubbock are more familiar with each other, we tend to think we know and can predict each other, thereby, creating a false uniqueness for Lubbock blacks. Let's rid ourselves of that unique label and let us go forth with an attitude that the Blacks of Lubbock will respond, will participate, will support and ARE, the same as Blacks in Dallas, Houston, Atlanta, and wherever.

WHY ARGUE? THE FACTS ARE HERE!

Business Opportunities: the Old Come-On

If you're looking through the classified section of your newspaper, sooner or later you're sure to run across an ad that reads something like this:

"Business opportunity! New firm expanding into this area needs distributors for national products. No selling required. Earn $20,000 a year working part-time! Proven investment returns. Call Mr. Wonder."

THE PITCH

If you respond to this or similar ads, there's a chance you could become the object of a misleading sales pitch for a less-than-profitable distributorship. The sales routine for such a deceptive offer generally follows this pattern:

Mr. Wonder comes to your house or sends a sales representative to explain the distributorship investment opportunity. The product to be distributed may be anything from film to children's books to vending machines that dispense freeze dried coffee or soup.

Very likely, you will be shown lavish colored photographs and brochures of the product designed to impress you with the fact that large amounts of money can be made with little effort. The salesman of such a product as vending machines may get you to agree that such a machine will sell at least 15 units of the product a day.

"But let's be conservative," he may say. "Suppose it sells only 10 units a day. Even at that, you can make $1400 a month if you purchase 10 machines and they earn 50 cents on each sale."

After describing the profitable machine locations provided by the company, the salesman will urge you to sign a contract immediately to take advantage of the "fantastic" offer for only $2000.

Later, when you survey the locations, you may find that your soup dispensing machine is located in the back of a beauty salon or service station where there is little public traffic.

If you complain to the company, you may be told that an attempt will be made to sell your distributorship to someone else. Chances are good, of course, that you will never get your money back.

Experiences such as this may be an exception, for there are many reputable firms engaged in the sale of distributorships, but they are occurring frequently enough that they have become a matter of concern for Attorneys General in all states.

GUIDELINES

My consumer protection attorneys advise taking these precautions before investing any money in a distributorship:

- Find out who the principal investors are in the company.
- Ask for a list of other investors and contact them to learn what experiences they have had in dealing with the company.
- Don't rely on the representations made to you by salesmen for such companies about investment returns, product quality, or anything else—verify these things yourself or ask others.
- Don't be high-pressured into signing a contract immediately—think about the offer for a few days or even weeks, and have your lawyer look over the contract.
- Check with your local Better Business Bureau to find out if any complaints have been filed on the company.

and financial standing. In fact, housing segregation despite their improved educational and financial standing. In fact, housing segregation actually increased for Blacks in many southwestern and western cities between 1970 and 1980. However, among racial minorities Blacks were the only group in which housing segregation remained a major problem. The Massey-Denton study found both Hispanic and Asian Americans were much more likely than Blacks to live in integrated neighborhoods; they tend to object only to Blacks, regardless of income.

Canadian Blacks Charge Racism

Montreal, Canada -- Blacks in Canada are increasingly accusing America's northern neighbor of racism. The charge is relatively new. Despite a rapidly increasing minority population of Blacks, Hispanics, Asians and Arabs, Canadian whites had for years avoided the racism common in the United States. However, the problem of race relations in Canada came dramatically to the surface recently following the police shooting death of an unarmed 19-year-old Black youth in Montreal. Several hundred of the city's Black residents poured into the streets denouncing what they labeled "creeping racism" in Canada in general and in Montreal specifically. Meanwhile, the officer who shot the youth has been charged with manslaughter and Quebec Premier Robert Bourassa has appointed a commission to examine charges of racism and police brutality.

Black News Briefs

Study Finds Blacks Most Segregated Minority Chicago, Ill. -- A University of Chicago analysis of Census Bureau data released last week has found that as far as housing is concerned, Blacks are still America's most segregated minority. The study by researchers Douglas Massey and Nancy Denton discovered that even middle-class Blacks are still largely segregated despite their improved educational

Building a Team

Football fans, especially those of teams that finished out of the running this season, are looking to the future. They're asking themselves how their team can rebuild or improve before the 1988 season. Trades, of course, are one answer. But the real key to building a team is through the annual draft of college football players.

Fan interest in the draft has grown to the point that it is now televised. Team decisions are instantly met with fan cheers or groans. It's one day when the spotlight is on each team's organization, and recognition is given to the fundamental truth that good teams depend on more than the on-the-field coaches and players.

The president and general manager are critically important to building a solid team. A team, for example, must know when to let a player go. This includes stars who have been in the league for years and are often very popular with the fans.

Having too many veterans in their mid-thirties can spell trouble. When I joined the Bears we had a lot of players from the 1963 championship team who got old overnight. I think this may have happened to the Dallas Cowboys. They have several veteran players who had off seasons in 1987.

Tony Dorsett, for example, doesn't fit into the Cowboys' plans because Herschel Walker is there and he's bigger, stronger and faster. A year ago the Cowboys could have traded Dorsett for a top player or a high draft choice. But now he's coming off a bad season, and other teams are going to question how much he has left. Dallas probably waited a year too long. They may get little or nothing for him.

The alternative to building through the draft is the George Allen method, trading away draft choices for ten-year veterans. To give him credit, he got the Washington Redskins to the Super Bowl. But I don't think it is a good way to build a team. You are trading away the future. If you don't do it in two years, you're in real trouble. The players you traded for get old and there is no way to replace them.

I think you have to do it through the draft. The Pittsburgh Steelers did it very well during the 70s, and won four Super Bowls as a result. The Chicago Bears have done it through the 80s which is reflected by four Divisional titles and a Super Bowl victory in 1985. It takes longer using the draft but that's the only way to build a solid team that will continue to win over a long period of time. ll

Sports In Crosswords

By Bert Randolph Sugar
PM Editorial Services

That great sport Andy Warhol once observed that everyone is famous for 15 seconds. I guess that's true even if my 15 seconds was spent inside little crossword puzzle squares.

What brought this to mind was a note received recently from an old college friend who had attached a page torn from Crosswords for the Connoisseur. As I scanned a page filled with words all-too familiar only to the crossword triviot, what to my wondering eye should appear but the clue, 40 down, "Sports writer Sugar," with the called-for-four-letter word "Bert" fitted in so as to form the crossing words "sublet," "steers," "beers," and "tapa" (the word for Polynesian cloth).

As I stared at my momentary fame, I began to wonder why so few "sports" names ever appear in crossword puzzles alongside such vintage favorites as ai, eri, ogee, and ale (defined as a three-toed sloth, a silkworm, molding, and a bar potable if you're keeping score), and why my name did make the cut.

The first reason is simple: It fits. Names like Yastrzemski, Kluszewski, and Gretsky have trouble fitting into the normal crossword puzzle.

Secondly, it has at least one vowel. Many of the sports names which do show up have at least one, sometimes two, vowels—like Babe (Ruth), Shea (Stadium), and (Sam) Snead—the champion sports name of all time being Alou, with three vowels in four letters. Two names which never appear in crossword puzzles are those of former light heavyweight champ Bobby Czyz and former Temple basketball star Bill Mikvy, known during his career in the late 40s as "The Owl with No Vowels." Even Vanna White couldn't turn up with a vowel to save them!

But perhaps the biggest asset of the names used in crossword puzzles possess is that they can easily be defined in the clue. Of course, sometimes even clues don't help. Take the time Leo Durocher, then manager of the New York Giants, appeared on Name That Tune, a game show that required contestants to guess the name of a tune. But when Durocher struck out on the song "Sympathy," host Bill Cullen offered some clues to help the Lip identify the song just played. "Leo, suppose with the base-loaded batter for the Giant hits what appears to be a sure triple but the umpire rules it a foul ball. Fifty thousand fans are booing. Now, Leo, what does that ump need starting with the letter 'S'?" Without batting an eye, Durocher shot back, "A seeing-eye dog."

And so, in the hope of getting crossword puzzle makers to consider using more sports entries, I hereby offer the following definitions of short, vowel-blessed words: Where one jumps to contusions—Skating; A hard rubber disk that hockey players whack whenever they can't whack each other—Puck; A good walk wasted—Golf; and Indian for "Hello, Sucker"—Hiawah. Maybe I can come up with one that will get

Bill Mikvy 15 seconds of fame. ll

We need to encourage our young people to do more for the Lord. To keep them out of this troubled world, because we no that whats out there and it's nothing but trouble.

People don't care what they do to you these days and time. So they are asking all young women and young men and middle age and all to come.

We know there is going to be another Heaven and Hell Party one day, and it wont be ice cream and chili. It is going to be the real thing. So let's give them our support.

Oh yes, the St. James

Family wants to say thanks to Rev. Tom Collins and family for coming by and visiting with us Sunday morning. Rev. Collins brought a wonderful message. His text was from II Chronicles 7:14 -- If my people will humble themselves and pray, and search for me and turn from their wicked ways. I will hear them from heaven and forgive their sins. His subject was: "Prescription For Sin A Sick, Sick World." This prescription he was talking about you can't fill it in a drug store. Only Jesus can fill it. God is still passing out blessing. Jesus said, the world hated him before it hated you. And he said I have overcome the world. Jesus says he is wide awake to every prayer we make to him. God bless each and everyone. We love you. From the St. James Family.

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast met last Saturday morning at 9 a. m. in the home of Mr. & Mrs. Diebert Hood. Opening scripture was conducted by Sister Elnora Jones. It was Psalm 1. Prayer was offered by Sister Dorothy Nash. Sister Christine Burleson, president, also gave prayer.

The morning scripture lesson was taught by Sister Annie Day. Her text was: Act 6:1-7. Her key verse was Acts 6:4.

Her subject was "A Peaceful Solution."

"But with the believers multiplying rapidly, there were rumblings of discontent those who spoke only Greek complained that their widows were being discriminated against. And that they were not being given as much food in the daily distribution as the widows who spoke Hebrew. So the Twelve called a meeting of all the believers.

Area Church News

Galilee Missionary Baptist Church Crosbyton, Texas

We, the members of Galilee Missionary Baptist Church, do hope and pray that each Church did have a blessed time in the Lord last Sunday.

Our began with a spirit filled Sunday School as Director Mary Harris and her staff lead the way. We thank God for the input. We are just thankful.

Well, the day is not complete until the shepherd feed the lambs as well as the sheep. Pastor Eugene Gentry fed our souls from Numbers 21:4-9. His thought was: "Dealing With Tragedy And Triumph". Our Pastor preached from his heart. We thank God for the Lord.

A hearty welcome goes out to our visitors. Among them were Mr. Walker of Ralls, Texas, Mr. Trent Middleton of Lubbock, Texas and Mr. Dirck Bethany of Spur, Texas.

Mission in Action was well worshipped last Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m. President Fullbright set the pace for a glorious session. Sister L. Carr brought the lesson of the hour which was well taught. There were many others who participated on the program. We just praise God for these Sisters who were so beautiful last Sunday afternoon.

We are going to continue in prayer for the sick and shut-in and for all who are duty bound to pray for.

We are grateful to be in the fellowship of Rev. Jesse Jackson at the breakfast at Kokö Palace last Friday morning. As Vice Moderator of Caprock District Association, we encourage all to stand for the Lord's work in these times in which we live.

Praise God from whom all blessing flow.

There would be more divine healing in this world if we would not try to take the glory. All healing comes from God. Give yourselves continually to prayer.

Thanks to Sister Day. We were helped by this lesson. "You are loved."

Thought of the week: "There's no secrecy in Christianity." Think about it. Breakfast was served as a full course -- spiritually and physically.

We thank our guest for

HOW, WHEN AND WHERE JESUS IS COMING AGAIN

I read an article recently entitled "Jesus Is Coming Again". The writer of this article stated that he "Did not know when he is coming, where he is coming or how he is coming, but he will return". God wants His people to know HOW, WHEN AND WHERE Jesus is coming again for the Word of God, The Bible, plainly tells us HOW, WHEN AND WHERE Jesus is coming again. He never tells a partial truth but all the truth that He wants His people to know.

HOW HE IS COMING

Jesus is coming IN THE CLOUDS. He said in the latter part of Matthew 24:30 that "they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory". In Acts 1:9-11 it says "And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight. And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel; which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven." He is coming back bodily and visibly in the clouds just like he ascended into heaven. In I Thessalonians 4:13-18 it says "But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words." The Lord is coming with His saints. Notice in Jude 14-18 "And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, to execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him. These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having men's persons in admiration because of advantage. But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ; how that they told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts."

WHERE HE IS COMING

We can be looking for Jesus to come OUT OF THE EAST. Jesus says in Matthew 24:27 "For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be." God tells us plainly where He is going to stand. Zacharias 14:1-5 says "Behold, the day of the Lord cometh, and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee. For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city. Then shall the Lord go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle. And his feet shall stand in that day upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east, and the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, and there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south. And ye shall flee to the valley of the mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azel: yea, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah: and the Lord my God shall come, and all the saints with thee." Much is said in 2 Peter 3:11-18. Verse 3 says "Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts, and saying, Where is the promise of his coming?... Verse 10 says "But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night;... and verse 12 says "Looking for and hastening unto the coming of the day of God..." In closing, verses 17 and 18 says "Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness. But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen." WHEN HE IS COMING to be continued next month.

We Thank God For Jesus

"Lord, It's Me They Hate; For Your Sake"

Part 2

Luke 15:18-19 -- Jesus said, the son said, I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy son, make me one of thy red servants.

Lord, when I was like that prodigal son, "I left God The Father to have my fun. The devil had me living in all kinds of sin.

I repented and came to "the cross". I've been born again.

Psalms 40:1-2 - I waited patiently for the Lord, and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry. He brought me up also out of an horrible pit. Out of the miry clay, and set my foot upon a rock, and established my goings.

Lord, I thank you for "salvation" for that started my new life. I thank God for Jesus, and also "Jeffothel" my wondrous wife.

Luke 15:22-24 -- Jesus said, the father said to his servant, bring the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet; and bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry; for this son was dead, and is alive again. He was lost, and is found, and they began to be merry.

Lord, it's my fault that I have trusting in you. I've even put your name on my T-Shirt of God. They are the sons of God. For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the spirit of adoption, where by we cry, Abba, Father.

Lord, but some of the Brothers & Sisters-in-law, "O how they complain. Even the preacher, his wife, and sister-in-law. They said: "Youotta be ashamed."

Lord, I just wanna lift you: "giving glory to your name." But some of the Sisters & Brothers turn on me. "Your name's the blame." (My caps & T-shirts have: "Jesus is Lord; Jesus is the answer. Victory in Jesus. Try Jesus. Thank God for Jesus. Jesus is my Lord. God's my friend, and God's my co-pilot.)

John 12:32 -- Jesus said, and if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.

Lord, when the older Brothers & Sisters came against me that day, I thank You for sending another Brother -- Deacon Robert Ray.

With a smile and a handshake, his words were so true. He said: "They're just jealous, "because God gave the ideal to you."

* I'm just a nobody, trying to tell everybody about somebody, who can save everybody. ****

Matthew 9:17 -- Jesus said, neither do men put new wine into old bottles; else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish; but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved.

Philippians 4:13 -- I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.

Matthew 13:44 -- Jesus said, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for the joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field. AAAAAAMANN.

God is not through with us yet; so let's pray for one another always.
