The choir was at its post of duty and really did sing well. After call prayer was offered by Rev. Blocker. Pastor S. C. Nash delivered a most worthy message. His subject was "The Responsibility." His scripture text was taken from Judges 7:21. It was a very interesting message.

Mrs. Lena Sheffield's brother was funeralized last Saturday in Abilene, Texas.

In another matter, Mrs. Ora Jean Wilson was on her way to Arkansas to visit her very sick brother when it all began. ## -On The Two Hundred Years Of The United States Constitution: 1787 to 1987 - Part 8

by Eddie P. Richardson

On this two hundredth year anniversary of the signing of the U. S. Constitution, some interesting things are happening. For example, Justice Thurgood Marshall's speech at the San Francisco Patent And Trademark Law Association in Maui, Hawaii, on May 6, 1987, stirred some controversy from some right flag wavers and praise from the more liberal elements.

We will run excerpts of this speech and a series of articles on the Constitution and Bill of Rights and other information of Justice Marshall, the Black justice on the U. S. Supreme Court bench, since this is his 20th anniversary and the 200th anniversary of the U. S. Constitution.

With the resignation of Justice Lewis F. Powell, Jr., and the nomination of Judge Robert Bork, who is being opposed by many minority groups, this anniversary year should be very interesting to watch and see how the highest court will shape up. Follow our series for interesting information.

As we started in past articles during this 200th year Constitution Anniversary, we gave you information on our Black Justice Thurgood Marshall, the Bill of Rights -- now the Constitution of the United States of America. Starting with the Declaration of Independence.

The Declaration of Independence Part 2

For cutting off our Trade with all Parts of the World:

For imposing Taxes on us without our Consent:

For depriving us, in many Cases, of the Benefits of Trial by Jury:

For transporting us beyond Seas to be tried for pretended Offences:

For abolishing the free System of English Laws in a neighbouring Province, establishing therein an arbitrary Government, and enlarging its Boundaries, so as to render it at once an Example and fit Instrument for introducing the same absolute Rule into these Colonies:

For taking away our Charters, abolishing our most valuable Laws, and altering fundamentally the Forms of our Governments:

For suspending our own Legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with Power to legislate for us in all Cases whatsoever.

He has abdicated Government here, by declaring us out of his Protection and waging War against us.

He has plundered our Seas, ravaged our Coasts, burnt our Towns, and destroyed the Lives of our People.

He is, at this Time, transporting large Armies of foreign Mercenaries to compleat the Works of Death, Desolation, and Tyranny, already begun with circumstances of Cruelty and Perfidy, scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous Ages, and totally unworthy the Head of a civilized Nation.

He has constrained our fellow Citizens taken Captive on the high Seas to bear Arms against their Country, to become the Executioners of their Friends and Brethren, or to fall themselves by their Hands.

He has excited domestic Insurrections amongst us, and has endeavoured to bring on the Inhabitants of our Frontiers, the merciless Indian Savages, whose known Rule of Warfare, is an undistinguished Destruction, of all Ages, Sexes and Conditions.

In every stage of these Oppressions we have Petitioned for Redress in the most humble Terms: Our repeated Petitions have been answered only by repeated Injury. A Prince, whose Character is thus marked by every act which may define a Tyrant, is unfit to be the Ruler of a free People.

Nor have we been wanting in Attentions to our British Brethren, We have warned them from Time to Time of Attempts by their Legislature to extend an unwarrantable Jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the Circumstances of our Emigration and Settlement here. We have appealed to their native Justice and Magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the Ties of our common Kindred to disavow these Usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our Connections and Correspondence. They too have been deaf to the Voice of Justice and of Consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the Necessity, which denounces our Separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of Mankind, Enemies in War, in Peace, Friends.

In traditional Africa it is the father's responsibility to train his children to be truly people of valour and honesty.

WHY ARGUE? THE FACTS ARE HERE!

We, therefore, the Representatives of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, in General Congress, Assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the World for the Rectitude of our Intentions, do, in the Name, and by Authority of the good People of these Colonies, solemnly Publish and Declare, That these United Colonies are, and of Right ought to be, Free and Independent States; that they are absolved from all Allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political Connection between them and the State of Great-Britain, is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do. And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm Reliance on the Protection of divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes, and our sacred Honor.

Signed by Order and in Behalf of the Congress

JOHN HANCOCK, President

Black Coaches in the NFL: When?

It never ceases to amaze me why there are not more black assistant coaches as well as black head coaches in professional sports, particularly football. In professional sports such as basketball and football the black athlete has become the dominant figure, "the superstar."

The National Football League Players Association reports that 57 percent of NFL players are black. But there are no black head coaches. Black assistants average 1.4 a team on staffs that usually carry 9-12 assistants. As low as the figures appear it still presents an increase in the number of black assistants in the NFL. In 1980 there were 14 black assistants in the NFL, today there are 38. Of those 38 black assistants only one, Tony Dungy of Pittsburgh, is a coordinator, just below head coach. Usually the next step for a successful offensive or defensive coordinator is the head coaching position. It's sad to know that in a sporting environment where blacks are so dominant that there is only one black assistant qualified enough to become a head coach. Although no black manager remains, Major League Baseball has had three black managers, Frank Robinson (Cleveland, 1975-77, San Francisco, 1981-83), Larry Doby (Chicago White Sox, 1976) and Mawy Wills (Seattle, 1980-81). The National Basketball Association has four black coaches, Lenny Wilkens, Cleveland; Don Chafey, Los Angeles Clippers; Bernie Kerzner, Seattle and K.C. Jones, Boston. So what is the NFL waiting for and why is major baseball and NBA basketball different from football? Gene Upshaw, head of the National Football League Players Association says, "The difference is they are willing to wait." Dungy, black defensive coordinator of the Steelers added "For some reason (in football) we've got the head coach on a pedestal and we think he has to go through so many stages of development before he can get there. It's not unusual in baseball for a guy to play 15 or 18 years and all of a sudden he's a base coach one year and then a manager. Same thing in basketball. He's a star player and then all of a sudden he's a coach." Dungy goes on to say, "It just doesn't happen that way in football, with the exception of maybe Bert Stern (former Green Bay Coach)."

During the 1985-86 football season I had the opportunity to work on Tom Landry's coaching staff. I never really wanted to coach but the opportunity was there

It Needs To Be Said

by
he Mystery Writer

The primary purpose of this column is to try and get our Blacks to think, talk and positive things for the good of us all. For the majority, their thinking, and doing is negative simply because of a lack of "common sense."

Common sense should tell a person that others have as much rights as you. That if you are loud and disruptive on a public street or even on your own property, you are depriving others of their right to peace and quiet. None of us are in this world alone and what you do involves others. Therefore, think how you would feel or react if the shoe is on the other foot when you play your stereo too loud and have loud conversation late at night.

so I took it. As it turned out I quickly realized that coaching was not for me. It wasn't the hours, salary or work that turned me off, but the limited room for advancement. When I sat in Coach Landry's staff meetings and I looked around the room and saw one coach sitting next to me with 25 years' coaching experience, another 15 years, another with well over 20 years experience, those observations led me to believe that this may not be the right job for me. I could not see myself being an assistant coach for the next 15-20 years. The only way that I wanted to be an assistant coach is if I knew that it would eventually lead to a head coaching job in the NFL. I observed no guarantee of that even happening. So I retired from coaching after one year so that I could direct my energies into something positive that would one day lead me to the top of a particular profession.

So what does the future hold for black head coaches in the NFL? How much longer will it take to hire a black head coach? Bill Walsh, president/head coach of the San Francisco 49ers, who has a league high four black assistants, sees progress toward hiring a black head coach. "It will happen, I believe, in this decade." Tony Dungy is not so optimistic, "If I had to guess, I'd probably say between 1992 and 2000," Dungy said. "I don't see it happening before then."

I, myself, don't see any trends happening right now which would lead me to believe that the NFL will have its first black head coach by 1990. The black athlete will continue to dominate professional football, but black administrators and coaches will continue to lag behind. NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle and other NFL executives are not color blind. Unfortunately, the only color they see is green. Money green.

Any Word From The Lord?

Over two thousand and six hundred years ago, there lived a king by the name of Zedekiah. This king was known to be indecisive and torn apart by conflicting emotions, in regard to the prophet Jeremiah and his inability to act in good faith on his word with Jeremiah. Ezekiel described this king as the "profane wicked prince of Israel" and "whose day shall come when iniquity shall have an end" (Ezek. 21:25). Because this puppet ruler (who was placed on the throne by Nebuchadnezzar) could not act in faith on the word of God through the prophet Jeremiah, he brought misery to himself, death to his family members, and Jerusalem was destroyed.

When we read the life of Zedekiah in the narratives of Jeremiah 37-39 and 52, we can easily see that Judah's days were numbered. This young king who's actions were dictated by the "hawks" of his cabinet, was persuaded to follow the fortunes of war. He wanted to listen to the preacher and at the same time, he was apprehensive. We can see him climbing the ramparts of the surrounded Jerusalem. After surveying the panorama of imminent doom, and realizing that he was in serious trouble, Zedekiah decided to call for the prophet Jeremiah whom he had incarcerated and asked, "Is there any word from the Lord?" Jeremiah answered, "There is." "You shall be delivered into the hand of the King of Babylon." (Jer. 37:17)

Many of us are like Zedekiah, today. We cannot make decisions for ourselves not can we make up our mind. But in the time of trouble, like Zedekiah we ask, "Is there any word from the Lord?"

Thank You

To our many friends, we wish to acknowledge with deepest appreciation the great out pouring of sympathy and warm consolation we have received from our many friends throughout the community. May God bless you.

We Thank God For Jesus

"Why Don't You Read Your Bible Folks?"

Part 2

Luke 11:28b - - Jesus said, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it. Why don't you read your Bible folks? it's the "important opportunity of God."

Why don't you read your Bible folks? It's also the "patience of the Lord." Revelation 3:20 - - Jesus said, behold, I stand at the door, and knock. If any many hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup (eat) with him, and he will with me.

Revelation 10:9 - - And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, give me the little book. And he said unto me, take it and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in the mouth sweet as honey.

Why don't you read your Bible folks? It's Jesus, the son of God. Why don't you read your Bible folks? "Jesus is Lord."

John 1:10 -12 - - He (Jesus) was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him (Jesus) not. He (Jesus) came unto own, and his own received him not. But as many as received him (Jesus), to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his (Jesus) name.

Why don't you read your Bible folks? "Jesus is King." Why don't you read your Bible folks? "Jesus has made all thing."

John 18:36 - - Jesus said, my kingdom is not this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight.

Daniel 2:44 - - And in the days of these kings shall the God of Heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all the kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever.

Why don't you read your Bible folks? "God didn't say: Run for president."

Why don't you read your Bible folks? "And preach the gospel where you're sent."

Matthew 4:8-10 - - The devil taketh him (Jesus) up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them; and saith unto him, all these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me. Then Jesus said unto him, "Get thee hence, Satan, for it is written, thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and only shalt thou serve."

Matthew 4:19 - - Jesus said, follow me, and I will make you fishers of men. (To Pat Robinson and Jesse Jackson - - Brothers, you're speaking the wrong 'Gospel'! You can't save the whole world, reach out for men, out of the world. Satan is the prince of the world. God will take care of that in due time. You'll must be about the father's business.)

John 8:44 - - Jesus said, ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do.

Luke 9:82 - - Jesus said, no man, having put his hand to the plough (plow), and looking back is fit for the kingdom of God.

Brothers and Sisters, let's pray that the Holy Spirit awaken those that here turned to do another work. That great falling away, "It's upon us today, leaving thy first love. AAAAAAAMAN!"
God is not through with us yet. Let's pray for one another always. Amen.

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast and friends met last Saturday morning in the home of Mr. & Mrs. Delbert Hood at 9 a. m. It was a blessed morning. President Christine Bursleson presided.

The morning scripture lesson was brought by Sister Ardelia Hardrick. Her text was 1 Chronicles 29:10-15. Her subject was "Give God The Glory."

Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty for all that is in the heaven, and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom. O Lord, and thou art exalted as head above all.

(12) Both riches and honour come of thee, and thine reignest over all; and in thine hand is power and might; and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all.

This speaker said give God the glory. It is He who giveth the power to get wealth. Seek God for who he is. If you have malice, it has to be moved out of the heart as well as other sins. The heart has to be cleansed of all. Then Christ will dwell there. He loves a clean house. Stay in the word, lovely people. Sister Hardrick is truly a teacher of the word, and we truly love this lady. Thought of the week: "God often uses ordinary people." Think about it!

Breakfast was served to people who eat two ways every Saturday morning -- spiritually and physically -- and love every minute of it.

Rev. Wilson Baldwin was with us on Saturday. This preacher has a message for all people, and a tremendous experience. (Let's listen)

Also, Brother Earl Wheeler and Sister Ervin were back with us. Everything went so well last week. The breakfast will be in the Hood home again this week -- 2132 East 30th Street. See you then. We shall forever walk by faith, and not by sight.

Prayer Tower Memorial Building Fund Donations -- DJJ, One Hundred Dollars ($100.00), Unknown person, twenty-five dollars ($25.00) and Sister Dorothy Nash, Ten dollars ($10.00).

We thank you seed planters for your gifts. God is blessing you right now. Your problems will become silver linings if you go by the rule of God's word.

Are there mountains in your life that you can't tunnel through nor move. Read Mark 11:22-26

Let's Pray
Almighty God, we truly thank you for the givers, the non-givers, the haters, the ones who love, the backsliders, and resisters. In your name Jesus, we found all works of the evil one, and cast him out of the lives of our people. Sister Sherfield needs your healing touch as well as Sister Bonnie Brooks and Sister Ora Jean Wilson in this ad hour of bereavement. You are the only one who can lift a said heart. Watch over your people with a peaceful, pain free, worry free, sin free, hate free night, and we will give you all the glory. In the name of Jesus, we pray. AMEN

If there wasn't hell, nor heaven, we would still rather be Christians.

Several prayers were offered by the group. Closing prayer was prayed by our president. Have a faith filled week, friends. Can any good come out of Nazareth??

President, Sister Christine Bursleson, vice president, Sister Ruby Henderson, secretary, Sister Annie Johnson and Sister Linda McClain; and reporter, Sister Dorothy Hood.

Take nobody's word, you come and see!

BAPTISMAL REGENERATION VERSUS BLOOD REGENERATION

BY: CHARLES W. BAKER

I recently read an article which referred to the man of Ethiopia and Philip in Acts 8:26-39 which said that the Ethiopian "was baptized for the forgiveness of sins". This is a false teaching by the Church of Christ denomination, Catholics and others who believe that the waters of baptism bring about the salvation and forgiveness of sin for a lost sinner. This is a false doctrine called "Baptismal Regeneration" or "Salvation by Baptism". The reason that these false religions of our day use sprinkling as a mode for baptizing infants is that they believe infants and everyone else must be baptized in order for them to have salvation. It is not the traditions of men who determine the salvation of the human race but it is the authority of the Word of God that will judge the whole world. Acts 5:29 tells us that "We ought to obey God rather than men." The forgiveness of sins or washing away sins by baptism is not found in Acts 8:26-39 or any other scriptures in the Word of God. On the contrary in Acts 8:35 it states that Philip "preached unto him Jesus" and after the man "believed with all his heart that Jesus Christ is the Son of God." Philip baptized him after the man "believed" and his sins had already been forgiven.

The only way that the sins of a lost sinner can be forgiven or washed away, is by the precious "BLOOD" of Jesus Christ. Hebrews 9:22 says "without shedding of blood is no remission." The word "remission" in Greek means to receive a pardon; be delivered and have forgiveness of sins. Leviticus 17:11 says "it is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul." The word "atonement" in Hebrew means: to cover; cancel; cleanse; forgive and pardon the sins of a lost soul. Jesus said himself in Matthew 26:28 "this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for the remission of sins." God's Word says in 1 John 1:7-10 that "the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us." The Bible says in Revelation 1:5 that Jesus Christ "washed us from our sins in his own blood." Colossians 1:13-14 says that the Father "hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son: in whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins." The word "redemption" in God's Word in Greek means: a ransom paid in full, salvation and deliverance from sin.

The Word of God says in Luke 3:3 that John the Baptist came "preaching the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins." The word "of" in the term "baptism of repentance" means in English: baptism as a result of salvation or because of salvation. The word "for" in the term "for the remission of sins" also means in English: baptism as a result of salvation or because of salvation, that a person has repented of their sins and have "brought forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance" as it says in Luke 3:8. The Greek meaning for the word "repentance" means that God changes a lost sinner's mind and direction toward God only for salvation and God turns us from our sins and God transforms us and makes us into a new creature in Christ. 2 Corinthians 5:17 says "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things have passed away; behold, all things are become new." In Acts 2:37-39 we have another passage of scripture which means the same as in Luke 3:3 which reads: "Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do? Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost." Please notice that Repentance comes always before baptism. Also notice that the word "for" in verse 38 means that baptism was a result of salvation or because of salvation and were to be baptized because they had already received salvation. They were commanded to "repent" of sins or perish in hell as Jesus says in Luke 13:3-5. All must believe in the finished work of Christ on the cross of calvary, that Christ died for our sins, was buried and rose again the third day according to the scriptures and shed His blood for the remission of our sins. Acts 10:43 says "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." Acts 13:38-39 says "that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins: And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses." The word "justified" in Greek means: to be made holy; just or innocent; free from sin and made righteous in God's sight. Acts 2:41 says "Then they that gladly received his word were baptized:" and in Acts 3:47 says "And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved." Those that "gladly receive" the Lord Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Savior should then submit to baptism as a result of salvation and because of salvation by the GRACE of GOD only, through the "BLOOD" of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness and remission of all sins. Salvation by BLOOD REGENERATION.

One of nature's greatest treats is fish, so light and wholesome, so absolutely delicious, yet so very easy to prepare. The most important rule is never overcook it. In 10 minutes any fish less than one inch thick is done to perfection, whether you poach it or broil it.

MIXED SALAD

| 1 bunch watercress                             | 1 clove garlic, peeled and finely minced                           |

| 6 radishes, trimmed and thinly sliced          | Salt and pepper  |
| 2 tablespoons tarragon vinegar                 |  |

Trim off the tough stems of the watercress. Core the lettuce and separate the leaves. Rinse the greens and shake off any excess moisture. Put the greens in a salad bowl and add the tomato and radishes. Blend the vinegar, garlic and mustard in a small mixing bowl. Stir with a whisk, gradually adding the oil. Add salt and pepper to taste. Toss the salad vegetables with the dressing just before serving. 4 servings.
