"A Young Black Family Together"

George Thomas and Evona Jones met when he was sixteen years of age, and she was only fifteen years of age. They met when they were in junior high school at E. C. Struggs Junior High School; both were in the 9th grade when they married had a son -- who was named Geoge Earl Thomas, Jr.

Both, thank God, did graduate from high school in 1971, and a daughter -- Geovona Evette Thomas -- was born unto them.

George enlisted in the military in January of 1972, and took basic training in Fort Polk, La. Since then, he has been stationed at Fort Bragg, North Carolina, Fort Benning, Georgia, Fort Knox, Kentucky, Fort Stevens, Mass., and Fort Gordon, Georgia. He has also had two tours overseas, i. e. -- Turkey and Primaser, Gemany. He is now stationed at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, a little closer to home.

George and Evona have been united together for nineteen and one-half years, while George has been in the military for sixteen and one-half years. At present time, he is a communication instructor. Evona, on the other hand, has served for ten years in Civil Service, and is a secretary for the U. S. Government, working for the director of Army Community Services.

Their son, George, is attending school in Pheonix, Arizona -- Pheonix Institute of Technology, and will graduate March, 1988. The daughter, Geovona, is a tenth grader at Eisenhower High School in Lawton, Oklahoma.

George is also a pastor of Free Gospel Church of Our Lord A Savior Jesus Christ, and was ordained in September, 1987 in Lawton, Oklahoma.

He has received his Pastorial Licenses from Elder Marshall of Columbia, Ohio and Rev. Marshall of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

With only three more years to serve in the U. S. Army, he plans to retire in Lawton where he is presently buying a home, and will dedicate full time to pastoring The Church of Free Gospel.

The George Thomas Family is an example of what a Black Family can do together. That is, if the family works together

Letter To Officials

We, as officials in our community, held a meeting on February 29, 1988, and an overwhelming concern was regarding drugs and drug related crimes in our community.

With such a high level of concern for these problems, we would like to SOLICIT SUPPORT and ENCOURAGE STRONG, TOUGH LAW ENFORCEMENT EFFORTS when it comes to dealing with drug pushers, drug users, dealers, bootleggers, and other criminals who are causing havoc in our community.

Not only do we stand ready to support you in these endeavors, we feel that because of such a strong concern and response on the part of citizens in attendance at this meeting, the entire community stands ready to support you as we work together to rid these crimes and criminals from our community.

Respectfully yours,

Everyone is invited to attend and bring your Bible with you.

Rev. S. C. Nash is host pastor.

Wedding Set At St. James

There will be a wedding at St. James Baptist Church Saturday, March 12, 1988, at 6 p. m. At this time, Annie Mary Richard and Randolph Franklin will be joined together.

Our love goes out to both of you. May God bless you with a successful marriage.

Annual Youth Day will be Sunday, March 13, 1988, at 3 p. m. Guest churches will be First Progressive Baptist Church, Rev. Homer Avery, pastor; and New Hope Baptist Church, Rev. S. C. Nash, pastor.

Rev. Nash will also bring the message of the hour. Come and let us give our youth our full support.

Last Sunday was Communion Sunday. We all know what Communion means. It means Christ's suffering for you and for us. So now we are ready to work and love. Christ told his disciples to love each other just as much as He loves us. Your strong love for each other will prove to the world that you are my disciples. Jesus told them if you love me, obey me. Jesus said in his learning, He will not leave you comfortless. He will send you another comforter. It will be the Holy Spirit. The world cannot receive Him. For it isn't looking for him, and won't recognize him, but you do.

Jesus said, the one who obeys me is the one who loves me, and I will reveal myself to him. I will only reveal myself to those who love me and obey me. Jesus said, demand that you love each other. Youth president, Robert Johnson; pastor, Rev. Kado Lang.

This Is A New Beginning!!

by
T. J. Patterson

With the efforts of Super Tuesday behind us in Lubbock, Texas and South Plains of Texas -- plus the great State of Texas -- it appears as though Black people will begin to vote their convictions at the polls. Without any doubt, voting is the only answer we as a Black people can do collectively and be happy with the outcome.

In hearing and seeing the results of those concerned about voting in our community, there is a new spirit in the political arena and we should all be proud. It's just real good to see lines at the voting places in East Lubbock again -- the way it usta be in our Black community.

Politicians, thank God, will begin to take note to what has happened this past Super Tuesday, and have begun to realize that they can no longer forget about coming and visiting with Blacks of the Lubbock and West Texas communities. You see, voting spells things out loud and clear that you have something to say, and are not afraid to let your voting do the talking for you.

Voting is only the beginning for the efforts of the Black community. Too long have we been forgotten about, and now people will take note of what we are about. This collective effort is the beginning of something great. It gets us ready for the upcoming city elections and even sends a strong signal of the General Elections come this November.

The Southwest Digest is just proud of this effort on Super Tuesday. The attitude of Black people, concerning voting, is changing for the good. No longer will politicians be able to determine what we will do. For we, Black folk, won't allow that to happen anymore. We are somebody, and we are just glad to play a vital part in the political process in our community.

One important element in this turn of events, no doubt, was the short visitation of our Black Brother -- Rev. Jesse L. Jackson -- who is vying for the highest office in these United States. Just the impact of his visit several weeks ago, speaking to our young people of the city and his concern about the future of all of us, has begun some good things for the betterment of the community.

At this juncture, we're just proud of what has happened. Thank God, we as a Black people, are coming around for the better. Nothing like Black folks getting together at the polls. It just makes a lot of sense, and this is only the beginning.

Dear Editor:
Can you or the NAACP tell me who I need to call to help my daughter in a drug program. I'm shame to tell anyone. She is sick sometimes, and don't go all day to school. I have to work.

I will read the paper for your answer.

God bless you and the NAACP for you're all helping. I didn't know where to turn to at this time.

In Major Business Deal...

Stanley S. Scott Purchases A Miller Beer Distributorship in New Orleans

NEW YORK, NY--Stanley S. Scott, former Vice President and Assistant to the Chairman of Philip Morris Companies Inc., has announced his purchase of one of the nation's leading distributorships in the brewing industry.

Scott, whose wide and varied career has included positions as journalist, State Department Official and White House Assistant to two Presidents of the United States, has completed a major deal with the Miller Brewing Company to buy the Crescent Distributing Company in New Orleans, La.

Crescent supplies Miller Brewing Company products to retailers in the metropolitan New Orleans area. In 1987, Crescent generated almost $50 million in sales.

The Miller Brewing Company, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Philip Morris Companies Inc., is the nation's second largest brewery, producing such top brands as Miller Lite, Miller High Life, Genuine Draft, Milwaukee's best, Lowenbrau, Meister Brau and Matilda Bay wine cooler.

In announcing the acquisition, Scott, whose family launched the nation's first Black daily newspaper, The Atlanta Daily World, said: "I am delighted to have this challenging opportunity to purchase the Crescent Distributing Company. It's a well-managed, class operation with outstanding personnel. I appreciate the confidence shown by the leadership at Miller Brewing Company and Philip Morris Companies Inc. in working with me to accomplish one of my life-long goals -- to own a major business."

Leonard Goldstein, President, Miller Brewing Company, commenting on the sale, said: "We are proud of Stan Scott's enormous contributions at Philip Morris, as well as the superior manner in which he carried out his prior assignments in government. I am confident that his experience and dedication will serve him well as an entrepreneur. We wish Stan the very best as he launches this significant venture."

Scott served for more than a decade at Philip Morris. He was elected Vice President of Corporate Affairs, Philip Morris Companies Inc., by the Board of Directors in August 1984.

Mr. Scott served as Vice President, Public Affairs, for Philip Morris U.S.A. from February 1979 to July 1984. He joined Philip Morris Incorporated as Assistant Director, Corporate Relations and Communications, in February 1977 and was appointed Director, Corporate Public Affairs, nine months later.

Scott said: "Education and business ownership are the building blocks -- now and in the future -- in our dynamic capitalistic system. I now want to use the experience I have had the privilege of gaining in business and in government to contribute to our nation's economic progress. This progress benefits all Americans."

Prior to joining Philip Morris, Mr. Scott, a former Special Assistant to Presidents Richard Nixon and Gerald Ford, served as Assistant Administrator of the State Department's Agency for International Development (USAID).

A former New York newspaperman Scott served as Assistant Director of Communications in the White House. He joined the White House staff in 1971 and served as Assistant to the President from February 1973 to November 1975, when he was appointed by Mr. Ford and confirmed by the Senate to his post with USAID as Assistant Administrator.

As a Presidential Representative in the White House and State Department, Mr. Scott worked on domestic concerns and traveled extensively in Europe and Africa while involved in the area of foreign policy.

Mr. Scott served for four years as a radio newsmen at Westinghouse Broadcasting Corporation in New York City.

Previously he was an Assistant Director of Public Relations for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, in New York, and a general assignment news reporter for United Press International.

Mr. Scott worked as a reporter for The Atlanta Daily World, Atlanta, Ga., and Editor/General Manager of the Memphis World, Memphis, Tenn.

Mr. Scott is married to Bettye Lovejoy Scott. They are the parents of three children, Susan and Kenneth of Atlanta, Ga., and Stanley Jr., Dobbs Ferry, N.Y.

WHY ARGUE? THE FACTS ARE HERE!

A Fresh Approach!!

by
Eddie P. Richardson

A fresh new approach was used at Estacado High School Monday, February 29, 1988. The meeting -- called "Black Future: Visions For The 90's" -- a program by Black leaders in our community to develop positive, innovative, and constructive strategies for the future.

The session was basically sponsored by Black elected officials -- Billie Cavile, LISD School Board; McKinley Shepherd, Justice of the Peace; and T. J. Patterson, City Councilman; along with Eddie P. Richardson, executive director of Lubbock Black Chamber of Entrepreneurs; closely coordinated with the Ministerial Alliance and special emphasis being placed on honoring and working with our Pastors and Ministers for a total community effort -- Church, Community, Parents, Teachers, and others working together collectively for a united community stressing eliminating crime, drop-out, with emphasis on eliminating drugs.

Other meetings will be forth coming. The meeting ended on a positive note, even the critics could not be too critical.

Let's bury the hatchets; forget the past, unite for a total focusing and refocusing of the minds to help build and rebuild our long denied community and make it a self-sustaining competitive market place for all of us collectively. Let's keep a fresh approach!!

Old Fashioned Sinners

Has anyone seen a plain, old-fashioned sinner lately? According to our society we have almost outgrown the "sinning business," hence it is getting more difficult to locate a genuine sinner.

If the prodigal son were living today he would be called a "juvenile delinquent," but the parents would be to blame for that. There are no bad boys, you know. His wild oats are just youthful exuberance, a normal rebellion against an unjust society. He must be free to "adjust positively."

There are no liars today. These fine people are simply extroverts with imaginative talents that should be properly channeled. They evidence creative ability. Their instability is a facet for free, uninhibited thought. They become great poets, lawyers, preachers.

The drunkard is not really a sinner. He has an inferiority complex, and makes a mechanical (liquid) adjustment to the problems of today. "Alcoholism is a disease." Therefore, when he beats his wife, starves his children and is a scourge to society he needs our sympathetic understanding.

Adultery may be a sin in far-off slum districts, but not among movie stars, popular music figures, or other idols of the young. This is simply a case of "biological maladjustment." The sex pervert was denied "free discussion" at home. His parents were "old-fashioned," and believed in common decency. His sin -- excuse me -- I mean his mistake "is a fault of modern society."

Maybe the murderer is a sinner ... just maybe. On the other hand he may be the victim of some early traumatic experience. His mother as overly protective; he was greatly inhibited. He was never allowed to push his bowl of oatmeal off his highchair tray, so now he has pushed his wife off the Brooklyn bridge. Poor fellow!

Our world cries out. "We need more psychiatry." It also needs more moral responsibility. We must recognize sin for what it is: It is sin! We must cease to substitute Freud for Christ, the Great Physician who takes away the sins of the world.

Along with the prodigal son we must become humbly contrite enough to say, "I have sinned, Father, forgive me!"

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast met last Saturday morning in the home of Mr. & Mrs. Delbert Hood at 9 a. m. It was a beautiful gathering. President Christine Burleson presided over the meeting. The morning devotion scripture was offered by Sister Elvora Jones. It was Psalm 1. Prayer was offered by Sister Dorothy Nash, a lady who truly talks to God in a special way.

Rev. Larry Brooks brought the scripture lesson for the morning. His text was 1 Timothy 4:11; 12:1.

Teach these things and make sure everyone learns them.

But the holy spirit tells us clearly that in the last times some in the Church will turn away from Christ because eager followers of teachers with devil-inspired ideas. These teachers will tell lies with straight faces and do it so often that their consciences won't even bother them.

This pastor said, "This was the third charge given to Timothy. The pastor of the Church of Ephesus, take heed to yourself. Watch yourself, teach the truth. There are deceiving spirits that will bring their own doctrine. While we are watching other gardens, we need to be minding our own. God is breaking down strong holds. Watch yourself!"

Thought for the week: "What we wear down here, will be walked on in heaven."

Doth not wisdom cry? and understanding put forth her voice?

Righteousness exalteth a nation; but sin is a reproach to any people. Think about it!

WHEN JESUS IS COMING AGAIN

As stated last month, I read an article entitled "Jesus Is Coming Again". The writer of this article stated that he "did not know when he is coming". The Word of God, the Bible, tells us clearly when Jesus is coming again, thereby we can know when He is coming again.

The most important thing to know about His coming is WHEN. Unless I be misunderstood, I am not setting any dates nor can anyone else. Jesus said himself in Matthew 24:36 "But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only."

Please refer in your bibles to Matthew chapter 24. Verse 3 says "the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?" Jesus begins to answer them in verses 4 and 5 "Take heed that no man deceive you. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many." There are many false teachers and preachers that are deceiving many about the "Coming of the Lord". Jesus also stated in verse 6 "ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars...for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet." This very thing is happening today. That was the main reason that Mikhail S. Gorbachev of Russia came to the United States was to sign an agreement with President Reagan to limit nuclear arms for fear of a nuclear war with the United States and Russia.

Another sign of Jesus' coming is stated in verse 11 where He says "many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many." Look at Oral Roberts; Jim Bakker and others who have deceived many in our day with their false dreams and false teachings. Nine-story-high visions of Jesus and the dream of Martin Luther King, Jr. Oral Roberts claims to have raised the dead. Jesus said in verse 24 "false prophets, shall shew great signs and wonders; inasmuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect."

Jesus says in verses 32-34 "No, learn a parable of the fig tree; when his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh: so likewise ye when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors. Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled." The fig tree is a type of the land of Israel that was first recognized by the world as a nation in 1948.

The Lord says in verses 37-39 "But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the Ark, and knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall the coming of the Son of man be." Verse 42 says "Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come." Verse 44 says "Watch ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh." Verse 48 says "But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My Lord delayeth his coming: and ye say 50 says "The Lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of. And shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth." Jesus is coming SUDDENLY, Mark 13:35-37 says "Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cock-crowing, or in the morning: lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping. And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch." 2 Thessalonians 2:2 says "that the day of Christ is at hand."

James 5:7-8 says "Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord...for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh." The Lord told John in Revelation 2:11 "Behold, I come quickly." The Lord also told John in the last book and the last chapter in the Word of God in Revelation 22:6 "These sayings are faithful and true: and the Lord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly be done. Behold, I come quickly." The Lord says in verse 10 "Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand." And again in verse 12 "Behold, I come quickly" verse 15 says "I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches." The Lord ends the book of Revelation with these words in verses 20-21 "He which testifieth these things saith, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen." Jesus is coming soon.

If we didn't know when He was coming, which is soon, then we would not be expected to be watching and waiting patiently and being prepared and ready for Jesus to come very soon.

We Thank God For Jesus

"Jesus Christ Wanted By The Sinners"

Luke 15:1-2 -- Then drew near unto him all the publicans and sinner for to hear him. And the pharisees and scribes murmured (complained), saying, this man (Jesus) receiveth sinners, and eateth with them.

Revelation 3:20 -- Jesus said, behold, stand at the door, and knock; if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

Lord, I heard you knocking on my heart's door, but satar lives within me, "and I'm filthy so."

There's adultery, blasphemy, and cursing you see, the devil said, I'm okay and there's nothing wrong with me. John 3:16 -- Jesus said, God so loved the world (You), that He gave his only begotten son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

Lord, I've been drinking, drugging and full of fornication. I'm so full of the devil; "he never takes a vacation."

There's gossiping, hate and idoiatry is within me too. I was raised in a Christian home, "but I thought I didn't need you."

John 14:6 -- Jesus said unto him, I'm the way, the truth, and life; no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

Lord, it happened so quick; "I was feeling all along." Satan offered me the world, as part of his throne.

Isaiah 55:6-9 -- Seek the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near: Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man; his thoughts; and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God. For he will abundantly pardon. For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than earth, so are my ways higher than your ways. And my thoughts than your thoughts.

Lord, I'm full of jealousy, killing and lying. The devil told me I'm happy, but inside I'm slowly dying. (Cancer of the liver).

Romans 6:23 -- For the wages of sin (you're working for) death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Lord, inside of me is "violence", and it makes my life "Equal to Zero." "Please, come inside and make me anew, before my body gets cold" (Death will come).

John 8:32 -- Jesus said, ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

Lord, now I can sing; free at last, free at last; thank God for Jesus. I'm free at last.

Luke 17:19 -- Jesus said, arise, go thy way; thy faith hath made thee whole.

 I'm just a nobody, trying to tell everybody about somebody, who can save everybody ***

God is not through with us yet; so let's pray for one another always.

Galliee Missionary Baptist Church

Crosbyton, Texas

Sunday was a great day in the Lord as the Sunday School department set the pace for the day for worship. As usual, Director Harris and her staff did their function well. We thank God for His Word.

Pastor Eugene Gentry really stirred the hearts last Sunday with a challenging message. His text was from Isaiah 28:9-13. His thought was "The Repercussion Of God's Word." We were really blessed in the Word. Pastor Gentry stated: "The religious man steps upon the sliding, downward road, when he begins to neglect personal soul culture." As Apostle John tells us -- "a man prospers only as his soul prospers. The essential thing in the good man is not well-ordered conduct, but the regenerate life." May the Lord continually bless Pastor Gentry.

On March 13th at 3 p.m., the Junior Mission will be having a program, and members are asking all to come and support the young ladies of the church.

Our prayers and concern go out to the McCoy family which had a fire in their home last Sunday. We are all to help in any way that you can to help restore things which were lost.

We do pray for the sick and shut in, and may God bless you all.

May the strong bear the infirmities of the weak, and not please ourselves.

Sister Laverren Fullbright is reporter.
