Round-Up Time Is Near

Thursday, August 20th is the date for the 1987 East Lubbock Early Settlers Round-Up. The place is the American Legion Post 808, beginning at 7 p. m. Tickets are currently on sale for an unbelievable $3.00 each which includes a delicious dinner.

Why not invite a friend and come out to an evening of fine food, fellowship, and entertainment.

You may purchase your ticket from any of the following committee members: Neida Flakes, Katie Parks, Edna Raye Walker, Esther Moses, Sidney Hall, Almo Selberry, Harvey Davis, or R. J. Givens.

Tickets may also be purchased at the following locations: Mae Simmons Senior Citizens, Cavie's Pharmacy, Estacado Matador Barber Shop, and Joe & Paul Barber Shop.

District Two Meeting Set

The regular monthly meeting of District Two will be held Wednesday night, August 19, 1987 at 7:30 p. m. at Mae Simmons Community Center.

According to City Councilman T. J. Patterson, District Two, this will be a very informative meeting as city staff will be present to give an overview of the various city services which affect the citizens of Lubbock.

Also, Councilman Patterson makes known that this is the thirty-eighth (38) meeting of District Two.

"When we began in May, 1984, we made a commitment that citizens of District Two would know what's going on in their city, as well as other citizens in the city of Lubbock. To date, we are proud of the input of the citizens of Lubbock, and will continue this kind of a forum," continued Patterson.

Four Million Dollar Modernization Program Completed In Green-Fair Manor

"Open-House Set For Tuesday"

The Lubbock Housing Authority recently completed an extensive modernization program in the Green-Fair Manor Development. The project is a two-story walk-up consisting of 236 units, one to four bedrooms. It was built in 1960 and acquired by the Lubbock Housing Authority in 1965. Because of poor structure, utilities were extremely high and the units were difficult to maintain. After many months of research, reports and exhausting man-hours by the Directors and staff of the Housing Authority, the Department of Housing and Urban Development allocated over four million dollars for the upgrading of window systems, installation of central heating, and new bathroom fixtures, tile flooring, kitchen cabinets, interior and exterior doors, and finally, the application of an insulation process known as insulcrete. During the renovation, the Management Office also received a facelift.

All the dwelling units are now in good condition and Green-Fair Manor has an entirely new look due to the exterior insulation.

During the fall of this year a final touch will be added, with the completion of a $25,000 landscaping project. A Headstart Program, Community Center, laundry mat and on-site security are features in the complex that all residents enjoy.

The public is invited to attend Open-House Tuesday, August 18, 1987 from 1 p. m. to 5 p. m. at the Green-Fair Manor Management Office, located at 2807 Weber Drive.

Also, the pair of dedicated employees of the Lubbock Housing Authority, where D. D. Fair, Jr. is Executive Director, took time to show off the exterior structure of the office.

Lubbock Visitors

Mrs. Carol Jene Coleman & daughters

Mrs. Carol Jene Coleman and two daughters from Philadelphia, Pa. visited their aunt and uncle -- James and Cora Jamison -- recently.

Mrs. Coleman graduated from Dunbar High School. Her father is Clarence Wells of Lubbock, Texas and her mother is Mrs. Ceola Walker of El Paso, Texas.

Geovana Thomas

James and Cora Jamison's granddaughter, Geovana Thomas, will spend two weeks with them.

"It's just good to have your relatives around you anytime," says James Jamison.

"We thank God for our family," continued Cora Jamison.

CITIBUS Rodeo Drivers

CITIBUS had its first Annual Statewide Bus Rodeo in Lubbock, Texas recently. The local drivers practice by going through hundreds of orange pylons, trying not to move any.

These drivers are: Pete Szpakowski, Jose Trevino,

Booker T. Rohe, Johnny Rodriguez, Paul Arais, Jimmy Suarez, Anita Morris, Andy Percy, and Billy "B. J." Morrison, III.

The local winners were Pete Szpakowski, first place; Andy Percy, second place; and Billy "B. J." Morrison, III, third place.

Szpakowski entered in the State meet.

The outcome of the rodeo was that all participants did improve on his or her driving skills.

"First Lady In Song" Will Sing Here

Mrs. Cathrine L. Smith, "The First Lady In Song," will be in concert Sunday, August 16, 1987 at 3 p. m. at the Lyons Chapel Baptist Church, 1702 East 24th Street. Rev. Tom Collins, host pastor.

Mrs. Smith is known by the song, "Let Me Tell You How To Move A Mountain." A member of Community Baptist Church, Sunday School teacher, youth director, and she sings in the Church Choir, under the direction of Sister Mae Pearl Jackson who is known as the "Queen of Gospel Music."

"I thank God for Sister Jackson, because she has helped me develop my singing talent," said Mrs. Smith.

Her pastor is Rev. Tony Williams, a dynamic preacher.

Mrs. Smith is married to Mr. Walter Curus Smith, and she is the proud mother of four children -- Walter, Jr., Walter, Earl, Michael J., and Shelia L.

She is well known all over for her tremendous talent in the Gospel Music field. She is a dedicated Christian Servant.

Everyone is invited to attend this concert.

This special concert is sponsored by Brother Joe Collins, Brother Samuel Curtis, and Rev. Tom Collins, pastor.

Registration Set For Classes

Lubbock Evening High School is now accepting registration for its fall semester that gets underway September 2. Interested adults may register at the Adult Education Center, Avenue F and Third Street, from 8:00 a. m. until 4:00 p. m., Monday through Friday, and during evenings by appointment.

Fourth Annual Homecoming Set At St. Luke

August 14 through 15, 1987 is a big day for the members of the Greater St. Luke Baptist Church. You see, it is their Fourth Annual Homecoming. There are great plans for this weekend.

Beginning Friday, August 14th, at 8 p. m., there will be Prayer Meeting.

Saturday, August 15th, a Church Banquet will be held at 6 p. m.; and concluding with the Homecoming Hour Sunday afternoon, August 16th, at 3 p. m.

The theme for the annual event is "Home Sweet Home." Colors are red and white. The theme song is "When We All Get To Heaven."

Members extend a special invitation for you to be with them in this celebration. Wherever you worked in the Church before you moved, there will be a special place for you on this Sunday.

Rev. J. H. Ford is pastor.

Standard high school courses offered will include English, mathematics, science, and social studies. In the commercial area, courses in typewriting, clerical practice, and general business will be available. Classes are taught at the Adult Education Center.

Through the evening high school program, adults may earn a regular high school diploma, meet entrance requirements of colleges and vocational schools, meet employment and promotion standards, or improve general educational and cultural levels.

The Lubbock Evening High School is designed for adults 17 years of age or older who are not enrolled in day school. A nominal tuition will be charged.

For additional information, adults may call 766-1616 or write the Adult Education Center at 610 Third Street, Lubbock, Texas, 79401.

organizational meeting Tuesday night, August 18, 1987 at Mae Simmons Community at 7 p. m.

The purpose of this meeting will be coordinate information and problems which may affect the community. In doing so, this organizational will be one which will be beneficial, according to organizers at the special effort.

This organizational meeting of presidents is sponsored by the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Committee.

"We need to unify, and get together so we will get some things accomplished in our community," says Fulton Berry.

-On The Two Hundred Years Of The United States Constitution: 1787 to 1987 - Part -5

by Eddie P. Richardson

On this two hundredth year anniversary of the signing of the U. S. Constitution, some interesting things are happening. For example, Justice Thurgood Marshall's speech at the San Francisco Patent And Trademark Law Association in Maui, Hawaii, on May 6, 1987, stirred some controversy from some right flag wavers and praise from the more liberal elements.

We will run excerpts of this speech and a series of articles on the Constitution and Bill of Rights and other information of Justice Marshall, the Black justice on the U. S. Supreme Court bench, since this is his 20th anniversary and the 200th anniversary of the U. S. Constitution.

With the resignation of Justice Lewis F. Powell, Jr., and the nomination of Judge Robert Bork, who is being opposed by many minority groups, this anniversary year should be very interesting to watch and see how the highest court will shape up. Follow our series for interesting information.

Justice Thurgood Marshall

President John F. Kennedy appointed Marshall to be a judge on the Second Circuit Court of Appeals in New York, in 1961. President Lyndon Johnson appointed Marshall to be Solicitor General of the United States in July of 1965. The Solicitor General is the lawyer in the Department of Justice who is responsible for conducting all of the Department's cases in the Supreme Court, and so once again, he was back at the Court handling cases of all kinds.

On June 13, 1967, President Johnson nominated Marshall as an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, to fill the vacancy created by the retirement of Justice Tom C. Clark. Marshall was the first Black ever appointed to the Supreme Court, he was also the first Black ever appointed to be Solicitor General. The Senate confirmed the nomination on August 30, 1967, by a vote of 69 to 11, with all of the opposition coming only from white Southern senators.

On the Supreme Court, Marshall has been a liberal jurist who has voted often with Justice Earl Warren and Associate Justice William Brennan. As the current highly conservative majority began to develop on the Court, with appointments made by Nixon and Reagan, Marshall found himself increasingly in the minority, voting still with Justice Brennan, who was also now in the minority. That situation continues today, but Justice Marshall and Brennan continues to stand for the principles in which they believe, and continue to voice their opinions in dissents when necessary.

Even before joining the Supreme Court, Thurgood Marshall had won an important place for himself in the history of the United States because of his magnificent work for the NAACP and the Black persons it represented. He stood as a great symbol of the fight for Black equality through legal action in the courts, and in both his NAACP posts and later federal appointments, he stood as a symbol of Black achievement.

This great and good man has paid his dues. When he speaks, he is entitled to a hearing and we should all listen carefully. It is for this reason that we will be printing the text of his speech criticizing some parts of the U. S. Constitution, in our

This great and good man has paid his dues. When he speaks, he is entitled to a hearing and we should all listen carefully. It is for this reason that we printed the text of his speech criticizing some parts of the U. S. Constitution. The Constitution is a great charter of liberty in many ways, but we need to look at it in an objective way, and see it as it is, rather than blindly praise it during the bicentennial celebrations now in progress.

We urge our readers and friends to give Justice Marshall's comments on the U. S. Constitution serious thought. Justice Marshall has something to teach us about the document we call the Constitution, and about ourselves.

Sharing Health Information That Has Been Shared With

Me!

Senate panel amends Aus victim burial bill Trenton-morticians could be fined if they reveal Aids was a factor in the deaths of people handled in their funeral homes, under amendment added to a bill recently by a Senate committee.

Members of the Senate Institutions, Health and Welfare committee postponed a vote on the bill itself, but agreed to add provision that would protect the confidentiality of deceased Aids victims while also protecting undertakers from the potentially hazardous bodily fluids of the deceased.

Sponsored in the Senate by Sen. Francis McManimon, (D-Mercer), the bill would require doctors, nurses, or medical examiners to notify morticians if Aids is thought to have contributed to a victim's death.

Timothy Ryan of the New Jersey State Funeral Directors' Association told the committee that extra precaution would put morticians on notice and protect them from inadvertently contacting acquired immune deficiency syndrome or related diseases.

"If we don't know those diseases exist in a body we can't take proper precautions," said Ryan, an officer of the 7,000 member funeral directors' lobby. Ryan said, "Morticians typically wear gloves, masks, aprons and other protective gear when at work in the embalming theater."

But many professionals fail to take extra precautions when transporting bodies. If made aware that a person has died from Aids - or commonly related diseases such as pneumonia or hepatitis-morticians would protect themselves when transporting the bodies.

Ryan said workers would be advised to do masks, disposable shoes, and hair coverings; and double gloves. In addition, Ryan said they would spray the body, sheets and transporting cart with a disinfectant.

A Senate Health Department official suggested that amendments be drafted to penalize morticians who disclose the sensitive and private information. McManimon agreed, and said he will resubmit the bill for a vote within the changes are complete.

Ryan said there are no known cases of morticians in New Jersey or elsewhere contracting Aids in their professional roles. He said morticians are more likely to become infected with pneumonia or other disease that are not transmitted through the blood than they are to get Aids.

Aids is transmitted through the blood and could only endanger morticians through exposure to open cuts and wounds he said.

Over 65 percent of the world's population goes through the day without coming in contact with a newspaper, radio, television or telephone.

It Needs To Be Said

by
The Mystery Writer

I sincerely hope those in favor of unitary status for Lubbock read with understanding the article by the T. V. Production class of Dunbar-Struggs. That article clearly shows the bias attitudes, racism and discrimination that still exist within our schools. The said part is, the people in position to correct or give satisfaction either offer a "deaf ear" or side with the racist. To those students and parents involved, send a copy of that article to Judge Halbert Woodard, 1205 Texas Avenue, Lubbock, Texas 79401. You should also request the following agencies to look into the matter:

* NAACP, 3508 East Cornell Avenue
* HRC, P.O. Box 2000, Lubbock, Tx 79457

* Councilman T. J. Patterson, P.O. Box 2000, Lubbock, Tx 79457

* State Rep. Ron D. Givens, P.O. Box 11309, Lubbock, Tx 79408

We Blacks must stop "short-changing" ourselves when we feel we have been wronged. Regardless of what others may say, if YOU think you have been mistreated, go the limit for satisfaction. We must learn the sources available to assist. We must also realize that too often Blacks that have risen to position where they can help maybe too fearful of their jobs or just too ignorant to realize that their Anglo counterpart will find some way to aid and assist their people without jeopardizing their jobs. Also, we must understand that how you approach any person for assistance has a great deal to do with services received.

Having your facts straight, names of people involved, times and dates is always of vital importance. Be neat, be cool, calm and collected, don't be loud and demanding. Ask questions, even if it may seem like a dumb thing. Sometimes, that dumb question can mean the difference.

"Friendship, ignorance, it has not been done before, you will get in trouble" and other feeble excuses are the causes for Blacks being in the position we are. If we learn to use the causes for Black, we learn to use the services and facilities available, stop fooling ourselves, work together instead of holding each other back we Blacks can be a tremendous influence in society.

Think about this, what task have Blacks seriously undertaken, seriously applied themselves that the results were not positive. Our natural talents and abilities makes us a "force to be reckoned with" when we seriously apply ourselves.

minister continues to draw large crowds of Blacks during his current national speaking tour.

South African Raids Result In Over 500 Black Deaths

Luanda, Angola -- Over the past week, the white minority government in South Africa has conducted raids into neighboring Black countries which left over 500 people dead. Nearly 400 of the dead were civilians who died during a massacre by South African backed forces in the Mozambican town of Homoine. In Mozambique, South Africa supports a Black rebel -- RENAMO -- which frequently engages in atrocities in its bid to overthrow the socialist-leaning Mozambique government. South Africa has denied responsibility for the massacre. Meanwhile, the white-minority government admits that its forces raided SWAPO troops based in Angola SWAPO is fighting to free the territory of Namibia from South African control. South Africa has illegally occupied Namibia since shortly after World War II. At least 190 SWAPO and Angolan troops were killed during the raid. South Africa frequently raids neighboring Black states charging that they give sanctuary to rebels fighting to end white minority rule in South Africa.

Farrakhan Condemned In L.A., Again

Los Angeles, Calif. -- Although his basic theme has become Black self-help and economic betterment, the Los Angeles county Board of Supervisors has once again condemned Black Muslim minister Louis Farrakhan. The condemnation came as the scheduled speech by Farrakhan in the city. The supervisors labeled Farrakhan a messenger of "anti-semitism and racism." Farrakhan has denied the charges and despite similar condemnation in other cities, the Muslim

East St. Louis, Ill. - A Black City In Distress

East St. Louis, Ill. -- East St. Louis, Illinois is one of this nation's largest predominantly Black cities. Unfortunately, it is also one of the most economically distressed. The city has pushed back into the national spotlight recently as a result of a local political controversy which is still playing itself out in the courts. Meanwhile, the city continues to decline. Some estimates place the unemployment rate at better than 43%. The population has declined from 80,000 in 1950 to 50,000 today. Blocks of vacant lots dominate the city landscape and thus far political leaders have done little to stop the decline. Mayor Carl Officer has launched a campaign to sell nearly $500 million in bonds in order to pay for an ambitious redevelopment project. But political infighting among local Blacks has left the future of the project in doubt. Commenting on the situation in the city which is 96% Black, one local businessman said, "It's a mess, but people are used to a lot of strange things happening politically around here."

Rep. Ford Targets Grand Jury System

Washington, DC -- Black Tennessee Democrat Harold Ford last week introduced legislation designed to make the grand jury system more fair for those being investigated. Ford's legislation comes in the wake of charges by several Black politicians that conservative U. S.

Selma, Ala. -- Selma, Alabama made history last week when its city council became majority Black. During the civil rights movement of the 1960's, the name "Selma" became almost synonymous with opposition to Black rights because of the racial hostility in the city. Ironically, the man whose appointment gave the council its Black majority - 71-year-old Ed Moss - had marched with Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr. during his famous 1965 Selma march.

Strengthening Of The Body

There is a considerable amount of interest today in physical fitness. Proper diet, bodily exercise and body weight control is stress for good health. This mass interest in the body is wonderful for the body is God's temple. We should be concerned about our bodies for to neglect God's "masterpiece" would not serve the kingdom.

There is another body that we should be concerned about, the church. As our physical bodies must have proper nutrition, so must our spiritual bodies. We need the Word of God, our milk and meat. Our spiritual bodies must have exercise. Just as we engaged in calisthenics, isometric or other physical exercises to keep our physical bodies healthy and maintain a fuller life, so the body of the church is to be kept healthy and strong for the service it will render for Christ Jesus.

In 1 Corinthians 12, the Apostle Paul describes the proper functioning of the church, the body of Christ. He uses the human body as a comparative relation. Each member perform its own function and assists others when help and healing are needed. In the church, individual members are not to work competitively, but cooperatively with one another in doing the will of God. A coordinated effort will strengthen the body against the assaults of the devil.

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast

Sisters and friends of the Outreach Prayer Breakfast met last Saturday morning at 9 a. m. in the home of Sister Mary Ward. President Christine Bareison presided over the meeting. The morning was beautiful. Plans were made on two fund raising projects which will take place in this month. There will be a garage sale and bake sale. We need your support. If you have good things and would like to donate them, please call. Also if you would like to donate baked goods, we would surely appreciate them.

These efforts will take place August 22 through August 29, 1987. Call and become a part. You may call either 763-8813 or 762-3347. Or write to us, P. O. Box 1223, Lubbock, Texas 79406.

Come this Saturday morning, we will be going to the Parkway Nursing Home, 114 Cherry Avenue, at 10 a. m. These are rewarding meetings. Will you come with us? You are so welcome. We are still working on the Prayer Tower, Lubbock. It's still for you, you, and you. All races and religions. It will be open twenty-four (24) hours a day. Open for you, and your prayer needs-- and ours. Let's do this together, Lubbock. And as quickly as possible. Our world needs prayer around the clock. This writer has traveled over 3,000 miles in the past ten days. One thing can be said, without any doubt, this

Saved By God's Grace Through God's Faith

Please read Ephesians 2:1-9. The key verses in our text are found in verses 4 & 5 and 8 & 9. "But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;)" and verses 8 & 9 "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God; not of works, lest any man should boast."

On Sunday evening, May 9, 1982, while traveling on my way to preach at the Littlefield Missionary Baptist Church in Littlefield, Texas, I saw a sign on the front of a large building with only one word on it, all by itself, the word "GRACE" only caught my attention and it was the basis for this message that I preached that Sunday evening service.

Grace shows the full expression of the wonderful love of God. Grace is the only cause and source of salvation. The Apostle Paul said "By the grace of God I am what I am." (1 Corinthians 15:10). What else could have saved the chiefest of sinners, Saul of Tarsus? There is no evidence of faith in his life prior to his experience of salvation on the road to Damascus. If any man was ever void of any faith and understanding and alienated from God, deserving the wrath and condemnation of Almighty God, that man was Saul of Tarsus. But grace, in the person of Jesus Christ, conquered this great enemy of the cross, without any aid from works, faith, church, preacher, or Saul himself. This is a striking example of the unrestrained grace of God.

Some people may ask, "How could Christ save him if he were not submissive or willing to be saved?" Do you not know that there is no willingness or submission in Saul or anyone else, until the quickening power of Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit makes them willing? "Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power..." (Psalms 110:3). What is this strange power? Jesus said "Verily, verily, I say unto you, the hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God, and they that hear shall live." (John 5:25). The voice in this passage is the same voice that arrested Saul on the Damascus road. It is not a begging, pleading voice that tries to influence a lost sinner, but it is the Almighty Power of God that transforms a dead lost sinner from spiritual death to spiritual life. Man cannot, will not, and indeed, I repeat, cannot resist the quickening power of the voice of the Son of God. Lazarus, who was dead, could not and did not rise from the dead until Jesus spoke with a loud voice, "Lazarus come forth." (John 11:43). Some people say that "Jesus will quicken only those who will let him," but Jesus said "The Son quickeneth whom he will." (John 5:21).

Some people may twist the scriptures or ignore them in their vain attempts to overthrow the throne of grace, but the truth of God's word shall stand the test and grace shall continue to receive the praise. A pure running stream may be momentarily muddied by the crossing of cattle, but it will always purify itself again. Simply because the majority does not believe in God's sovereign grace is no reason to think that it is not true. The majority did not believe Christ while he was here on earth. They would not have him or his doctrine today even if he were here in person. They cannot resist the power of grace, but they can and do resist the truth of the preached word.

It is puzzling to me that so many refuse to give the praise to grace. There can be only one reason for this--pride! One of the greatest sins among religious people is self-righteousness, the cardinal sin of the Jews at Christ's first coming. People do not like to think of themselves as a worm or as a being that is unable to do anything right. They want to imagine that they have always had some good about them and that they help, at least, to save themselves for Heaven. They are not willing to forsake their own righteousness and submit themselves wholly to God's righteousness, for in so doing, they would deny themselves of any praise or credit.

People praise faith or works or both as their means of salvation. Some of these will admit that salvation is by grace but will then turn around and deny it by adding some other requirement even boasting about their faith. Verses 8 & 9 of our text says that "by grace are ye saved" (God's grace) "through faith" (God's faith) for it says in Galatians 5:22 that "faith is the fruit of the Spirit" and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God" (it is God's faith, not yours) "Not of works, lest any man should boast." verse 9. Our faith is works but the faith that comes from God is not works but is a gift of God! So you see, even the faith that we are saved by is not ours to boast or brag about, but is God's faith. People just have to have a little credit, they think. Well, what does God say about it? Please read Ephesians 1:1-13 before going further. Notice in verses 3 through 6, "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ: According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love; Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will," (not our will but His will). "To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved."

Please give special attention to that last verse of scripture just quoted. "To the praise of the glory of his grace." The knowledge of salvation inspires people to praise the Saviour. In the full sense, our praise should be directed to Christ; but then Christ is grace, and grace is Christ. God says that our praise is to be directed toward the grace that saves us. Nothing is said of praising faith (our faith) or our works. These are important in their proper places and should receive careful attention, but they are not to be honored for something they are incapable of doing. But if we say that faith or works save us from our sin, we dethrone grace and elevate something else to the seat of praise. The nature of grace is so strict, that it will not sit on the same throne with any other thing. James clearly establishes the fact that works and grace will not mix. Faith (our faith, not God's) and works go hand in hand; in fact, "faith without works is dead." (James 2:20). Grace, however, reigns alone and will not tolerate any help from others or anything else. Salvation is completely by grace only; or else, grace has nothing at all to do with salvation. It cannot be by the grace of God and also by something else. The Bible teaches that it is by grace only! Romans 11:5-6 says "Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace. And if by grace, then is it not of works; otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace; otherwise work is no more work!" So grace, amazing grace, is to receive the praise!

Our works and our faith may fall. We are good one day and then we fall into error and sin. Surely, if salvation were conditioned upon works, our faith instead of God's faith, then no one could possibly be saved. Our faith may fall, causing us to have doubts and fears about our salvation. Jesus says in Luke 22:32 "I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fall not." If salvation is conditioned on our faith, which may fall, then salvation is most uncertain. But it is not so with grace. Grace sits rightfully upon the throne of God. It is the pure expression of God's unfailing love and His faithfulness to carry out His purposes to the full extent. Grace is to be praised. It is the sole cause for salvation, and it comes only from God. Praise God and His Grace. Amen and Amen!

Outreach Prayer

generation is in trouble. Only the strong will be able to survive. Not the poor, not the rich. Not the highups, not the fakes. Nor make believers. Nor the look like Christians. You won't be able to fake it and make it. God is calling or those who live right each day. Heed the calling. "Get right, people." The show is almost over. (Get right with God) for we walk by faith and not by sight.

Our sick and shut-in list includes: Nettie Harvey, Sister Sherfield, the Whitfields, Cora Williams, Sister Nelson, and Sister Flemings.

Are you hurting?? God cares about you.

"Let's Pray"

Dear heavenly Father whom every tongue must confess, give us peace, and quietness tonight and these who are listed above, namely: Sister Harvey, Sister Sherfield, the Whitfields, Sister Cora Williams, Sister Nelson, and Sister Flemings. The health and healing present in their bodies may flow through and make them whole. Your name means healing for our bodies, thank you for the wisdom to know all healings come from you, but you use different methods and sources from which to send healing. Thank you for all of them workign in the lives and bodies of many. In the precious name of Jesus, we pray. AMEN.

Can any good come out of Nazareth???

Prayers of the morning were offered by Sister Dorothy Nash and Sister Hardrick.

By the way, Sister Hardrick left for Washington, D. C. last Saturday on business for the King.

Have a good week. We love you and God does too!

The Memorial Prayer Tower donations: $25.00.

Sister Christine Burleson, president; Sister Ruby Henderson, vice president; Sister Annie Johnson, secretary, Sister Linda McClain, secretary, and Sister Dorothy Hood, reporter.

LUBBOCK BLACK CHAMBER OF COMMERCE!

NOW ORGANIZING!!

In these days of economic down turn we as business people need to work together collectively to identify problems and find solutions that apply to us as Black business people.

Then, the next step is to have a strong collective business voice. This voice will address our concerns as business people, particularly our economic plight.

All Black businesses or prospective business persons interested in becoming a part of this national network of the business community and sharing information, ideas, projections and goals with other Black businesses across the nation should get involved.
