Named Board Member For Meals On Wheels

Mrs. Annie Sanders

Congratulations are in order for Mrs. Annie Sanders, a volunteer for Lubbock Meals on Wheels, who was recently selected to serve on the Board of Directors of the Lubbock Meals On Wheels.

According to Mrs. Sanders, this is a wonderful volunteer opportunity to help the home bound and hungry of the community.

Meals On Wheels delivers an average of two hundred and seventy (275) meals daily, five days a week, all over the City of Lubbock.

This program is locally funded, and operates solely on donations from the community.

Mrs. Sanders has been a volunteer for the organization since the program began in Lubbock.

Fulton Berry Speaks To Kids

Fulton Berry & Students At Haynes

Mr. Fulton Berry, president of the Martin Luther King, Jr. Birthday Celebration Committee, Inc., is shown above with students of the Haynes Elementary School. Mr. Berry spoke to the students in a special assembly honoring the late Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. on Friday, January 11, 1991.

According to Mrs. Nettie Edwards, principal, "Mr. Berry spoke at a level of understanding for our young children, but he also never talked down to them." She continued: "He walked this fine line with ease and wisdom. He had everyone, including parents and teachers in the palm of his hands."

Mr. Berry is an employee of the Lubbock Housing Authority.

Visiting With Gov. Richards

Mrs. Katie Parks and Gov. Ann Richards

After receiving a personal invitation to the Governor's Inauguration, Mrs. Katie Parks accepted it. She was one of the many Lubbockites in attendance.

Mrs. Parks was able to remain over night to attend several functions which included the Texas Ball where she heard Gov. Richards' second speech for the day. During this time, Gov. Richards promised the state a "New Texas."

According to Mrs. Parks, "It was indeed a trip of jubilation and a memorial experience."

Mrs. Parks said: "Goodbye, Gentlemen, don't worry, the Ladies will do it. It is time for a change!"

Highlights Of Governor's Inauguration In Austin, Texas Last Week!

RUBY JAY'S CORNER

The broadcast of the New Hope Baptist Church is heard Sunday mornings over KJAK, 92.7 FM, beginning at 12:15 p. m. It is a live presentation. If you haven't heard the special program then you have missed a treat.

Services began last Sunday morning with a selection from the Senior Choir, Responsive reading was conducted and the congregation participated.

Another song was sung and was entitled "Stand Up For Jesus." Pastoral observations were given by Rev. Billy R. Moton. He also closed with a fervent prayer. Another selection, "I'm So Glad," was sung.

Pastor Moton's sermon was entitled: "Are You On The Lord's Side." His lesson text was St. Matthew 12:30. It was another powerful message. Pastor Moton gave all of those who were in attendance something to think about each and every day.. What a message!! With the war on every hand and sadness in the land, we need to get closer to the Lord.

Following the message, the invitation to discipleship was offered. One united with the church on last Sunday morning.

Announcements concerning the church were read by Sister Alma Colquitt, and the visitors were welcomed by Sister Sandra Henry. The tithes and offering were conducted by the Deacons and Ushers.

Our sick and shut-in list is growing higher and higher every week.

Sister Taylor's mother is a patient in University Medical Center, room 342. She is Elnora K. Johnson.

Continue to pray for all our sick and shut-in citizens.

Prof. Roy Roberts' father is a patient at Methodist Hospital. He is a very ill man at this report. Let us not forget him in our prayers.

Rev. Billy R. Moton preached a very strong sermon at the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center's Theatre last Sunday night during the celebration of Dr. Martin Luther King's Birthday. He preached on the subject: "Now Is The Time; Here Is The Place; We Are The People."

The Young MLK Choir and MLK Mass Choir did a splendid job as well as all who were on the program. A special thanks is in order to the Martin Luther King Birthday Celebration Committee for a job well done this year!

You can remove a red-wine spill on your rug with club soda. Leave on until the stain is completely absorbed, then vacuum.

NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION AND HEARING ON PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

State Farm Insurance Companies has agreed to settle an employment discrimination class action now pending in federal court in Houston, Texas. The lawsuit claimed that State Farm discriminated against women, blacks and Hispanics in the recruitment and hire of insurance sales agents and field claims representatives between 1975 and 1983. The proposed Consent Decree affects only State Farm's Texas Region, which covers roughly the southern half of Texas, including such cities as Houston, San Antonio, Austin and El Paso.

1. The Proposed Consent Decree. A settlement fund of $11.5 million will be established to satisfy individual backpay claims. The money will be distributed through a claims procedure administered by the Houston office of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. Individual claimants may recover up to $100,000 or more from this fund. In order to be entitled to an award, a claimant will be required to meet certain qualifications and follow the agreed-upon claims procedure.

2. The Affected Classes. The following persons may file claims under the proposed Consent Decree:

All women, blacks, and Hispanics who were not hired within 18 months after applying or constructively applying for a Trainee Agent position in State Farm's Texas Region at any time from January 1, 1975 through December 31, 1983;

All women and blacks who were not hired within 18 months after applying for a Field Claims Representative Trainee position in State Farm's Texas Region at any time from January 1, 1979 through July 1, 1983; and

All women employed as claims secretaries or inside claims representatives in State Farm's Texas Region who applied for promotion to Field Claims Representative Trainee positions at anytime from January 1, 1979 through July 1, 1983, but were not selected within 18 months of their initial application.

3. Rights of Class Members. If you are a member of one or more of the classes listed above, you have four options:

- A. You may participate in the settlement proceeding.
- B. You may request exclusion from the class and the settlement.
- C. You may object to the proposed Consent Decree.
- D. You may do nothing.

4. IMPORTANT NOTICE TO POTENTIAL CLASS MEMBERS WHO HAVE RECEIVED NO NOTICE THROUGH THE MAIL. Mailed notice has already been sent to the last known addresses of those individuals believed to be potential class members. If you believe you are a class member, but received nothing in the mail similar to this notice within the last month, then you must notify the EEOC if you wish to participate in the class. To notify the EEOC, please call the EEOC Claims Counselor at the following toll-free number: 1-800-253-1175 or in Houston 650-1557. Once the EEOC has been notified, your name will be placed on the class mailing list, and you will receive further notices and instructions by mail. Failure to notify the EEOC will result in your receiving no further notice regarding this action.

5. If you wish to object to the proposed Consent Decree, you must mail written objections to either Mari Mayeda, counsel for plaintiffs, or A.L. Dent III, counsel for State Farm, at the addresses listed below, no later than January 15, 1991. A hearing will be held regarding the fairness of the proposed Consent Decree on January 28, 1991 at 9 a.m. and persons who have mailed written objections will have an opportunity to voice objections at the hearing.

6. Further Information. A copy of the complete Consent Decree is available for inspection or copying upon request from the library of the Houston District Office of the EEOC, 1919 Smith Street, 7th Floor, Houston, Texas 77002, telephone number 1-800-253-1175 or in Houston 650-1557. ## CRAZY HORSE

by Stephen C. McIntyre

What did you do on Monday to celebrate Martin Luther King's birthday? Did you stop and reflect for five minutes about the things he tried to do? Did you try to imagine what he would be saying and doing today? Are you saying or doing anything about anything in your day to day life? War, hunger, discrimination, homelessness, health care, drugs, education... What did you do on Monday to celebrate Martin Luther King's birthday? Well, today start doing something.

Trends in modern police action and warfare indicate the desire to incapacitate reversibly and demoralize, rather than kill the enemy... With the advent of highly potent natural products, psychotropic and immobilizing drugs, a new era of law enforcement... is being ushered in.

CIA memo

By 1975 the U.S. Army and CIA had stockpiled at least 50 tons of quinuclidinyl benzilate (BZ) enough of this psychochemical military weapon to incapacitate everyone on earth. BZ has been designated as a riot control agent, exempt from chemical and biological warfare bans.

Letter to the Editor

"I'm A Concerned Citizen"

Dear Fellow Citizens:

I write this letter with a heavy heart, and a doubt for our future. No, I am not a politician, I wasn't one when I was young and certainly not now, a senior. I am a concerned politician!

made many commendatory praises for you recently when we worked on one accord to overcome the oppressor's attack, you were great, "but" where were you January 19, 1991?

When we, The African Americans had an opportunity to select one of our own to a Board of Governors, it is very important that we do so. As a caring concerned citizen, Rev. G. L. O'Neal volunteered to run for the board of directors of the Lubbock County Water Control and Improvement District No. 2, and you sat on your rights, and would not vote for him. We need someone in every governing office to keep us informed. You know the prison site, you opposed. Well, the prison is going up now on the same site you opposed. Did you know they were going to close Struggles school when it closed? And on, and on it goes. Don't complain if one day you awaken and Buffalo Lake is a private resort. No family reunions, no picnics, no fishing -- PRIVATE! You may think you can always go where your tax dollars go, but as an experienced scape goat, I know different. Even today, 1991, there are private club (members only), in Lubbock (will not deliver cost).

A newspaper (will not deliver on Weber Drive). Your city tax dollars do not give you all city benefits. Although these are private owned and operated businesses, I would think the city would encourage them not to discriminate against any citizen.

A lot of young people refuse to live here for the above reasons. You haven't always had to have a pizza. We just learned there are pizzas.

And I'm not asking you to accommodate other newspapers, but support your own also. Southwest Digest works hard to keep you informed. You call it old news until you have an article you want run, then you carry your stories and pictures without a penny to pay. What and how do you think the paper can survive? Will you subscribe and support our own? It is only fifteen ($15.00) a year. Other papers are almost that much a month.

Back to Rev. O'Neal, the person, and the other person who won the spot was running -- won only with 170 votes. See how easily we could have won. Only "35" people voted for Rev. O'Neal. How sad, sad, sad!! Please be reminded, Fellow Citizens, we were born with three strikes against us -- Black, Poor, and Handicapped.

Together we stand, divided we fall (right into the hands of our oppressors!)

Let us be cohesive.

Babe Knew Baseball

He hit 714 home runs in 22 major-league seasons of play; he played in 10 World Series; and in the 1916-1918 World Series, he pitched 29 consecutive scoreless innings. Who was this remarkable ballplayer? Who else but Babe Ruth?

Born on Feb. 6, 1895, George Herman Ruth began his baseball career with the Baltimore Orioles at the age of 19. Ruth was considered to be the first great home-run hitter, as players before him did not often hit home runs.

In 1920, Ruth was traded to the Yankees, and he attracted so many fans that Yankee Stadium was nicknamed "The House That Ruth Built."

In 1927, Ruth hit a whopping 60 home runs in one season. It was not until 1974 that his career record of 714 home runs was broken by another baseball great, Henry "Hank" Aaron.

While his career began with the Orioles, Ruth pitched for the Boston Red Sox and the New York Yankees, and he ended his career with the Boston Braves.

Renowned as one of the greatest baseball players of all time, Ruth died in 1948, but not before being elected to the Major League Baseball Hall of Fame in 1936. H

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION

Learning in the Big City

Nowhere are the skills infecting American education more acute than in our major cities. We are squandering the potential of vast numbers of our urban youth. The fact that the young people we lose are disproportionately African-American and Hispanic makes this tragedy even more disturbing.

Strategies to revitalize urban education are the focus of the National Urban Education Summit, being held January 13-14 in Washington, D.C. The summit is sponsored by the Council of the Great City Schools, an organization that represents the school districts in 47 of America's largest cities.

The basis of the summit's deliberations is a set of six urban education goals for the year 2000. Developed by the Council, these urban goals mirror the six national education goals adopted by President Bush and the governor a year ago.

The Council calls for raising academic achievement for all urban students; ensuring that all urban children begin school ready to learn; and remain healthy and well-nourished during their school years; increasing urban schools' graduation rate to at least the national average; installing urban schools with qualified, racially sensitive teachers; and ensuring that all urban schools are well-maintained and drug-free.

The Council of the Great City Schools, working closely with 70 other organizations, developed 64 specific strategies for achieving the six goals. The Council is to be commended for his initiative that transformed laudable objectives into an action plan for improving urban schools.

Strategies To Improve Urban Schools

KEITH GEIGER
President, NEA

The strategies are as comprehensive and demanding as the economic, social, and educational problems that beset America's inner cities. While it's not possible to catalogue the 64 strategies here, four strands run through them.

The first is that inner-city schools cannot meet the needs of their students alone. Schools, families, business, community organizations, and public and private social agencies must coordinate their efforts.

The second, the strategies view students as multi-faceted human beings—not just as minds and bodies that attend schools. Student learning problems often have their roots in stressful family situations, economic pressures, or emotional turmoil.

Until the needs of the student as a whole person are addressed, he or she cannot excel in school.

The third theme running through the strategies is the need to ensure meaningful minority involvement in all school decisions. More than 75 percent of the students in the school districts that make up the Council of the Great City Schools are members of minority groups. Large city schools must address the reality of multiculturalism.

Finally, implementing the strategies and reaching the six urban goals will take money, time, and energy. The problems of America's inner cities have been building for decades. Solving them will be neither easy nor inexpensive.

But these problems must be solved—and soon. Our nation is crippling the children of its cities. And by doing so we are creating economic, social, and racial tensions that threaten to destroy the democratic and moral fabric of our society.

It was nearly 30 years ago that the Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr. said, "The bow is bent, the clock of destiny is ticking out. It is true, but speedily true: that if America is to remain a first-class nation she can no longer have second-class citizens."

This month America celebrates Dr. King's birthday. I can think of no better time for this nation to make good on its promise of equal opportunity for the children in our big city schools.

Keith Geiger is president of the Council of the Great City Schools, an organization that represents the school districts in 47 of America's largest cities.

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast met last Saturday morning with the super people at Parkway Nursing Center. Opening scripture was II Chronicles 7:11-22. Rev. W. H. Stephens taught the scripture lesson. His subject was "We Are At War." His lesson text was Ephesians 6:10-20. War is fighting; countries against countries.

Ephesians 6:10 -- Last off all I want you to know, in reminding you that your strength must come from the Lord; mighty power within you. Put on all of God's armour so that you will be able to stand safe against all strategies, and tricks of Satan. For we are not fighting against people make of flesh and blood, but against persons without bodies -- the evil rulers of the unseen world, those mighty satanic beings and great evil princes of darkness who rule this world; and against huge numbers of wicked spirits in the spirit world.

(13) So use every piece of God's armour to resist the enemy whenever he attacks, an when it is all over, you will still be standing up.

Rev. Stephens said: "We as Christian people are working daily striking against sin. If we are not strong in the Lord's power, we fail. We must put on the whole armour. We must have the power of God to stand, and to do this, you will need the strong belt of truth and the breastplate of God's approval; wear shoes that are able to speed you on as you preach the good news of peace with God. In every battle you will need faith as your shield to stop the fiery arrows aimed at you by Satan. You, especially need the sword of the spirit -- which is the word of God, pray all the time. We can't do well without God. Seek Him first!

THE DEVIL CAN'T CATCH YOU BY SURPRISE. STRIKE BACK WITH THE SWORD OF THE WORD!

Rev. Stephens said: "I don't worry and have no complaints." This truly is a man full of wisdom. (Oh how we love him!)

Thought of the week:

"MANKIND MUST PUT AN END TO WAR OR WAR WILL PUT AN END TO MANKIND!" Think about it!

We're not sure where we will be meeting at this time. You may call and we will be glad to direct you to a meeting nearest you. The number is 762-3347. Pray for us as we reach out in different directions for our sick and shut-ins.

Among those who are ill this week include: Sister Ruby Johnson and husband, both ill at home; Sister Bettie Miller, a patient at St. Mary's Hospital; Rev. Wilson Baldwin.

The Sanco Nashs returned from the Governor's Inauguration of Ann Richards last week.

To all the people who are having problems with their health, remember, II Chronicles 7:14;

Mark 11:22-26 and keep smiling. Lubbock, God loves you and we do to.

Hats off to our very own T. J. Patterson as Mayor Pro Tem. We are praying for you, and may God bless you.

Write if you have a need an would like this group to pray with you. Just call or write at P. O. Box 1223, Lubbock, Texas 79408.

Sister Betty Kemp, chairperson of the Prayer Breakfast Branch in Littlefield, Texas. We are proud of you. Each week we will be letting you know of the Branch Outreach Prayer Group.

We still need your support. Keep smiling and loving your enemy's. (It works so well).

Dorothy Hood, president; Cynthia Snell, secretary; and Elnora Jones and Annie Day, publicists.

"Be Ye Honorable" by Myrtle Myrtle

The flags are flying high and low for our national heroes. You should know -- Mr. Martin Luther King, Jr. A man who stood on his own leaving the message to all! Be ye strong!!!

FROM THE OF PARSON D. A. SMITH

Anxiety is said to be commonplace in our society. It is one of the weakness of human nature and grows out of the perversion of the glorious faculty of anticipation which we all possess. It is looking ahead without seeing God and without proper faith in Him. If we give way to it, it will bring to our hearts much trouble. It has robbed many a person of their peace, joy, and strength. It has also weakened their faith. We have an unfailing remedy for "anxiety" in Scripture (Philippians 4:5-6) if we will apply it. The conflict with any one our evil tendencies is too strong for us to handle single handed. The first thing for us to realize is that the Lord is near and accessible to us in all possible conditions of life. He is near to the pious and the profane; in places of business and pleasure. He fill all time and space. The Lord is not only near, but He is also responsive, and we need not to be anxious of nothing if we will only stop and pray about everything. Prayer is an appeal to God which shows that we are not independent of Him. There is nothing that concerns life that may not be a subject of prayer. Some mercies will come unasked for, but those are sweetest which comes in answered prayer. Because of his privilege of prayer, we have not only the care, but the heart of God. The blood of God's dear Son has opened the way to the mercy-seat. Because there is no limit to prayer, but those are sweetest which comes in answered prayer. Because of his privilege of prayer, we have not only the care, but the heart of God. The blood of God's dear Son has opened the way to the mercy-seat. Because there is no limit to prayer, there is nothing we may not ask God about. We limit our peace when we limit our prayers. When we look back and see how God has already blessed us, it should give us confidence in the future. If we pray earnestly, in the place of our anxiety will come the peace of God.

We Thank God For Jesus "Lord, I'm Glad I'm Free At Last!!!"

Deuteronomy 10:16 -- The Lord said take heed to yourselves, that your heart be not deceived, and ye turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them.

Lord, at the beginning in the garden, it was the first time, Satan has been the biggest "liar." He is good deceiving the mind.

Like he told the lit to Eve, in the Garden of Eve, "Don't do what God has said: and they were deceived.

Genesis 2:16-17 -- The Lord God commanded the man, saying of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat; but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it; for thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.

Lord, the devil yet works the lie, even this very day. "He comes in many shapes, forms and many, many ways. He even comes today as "Lite Beer, Wine, Pills, Cocaine and Weeds. He is also known as: "Diamonds, Flesh, Metals, and they all deceive."

Ephesians 6:12 -- For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against therulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

Lord, as I watched the people on TV, having what is called "A goodtime," I tried the things they did, and it only messed up my mind.

I followed the devil one day: "Started out on the beer called Lite." Then I had to move up: "to the heavy stuff, trying to get right."

Isiah 5:20; 9:16-17 -- The Lord said, woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter! For the leaders of this people caused them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed. Therefore, the Lord shall have no joy in their young men, neither shall have mercy of their fatherless and widows: for everyone is an hypocrite and an evil doer, and every mouth speaketh folly. For all this His (God's) anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

(From the little drugs, to the big ones. Cigarette tobacco to marijuana tobacco. From Lite Beer to Whiskey. From Crack to Cocaine; it's all drugs and kills the mind).

Lord, I've tried everything to get some demons out of me. "It cost me too money to feed them; I was tried and wanted to be free."

I tried to smoke them out, "increasing the marijuana cigarette." It seems as they only asked for more, "they didn't want me to quit."

Romans 6:23 -- For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ Our Lord.

Lord, I've tried everything under the sun, but I had to go to the Son. Now I can say: "Free at Last; I thank God for Jesus, I'm Free At Last!"

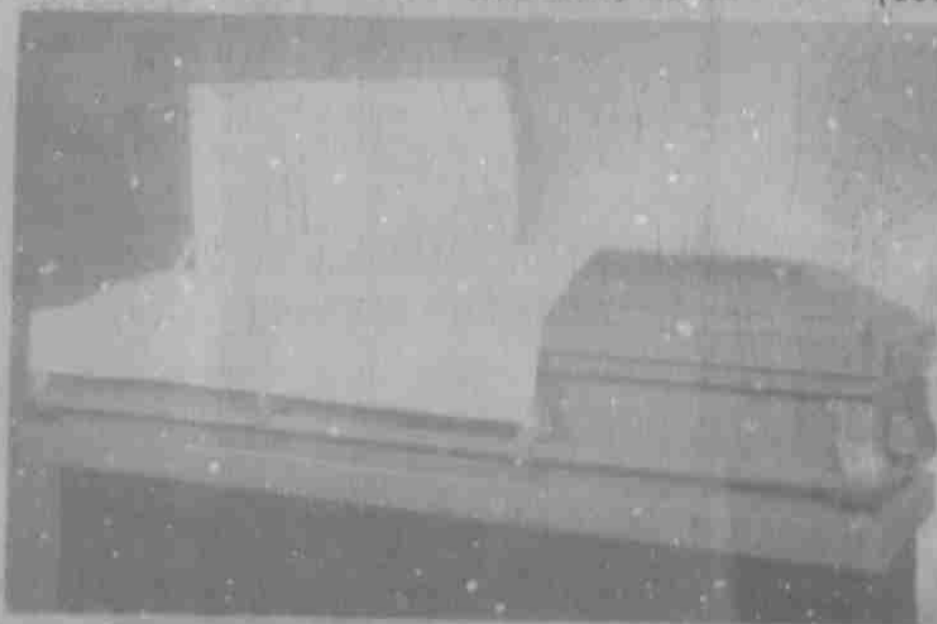

John 8:32-36 -- Jesus said, ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

God is not through with us yet. So let's pray for one another always!

Estacado High School Life Transition Program

Estacado High School is the location for a new program this school year. Austin, Lowell, Stephanie, Tommy, Andy, Carrie, Matthew, Greg, Patricia and Russell are the ten students enrolled in a multi-purpose program called "Life Transition". Since all of these students have serious handicaps, one of the objectives is to help them learn community awareness skills. They are taken on weekly trips to various Lubbock locations which include supermarkets, stores, and restaurants. However, the most important objective is to help them receive real-life experiences and practice skills that will enhance their abilities to interact with the world around them. Being in a regular school gives them the opportunity to model the behavior of the other students in a normal setting.

Two of the "Life Transition" students are enrolled in regular classes throughout the school day, and, as much as possible, all are integrated into the Physical Education and Homemaking classes. They also attend pep rallies, assemblies, and enjoy the company of other EHS students in the cafeteria for lunch.

The "Life Transition" program staff has nothing but praise to describe their acceptance at Estacado, saying: "The student body has received our students very well. They are learning about and showing concern for people with various degrees of disabilities." Several EHS students visit LT classrooms daily to help out. They have assisted with groom-

Escape By Sea

During a warm spring evening in 1862, one of the most daring escapes from bondage was led by a young, brave sailor named Robert Smalls. His captain had placed him in charge of eight other blacks who were left aboard the Planter, a transport ship for the southern Confederate forces. The ship's captain had taken all of the white officers ashore to relax before starting out on their next morning's mission.

As soon as Smalls was certain that the captain and crew were out of sight, he began to put his bold plan into action. Prior to this night, Robert Smalls had learned how to operate the vessel by mimicking Captain Ripley in the presence of white visitors and other members of the crew. While mocking Ripley, Smalls would often ask the captain, "Is it right captain?" Usually the captain replied, "No...No".... and then he would proceed to correct Smalls' errors.

From these experiences, Smalls learned much about the treacherous waters in Charleston Harbor and he planned to sail right past the "rebels" fortress by posing as Captain Ripley. Although this plan was quite risky, "freedom and liberty" were the objectives and they seemed well worth the danger.

Smalls patiently waited until four a.m.; then smuggles his wife and young children aboard. As he got the ship underway, he realized that between the boat and their freedom stood the mighty guns of Fort Sumpter and those at Morris Island. Once these obstacles were overcome, there was still the chance that the Planter would be mistaken for a southern war boat by the Union Navy on patrol. In that case, the Planter would be blasted out of the water. These were the concerns of Robert Smalls, the man who leaned out of the pilot house, flaunted Ripley's high straw hat, and folded his arms in a manner which was familiar to the Confederates on duty.

Suddenly, it became clear that the man in the pilot house was not "good olde Captain Ripley"! Thus, the Rebels frantically tried to signal Morris Inland in an attempt to intercept the Planter. However, the message came too late because the Planter had sailed beyond the reach of the Southern cannons.

As the escaping black crew neared the Union waters, a little white flag was raised. Smalls drew the ship just close enough to the Union forces in order to explain his mission. Afterwards, he was welcomed on northern soil.

The capture of the Planter was one of the War's most amazing exploits and Smalls' deed of valor was widely publicized in the North. Congress voted Smalls and his courageous crew a sizeable sum of money for their contraband and President Lincoln signed the appropriation. Later, Robert Smalls became a pilot in the United States Navy and during the balance of the war, he fought with the Union forces.
