Ellis Proposes "Motor Voter" Legislation

State Senator Rodney Ellis of Houston last week filed legislation that would register individuals to vote when they fill out forms at certain state agencies, such as the Department of Public Safety.

"90% of Texans have driver's license, while only 65% are registered to vote," Senator Ellis said. "This legislation will add hundreds of thousands of individuals to voter registration rolls in Texas, while increasing the efficiency of the voter registration process."

Presently, Washington, D. C., Minnesota, Maine, North Carolina, and Nevada all have some form of motor voter registration. Voter turnout in these states was 10% higher than the national average in the 1990 elections.

Secretary of State John Hannah said, "As chief election officer, I strongly support any measure that makes registering to vote more accessible to the public. Senator Ellis' bill would, in my opinion, go far in increasing voter registration and voter turnout."

"Voter registration is not only a question of fairness and equal participation; it is an issue that has implications for every dimension of government," Senator Ellis said. "When new people are brought into the electoral process - people who in the past have been denied a voice in government - there will be a corresponding change in the composition, accountability, and basic posture of our government."

CRAZY HORSE

Well, the warr is over. What is going to happen now? There is talk of war crimes trials for the gruesome torture of hundreds of Kuwait Citizens. It may mean that the leaders and others responsible persons for that torture will be tried and jailed for their crimes. I have no problem with those trials. Those folks should be prosecuted. But I wonder if there will ever be trials for those responsible for the torture of tens of thousands in El Salvador? What will happen to those responsible for training the death squads? What will happen to those who have knowledge of the crimes but say nothing? Will members of the Reagan and Bush administrations be witnesses or defendants in those trials?

I suspect the New World Order really means business as usual.

Last Friday I got up early and drove down to Abilene to testify in a law suit against Shackelford County. It seems a family sued the county for shelter assistance. They were being evicted by their landlord and had nowhere to go. The case is similar to one I filed about ten years ago against Lubbock County and the lawyer had asked me to testify as an expert on the responsibility of counties to care for the poor.

As I was driving to Abilene I day dreamed a bit. I remembered what my life was like as a military brat and I wondered about this country and where it was heading. I thought about the immense wealth of this country, the goodness of most of the people, and then, the mean spirited folks who keep slashing programs for the poor and the short sighted politicians who only worry about lining their pockets and getting re-elected instead of doing what is needed and right to solve the tremendous problems in this country with health care, housing, education, jobs, clean water and air.....

It has been amazing to me how our democracy has failed to represent the majority in this country. Tax breaks for the rich. Big houses and good education for the rich. Health care for the rich or folks lucky enough to have insurance. Plenty of water for industry and agribusiness and dirty water for us to drink.

One of these days we will elect honest and caring folks to represent us. One of these days better come soon.
 It was a long drive to Abilene. It was similar to other long drives to Ft. Stockton, Synder, Amarillo, Lamesa.....

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION

The Six Education Goals

Silver Ridge Elementary School in Central Kitsap, Wash., hums with children engaged in learning. Students work independently—as well as in groups large and small. Computers are everywhere. Both the instructional program and the building itself were designed by the Silver Ridge faculty.

At Wells (Maine) Junior High, students are no longer grouped by ability. The Wells faculty reorganized instruction so that students with differing abilities work together and help each other learn. Parents and teachers have noticed real improvement in student learning and attitudes toward school.

Imagine if every school in America were like Silver Ridge and Wells. Imagine if all faculties were able to design the educational programs best suited for their students. Imagine if all communities were involved in their schools. Imagine if all students were engaged in learning.

Imagine if America were to achieve its six national education goals.

Those goals, adopted one year ago by President Bush and the 50 governors, state that by the year 2000: all children will start school ready to learn; 90 percent of high school students will graduate; student mastery of subject matter will improve dramatically; math and science achievement will improve significantly; all adult Americans will be literate; and all schools will be disciplined and drug free.

Nine years remain for us to transform those goals into reality. That's an enormous challenge. But if America makes children and education a top national priority, it's a challenge we can meet.

We in the NEA believe that all of America's schools can be like Silver Ridge Elementary and Wells Junior High. And we're working to make it happen.

America's Children Cannot Wait

KEITH GEIGER
 President, NEA

A year ago we created the NEA National Center for Innovation to better focus NEA's school improvement efforts. The Center's programs include:

- District-based improvement. The Center is working with 15 school districts across the country that are restructuring their schools from the ground up. This program will expand until it includes at least one district in each state.

- School-based restructuring. The Center is working with six schools whose faculties are transforming teaching and learning based on education research and the needs of their students. Wells Junior High is one of these schools.

- Exemplary programs. The Center has identified four exemplary programs that address specific educational needs and can serve as models for other schools and districts with similar needs. Silver Ridge Elementary and the Central Kitsap School district are part of this program.

- Teacher education. The Center's teacher education project is establishing partnerships with schools and universities to redesign teacher preparation.

We're proud of what the Center has accomplished in its first 12 months. We're proud because NEA members are improving student learning in their schools—and developing models for improving learning in all America's schools.

But we're well aware that the six national goals cannot be met by the NEA, by educators, or by schools alone. Meeting the six goals requires that government, business, and all sectors of our society take responsibility for problems that extend far beyond schools but directly impede students' ability to learn.

The first goal of ensuring that all children start school ready to learn, for example, requires that good nutrition, medical care, and early childhood programs be accessible to all. The Bush Administration's proposed $100 million increase for Head Start is a move in the right direction—but it's not enough. It doesn't provide anything near the $7.4 billion necessary for Head Start to serve all eligible children.

If our nation is to meet goals two through six by the year 2000, we must reach goal one today. In the words of Argentinean writer Gabriela Marcela: "Many things in life can wait. But the child cannot. Now is the time when his bones are being formed, his blood is being made, and his mind is being shaped. His name is not tomorrow. It is today."

America's responsibility is to enable all children to meet the challenges of tomorrow. Neither the challenges nor the children will wait.

Lubbock Black Chamber Briefs

The Lubbock Black Chamber offers free blood and blood sugar testing. This special program is offered the last Wednesday of each month at the Lubbock Black Chamber office at 2812 Weber Drive, located across from the Green-Fair Manor Office.

The Chamber office also has listings of the County of Lubbock bids available. The Chamber has applications for bids for the Super Collider, near Waxahatchie, Texas, for your goods and services.

For more information, please call Eddie P. Richardson, executive director of the Lubbock Black Chamber, at 747-9804.

Opportunity With Postal Service

Donald S. Bloyd, Sectional Center Manager/Postmaster, Lubbock, Tx area will be open to the general public March 11 thru March 15, 1991.

Offices included on the Pampa Rural Carrier Area Eligibility Register are Follett, Miami, Mobeetie, Pampa, Shamrock, Wellington, Wheeler, and Booker.

It is anticipated that the majority of vacancies to be filed from this register will be Rural Carrier Associate (Part-time Rural Carrier). Rural Carrier Associates are paid at the rate of $11.01 per hour, and are non-career positions.

Interested persons may apply at the Lubbock Personnel Office, 1515 Avenue G, Lubbock, Tx; the Amarillo Personnel Office, 2301 Ross St., Amarillo, Tx; or at one of the offices served by the register during the week of the open announcement only.

No applicants will be accepted before or after these dates.

Parkway Church Community Outreach

Parkway Drive Church of Christ, 3120 Parkway Drive, Lubbock, is making intense preparation for a Gospel meeting to be held March 10-13, 1991. From 30 to 40 member volunteers have met two Saturday mornings to canvass homes in a neighborhood outreach. More than inviting participation in the upcoming series of lessons, the participants extend a hand in friendship offering to be of service to residents.

Door knocking will continue through the days of the meeting with 8 students from Harding University, Searcy, Arkansas, joining in the effort.

Jim Woodroof, evangelist from Searcy, will be the preacher for the "Whose Side Are You Living On?" series of lessons.

Services will be at 10 a. m. and 5:30 p. m. on Sunday and at 7:30 p. m. on Monday through Wednesday nights.

Everyone is invited to come for fellowship and learning. Lesson topics are: "The Undeniable Christ," "What if Christ Were Not?," "The Churches Peace Initiative in Time of War," "Our Assurance is In The Gospels," and "The God of The Hopeless."

CHURCH DIRECTORY

Your Absence from Church is A Vote To Close Its Doors

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast met last Saturday morning at Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church's Fellowship Hall at 10:00 a. m. Opening song was "You Will Know We Are Christians By Our Love."

Food was served by buffet style, and enjoyed by all.

The welcome was offered by Sister Chritine Burleson, and a response was given by Leslie Williams.

The morning scripture lesson was taught by Sister Janice Dunn. A solo, "His Precious Blood," was sung by Sister Ardella Hardrick.

Sister Dunn's subject was "Heed, Act and Receive." Her scriptures Romans 8:1-17; II Chronicles 7:14. Special emphasis was on Romans 8:16-17.

(16) The spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the Children of God.

(17) And if children, then heirs; heirs of God and joint -- heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

This speaker said: "Heed means to pay close attention. If we are born again, we are joint heirs with God in our inheritance."

We always receive when we act on the word of God.

Paul uses adoption to illustrate the believer's new relationship with God in Roman culture. The adopted person lost all rights in his old family and gained all the rights of a legitimate child in his new family. He became a full heir to his new father's estate. Likewise, when a person becomes a Christian. He gains all the privileges and responsibilities of a child in God's Family, one of these outstanding privileges is being led by the Spirit.

We are no longer crying and fearful slaves. Instead, we are the Master's Children. What a privilege because we are God's Children. We share in great treasures; God has already given us his best gifts. His son, forgiveness and eternal life, and he encourages us to ask him for whatever we need.

Nothing we suffer, however, can compare to the great price Jesus paid to save us!

Humble ourselves -- Seek - Pray.

We sure wish those of you who missed this great lesson, some how could have been there.

Sister Dunn is a great teacher with the anointing of the Holy Spirit, and the power comes forth and blessed us all.

Thanks again, Sister Dunn and Rev. A. L. Dunn. We love both of you.

Thought of the Week: "The devil hates everybody and God loves everybody. So you had better love all you can in order to be on the safe side."

The Bethel Women prepared the breakfast food, and you could feel the love that they had in their hearts. We just love these women -- Sisters Dorothy Nash, Buelah Winters, Charlie Bell Pratt, Ruby Tucker, Ora Jean Keys and Janice Dunn.

Also, the women who were not present, we love you and thank you for the opportunity. To our guest, you're special. Please come again.

Rev. A. L. Dunn prayed for our sick and shut-in.

FROM THE OF
PARSON D. A. SMITH

It was a crucial time in the life and ministry of Jesus. For two years, he had healed the sick, performed many miracles, preached; and His disciples had witnessed it all. Now Jesus asked them "Whom do men say that I am?" (Mark 8:27) as they were walking along the road to an area called Caesarea Philippi. He wanted His disciples to tell Him what people thought about Him. He already knew the answers to His question, but He wanted His close associates to talk about it in preparation for expressing their own opinion about Him.

As he gathered the various opinions that His friends had heard, it became very clear that the people as a whole thought were upon Him and that they were impressed by what He said, what He did, and what He was so much so that even when they differed about Him, there was a common consensus that this man in their midst took rank by right among the greatest figures in history. They had to weigh Jesus out so that they may know how to deal with this new and impressive fact that had entered their lives so that they may fit Him into their scheme of things.

After the disciples had responded to Jesus by telling Him what others thought about Him, He wanted to know their thoughts. "Whom say ye that I am?" (Mark 8:29) He asked. The impulsive Peter was prompt in confessing, "Thou art the Christ!" What joy must have filled the heart of Jesus. Peter knew. Peter recognized Him. "Blessed art thou, Peter," He said.

At some time in our lives each of us answer the same question: "Whom do you say that I am?" Do you recognize who Jesus really is? It is not enough to know what other people think of Jesus. You must make that personal discovery so that you may know Him for yourself.

We Thank God For Jesus

"Lord, We The U. S. A. Forgot To Remember Not To Forget!"

Part 1

Deuteronomy 6:10a, 11, 12a -- It shall be, when the Lord thy God shall have brought thee into the land, and houses full of all good things, which thou filledst not, and wells digged, which thou diggedst not, vineyards and olive trees, which thou plantedst not; when thou shalt have eaten and be full; then beware lest thou forget the Lord.

Lord, thanks, for keeping "your promise" you made with us and our father's, but we, the U. S. A. on keeping our's, we didn't even bother.

When we came to this land, many were considered slaves. It was you who gave us the things we needed, "but we loved the things our hands made. Everyone wanted his rights to do his sins and have fun."

Romans 1:20-22 -- For invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and godhead; so that they are without excuse: because they, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools.

"Lord, we're now so corrupted, the U. S. A. as a whole." Our gods are the ones seen on TV, and they're very, very cold.

*** Lord, we forgot to remember not to forget ***
 Deuteronomy 4:23-24 -- The Lord said, take heed unto yourselves, lest ye forget the covenant of the Lord, Your God, which he made with you. And make you a graven image, or the likeness of any thing, which the Lord thy God hath forbidden thee. For the Lord thy God is a consuming fire, even a jealous God.

"Lord, we're the U. S. A. who is in trouble, as any fool can see." This nation, the great whore, is in for the great fall you said it's to be."

Isiah 1:4a -- Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the Lord.

Deuteronomy 28:14-20 -- The Lord said, but it shall come to pass, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command thee this day; that all these curses shall come upon thee, and over take thee; cursed shalt thou be in the city, and cursed shalt thou be in the field. Cursed shall be thy basket in thy store. Cursed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy land, the increase of thy kine (cattle), and the flocks of thy sheep. Cursed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and cursed shalt thou be when thou goest out. The Lord shall depend upon thee cursing, vexation (confusion), and rebuke, in all that thou settest thine hand unto for to do. Until thou be destroyed, and until thou perish quickly; because of the wickedness of thy doings, whereby thou hast forsaken me.

Galatians 6:7 -- Be not deceived; God is not mocked; for whatever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

*** The Bad Thing Is; You Reap Much More Than you sowed! ***
 God is not through with us yet. So let's pray for one another always.

Dunbar International Alumni Association

P. O. Box 3362 - Lubbock, Texas 79452
(806) 766-1300

The Dunbar International Alumni Association does hereby serve notice to all that we have finalized our intentions with our legal counsel in order to seek prevention of the Lubbock Independent School District's efforts to secure unitary status or rob our community of yet another neighborhood school.

All students in Dunbar's attendance zone and those wishing to attend Dunbar must not panic and be fooled into accepting or believing that Dunbar is doomed to become a junior high school. This plan by LISD HAS NOT BEEN approved by the courts for implementation! Though some school personnel will attempt to get you to transfer, you must not be misled. DUNBAR is your school, and you MUST NOT abandon your plans to attend Dunbar!

All alumni and supporters are asked to rise to the challenge NOW by contributing to the Dunbar Legal Defense Fund, any amount accepted. We can no longer sit and do nothing, and will not succumb to an administration and majority board that have totally insensitive to our history, our successes, our heritage, our future, or any burdens that we might endure. They seem to care less!

We do hereby "draw our mark in the sand"!
