Judge McKinley Shepard

Judge Shepard Warns About Republicans

Judge McKinley Shepard, a candidate for Justice of the Peace, Precinct 6, this week warned all voters about the Republicans. He made it known about the Civil Rights Bill which was vetoed by President George Bush. "This will hurt us drastically," said Judge Shepard.

"Remember this in November," he said. "Remember in November," is the theme among Black voters, according to Judge Morris Overstreet, while campaigning for a seat on the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals.

Shepard said he agrees strongly with Judge Overstreet. According to Shepard, "We've fought too long. We've marched. We've prayed and yes, we've died. Now it is now the time to turn back the hands of time." As it is exactly what Mr. Bush did by vetoing the 1990 Civil Rights Bill.

"Racism is still alive and well today," said Shepard.

State Rep. Ron Wilson notes that point in an advertisement by Jim Hightower's rival, Rick Perry, in which Hightower is seen with Jesse Jackson. The advertisement asks whether Hightower represents mainstream values.

Judge Shepard said he personally observed a Rick Perry advertisement on a local TV station in Lubbock. The advertisement said: "Jim Hightower was Jesse Jackson's campaign manager." Continuing, he said, "I assure you with the negative advertising around today, this was supposed to be a negative for Hightower. Rick Perry was sending a message. Was that message: 'I know you Blacks like and respect Jesse Jackson, but that's alright. I don't need or want your vote anyway?"

State Rep. Wilson went to say: "Rick Perry's ad sends a racist negative message. He's trying to portray (Jim Hightower) as a Negro lover."

Jim Hightower said of the Rick Perry ad "I think we were beyond that in Texas."

Judge Shepard, along with the Harris County Democratic Chairman, noted that U. S. Senator Phil Gramm (R-Texas), "flew back to Washington to cast the deciding vote to sustain the President's veto of the Civil Rights Bill, with David Duke looking down from the gallery."

Judge Shepard and Judge Overstreet are asking himself and Blacks: "Why did President Bush veto the 1990 Civil Rights Bill?"

Bush said: "I could not support Congress's measure, because in effect, it would force businesses to adopt hiring and promotion quotas."

EHS Cheerleaders

"You've seen the rest, now here's the best, E-H-S!" could be said about the Estacado High School cheerleaders who are always on the go to keep the fans focused on the Matadors. Being a cheerleader may appear to the casual observer to be purely glamorous position - those flashy uniforms, pep rally performances, games, and out-of-town bus trips - WOW! But behind all the show there is work to be done. These dedicated young ladies who cheer for their teams also spend many hours behind the scenes practicing and perfecting their skills, painting spirit signs, and selling game ribbons.

Coming to school early and staying late, the pressure to keep up grades, and the stress of being in the spotlight day after day could be exasperating. The Estacado High School "Cheers", however, show by their smiling faces and friendly personalities that they are taking it all in stride. Leading the Matadors on the varsity squad are Patricia Conwright, Treasa Brown, Valerie Freeman, Shelia Holly, Tammy Sendiffer, and Phronda Sanders.

RUBY JAY'S CORNER

THIS WRITER, RUBY JAY, lost her sister last week in Athens, Texas. Services were held there last Saturday afternoon at 1:00 p. m. THIS WRITER request your precious prayers.

Services were well attended last Sunday morning at the New Hope Baptist Church. The day began at 9:30 a. m. with Sunday School. All teachers were at their post of duty. It was very good lesson about "trust."

During the morning worship hour, Deacons Swain and Ervin were responsible for the prayer and scripture.

The Senior Choir sung from the bottom of their hearts.

Pastor B. R. Moton brought his pastoral observations.

Pastor Moton preached on the subject: "God Said He Would See You Through." His text was II Kings 19:6-7; 32-34. What a wonderful message.

Pastor Moton is asking for all elected officers to be turned in by November 18, 1990.

Federation of Choirs was held at New Hope last Sunday afternoon, and the church was packed. What a blessing!

Happy birthday to the "First Lady" of New Hope as she had one on October 24, 1990.

Welcome to the City of Lubbock, the mother of Pastor Moton. She is from Tuscaloosa, Al.

Despite acceptance by Democratic gubernatorial candidate Ann Richards, her Republican opponent, Clayton

Williams, last week turned down an invitation from KERA-TV, WFAA-TV Channel 8, The Dallas Morning News and October 30. Richards last week announced plans to take part in "The Texas Debates."

TPA releases general election endorsements

TPA News Service

HOUSTON--The Texas Publishers Association announces its state-wide endorsements in the November 6 general election. TPA, the black press of Texas, screened and endorsed candidates who appeared before them during September and October.

"It took more time than we thought, but it was well worth the time spent.

"This was a long and thorough process but we felt that it was necessary. Our goal is to bring our readers throughout Texas information about state-wide candidates so they can use to make better voting decisions", said Dorris Ellis, TPA President.

Ellis said that TPA believes that their endorsed candidates would work in the best interest of their 20-member organization newspapers. TPA has members in Austin, Dallas, San Antonio, Houston, Tyler, Waco, Ft. Worth, Arlington, Wichita Falls and Corsicana. The organization is headquartered in Houston.

Southwest Digest Endorses Bidal Aguero & Judge McKinley Shephard: Both Deserve Our Precious Vote

With the General Election on a few hours away, and all the campaigning out of the way, the Southwest Digest is eager to endorse several candidates whom we feel will do well as representing us at the various posts they are seeking. These endorsements, because we are familiar with these persons, and are willing to let the voters of the Lubbock and the South Plains of Texas know where we stand.

If we are to be a voice in the community, it is necessary for us to so in order that our readers will know where we stand -- and we do this without fear or favor. As a part of the "Fourth Estate", it is our responsibility to do so.

So here are our endorsements:

LI. Governor - Bob Bullock. He is very well deserving of this post, because of his leadership over the many years in state government.

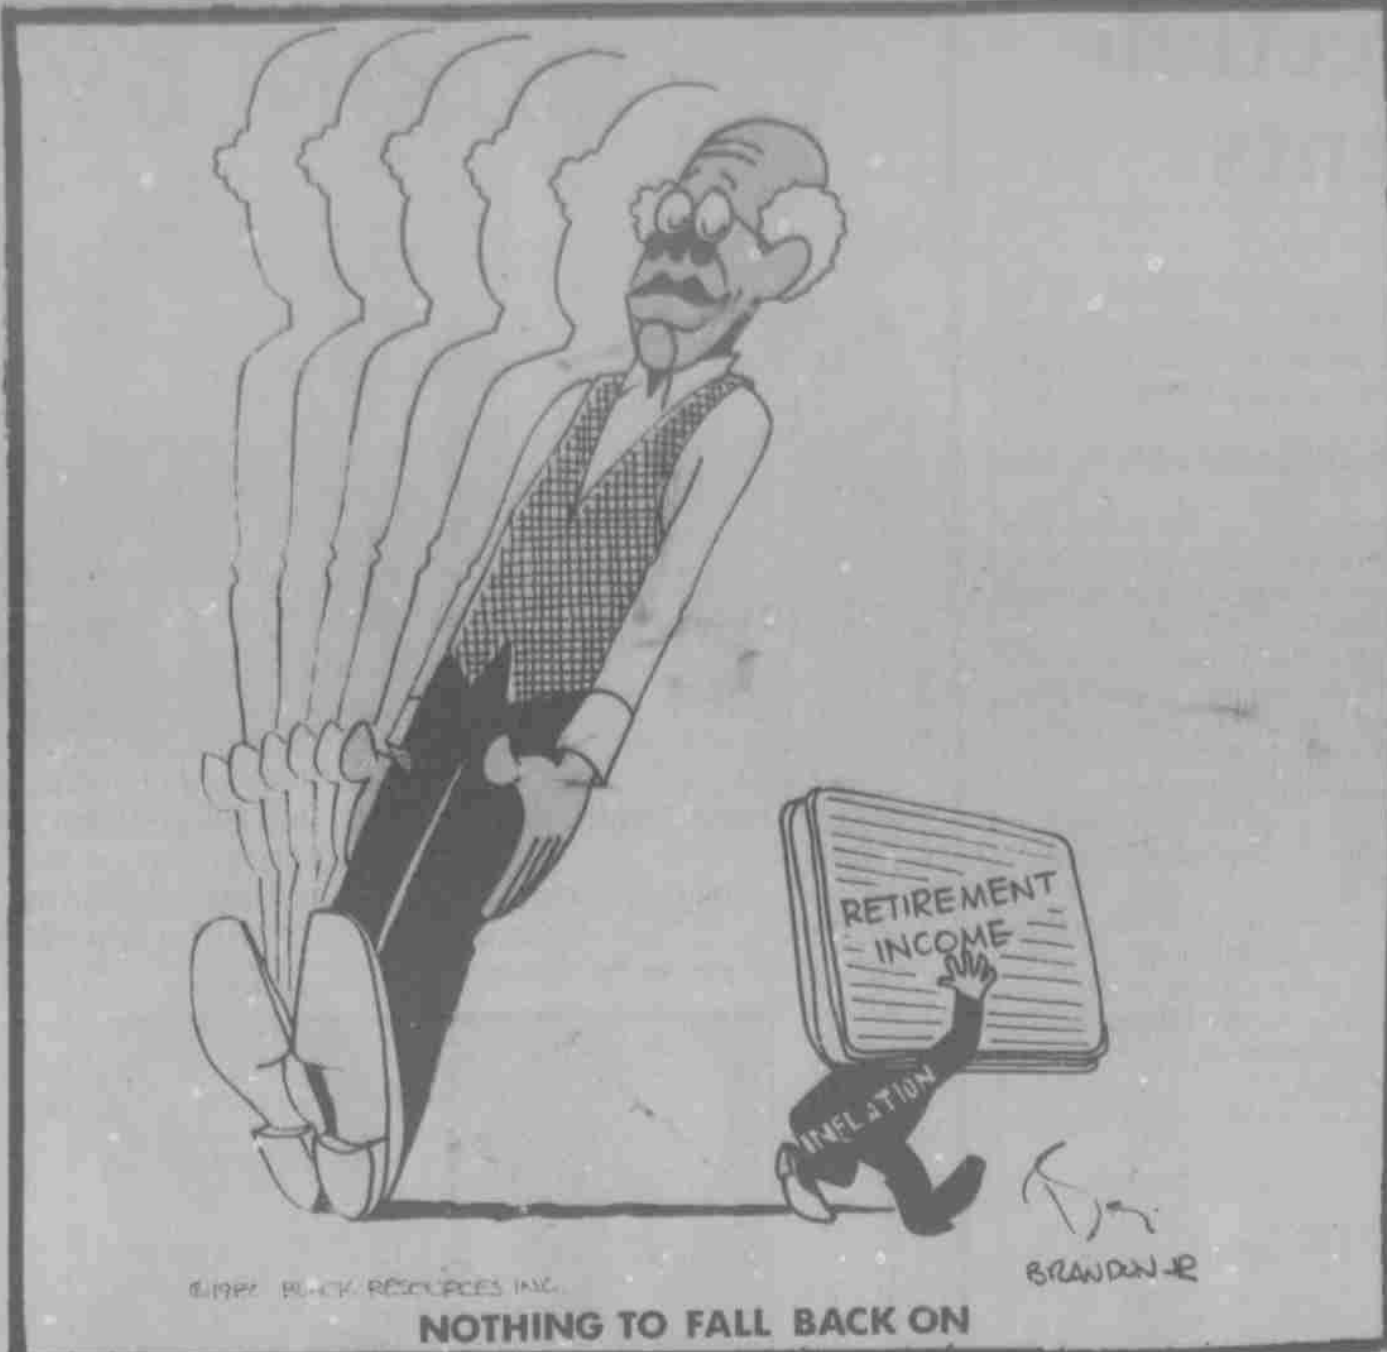

Commissioner of Agriculture - Jim Hightower. Our friend Jim Hightower has done well to see that all Texans are included in the total process of his effort. He is a man who speaks what's on his heart, and has the posture to stand up for what he believes.

Texas Court of Criminal Appeals - Morris Overstreet. This young man is worthy of our vote. He has shown beyond reasonable doubt that he is most qualified in this post. He is a strong man of his convictions, and will do Texas well.

State Representative, District 83 - Bidal Aguero. No doubt about it, our friend -- Bidal Aguero -- has been on the frontline for more than twenty-five years. We know for a fact, because the Southwest Digest has been in his company for most of these years. We have found Bidal Aguero to be a man who is most concerned about his convictions when it comes to the welfare of our children and senior citizens. He has been most active in his weekly newspaper -- El Editor -- in his weekly editorials. Not only this, but this friend of the Southwest Digest has been most cooperative in working with this weekly publication. Words can't express how much we cherish the friendship of our friend, Bidal Aguero, a man whom we know will do well for our area of Texas. We feel real good about this endorsement.

Justice of the Peace, Precinct 6 - Judge McKinley Shephard -- No doubt about it, Judge McKinley Shephard is the most effective Justice of the Peace in Lubbock County, Texas. He has proved, beyond a reasonable doubt, that he can and will continue to be the most efficient Justice of the Peace this county can have. He is a very humble man who will do what he can to see that his posture is in a positive manner. Judge McKinley Shephard is our man in this post, and he will continue to do what is best for the citizens of Lubbock County.

These are our endorsements, and we hope you will see it the same. They are all winners, and have proven records to prove what has been said.

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast met last Saturday morning at 9 a. m. in the lovely home Delbert and Dorothy Hood. Opening scripture was emphasized by Sister Elnora Jones. She read 91st Psalm. A song was sung by Sister Christine Burleson. It was entitled: "Somebody Needs A Blessing." Prayer was offered by Sister Dorothy Nash and Sister Elnora Jones.

The morning scripture lesson was taught by Sister Dorothy Hood. Her scripture was Hebrews 11:1. Her subject was "Now Faith Is." Now faith is the substance -- ground or confidence of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

We are served by hope, but hope that is seen is not hope for what a man seeth. Why do he yet hope for, but if we hope for that we see not then do we with patience wait for it? Now faith is! It's like saying: "NOW GOD IS," two words describe our faith -- Confidence & Certainty. These two qualities need a secure beginning and ending point. The beginning point of faith is believing in God's character; he is who he says. The end point is believing in God's promises. He will do what he says. We believe that God will fulfill his promises even though we don't see those promises materializing now. You know what this is -- TRUE FAITH! Did you not know faith will move mountains; open blind eyes; cause lame to walk; cast out devils; solve your problems and mine, "but" faith does not work over unforgiveness. You might I can't remember anything I've done to anyone. Do you feel someone's acting strange toward you. You go to them quick as you can and get it straight. Without faith, it is impossible to please God. It's impossible for your faith to work when you run down your Brother's good name. Or Sisters, do you not know when Christians walk by faith, he will guard each man's dignity and help save each man's pride. That's the only way this sinful generation will know we are Christians is by LOVE!! PLEASE READ AND FOLLOW DIRECTIONS!! Love you!! Thought for the Week: "Prayer Warriors, let's go to the front line. The war is on." Think about it!! Breakfast was served to all, and it was very delicious. To all our sick and those having problems in any way. Release your faith in the hands of God! Lubbock, you can make it! Keep smiling and lifting each other up. We continue to need your support. Write Outreach Prayer Breakfast, P. O. Box 1223, Lubbock, Texas 79408. The Outreach Prayer Breakfast will meet in the home of Deacon B. J. Hood and daughter on Saturday morning at 9:00 a. m. at 2432 East 28th Street. Read II Corinthians 7:14, President, Christine Burleson; vice president, Ardella Hardrick; secretary, Elnora Jones; and reporter, Dorothy Hood.

We Thank God For Jesus

'Lord, The World Is In The Church'

Revelation 2:7a -- Jesus said, he that hath an ear, let him hear what the spirit saith unto the churches.

II Chronicles 16:29 -- Give unto the Lord the Glory due unto his name; bring an offering, and come before him; worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.

Lord, the preacher says he's worth money, and wants to be pleased. So he set a deal in the church, "to have him an money raising anniversary."

Revelation 2:17a -- Jesus said, he that hath an ear, let him hear what the spirit saith unto the churches.

Matthew 20:4 -- Jesus said unto them, go ye also into the vineyard, and what so ever is right I will give to you.

Lord, and some preachers now say: The storehouse is their personal bank account. That you said: that's his paycheck; but your word: the Bible don't give that account."

 Will a man rob God??? *****

Revelation 2:17a -- Jesus said, he that hath an ear let him hear what the spirit saith unto the churches.

Proverbs 6:30-31 -- Men do not despise a thief, if he steal to satisfy his soul when he is hungry; but if he be found, he shall restore sevenfold; he shall give all the substance of his house.

Luke 6:46 -- Jesus said, why call ye, me Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say. Lord, and many churches have turned; from obeying these.

'They're like Adam was; trying to please his flesh and please Eve.'

The preacher's wife teacher a worley dancing group, and they do their thing, they brought their act into the church; "rhythm & blues and all shame, shame, shame."

Revelation 2:29 -- Jesus said, he that hath an ear, let him hear what the spirit saith unto the churches.

I John 5:4-5 -- For whosoever is born of God, overcometh the world; and this is the victory, that overcometh the world, even our faith. Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believe that Jesus is the Son of God?

Lord, each member wants to lead songs, and it almost cause a fight. So the pastor had to make the church, "A member solo night."

Revelation 3:6 -- Jesus said, he that hath an ear, let him hear what the spirit saith unto the churches.

I Corinthians 2:112-13 -- Now we received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

Lord, some churches pulpit "The holy woman is forbidden to stand." "But the ungodly man running for mayor of the city; he's welcome on every hand."

Revelation 3:13, 15 & 16 -- Jesus said, he that hath an ear, let him hear what the spirit saith unto the churches, I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would that thou were cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue (spit) thee out of my mouth.

God is not through with us yet. Let's pray for one another always.

Your Brother In Christ Jesus Always!!!

FROM THE OF
PARSON D. A. SMITH

The Apostle Paul says in I Corinthians 13:9: "For we know in part." When we realize the truth of this statement, it will bring some very practical benefits to our lives. We know so little, and that what we think we know is mixed with partial and imperfect, inclusion much that is useless, and is very imperfectly apprehended.

Our partial knowledge will keep us humble, and humility is an important factor in a happy, holy life. The person who admits his ignorance is the one who learns the most. Paul's pride of learning kept him ignorant of God's simple plan of salvation. God literally had to knock Paul down. He had to humble him before he could teach Paul the truth. Then, after Paul experienced many wonderful blessings including being taken to the third heaven, God had to give Paul a thorn in the flesh to keep him humble: "The grace that makes every grace amiable." Humility comes when we realize that we know in part.

Have there been times in your life that you were tempted to judge someone severely? Have you more than once passed judgement upon another without really knowing all the facts? We know perfectly well that "man looks on the outward appearance, but God looks on the heart," yet we hastily and quickly jump to conclusions and pass judgement. We should be slow to judge because we know in part.

When you realize that you know in part, you are better able to accept the burdens and disappointments of life. Many a person has wrecked his or her life on the rock of disappointment of life only to discover later that those rocks could have been as stepping stones to greater things. Being limited creatures "we know in part". If we put our trust in God, all will be well.
