"Submits Alternative 7-0 Plan"

Minority Groups, Officials Oppose 5-2 Plan!!

Twelve minority organization this week submitted a 7-0 plan for electing members to the Lubbock Independent School District's Board of Directors. The groups asked the Justice Department for approval of the 7-0 plan instead of the 5-2 plan submitted by LISD for pre-clearance.

The 7-0 plan provides three safe minority districts. District 1 was drawn with a higher minority percentage in order to maximize the black voting block. Although districts 2 and 3 are just over 50% minority, many, if not most, of the whites in these two districts are students at Texas Tech university and these students rarely vote in local elections, leaving these two districts much more heavily minority than the figures indicate.

Although school enrollment district wide is approaching 60% minority, under the 5-2 plan only two trustees (or 28 of the board) are elected from minority districts (Districts 1 and 2). With this plan, there would be three trustees (or 43% of the board) elected from minority districts (Districts 1, 2 and 3). In addition, District 4 becomes a Central Lubbock District that, although anglo, has many of the same problems and concerns as the minority districts. District 4 becomes a balance between minority districts 1, 2 and 3 and anglo districts 5, 6 and 7.

Last year, Bidal Aguero one of the original plaintiffs of the Voting Rights suit against LISD that changed the method in which Trustees were elected, promised to pursue legal action against LISD if the 5-2 plan is approved. Aguero said that many things have changed since 1985 that justify a 7-0 plan.

In a statement issued by the Lubbock ISD and submitted to the U. S. Justice Department on May 18, 1993, concerning the preclearance of a plan calling for the maintaining of the single member districts and 2 at-large system of electing School Board Trustees, LISD gives an ultimatum to Justice saying that if the plan is not accepted, they would appeal to federal court for approval.

According to supporters of the 7-0 plan, they are going to move forward proving that the at-large representation is unconstitutional. The five white men on the Board of Trustees should realize it. If they are the fiscal conservatives that they say they are, they should forget about protecting their seats and spending our tax monies frivolously and start worrying about educating our children, according to local minority leaders.

See proposed 7-0 Plan submitted to U. S. Justice Department.

Both supported the 7-0 Plan which would ensure representation on the LISD Board of Trustees. A story appears in this issue concerning this matter.

Brother J. H. Wilson Named "Father of the Year!"

A longtime resident, Brother J. H. Wilson, was voted upon as the first winner of the "Father of the Year" event was sponsored by the Male Chorus of Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church last Sunday afternoon in the presence of his family and friends.

Brother Wilson who believes in the work ethic and making sure that God is first in your life garnered 56% of the votes cast. The ballot appeared in the Southwest Digest and was the first of its kind ever attempted by this publication.

"We are just thankful to all of those who helped make this a reality," said Brother Rudolph Seivins, president of the Male Chorus. "By your presence, you are telling us that you would like for this to be an annual affair," he said.

With a nearly packed house last Sunday afternoon at the church at 2202 Southeast Drive, Brother Samuel Curtis, director of the chorus, acknowledged his appreciation of this program. "We worked real hard, and we thank God for the outcome," he said. "We are just elated with all of this, and we will continue with this kind of programming," he continued.

"We are just so happy to have all the clergy present, which shows a total of 10 present, as this is the first time as a director, we have had this number of pastors and ministers to attend; for that, we are just thankful," concluded Brother Curtis.

Rev. N. H. Franklin, pastor of Bethel, made it known that this is only the beginning of such an effort, and Bethel stands ready to help our sister churches. "We are just so happy to have all of you with us this day, and we will be there to help you," said Pastor Franklin.

Accompanying Brother Wilson were his wife and members of his family. What a sight to see!

Male Chorus members had a surprise for their wives and loved ones as they presented a rose to them before this large audience.

After it was all done, a delicious meal was served in the Rev. A. W. Wilson Fellowship Hall and served to all men by the women of Bethel.

The New Hope Baptist Church, located at 2002 Birch Avenue, got off with very good services last Sunday morning with Sunday School beginning at 9:30 a. m. in worshipping the Lord. Sister Thelma Brown was acting superintendent. A song, "What A Friend", as sung by the Sunday School with her class leading the prayer services. All went to their various classes after opening up. The men's Class for the third Sunday with the Offering Banner and tying with the Attendance with Classes Number 2 which is Sister Dorothy Kinner's class.

Last Sunday being Father's Day, they all had a big heart, and the men received both banners. Watch out for future Sundays.

There were three visitors in Sunday School, and the lesson was beautiful. Let's continue to do and say like Paul. "Keep pressing on!"

During the morning devotional hour, a song was sung and scripture read by Sister Octavia Givens who read from Psalms. Prayer was offered by Deacon Jenkins.

The processional followed with the singing of "When All God's Children Get Together." Altar prayer was given by Deacon Jenkins, followed by the singing of "Teach Me Lord Jesus How To Wait." Scripture was read by Rev. Toines and prayer by Rev. C. Marshall. Another song, "Holy Is The Lord," was sung.

Responsive reading was done in concert with the congregation standing and led by Sister Cynthia Crockett.

The morning hymn was "What A Friend."

Pastoral observation was given by Pastor B. R. Moton. Last Sunday being Father's Day, he was big hearted enough to pass out roses to all fathers and pens to those who have and are doing a wonderful work in the Church. This writer has to put in a good word for Pastor Moton who works hard for the Church.

Those shut in who listened to the broadcast last Sunday, this writer's telephone last Sunday when returned home from Church services.

Pastor Moton's sermon was entitled last Sunday was "He'll Understand And Say Well Done." His scripture text was St. Matthew 25:26.

Flowers were donated to New Hope last Sunday in memory of Deacon Lee Knighton, by his wife and daughter, Lucille Jackson.

Bull Davis is home from the hospital and is doing nicely at this report. His daughter, Mary Ann Jones of Dallas, Texas was here to be with him on Father's Day.

Funeral services were held for Charlie D. Wailes on Monday morning at the New Hope Baptist Church at 11:00 a. m.

Sister Theresa Curry Nelson was funeralized in Pampa, Texas last Wednesday. Her husband preceded her in death. He was the Rev. E. J. Nelson who pastored in Pampa for many years, and was the brother of Sister R. B. Thompson.

Our love, sympathy and prayers go out to all bereaved families.

Also, whisper a prayer for our sick and shut-in citizens.

"Check The Expert Who Gives The Qualification To Become An Expert!!"

by
Eddie P. Richardson

Everyone is an expert, only problem is on what? We have experts on everything, i. e.: homeless, hunger, gangs, cults and any subject imaginable, but how many of these many experts are really experts and how and where did they get their expertise? Some found it be reading a book, viewing a video, and self appointment.

When one really gets to the heart of the matter, most of our experts have no actual experience or have lived with and in the areas of their expertise. In our opinion, an expert is not an expert unseen. They have actually lived, breathed, and felt the problems, for example -- drugs or alcohol. The expert is a person who has been there and, in most cases, hit rock bottom. A former cult or gang member -- someone who had been there and actually, personally felt the hurt first hand.

It is now becoming fashionable to become a consultant or an expert and, in most cases, financial advantageous to become a consultant or expert on highly visual and especially negative affect on our society in a negative. Somethings to think about, now psysic counselors are a biggie. Then why did LaToya Jackson get beaten when she was advertising a psychic network, a good thing to think about. "You can't lead where you don't go and you can't teach what you don't know."

In these troubled times, people now set up shop and in many cases they are con artists, phonies, and frauds. They do everything from marriage counselling, gang and cult deprogramming, physic readings, and fortune tellings. Of course, there are many, many more other things; a lot of them have no certification, licenses, or training. They become experts to make money from other people's sufferings. Our recommendation, if you need an expert for any reason, check them out.

In the near future, we will do a Black Business Profile of our advertisers and supporters in order to give them, their goods and services more exposure to the public.

Closing Thought: "If you think you are a failure; if you think you are a success, you are!"

There they go again, the Lubbock ISD. They just can't get ready to do the right thing. They recently paid outside attorneys from Baylor University to show them how to legally break the law with a revised plan that has already been rejected by the Reagan and Bush administrations. Then hired a person, even a person we know who can and will do a good job, without advertising the position. Same good ole boy system!!

Nuf Sed!!

Crazy Horse

by
Stephen C. McIntyre

Much has been written about the slaughter of Krueger. Make no mistake, he got whipped. But no one should be hasty in interpreting the results.

Everyone knows that the Republicans hate a big turn out at the polls. They figure the more that vote, the more poor and middle class will cast a ballot since there are many more poor and working people than there are rich folks living in Highland Park or River

Oaks. And poor and working folks are still more likely to vote for a Democrat. That's the reason why Bush vetoed the universal motor voter registration bill and that is why Clinton recently signed it. The more voters who are registered means more who are likely to vote. The more votes you have cast the more Democrats who will get elected. At least that is the theory and that is why the Democrats voted for motor voter and Republicans hate it.

Anyway, back to the special election, Krueger lost by around 65-35 statewide with only 18% of the eligible voters turning out. Exactly what the Republicans like: a very low turnout. That means 12% of the eligible voters elected Hutchinson.

We all know that at least 12% registered voters of this state are rabid Republicans or follow the Reaganista line. But folks, winning an election with 12% of the registered voters should not be considered a mandate against Texas Democrats or Clinton's 140 day old administration. Just a few years ago Richards, Mattox, Hightower, Mauro, and other Democrats swept into various state offices while Reagan was president. The election of Hutchinson is a fact, but the interpretations and spinners the Republicans are weaving are fantasy. A lot is going to happen over the upcoming months and years before the governor's race and presidential race. We all watched Bush as the world leader in the Gulf War and then his steady decline and crash in his election loss to the governor of Arkansas. The Reaganistas can talk and posture all they want but deep down in their sour little hearts they know better. They better pray for a hurricane during the 1994 general election.

Friday, I was watching the news after the Bulls-Suns game when a Methodist Hospital commercial came on for its children's hospital. I wasn't paying real close attention, but I swear it seemed like every child in that commercial was white. It seems to me that if 50% or more of the kids in Lubbock schools are minority then logically there should have been at least one brown, black, yellow, red, (green?) child's face. Are the folks at Methodist sending a message?

- 6/28 1968 -- Hundreds of citizens beaten by police in Berkeley, Calif.
- 1968 -- Daniel Ellsberg indicted for leaking the Pentagon Papers.
- 6/29 1969 -- Nixon's attorney Kalmach, Caulfield, and Ulasewicz meet to arrange payments for political espionage.
- 1972 -- Supreme Court rules that journalists have no right to refuse to testify about information obtained in confidence.
- 1937 -- Birthday of first black Lubbock city councilman, T. J. Patterson, Waxahachie, Texas.
- 6/30 1914 -- Gandhi's first arrest, in campaign for Indian equal rights in South Africa.
- 1971 -- 26th Amendment (18-20 year old voting).
- 1973 -- Draft ended.

Poor old Congressman Larry Combest is moaning about the DOD facility not coming to Lubbock. He is complaining about the criteria changing as if Lubbock is being singled out. The shift in criteria emphasis by the Clinton administration a Defense Secretary Aspin affected more town than just Lubbock. But then, given the political nature of Lubbock, I suspect in the end Aspin would have denied Lubbock a DOD facility even under the old George Bush criteria.

Why? Because Texas was one of the few states that went for Bush in the November election. And Lubbock, Bush's "Pulse of America," was one of the top two or three counties for Bush. Krueger got whipped 55-35 statewide but got creamed 80-20 in Lubbock. Conservative funnyman Bush Limbaugh has his highest rating in the country in Amarillo with a close second in Lubbock and the AJ has a permanent mean-spirited editorial cartoon series by Dirk West criticizing President Clinton. Our two Republican Texas Senators do not support Clinton. Our one Republican Lubbock Congressman does not support Clinton and our Democratic one does so reluctantly. And then remember that Clinton proved he can get elected president without Texas.

So why in the world should Clinton and the Democrats fever compelled to spend a lot of time and limited federal money on Texans or Lubbock? Well, maybe some money a little later to help Governor Richards in her race for re-election but hold your breath on Lubbock getting a dime.

THIS N THAT

Folks who have about $5 should ask T. J. Patterson, Maggie Trejo, Kathyl Anderson, Linda DeLeon, Maria Mercado, Dan Benson to make them a copy of the brief they filed with the Justice Department opposing the 5-2 Plan as racist and illegal under the Voting Rights Act and supporting the adoption of a 7-0 plan. After you read it, ask the 5 white guys on the LISD school board if they think preserving their power is worth our tax money when our school district desperately needs money for the education of our kids.

And as the man said:
"..... and justice for all."

A New Direction

by
Eddie P. Richardson

The Southwest Digest is taking a new direction. It will be a more professional and positive directional direction.

This is being done, because of the cost of doing business. Our cost has risen 78% since we began in September, 1977. We must act accordingly to continue give you, our readers and advertisers, the very best service we have in the past and continue to upgrade and improve our product. We will have to do what every good business does -- pass on our cost to our patrons.

Our price for advertisement is $7.50 per column inch, and that's the cost. There will be no deals -- take it or leave it. Like other professional businesses if you do not have prior approved credit with us, you will have to pay in advance. There will be no ifs or but's -- just business.

If you have more than Three (3) Photos, the cost will be $3.00 up, depending on size, because we have to pay for reproduction, because we (Southwest Digest) has to pay. There will be a more progressive newspaper, with a better and more aggressive posture. We will have a paper that bars none with an aggressive editorial positive attitude that reflects our readers' view. We need you, our readers -- and we are thankful -- or we lose you if you not want to carry your load. That's a fact and that's the way it's gonna be.

We promise you all the above mentioned!

"America"

The nation that forget God will be turned into hell.

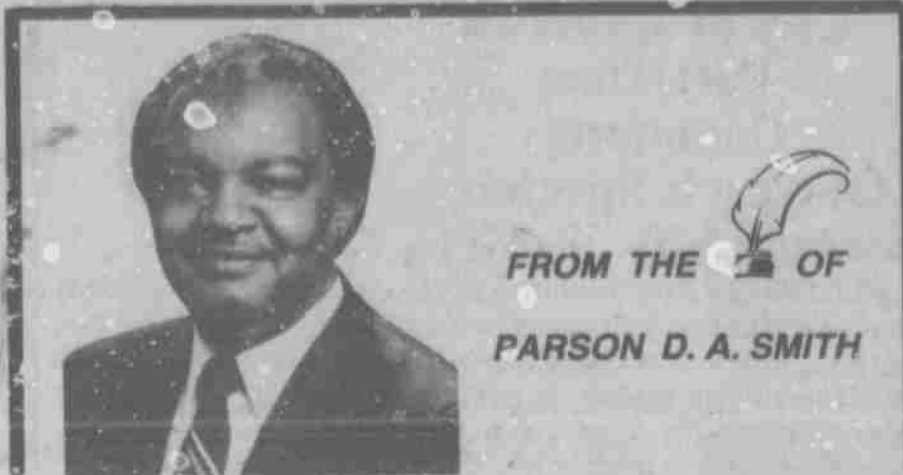

We're not suffering an economic problem. We're experiencing a sin problem. Looking for answers in all the wrong places. Is in Jesus.

(Aga'n) The answer is in Jesus. You cannot close God out of his own creation.

Have you ever read in Genesis 1:1: In the beginning, God created the heaven and earth. Humans are a small, but important part of it. Be careful he do without you and I.

No one on this earth can change God's plans.

FROM THE OF
PARSON D. A. SMITH

The theme of the Juneteenth Scholarship Banquet could have been "I Live to Serve," or "I Exist for Others" as plaques and awards were given to those unsung members of our community who work uniringly for its betterment.

The speaker at the banquet named the community leaders and shared their value and worth to our community in helping in these complex and difficult times. Notable missing however, where the names of any clergy.

I'm a bit confused but I'm also reminded of a story told of a prince:

In a distant kingdom beyond the seas lived a prince who was anxious to prove his worth by some brave deed. There came a report that in another kingdom a wild beast was ravaging the land and killing the inhabitants. The prince determined to go and slay the beast. Accompanied by a band of faithful followers, he set out for the other kingdom. As they journeyed they often slept out under the stars.

One night they were sleeping at the foot of a mountain when an earthquake caused a landslide. As a mass of rock and earth came down the mountain it buried in death some of the prince's companions. The prince was rescued the next morning by an old shepherd, and he was taken to the shepherd's hut. He was nursed back to health, but the accident left him a cripple. When the day's work was done the shepherd used to go the village and take to the children toys he had made. With his simple gifts he brought smiles to children's faces, and older people of cynical and sour dispositions were happy when they saw him. Sometimes the crippled prince went with the shepherd to the village, but he would always say on his return, "What a simple thing to do!" The shepherd died, and the prince felt he must carry on for a time lest the children should be too disappointed. He found many things to do for people that he was too happy in his service to leave.

When he died the old king, his father, brought him body back home. He ordered buried with him the sword which had come down through the family for the reigning prince and issued this proclamation: "The royal sword will be buried with my son because no one will come after him so worth of it. He set out to slay a monster and make a great name for himself. He ended life by serving the simple folk in a little village far away. Life changed his plans but he carried on!"

Let's we forget, it is the simple shepherd who help change and mold lives when others are saying: "What a simple thing to do!"

We Thank God For Jesus

"Jesus Is Lord!!"

Acts 2:36 -- Therefore let all the House of Israel know assuredly that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ.

I've heard so many times: The Jehovah Witness say: Jesus is not Lord. "But who do they think God was speaking to, saying, the Lord said, unto my Lord."

Psalms 110:1 -- The Lord said unto my Lord, sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool.

"First of all, you'll must believe the Bible, and that it is God's inspired word. Then start believing Jesus Is Lord, starting with the Virgin's birth."

Isaiah 7:14 -- Therefore, the Lord himself shall give you a sign; behold, a Virgin shall conceive, and bear a son (Jesus), and shall call his name Immanuel (God With Us)."

Why don't you study Your Bible, Jehovah Witness, and come let's discuss 'what Immanuel means in they Word of God: 'simple -- God With Us."

Matthew 1:23 -- Behold, a Virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God With Us."

That tells us that God came thru Mary; to walk and talk with his people. "He is God in human form, to turn mankind from their evils."

Isaiah 9:6 -- For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulders, and his name shall be called 'Wonderful, Counsellor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace."

"In the Book of John, 1:1, it clearly reads: In the beginning was the word. The beginning means: Dateless, original, first, even before the earth."

John 1:1 -- In the beginning was the word (Jesus), and the word (Jesus) was with God, and the word (Jesus) was God.

Now let the Word of God bless each of your sweet little minds. "It says awaht it says,, the word which is Jesus, was God all the time."

Revelation 1:11a -- Jesus said, I'am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last; and what thou saest, write in a book.

"Jesus made all things and had power to turn water into wine. That's why he can re-buke the wind (only God can), it obeys everytime."

John 2:9a -- When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wind, and know not whence it was."

Mark 4:39 -- And He (Jesus) arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace be still, and the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.

"Jehovah Witness, how can Jesuss come and claim the Temple to be his house? That ought to let you know Jesus is Lord, and proof withou a doubt."

Matthew 21:13 -- Jesus said, it is written (Isaiah 56:71) my house shall be called the House of Prayer, but ye have made it a den of thieves.

Phillipians 2:11 -- And that every tongue should confess that Jesus is Lord, to the glory of God, the Father.

God is not through with us yet. So let's pray for one another always. AMAN.

Just because sometimes of it seems as if evil is winning, and some feel so good being involved. Our God was-is-and will be in control of this world. So "those" who plan premeditated evil should cool it now before it gets real hot and it's going to in your world. (7 times hotter).

Just a few words to think about.

Please read in your Bible II Chronicles 7:14.
