Congressional Black Caucus
1995 Legislative Conference
The Congressional Black Caucus Foundation (CBCF) has announced that its Annual Legislative Weekend Conference is scheduled for Sept. 20-24, 1995 at the Washington Convention Center in Washington, D.C. The conference will represent the 25th year of this gathering of black leaders in civil rights, education, business and politics. The CBCF's annual report shows that its programs generated $4,247,915, of which $3,005,897 was spent in sponsoring its Public Policy Forums. For information on this year's sessions, call (800) 535-3336 or (202) 842-2930.

Clinton Meets With Benin President
President Nicéphore Dieudonné Soglo of the African Republic of Benin met with President Bill Clinton on his Official Working Visit to Washington, D.C. in July. During the visit President Soglo also met with D.C. Mayor Marion Barry, was hosted by African ambassadors and met with African American experts on Africa from the Constituency For Africa (CFA) at Blair House. The U.S. Government has maintained close ties with Benin since 1991, when it became the African model of a successful transition from a single party Marxist-Leninist regime to a democratic and economically viable state. President and Mrs. Soglo also traveled to Houston and Atlanta during their U.S. visit. The couple lived in the Washington area for eight years when he was executive director of the World Bank.

NAACP is "A Misguided Group," Says Arney
House Majority Leader Richard Arney (R-Tex.) recently told Black Entertainment Television's "Lead Story" roundtable that the NAACP was "a misguided special interest organization." The remark from the number two Republican in the House came after he was asked about his votes against civil rights legislation and about a rating by the NAACP that showed he supported civil rights causes only about 10 percent of the time. Arney said, "I would not have my record on civil rights and human decency documented by an organization that I myself consider to be a misguided special interest organization." At the same time, in its 1995 convention in Minneapolis, the NAACP released reports alleging that its former chairman, Dr. William Gibson, has $111,930 in unexplained expenditures from his tenure. Former executive directors Ben Chavis and Ben Hooks also showed unjustified personal expenses paid for by the NAACP. Hooks had $5,000, and Chavis $22,749.

Ben Chavis Forms New Group
Benjamin Chavis, former executive director of the NAACP, has formed the National African American Leadership Summit (NAALS). The NAALS is a civil rights organization made up of members who represent more than 200 other civil rights-oriented groups. The major current thrust of the NAALS is the coordination of the "Million Man March" scheduled for this October in Washington, D.C. The NAALS is located at 145 Kennedy Street, NW, Washington, D.C.

Scott Murderer Still At Large

Mrs. Luella Scott

A reprint of the story which appeared in the Southwest Digest Thursday, August 23, 1983, and Thursday, August 15th, 1985.

In less than fifteen years, tragedy has struck the Scott family three times. This time it was Mrs. Luella Mildred Sparks Scott, age 57, of 1801 East 26th Street. In 1969, her nine-year-old daughter, Renee, was killed from a home accident when fallen glass struck her. Later, her son, George Jr., was killed in an automobile accident in Houston in 1978, a few days before his 26th birthday.

The former wife of George Scott, II, Mrs. Scott's body was found in a bedroom of her residence about 10:30 p.m. Thursday (August 18th) by two friends and a co-worker.

This trio, according to the police report, met Lubbock police at the Scott residence. Police learned, after talking to the witnesses, that Mrs. Scott did not turn up at her work Wednesday at the Lubbock State School.

One of the witnesses told police that Mrs. Scott did not show up for work Wednesday and on Thursday she became worried about her. At that time, the witness said she called her house all during the day, but did not get an answer. She told police this is when she notified the other two witnesses and had them to meet her at the east Lubbock residence.

The witness went on to say when they arrived at the Scott residence, it appeared that all the lights were on in the house. They knocked on the door in an attempt to locate Mrs. Scott, but to no avail. They could not locate Mrs. Scott. They went to the back door which is located in a fenced-in area, and knocked. The witness said, "There was still no answer."

At this time, all three opened the glass door, which was Dedicated in Memory of Mrs. Scott.

(Editor's Note: It has been 12 years, as of August 18, since the body of Mrs. Luella Mildred Sparks was found in her home. This issue is in memory of her death. Maybe, just maybe, the person or persons responsible for this crime will be caught one day. We pray to God for this to happen.)

The following is a reprint of the story which appeared in the Southwest Digest Thursday, August 23, 1983, and Thursday, August 15th, 1985.)

unlocked. All said they entered the house and found Mrs. Scott lying in the southeast bedroom nude.

They summoned the other witnesses and she came in. All knew Mrs. Scott was dead. This is when they phoned the Lubbock police.

Justice of the Peace L.J. Blalock ruled the death a homicide, the city's 23rd of the year and the third in less than a week.

Although two witnesses told police they had seen Mrs. Scott on Wednesday morning at about 10:00 a.m., police believe it is possible for her to have been killed as early as Tuesday evening upon her arrival from the Lubbock State School.

As of this time, police have no motive for the brutal slaying of the Lubbock woman. Her billfold and some keys still remain missing, however.

Hundreds of Lubbockites and out-of-town friends and associates attended the funeral service Tuesday afternoon (August 23, 1983) at the Greater Saint Luke Baptist Church with the pastor, Rev. J.H. Ford, officiating. Interment was held in Peaceful Gardens Cemetery under the direction of Jamison & Son Funeral Home.

An autopsy revealed that Mrs. Scott had five stab wounds on her body, and had been beaten.

A native of Corsicana, Texas, she taught school in Frederick, Oklahoma in the public school. In 1953, she moved to Lubbock, where she taught school for several years.

Mrs. Scott was a member of the Greater Saint Luke Baptist Church, the Lubbock Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., the Lubbock Association for Retarded Children, the Lubbock Branch of the NAACP, the International Women's Club, and the Dorcas Missionary Society.

At one time, she served as board member of the Lubbock Opportunities Industrialization Center (LOIC) and other local efforts.

She is survived by her former husband, George Scott, II, of Lubbock, mother, Mrs. Geneva Jackson of Los Angeles, California, step-mother, Mrs. Adelle Sparks of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, sister, Mrs. Inez Alex of Los Angeles, California, stepson, Donald J. Scott of Monterey, California; two granddaughters, Tara of Lubbock and Janelle of Monterey, California; one uncle, Willie Houston of Wichita Falls, Texas, and many other relatives and friends.

Lubbock Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority held an Omega Memorial Monday evening in Mrs. Scott's honor.

The family suggests memorials to the Renee, George Scott III, and Luella Scott Memorial Fund for Retarded Children at First Federal Savings and Loan Bank.

Who?

II Thessalonians 1:9—Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of His power.

Yes, the murderer of this civic, social, educator and religious leader will be punished. He or she may escape man's justice, but Jesus never fails.

Luella was a lovely lady.

As everyone know,

She would spread love

where ever she would go,

May her soul rest in peace,

for a good race, she did run,

And her many friends

will not stop,

Until justice for her murder is won!

Somebody Knows Something!

With all the fed back, the Southwest Digest has received from the running of the brutal death of Mrs. Luella Mildred Sparks Scott, it appears as though somebody knows something about it.

It is our hope, and we pray to God, something will materialize in the near future.

As you can see, this issue is dedicated to the memory of her. Will you help us in this matter?

We do believe with the talk that is going around town these days something will happen. Won't you help justice prevail? Please, your help is needed!!

Parks Sausage May Shut Down

Baltimore-based Parks Sausage, one of the country's oldest black-owned manufacturers, has turned to the state of Maryland for $8 million the company says it needs to remain open. Formed in 1951 by the now-deceased Henry Parks, Parks Sausage has been a member of the Black Enterprise Top 100 Black-owned Businesses for decades, but fell from 71st to 85th in the 1995 listing. In 1969, it became the first black-owned company to go public. Its best year was 1990 when profits exceeded $1 million on $28 million in sales. In 1990, Parks was supplying sausage to Pizza Hut Inc. and Domino's Inc. Parks employs 220 workers. The company reports Parks Sausages are being sold in about 4,000 supermarkets, down from its all-time high of 12,000 stores. In 1994 it lost $1 million on sales of $20 million.

THIS N THAT

KEEP ON VISITING CITY HALL, PASTORS & MINISTERS! THIS N THAT... counted... TWENTY BLACK PASTORS AND MINISTERS... at last Thursday morning... CITY COUNCIL meeting... What a... BLESSING... it was to have these men present... We hope their visit... will remind them what... CITY GOVERNMENT... is all about... One can't really look at the 6 and 10 news... or even read a daily newspaper... to understand what is going on in... CITY GOVERNMENT... Perhaps... just perhaps... last week was an eye opener of what takes place in a legislative meeting at the local level... There is so much we must do in the... democratic process... as we just can't talk about what should be done... you see... we have to be a part of that process... Their visit... was one which was welcome... by this writer... as we need to see more of that... kind of participation... THIS N THAT... would hope that the president of the... INTERDENOMINATIONAL MINISTERIAL ALLIANCE... REV. D.A. SMITH... would continue his effort to alert pastors and ministers to stay involved... So... KEEP ON VISITING CITY HALL... and just maybe... you will better understand what is going on in your city... THIS N THAT... would like to suggest that the... PASTORS AND MINISTERS... inquire about taking some tours on what is happening in this city... Being informed with what is going on... ONLY ENHANCES ONE'S... ability to lead in a positive manner... THANKS... PASTORS AND MINISTERS... for stopping by for several hours... Hope to see you in the very near future... Just another... SUGGESTION... advise city manager... BOB CASS... you have pastors and ministers... who would like to be a part of the... DEVOTIONAL PERIOD... prior to each city council meeting... From this... perhaps... you could designate some members to be present frequently at this effort each month...

THANKS TO ALL OF YOU WHO PARTICIPATED IN THE MARCH! THIS N THAT... would like to say... THANKS TO ALL OF YOU... nearly eighty of you... who participated in last Saturday morning's march in the... CHERRY POINT AREA... This was a... GOOD START... but we must continue this... effort... and we can do this if we would only stay together... The next... MARCH... is set for... SATURDAY EVENING... SEPTEMBER 9TH... beginning at... 7:00 p.m... until... 9:00 p.m... In the meantime... let's begin visiting our... PUBLIC SCHOOLS... in this area... as we agreed to do last week... Just during this week... and go by the schools... and let our... PRECIOUS KIDS... know we appreciate them... Also... start talking about the... SEPTEMBER 9TH MARCH... and bring someone with you... Keep in mind we... are concerned about the... YOUNG PEOPLE... and if we... KEEP MARCHING... and... VISITING THE SCHOOLS... then we will put a dent in this crime element in our community... The ripple effect of what we are doing... will be felt all over the... CITY OF LUBBOCK... as well as the entire county... If we really work hard enough... just think... CORPORATE LUBBOCK... will take note... and we can sit down with the... ECONOMIC DEVELOPERS AND... find a way to bring needed resources for our young people... i.e... MCDONALDS... BURGER KING... AND OTHERS... So let's keep the march in mind... as we go back to the streets come... SATURDAY EVENING... SEPTEMBER 9TH!

CELEBRATING THEIR 47TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY! THIS N THAT... forgot to mention another... couple of the community... who had a... WEDDING ANNIVERSARY... The couple... REV. & MRS. EDWIN SCOTT, SR... who celebrated their... 47TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY... August 20th... Good luck to this Lubbock couple... In a time when the... BLACK FAMILY... is so important... THIS N THAT... can't afford to forget those who have set examples of... FINE FAMILY LIVING... as the EDWIN SCOTT FAMILY... THIS N THAT... says... CONGRATS!! If you agree... PAT... then give me a call...

HOLDING SPECIAL PARTY FOR FRIENDS! THIS N THAT... has learned that... MRS. DOLL STEIN... will be hosting a... BIRTHDAY PARTY... for a longtime Lubbock citizen... MRS. CELESTINE WILSON... at the... MAE SIMMONS COMMUNITY CENTER... Saturday evening... SEPTEMBER 9TH... from 5:00 a.m. until 8:00 p.m. Why not go by there and wish... SISTER CELESTINE WILSON... the very best!

School is in session again and it is about time for the various parent and teacher organizations to come together to support school activities for the benefit of children. OUR CHILDREN ARE OUR FUTURE! They need all the support that we can give them in all of their positive thoughts and activities. They need encouragement in all of their endeavors. They need to know that we are concerned about their achievements and that they are expected to do well at all times.

We often wonder why our kids do not do well in school and other activities. The answer often lies in the fact that we do not expect enough of the good, positive and constructive activities from our children. Children aim to please. They want to please their parents, friends and teachers. They expect their loved ones to have high expectations for them.

High expectations often reflect high achievements. If we want our children to have high achievements, we must expect it. We must not accept or expect the kind of attitude or action which will produce less than what we expect. We need to let our children KNOW what we expect and follow up on their actions. We need to celebrate the efforts of our children to achieve their goals. They need to KNOW and FEEL that WE CARE! Let us get 'in cinque' and show our kids that WE CARE!

Time Out for Games, Go Back to Basics to Move Forward! by Eddie P. Richardson

For our long-denied communities to survive and/or even thrive, the leadership must come from the community itself. "No one can save us from us, for us, but us." We must take as our personal creed, "If it is to be, it is up to me, with God's blessings."

The only thing that is impossible is what you never begin. It's not what happens to you, it's what you do about it.

The above statements lead to the march in Cherry Point Saturday, August 26th, against gang activities. Some say it was too little, too late; others say it was a good thing and should continue; still some others say it was intimidating. In this writer's opinion, it was and is a good idea to expose what is going on in the neighborhood and put heat on the drug and gang people. Citizens from other neighborhoods and organizations, politicians, city management and staff is good and shows community spirit and interest but to be more effective the immediate neighborhood... must... become... more... involved... and... let... it... be... known... they... are... tired... and... have... had... enough.

This writer has been on a soap box about self-help and economic development about 30 years, singing the same song, self-help, economic development, educating your dollars, teaching them to go where they are appreciated and respected, and to keep them away from where they are not appreciated. Business persons, company owners, developers, business brokers, and others who were responsible for new or expanding businesses, the answer was always I/we are afraid to invest over there or in East Lubbock because of vandalism, shoplifting, gangs, drugs, etc. So what we need to do is clean up our neighborhoods. Turn in and report the offenders. You do not even have to use their names, and then we can challenge development in the area businesses that support the Black and minority neighborhoods across the nation: Kentucky Fried Chicken, McDonalds, which is real big in the Black communities across the nation. To protect their investment the management and employees should be people in the neighborhood, which provides a service, pride in the neighborhood, and most of all, employment close to home.

Reformed gang bangers across the nation are making great contributions to society in management, politics, grassroots neighborhood activities, because they know all the ropes and roads and realize all the pitfalls and want to give something back to society because they realize how lucky and blessed they are to be alive. They know how to deal with the gang banger where he/she is, like they are, because they have been there. They can also relate to the gang bangers that I don't hate you, brother or sister, because I have been there, but what you are doing, your actions are hated and can only lead to destruction. A good point in mind is our youth coordinator, Lisa Toombs, a white female master degree student, who cannot relate to minorities, gang bangers, drug dealers, ghetto, barrio, or any of the people she's supposed to be working with. No indictment to the person, but the job she is wrong for. She can't communicate or relate to the situation. She has not been seen in the neighborhoods and she would not be able to relate if she was there. That taxpayers' salary she is receiving could better be used and go a lot further spent on someone who has been there. One example Eileen Contreras, and many others.

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast

We were out there Saturday making a difference with the community leaders. Are you tired of evil beating you up? Before the evil in our community changes, hearts have to be changed, and that includes the people that's called by Jesus' Name—Christians. (Christians II Chro. 7:14)

Maybe you have the O.J. Simpson Trial Syndrome. God is not like Johnnie Cochran, Marsha Clark, Burton, or Judge Ito, he's God all by himself. He doesn't need a reasonable doubt, nor a thing like he's out for the truth. The Lord is truth, the everlasting judge, without a jury pool. And you won't get off playing before the cameras of this world. Our record will be on high, good or bad—there will be no mistakes to guilt or innocence. He's the Righteous Judge, so doesn't plant evidence, hides no tapes—he doesn't lie. He doesn't take sides, he's not prejudiced, he sees no color, and his name is not "Ito." Surprise, surprise. His name is Jesus. The real truth will come out in fits, it will be shined from TV screens from newscasts, papers, all over the world, these are the last days and evil that have been covered up 10 years will be uncovered in great quantities. What's on your transcript in heaven, it will be true, without redirect or rebuttal. Think about it.

Thought:
Dress codes haven't ever condemned anyone to hell, but a self-righteous covered up secret mess, unconfessed sins will put you on your way. Think about it.
To all of God's people, keep smiling, you're loved, like it or not.
Read and believe the Scripture. To all that's hurting: Mark 11:22-26.
D. Hood, President, Ernestine Prazier, Secretary.

We Thank God for Jesus "PRACTICE WHAT YOU PREACH!!!"

Proverbs 3:5-7. TRUST IN THE LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. IN ALL THY WAYS ACKNOWLEDGE HIM, and HE shall direct thy paths. Be not WISE in thine OWN EYES; FEAR THE LORD, AND DEPART FROM EVIL.

The father tells his son, I don't want you smoking that MARIJUANA DOPE, AND HE STANDING THERE WITH A CIGARETTE IN HIS HAND; BLOWING HIS SMOKE.

Isaiah 5:20, WOE (CURSED) unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

(What's the difference MARIJUANA TOBACCO, AND CIGARETTE TOBACCO? They're both WEEDS that is grown from the ground; they're both ROLLED IN PAPER; they're both LIT WITH FIRE. They're both INHALED INTO THE LUNGS AND THRU THE NOSE. They both SATISFY THE USER, AND THEY BOTH COST BIG BUCKS$. Whosoever smokes EITHER ONE IS A FOOL; Cigarettes CAUSE LUNG CANCER AND THAT WILL KILL YOU; MARIJUANA MAKES YOU CRAZY AND THAT CAN KILL YOU. So what the two SMOKERS NEED IS JESUS; HE'S THE DRUG TO GET HOOK ON, HE SATISFY FOREVER.

Psalms 132:12, THE LORD SAID, If thy children will keep MY covenant and MY testimony that I shall teach them, their children shall also sit upon thy throne for evermore.

◆◆◆◆◆ JESUS IS WAITING!!! ◆◆◆◆◆
The Mother tells her daughter, when you grow up, KEEP THE HOUSE SPICK & SPAN, But she's RAISING THE DAUGHTER IN A PLACE, NOT FIT FOR ANY MAN.

Proverb 14:4; 16:2, Where no oxen are, the crib is clean; but much increase is by the strength of the ox. All the ways of a man are clean in his own EYES; but THE LORD WEIGHETH THE SPIRITS.

THE CHRISTIANS MARCH ON ABORTION CLINICS; SAYING THOU SHALL NOT KILL, BUT THEY KILL THE ABORTION DOCTORS; IN THEIR HEARTS, WE KNOW HOW THEY FELL.

THE CHURCH WANTS TO GO OVER SEAS, TO PREACH AND TEACH TO ANOTHER LAND, BUT CHARITY BEGINS AT HOME; WHERE AMERICA IS ONE OF THE MOST SAVAGE OF ALL MAN.

Luke 13:34, 35a, JESUS SAID, O JERUSALEM, JERUSALEM, which killest the PROPHETS, and stonest them that are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered THY CHILDREN TOGETHER, AS A HEN DOETH GATHER HER BROOD (CHILDREN) UNDER HER WINGS, AND YE WOULD NOT. BEHOLD, YOUR HOUSE IS LEFT UNTO YOU DESOLATED.

GOD IS NOT THROUGH WITH US YET, SO LETS PRAY FOR ONE ANOTHER ALWAYS. Directed • Arranged • Produced • Guided By OUR JESUS CHRIST. Written By Evangelist Billy B.J. Morrison, III Your Brother in CHRIST JESUS ALWAYS!!!

from the Desk of Parson D.A. Smith Open Hands and Heart

Tony March, GM Dealer-Hartford, Connecticut says in an advertisement of the September '95 issue of the NAACP Crisis Magazine: "Giving back, working with kids, mentoring and being a role model are things I do because they're basic to who I am. Having a successful General Motors dealership gives me the resources to do more. GM understands that to have a successful business, you have to spend time in the community. When it comes time to buy a car, people take into consideration who was there for them. GM and I both share the vision that kids are our future and that by helping these kids with their education, it's a win-win situation for GM and the kids."

All of us are familiar with the closed fist principle which illustrates giving and receiving. We can neither give nor receive from others with fingers tightly clenched, but as our hand unfolds to give and reach out to them, it's also open to receive the blessings that come to us. In the Book of Acts (9:10-18), by means of a vision, God instructed a reluctant Ananias to restore Saul's sight. Ananias overcame with the Lord's help. He put aside his fears, preconceived ideas, and prejudices, to do what the Lord asked. Ananias looked at Saul as a fellow disciple of God, calling him "brother." In doing so, his heart was opened to the blessing of sharing the gospel and leading Saul to complete obedience in baptism.

Likewise, we can be used of God when we are ready and willing to reach out to others to help produce a win-win situation. We may need to look beyond our own social, economic, or racial prejudices to see others through God's eyes. We must go beyond our instinctive inadequacy and hesitancy to share His gospel with others. Our hands and hearts must be open to really help others and to receive the blessings that come flowing back. Those blessings and the joy of sharing in an obedient response to Christ far outweigh our initial fear or vulnerability.

Can Laws Substitute for Moral Responsibility?

By Stan Faryna
Special to the NNPA

Former education secretary William Bennett and Chair of the National Political Congress of Black Women C. DeLores Tucker are speaking out against the entertainment giant Time Warner. Both the Republican and Democrat agree that the entertainment industry is not making responsible decisions about such products as rap music—the kind that celebrates violence and is synonymous with Nine Inch Nails and Snoop Doggy Dogg among others. Bennett and Tucker have singled out Time Warner's music department for promoting music that lionizes fighting, rape, torture, and murder. Bennett and Tucker emphasize that this kind of music is trash and bad for children.

Time Warner chairman Gerald Levin disagrees with Bennett and Tucker. He refuses to admit that the violence suggested in gangster rap music necessarily influences children. Nor was he persuaded otherwise at a private meeting where Bennett and Tucker presented their case. Levin's stubborn position, however, should not surprise us. Whatever behavioral psychology might have to say about influence, his concern is profit. The American Enterprise magazine reports that it is estimated that the Time Warner gangster rap label annually generates close to $30 million.

The Bennett-Tucker attack on Time Warner dramatizes the tensions and contradictions of a free society. It lends to thinking deeply about democratic capitalism and what it means to us all. Is freedom license to do anything we want? Does a free market mean that we can sell anything? Can laws substitute for moral responsibility?

Freedom in civil society does not mean citizens can do anything they want. It means that they are protected when they act upon very real human needs in a polite manner—a manner that sustains civil society. Nor does a free market in a civil society allow everything in the market. For example, the law forbids the sale of a person. Nor are weapons of devastating force allowed to be sold. Civil society recognizes that the price of human life and dignity is more than money can buy. Without this recognition, democratic capitalism is impossible.

Of course, Time Warner's gangster rap does not readily compare to the moral failures of slavery and mass destruction. At the same time this music does not encourage the dispositions and attitudes we expect of citizens and neighbors. It is difficult, however, to say that a thing should not be sold because it does not help us to be better people. It is even more difficult to decide whether we should keep something off the shelf by force of law.

We may be able to agree that gangster rap is culturally devastating. We may even agree that the social damage it does is far more devastating than what atom bombs could ever do. But do we substitute the law for moral responsibility? What is the cost? As laws do, they will apply themselves to other things in an increasing fashion. Then, shall we outlaw smoking and drinking?

The precedence of such a legal decision makes for a slippery slope. At the bottom of that slope, the individual's freedom to exercise economic initiative would be compromised and the economic ladder to the American Dream would be removed. But, you say, we only wanted to keep gangster rap out of the hands of children. This is the problem when the law must substitute for what should have been moral responsibility. It is also why Bennett and Tucker appealed to Levin personally; they hoped they would find a man with high moral character.

It would have been much easier to keep gangster rap out of children's hands if the entertainment companies were run by people of high moral character. Rappers like Ice-T and Snoop Doggy Dogg wouldn't even have a record deal if entertainment executives felt not just the obvious responsibility to the stockholders, but a greater moral responsibility. Of course, it would ease the difficulty of exercising moral responsibility if the stockholders did not demand the highest possible return on their investments period. Again, it is a matter of moral responsibility.

The solution is the same for most of our problems whether it be gangster rap music, the exploding crime rate, illegitimacy, and many of the social ills we face today. We must all be responsible for that which we do and the consequences of our actions. It is an attitude that is vital to democratic capitalism as well as our own individual happiness.

The American people must seek higher principles than idic satisfaction and hold deeper loyalties than selfish pleasure. As James Q. Wilson writes in his book, The Moral Sense, Americans need to discover their moral character. Each of us has a moral sense and we can do much to bring it forth. Fortunately, many Americans are going back to church. Others are reevaluating their ideas of what morality means to them.

All of them are seeking greater self-control and the skills to live more fully. Civil society demands nothing less. Otherwise, we will suffer the vices of us all. Our vices will consume us, and this great and noble project, we call America, will be shipwrecked.
