MLK Little League Dedicates Season To Dr. & Mrs. Hill & Linda DeLeon

Last Saturday afternoon at the Dr. F. L. Lovings Park, on Mae Simmons Park, scores of young people participated in the opening ceremonies of the Martin Luther King, Jr. Little League.

This year's season has been dedicated to Dr. & Mrs. Damon Hill, Jr. and Mrs. Linda DeLeon, School Board Member, District One.

"We wanted these individuals to know that we (MLK) appreciate what they stand for, and their efforts toward helping young people," said Quincy White, president of MLK.

A plaque was presented to Dr. & Mrs. Hill and Mrs. DeLeon.

The crowd was excited over the opening, and showed their appreciation to the dedication by their joyous applause.

This year, according to Mr. White, there are thirty-two (32) teams in the MLK Little League.

LHS Wins Second National Science Bowl

The Lubbock High School math/science team has won the National Science Bowl. Victory came Monday in Washington, D. C. as the team competed with a team from LaCueva High School of Albuquerque, N. M.

This is the second year in a row that a Lubbock High math/science team has taken the top honors at the National Science Bowl. The Lubbock High squad won the first-ever National Science Bowl last April.

Two of the squad, seniors Michael Heia and Juny Sridhara, were on last year's championship team. Other members of this year's team are juniors Jeremy Martin and Jeron Tumlison and sophomore Jesse Martin. Faculty sponsors have

Dunbar Reunion Update

Excitement is steadily building daily for Dunbar's all-class reunion, set for July 23rd thru July 25th. The alumni association appreciates those who have shown true PANTHER spirit and paid their fees early. This has allowed many financial deadlines to be met on time. For those who have habitually griped, found fault, groaned, but paid not one bu-been Ann Sims, Heeka Perez, and Royace Aikin.

At half-time of the contest Monday, the Lubbock High team was behind 50 points. They went on to win by a score of 74-70. The Lubbock High team was sponsored by the Superconduction Supercollider Laboratory. The Albuquerque squad was sponsored by the Sandia Labs.

The Lubbock High students joined the other three teams for a luncheon with the President Tuesday in the Rose Garden. They will travel to London this summer or the International Youth Science Forum. The students returned home on Wednesday morning, and will be the focus of the assembly this morning at 8:15 a. m. The public is invited to attend this assembly.

The Lubbock High squad advanced to the championship round on Monday following successful competition in preliminary rounds on Sunday. They participated in the national bowl after winning a regional bowl in Dallas last February.

falo nickel, WE EXPECTED IT SINCE THIS IS ALL THAT YOU HAVE EVER DONE!!

All members of the 1993

state championship basketball team have been notified about the reunion, and we will recognize surviving members in attendance during the banquet. We will also have a special section for former and present teachers of Dunbar. Teachers who worked at Dunbar and have returned and SUPPORTED DUNBAR WITH THEIR MONEY, MOUTH, AND CHILDREN will be special guest of the Dunbar International Alumni Association.

The association recognizes those exes who are in business, and we have decided to use Buford Wiley's Old Fashion Barbeque to cater our picnic, and Danny Waller's Catering to handle our banquet at the civic center and our farewell breakfast at the Koko Palace. Both of these gentlemen are Dunbar exes, and we're proud to spend with them the thousands of dollars the association will spend for food.

Mark your calendar for May 14th at 6:00 p. m. at Dunbar. This will be the next meeting time for the alumni association. An important amendment to our by-laws will take place and litigation will be discussed.

Finally, we're asking every Estacado and Dunbar ex and supporter to go to the polls on Saturday, May 2nd, and vote for KATHYL ANDERSON for schoolboard District No. 2! T. J. PATTERSON is the definite choice for city councilman, District 2!!

RUBY JAY'S CORNER

The New Hope Baptist Church's Sunday School began at 9:30 a. m. It was a wonderful lesson taught. All officers and teachers were at their post of duty. The Brotherhood retained the Offering Banner. Class No. 2, under the leadership of Sister Dorothy Kinner as teacher, won the Attendance Banner.

The order of the worship services began at 10:45 a. m. with devotion led by the Deacons and Deaconess.

Altar prayer was offered by Rev. Bobby Johnson. The Senior Choir was responsible for the music of the morning. They marched in singing "Glad To Be In The Service."

After another selection, scripture and prayer were conducted by Rev. M. Matthews.

Two other selections, "He's Preparing Me" and "It's No Secret What God Can Do."

Responsive reading was done with the congregation standing. The morning hymn was "Throw Out Life Line."

Pastoral observations were given by Pastor Billy R. Moton. He reported that he will give some interesting remarks during Prayer Meeting this week after attending a meeting last week. All are asked to please be present.

Another selection, "Oh How Precious The Name of Jesus."

Pastor Moton's sermon was entitled "A Praying Church Is A Powerful Church." His text was Acts 12:5. It was a wonderful message.

The invitation to discipleship was extended and one came forward to Christ.

The rest of the services were as usual.

Don't forget the W. M. S. effort to present its First Annual Mother's Day Banquet set for Saturday, May 9, 1992 at 6:30 p. m. at the lovely Sheraton Inn Ballroom. The theme is "Christian Women Loving and Unifying Through Christ." Ruth 1:16-17.

Hostesses are: New Hope W. M. S., Lyons Chapel W. M. S., and Carter Chapel W. M. S.

The public is cordially invited to attend. Donations are $14.00 per persons.

Want some good fish, then go by Bethel AME Church, 2202 Southeast Drive, beginning at 11:00 a. m. Saturday morning.

Our hearts were saddened about the passing of one of our members, Mrs. Rosella Pilow on last Saturday night.

Our love and sympathy go out to Sister Fannie Young and her family who lost her sister. The services were held last Wednesday in Marshall, Texas.

Congratulations, Mrs. Billie Cavieil on another grandbaby born in Austin, Texas last week. It is a fine boy.

Continue to pray for our sick and shut-ins. Among them are Sister Lillian Struggs who came home from the hospital last week. She desires your prayers.

Also, Sister Sarah Crawford who is still shut-in.

David, who was born in Lubbock, married Ronda Craig Langston. With them are John David, 13; Mary Kathryn, 10; and Evan Craig, born Dec. 22, 1991.

David is a graduate of the Georgetown University Law Center and the American University School of Government and Public Administration, both in Washington, D.C., and a 1971 graduate of Monterey High

QUALIFICATIONS

David Langston became experienced in government when he served as agriculture staff assistant to the late Congressman George Mahon for seven years. As a trustee for the federal courts he has administered millions of dollars, and made sure they were properly paid out to creditors. His work primarily involves restructuring businesses ranging from small proprietorships to large corporations. In his function as a negotiator and advocate, he has been successful in saving many firms which otherwise would have become costly failures. It is this valuable experience that makes David Langston the answer for the times in Lubbock. Never before has the city needed more unity, healing and constructive change.

"The new Mayor of Lubbock must take the lead in encouraging regional economic growth."

"We can begin to restore confidence and trust in our public servants, and revitalize the spirit of this community. Community commitment and cooperation is the only way to solve our problems."

"We need a new partnership between the city government and its citizens."

SPARATAN = Bigot!

by Eddie P. Richardson

Lubbock is in a tremendous state of shock from negativism! A group, mostly opinionated, in the most part, not fully formed who got in front of an issue which was already dead because of the mood of the community. The thing they, SPARATAN, rode in on was the 1/2 cents sales tax issue which still was good program for Lubbock's future and economic growth which in hind sight was sold vigorously enough to the citizens of Lubbock while the opposition worked diligently on their negative campaign -- walking from door to door and using other grass root tactics.

Anytime you use the word Tax Increase or more Tax you throw a fear into people, especially when the people do not have the full story -- positives as well as negatives.

One very serious issue is probably the most important is prior involvement, boards, commissions, attending council meetings, and being involved in the community. In general, these crucial times, Lubbock does not need a state of nay sayers with an on the job training program. The stakes are too high The Future of Lubbock!

States, in general, are bad. People need to concentrate on their own race. States, no single member district representation, causes the ward effort. The City Council we have had since the single member district case was won has been responsible. For example, T. J. Patterson, my partner, has shown a true spirit for Lubbock! He has represented Lubbock while diligently being a steward for District 2, while serving as Mayor Pro Tem he has made it even more so.

Lubbock, nay sayers have caused us: a water theme park, river walk, first round prison, and the 1/2 cents sales tax economic development by a group of blinded ultra-right wingers bigots. These people are so blinded by ultra-right wing bigotry and ultra, ultra conservatism that the fail to see the benefits to progress the underlying factor being some other people will prosper from progress -- tourism and jobs. These same people go to other places spend unlimited ... amounts of money.... Come back to Lubbock and boast and brag about the time they had and what they did. They get back home and become number one Hogg and Billy Bob. Lubbock is a point where it is in a positive position to grow. The past history has been Lubbock's growth has always been planned and not boom with the right kind of leadership it will continue to be Number 5 place to live and in time. What's wrong with the Ominax. The agreement is that there is no other city in West Texas can have one. Let's go for it! WHY NOT??

Remember Jacob Jarvis's Proposition 13 in California a few years back? And the recent Mayor in Amarillo, Texas -- Results Disaster!!

Lubbock rocker Joe Ely: Lord of Texas highways

By Leann Phenix, Texas Department of Commerce Print Media Coordinator

Country rocker Joe Ely was born on Route 66 in Amarillo, Texas. He spent the first 10 years of his life in a house located between Route 66 and the Rock Island Railroad tracks. Maybe it was being born on a highway known worldwide by songs written about it that led Ely into a life of singing and songwriting. That's one theory. Joe Ely has another.

His theory attempts to explain why so many talented musicians hail from Lubbock, Texas (Ely's family moved there when he was in the fifth grade). Ely shares the hometown fame with Buddy Holly, Roy Orbison, Jimmie Dale Gilmore, Waylon Jennings and Butch Hancock. "There was a big sighting of flying saucers in the early '50s called the 'Lubbock Lights' that half the town saw," he explains. "I've put two and two together and figure that Buddy Holly and Roy Orbison were aliens left in 'West Texas. The space ships were attracted to the area because everybody dances in circles--Western dancing--and they must have been attracted to the beat circles created by the dances."

Whether it's based on the influence of aliens or due to too high of a lithium count in the tap water (another popular theory), Joe Ely came into the world graced with a talent that is other-worldly. In his 26-year career, Ely has released nine albums, including Honky Tonk Masquerade (1978), Musta Notta Gotta Lotta (1981), Lord of the Highway (1987) and Live at Liberty Lunch (1990). His early music leaned more toward traditional country while his recent material is of a genre in their own right, a type of country-rockin' blues that is uniquely Texan.

Ely fans might have a hard time picturing it, but the first tunes he created came from a violin. "I had been playing violin in the orchestra in Amarillo in second grade when I heard that electric guitar (belonging to a neighbor), and that violin hit the closet." In junior high school, Ely had a rock 'n roll band that began playing in nearby West Texas towns like Muleshoe and gradually started playing in the likes of Dallas and their character through time, and they say a lot about the history of Texas. They speak to me. All of my relatives came here and settled in Texas at the turn of the century. So those little towns give me a sense of history and place that I think is real important.

"Every once in a while I have to take a pilgrimage. I constantly travel around the largest cities in the world. So when I get off a tour, it's nothing for me to fly into Dallas from Paris and jump in a car and drive straight to Guthrie to ground myself. I have to always make that trip around that whole West Texas area from Abilene to Amarillo to Pampas, Dalhart and Dumas. Then I can go home and pack for New York City and feel all right."

When he is away from Texas he misses the pace of the Lone Star State. "There's something about the attitude that people have here. Texans have an appreciation of their time off. They treat their recreation with as much zest as their work," he says. And many a Texan has spent that time dancing at Ely's dynamic live performances; perhaps all those dancing heat circles are responsible for making sure Ely's talent never diminishes.

Joe Ely's latest album, Live At Liberty Lunch, is a 13-song set that captures the essence of his live performance and spans over a decade of his musical career. Ely can also be heard on the movie soundtrack to John Cougar Mellencamp's "State of Grace" feature film. Look for his newest release in record stores this summer.

New Orleans. Just after high school graduation, Ely hit the road with little but his acoustic guitar. He spent eight years hopping freight trains across the country and playing in bands. His many years on the road are often chronicled in his songs, such as "Driving Man" on his Dig All Night album.

Nowadays, Ely tours throughout the U.S. and over seas, but the Texas headline runs deep and he's often back home in Austin where he resides with his wife, Sharon. And though he may rest his boots there from time to time, he still heeds the call of the wide open spaces found in West Texas and in the Panhandle. "I really love the little towns in West Texas. Muleshoe has a great little feel about it...so does Snyder and Slattton (a suburb of Lubbock). When you get a little bit higher north, you find Clarendon, Floydada and Guthrie--amazing little towns.

"These towns have preserved

FROM THE  OF
PARSON D. A. SMITH

"I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak comfortably to her." Hosea 2:14.

God must get our attention before He can teach His lesson. He world are chining in our ears and God cannot secure our attention. Our social life is of such that is words make no impression on us; they enter one ear and exit the other; they do not strike home. So God must detach us before He can teach us. He must remove that which like a hangman's knot chokes the avenues of our soul so that He may get our ear and teach His lesson. God proceeds his work by the severance of friendship, the breaking of earthly or worldly attachments and that social full life is attenuated and constricted to loneliness.

From the first dawning of conversion to the hour of death, it is solitude mostly that God speaks to the soul. Given the close proximity of our highly technological age, it is very difficult to "steal away" into some wilderness, whether it be forest, desert, or sea, were we are not affected with other people's opinions and ideals. Consequently, in such noisy and wearisome environs, we find ourselves ineligible to seize the accents of God. We need the desert like the saints of old. And how often has not the desert been the training ground of the saints. Moses was far away in the lonely recesses of Mt. Horeb when God gave him his great commission. Elijah was alone in the mountain cave when the still small voice spoke to him. When Daniel had been abandoned by his companions he stated: "I was left alone, and saw this great vision" (Daniel 10:8). John the Baptist was in the desert and as soon as Christ Jesus was dedicated to His work than He was summoned to the wilderness.

In Hosea 2:14, God spoke by His prophet to a nation which had in its prosperity multiplied its idols, made gold and silver into gods to worship, had been unfaithful to its God, and abused His gifts. However, the principles of divine government had not change.

God made the children of Isreal feel that the land of sin is the land of enslavement. He would cause them to experience the miseries that flow from idolatry. Then He would come to their rescue and reveal His compassion. In their loneliness He would make the valley of humiliation the avenue to victory.

In silence, in solitude, in the ineluctability of our hearts, the Lord deals with us today. He speaks to our heart. He allure it to Him and when our heart find no rest in this troubled world, He tenderly call it to its true rest in His wounded side.

Wisdom is knowing when you can't be wise.

We Thank God For Jesus "The Church's Zeal Without Knowledge!"

Part I

Revelation 2:7a -- Jesus said, he that hath an ear, let him hear what the spirit saith unto the churches; to him that overcometh will I give to eat the tree of life.

Isaiah 58:1 -- The Lord said, cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgressions.

Lord, many Churches today, are coming forth with many, many things so often is of the devil, "because they bring forth: shame, shame, shame."

Mark 16:15-16 -- Jesus said, go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not I shall be damned.

"The Gospel is a massage; and God gave a command to the Church. But the Church is playing Church; and the cults are waiting and that hurts."

Matthew 7:13-21 -- Jesus said, enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, an broad is the way. That leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in there at: not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the Kingdom of Heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

There is a new thing in Churches today, "called $5, $10, and $20 prayer lines. They say they have power from God, but it's robbing the blind."

Matthew 10:7-9 -- Jesus said, as ye go, preach, saying, the Kingdom of heaven is at hand. Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: freely ye have received freely give. Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass in your purses.

 Will A Man Rob God?? What Do You Think?? ***

There's also the game, where the preacher cut up his shirt and call it prayer cloth. Telling the Church it has power in it; and its pieces are $10 cost."

Romans 1:21-22 -- Because that, when they know God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but because vain in their imagination, and their foolish heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools.

 It's Better To Obey God, Than Sacrifice Your Shirt ***

"And then there's this game, where you hug someone and say: God and You love'em. But when you get sick, down and without, bereaved; that's when you can't hear from them."

Romans 10:2-3 -- I bear them record that they have a zeal of God, but not according. For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness. Have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

"Many Churches are following the do-wrong preacher; and don't know what to do. Because he beats them into submission with Bible quotes; obey them that rule over you."

Jeremiah 4:212 -- The Lord said, for my people 's foolish. They have not known me; they are sottish (stupid) children, and they have none understanding: they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.

Micah 6:3 -- The Lord said, O my people, what have I done unto thee? And wherein have I wearied thee? Testify against me.

God is not through with us yet. So let's pray for one another always. AMEN
