"What happens to a dream deferred? Does it dry up like a raisin in the sun? Or does it explode?" - Langston Hughes

The Jerry Gray Foundation (JGF) is a non-profit, faith based 501c3 charity founded by former All-Pro cornerback and current NFL coach, Jerry Gray, and his wife, Sherry Gray. The foundation is dedicated to offering hope, vision and opportunities for young people living in underserved communities. Its mission is to motivate and empower young men and women with knowledge, financial resources and the tools needed for achieving a higher education and for being successful in life.

In The Beginning
Jerry Gray and his wife have spent several years and several endeavors in reaching back and helping those in the less fortunate community where they grew up in East Lubbock, Texas. Over the years, these endeavors have consisted of free Jerry Gray/Young Life football camps, Jerry/Sherry Gray private scholarships, donations to the Boys/Girls Club, and funding to Texas Tech/Marsha Sharp's basketball camps for the Estacado High School girls basketball team.

The last five years have been primarily focused on building self worth, stirring up God given gifts, and enlarging the territories of young Estacado students. This has come through the opportunity of trips taken to Buffalo, New York and last year to Washington, D. C.

These trips have allowed students to broaden their perspectives on life and to see first hand how someone from a similar background has accomplished their goals. Students have been given the opportunity to travel not only out of the state, but also out of the country to Niagara Falls, Canada. They've toured the country's capitol and have seen the historical monuments and The White House in Washington. In addition, the students also attended a professional football game, meet players and coaches, and are given private tours of the practice facilities and stadium. But more importantly, they are encouraged, mentored, and counseled by Jerry Gray on dreaming big, setting goals and working toward endless possibilities.

The Next Steps
It will always be a goal of Jerry and Sherry Gray to offer a hand up to young people in need. The opportunity to do so has become a lot easier, however, with the help of Texas Tech University who will partner with the Jerry Gray Foundation by offering matching corporate contributions for scholarship to Estacado High School students. It is for this reason that the foundation will be officially launched as a 501c3 and will endeavor in several fundraisers aimed at attaining monies for their scholarships. It is the continual goal of the Jerry Gray Foundation to offer opportunities to uplift young people, thereby strengthening our families and rebuilding our communities.

Austin crowd kills man after car hits girl

An angry crowd beat a man to death after a vehicle he was riding in struck and injured a young girl, police said Wednesday. Police believe 2,000 to 3,000 people were in the area for a Juneteenth celebration when the attack occurred Tuesday night.

The driver had stopped to check on the little girl at the entrance to an apartment complex when a group of men attacked him, authorities said. The passenger, David Rivas Morales, 40, got out to try to help the driver, but the crowd turned on him, said police Commander Harold Piatt.

Morales was beaten to death by as many as 20 men and left lying in a parking lot, Piatt said. A preliminary autopsy listed blunt force trauma as the cause of death.

The little girl, 3 or 4 years old, was taken to a hospital with non-life threatening injuries.

The driver, who got away from the crowd, is cooperating with investigators, police said.

Piatt did not know how many witnesses had been identified, but thousands of people had been in the area for the day-long festival. He said no guns or knives appeared to have used in the fatal attack.

Juneteenth marks the day Gen. Gordon Granger arrived in Galveston in 1865 to share news of the Emancipation Proclamation, which freed slaves two years earlier on Jan. 1, 1863.

Avoid the summer pinch at the pumps

PHOENIX, AZ - Drivers nationwide are feeling the pinch at the pumps, and as record high gas prices set in across the country, the pinch isn't likely to lighten up during the peak driving season, according to Mike Sullivan, director of education for Take Charge America, a national non-profit credit counseling agency.

"Now that $3 a gallon - or more - is the norm in many parts of the nation, consumers are feeling the financial strain whether they're planning a summer getaway or just trying to get to work," he said.

According to a recently released survey from AAA, traveling this summer will be more expensive than last - and not just at the gas pumps. Combined, lodging and restaurants are expected to be about 3.7 percent more expensive than last year. If you are one of the millions planning to hit the road this summer, Sullivan offers seven tips to help you save:

- Keep vehicle properly maintained - Get regular tune ups and vehicle maintenance checks to improve gas mileage. According to the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, drivers who follow the manufacturer's maintenance recommendations should avoid fuel economy problems due to worn spark plugs, dragging breaks, low transmission fluid or the transmission not going into high gear.

- Check tires - Check your tire pressure regularly to be sure they are inflated in accordance with the manufacturer's specifications. AAA says properly inflated tires can increase gas mileage as much as 2 percent.

- Combine trips - Let your daily or weekly errands accumulate until you can complete them in a single trip. In addition to saving gas, you will reduce wear and tear on your car.

- Lighten the load - Remove heavy objects from your vehicle. The heavier the vehicle, the more gas it expends.

- Drive gently - An easy touch on the accelerator and slower speeds will also save on gas.

- Do your homework - Check around for the cheapest gas in your area. Prices can vary up to 20 cents per gallon from block to block. Web sites like <http://gasbuddy.com> provide users with a list of the cheapest gas stations by zip code.

- Avoid peak driving times - If possible, adjust your work or school hours to avoid peak traffic times at rush hour. This may involve coming into the office an hour later and leaving an hour early, or visa versa. This way, you can get to your destination sooner with fewer stops and idle time.

- Find alternative modes of transportation - Carpool or use public transportation whenever possible. This can include trips to work, school, sports practice or a night on the town. You should also consider walking or cycling to nearby locations.

We Thank God for Jesus "America Cursed With A Curse"

Written by Evangelist Billy "B.J." Morrison, III - Your brother in Christ Jesus always.

Deuteronomy 11:26-28 - The Lord said, behold (Look), I sit before you this day blessing and a curse. A blessing, if you obey the commandments of the Lord, your God, which I command you this day, and a curse, if you will not obey the Commandments of the Lord, your God. But turn aside out of the way which I command you this day to go after other gods which you have not known.

Lord, our forefathers prayed and worshipped and, giving all the glory to you. You said, you would bless their land, their seed, and see them through.

Exodus 20:5 - The Lord said, you shall not bow yourselves to them (Idols), nor serve them, for I, the Lord, your God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the Father upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of those that hate me.

In the cotton patches, they would sing songs, and only to you they pray. They kept you on their hearts and minds all the nights and the days.

Deuteronomy 11:18-19 - The Lord said, therefore, you shall lay up my words in your heart and in your soul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand that they may be a frontlets between your eyes, and you shall teach them, your children, speaking of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way when you lay down and when you rise up.

Lord, you know America stopped following for a dream to do his own thing. Now her curses have almost over taken her. It's a Shame, Shame, Shame!!!

Jeremiah 23:25-28 - The Lord said, I have heard what the prophets said, that prophesy lies in my name, saying I have dreamed, I have dreamed! How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophesy lie? Yes, they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart which think to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams which they tell every man to his neighbor. As their father has forgotten my name for Ba-al (Idols). The prophet who has a dream, let him tell a dream, and he that has my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the chaff to the wheat.

(America is one of the most blessed countries under the sun, and yet we're the worse. We want to overseas and teach others the right way!!! Blind can not lead the blind is what Jesus said. America's Rights are wrong: Run Away Rights, Black Rights, White Rights, Condons In Kindergarten Rights, Guns In School Rights, No Spanking Rights, Drugs In Schools Rights, Abortion Rights, Drive By Shooting Rights, Shacking Rights, KKK Rights, Bomb The Federal Building Rights, Black Suicide Rights, Kill The Abortion Doctor Rights, Road rage Rights, Cloning Rights, Kill The Teacher And Classmate Rights, Kill The Family Rights, and more. But they are all of the Devil Civil Rights!!!)

Proverb 14:12 - There is a way which seems right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.

Lord, when the leaders didn't obey the law, the rights to do as they pleased, we're now a nation of robbers, murders, thugs and thieves!!!

Micah 7:2-3 - The good man is perished out of the earth, and there is none upright among men. They all lie in wait for blood. They hunt every man, his brother, with a net who they may do evil with both hands earnestly. And the Prince ask, and the Judge ask for a reward, and the great man, he utters his mischievous desire. So they wrap it up.

From the Desk of Parson D.A. Smith 'Cheese': The Deadly Street Drug

This writer is troubled by illegal immigration and the negative effects it is having on America's society. Those of us who live in close proximity to the border of Mexico should be concerned about all of the illegal activity that is encompassing and affecting the well-being of our and our neighbors lives. It should hurt each Lubbockite when we read the weekly grand jury indictments of our friends and neighbors for illegal drug possession and use. Other indictments often stem from the use or from being a seller of poison drugs to our friends and loved ones.

Wednesday, June 6, 2007, a federal grand jury in Dallas indicted a man suspected of supplying heroin to teens (think of this as being one of your sons or daughters or grandson and daughter) that mix and sell it as a drug called "cheese." This highly addictive drug has taken the lives of more than 21 teenagers in the Dallas area alone.

Medical reports has sub- stantiated when an individual uses "cheese heroin", the body of the user and everything around starts slowing down including the inside of the body and eventually the person slows until the heart stops and upon the stopping of the heart, life ceases.

The authorities describe cheese heroin as a brownish powder of a mixture of so-called Mexican heroin and crushed over-the-counter medications that contain antihista- mine diphenhydramine, found in products such as Tylenol P.M. The effect of the mixture of heroin and the sleeping aid forms a brew that leads to death.

"Cheese" is said not only to be dangerous, it is cheap. A teen can purchase a single Lit for as little as $2 and a gram for $10. Authorities say, snorting with a straw or through a ball- point pen, one may use the drug. It causes drowsiness and lethargy, as well as euphoria, excessive thirst and disorienta- tion. That is if one remains around long enough to be in the gene pool.

The drug is said to look like the dairy product Parmesan cheese and receive its name from the Spanish word "chiva," which is street slang for heroin. Authorities emphasize that by using the name "cheese", drug dealers target and market this killer drug to young middle schoolers who are unaware of its potential dangers.

The authorities want par- ents to be aware of this drug and watch their young children who are used by the "creatures of hell" who do not care and will make a family's life a liv- ing hell.

The Dallas grand jury indicted thirty-one-year old Martin Laguna. However, two other high school dropouts, Marco Antonio Romero and Timothy Ryan Daniels are set to be indicted. Romero is believed to be in Mexico and Daniels is in federal custody. One other man is in custody, however, his brother and cousin are believed to be in Mexico.

Lubbock parents and custo- dians of children need to be aware that this drug is very addictive. More than likely after a single dose. The chills, nausea, headaches, and other physical discomfort causes the user to seek another hit to escape the pain. When this hap- pens it is all over but the cut- ting so to speak—the cycle of hardcore addiction has started and the life of young child is ruin.

Lubbock parents need to know that selling of "cheese" is very profitable to the drug deal- er. A $30 purchase of heroin can yield 40 to 50 cheese hits, each costing about $2. This makes it more affordable to teens and more profitable for the dealers. Parents should call the authorities immediately if they suspect their child of pur- chasing and using this drug. The federal authorities in the Lubbock area do not take it lightly when dealing with drug pimps who break federal laws. More than likely St. Peter would have to come down from the heavens to save a drug deal- er who pimps this deadly mix- ture to young middle schoolers. How likely is that?

St. Matthew's Baptist Church News

Last Sunday, June 17, 2007, was a very special day for the members of the St. Matthew Baptist Church, 2020 East 14th Street, where Rev. Edward Canady is the proud pastor.

Services got underway with Sunday School beginning at 10:15 a.m. with Superintendent Sister Luella Harris in charge.

The morning lesson was taught by Sister Harris, and Pastor Canady reviewed the lesson. The subject was entitled "True Worship." The scripture lesson was Isaiah 1:10-11 and 14-20. It was another wonderful lesson.

The morning worship got underway with devotion services at 11:10 a.m. with Deacon Edward Williams and Deacon Willie Canady of Waco and brother of Pastor Canady. The spirit was high!

The St. Matthew Baptist Church Choir did another splen- did job singing for the Lord. It was a wonderful presentation of praises in songs to the Lord.

Rev. Monty Smith delivered the morning sermon. His subject was "Help Our Fallen, I Can't Get Up. The scripture text was founding Ecclesiastes 4:9-10. It was a wonderful message for all in attendance.

Let us continue to pray for those who are on the sick and shut-in list. Let us remember God is able to help us in all we can do. He is just a good God!

Thought of the Week: "We are saved not by what we do but by trusting what Christ has done."

What's happening in Lubbock ISD?

The Lubbock I.S.D. Board of Trustees met recently. Among action taken the trustees recognized two administrators for outstanding accomplishments, were briefed on the status of the two new elementary schools, and approved the application for an innovative course.

Heidi Dye, assistant principal for instruction at Hutchinson Middle School, was recognized for her selection as the 2007-2008 Outstanding Assistant Principal of the Year for Region XVII by the Texas Association of Secondary School Principals (TASSP). The award recognizes exceptional performance and leadership in Texas administrators at the campus level. TASSP consists of more than 5,000 campus administrators across the state.

Also recognized was Beth Siggins, sixth-grade English teacher at Hutchinson Middle School, who was one of six teachers recognized statewide by the Texas Middle School Association (TMSA) as Outstanding Middle School Teachers of the Year. The award recognizes teachers who "best exemplified middle level best teaching practices." Siggins was chosen for epitomizing middle level practices with her dedication and commitment to student success at Hutchinson Middle School. Alderson Middle School was recognized for their selection as one of five statewide winners of the Elmer Watson Middle School Award by TMSA.

The new mascots and colors for Roy W. Roberts and Centennial Elementary Schools were unveiled at the board meeting. Centennial Elementary, which will open on the 100-year anniversary of LISD, will use a red, white and blue color scheme with a mascot of the "Rockets." Roberts Elementary will be the "Raiders" and use red and black for the school colors. The designs, colors and mascots were developed through a cooperative effort of students, parents and staff on each of the campuses. The two new elementary schools will open in the fall and have office staff currently working on the campus.

In other business, the board approved the renewal of an innovative course entitled, "Student Leadership," for approval by the Texas Education Agency. The course has been offered since 1996 and provides opportunities for students to develop group and individual leadership and organizational skills, decision-making and problem-solving techniques, communication and human relation skills and an understanding of civic responsibility.

The next meeting of the board was rescheduled to July 19.

Delta Sigma Theta and production company reach settlement

(BLACK PR WIRE) (New York) Recently, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., the largest African-American sorority representing over 200,000 college-educated black women, inked a settlement agreement with Derek & Jamar Productions, a Brooklyn-based production company and makers of Black Sorority Project: The Exodus, a documentary film and painting about Delta and their participation in the Women's Suffrage March.

Frances Murphy, 85, a lifetime sorority member and daughter of Delta Founder Vashti Murphy, applauded the decision. "Now that the controversy is resolved, it really clears the air and allows us to move ahead in bringing forth one of the greatest pieces ever created on sorority life to the world."

Last fall, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. filed a complaint with the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia against Derek & Jamar Productions, LLC. This spring, Derek & Jamar countered by filing a Motion to Dismiss with the U. S. District Court. Producer, Derek Fordjour explained the move towards settlement this way, "We never sought to offend the very people this project was created to honor. For this reason, we were interested in resolution from the beginning."

David Kaufman, legal counsel for Derek & Jamar echoed the sentiment, "D&J has always professed the highest possible regard for Delta, its President and its Executive Board. My clients believe that settling this dispute amicably can only be seen as a victory for both sides."

When asked about the legal challenges, Producer Jamar White said, "Today we live in a litigious society, understandably these organizations are highly sensitive. While it's important that they protect themselves from exploitation, it's also important that we [artists] are able to use media to help redefine the black Greek experience [beyond hazing and stepping] in a more positive light. We're happy that our agreement with Delta can accomplish both of these things through Black Sorority Project."

White continued, "We were just glad to learn that Delta was primarily concerned about their trademarks and an apology, not to ban the project. They [Delta] were very clear in communicating to us the fact that they never encouraged their members not to support." As part of the proposed settlement, Derek & Jamar have posted a public apology on their website. Delta has also posted a statement on its website which acknowledges the apology and clarifies their position on the participation of its members.

Fordjour concluded, "We're excited that everything is finally straightened out and people can participate guilt-free". Later this month on Friday June 29th the DuSable Museum in Chicago will host an 8:00pm screening of Black Sorority Project: The Exodus, display the painting Oriented To Serve and hold a Q & A with the filmmakers. The event is free. You may register online at exodoustour.com

A father loves his daughter!

DeShawn Osogbe, who is a caring and nurturing father, attributes to the fulfilling of his prophesy to Pastor Robert Griggs, pastor of the True Worshipers Church of God in Christ.

Malachi 4:6: "And he shall turn the hearts of the fathers, to the children and the heart of the children to the fathers."

DeShawn is a proud father. He was present when his daughter, Ke'arianah Lashay was born, and has been at her side. Although she was born with life threatening complications, she had to be hospitalized for a week. God had given the doctors and nurses at the University Medical Center the wisdom to alleviate all problems. She was released Friday, April 13, 2007. DeShawn doesn't miss a visiting moment. He bathes, grooms, feeds, and changes his daughter's diapers.

The mother, Tenerra Green, sometimes feels left out. Ke'arianah stares into her father's eyes and has bonded with him. But she says, the baby does not do it while she is being fed. She doesn't take her eyes off of him and smiles while he talks and plays with her. The mother admits, "While he plays with her, I am a little jealous, but I'm glad she loves her father like that! I just can't get him away from his daughter. She is definitely going to be a daddy's girl." You see, DeShawn talked to his daughter while the mother, Tenerra, was carrying her. He would have Tenerra hold the telephone up to her stomach every night while he would say, "I love you, and have a good night!"

The baby would always respond by moving, kicking, even though she couldn't get her to move all day. "She would keep me awake by moving and kicking the rest of the night," said Tenerra.

"I am going to take care of my daughter with or without the mother's help," said DeShawn. But he hopes Tenerra will marry him, and the three of them will become a happy family.

Pastor Robert Griggs said, "I hope other young men will follow DeShawn Osogbe's lead and step up to the plate and be a real father. You see, there's no doubt Ke'arianah will grow up to be a healthy and successful young lady. Lubbock waits to see this outcome."

"You go boy!"

THIS 'N' THAT

by T.J. Patterson

CONGRATULATIONS TO KING JOHNS & QUEEN WARITAY! THIS N THAT wants to take this opportunity and say CONGRATULATIONS to the young people who were crowned as the 3rd annual "MR. & MISS JUNETEENTH" last Thursday evening June 14, 2007. They were ALEXANDER JOHNS & KANESHA WARITAY. Both did well in their presentations last week. Not only did they do well, but all other contestants! You see, all of them are winners! Others vying were FREDRICK BURNS, LATRICIA MANAHAN, CLARA SIMPSON, JONATAHN QUIGLEY & JOHNAE WALTON. Let us continue to support all of our young people in all they do. If we continue to encourage them then, the ANNUAL JUNETEENTH CELEBRATION will continue. So when you see these young people, let them know we appreciate what they have done and will continue to do.

THOSE MATADORS WILL BE HERE NEXT WEEK! THIS N THAT wants all of you know that many of those young people who graduated or attended the ESTACADO HIGH SCHOOL will be gathering here beginning JUNE 29. They'll be here through JULY 1, attending their 40th ALL-CLASS REUNION. It will be good to see many of these young people who have gone to make outstanding contributions in many areas of endeavor. THIS N THAT wishes them the very best while they are visiting and looking back over the years. The committee has done well and the outcome should be positive. WELCOME HOME, MATADORS! ESTER SEPEDA is retiring from the HISPANIC CHAMBER! THIS N THAT has learned that a very hard-working citizen of our community, ESTER SEPEDA will be retiring from the Hispanic Chamber of Commerce as of July 31, 2007. She has served as President and Executive Director of this body for many years. THIS N THAT says thanks to her for a job well done and that she did make a difference in Lubbock. May God continue to bless you ESTER SEPEDA!

APPARENT DRUG HOUSES SEEM TO BE POPPING UP! THIS N THAT has noticed the popping up of APPARENT DRUG HOUSES IN EAST LUBBOCK. If you are a citizen, it is up to you to help keep your neighborhood clean of this kind of filth. There's no doubt about it the help of our local police and other officials is needed, but as a CITIZEN we have a part to play. When you see things out of line in your block, it would make sense to check and see what is going on. Just think of what would happen if all families and parents did their part in seeing that things were in order in our neighborhoods. THIS N THAT just thought you need to know that things are not looking as it one did in the neighborhood. So the question to be asked is, "WILL YOU HELP KEEP DRUGS OUT OF YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD?" Here's hoping and praying you will!

PENNY HASTINGS THE BARBER SAYS, "When we walk in the LIGHT, we won't STUMBLE in the DARKNESS!"

PLANS ARE UNDERWAY FOR 30TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE SOUTHWEST DIGEST! THIS N THAT is very excited over the upcoming plans for the 30TH ANNIVERSARY of the Southwest Digest, which is set for September. Back in SEPTEMBER 1977, this newspaper was founded and has been around since then. Now it hasn't been easy, but with the help of people like you and the Lubbock business community (and of course, God) we've able to stand. For all of that we're just thankful. If you would ask why we endured to this time, we'd say because WE HAVE TRIED TO BE NICE TO EVERYONE AND WE ENJOY WHAT WE DO! there is no doubt about it because of being nice to some people has really cost us, but it is just who we are and we'll continue doing what is right for all of you. So stay tuned and read more about our 30TH ANNIVERSARY in very near future. So thanks in advance for what you may do to help us in this celebration.

Think About It!

Juneteenth An Official State Holiday

by Eddie P. Richardson

We have just gone through the Juneteenth Celebration which is a state holiday celebration. This is an official state holiday which is born and bred in the great state of Texas by Texans for Texans. For your information, Juneteenth is now celebrated in other states as an observation, but not a Texas holiday.

The down side of the observation is the internet and self appointed Juneteenth headquarters in a few states. They are not the true Juneteenth heads because they are not Texas. Everyone can celebrate any holiday they way they choose to do, but they should not claim what is not true. This writer has observed people posing as Juneteenth headquarters representatives from Michigan, California and Mississippi. Our local Juneteenth organization has connected with the Mississippi group.

On this recent celebration, there were some misinformation given. One incorrect statement was made on a local television station which announced that in 1908 Juneteenth was made an official state holiday. This is not true. You see, Juneteenth was already a state holiday and had been for a few years and was signed into law by Governor Bill Clements. The Juneteenth Cultural and Historical Commission was created by Governor George W. Bush in 1980. It was also mentioned that Major General Gordon Grainger of the Union Army under the general command of President Abraham Lincoln. His name was not Gordon, but Granger. Gordon was his first name.

This writer was around the whole time during the entire process and was lobbying for the holiday with State Representative Al Edwards (D-Houston) and others. Also during the Commission being appointed by Governor Bush and then through the monument in Galveston, Texas where the first one is already in place and now for the one which will stand on the Capitol grounds in Austin, Texas soon.

There have been some questions as to why we do not recognize the internet Juneteenth Headquarters representatives. You see, they are not Texas, and they are not official. In this writer's opinion, they do not take Juneteenth as a sacred holiday, but as a commercial venue. We as a Commission refuse to honor them on these grounds. We would be glad to work with them as we do others across the United States of America, but not the official head. Juneteenth is a sacred holiday and is not just for partying. It is the other Independence Day for all in Texas and it is a time of jubilee for Blacks and a time for soul searching for whites. It is also a time for forgiveness from Blacks. Remember, we were not free from the British or some other foreign country, but freed from Americans in America. Now that's what makes Juneteenth special! Every other group or tribe came to America for a better way of life, more opportunities in the land of the free and home of the brave. But, we as Blacks came to America as slaves against our will and not looking for a thrill. We are Blacks! No other Juneteenth is sacred!

Closing Thought: "Hatred and bitterness can never cure the disease of fear; only love can do that. Hatred paralyzes life; love releases it. Hatred confuses life; love harmonizes it. Hatred darkened life; love illuminates it."

Why is the "best" Paperboy series being ignored?

Picture this: a young black youth from the Bronx penned his first book at the tender age of 11, a book that then went on to become a best seller, and where his subsequent books have sold well over 25,000 copies, and counting, and are being used in the New York City school system as a teaching tool to encourage preteen youths to love the joy of reading and writing.

Sounds like a Hollywood movie. But it is all true. The youth's name is Omari Jeremiah, who now at the ripe old age of 17, is set to release Paperboy Four from Morton Books, Inc. But still, there is the question of why this remarkable young man is not better known, especially in the black community?

Both the leading papers in New York City, the Daily News

and the New York Times have done features on him, but, according to Rob Morton, President and CEO of Morton Books, "despite persistence overtures, national outlets like Ebony Magazine, and Oprah Winfrey, have so far ignored us."

Although Morton expressed "A profound sense of dismay" at this missed opportunity to provide young black youth with a different kind of role model, "rather than foul mouth rappers," he is still greatly pleased at the success of the Paperboy series.

"Paperboy 2 and Paperboy 3 are now going into a second printing, and we have had three printings for Paperboy One; and Paperboy Four will be released in a few months. This is the closest thing to the Harry Potter series that excites preteens, that this country has so far produced, and the author is a young, unsung black male from the Bronx. Imagine that," said Morton.

In Cinque

by Renetta Howard

The long hot summer is upon us and the price of gasoline does not seem to be dropping any lower any time soon as we are expected to use more fuel for long vacation trips during the summer months. In addition to the already high cost of fuel, the cost of crude oil has now risen to over $66.00 per barrel. That is a new reason to raise the cost of gasoline, though we all know that the real reason for the exorbitant prices is not due to the cost of crude oil but to the cost of crude business which is getting more than the "traffic can bear" from the citizens of this country.

The citizens of this country have tried a day of boycotting the gas stations which gave the dealers a day's rest for which they knew that they would be much busier than usual on the next day because we must have gasoline to travel wherever we plan to go. So, the one day boycott was to no avail. We bought the gas the next day. Now there is the idea of boycotting the two large gas companies on a daily basis and promoting a gas war in hopes of starting a price war to get the prices down. This may be just as fruitless as the one day boycott of all gas dealers, as the messages are being distributed by e-mail as to what dealers to boycott. If one does not own a computer and have e-mail service, the message will be slow moving to people who rely on others to tell them what is going on. The effectiveness of a price war is unpredictable.

The only true way to really bring down the price of gasoline is to eliminate the need for gasoline. Some automobile fuel pumps already display the notice that the fuel has a percentage of ethylene in it now. Of course there are drivers who swear that they have purchased gasoline which contained water. There is the push for the use of ethanol made from corn. Some people are already using it, but it will take a lot of corn to make enough to serve the driving clientele of this country as unlike the "car in every garage," promised by one presidential candidate years ago, there are two to five cars in every garage now, with three being the average.

The average farmer who planted cotton last year has planted corn this year. If the idea of ethanol catches on, we can expect the cost of corn to soar, hopefully not as high as gasoline. Maybe by that time we will be back to square one, using batteries in our vehicles as the primary source of energy. In the meantime, we need to get "in cinque" and use as less gasoline as we possibly can.

The Southwest Digest is an independent newspaper serving the Lubbock, West Texas, South Plains of Texas and Eastern New Mexico areas printing the news impartially supporting what it believes to be right without opposing what it believes to be wrong without regard to party politics.

Devoted to the industrial, educational, social, political, and economical advancement of African-American people.

You may be critical of some things that are written, but, at least you will have the satisfaction of knowing they are truthful and to the point.

People will react to that which is precise, and we will publish these articles as precisely and factually as is humanly possible. We will also give credit and respect to those who are doing good things for the Lubbock Area and the people. We will be critical of those who are not doing as they have said they would, and this, we think, is fair.

So, this is our resolution to you. "Feel free at any time to call this office for information concerning this newspaper or any other matter that is of concern to you."

This is not a propaganda sheet made to chastise or vilify. This is a newspaper made to educate and not to agitate.

The opinions expressed by guest columnists or editorialists are not necessarily the opinions of the publishers/editors or those of the advertisers. Comments and pictures are welcome but the publishers are not responsible to return articles unless a self-addressed stamped envelope is submitted. All notices must be paid in advance. Haynes Elementary named runner-up for "going green" contest

Scotts Miracle-Gro and Keep America Beautiful present prizes to Learning Garden Contest runners up.

To celebrate National Garden Month in April, The Scotts Miracle-Gro Company, the world's largest marketer of branded products for consumer lawn and garden care, and Keep America Beautiful (KAB) initiated an environmental stewardship program to educate America's youth about the importance of green spaces in our cities. Scholastic and the National Gardening Association assisted in the creation of "30 Days of Green"—a calendar distributed to 81,000 4th, 5th and 6th graders as a challenge to all Americans to go green during National Garden Month.

As a part of the 30 Days of Green campaign, teachers and students nationwide were encouraged to submit an entry on behalf of their school for the Learning Garden Contest including, an essay and a photo of the class participating in one of the "30 Days of Green" activities. The activities and the contest promote the benefits of green spaces, as they largely contribute to beautiful, healthy communities.

As one of 16 elementary schools across the country named a runner up, Haynes Elementary was awarded an in-classroom gardening kit, complete with plants, tools, Miracle-Gro Moisture Control Potting Mix and Miracle-Gro Shake 'n Feed All Purpose Plant Food plus Weed Preventer.

(Value: $200)

Visit www.scotts.com or www.kidsgardening.org for all Learning Garden Contest winners to date.

The runner-up and first place winners will receive their prizes in May 2007. The Learning Garden will be installed in spring 2008.

Who Cares that the UMC Health System is home to the only Children's Miracle Network Hospital in our region?

We Care.

When Julie started feeling tired all the time, she took her to UMC's Children's Hospital. They quickly diagnosed Julie with juvenile diabetes. The caring experts at UMC took the time to educate her on the facts about the disease and how to control it. Now she can't wait to show her doctor.
