Keep Christ in Christmas

by T. J. Patterson

How can we celebrate Christmas? How can we make Christmas more meaningful? Christmas is a time to remember the gift of divine love and Jesus Christ. Christmas is a time of remembrance and thanksgiving and joy.

We keep Christmas when we make every effort to keep Christ in Christmas. Christmas is a time to think about the birth of Christ and its meaning for our lives. Christmas is the day of days. It is the springtime of the soul as it moves from the shadows into the light.

We must remember that both light and life come to us when we remember Jesus, who was born in Bethlehem. This light is necessary for us to see. We need a strong light to see spiritual things. You may be able to see large things with half-light, but you cannot see the small things. Therefore, when The baby was born in a stable, the small and insignificant became important. Let us rejoice in the Christmas story. Let us keep Christ in Christmas.

As we look at Christmas this year, this week, let's also keep in mind that Christmas is a time of sharing with others. We remember the needy and the less fortunate. We think about the sick and shut-in. We are stirred by the oppressed and hungry. We become thoughtful and giving. Christmas is different. Christmas is like lighting a candle in darkness. Let us keep the candle lighted every day of the year. The candle of Christmas, without any doubt, helps us to see what we can become and what we ought to be.

As we go into another Christmas season, keep in mind, also, that is a time to be with our family and loved ones. Family ties can be strengthened. We can express kindness and love to the members of our family—to mother and dad, brother and sister, parents to children. Christmas brings out the very best in each of us.

You know one of the favorite Christmas stories is that written by Charles Dickens. He wrote, A Christmas Carol. In the book, Scrooge was the rich old miser. He was interested in no one but himself. He was hard-hearted and greedy. But, along with Scrooge was Bob Cratchit, Scrooge's bookkeeper. Cratchit had nothing to live on except the pittance that Scrooge doled out to him. Yet the heart of Cratchit was richer than Scrooge because of his love for his family and his devotion to Tiny Tim, his little crippled child.

What happened to Scrooge should happen to everyone this Christmas. Scrooge was overwhelmed by the new emotions of a new life of love. Life becomes full when Christmas is meaningful. Let us keep Christ in Christmas. May we have a fresh and new blessing this Christmas.

The entire staff of the West Texas Times would like to challenge all of our readers to keep Christ

As we celebrate the birth of the Infant King, let us rededicate ourselves to the goal of peace on earth among all men.

Almighty God our heavenly Father, Who makest us glad with the yearly remembrance of the birth of Thine only son Jesus Christ, grant that we may joyfully receive Him for our Redeemer, and evermore be blessed with His saving light, His saving love, and His saving power. May Thy blessings rest upon us and upon all our work and worship done in His name; help us to glorify Thy holy name and worthily serve our beloved country; and may the spirit of Christ, reigning in the hearts of men everywhere, bring peace to men of good will.

AMEN.

in Christmas—not just at this season of the year—but all through the year.

Prisoners of War Need Support

by T. J. Patterson

The other day my son and I were driving through the community when we happened to see several damaged helicopters, which could have been in battle in South Vietnam. The sight of the helicopters disturbed him and he began to ask questions concerning the war in South Vietnam.

As we continued to talk, my mind turned back to that war torn country where I spent some thirteen months—from 1962-63. I could still see myself in Saigon, Hue and Danang. That experience will never be far from my conscious mind.

And while I was talking to my son, and recalling my experiences in that far-away-part of the world, I could not help but think that I very well could be one of those Americans who are captive to this day in North Vietnam. Being stationed near North Vietnam several times, I could certainly have been one of those lonely Americans faced with still another Christmas in North Vietnam prison.

At this time I would like to urge each of you to support the move now being conducted in America to help the cause and stop the suffering of those brave Americans who can not be with their loved ones again this Christmas.

Whether you are a veteran, a parent or loved one of someone in service, or just proud to be an American, I'm sure you all agree that they need our support.

my views

by Eddie P. Richardson

More than a century ago, slaves, weary and bent from the fields would pause on Christmas day and sing that "Mary had a boy child."

For centuries Christians black or white—in bondage or freedom—have paused to rejoice on this happy day of birth. But now in 1970, with many turmoils Christmas and its meanings are being challenged and molded to fit black concepts and ideas. The question at hand is—is the true meaning of Christmas gone and has it become a commercial event?

I suggest, maybe not for this Christmas as it is probably already too late, now is the time for all black people to save your money for sound investments and not get caught in the snare of,

Austin, Texas—Governor Preston Smith has called for re-evaluation of Texas' water planning and possible restructuring of the $9 billion state-wide water plan proposed in 1968.

Smith told Chairman Marvin Shurbet of the Texas Water Development Board that he will block spending of all water study funds appropriated to WDB except those obligated under contracts. More than $1.4 million was appropriated last year for topographic mapping, water studies and investigations. About a third is obligated under contracts.

Governor Smith called attention to the fact that Texas voters rejected the $3.5 billion bond issue on August 5, 1969, that was designed to pay the state's share of the project's cost.

"In view of the critical shortage of state funds, additional expenditures for water studies and investigations would be inappropriate until we know that they would support whatever revised planning process we should decide to pursue," said Smith in a letter to Shurbet. "Accordingly it will be the policy of the governor's office to support continued outstanding efforts by the Board and its staff as we chart a new course in water resource planning."

One source said Smith feels that a long-range plan would get more support if citizens could see some concrete, short-term accomplishments in water development.

Smith reportedly may ask the Legislature to submit to the voters a bond program to finance aid to cities for sewage treatment.

Original study plan to bring surplus Mississippi River water to Texas was turned down by the voters. Consensus is that Texans as well as Mississippians look with disfavor on this idea.

At the DeCordova Bend Reservoir dedication on June 19 Smith declared that Texas cannot postpone development of water resources on a big scale until all controversies about the long-range water plan are resolved.

House Burglary

Louie Papack, 710 Avenue C, reported to the Lubbock Police Department that persons unknown did open a window on the north side of his house and take approximately six foot of two inch copper pipe.

The pipe was part of the bathroom fixtures and was in a room on the east side of the house.

Exit was apparently made by the entry window.

The value of the pipe is believed to be $15.00.

Aggravated Assault

Inez Dunn, of 1515 Avenue C, Apartment 23, reported to the Lubbock Police that she had problems.

She told police she had been across the street visiting with a girlfriend and was on her way home when a man grabbed her.

She, at that time, fought the man off and he took a swing at her with a knife. She threw her hands up and was cut on the left hand.

She was taken to a local hospital by private car for treatment. She said she would file charges.

Attempted Murder

Sam Morgan, 2619 East 15th Street, was found shot lying on a living room couch in a house at 2209 Quirt Avenue. It appeared as though Morgan had been shot with a shotgun.

He was listed in critical condition with gun shot wounds in the chest, both arms and the upper right leg.

Vandalism

Billy Mason, 2725 East 2nd Place, told police a woman did enter his home and start a fight with him for no reason.

The lady knocked his television over and broke it. At this point, he threw her out of the house.

She then broke the windshield of his car.

Theft Over $50.00

Arthur McCullough, 1619 Avenue D, Apartment 4, reported to the Lubbock Police Department that two young fellows did take a .22 caliber bolt-action rifle from his residence.

The weapon was taken while he and his wife were out of the apartment.

It was believed that the apartment was left open.

He said he would file charges.

Boundary Suit Moves On—Louisiana waited 92 years too long to claim its boundaries extend to the west bank of the Sabine River, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin argued in a hearing on the boundary dispute.

Martin and former Gov. Price Daniel, serving as special counsel, argued Texas' case before Special Master (Senior Federal Judge) Robert Van Pelt of Nebraska in Houston.

Ownership of hundreds of millions of dollars of oil and gas is at stake from wells in the Gulf of Mexico at the mouth of the Sabine River.

Former Gov. Sam Jones, first governor of Louisiana to stake claim to all of the river, argued as special counsel representing his state.

Texas claims its boundary extends to the middle of the Sabine River, including a disputed area of 36,000 acres on which $2.6 million has been collected from oil leases for the permanent school fund.

Congress and the Louisiana constitution agreed on the mid-point of the Sabine as the state boundary, Martin contended. However, Louisiana bases its claim on an 1819 treaty between the U.S. and Spain.

Venture Into Black Identity Coming to Public Television Tonight on Channel 5

Join hands with your brothers and sisters, touch the television and feel some of the vibrations on "Soul!" on Public Channel 5, KTXT-TV at 9:00 p.m. on Thursday, December 24.

The occasion is "The Ritual" a bold theatrical venture into black identity.

"The Ritual" is a cantata performed by The National Black Theater, a company of 50 actors and actresses, under the direction of Barbara Ann Teer, who experiment with the "black experience and theater."

The company, located in a New York City loft, has a small budget and is supported mainly from the sale of Afro-American crafts, art and clothing, and of black literature.

Although "The Ritual" has particular meaning for blacks, the colorful costuming, resonant voices and graceful movements of the cast hold appeal for all listeners.

"The Ritual" was created, Miss Teer says, "Because theater is based on European concepts we, as Afro-Americans, want to create a concept of theater out of our own life styles. Before we could have a theater, we had to go through an evaluation of all the possibilities that do or do not exist for black men.

"We went to the bars and churches and talked to people, discovering what our theater should be. Whites, for example have the ingenue and the leading man. We don't have that in life, so it should not be in our performances."

"The Ritual," in other words, is a process as well as a production, in which actors and studio audience go through the five-state evaluation that Miss Teer calls, "Decrudification." The stages are: "Nigger, Negro, Militant, Nationalist and Revolutionary."

"The Ritual" opens—"Our ancestors were a feeling people, creators of nations and empires. That is what they were, and we, their descendants, find ourselves a long, long way from home. To night we are going to find our way back home."

The dialogue is set against a background of songs, African drums, music and dance, starting with a moving rendition of "Sometimes I Feel Like a Motherless Child."

A confrontation then ensues between dashikied blacks who want change and frightened blacks who want to accept the status quo.

A Militant says, "God showed Noah the rainbow sign, no more water, the fire next time. . . We are the fire. . . We have got to worship that fire. . ." A nationalist says, "We are kings and queens of a lost nation, and it is nation time."

They both are answered, "Can any of you Africa-lovers pay my rent? I don't care what you are if you have got the money."

The process reveals that it is indeed difficult for an oppressed people to think in nationalistic, much less revolutionary, terms.

The end of "The Ritual" is not the completion of the process, but the beginning—"We will never give up black people, but we got a whole lot of work to do, a whole lot of poeple to save, we have got to survive. . . black people survive."

"Soul!" is produced by Ellis Haizlip at WNET, New York City, and nationally transmitted by the Public Broadcasting Service. The musical background for "The Ritual" is performed by Ayri, Loren, Brother and Sir Harold, and "Soul!" regulars King Curtis and the Kingpins.

My Views . . .

And while we are at it why not take the opportunity to explain to our children the true meaning of Christmas, what Santa really sy-bolizes. Let them know that he comes clad in a "dashiki", as well as in the traditional red and white suit. Let this Christmas be a time of getting ourselves together and strengthening our communities. It is during the Christmas rush that we, the poor and the black, stream downtown to spend what we don't have, using our credit cards to help us believe that we do have. We over extend ourselves buying gifts, trying to purchase the friendship of people whose love we already have or who aren't thinking about us in the first place. We plunge right back into the same debt for the next 12 months that we just got out of. We call this celebrating Christmas! I would like to go back a few years when I was a boy in Mississippi. We cut our own cedar or pine tree and it was a thrill. People exchanged home made gifts and people were happy. The joy was in giving and doing. People were happy and enjoyed each other and the spirit of togetherness.

Let's celebrate Christmas for what it really is and not try to buy it. Let's enjoy it!

From My Scratch Pad

by George Parrish

I would like to take this time to wish the many readers of the West Texas Times a Merry Christmas and to thank you for buying and reading the Times. May I also add, please be careful during the holidays and remember to keep Christ in Christmas. I would rather have you reading the paper than to read about you.

Mr. Joe Holland of 1636 N.W. 15th, the great hunter, has returned home from East Texas, where he spent a few days hunting and visiting relatives and friends. I understand that Mr. Holland had pretty good luck hunting and brought back some game to show.

Mrs. Eva Cooper of 1632 N.W. 15th left Saturday for Fort Worth, Texas, where she will spend the Christmas holidays with her daughter. According to Mrs. Cooper, she is expecting to have quite a time while there. Her daughter told her to bring some real nice clothes because they might attend some real big affairs. I am sure that Mrs. Cooper will have lots to tell when she return.

Mrs. Susie Foster Neal of 1633 N.W. 15th will leave via train Tuesday for California. This will be Mrs. Neal's 70th trip to California. I just couldn't pass up a chance to mention this because to me this is wonderful and I doubt if there is anyone else around that has done this. May I add that we hope you live to make many, many more trips, Mrs. Neal. We wish you a Merry Christmas.

The Amarillo Garden Clubs, Inc. recently held their 1970 Festival of Trees. Among the trees were two from the Negro garden clubs, "The Symbols of Service." One was a white flocked tree with decorative bells, hoe and spade ornaments. The ornaments were made of cranberry colored velvet fabric, trimmed with pink lace. The tree was made by the Spade and Hoe Garden Club, Mrs. Murine King, president.

"Peace," what better time could the patriotic colors of our country be symbolized in the birth of the Christ Child. The Green Thumb Garden Club members made "O Jo de Dias" or "God's Eye" decorations of red, white and blue yarn to adorn a tall white flocked tree. The trees were all so beautiful that it was hard to choose which one was the prettiest. Both clubs received honors.

This affair was held at the Amarillo Garden Center, Mrs. Rosetta Calhoun, president.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Knapp of 107 N. Jefferson, recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. Mr. Knapp did his thing in a big way by presenting Mrs. Knapp with a charm to add to her Texas shaped bracelet. The bracelet is set with 5 diamonds. May we wish Mr. and Mrs. Knapp many more anniversaries.

Mrs. Mable Brown of 1503 N. Washington left Sunday via TWA for Los Angeles, California.

Mrs. M. M. Taylor of 1501 N. Hughes is in St. Anthony Hospital. Mrs. Taylor is Worthy Matron of Superior Chapter No. 214, O.E.S.

Mrs. Mildred Donaldson of Denver, Colorado arrived Friday via plane to be at the bedside of her aunt, Mrs. Lorain Martin, who is in St. Anthony Hospital.

Others in the hospital include; Mrs. Lola Plantt of 1808 N.W. Washington, in St. Anthony; Mrs. Pearlene Williams of 1111 N.W. 16th, in High Plains Hospital and Mr. James Green of 609 Arnold Place, who is in High Plains.

The City Wide Ushers held their annual banquet Friday night, December 18th, at Rice's Alining Room on Amarillo Blvd. East. You who missed this affair really did miss a treat. Mr. Dudley Johnson is president of the group and Rev. David Hill is spiritual advisor.

Around the hub city

It is a very special time of the year—a time for sharing with others the gladness and hope that is in every heart. And so, the time has come for this column, Around the Hub City, to say in a very special way that these words are sent with all good wishes that your Christmas be a wonderful one, and that the blessings fo Christmas will be with you in all the days ahead.

The Youth Department of Bethel A.M.E. Church presented a lovely program last Sunday evening. A special drama play, "The Teenage Christmas," was done in a special way. A way in which teenagers can communicate with one another about the Christmas time of this day. Mrs. A.W. Wilson and Mrs. Belle Williams were adult sponsors.

Rev. and Mrs. A.W. Wilson presented their annual Christmas party immediately following the program. Refreshments were served and gifts exchanged.

Rev. and Mrs. C.D. Owens and their daughter, Oshela, have returned to their home in Corpus Christi, Texas, after attending the funeral services of Mrs. Lillie Belle Wortham, a long time co-worker and friend.

Among the relatives attending the funeral service of Mrs. Lillie Belle Wortham from out-of-town were; Mr. and Mrs. Raye Gore, Jerry Wortham, Mrs. Lucy McClellan of Valley Mills, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wortham of Pampa, Texas; Wortham Thompson of Los Angeles, California; Mr. and Mrs. Allison Gore of Bay City, Texas; and Elmer Gore and wife of Amarillo.

Mrs. Bessie Mason received message that her brother-in-law, Donald Hepburn, passed away at a local hospital in Portland, Oregon. Final rites were not complete at this time. Among his survivors is his widow, Mrs. Eliza Banks Hepburn. He had been ill quite some time.

With Bob Tieuel

Afro-American History for Busy Newspaper Readers: Robert S. Abbot (1870-1940). A native of St. Simon Island, Georgia, Bob was enrolled at Beach Institute in Savannah and later entered Claflin University in Orangeburg, S.C. Later, he migrated to Chicago, in 1896, where he attended Kent Law School and supported himself by working in a Loop printing house.

Obtaining his law degree in 1889, he wandered about the Midwest for several years before he became convinced that he could do a better job of defending his people in public print than he could do in a courtroom.

Combining a small amount of capital with borrowed money, and equipping his landlady's dining room with a folding card-table and kitchen chair as his office, he started the Chicago Defender on May 5, 1905. The first issue sold three hundred copies at two cents each.

For fifteen years the "lonely warrior" contended for social justice and political and economic equity. The strong editorial policy of the Defender pushed the newspaper's national circulation to more than a half million copies within a short period. On February 6, 1956, the first copy of The Daily Defender made its appearance. The first black daily in the U.S.A. Later the Atlanta Daily World appeared. These two are the only black dailies in the U.S.A. today. There are several hundred weeklies. The great "warrior" died in 1940.

Please be assured that we stand ready to lend any assistance we can in facing up to this drug problem that threatens the very foundation of our society.

The seriousness of the problem is being highlighted by recent news events in our own area. Young people need to be warned of the dangers of drugs before it is too late. Word Comes that Bayard Rustin, executive director of the A. Phillip Randolph Institute, has been awarded the 1970 "Annual American-Israel Friendship Award" of the Mizrahi Women's Organization of America. Rustin "led in an effort of the black community to participate and strengthen the edifice of American-Israel friendship and the fabric of our democratic heritage," stated Jewish leaders.

Dear Bob: The Supreme Court has agreed to decide this session whether a 1968 consumer law making the billion-dollar a year loan shark racket a federal crime is constitutional. In enacting the law Congress held that loan-sharking was an integral part of organized crime in the U.S. More than one hundred persons and firms have been indicted under the statute. Signed: A.N.C.

I know that this is good news for many poor blacks and whites.

An early a.m. breakfast, sponsored by our friends at Payne Chapel C.M.E. Church the past weekend at First United Methodist Church was an inspiring affair in Colorado City. The Rev. Mr. Raymond Campbell, pastor of Lubbock (Carter Chapel) brought a challenging illustrated lecture on "The Role of the Black Church in the '70's." The First Church will assist the mission church in building a new edifice that is so badly needed. E. Buckhalter is the dedicated pastor. Thanks for the invite.

Federation of Choirs Host Special Fete

Each month, the Federation of Choirs contributes something unique to the community. The fourth Sunday of each month is set aside by the choirs and officers of this organization for their regular presentation. The meeting last Sunday was also something very special. It was another terrific affair when all choir present displayed their talent in Christmas Carols and Christian Songs.

The Greater Saint Luke Baptist Church was host to the Federation last Sunday. The president and official staff were all present. Several choirs and ministers were absent.

The services were nicely attended and quite enjoyable. If one could surmise the entire program, it would be "Let's keep Christ in Christmas everyday of the year."

Due to the Christmas activities each year, the Federation meets the 3rd Sunday in December. In January, however, the meeting will be held at the regular time, the fourth Sunday.

SHRIMP, TURKEY MAKE GREAT GUMBO

So—you have always wanted to try your hand at gumbo? There is no better time than left-over turkey time. Live daringly. Don't toss those last sad pieces. By adding two cans of shrimp you have the basics for a rich, exciting gumbo, Creole style. This easy recipe is for an "okra" type, as distinguished from the kind called "file" gumbo. But don't be afraid of the okra. The trick is to fry it (yes, fry) until, in the words of one old-time Louisiana cook, it "quits ropin'."

SHRIMP AND TURKEY GUMBO

- 2 cans (4 1/2 ounces each) shrimp
- Turkey wing and "drumstick" or equivalent
- 1/2 cup cooking oil or fresh bacon drippings
- 1 box (10 ounces) frozen sliced okra
- 1 1/2 cups chopped onion
- 3 garlic cloves, sliced
- 1 can (8 ounces) tomato sauce
- 1 bay leaf
- 1/2 teaspoon crushed thyme
- 1/4 teaspoon cayenne pepper
- 1 teaspoon salt

Chill shrimp in the cans. Wash all traces of dressing from turkey. Heat oil in a heavy soup kettle; fry okra, onion, garlic together over high heat, stirring constantly, until okra loses its viscous quality. Add 5 cups water; stir well. Add turkey, tomato sauce, seasonings. Bring mixture to a boil; turn heat to simmer. Cover and cook, stirring frequently, 1 1/2 hours or until turkey falls easily from the bone. Remove meat; break into bite-size pieces; discard all bone, skin, gristle. Return turkey to gumbo; add shrimp and all shrimp liquid. Heat. Spoon gumbo around mounds of fluffy rice. 6 main-course servings.

Lucky Twelve Club News

The members of the Lucky Twelve Club met with Mrs. Rose Wilson. Business was discussed which included the dance receipts of the recent annual benefit dance. After a complete report from all members, it was learned that the dance was a success.

The members voted to give a donation to the United Fund and the Lubbock State School. They also gave their deepest sympathy to Mrs. Edna Raye Walker and family and the Wilson family. The group served refreshments for both families.

With the holidays upon us and members traveling and working to make this a beautiful Christmas, they would like to wish all of you a happy holiday season. This message comes from Long, Hibbler, Wilson, Johnson, Dickes, Harper and Jones.

Annual Christmas Dinner Served

The Minister's Wives Alliance entertained with their annual Christmas dinner last Saturday evening in the Fellowship Hall of the St. James Baptist Church with Mrs. Kado Lang as hostess.

The eight members of the Alliance invited seven guests each, and around sixty persons or more enjoyed the festivity. The dinner was perfect and each one present received a gift.

Official staff of the organization is Mrs. Kado Lang, president; Mrs. W.L. Grimes, recording secretary and treasurer, Mrs. A.W. Wilson.

Also the secret pals were revealed and gifts exchanged. Everyone present had a great time.

Veterans Urged to Plan Ahead For Next School Semester

Veterans who plan to begin their G.I. Bill enrollment in high school or college at midterm should make an immediate stop at their nearest Veterans Administration office.

The VA will supply application forms and advise the veteran on whether the school courses he is considering are recognized by the state approving agency and the VA.

Attached to the veteran's completed applications should be a copy of his military separation papers (DD Form 214), and his marriage license and birth certificates of his children, if any, so the VA can correctly figure his monthly check.

A married veteran, with one child, for example, is entitled to $230 a month for full-time school enrollment in high school or college.

When the veteran submits his VA Certificate of Eligibility to his school, he is advised to make certain the school promptly returns an endorsed copy to the VA so payments can start.

Veterans are entitled to a maximum of 36 months of school if they were on active duty for at least 18 months. For less than 18 months of service, school time is earned at the rate of one and one-half months of schooling for each month of active duty.

Veterans are eligible for G.I.

Bill benefits if they had at least 181 days of active duty, any part of it after Jan. 31, 1955, and were released under other than dishonorable conditions.

Enrollment in high school under the G.I. Bill is not charged against further G.I. Bill entitlement.

Birth of military aviation in the U.S. occurred in Texas in 1910 when the whole U.S. Air Force arrived at Ft. Sam Houston, San Antonio: one man.

Making a personal sacrifice for Christ in order I may know of His power, resurrection, righteousness and faith. I am happy to respond to the power of Jesus. I'm working hard to understand His perfection. I'm pressing to make it my own.

"O'Dear Lord, sent the holy Christ child at Christmas for our sake. Take His precious gifts of love. Reach out and receive God. Just you believe in Jesus' name.

Mount Vernon United Methodist Church

Dear Friends;

The scenes of Christmas! The snow covered earth, a wreath hanging on a door, the sound of bells or choirsters singing around the fire. Or, perhaps, an inn of long ago, with a star shining overhead, and a cry of a new born babe harkening through the night!

There are other scenes today... many beautiful, but some very tragic! Scenes of war, famine, earthquake, flood... of ragged, hungry children whose voices also harken through the night.

Some are saying—everything is beautiful. It ought to be. And perhaps it can be... if each of us will help to make it so. Mrs. Reed and I are not sending out Christmas cards this year. We counted up the cost and decided we would give that money to help someone in need, through the church benevolence program. May God help you to help someone in need.

GIFTS FOR GALS WHO SEW

If there's a sewer on your gift list, the odds are she'll be having even more fun with her hobby with expert help that you can give her. Gifts that increase a gal's sewing fun have a long-lasting effect because the giver is remembered fondly everytime the gift is enjoyed. They come in all sizes, too, to suit a child's pocketbook or an adult's. Here are just a few of the interesting possibilities, and they're all at your local Singer Sewing Center.

There is nothing more time consuming (or unnecessary) than sewing inside seams—only to have them fray with the first washing or dry cleaning. Expert cut-ups don't have this problem because they always use pinking shears to trim inside edges. A gift of this vital tool of the trade is a good one and will be appreciated for years to come.

There is no easier, more accurate way to cut all materials than with electric scissors... and there are three great Singer models to choose from that run from inexpensive to practically nothing at all. If you want two speeds for light and heavy work—as well as exclusive snip-action for difficult small cuts—it only takes $15.98 to give the model C-88 to the sewer you like best. Model C-68, for just $10.98, also features two speeds and stainless steel blades. If your sewer is just an occasional one, present her with a stitch in time called model C-125 (a

The skirt marker allows her to do the job by "remote control," guaranteeing a perfect hemline on the first try.

'Tis The Season To Drive Friendly

Certainly, the holiday time of year is "the season to be jolly." It is also the season to DRIVE FRIENDLY.

DRIVING FRIENDLY is a state of mind in which we maintain a friendly driving attitude toward others. As such, it is also an expression of the spirit of the holidays.

So this holiday season we can DRIVE FRIENDLY by obeying traffic laws. We can DRIVE FRIENDLY by planning travel to avoid rushing. And we can DRIVE FRIENDLY by not driving and drinking.

Our streets and highways provide a convenient and pleasant means for all of us to join loved ones and friends during the holiday season. If we DRIVE FRIENDLY, the happiness of the season can be preserved for all of us.
