House Plans Big Income Tax Boosts

WASHINGTON, June 19 (AP) — The house ways and means committee decided tentatively today to recommend drastic increases in surtaxes on individual incomes and to tighten up on corporation excess profits taxes so as to raise an estimated $2,480,000,000 in additional revenue.

The new individual income surtax schedule was said to be more than double the tax bill of every taxpayer.

Chairman Doughton (D-N.C.) announced the committee had voted tentatively to adopt an individual income tax program providing for imposition of surtax rates beginning at 5 per cent on the first 2,000 of taxable income and graduated up to the present maximum of 75 per cent. The latter rate starts on net incomes above $50,000.

City To Sell State Script

Authorization was given by city commissioners Thursday morning at a called meeting to discount state warrants in the amount of $5,000 and to liquidate $4,000 in securities.

The action was taken to insure ample funds in the general and interest and sinking funds for anticipated requirements as of July 1.

Warrants involved are state instruments extended in payment of water at the Big Spring State Hospital and which the city has been holding rather than take a one per cent discount. Such portion as would be necessary to meet current obligations would be cashed at discount, since the general fund balance has suffered due to loss of water revenues.

Bonds to be liquidated are part of $30,000 which the city called in after refunding a like amount of an outstanding issue. The bonds, carrying a five per cent rate, are due in one year, and their sale is to meet July 1 demands on the bonded indebtedness. It is, city officials explained, a routine action of converting assets from bonds into cash.

ORDER INCLUDES EIGHT COUNTRIES IN EUROPE

BERLIN, June 19. (AP)—Germany tonight asked the United States to remove all consular and American Express company employes from Germany, Norway, Holland, Belgium, Luxembourg, occupied France, Serbia and occupied Greece not later than July 15.

This was done in a note handed by the German foreign ministry to the United States charge d'affaires. (This was retaliation in kind for a similar action against Germany ordered only last Monday by President Roosevelt.)

The president ordered closing of all German consulates in the United States and removal of all consular personnel before July 10. The American order also required the closing of the German Library of Information and the Railway Tourist Bureau and the German Transoceanic News Agency. (German consular officials, said Undersecretary of State Sumner Welles, were accused of engaging in activities harmful to the United States.)

British Regain Syrian Positions

CAIRO, Egypt, June 19. (AP)—The British command announced today that "important positions have been captured just south of Damascus" in the British-free French siege of the Syrian capital.

The Middle East command's daily bulletin also announced that allied troops in southern Syria had recaptured Kuneitra while "strong Vichy forces in Merdjayoun have now been surrounded."

These two towns, southwest of Damascus near the Palestine border, had been seized by a French counter drive which held up the allied advance.

(In the Merdjayoun area the French said their attacks had carried them at some points to the Palestine border.) The communique reported that "progress again has been made in the coastal sector," where an Australian column driving on Beirut, chief port and capital of Lebanon, was reported in unofficial dispatches to be within sight of the city.

The British command made no mention of reports carried to London by Reuters, British news agency that General Sir Henry Maitland Wilson, commander of the invading forces, had demanded the surrender of Damascus by 5:30 a. m. today (10:30 p. m., E.S.T., Wednesday).

The RAF Middle East command said today Australian and RAF bombers had attacked French positions which were holding up British troops near Damascus and had bombed shipping in the Harbor of Beirut, Lebanon.

"One very near miss" was recorded beside a destroyer at Beirut, the RAF communique said, and "two Vichy aircraft were shot down at Soueida" (about 65 miles southeast of Damascus).

In all Middle East operations four British aircraft were listed as missing.

Molly O'Daniel and Fiance—Vivacious, 19-year-old Molly O'Daniel and Jack D. Wreather, Jr., smiled happily at Tyler, Texas, after the announcement of their engagement. Molly is the daughter of Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel of Texas; Wreather the son of a Tyler oil man. Mrs. O'Daniel said the romance started at the University of Texas where Molly is a junior, and where Wreather graduated.

Rationing Of Gasoline In East Studied

Secretary Ickes Asks Oil Men To Help Solve Crude Problems

WASHINGTON, June 19 (AP)—Interior Secretary Ickes, defense petroleum coordinator, said today a ration card system for use of gasoline in the east was "one of the things under consideration," if rigid restrictions on petroleum were made necessary by the expected oil shortage.

The coordinator declared also "I don't think a drop of oil should be shipped to any place, anywhere" from the Atlantic seaboard. He recently put an embargo on such exports, without prior government approval of each cargo.

He was asked if he included Britain also, and replied that he meant all cargoes should first be examined by the government. He emphasized, however, that Britain's supply was coming directly from producing areas, and not from the eastern seaboard area.

His statement on possible adoption of ration cards and the export situation came at a press conference shortly after he called upon America's $12,000,000,000 oil industry, representing over two-thirds of the world's petroleum production, to unite with the government "to the end that our efforts to defend democracy may not be hampered by any breakdown in the flow of essential petroleum products."

Asked how a ration card system would work, Ickes said: "I don't know myself yet."

Ickes, addressing an emergency conference of about 800 petroleum executives, said the immediate purpose was finding a way to ease the predicted oil scarcity in the populous east.

The oil men were challenged also to put forward plans "to further the effective utilization of our petroleum resources in the national emergency."

Asked by reporters about priorities on materials for oil field operation, Ickes imposed a statement that "Illinois has been wasting its oil at a criminal rate."

"The question arises," he coordinator said, "whether we should not prefer (in the matter of material priorities) a field that practices conservation."

He added, however, that he had been informed that the Illinois legislature had virtually agreed on a petroleum conservation program. The coordinator announced that five regional offices, under the defense coordination program, would be established in oil producing states. He told newsmen no definite locations had been selected, but the offices would be situated where they would be of greatest convenience to the industry, and he indicated each would be manned by a regional director and a "wall staff."

Asked if an office would be set up to "protect" the oil consuming public during the emergency, Ickes replied: "I represent the consuming public."

The coordinator expressed doubt that the prospective shortage in the east could be greatly relieved by resorting to "movement from the producing states by railroads, tank cars. In matters of constructing pipelines from the southwest or other supply points to the east, he said we can't move until we get that law which would grant the power of eminent domain in acquiring pipeline rights of way.

Dykstra Resigns Mediation Job

WASHINGTON, June 19 (AP) — The resignation of Dr. Clarence A. Dykstra as chairman of the national defense mediation board, effective July 1, was accepted today by President Roosevelt.

Dykstra will return to his duties as president of the University of Wisconsin. He has agreed, however, to remain on call for panel service with the mediation board from time to time.

Machinists On Strike Do Not Resume Work

By The Associated Press
AFL machinists on strike at 11 San Francisco bay shipyards failed to yield today to a suggestion from the president of their international union that they return to work and mediate their differences with the management.

Harvey W. Brown, the machinists' president, addressed several hundred strikers during a four-hour closed meeting which ended after midnight. Before the session, Brown had expressed belief the men would end their walkout after the issues were explained. But when the strikers filed out, local officials of the union were non-committal, declining to say even whether a vote to end the strike had been taken.

The 11 shipyards hold $800,000,000 worth of defense contracts. Both AFL and CIO machinists walked out six weeks ago, demanding $1.15 an hour and double pay for overtime. A master stabilization contract, signed by all shipyards in the area except Bethlehem, provides for $1.15 an hour for skilled mechanics, tips and a half for overtime on Saturdays, and double time for Sunday and holiday work. In addition, workers on the second shift would receive a 10 per cent premium and those on the third shift 15 per cent.

The national defense mediation board in Washington recommended yesterday that Bethlehem accept the master contract too.

The mediation board noted yesterday to settle labor disputes in two other quarters at the Martin Lockheed Corporation, Pittsburg, Conn., and at the Colfax plant of the Duquesne Light Company, Pittsburg.

CIO union members at the Connecticut plant accepted the board's recommendation that wage issues be settled by arbitration. The company promised its answer by Monday. The union asked 10 cent hourly wage boosts for all workers. The management said the current hourly rate averaged $2.10 cents. The firm makes plane ball bearings and employs about 1,225 persons.

CIO employees of the Pittsburgh utility firm acceded to the mediation board's request to keep on working while negotiations proceeded toward settlement of a dispute with a rival independent union over employe representation.

Jury Indicts Meat Packers

CHICAGO, June 19 (AP) — A federal grand jury investigating alleged anti-trust activities today returned indictments before Judge John P. Barnes charging 12 companies and individuals with conspiracy to fix prices on sheep sold in the Chicago livestock market. The defendants listed in the indictments were:

The American Meat Institute, a national association of meat packers; Armour & Co.; Swift & Co.; Wilson & Co.; the sheep section of the Chicago subcommittee of the joint marketing improvement committee; William F. Monis and Walter A. Metcalf, sheep buyers for Armour & Co.; John Holmes, president of Swift & Co.; Thomas E. Wilson, chairman of the board, Wilson & Co.; Charles R. Hood, vice president of Wilson & Co.; and L. Aubrey Williams, listed as an order buyer for Eastern Packers; and Paul C. Smith, vice president of Swift & Co.

Big Spring Band Starts Rehearsals

Rehearsal of the Big Spring band, now looking forward to participation in the opening of the city park amphitheatre series of entertainments little over a week away, was set for 8 p. m. at the bandroom today, Dan Conley, director, announced.

Under Director Roger Eaton, the Coahoma band is due to join in the practice session this evening, said Conley. During the vacation months, these joint rehearsals may become common, he indicated.

Currently, Conley is teaching 25 youngsters who are beginning to band work. He has 30 in his junior band (those in the sixth and seventh grades and who have had a year of band work), and 40 in the high school band.

Reduction Made In City Budget

Reductions $36,000 in expenditures from appropriations for last fiscal year and $22,000 under actual expenditures were listed in the proposed city budget which went before the city commission in a special meeting Thursday morning.

Disbursements from the general fund were pegged at $242,000 for the fiscal year which started April 1. Revenues and $1,255 paid by the compress for water line.

Tax revenues were figured at $86,000, or around 80 per cent of the current roll. Another $18,000 was allowed for delinquent payments plus $4,000 more contingent upon a trade. Another loss of revenue was anticipated in the water department where 37 per cent lower rates prevail in comparison to last year. The deficiency was estimated at $12,000.

Street paving funds appropriated would be $10,850 as the city's share. The budget laid aside $2,500 for changing the municipal warehouse site. For spillover improvements at the lake sites, $8,000 was allowed. For sewer extension $2,500 was put up, $1,250 for disposal plant improvements, $2,800 for the new plant, $11,675 as the city's share for the NYA-airport terminal building, and $28,000 as the city's share for a previous WPA airport project, now embraced in the new and larger program. These rounded out major capital outlay items.

Slight gains were recommended in appropriations for the administrative department with $30,587 as compared with $19,845 listed last year. The police appropriation showed little less than $4,000 up with $29,990; the fire department up nearly $5,000 to $21,020; buildings and grounds up by $2,500 to $8,650; the airport up by $19,000 to $39,645; and the NYA resident center with a new appropriation of $2,362. This item was not included last year.

Around $5,000 was cut off the health and welfare appropriations, which were pegged at $19,365; $34,875 off the street appropriation, set at $30,195; the water department off $18,880 to $6,575; the sewer virtually static at $5,645; and parks almost the same at $5,125.

Interest and sinking fund requirements for the fiscal year were set at $97,365, whereas only $65,000 of the amount would be transferred from the general fund. The difference comes out of the $19,341 cash balance at the beginning of the year, which would be reduced to $3,463 by the end of the fiscal year, according to the budget.

In estimating revenues, there were not great changes, except that around $25,000 in non-tax income which was received last year will not recur again this season. Included were $22,699 paid in by the WPA, $500 donated by B. F. Schermerhorn toward an amphitheatre sound system.

Mitchell Outpost Test Watched

Linking of the Robbins & Dockery pool in northwestern Mitchell county and the Sharon Ridge pool in southwestern Scurry county was seen Thursday in the reaction of the Lem Hillburn No. 1 Jackson outpost test to a 600-quart shot.

Following the explosive jar under a three-yard gravel tarp Wednesday afternoon, the test bridged around 1,250 feet but five hours later made a head. Thursday the hole was full of oil.

Location is in the northeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section 22-97m HATC, Mitchell county, and is about a mile southeast of Sharon Ridge production and around a mile and a half from the main body of Robbins & Dockery production.

Among Big To Little— Defense Saving Idea Catches On In City

From youngsters to corporations—the defense saving idea is catching on in a big way in Big Spring. Take the McCarty brothers and employe of the company had purchased either stamps or bonds. The initial sale figure, he reported, had amounted to $3,414, or about $19 average. Included were four officers and 237 employes. More than this, all made arrangements for a systematic monthly savings to be applied to more bond and stamp purchases. The minimum amount any had bought was $5, and several sales have been reported after the initial campaign on June 14.

War Rumors Flood Over Continent

Reports Germany Has Attacked Reds Are Unfounded

By The Associated Press
Europe rang with new war alarms today.

Little Finland, defeated by Russia's red armies a year ago, suddenly called up reserves at midnight and sped other military preparations, and simultaneously travelers reported that Russia was carrying out "frantic mobilization" across the border from Finland.

The Finnish government, placing the nation on a virtual war footing, sharply curtailed civilian train traffic to facilitate military transport.

Finnish army and navy cadets are to be graduated immediately, it was announced, to become lieutenants in the nation's fighting forces.

By presidential decree, all Finnish reserve officers were made regular army officers. (It appeared evident that Finland, dominated by Germany and army foe of Soviet Russia, was making last-minute preparations for a new conflict.)

Dispatches from Helsinki, the Finnish capital, said the populace calmly and quietly was "observing measures to safeguard their independence as they did in 1939 when the war with Russia broke out.

The Helsinki newspaper Sanomat declared that circumstances "outside our control may give events a turn that can jeopardize our sovereignty, peace and liberty to the extent that we are forced to defend them with everything in our power."

Only a few days ago, Helsinki reports said Russia was withdrawing troops from the soviet military base at Hanko, Finland, on which Russia had a 30-year lease.

A British Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Sweden quoted Stockholm dispatches as saying travelers from Russia to Finland had observed a "strategic mobilization" in Russia, along the railway line from Moscow to Leningrad.

Earlier entirely unconfirmed reports from Turkey declared that Germany had already started an invasion of Russia, attacking the soviet border at 15 points, after a German diplomatic stroke had neutralized Turkey and virtually isolated the U. S. S. R.

A Nazi spokesman in Berlin declared the German-Turkish friendship pact, signed last night, was a "stunning defeat" for British diplomacy.

The pact, engineered by Hitler's ace trouble-shooting diplomat, Franz von Papen, Nazi ambassador to Turkey, was greeted without surprise in London, however, where the British interpreted it as a coup against Russia, and rapidly mounting German-Soviet friction.

Informed quarters in London said the 10-year accord was virtually an infallible omen of a tremendous new German military venture.

But the riddle remained unsolved: Would it be aimed at Russia, Egypt or the British Isles? A British spokesman declared, however, that the treaty fitted in to the familiar Nazi strategy of isolating Hitler's intended allies.

German officialdom was silent on relations between Moscow and Berlin, declaring: "A veritable flood of rumors regarding Russia, Rumania and Germany has descended upon the world, but none of these originated in Germany."

The McCarty boys are back home the hard way, saving their money. While still in school, they started saving pennies. Later they had an idea of putting their funds into postal savings, but then came the defense stamps and bonds and they changed their minds.

Mr. McCarty made a proposition. He would match what they could save. Mrs. McCarty got in on the deal, cutting corners so that she could pay for special uniforms and work the boys did. In the end, they all filled their stamp books and swapped them for bonds. It's a swell idea and probably they will keep right on at it.

Senate Cool To Arming Ships

WASHINGTON, June 19. (AP)—Senate showed distinct coolness today to the idea of arming merchant ships against submarines, several legislators declaring that such a move would invite arms trouble.

The discussion was predicated on President Roosevelt's statement that the United States had plans in complete readiness for arming her merchantmen. Mr. Roosevelt was replying to a question regarding the torpedoing of the Robin Moor, and his words were considered a hint that the necessary orders would be issued if developments warranted.

Tribe Swaps Tap System For War Club

By The Associated Press

The Cleveland Indians suddenly have become ferocious at the plate and look capable of gobbling up the lesser lights of the American league in big gulps.

All that has kept the Tribe from making a runaway of the pennant race before now has been weak hitting and, everything considered, they have been doing right well with their tap and touch system.

Yesterday, however, they really opened up—getting 17 hits including five home runs and four doubles to overwhelm the Philadelphia Athletics, 14-3.

The display of fireworks was accompanied by a four-hit pitching performance by Bob Feller, who coasted to his 14th victory of the campaign.

The Indians' first place margin was increased to three full games as the Chicago White Sox beat the New York Yankees by one run for the second day in succession, 2-1.

The Detroit Tigers tore into the Boston Red Sox for a 5-3 victory behind the steady, eight-hit hurling of Lynwood (Schoolboy) Rowe.

The St. Louis Browns squeaked out a 2-3 verdict over the Washington Senators.

The St. Louis Cardinals continued their climb in the National league with a 7-4 triumph over the Phillies while the second-place Brooklyn Dodgers were dropping a 5-1 game to the Chicago Cubs.

The Boston Braves beat the Cincinnati Reds, 4-2, with Al Javery besting Johnny Vander Meer in a pitching duel in which each allowed seven hits.

Baseball's quietest news caused its first major league tie in a struggle between the New York Giants and Pittsburgh Pirates which was interrupted for an hour in order that the fans in Pittsburgh could listen to a broadcast of the heavyweight championship bout of Joe Louis and their hometown hero, Billy Conn.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By EDDIE BRISZT

NEW YORK, June 19 (Herald Special News Service)—By this time all of you know that Billy Conn lost his chance to win the world's heavyweight title by getting a little fresh with Mr. Big in the 18th round last night. . . . What some of you may not know is that the date for the next million dollar gate will be some time in September at the Yankee Stadium. . . . If anybody ever laid the scene for what the fight mob call "a natural," the Messrs. Conn and Louis did it last night. . . . Here is the picture: Conn was leading what many believe to be the greatest fighter of our time by four rounds going into the 18th. . . . Then what happened? . . . Instead of stalling, jabbing and boxing Louis into a state of utter bewilderment (which he was doing), our hero lost his head. . . . He elected to get in there and slug, then he got kissed—got once out several times—before you could say Jack Robinson, all was over except the except a rich return bout in September which Mr. Mike Jacobs obligingly will stage.

The Morning Line

Unhappy guy in the house was Lou Nova. He was in line for a September title shot, with either Louis or Conn, but things being what they are, he'll have to postpone his chance for at least a year. . . . Unless, of course, Abe Simon upsets the dope next month, which isn't likely.

Roundup The Strays

Glad to note peace and quiet have returned to the ranks of the warring Phillies. . . . First Ebbets Field card under the Chick Meahan-Jimmy Bronson regime is slated for July 3. One of the principals sought is Sol Bartolo, the very good Boston light weight. . . . Mule Haas, Mike Kreevich, Monty Stratton and Ted Lyons came to New York a day ahead of the club to do the town. Incidentally, they did a pretty fair job of it. . . . Walter Cox, veteran trotting horse trainer who has been seriously ill here for weeks, has been permitted to return to his home at Goshen under the care of a nurse. . . . Published reports of Billy Conn's marriage seem to have been a bit premature. . . . There was a humorous sidelight when Connie Mack was given his degree at Penn Military Academy. The old gentleman was enquired for a lifetime in the service of "football." All of which reminded Connie of the time he spoke at Long Beach, Calif., and referred to "your fair city of Pasadena."

Today's Guest Star

C. M. Gibbs, Baltimore Sun: "Conn brought a 1944 record of three knockouts into the ring as his contribution to the most amazing fight buildup in years. . . . He kayped such celebrities as Doc Hassett, Gunnar Barkind and Budde Knack. . . . All three rolled together, we'll make a first class heavyweight."

One-Minute Interview

Joe McCarthy: "Did I ever see a perfect ball player? Sure, Frank Frisch. He could run, hit from either side, could throw, hunt and had a great competitive temperament. . . . he had everything."

Chicken, Egg Production In This Area Increases

Number of chickens on West Texas farms and production of eggs from them has shown a marked increase during the past 10 years, the federal government's agricultural census shows.

Meantime, the number of turkeys on farms, never great in this section, has declined.

In almost all of eight counties surrounding Big Spring, there has been a marked increase in the number of chickens. And even in

Dawson Cotton Yield May Be 40,000 Bales

LAMAR, June 13 (Sp)—Dawson county crops are in many stages of growth because of the frequent, heavy rains all season. The rains have been general over the county and farmers in most areas have replanted two and three times.

Estimates show about 100,000 to 110,000 acres of cotton up with perhaps 45,000 acres as far along as normal.

Since the rains have established such a fine underground season, even fair weather for the remainder of the growing season would indicate at least an average crop of 40,000 bales. The plants in many fields, however, are so small that rain, hail or sand could do much damage.

Eye-Witness Account—Ex-American Ships Go Into Battle

SPECIALTY: British navy accents signal work of U. S. ships, painted white, have all kinds. Signalmen do the other work. Here signalman is using an American device, flag.

Here is the first and exclusive eye-witness story of the entry into the battle of the Atlantic of an American Land-Lease war vessel, now a fighting unit of the British navy. A writer for the AP Feature Service and The Herald rode the vessel to Canada to give you this graphic account. Two more articles follow.

By MORGAN M. BEATTY
AP Feature Service Writer
ABOARD H.M.S. AT SEA—The lights of metropolitan New York blazed a friendly farewell.

Steaming close, the rest of our squadron was silhouetted against the western horizon, their running lights winking and weaving back of us as we slipped out of the harbor.

Ahead was the dark Atlantic. The bridge of our leading ship buzzed with efficient orders and responses.

LAST TRACE: U. S. ships, painted white, have all kinds. Signalmen do the other work. Here signalman is using an American device, flag.

The yellow reflection from New York coast dull streaks along the barrels of our big guns stripped for action on the decks below. Except for those deadly guns, it would have seemed like a pleasure trip.

Suddenly the senior officer present lowered his binoculars, issued terse orders.

"Darken ship! Show NO lights! Executive Order!"

His voice was quiet, almost casual. But instantly the bridge went inky black. Signal men rushed to stations with long-barreled flashlights and winked pinpoints of light at our following train.

In a few moments all our warships disappeared in a well of darkness. All that remained of warm, bustling America was a faint yellow glow.

Here was blackout for you—in American waters!

Court Term Ends At Colorado City

COLORADO CITY, June 13 — Quickest of all the recent "quiet" terms of 22nd district court at Colorado City came to a quick close this week when the grand jury held its final session and turned in three indictments, two of which were disposed of almost immediately with suspended sentences.

James C. Matthews and James Colebank, both of Fort Smith, Ark., were each given a two-year suspended sentence by Judge A. B. Mauney on pleas of guilty after being indicted on charges of burglarizing the Hyman store on May 28. Around $15 in cash and some Bologna were taken from the store. The two charged were returned from Fort Smith by Sheriff Dick Gregory to stand trial.

A similar sentence was meted out to James C. Tidwell of Merkel, who was jailed in Sweetwater last week shortly after a Mexican's car was stolen here. Tidwell pleaded guilty.

Will Orders Landmark Based
SAN FRANCISCO—One of the pioneer, millionaire residences of San Francisco is being demolished under the terms of the will of the late Mrs. Charles A. Rossier. She explained in her last testament that the house had been built by her father and she could not stand the thought of its being occupied by strangers or turned into a lodging or boarding house.

Practice? "Hardly"
I moved closer to the shadowy form of our commanding officer. "Practice?" I asked. "Hardly," he said. "A British ship takes it for granted the enemy may be anywhere. There's no point in making a target of these fine ships your government has turned over to us."

"Target?"

"Yes, you see, a submarine is rather blind at night. Unless somebody gives him a light to aim at."

The sub to finish the sentence. The sub commander who could sink a "Land-Lease" ship before it had been in British hands more than a few hours would be a national hero in Germany. And so we were dark.

In those few minutes I saw and felt for the first time the difference between a world at war and my own United States so close behind me.

I had come aboard this former Coast Guard cutter the night before, soon after it had been transferred from the United States to the Royal Navy. They told me the ceremony was impressive.

What had been a U.S.S. became an H. M. S. The American crew had decked her out in dark war paint. One was the gleaming white coat of a Coast Guard vessel. They had loaded her with guns, wired her for automatic blackout at night. She was complete down to the last knife and fork, even to the electric refrigerator in the ward room. And her decks were coated with crusted granite for surefooted action against an enemy.

Then a quiet, disciplined English crew took over a vessel they'd never seen before, spin her wheel, turn her knobs, snap her switches, oil her guns. They'd done it as casually and confidently as if I'd turn the spigot on my shower at home.

A POKER GAME
When I stepped across the gangplank, I was greeted by an officer, and taken to the ward room below, where I met my ship mates. The executive officer reminded me that formality was about in wartime, made me make myself comfortable. Soon the commanding officer came down, gave me the same cordial greeting, told me I had the run of the ship—even to his excellent shower.

When my American taxi-driver came below to collect his fare, he wished me well, as if he expected I'd never be seen alive again. My new friends ribbed me unmercifully about that. And we sat down to dinner.

In one of those bright English drawing room conversations I discovered that the departing American officers had introduced the English ward room officers to poker, and left with something of a profit.

"We'd like to take the time to get it back from you," said one. "But we've got to handle this ship."

As for America, they liked best our women, our coffee, our apple pie, our night clubs, and our newspapers.

TOMORROW: Action Stations!

Barge Lines Up Mississippi, Ohio Suggested To Eliminate Oil Shortage On East Coast

CINCINNATI, June 19 (AP)—A veritable parade of powerful, smut-nosed towboats pushing tank barges the 2,000 miles from the Louisiana oil fields to the upper Ohio river may be created to help relieve the threatened oil and gasoline pinch on the Atlantic coast resulting from a shortage of sea-going tankers.

From some points just this side of the Allegheny mountains the oil would be trans-shipped by rail, truck and pipeline.

As part of a program now in its formative stage, well-posted river men disclosed today, the Office of Production Management and the defense emergency council has asked river carriers' organizations in the Ohio and Mississippi valleys to make a voluntary survey of all available floating equipment.

"The proposition is on the fire," was the comment of Capt. O'Black Barrett, president of the Mississippi River System Carriers' association. "The only question is availability of floating plant. If the boatyards can get priority on steel and other materials, they will build more barges, and towboats as long as there's need."

Yards all along the Ohio are building tank barges, some in prefabricated form for assembly on the west coast, as fast as they can get material, and terminal facilities are being expanded at some points, Barrett said.

As outlined at present, the program would call into being a vast fleet of oil tows, some operating through the intercoastal canal from the Texas oil ports and more from the refineries at Baton Rouge, La., up the Mississippi and Ohio to some point in the Pittsburgh area.

One possibility discussed is putting terminals up the Monongahela river, which with the Allegheny forms the Ohio at Pittsburgh. Some river men believe, however, it would be better to stop the tows at Wheeling, W. Va., and Steubenville, O., so as not to congest further the Pittsburgh district. The Monongahela, tapping the West Virginia coal fields, has the heaviest traffic density of any river in the world.

At the terminals the oil would be pumped into storage tanks and then into railroad tank cars, trucks, or into present or new pipelines crossing the mountains. There is one crude oil line with a capacity of 17,000 barrels a day running east from Ohio to near Lancaster, Pa., across the divide.

and three gasoline lines flowing west. River men declared that a recent proposal to build a new pipeline from the oil fields to the east coast was impractical now. They said that neither the money, the time, the men, nor the vast quantities of material needed was available. They also declared that such a pipeline would be extremely vulnerable to sabotage unless every mile was patrolled. On the other hand, they said, it would be difficult to block shipments in which hundreds of barges were used over 2,000 miles of river.

Wool Market
BOSTON, June 19 (AP)—(U.S. Dept. Agr.)—Inquiries were received on territory wools today and a few sales resulted from that interest. Staple combed length half blood territory wools moved at $1.03, scoured basis. Combing three-eighths blood territory wools were sold at 90-95 cents, scoured basis. These two grades comprised the bulk of the sales in territory wools, although occasionally a little combing quarter blood was taken at 84-87 cents, scoured basis. Twelve-month Texas wools were selling occasionally at prices ranging $1.05-$1.10, scoured basis.

County Agent Fears Much Crop Damage From Insects

County Agent O. P. Griffin is fearful of severe insect infestation in the Big Spring area this summer. A 15-per cent loss of cotton to cotton fleahoppers is likely, he says, and if wet weather continues, boll weevils are likely to wipe out a lot of cotton. Leaf worms and other insects may appear. Greatest danger foreseen by the county agent right now is from the cotton flea hopper which which works in a mysterious way to destroy tender young cotton squares. Dusting of cotton fields with sulphur is the recommended remedy. One dusting may be sufficient; two may be required. Griffin has found where he can buy sulphur at $2.10 per hundred, making the cost of sulphur 21 cents per acre per dusting. (Ten pounds per acre is the standard dosage.)

Dusting is ineffective unless done at the proper time—while the flea hoppers are on the cotton and before they reach maturity. A new generation of the hoppers is beginning to hatch out now, and should be ready for dusting by the first 10 days of July. However, the county agent does not advise dusting by the calendar, suggested instead that dusting begin whenever the farmer finds one dead square to each 10 stalks of cotton.

Important national defense matters will be discussed when the Ray E. Fuller post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars convenes in regular session at the W. O. W. hall at 8 p. m. today, N. C. Dalton, adjutant, announced. Complete attendance was urged.

Henry C. Mayfield, Ackerly, writes from Dearborn, Mich., that he is plenty happy over his scholarship in the Ferguson-Sherman Mfg. Corp., farm engineering and management school. He had the highest place in his distributorship and was awarded a one year contract with the corporation at $150 per month and traveling expenses. He won through the Big Spring Tractor Co., and the Bull-Stewart Equipment Co. of Dallas. At Dearborn he was at a reception when Harry Ferguson and other Ford officials visited along with Gov. Van Wagener of Michigan, and officials from the LaSalle

Extension University, which is directing the courses. He has visited the Ford River Rouge plant and the Ford Rotunda, Greenfield Village and other places. When he completes his work, he will return to this territory. Meanwhile, he thinks all farm-minded youths should be National Farm Foundation members.

Joe Lanster, a Big Spring youth, has been named as a member of the discipline committee for the summer term at the University of Texas by Fred Nieman, president of the student body. This summer, Joe has entered law school and will be employed in the state department of education.

Flashes Of Life-

By The Associated Press
FELICITY, Ohio.—Last spring Don Kennedy heaved some old potatoes into a trash can "planting" and waiting for his garden crop, planted at the same time, to produce.

BALTIMORE.—Not a man moved from his chair or took his eyes from his cards more than a flickering moment when an auctioneer at a creditors' sale stepped up to a round table in the Baltimore Athletic club.

"What am I bid for this fine poker table?" he asked the crowd of buyers and kibitzers.

Just to make sure the game would continue, one of the players bought the table. And to make sure the club would continue, two past presidents bought the entire property after bids had been made on individual items.

KANSAS CITY.—The tall, slim man on an airliner which stopped here briefly said he was making his first transcontinental flight as a passenger.

He was Charles A. Lindbergh.

CALDWELL, Idaho.—C. Ben Ross finds farming much more remunerative than serving as governor.

Says Ross who retired to his ranch in 1937 after three terms as Idaho's chief executive.

"In one month those 70 cows I'm milking brought in $613, nearly twice as much as I ever got in one month for being governor."

Walls Of Jericho Fall On Churchmen

A negro minister (M) emfwp emf GREENVILLE, N. C., June 19 (AP)—A negro minister was describing the collapse of the walls of Jericho when he was interrupted by a loud crash.

The little church shook. There was a sound of falling timber, and bits of plaster pelted members of the congregation.

The congregation hastily evacuated, to discover that an automobile, out of control, had plunged into the front vestibule.

Local Board Will Handle Registration

Local draft boards and their assistants will handle the registration of young men eligible for military training on July 1. Gen. J. Watt Page, director of selective service in Texas, has announced. Following up on Gen. Page's announcement, Bruce Frasier, chief clerk of the Howard county board, said that assistants from volunteers would be accepted gladly by the board.

Volunteers in the first registration last September would be preferable since they are familiar with the routine and could handle the work quickly, said the chief clerk. However, any who can and will help were urged to contact the board office on the second floor of the First National Bank building.

All boards have been authorized to make their own arrangements for registration and permission will not be necessary.

New forms are being sent to all local boards since slight changes have been made in the procedure since the first registration in September. Over the state around 65,000 are expected to register. In the county the number may be around 200. Registration time will be between 7 a. m. and 9 p. m.

Maverick Becomes Proxy Radio Star

HOLLYWOOD, June 19 (AP)—Maury Maverick, Sen. Antonio, Texas' gift to politics, became a radio star last night—by proxy.

Maverick's proxy was a 395 pound maverick (sent to you city slickers) which he had sent to Kay Kyser. The maverick caused more consternation at NBC's studio than Maverick does at election time.

back home. Kyser had the maverick dropped before the maverick for his weekly broadcast and, with a little twisting as an incentive, the maverick was on schedule.

Something worth thinking about

The start your child gets means a lot toward whether he will grow up into a strong, healthy adult. Plenty of sunshine, the proper diet, and food that is wholesome, all are determining factors. If your child doesn't seem to be as robust as he might be, your doctor should examine him and work out the right kind of diet. But if your child is already strong and healthy, make sure he stays that way. Give him food that you know is pure. Put him on the right road toward keeping this nation a strong democracy.

Industrial, Agricultural Reserach For West Texas Provided At Tech

'CIVVIES'—Civilian clothes in this case almost disguise Admiral H. E. Kimmel, commander of the combined U.S. fleets, who conferred recently with President Roosevelt.

(Herald Austin Bureau)
AUSTIN, June 19.—Extensive research into the industrial and agricultural possibilities of West Texas will be undertaken at Texas Technological college in Lubbock as a result of research appropriations made by the Texas legislature.

The legislature has set aside $25,000 for each of the next two years to promote this research and to publish the findings for public use.

A total appropriation of $7,000 was made for research in industrial chemistry to study the utilization of agricultural wastes and by-products in such things as the manufacture of oils for paints and varnishes, and the manufacture of cheap plastics for building materials. Part of this money will also be used to study oil well cores to plot underground structures, and for an analysis of West Texas vegetables for nutritional values and mineral deficiencies.

AUSTIN, June 19 (AP).—Every man in Texas who attained the 18th anniversary of his birth subsequent to Oct. 16, 1940, and before midnight July 1 must register for selective service July 1.

That was the statement of General J. Watt Page, Texas selective service director, in a formal pronouncement yesterday on the second draft registration.

General Page emphasized that aliens as well as American citizens were required to register. He added that special registrars would be provided for men who were ill or otherwise incapacitated.

Inmates of asylums, jails, penitentiaries or other institutions will be required to register the day they leave an institution.

Johnson Moves Into East Texas

By ALEX LOUIS HARLINGEN, June 19.—Leaving behind in the Rio Grande valley a message of Pan-American unity, Congressman Lyndon Johnson today moved his campaign for U. S. senator to East Texas. He will speak tonight in Marshall.

Mayors of 14 valley towns brought delegations to a rally here last night sponsored by "Friends of Roosevelt." Johnson read a letter from Vice President Wallace, in which Wallace recalled that on his recent visit in the valley after attending the inauguration of President Camacho of Mexico he found "a neighborliness and a spirit of unity in facing the problems ahead which brings me an increasing source of strength." Wallace's letter added:

"Will you please say to those you meet that would like to be with you tonight, and that I hope again to see them."

Johnson declared the 21 nations of the western hemisphere are united "in equality and in the single purpose that freedom shall remain in the western world."

"There is only one way to keep Hitler where he belongs and, in the end, to destroy him," he said. "The job is simply to be so strong Hitler and his henchmen will not attack us."

Johnson disclosed that as a member of congress he wanted to serve on the house agriculture committee but at the suggestion of President Roosevelt he took a place on the naval affairs committee to give Texas a part in American naval development.

Snead To Try Rest Cure On Back Ailment

RICHMOND, Va., June 10 (AP)—Sam Snead, the Hot Springs, Va., slammer, has decided to give up tournament golf until he can get some relief for that now famous back ailment.

One specialist has advised a major operation, but says Snead "I want to be certain there is no other way out before I let them cut into my back." The operation would keep him off the golf courses from three to six months.

There have been several versions of the origin of the trouble—which, specifically, is centered in the lumbar vertebra—but Sam expressed belief today that it came from "turning on the pressure" with his potent driver.

In any event, the Alleghany Mountain native, who has become a national links celebrity, probably will be missing from the national PGA tournament and the proposed match between the Ryder Cup team, of which Snead is a member, and Bobby Jones' all-stars in August, unless some physician can get that golf-shaken spine back into condition again without an operation.

Fun With Flowers—How To Have A Veritable Window Garden In A Practical Muffin Tin

By FRANCES JONES

No. 1—Here's how you can have a veritable window garden in (of all things) a muffin tin. In the above sketch you can see how well this homely utensil lends itself to the horticultural usage. A regular, square muffin pan, painted blue to match the stars in the curtains, holds eight little red clay pots filled with foliage plants. The muffin depressions catch the water which drains from the pots. This system gives a planned, orderly effect to a rather miscellaneous collection of plants.

No. 2—On the sun porch another muffin tin from the "five and dime" holds a smart looking arrangement of cacti, also in natural clay pots. This time I painted the tin with quick drying terra-cotta enamel to match the pots and up-brotherly steps. The finished effect has quite the "decorative touch."

No. 3—Another muffin tin takes to the out of doors to make a practical and attractive hanging basket for your vines and ivy vines. Use two bamboo sticks, one on either side of the tray, as stretched above, as supports. Fasten cord or light chain about the ends of the sticks and fasten to the porch ceiling or rafters. Isn't that a neat idea? A small tack through the tin into the bamboo will make the "hanging garden" more rigid.

Solons Again Deadlock On Quitting Date

AUSTIN, June 10 (AP)—Apparently deadlocked again over setting a quitting date for the overtime general session, members of the legislature today awaited horse action on a senate proposal to adjourn Saturday.

Without adopting the adjournment resolution yesterday after side-tracking a house suggestion to recess June 30 to July 15 and adjourning July 30, the senate approved a conference committee report on a $16,000,000 appropriation for operation of elementary institutions the next two years.

The adoption sent the bill to Governor W. Lee O'Daniel and left but one major appropriation measure—the fiscal school aid bill—on the legislative work calendar. The senate also approved a bill containing a $60,000 appropriation to aid the State of New Mexico for Pecos river water rights in the event a Washington conference between New Mexico and Texas congressmen and the secretary of agriculture failed.

The upper legislative chamber heard amendments New Mexico had not complied with an interstate compact which provided Texas should receive the average flow of the river, based on 50-year records, annually.

Debated but not voted upon in the senate was a house bill appropriating $1,700,000 for a state cancer hospital and research program.

Kidney Distress Stomach Misery Routed By Hoyt's

Loss of Sleep, Gas Pains, Nervousness and Indigestion Believed Says Stuyton Man.

Mr. A. R. Meadows of Stuyton, Texas says: "I have been bothered for several years with gas pains, nervousness and weak kidneys which caused me to arise several times each night. "After taking one bottle of Hoyt's Compound the gas pains and nervous indigestion have disappeared, my kidneys are better and it is not necessary to get up at night. I am more than satisfied with Hoyt's Compound!" Hoyt's Compound is recommended and sold by the Collins Bros. Drug Store and by all leading druggists in this section. (ADV.)

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filices which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get to night. Frequent or costly passages with smarting and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep. When disorder of kidney function persists, it may cause nagging headaches, rheumatism, itching, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, nervousness, pallor under the eyes, backache and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, and consequently by millions for over 40 years. These little kidney pills will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisons and waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Lyndon Johnson Needed Whether or Not America Enters World War II

(AN EDITORIAL.)

President Roosevelt wants Lyndon Johnson elected to the U. S. Senate from Texas for two reasons—to help keep us out of war if possible, and to help insure that we shall not fight in vain, if fight we must.

If President Woodrow Wilson had had the proper support in the U. S. Senate, the World War now devastating all nations might never have been fought.

A little group of willful men killed the League of Nations. A group of men to whom newspaper publicity meant more than humanity—a group so short-sighted and so heedless of the lessons of 1914-18 that they nullified the sacrifice of our World War dead.

If Wilson's peace plan had been followed, if the U. S. Senate had not killed his program to insure against another war, the 13 nations which Hitler has eaten might still be free.

Heroes Must Not Die In Vain

Roosevelt does not mean for this to happen again. If we must fight, we must be sure also that the peace we make will insure us against another Armageddon.

To carry through a sensible peace program, a good, clear majority in the Senate is a necessity. Roosevelt, or any leader, must have faith in the principles of the men in the Senate, must know that they will support his leadership. Roosevelt has tested Lyndon Johnson, and found him true.

Johnson has not followed all the dictates of the brain trust. There have been clashes between one-time farmer Lyndon Johnson and some of the Ivy-walled scholars pink tea boys up at Washington. But Johnson has carried those fights to the President, has won his point—as notably in the case of the farm parity price bill. Colliers' magazine and some Eastern industrialists didn't like it, no. But Johnson helped Roosevelt to see that it was needed—needed to even things up for the ever-loyal, ever-working farm folk of the nation.

"Mr. President," Johnson said, "labor has demanded wage increases during this national emergency, and has either gotten them or gone on strike, regardless of what strikes did to us. Business has demanded assurance of its profits from government-contracts, and the government has said: 'We will pay you cost plus, regardless of what the cost is.' But agricultural prices have not risen. And have the farmers gone on strike, have they howled for a Maw Perkins or put the pressure on through chambers of commerce?"

Roosevelt signed the bill. It won new respect for Johnson from the Chief Executive. It taught him better what he knew already—that here was a young man who would stand up for principles, who could be counted on to do the right thing in the Senate. So when Johnson announced his candidacy, Roosevelt endorsed him as an old and dependable friend.

But we are not at war, and we may stay out. If we do stay out, we will have to put up a strong, united front to the dictator nations. A quarrelsome Senate, one in which some of the members accuse the others of being professional politicians hiding something from the people (when the whole thing is in the Congressional Record for anybody to read), or in which some take off on jaunts of spy-hunting when the FBI and the Navy and Army intelligence already know all about it—that kind of Senate won't do. We have to have national unity, we have to have real determination. Hitler cannot be scared by hillybilly music, and a few newspaper headlines about one or two of his spies being exposed won't scare him either.

Great Things on Little Hinges

And do the people of Texas realize how important this race is? Forty-eight men in the Senate can block any measure—48 out of all the 120,000,000 people in the nation.

And not long ago there was only a four-vote difference on the ship-seizure bill.

If that bill had failed to pass, we would have served notice to the world that we were scared of the dictators.

Two men could have changed their minds on that bill, and dictators could have continued to use our ports, tap our supplies, draw on us for materials to fight democracy with.

The worst of it would have been that we would have proclaimed to the world that we were disunited, quarreling among ourselves. It is Hitler's strategy to divide a nation from within before attacking it from without.

We Must Not Divide Ourselves

This is no time for Texas to send to the Senate a man who will fight with the other members. Some of the Senators are nothing to write home about, true—the four-vote margin that the President now has proves that.

But the man who need cleaning up on aren't from Texas. Tom Connally is on the level and Texas is proud of him. We want another Senator we can be proud of, too, and we can't be proud of a riot-raiser.

The man we can be proud of, the man we can send to the Senate, is one who will co-operate with the other members, who has the friendship of national leaders, and who will not be unpatriotic fool enough to start a fight right now when unity is the one terribly priceless thing.

Lyndon Johnson is such a man. He has spent 10 years in Washington, and won't have to lose a minute learning his way around. He can go on with his job the day after he is elected. He has the confidence of the President, and he won't be back in Texas telling us what crooks the other Senators are. He'll be up in Washington doing his job without getting everybody else in the Capitol mad at him—and thus helping Hitler.

Precious, Precious Time

The next year is going to be all-important to our nation. In 12 months or less our deeds will decide whether democracy here and throughout the world shall stand or fall. We shall decide—war or not, win or lose. And we are filling the Senate seat for just that one year.

We need more than four votes majority in the Senate to get the job well done. Other states may help next year at their elections, but by then it may be too late. Texas can do herself a service, and can do something for the nation, RIGHT NOW, by electing Lyndon Johnson.

If the scarred battle dead of the ages could speak from the four far walls of Valhalla, if the boys could speak from Flanders where now the German tanks grind poppies into dust, they would ask us to see to it that their sacrifices were not forgotten.

Did Washington waste his time at Valley Forge? Did William Barrett Travis buy our freedom with his blood in the Alamo, only to have a generation of fools throw that freedom away?

We need UNITY! The President is not trying to dictate our choice of a Senator. But Roosevelt is in a better position to know the situation in Washington and in the world than anybody else, and we are inclined to agree with him that Lyndon Johnson is the man of the hour.

IN THE FIELD—Fresh-plowed earth underfoot is no novelty to Lyndon Johnson, for he was reared on a Central Texas farm complete with a fat mortgage at high rates, a Fordson tractor bought on installments, and other "improvements" which broke so many farmers in the '30s. Foreclosure proceedings on that farm taught Johnson a bitter lesson which led him to fight for the parity payment bill to counterbalance the slow rise and quick fall of farm prices. (Photos by Dennis).

LEFT-HAND, PLEASE—Meeting with people from all sorts of occupations is a delight to Lyndon Johnson, whether campaigning or not. His campaign managers say that Johnson's road tours are nightmares, for he is always stopping at a small grocery, a filling station, or a blacksmith shop to meet people "in person, and not just sing them a spiel on the radio." The Johnson campaign party is frequently two hours behind schedule because of this fondness for side-road stops.

THE LEAN, GRAY YEARS—To Mrs. Mattie Malone, 77, one of Texas' senior citizens who with thousands of others received another cut in old age assistance allotment recently, Congressman Johnson explains his plan for a federal old age benefit ranging up to perhaps $40 per month. Johnson's view is, "If they deserve pensions, then pay a decent pension, and not just ten or fifteen dollars; if they don't deserve it, don't pay any at all. But at all costs, let's settle the pension question once and for all on a national basis, and keep it out of politics and off the radio and let's quit embarrassing our proud old people."

MAKING THE GRADE—Before the days of power grading machinery, Johnson worked on the Blanco county road crew as a pick-and-shovel hand.

COASTON WAS KING—Before this inland compress dock at Corsicana found itself competing at unfair rates with watering points on the coast, Johnson here explains to an employee the importance of the effect of a war boom and subsequent slump on an unprotected market, and explains also that inland compresses may prove now to be of more value than seaside ones because of the lack of ships.

IT WASN'T REED—Not the schoolhouse at Linden, where Johnson made a non-political speech during his East Texas tour. "If you boys and girls want to help keep America free, you've got to study harder and be more efficient and ambitious than children in the dictator nations," he told them. "You have to prove that democracy is better by being better yourselves. You've got to pick your own careers, for instance, instead of just being told what your lifetime job is."

Oilers Shutout Bombers, 2-0

First honors went to the Pampa Oilers here last night as they opened a three-game series with the Big Spring Bombers. Pitcher Myers made it a shutout victory, 2 to 0, allowing the Bombers a quintet of wallops over the route. In return, Bob Kohout held the visitors to a six-hit count, but the local club fell before the superior clubbing of the Oilers.

Lions Stun Muny, 38-3

The Lions went wild last night, tore out of their cage and mortally knocked the daylight out of the Muny footballers, 38 to 3, in a minor city league bout.

Muny never had a chance the Felines getting their share of the game off to a rousing start with a seven-run spree, adding 10 in the second frame, then cutting loose with everything but the light poles to pile up a staggering 17-run count in the third. They tapered off in the fourth, only grabbing four markers, and rested on their laurels from there on out.

The Munymen tallied once in the second and twice in the third. Tonight, opening at 7:15, American Business Club and NYA tangle.

Cities' Edges Phillips' 11-9

Cities' Service Oilers rolled over Phillips' Tremen, 11 to 9, last night at City Park in a Major city loop softball battle that was anybody's game up to the last out.

Phillips chalked up a run quartet in the first stanza. Weaver, Clifford Patton, A. Bostick, and Seldon romping across for tallies on a series that included a hit by Weaver, a three-bagger by Patton, and error-given blow by Bostick and a stroll by Seldon.

State PGA Prelims Get Underway

43 Pro-Am. Teams On Docket For First Item On Am. Bill

AMARILLO, June 19 (AP) — At least 43 three-man teams will compete today in the pro-amateur preliminary to the Texas PGA and Open golf tournament.

The shotmakers, who will try their skill over the Amarillo country club course, may be augmented by additional last-minute entries. In the pro-amateur round one professional will be paired with two amateurs, who will be allowed the benefit of whatever handicaps they carry at their clubs.

The tournament will be climaxed Sunday with cup matches between pros and amateurs. The five low scorers in the first 36 holes of the PGA open tourney will qualify for the national PGA meet at Denver next month.

Gassers Trip Loboos' 6-5

LAMESA, June 19 — The Berger Gassers outfit the Lamesa Loboos here last night to take the nod, 6 to 5, in the first game of the series.

The Gassers got the breaks in the eighth when, with the tying run on third, Kirby Jordan tried to squeeze Skipper Sam Scalling in and popped to the pitcher, who covered third for an unassisted double play to retire the side.

Unknowns Having Their Day In Trans-Miss Golf

ST. LOUIS, June 19 (AP) — The unknowns are having their day in the Trans-Mississippi golf tournament.

Less than the usual number of nationally known amateurs took in the event this year, leaving the field open to the boys who could shoot 81's or better to qualify. Now the favorites who are competing see these so-called upstarts threatening to get out of control.

With several of the unknowns enjoying hot streaks, upsets took a heavy toll in the opening round of match play yesterday. A majority of the high ranking stars advanced with no more than a scare, however, and the field will be thinned to 18 players today.

One of the biggest surprises was the defeat of O'Hara Watts, Dallas, Texas, runner-up for the title last year, by John Barnum, Chicago sporting goods salesman, 5 and 4. Although Barnum was six strokes better than the Texas—now an army private at Camp Bowie—in the qualifying test, Watts was considered one of the best qualified challengers.

End Of The Road—A smashing right from the thunder guns of Champion Joe Louis puts an end to the valiant challenge of Billy Conn in the 13th round of their fight in the Polo Grounds in New York. It was the first clean knockdown of the match and Conn was counted out by Referee Eddie Josephs.

Exporters Bopped 10-0, By Cats' Old Man Reed

Lookin 'em Over

WITH JACK DOUGLAS

There's been a bit of whooping-up going on for more fire in this West Texas-New Mexico league. Now, mayhem and murder, seasoned with a spot of rioting, is not necessarily needed to put life in the menu, but a little more of the old idea that the ump's a bum, the opposition's a band of fugitives from justice, and hanging is none to good for the two of them does put more steam in the fans' call to the park.

Two games such as those just played against Borger here, can leave nothing undone so far as thrillers are concerned, but some of the contests have been a bit on the outing side—although, if the truth be known, this has been more the inclination of the visiting clubs than of the Bombers.

Brawling is a thing of the past in baseball—a tossed coke bottle usually means that the thrower wouldn't care to face the man thrown at, even with the help of a baseball bat—it doesn't take any particular amount of courage to shout dire threats concerning the fate of the offending umpire when the game is over—and, the fellow hollering for one of the players to wallop the opposition with a pitched ball is not always a hairy-chested swashbuckler righting the injustices done innocents. But, honest-to-goodness wrath on the part of fan and player alike does add to a game that has had, and does have a wealth of color.

Honest-to-goodness wrath doesn't mean the thing best expressed by a term which postal laws forbids our using—it does mean the holy fire that strikes a man when he is doing what he thinks is right and is then slapped down by a rank oversight or injustice. The ardent fan and the winner—take all sort of player is well acquainted with that situation.

Manager Jodie Tate is a proponent of the good, old-fashioned ire idea. Now, Uncle Jodie is not much for shooting the gaff just for the heck of it. When he cuts loose you can bet your bottom dollar that he is of the unswerving opinion that he and his boys have been done dirt. That's what is meant by putting fire in the game without being obnoxious about it—that gives the fans a bit of blood-warming and clears the atmosphere for a game of deadly-serious baseball.

But, honest-to-goodness wrath, plain ill-temper, or other things—what difference does it make, so long as the fans enjoy themselves, the turnstiles keep clogging, and the grand old American game of baseball continues with all its side-lights, drawbacks and fiery sport atmosphere.

We don't know—last night it sounded as though Billy Boy Conn had Champion Joe Louis teetering from pillar to post. The next thing we knew, Conn was flat on his back and the count was nine—one second later he was just another guy that tried and failed. Maybe this Joe Louis is a true champion. If the running account had it down correctly, Joe came back from the brink of a knockout to win in the usual manner, displaying again that he is a credit to the sport.

Conn had every item but one in his favor for a while last night—he just naturally didn't have the punch and the will to crowd Louis when he was in trouble—Louis did.

And, just as a passing thought—what's wrong with Big Spring having an open golf tournament sometime later in the year? It would take about $500 cold cash to swing the deal—the course problem would be duck soup to Big Spring.

As the strongest title contenders.
Bob Cochran, St. Louis, tournament medalist, who breezed through the first round with a 7 and 5 victory over a fellow townsman.
Art Doring, Chicago, the defending champion, who advanced with a 1 up win over Jim Frisina of Taylorville, Ill.
George Dawson, Illinois state champion of Chicago, who won over G. G. Griffin, Chicago, 4 and 2.

Bomber Album

Eddie Stevens, Big Spring Bomber first baseman, is probably put under more pressure when it is his time to wield the bat than any other one of Skipper Jodie Tate's boys.

EDDIE STEVENS
This is Eddie's first year in professional circles. Upon the urging of his brother, Malcolm Stevens, a well-known baseballer of last year and several years before in this circuit in his own right, Eddie decided to take a swing at the bread and butter angle of the sport. And, here he is.

Eddie is a six-foot one and one-half inches left hander. For personal reasons, Eddie figures his age is his own business, but he first saw the light of day just one year before commercial oil production became a reality in Big Spring and one year after President Coolidge went into his four-year term. Suffice to say that he has grown into a 160-pound ball player.

Although this is his first time to be on a twice-a-month paycheck basis, Eddie has put in a full apprenticeship on semi-pro clubs, playing four years with the Galveston American Legion. He performed on the number one bag for the first two years with the Legion, then pitched the last two. Uncle Jodie put him back on first base when he came here.

Although he is still down the hitting threats of the loop. Of course, he has had off nights—and boy, were they off—but his record causes opposing hitters to view him with a maximum degree of alarm.

There is nothing namby-pamby about Stevens' ball playing. He covers first almost like one of the old-timers and makes the air whistle when he takes a sweat at the horse hide.

Something of an idea of the brand of ball Eddie plays can best be shown by his remark after a rather sad showing in a game won by Borger's Lefty Garland over the 15-inning route. Eddie had the home plate in need of a defrosting with a series of mighty sweeps through the air during the evening. Garland was throwing everything at him but the rubber, but still Eddie was fanning the breeze—did it five times to be exact.

After the game was over, comment was made about Eddie's hard luck. But, did Eddie advance an alibi—he did not—"I was trying," was his answer. The strange thing about it is that Eddie could have given a sound reason—he was near to being a physical case with a pair of inflamed tonsils.

Maybe he does it with mirrors, but Eddie seems in the majority of cases, to be able to follow the good when most needed. He has a good eye, a cool head, and loves the game—meaning that maybe the only thing that stands between

NEW YORK, June 19. (AP) — For fleeting, golden minutes last night Billy Conn of Pittsburgh held the heavyweight championship of the world within his grasp.

Billy Boy had everything in his favor when the big negro snapped out of his strange lethargy and knocked Conn kicking in the 13th round before a thrilled crowd at the Polo Grounds.

Conn, the 174-pound gamester, was well in front when the end came, suddenly and unexpectedly. Louis, drawn too fine in his training, had looked a slow, sullen defender of the crown. Conn had danced around him for half the distance, tied him up in the clinches, then had come on to slap the Bomber's teeth out.

At the end of the 11th round the Pittsburgh wonder boy had spread his mouth wide in a grin as he returned to his corner and waved triumphantly to the gallery stretching far back into the dark stands. He thought he was certain for victory and so did an amazed audience.

In the twelfth round, the slim handsome challenger sent Louis reeling against the ropes with a vicious two-fisted attack. Louis looked slow, unable to take advantage of the targets offered him. More than 25,000 spectators in the big ball yard were only waiting, tensed, for the final bell of the fight and the announcement that the "winnah and new champion" was Billy Conn.

Then the 13th round began. Louis came out looking worried, and Conn rushed to meet him. From the challenger's corner blurted the warning cry: "Move as it had come from Conn's manager, Johnny Ray. But Billy was headless, he went tearing to meet Louis.

A left hook caught Billy alongside the head and staggered him. He fell into a clinch. Louis, finally aroused, poured everything into the boy from Pittsburgh. Five consecutive rights landed flush on Conn's jaw before he finally crumpled to the canvas. He was down, still trying to struggle to his knees, when the count of 10 came and Referee Eddie Josephs signalled that it was all over.

They half-carried the strapping back to his corner, the blood pouring from his nose and from a cut under his ear. He still had a smile on his lips, a kid full of courage and glory. Later he cried in his dressing room as though his heart would break, but the last crowd saw of him he was holding out his hand in congratulation to the negro who had beat him down.

Seldom has a heavyweight fight crowd seen the scales of victory shift so suddenly. Up to the instant when Louis caught and downed his man, it looked as though Conn had made good his boast and bedazzled the champion, a far bigger man.

Early in the fight, in the second round, Louis shuffled in and poured punches into Conn's stomach. The kid looked in bad shape. The fight-wise ringiders nudged each other and said it was about over.

But the third round saw Billy open up in spectacular fashion and slap Louis all over the ring. Louis looked a sucker for Conn's left hand.

Conn won the eighth round and the ninth, lost the tenth, and then spurred to capture the eleventh and the twelfth.

And then it happened to him. He became in an instant only the 19th victim of Joe Louis since the big negro won the title.

Fish Transplanted By Plane

Engineers Have Business Boom

NEW YORK, June 19 (AP) — Heavy engineering awards this week totaled $173,806,000, the greatest volume for any week this year, Engineering News-Record reported today. It was the third highest total ever reported by the publication.

The sharp increase in awards was caused almost entirely by big federal contracts for defense construction.

Total awards were 24 per cent greater than the previous week and 60 per cent above a year ago.

Too Sacrificed For Navy
OMAHA, Neb. — Wade Lassiter would have given his little toe to be admitted into the navy. He did just that when he learned that his left little toe was out of alignment. Young Lassiter on his 17th birthday went to the hospital, had the toe amputated and will take another examination soon.

Gate Found Far Inland
McALESTER, Okla. — A 6-foot alligator was captured in a flower garden at McAlester. And that's something because McAlester is far inland from the haunts of alligators. Local experts theorized the "gator" had been living in an abandoned coal mine partly filled with water.

Story

was silent for a moment. "There is no place to hide. Last night my husband's eldest daughter went out to meet a lover. She has not been able to return. You might take her place. She has Persian eyes and the Emir is not observant."

"But if he discovered the deception he would kill me." "Not kill you. Eventually he might sell you. At present he is curious about Western women. Last year he saw a moving picture, the only one that has ever come to our court. The woman looked at Anne with puzzled eyes. "All! What strange lives you American girls lead. Dancing in men's arms, bathing with them, kissing them before you're married."

"Let me become an old woman again," Anne begged. "It is the safest disguise."

"My husband is causing the city to be searched for the Tibetan lama and his old mother. He has also heard of the young white woman who disappeared from the village of Yant in the storm. The white men are kept in the palace grounds. I do not know why."

"If only I could talk to them," Anne urged.

The woman considered a moment. "The tall one walks alone in the garden beside the river," she said. "There is a little door through the wall of the kitchen court. But if the Emir's servants should catch you—"

"I'll take my chances," said Anne. Sealing her aviation helmet among her possessions she put it on, and followed the Princess to the designated door, stepped through and flattened herself against the wall to take bearings. Leafy fruit trees hid her from the other part of the palace.

At the foot of a row of peach trees Gregory Sherwood stood looking across the river. She gave a low whistle. He turned, saw her and came up swiftly. She stepped into a summer pavilion heavily laced with grape vines.

"Anne," he whispered, catching her hands in glad surprise.

"Because of these clothes you wear, I thought at first you were Mackey, though I left him sound asleep. How goes it?"

She told him and asked: "What are your prospects?"

"I don't know," he confessed.

"The Emir admits that I saved his life and declares that he's exceedingly grateful, but he won't let us leave. Says he must first give me a sufficient reward. The old devil! Instinct led me astray last night. I should never have pushed him out of the path of that bullet."

Tears threatened Anne's eyes. It was so good to hear this dear, delightful banter again. "Will any of us escape alive?"

"We're bound to," he assured her.

"You might ask your Princess if there is anything that I can do for her and her son. He's a fugitive right now conspiring against his father. Tell her I apologize for saving the Emir's life last night. And Anne, should an opportunity come for me to help you—"

"You've helped me already," she confessed, "my spirit at least," withdrawing her hands from his grasp, a bit abashed by his steady scrutiny of her face.

He shook his head. "I made a terrible mistake not kissing you that time. Shall I be such a fool again?"

He had her in his arms. After a moment's surrender she broke away sharply, incensed at herself as well as him.

"We must stop playing like this," she cried.

"Why—when it takes us to paradise?" She refused to succumb to his spell again.

Suddenly they heard the patter of bare feet. Anne turned her back and stood there, head down, tense as a game bird. Sherwood had stepped to the opening and kept the servant outside the pavilion. They talked; one voice deep, virile, decisive, the words sharply clipped.

The other gentle as the chatter of timid morning birds. Anne didn't know if she was seen or not. She heavily breathed.

The man left and Sherwood returned. Anne stared at him for a moment, white faced.
