When America started out, she was worshipping and praising the only living true God. Then she was blessed, and increased with wisdom and riches. She became her own God!!!

Just as Satan did at one time, he also worshipped and praised the true God. Then one day, he became a fool in his own eyes, and thought he was a God!!!

America can clone a man, making babies without a woman laying with a man. God did it when Jesus was born. America is saying, what God can do, she can do also!!!

I will be like the most Let not the rich man glory in his riches, but let him that glory. America has made that same Glory in this that he understands and knows me that I am the Lord which exercise loving kindness, judgment, and righteousness in the earth for in these things I delight.

America is in so much trouthemselves, and the rulers take of God. Now she and her people will give you rest.

The America's land is having forest fires, droughts, floods and mudslides. She is in pain. Her people are suffering, crying America has been able to do out and needing God's help, but rather go insane!!!

Jeremiah 6:10-16 - The Lord said, to who shall I speak and give warning that they may hear? Where is the good way, walk therein, and you shall find rest for your souls. But they said, we will not walk therein.

deeply concerned about the world's attitude toward my country. What truly troubles me is the hostility of our neighboring countries to the south.

An example of American hatred was evident in the Miss Universe pageant as Rachel Smith competed on stage in Mexico City. I watched this moment of ugliness from Mexicans played on international media. This experience was equal to the former president of Mexico saying African Americans look like monkeys.

Michelle Malkin reminds us in her column "Doing the Booing Americans Won't Do" how quickly we forget American haters. She reminded us of what happened in Guadalajara in 2004 during the Olympics qualification soccer match between the U.S. and Mexico: "The stadium erupted in boos during the playing of 'The Star-Spangled Banner'. Fans velled 'Osama! Osama!' as the U.S. was eliminated by Mexi-

One Mexican fan told the Christian Science Monitor: Every schoolboy knows about 1848....When they robbed our territory,' referring to when Texas, California and New Mexico were annexed to the U. S. as part of a peace treaty ending the war between the two countries, 'that was the beginning."

Malkin also reminded us that "none of Miss USA's fellow Americans participating in the interview segment - neither Minnillo (co-host), nor macho co-host Mario Lopez, nor the Smith's defense. Instead, Minnillo pleaded briefly with the unruly mob: 'Okay, una momento, por favor.' Lopez stood mute with a dumb grin on his dimpled face. Pathetic."

As an African American, I love my country. History reminds me of how Africans leadership participated in the selling of my forefathers to slave traders. This troubling thought seals my loyalty to America. In addition, I am March 2005, Mexican soccer-reminded of a slave trader who fans again cheered the al was saved when I sing "Amaz-

I am disheartened over the influx of cheap labor depressing wages for low-skilled Americans. As an activist for the civil and financial rights of all Americans, I take issue with the Congress and the Whitehouse veiled mask of racism and class structure when it says that America needs hard-working illegal immigrants to work the jobs that low-skilled Americans will not do. This is a euphemism for African Americans and underclass whites.

The American citizenry dashing Romo - came to need to awake from their slumber and demand that their representatives in Washington and elsewhere look out for their interest. This game playing with Mexico and other countries what would destroy our American way of life needs to cease. The 37 so-called "Sanctuary Cities" who kissed up to the country, leaders and citizen of Mexico need to be placed on the financial "blacklist." These cities are promoting an anti-America ageada by disobeying and not cooperating with the Homeland Security Department. They are pushing the agenda of Mexican citizens and officials who reaped billions of dollars in money sent back to Mexico from America. God bless Americal

So, You Are Off To Change The World!

"Graduates" by Gwen Spires

So, you are off to change the world. Armed with a newly earned diploma and determination, you really believe that you can make a difference.

Well, as one who was once in your shoes, I know that you. But, you need a little more equipment to make this happen. First of all, you need to fortify yourself with an unwavering spiritual belief; secondly, you need to remain focused on your goals; and thirdly, you need to are a young adult and must understand that circumstances and situations can result in delaying your dreams.

But, perhaps the most important advice one can give you at this time in your life is two-fold. First, you should measure your success in small steps. If you look at the big picture an adult.

None of these young teenaged women appeared to be as old as twenty years. They appeared to be fifteen to nineteen years of age. It also appeared that some of the graduating seniors were mothers who chose to continue their high school education after they entered into motherhood. The same is true for some of the fathers.

From this scenario, it is more evident than ever before, that our Classes in Bachelor Arts and Homemaking and Child Care may have their places in the curriculum, but these are instances of placing the carriage before the horse. Of course, schools should not bear the complete burden of the learning process, because learning should begin at home. So much of what is wrong in the picture is a lack of teaching at home because it is a vicious cycle. Many parents do not know what or when to teach their children because no one ever taught them. It is not a matter of willful neglect, but neglect by absence of the tools with which to care. We need to get 'in cinque' and put the needed courses into the
