Patterson, McNeill to be honored

On Saturday, January 30, 2010 the 100 Black Men of West Texas, Inc. (100) will present its 15th Annual Scholarship Fundraiser and Gala at Lubbock's beautiful and newest four star hotel, the Overton. The 100 is proud to announce that the honored guests for the evening will be Coach Ruffin McNeill, and Lubbock Legend, T.J. Patterson, Sr. The 100 selected these two distinguished honorees because of the humble, yet amazing role model examples that they continue to exhibit. The Gala dinner and program will be from 7:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m. and the entertainment will commence at 9:00 p.m. and continue until midnight. Entertainment will be provided by West Texas' hottest band - Element.

This year's gala motto is: "What They See is What They'll Be". This is also the national mentoring motto for the 100 Black Men of America, Inc. This year's scholarship gala will serve as one of the kick-off events for the 2010 African American History Month Celebration. The 100's goal for this year's gala is to raise enough funds to triple its prior year's scholarship awards. Over the past 15 years, with the help of our supporters, the 100 has provided scholarships for numerous students who aspired to enter college and become future lead-

The 100 is best known for its annual Kid's Fishing Derby at Mae Simmons Park wherein hundreds of children and family members partake in a day of free fishing, food, fun, and prizes. In addition, the 100, with the support of the CH Foundation, administers the "Commendable Program" which awards students who achieve "commended status" on the TAKS exam.

The 100 extends a very special thanks to the following gala sponsors: Gold Sponsor, Lubbock Power & Light and Water (LP&L), Silver Sponsor, Alderson Enterprise, Bronze Star Sponsors Texas Tech University Division of Institutional Diversity and Terra Bella Salon; and Bronze Sponsors, Atmos Energy and Southwest Bank.

Major Earthquake Hits Haiti; Many Casualties Expected

Port-Au-Prince, Haiti — A powerful earthquake struck Haiti's capital on Tuesday, January 12, 2010, with withering force, toppling everything from simple shacks to the ornate National Palace. The dead and injured lay in the streets even as strong aftershocks rippled through the impoverished Caribbean country.

Associated Press journalists based in Port-au-Prince said the damage from the quake — the most powerful to hit Haiti in more than 200 years — is staggering even in a country accustomed to tragedy and disaster. Thousands of people gathered in public squares late into the night, singing hymns and weeping.

Many gravely injured people sat in the streets early Wednesday, pleading for doctors. With almost no emergency services to speak of, the survivors had few other options.

The scope of the disaster remained unclear early Wednesday, and even a rough estimate of the number of casualties was impossible. But it was clear from a tour of the capital that tens of thousands of people had lost their homes and that many had perished. Many buildings in Haiti are flimsy and dangerous even under normal conditions.

"The hospitals cannot handle all these victims," said Louis-Gerard Gilles, a doctor and former senator, as he helped survivors. "Haiti needs to pray. We all need to pray together."

An Associated Press videographer saw a wrecked hospital where people screamed for help in Petionville, a hillside Port-au-Prince district that is home to many diplomats and wealthy Haitians as well as many poor people.

The headquarters of the 9,000-member Haiti peacekeeping mission and other U.N. installations were seriously damaged, according to Alain Le Roy, the U.N. peacekeeping chief in New York.

Contacts with the U.N. on the ground have been severely hampered," Le Roy said in a statement, adding: "For the moment, a large number of personnel remain unaccounted for."

Despite the destruction, the capital was largely peaceful.

The 7.0-magnitude quake struck at 4:53 p.m. Tuesday, leaving large numbers of people unaccounted for, including many of the United Nations personnel who have been keeping the peace in the country since a 2004 rebellion ousted the president.

President Rene Preval and his wife survived the earthquake, according to Robert Manuel, Haiti's ambassador to Mexico. He said he had no other details.

Karel Zelenka, a Catholic Relief Services representative in Port-au-Prince, told U.S. colleagues before phone service failed that "there must be thousands of people dead," according to a spokeswoman for the aid group, Sara Fajardo.

"He reported that it was just total disaster and chaos, that there were clouds of dust surrounding Port-au-Prince," Fajardo said from the group's offices in Maryland.

State Department spokesman P.J. Crowley said in Washington that U.S. Embassy personnel were "literally in the dark" after power failed.

"They reported structures down. They reported a lot of walls down. They did see a number of bodies in the street and on the sidewalk that had been hit by debris. So clearly, there's going to be serious loss of life in this," he said.

The Diocese of Norwich, Connecticut, said at least two Americans working at its Haitian aid mission were believed trapped in rubble.

Most of Haiti's 9 million people are desperately poor, and after years of political instability the country has no real cost-of-living standards. In November 2008, following the collapse of a school in Petionville,

FASHION FUN with Shirley Roberson 2010 Fashions

2010 will be an exciting year for fashion, experts predict that we'll emerge from the global financial crisis and as a result, we can expect to see a new standard of fashion rise up. More of the same, much more of the same to be exact. Spring dresses that fit and flatter you, sexy ruffle tops, off the shoulder tops are going to be everywhere. You're going to see a lot of tight fitting, shorter dresses, that's right ladies sexy 5/8 on the way. Church suits hem lines are going to be at least 3 inches shorter, right below the knee is probably going to be the perfect hem line.

From the Desk of Parson D.A. Smith "A Foolish Racist Preacher"

We take these moments to share our gratitude to those who have given to the cause of Haiti. Certainly your sharing help heal the pain and suffering of the Haitians who are experiencing tremendous pains from the natural disaster that has befallen them.

It is because of Americans like you who "walk the walk" and distance yourself from those who in their sanctimonious behavior contribute what has befallen the Haitian to an act of God because of their evil ways. People like you are what make me proud to be an American. I'm sure the angels rejoice in your acts of kindness toward feeble and the fallen of humanity.

Because of who I am and who I represents cause me to look at another brother who calls himself a preacher and make it known through his television program that he represents God and as it appears by his recent statements about the Black Haitian people who symbolically gave God the finger so to speak by making a "Pact with the Devil." I wasn't aware that God somehow and in some way sit across the table from the great Reverend Pat Robertson and told him the history of the Haitian people. I suppose this same God must have told him how to collect money from people without regard to the color of their skin through his 700 Club. It's nothing worse than a money hungry lying preacher. Of course Pat Robertson does prevaricate, just allegedly equivocate!

Dr. Boyce Watkins wrote the following: Pat Robertson, evangelical Christian and host of the 700 Club blamed Tuesday's tragic 7.0 earthquake on something that "happened a long time ago in Haiti, and people might not want to talk about it." He says that a "pact with the devil" brought on the devastation. The Haitians "were under the heel of the French. You know, Napoleon II and whatever...and they got together and swore a pact to the devil. They said, 'We will serve you if you will get us free from the French.' True story. And so, the devil said,

'OK, it's a deal.'

You know, the Haitians revolted and got themselves free. But ever since, they have been cursed by one thing after the other, Robertson says.

The following are some comments on NEWSONE for Black America to Robertson comments.

This is ignorance 101: The idea that someone would summarize the pain and suffering of the Haitian people as a "deal with the devil" sounds just as ridiculous as those who long believed that black people were the cursed sons of Ham. Pat Robertson reminds us of those who long justified slavery with verses from the bible, or tortured other human beings because they thought they were witches. Robertson should be ashamed and can hardly call

BLACK HISTORY MONTH IS HERE! LET'S SUPPORT!

We Thank God for Jesus "America Has Gone MADD!"

Written by Evangelist Billy "B.J." McCreary, III - Your brother in Christ since always.

Matthew 9:37-38 - Jesus said, the harvest is truly is plentifully, but the labourers are few. Pray you, therefore, the Lord of the Harvest, that he will send forth Labourers in his Harvest.

 MADD MEANS - MANKIND AGAINST DIVINE DIRECTIONS!!! ******

When the Churches went away from God's word, and wanted their rights. Trouble in America became a new thing, and it didn't happen overnight!!!

Romans 1:18; 21-22 - For the wrath of God is revealed from Heaven against all unrighteousness of man, who holds the truth (The Church) in unrighteousness. Because that when they knew God (Christians). They glorified him not as God, neither were thankful, but became vain in their imaginations (Dreamers), and their foolish heart was darkened, professing themselves to be wise. They (Christians) became fools.

You look around Lubbock, and see it on TV, MADD America's out of control. People are taking their lives, and their love ones. It's taken it's total!!!

Isaiah 1:4a - A sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity. A seed of evildoers, people who are corrupted. They have forsaken the Lord.

America loves money, and don't care how or where she gets it from. There is stealing in the Church House, the White House, and beyond!!!

1 Timothy 6:10 - For the love of money is the root of all evil which while some coveted after. They have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

Many marriages now will end in divorce courts, six out of every ten, same sex marriages are on the rise. It's higher than it's ever been!!!

Romans 1:28 - Even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge. God gave them over to a reprobate mind to do those things which are not convenient (Right).

A Mother of five children cracks up and take their lives. The Father moved out on them, and he found him a motherless wife!!!

1 Timothy 5:8 - If any provide not his own, and especially for those of his own house. He is worse than an infidel.

 HAVE YOU SEEN THE INFIDELS??? ******

Children are on drugs and alcohol. It's all over America, and is an all time high. A child as young as 12 said, he started drinking at the age of five!!!

Matthew 19:24 - Jesus said, suffer little children, and forbid them not to come unto me for such is the Kingdom of Heaven.

Crime of drugs, robbing, and killing are at America's all time high peak. Old people are in prison in their homes after six p.m. and afraid to go on the streets!!!

Isaiah 66:4 - The Lord said, I will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears upon them, because when I called, none did answer. When I spake, they did not hear, but they did evil before mine eyes, and choose that in which delighted not.

St. Matthew's Baptist Church News

Church services got underway last Sunday morning, January 17, 2010, at the St. Matthew Baptist Church, 2010 east 14th Street, where the proud pastor is Rev. Edward Canady. Sunday School began at 10:00 a.m. with Rev. Jimmy Brown teaching the morning lesson entitled "Works of Healing." The Unifying Topic was "Demonstrated In Acts of healing." The morning lesson was reviewed by Sister Annie Onasanya.

The lesson passage was Matthew 9:27-34; 11:2-6. The background passage was

Matthew 9:27-34; 11:2-6. The main thought was Matthew 11:5. KJV

During the morning worship hour, the Senior Choir marched in singing "We've Come This Far By Faith." The Choir sang several selections, namely: "Rough Side of The Mountain" and "I've Got To have Jesus." The choir also sung "I Love Calling His Name."

Let us not forget those who are on the sick and shut-in list. Among them are Pastor Canady's brother, Joe Canady who is a patient in the hospital in McKinney, Texas.

Sister Shirley Davis' sister is in the hospital. Sister Linda Byrd is a patient at the University Medical Center. Also, Sister Nina Davis and Rev. Walter Jackson.

Let us continue to pray for each of them.

The Song of Inspiration was: "I Will Be Done With Troubles of This World."

Here is some information about Sunday School Lessons:

In today's text, Jesus prays to his Father. As many times as I have read this passage, I hardly ever thought about this text as a prayer. I thought this passage was one of Jesus' teaching moments.

As I read these verses again, through the lens of prayer, Jesus' words began to teach me. In his prayer, it seems Jesus touches upon what we can offer in our prayers. What can we offer in prayer? We can offer...

A Prayer of Praise (Matthew 11:25, 26)

This verse begins, "At that time..." (v. 25). Jesus prays at the right moment. Jesus doesn't wait until a specific time to pray. In that moment, at an opportune time, Jesus offers a prayer of praise, "I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth" (v. 25). Throughout his earthly ministry, Jesus teaches his disciples, his followers, to pray.

Jesus' words continue to teach us today. When was the last time you offered a prayer of praise? It is easy for us to be thankful and appreciative for what others may have done for us, but in reality, how often do we stop and realize an opportune moment to simply offer a prayer of praise?

(What is praise? What does it mean to praise the Father? Why should we praise the Father? How can you praise the Father?)

A Prayer of Propinquity (Matthew 11:27)

Matthew 11:27 says, "All things have been committed to me by my Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him."

There is a relational dynamic occurring in this verse. Consider these phrases: "me by my Father," "Son except the Father," and "Father except the Son."

Can You Really Remember?

Love you! Keep smiling. It will tell the outside world what's on the inside. Let's fall on our face and repent! Read II Chronicles 7:14 and Mark 11:22-26. Also a new scripture, Mark 16:17-20. These scriptures are real, and they are for us to believe in them.

Sister Dorothy Hood, president; Sister Christene Burleson, vice president and Sister Elnora Jones, teacher.

God Bless Each of You!

Outreach Prayer Breakfast

Are you thinking back in time? Can you remember America? When riots were unthinkable. When Gay was a good word. When you left your front door open. When you knew who your neighbor. When ghettos were neighborhoods, when the U. S. flag was a proud symbol, when the real criminals actually went to jail and prison. When you weren't afraid to go out at night or meet your Black Brothers and Sisters, and not be afraid, when taxes were only a necessary nuisance.

Or do you remember when a boy was a boy, and dressed like one; when the poor were too proud to take charity. When the clergy actually talked about religion, and was concerned about the lost. When clerks and repairmen tried to please you. When you get your gas pumped and windshield cleansed. When college kids swallowed gold fish and not acid. When songs had a tune, and the words made sense.

Also, when young men tried to join the U. S. Army or Navy, instead of the Crips and Bloods. When people knew what the Fourth of July stood for us as well as the 19th of June, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day, Easter, Mother's Day, and father's Day.

When you never dreamed our country could lose. When our schools were truly a place of learning. Respect and goodwill toward all men. When the President of our Nation was respected and respectable. When a Sunday drive was a pleasant trip, and not an ordeal. When you bragged about your hometown and home state. When our kids knew who Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. was and what he stood and died for. When everybody didn't feel entitled to a college education. When people expected less and valued what they had more. When politicians proclaimed their patriotism, and meant it. When abortion wasn't a deliberate issue, but a known wrong.

When everybody knew the difference between right and wrong. When things weren't perfect, but you never expected them to be. When you weren't made to feel guilty for enjoying decent, comedy. When our government stood up for Americans anywhere in the world:

When you thought that the law would be enforced and your safety protected. When you knew deep down in your heart this system was designed that you make it, and you rose up from your long sleep and realized this is the real world, and I've been a sleeping giant. When you consider yourself blessed to have a job and proud of it. When you weren't embarrassed to say

Sandra Ann Hutchinson-McKinzie "Tootsie"

Funeral services were held for Sandra Ann Hutchinson-McKinzie last Saturday morning, January 16, 2010, at the Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church, Rev. Sonia J. Scott, host pastor, with Rev. Larry Brooks pastor of Community Baptist Church, officiating.

Pallbearers were Walter Hutchinson, Hillary Hutchinson, III, Gary Wadley, Delbert Toines, Benny Graves, and Louis Hutchinson.

Interment was held in the City of Lubbock Cemetery under the direction of Ossie Curry Funeral Home of Lubbock.

She was born to Hillary, Sr. and Elnora Thomas-Hutchinson on October 31, 1949 in Lubbock, Texas. Sandra attended public schools in Lubbock, where she graduated from Dunbar High School in 1969. She was a proud member of the Panther Pride, and loved playing the saxophone, and had an overwhelming desire to be a twirler, but her legs just were not long enough.

Sandra, or "Tootsie" as she was known to those who really knew her, married Melvin McKinzie, Sr. February, 1971, and to that union were born two sons: Henry Melvin, Jr. and Michael Anson Tionne McKinzie.

Sandra spent a few years working at Texas Instruments, and then found passion for the road as a bus driver for many years with Citibus, where she made many friends.

She received guidance at Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church, under the late Rev. A. W. Wilson. Later, she moved her membership to Community Baptist Church, where the late Rev. Tony Williams welcomed her, and Rev. Larry Brooks was her pastor for many years. She loved to sing, and was a member of the Senior Choir at Bethel and later the Community Senior Choir. Sandra was also a member of the Lubbock Radio Choir, and left fond memories of her directing "Jesus Can Work It Out."

She is preceded in death by her parents: Hillary Samuel and Elnora Hutchinson; sister, Sara Delores Blocker; and brother, Norvelte Hutchinson.

Those left to remember her are: sons, Henry Melvin (Tracy) and Michael Anson Tionne (Bessie); sister, Bobbie Gean Patterson (T.J.); brother, Hillary Samuel, II (Deborah), all of Lubbock, Texas.

She will be missed by her ten grandchildren, with more expected next month, a whole tribe of Hutchinson, a host of nieces, nephews, a special friend and caretaker, Cathey Covington, and many others who loved her.

The Book of Eli

It is 2043, several decades after a war to end all wars which has left America a vast, violent wasteland devoid of infrastructure. In the wake of the devastating catastrophe, civilization has been replaced by a desperate, lawless society where life is cheap, and a man might lose his life over a glass of water, a piece of food, or even nothing at all.

In the case of Eli (Denzel Washington), the only item for which he is willing to die is the thick, leather-bound book he keeps carefully wrapped in cloth and tucked away inside his weather-beaten satchel. Except for the telltale cross on the cover, and his occasionally spouting scriptural-sounding aphorisms like "Do for others more than you do for yourself," he does an excellent job of hiding its contents.

THIS 'N' THAT

by T.J. Patterson.

LUBBOCK CITY COUNCIL NEEDS TO BE MORE SENSITIVE! THIS N THAT was surprised that the MAYOR & CITY COUNCIL appointed some Lubbock citizens to the CHARTER COMMITTEE to revise what needs to be done..... and anything which will help our city grow into the new year.... But what was SHOCKING there was not a BLACK, HISPANIC OR WOMAN on the committee..... Now ... how in the world can you revise this important without representation from all areas of the Lubbock Community..... Get this these members were APPOINTED

..... during the celebration of the Annual Celebration of DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. as this would have been a positive thing to happen in Lubbock..... as it is needed here at this time..... THIS N THAT was confused about this situation as the chairman of the committee ALAN HENRY former mayor..... received a telephone call from THIS N THAT..... Hopefully MAYOR TOM MARTIN will take note to this and something will be done to correct this situation..... Anyway it has been done and the Charter Committee met yesterday Wednesday..... Hopefully this will be corrected and it will benefit all of us.....

DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. COMMEMORATIVE COUNCIL DID WELL THIS YEAR! THIS N THAT says CONGRATS for a job well done in the 39TH ANNUAL CELEBRATION OF THE DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. PROGRAM..... Keep up the good work and keep doing what you are doing!! THIS N THAT can't wait until next year!!!
SECOND-ANNUAL GOSPEL MUSIC AWARDS GREAT! THIS N THAT says CONGRATS to the SECOND-ANNUAL GOSPEL MUSIC AWARDS this year... The winners were..... Youth Soloist of the Year JAY BIBBS..... Youth Group/Duo of the Year MOUNT GILEAD BAPTIST CHURCH CHOIR Youth Dance, Drill or Praise Team LYONS CHAPEL YOUTH PRAISE TEAM..... More Next Week!

THINK ABOUT IT!

Enough Is Enough Too Much Stinks!!

The situation in the community, at this present purely, stinks! Grown men stomping a woman to death and mutating the other women in the vehicle. At the time of the accident, according to alleged eye witness of the hit and run accident which the assailants hit the victims car the victims. The women followed the vehicle that hit them to discuss the matter. They were attacked and one murdered. Another senseless indecent was a young person carrying a weapon to a community school, which is serious enough having a deadly weapon on public property especially school property. After the serious critical incidents on school campuses across America, we all, in order to be safe, must learn to look before we leap and think before we speak. Believe it or not, the tongue is one of the most dangerous weapons around. We complain about the lack of resources in the community, and just think about it. We are the community's worst deterrent by breaking in on them, robbing them. How in God's name can you expect people to invest while you us destroy. For the citizens tax payers, we have to, should, must, become involved in cleaning up and keeping clean our communities. Remember each of us are in only one position a part of the problem or a part of the solution. If crime is in our communities or even homes there are only one or two positions you are an empowerment to the situation or you are a deterrent there are one or the other you are a part of the problem or a part of the solution. Take Care Until Next Week! Remember God is able!!

To my dismay, I discovered that any morning that I woke up and found my television not connecting with a station, my telephone was dead and so was my internet use. So, I decided to switch back to my landline telephone. That done, I subscribed to DSL internet and just the cable television, to find that I could not have DSL and U-Verse anything. My U-Verse had to be cancelled and the date for DSL installation would be sometime in March. Attempting to move up the date, I immediately cancelled all of the U-Verse to find that my telephone number had been changed and the DSL would not work. No one knew my number, not even me; until I called my daughter who told me that I had a different telephone number showing up on her caller ID. It seems that I have Mrs. Hampton's telephone number and my number is ringing in the cyber world but not at my house. AT&T has made an appointment to fix this, but in the meantime,

I called my grand-daughter on my cell phone and after her music played, I was hooked up to my voice mail. I decided that the telephone company had a conspiracy against me. My daughter assured me that my grand-daughter did not have her voice mail set up and because our telephones are on the same band, it reverted to my voice mail. It is time to get 'in cinque' and hope the kinks are knocked out of the microfiber phone in-

Regina King Discusses Her Role as a Detective in TNT's Newest Drama

Regina King was born and raised in Los Angeles where she started her showbiz career on the stage at an early age. That exposure led to a role on the sitcom "227" while just 14. Five years later, she made her screen debut as Shalika in fellow, USC alum John Singleton's Boyz n the Hood. Since then, the attractive actress' services have remained in demand as a romantic lead opposite everyone from Jamie Foxx in Ray to Will Smith in Enemy of the State to Chris Rock in Down to Earth to Eddie Murphy in Daddy Day Care to Cuba Gooding, Jr. in Jerry Maguire to Laz Alonso in This Christmas.

Regina King

Regina recently moved back to the small screen where she can currently be found as LAPD Detective Lydia Adams on Southland, a cop drama airing Tuesday nights at 10 PM (ET/PT) on TNT. Here, she talks not only about her work on the raw-edged, cops series but about her life and career as well.

Kam Williams: Hi, Regina, thanks for the time.

Regina King: Oh, thanks for making the time

KW: What interested you in Southland?

RK: Well, I was already a fan of [writer/producer] Ann Biderman's work, and when I read the script, I really got excited about the prospect of playing a woman who was complex, not just a one-dimensional character defined by her children or her husband. What makes Lydia Adams interesting isn't her children or her husband, but the fact that she's successful and driven and has a full range of emotions, which is indicative of most women between the ages of 35 and 45. So, I thought it would be cool to represent the sort of women that I know.

KW: Laz Lyles asks, whether you see Lydia as reflective of a recent trend towards stronger female characters on cop dramas?

RK: Yes, but the beautiful thing about actresses is each of us can put a different spin on that type of woman.

KW: The series just moved from NBC to TNT. Laz also asks if that shift is going to affect the content or the show's fair graphic tone?

RK: No, I don't think the show will necessarily be changing. But there might be fewer conversations back and forth between the network and the producer, about toning it down, because TNT understood the nature of the show that they picked up.

KW: Watching the second season's premiere episode, I was surprised how realistic the storyline was, revolving around the Latino versus black gang wars in L.A.

RK: All of our stories are based on real stories, actual events which have made the news in the city.

KW: Children's book author Irene Smalls asks, to what do you credit your enduring career from 227 to Southland?

RK: I have to give a lot of credit to my mom, who decided to send me to a regular public high school where I ran track and went to football games. So, I got to do the normal things that kids do.

KW: I noticed that some classmates from your graduating class have also fared well in showbiz.

RK: Yeah, [director] Tim Story... [jazz pianist] Eric Reed... there are definitely some of us out there.

KW: Speaking of high school, teacher Eric Daniels asks, how have you managed to stay so busy?

RK: Oh, I don't know. [Chuckles] Luck, I guess. And by always being prepared, so that when an opportunity comes along, I can take it. I think that's the short answer.

KW: You've played the leading lady opposite a lot of great actors. Which one was your favorite screen husband or lover?

RK: I can't say. Each one had something that made them appealing. Chris Rock was awesome to talk to and funny at the same time. Eddie Murphy was surprisingly different, in a good way, from what I had anticipated. With Will Smith, it was very refreshing to be around someone who's so excited about what he does. I'm sure that if he worked for the Sanitation Department, he'd be enthusiastic about how he throws out the trash. He fully commits to whatever he's doing. And Jannie Foxx was like a walking TV, entertaining all the time.

KW: Is there any question no one ever asks you, that you wish someone would? If so, please answer it.

himself a man of God.

This is the wrong time to express you insulting opinions: Pat, if you have something silly to say, please keep it to yourself right now. Even if you are willing to believe that the Haitian people somehow earned the death and suffering that they are experiencing, this is not the time to express that sentiment. People are dying, and babies have lost their mothers. By making such comments at this very sensitive time, Robertson shows very little connection to the compassion that should be present in the spirit of God.

Pat Robertson, you are sounding like both a racist and an elitist. If you'd lost dozens of loved ones in such a devastating event, I am not sure how you'd feel about someone insensitively stating that your family brought its own demise by choosing to subscribe to a particularly religious ideology (even though this Haitian story is not true, since the people who are dying can't be proven to have made any kind of pact with anyone). The fact that your response to the death and destruction of Haiti varies dramatically from your measured and sensitive response to 911 clearly implies that you place higher value on lives that are white and American. Shame on you Pat—you are a (n) embarrassment to Christians everywhere.

When Robertson open his mouth, 7 demons flew out, but 7 x7 more flew in, he's a walking and talking symbol of what's wrong with American Christian right-wingers. His rumbling absurdities are testimony to his hypocritical behavior and beliefs. Poor soul is senile and does not know it.

Pat Robertson's comments were just ignorant. Everyone who would send money to his "church" should send their money to Haiti for relief. Enough said!
