

GIRL SCOUT AWARD PRESENTED

Cecille Joyce Graves, senior at Mary & Mac School, received an award at the annual Senior Capping and Graduation Ceremonies, sponsored by the Caprock Girl Scout Council, last Sunday afternoon, May 15th, at 3:00 p. m. at the First Presbyterian Church. She is a member of Troop 332 and has been quite active with this organization for nearly ten years. Approximately 35 young ladies were honored at this affair. Following the ceremonies everyone was invited to greet and congratulate the new senior girls and the graduating Senior Scouts at a reception in the church parlor.

'Around the Hub City'

Our Little Leaguers are busy at it once again this year as they have been in the past. It is quite inspiring to pass by the Eastern Little League Park and watch them participate in their practice sessions. It has been learned that the managers and everyone associated with the Little League that weekly meetings are being held in order to prepare for the coming season.

How many of you have noticed the new construction of the modern community center which is expected to be completed by the first week in September of this year. It's going to be a beautiful place for our younger people as well as our adults to have good, clean recreation. This is something that is really overdue here in the Hub City. If you haven't had the opportunity of seeing the new sight, then when you are driving on East 24th, then look north, and you will see the early stages of a beautiful building.

By the way! I forgot to inform you last week that Quirt Avenue is now a four-way drive. How about that?

A special tea was given on last Sunday afternoon, May 15th, from 4 until 6 p. m., in the home of Mrs. Willie Lusk, 2302 Birch Avenue, in honor of Miss Josey Lee Bonner, a retiring teacher in the Lubbock Public Schools, who is retiring after twenty-five successful years of instruction.

Charles Sterling has answered the draft call for his country. He left Paul Quinn College last week and is now in San Antonio, Texas, where he is undergoing eight weeks of basic training.

It was learned that approximately one hundred and eight seniors are candidates for graduation at Dunbar High School. As of yet the figure has not been confirmed.

The graduation for the Kindergarten Department of the Mary & Mac Private School is on tap for May 27th, at 8:00 p. m., in the auditorium. This year, as it has been in the past, the class will perform their talents to those invited to the annual fete.

In addition to this particular graduation, this year, Mary & Mac's first senior high graduation will take place on Sunday afternoon, May 29th, at 3:00 p. m., with Dr. Milton K. Curry, president of Bishop College at Dallas, Texas, delivering the address in the auditorium of the Boys Club.

HATS OFF TO YOU!! The members of the Boy Scouts who participated in the clean-up project at the South Plains Fair Park last Saturday morning and afternoon. Keep up the good work.

It won't be long now before thousands of delegates will be marching upon the Hub City for their state conventions. The Knights of Pythian which will hold its meeting on June 5th through 9th, and the Elks of IBPOEW's on June 11th through 15th. These two meetings should put the Hub City in the driver's seat for conventions.

Pictured above are the runner-ups at this year's King and Queen of Mary & Mac Private School. Shelia Moore, daughter of Mrs. Betty Moore and Darrell George, son of Mr. and Mrs. George, both of here in Lubbock, were runner-ups in this year's contest for the honors.

CONGRATULATIONS SENIORS

Congratulations to each of you who are members of this year's Senior Class.

Each of you have come a long way, and, of course, you have had many unforgettable experiences for which have proved to be of great advantages to you. Looking at the shady side, some of your peers who began with you in 1954, nearly twelve years ago, have fallen by the way-side, but you, dear graduate, were able to hold on.

In looking back over your early school days, there were times in which you surely became frustrated, disappointed, and probably nonchalant about graduation---but we must admit---that you were able to deal with triumph and disaster, and we may add, that you weren't afraid.

Let's take a great step, Seniors, and look at the world of tomorrow, your world... If you would only think with others about your livelihood will consist of. It's true, one cannot prophesy as to what the world will hold for you, but it is also true, just as one of our late presidents said, "Prepare yourself and someday your chance will come."

In the professional world, the Negro is moving rather boldly in two directions. He is entering professions which in the past were, for all practical purposes, closed to him. And in professions traditionally open to him, such as sports, medicine, entertainment, and many others, he is moving toward top managerial posts.

It is up to each of you, Seniors, to continue to excel in your education so that you may be able to excel in professions such as sports or entertainment and also in the new professions opening up to you, whether a man happens to be black or white will cease to be news...

Why not to out into the world with the idea of being somebody so as not to be counted among those looking to be given a hand-out. It matters not as to what you seek as long as you honestly and seriously look for it.

Your commencement exercises will mark the final time in your twelve years of training that all of you will be together. Perhaps today, it is not of great significance to you, but tomorrow, you will understand. Some of you will enter college this fall, volunteer for the Armed Forces, attend some type of vocational training, or even work as a common laborer. Remember, Seniors, before deciding not to advance your education, please think, because your decision today can either hurt or help you tomorrow.

Good Luck... Class of 1966, you have done well today. May your ambitions and accomplishments tomorrow be just as significant.

City-Wide Mission News

The City Wide Mission met in the home of Mrs. Mary Simmons, 3207 Teak Avenue, last week. The meeting opened with a heart touching prayer. Mrs. Simmons presided over the meeting due to the absence of the president, Mrs. C. Fair, because of illness. It was also learned that Mrs. Fair spent some time in the hospital and is now at her home. The mission prayed a special prayer for her.

A very nice Mother's Day program was held by this organization several weeks ago.

Our next meeting of the City Wide Mission will be in the home of Mrs. Baker, 1901 East 15th. All members are asked to attend this special meeting.

INFANT SUCCUMBS HERE

Michael Rodney Harris, 1 year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Lee Harris of 1514 East 28th St., Apt. 12, was dead on arrival at Lauf Clinic last Saturday morning. Justice of the Peace F. R. Land conducted an inquest and ruled death resulted from pneumonia.

Services were pending as late as Monday afternoon at Jamison Funeral Home.

Rites were read for Henderson Blaylock, a former resident of Lubbock, who died in Buckyee, Arizona, last week, at the New Hope Baptist Church here with Rev. A. L. Dunn, pastor, officiating.

Little League News

A special effort is being made to raise funds for the operation of this year's Eastern Little League. Therefore your whole-hearted support is needed to help make such a program continue to function properly this year, as it has in the past.

A benefit baseball game is being held on the 25th of May, Wednesday evening, in order that funds can be raised. This game will feature the Old Settlers vs Night Owls. From the time the umpire says "Play Ball" at 7:30 that evening, this game should prove to be quite interesting and exciting; especially interesting will be the occasion to watch our elder citizens try to master the game of baseball for which the Little Leaguers are so good at playing.

The admission for this game will be only 50 cents. Please come out and help your Little League Boys in order that they may have another successful season. This game will be played in the Mae Simmons Park.

Come out and see such stars of yesterday as Parsi Brown, Chester Henderson, Caesar "Fireball" Graves, N. P. Holmes, George Smothers, W. M. Goldstein, Almo Sedberry, Harvey Davis, Eli Woods, Damon Hill, Dr. F. L. "Tricky" Lovings, Ulysses Kelly, Charles Sedberry, George Woods, and many, many other great ball players (of the past).

EAST BRANCH YMCA HOLDS CORONATION

Wichita Falls--Bonnie Thompson, a fifth grader, has been crowned Miss Cinderella of the East Branch YMCA for 1966.

A record crowd attended the event despite rain, radar warnings, and the weather to dampen the spirits of the contestants and the spectators. Interested friends came from many sections of the state to see the little ladies vie for the title of Miss Cinderella.

Miss America could not have been more excited nor held more in suspense that these little girls. There were ten finalists named before Bonnie Thompson, who resides with her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Ivell Hill, was named Miss Cinderella.

Second runner up was little Miss Nanette Ransom, daughter of Mrs. Catherine Laster, who gave the winner a very close call, and at one time almost wore the slipper.

Bonnie was presented with an arm bouquet of miniature pink roses. Present to do the crowning was a clown from the Maskat Temple Shrine assisted by two other clowns.

She wore a long white Satin Cape made by Mrs. Homer Tabb and designed by Mrs. Jessie Mayfield Jackson.

There were eighty-three children who participated in the musical portion of the program. Other runner-ups were Belinda Davis, Angelia Flenoy, Janice Davis, Martha Iklehart, Debra Earrings, Vickie Brewer, Katha Welburn and Shelia Cooper, all received gifts from their escorts.

Jackson with Mrs. Aurora Dimples Masters, as music chairman.

Thank You -

I wish to thank all of my friends here in Wichita Falls who voted for me in the May 7th election. I did not win, but I am still working in the interest of my people. I was elected chairman over the precinct to preside over the precinct convention. And for the first time, we will be represented in the democratic convention. Mr. Connie McCallan is a member of the Rules Committee of the Democratic Convention, and I was elected delegate to the State Convention, and Mrs. Williams, my wife was elected coordinator.

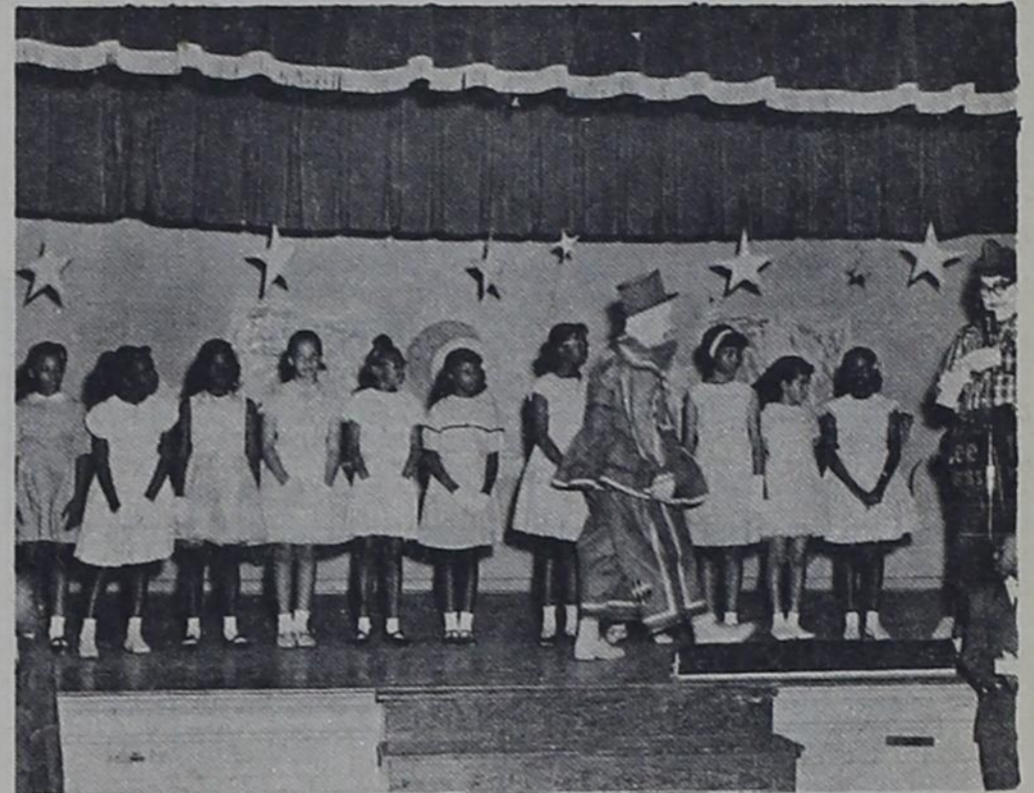

Thank you very much,
James Williams

In the professional world, the Negro is moving rather boldly in two directions. He is entering professions which in the past were, for all practical purposes, closed to him. And in professions traditionally open to him, such as sports, medicine, entertainment, and many others he is moving toward top managerial posts.

It is up to each of you, Seniors, to continue to excel in your education so that you may be able to excel in professions such as sports or entertainment and also in the new professions opening up to you whether a man happens to be black or white will cease to be news...

Why not to out into the world with the idea of being somebody so as not to be counted among those looking to be given a hand-out. It matters not as to what you seek as long as you honestly and seriously look for it.

Your commencement exercises will mark the final time in your twelve years of training that all of you will be together. Perhaps today it is not of great significance to you, but tomorrow, you will understand. Some of you will enter college this fall, volunteer for the Armed Forces, attend some type of vocational training, or even work as a common laborer. Remember, Seniors, before deciding not to advance your education, please think, because your decision today can either hurt or help you tomorrow.

Good Luck... Class of 1966, you have done well today. May your ambitions and accomplishments tomorrow be just as significant.

Winner Expresses Gratitude

Wichita Falls---Twice in as many election years I have defeated the same opponent for precinct chairman with a decisive margin, reflecting the confidence fellow Democrats repose in my integrity and ability to handle the job.

Although not arduous, the tabulation must be accurate in every detail and not infrequently requires overtime.

I wish to take this opportunity to thank friends, from all walks of life, for electing me precinct chairman.

I tried to run on a high class level. I did not say any derogatory remarks about my opponent at any time. Nor did I make promises that could not be met. I ran on a record and not on promises. I also wish to congratulate Mr. Williams for helping to create a voting interest. Our box was second in number of votes cast.

The voters re-elected me as chairman because they thought I was the best qualified man. Thank you, with the pledge not to betray this trust.

Junior and his father went fishing at Lake Wichita and Junior was the Fisherman of the Day.
