Miss Carrie B. Young and grand-daughter, Carol, returned from Los Angeles where they had spent several weeks enjoying their summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Lusks, Jr., 2302 Birch Avenue, left at the spur of the moment last Friday when they received word that one of Mrs. Lusks' sisters was ill.

LUBBOCK MINISTER SUBPOENAED BY MIDLAND GRAND JURY

The Reverend L. C. Fredrick, a minister of the Church of God in Christ of Lubbock, has been subpoenaed to appear before the grand jury on September 12th at Midland, Texas in order to give a full account for money he has collected in behalf of a condemned man, James Marion.

Rev. Fredrick, who tried unsuccessfully to baptize the condemned killer and ordain him, says he plans to use his appearance before the grand jury to make another plea to save James Lee Marion.

Marion, 24, was convicted here in Lubbock in 1964 of killing Mrs. Fred Turner, wife of a wealthy Midland oilman and sportsman. Mrs. Turner was beaten to death at her home October 29, 1963.

Atty. James Mashburn, Midland District Attorney, stated on last Saturday night that he issued the subpoena "about a month or month and a half ago," at the request of the Midland grand jury, after defense attorneys for Marion had asked him to have Fredrick to quit using their names in solicitations in behalf of Marion's defense.

Mashburn said that he had learned that most of the solicitations had been made in Lubbock and Midland.

Fredrick, who was interviewed by a reporter said that he has received $235 in donations, mostly $2 or less each and that some of the money has come out of his own pocket.

"There have been times I was in a restaurant or pool hall and folks came to shove fifty or seventy-five cents in my hand because they know what I am doing," he admits.

According to Rev. Fredrick, one of his main projects is to get Marion a new lawyer. He admits that neither he nor Marion are happy with the defense of insanity used by the present lawyer team.

Rev. Fredrick met Marion in 1964 on a visit to the Lubbock County jail. He said that Marion was converted through his ministry, and has been preaching to fellow inmates.

Regardless of all circumstances thus far, Fredrick believes that Marion is innocent.

"As a minister, I feel this is God's case, and I feel God wants the truth to be known," the minister said.

Rev. Fredrick tried to enter death row at Huntsville last July 31 to baptize Marion and ordain him, but prison officials refused. Marion was scheduled to die in the electric chair at Huntsville last February, but the one-time fry cook's execution was indefinitely postponed while lawyers appealed the case. An appeal is before the U.S. Supreme Court now.

Although Rev. Fredrick was unable to baptize or ordain Marion, he was allowed to visit him. He said Marion asked him to find a new lawyer.

You can construct the character of a man and his age not only from what he does and says, but from what he fails to do. N. Douglas

MRS. DORIS LAUTERDALE'S RITES READ AT RALLS

Funeral services were held Monday, September 5, for Mrs. Doris Lauterdale, a victim of the terrible explosion which happened at the Church of God in Christ several weeks ago, at the Church of God in Christ, Ralls, Texas, at 2:30 p.m.

Mrs. Lauterdale, who was the second person to die from the blast, was the mother of two girls, ages 17 and 10.

Mrs. E. A. Duke of Pampa, was one of the victims who succumbed during the mishap.

Youth Corps Program Here

A second group of applicants heard the Neighborhood Youth Corps program explained to them last Friday evening at the Party House of Mae Simmons Park.

The program is for young persons 16 to 21 years of age who are not in school and will not be going back to school. It is designed to combine education, counseling and supervision with vocational training for a 50-week period.

After the explanation of the program, the group filled out applications which are screened by the Texas Employment Commission. Following the screening, each applicant is interviewed by the TEC and recommended for specific jobs.

These jobs range from a sanitation worker to a cameraman in a television station.

Youngsters participating in the program will work 30 hours per week at $1.25 per hour. Another six hours per week will be used for classroom instruction and supervision by the youngsters.

The Neighborhood Youth Corps out-of-school program is to operate 100 work stations in Lubbock, Lamesa, Plainview, Spur, and Slaton.

Lubbock Man Traffic Fatality

A 31 year old man died at Methodist Hospital Monday night of injuries suffered in a fall from a moving truck six miles south of Hale Center earlier in the afternoon.

The victim, identified as Tommie Lee Taylor, 31, 1808 Avenue B, became the second person to die violently on the South Plains during the traffic holiday count.

Investigating officers said Taylor was a passenger in a panel van truck driven by Burrell Perryman, Jr., 902 Quirt Avenue.

Perryman told officers that Taylor was sitting on a tool box in the rear of the van and without warning got up and stepped out the sliding door in the rear. The car was moving approximately 50 miles per hour.

He was taken to Hale Center hospital where he received emergency treatment before being transferred to Methodist Hospital where he died a short time after arrival.

Funeral services were pending at press time.

Burrell Injured

A seven year old boy, Anthony Burrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Burrell, 2515 East 10th Street, was given emergency treatment and dismissed from Methodist Hospital last Friday afternoon after he was bitten on the right leg by a dog.

Those fighting Panthers of Dunbar High School will open their 1966-67 football season on Saturday, September 10, at 7:30 p.m. here at Lowery Field, when they meet Dunbar of Temple in a non-district tilt.

Coach James Hillyer Panther's who will be in District 1-AAA will have several tuff opponents facing them this season. The district will include Wichita Falls Washington, Amarillo Carver, Fort Worth Kirkpatrick, Midland Carver, Fort Worth Como, and Hamilton Park Richardson.

The Panthers lost sixteen lettermen last season by way of graduation and finished the season with a 4-4 record. According to Coach Hillyer, the team looked pretty strong during spring training.

Callingsignals for the Panthers last season, Paul Daniels, has returned, but the able support from Trent Cox and Wayne Davis, will benefit the squad and there should be no short commings in this department. All have the capabilities of running the team in addition to pitching the perfect sparrow to an eager waiting receiver.

James Johnson, 200 pounder, who lead the receiving department at the tight end position last season, has received a new assignment in the way of shifting to the split end spot. Johnson could prove to be the man to watch come this Saturday night when the Panthers meet Temple.

Several backs returning for a hopeful year are Robert Medlock, a 9.6 100 yard dash speedster, swift Sidney Hall, Power-house Eddie Love, and two lettermen, Willie Rogers and Herbert Johnson.

It should prove to be quite interesting when Medlock and Reginald Robinson, Wichita Falls sprinter who holds a 9.1 100 yard dash, tie up in a district tilt.

The crowd from Lubbock, I am sure, will be on hand to watch the home boys, Medlock, who placed fourth place in the national Jaycees Junior track and field meet at Denver last month, crash.

Let's not forget the line, which is of most importance, as it will be graced with several new and capable new faces.

Coach Hillyer believes that this year's team is "far more balanced" than the one last season. "A number of young boys made giant strides during spring training and if they are able to maintain their momentum and fill the shoes of some of our starters who are gone we may be in pretty good shape."

A special salute is made to the Dunbar Panther in this issue of the West Texas Times.

Get your tickets early for the opening game! Be on deck to root your team on to victory.... a n d off to a winning start on a successful season. Show your colors in the stands. Join in the cheers and songs. Thrill with every forward surge down the field, every stalwart goal-line stand. Let the team know you're with them all the way!!

U. S. Industry Seeking 'Capable, Productive' Negroes For Executive Posts

Baton Rouge--(NPI)--Big American industry is definitely seeking capable and productive Negro people for junior executive and management positions said Dr. Felton G. Clark, president, Southern university as he returned from a Washington university conference recently held in St. Louis.

The meeting, called by Schools of Business of four Midwestern universities heard representatives of the universities propose a plan for a subsidized one and one half to two year training program in business, leading to a graduate degree in business administration, which would take a young but mature Negroes of intellectual promise and prepare them for immediate entry to high level business careers.

Theory would be balanced with practice by internship in business during the summer months. Students would be chosen from the higher level, predominantly Negro colleges. Faculty representatives at these colleges would be offered a subsidized summer seminar at the universities to be sure that they too will be familiar with latest trends in the executive and management fields of business.

The Southern university president stated that the group--consisting of three college presidents, seven government officials, three foundation executives, six industry officials, seven "human relations specialists", and about 20 general university administrators and teachers--was exceedingly pleased about the conference, both in terms of its motives and its possibilities.

He commented that it was not another "do good" meeting but an honest effort to involve and untapped reservoir of human resources to meet a need in American industry and American life.

He added, "Big business does not invest in $4,000 scholarships and fellowships and ask our great universities to inaugurate special programs just for the fun of the matter. It always looks for returns."

It is expected that at a near-future date, Washington university will make a specific announcement relating to the finalizing of the plans considered.

Hear Core In "Financial Straits"; Group Hit With $22,500 Tax Lien

New York--(NPI)--The Congress of Racial Equality last week was reportedly in "serious financial straits," after the civil rights organization was hit with a $22,500 tax lien.

The lien, filed by the Internal Revenue service in Federal District Court was for income and social security taxes totalling $25,000 collected from CORE employees but not transmitted to the IRS, it was reported.

Contacted shortly after the filing of the lien, Lincoln Lynch, CORE's associate director, said he had no immediate knowledge of it. "We really don't know if it exists."

However, Lynch was reportedly admitted that CORE is in financial difficulty. Also, a recently resigned official said to have placed CORE's current financial deficit at above $350,000.

Several moves by CORE recently seems to support the reports of its financial difficulties. The organization has cut its staff about 30 per cent. The national staff has been trimmed down to 65 workers, most of whom operate across the national, and those let go included many long-standing employees.

Meanwhile, the organization has moved its headquarters from a $1,000 monthly location in downtown Manhattan, to a $500 a month address in Harlem. But Lynch explained that move as the decision of the organization to be in closer contact with Negroes and their needs.

CORE's income three years ago was reportedly $1 million a year, but a series of developments have said to have contributed to its drastic curtailment. They include passage of the 1964 Civil Rights Act and the 1965 Voting Bill which allegedly led many whites to believe their contributions were no longer needed.

Moreover, CORE's outspoken advocacy of the "Black Power" philosophy has reportedly hurt its financial posture.

Link DuBois Clubs With Communism

Moscow--(NPI)--The head of the Communist Party in the United States has identified the W.E.B. DuBois clubs as having Communist theoretical sympathy and membership link.

The clubs, a young organization, are named after the late, great Negro scholar and authro, Dr. W.E.B. DuBois.

Decribing the clubs' connection with Communism, was Gus Hall, recognized as the head of the U.S. party who is vacationing in Russia.

In an interview, Hall told the Komsomolskaya Pravda, a publication of the Soviet Youth Organization: "Quite naturally we have the closest ties with the DuBois clubs since they occupy a Marxist position. Many of the members of the DuBois clubs have joined our party."

The DuBois clubs, named by the Justice Department last year as subversive organizations, are said to be opposed to the Vietnam war. Concerning the war, Hall said:

"There is no military hysteria in the U.S.A., such as there was, for instance, during the Korean war. It isn't so simple now to come out in the United States against the peace movement as it was in those years."

"But at the same time," he added, "it isn't so easy for American youth, which lacks class consciousness, to come out against this war."

"In order to take this road, the Americans have to overcome in their minds the feeling of official patriotism."

Third Negro to Serve On Federal Bench

Washington--(NPI)-- Federal Judge Wade Hampton McCree, 46, has become the third Negro in history to be appointed to the U. S. Court of Appeals.

Judge McCree was named to the Sixth Circuit in Cincinnati by President Lyndon B. Johnson, who also reappointed Judge Austin L. Fickling, Negro jurist of Washington, D.C., for another 10-year term on the D.C. Court of General Sessions.

Two other Negroes have served on the U.S. Court of Appeals. They are Judge William Hastie, serving in Philadelphia, and Thurgood Marshall, who resigned from the Appellate court when he was named solicitor-general of the United States.

Prior to 1960, no Negroes served on the U.S. District Court bench, and the only major judicial post was held by Judge William Hastie, who was appointed by Appellate court by President Truman.

Today, there are six Negroes on the U.S. District Court.

BREAK IN
Mr. Albert Bunton, Jr., manager of Mitchell's Cafe, 2609 Idalou Road, told police that on last Saturday night someone broke into the cafe through the front door by pushing the lock keeper off the door jam. It was learned that the juke box was pried open in back and the coin box door from which the coinsack was removed. Bunton estimates that approximately $50 or $60 were taken from the juke box alone. A knife and hammer (which belonged to the cafe) evidently was used to force open the juke box.

Education Roundup

BY NEGRO PRESS INTERNATIONAL

DISTORTED BOOKS
Washington--(NPI)--Rep. Adam Clayton Powell (D.-N.Y.) has charged that "racially distorted and offensive textbooks and biased library books" depict minority groups "solely in an inferior or subjugated position." Even worse, they ignore minority groups altogether, he added. "The world of 'Look, Jane, Look' usually is a white suburban world," U.S. Education Commissioner Harold II told a House Education subcommittee looking into racially misleading textbooks. "What relevance does this scene have to the child of the city whose mother works outside the home, whose yard is in the street?"

FIRST TEST
Montgomery, Ala.--(NPI)--Alabama legislators make their state the first testing ground of desegregation guidelines issued by the U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, as the House approved a bill defying the guidelines. Senate approval was expected shortly. The bill would declare the guidelines illegal and a 11 compliance forms already signed by school boards void, while establishing the legislature and the governor as a commission to take over negotiations on guidelines for any school board voting to give up its own authority.

NOT SO OK
Oklahoma City--(NPI)--Mrs. Peninah S. McLaurin, the first Negro to seek admission to any university south of the Mason-Dixon line, has died at age 74. Mrs. McLaurin tried to enter the University of Oklahoma in 1923, but was denied admission. Her husband, George, was orderly admitted by the U.S. Supreme Court in 1948. The historic ruling eventually resulted in the abolition of the "separate but equal" doctrine.

WAR ON WALLACE
Montgomery, Ala.--(NPI)--Alabama educators have declared war on Gov. George Wallace's efforts to keep the state's schools desegregated by sidestepping desegregation guidelines. Dr. Robert L. Saunders, president, Alabama Education association, said his organization would fight the governor's plan with all its resources. Representatives of the University of Alabama and Auburn university joined in criticizing the governor's proposals. The governor was said to be surprised that so much opposition to his racist plans has been voiced.

Some 1,600 teachers, who have been on duty since last week getting ready for the new school year, celebrated their first holiday Monday.

According to Supt. Nat Williams, there will be 178 teaching days for the new school year, with last teaching day scheduled May 26. However, teachers will remain on duty through May 29.

For the holidays in between, scholars may have an opportunity of circling these dates on their calendar: Thanksgiving, Nov. 24 and 25; Christmas, from end of the day school Dec. 22 to opening of the school day Monday, Jan. 2; Easter, Friday, March 24 through Monday, March 27.

The District 13 meeting of Texas State Teachers Association, when students are dismissed from classes, will be Friday, March 3, 1967, in Municipal Coliseum.

Of course, there is a dismissal of classes nearer when classes will be dismissed at 2 p. m. the afternoons of September 27-28 in order that students may attend the Panhandle-South Plains Fair. Some schools will let out Tuesday afternoon and others on Wednesday on those dates.

Mrs. Nerinne Stage, director of cafeteria services, announces the first increase in prices in 12 years, that of five cents per plate lunch for the elementary schools and ten cents per plate lunch for the secondary schools. A la carte prices are proportionately higher.

Mrs. Stage cited rising cost of foods and labor and decrease in amount of government surplus commodities provided school lunch programs.

At the first general teachers meeting last Wednesday afternoon at the Municipal auditorium, Supt. Williams noted 15 Negro teachers will be teaching in previously all-white faculty schools, as well as 12 white teachers in previously all-Negro faculty schools.

At the close of the past school year it was learned that there were some 1,000 Negro students attending previously all-white schools, and seven Negro teachers in integrated schools in Lubbock.

Mr. Charles Johnson, a former teacher at Wheatley Elementary School, was promoted to assistant principal of this school.

According to legend, the pearl is a mighty jewel. But whether magical or medicinal, a pendant is a fashion accessory classic. (NPI Photo)

MARKDOWNS

Can Be

(Just Ask Tony)

Tony gets nine cents apiece for his Winesaps today. Day after tomorrow those that are left will go two for a nickel. Day after that the policeman's horse won't look at them. Tony can tell you: markdowns hurt!

In today's market, shoes and swimming suits, air conditioners and automobiles are as perishable as apples. Comes a time when you have to give them away. No one can guess right all the time, of course; a store without markdowns is like a man without sin.

But — need they be so doggone excessive?

They need not, sir. If you promote hard and early . . . if you promote "when they want 'em" . . . you'll have long since banked the cash when they don't want 'em any more.

Most stores consider West Texas Times advertising a mighty important part of their promotional planning. Indeed, they figure that we are well-nigh indispensable to PROFIT-ABLE selling.

One reason is that the West Texas Times reaches 3,000 families every week—households with millions to spend on merchandise that might just as well be yours—people who are open to buy the very minute they pick up their Times. Another reason is that these people act on Times advertising. This is attested by the fact that our advertising volume has been growing steadily.

So — if you are a merchant and are tired of murdering prices two or three times every year, why not let us call on you? We would like to work with you to help make your selling more profitable—yes, for 1966!

FOUR MIDWEST CITIES EXPLODE

Milwaukee, Wis.—(NPI)—Back to school time, and falling temperatures failed to keep four midwest cities from erupting in racial violence in a "long hot summer" finale.

Civil rights demonstrations in the suburb of Wauwatosa set off racial disturbances that resulted in the National Guard being called into action.

The rights demonstrators marched daily to the home of Circuit Judge Robert C. Cannon, in Wauwatosa, protesting the judge's membership in the Eagles club, which does not allow Negroes as members.

The marches have attracted crowds of whites, numbering in the hundreds, who have answered the pickets "black power" chants with "white power."

Eggs, a cherry bomb, and a brick have been thrown at the demonstrators' bus. Klansmen have turned up in Wisconsin for the first time since the 1920s.

The tension induced Gov. Warren P. Knowles to promise National Guard protection to Milwaukee if it was needed.

When the governor failed in efforts to get a civil rights truce, he called 400 National Guardsmen into action. But the Guardsmen were themselves met with curses, rocks, and exploding firecrackers from a crowd of 4,000 whites who came to see the Wauwatosa marches.

Not far from Milwaukee, in Waukegan, Ill., another racial disturbance exploded.

Waukegan Mayor Robert Sabonjan announced a series of moves aimed at bringing peace to the Chicago suburb, which was hit by a rioting for three nights straight.

"I will ask the school board to make gymnasium available for a small fee to groups and organizations for sports," the mayor said.

Earlier, the mayor had accused Negro "animals" of starting the riot and blamed NAACP agitation for the racial disturbance.

"The NAACP," he said, "is crying with crocodile tears about those school drop-outs and hoodlums on the south side. Don't you take to the streets like they did," he told a group of Puerto Ricans.

"If you do, then you're acting like those animals."

In Dayton, Ohio, more racial violence was threatened as a Negro gunned down from a speed-car died.

Lester Mitchell, 39, died in St. Elizabeth's hospital nearly 18 hours after he was ambushed while standing in front of his home, in the predominately Negro west side.

Some 1,000 National Guardsmen were on hand to restore order as hit-and-run gangs of Negro youths staged looting forays into the downtown area. They stoned cars and attacked whites.

In a suit for injunction filed last Friday in 99th District Court, Frank Atkins, 2606 Hickory Ave., seeks to enjoin Simpson Home and Finance Corporation from selling under deed of trust, power of sale or from otherwise foreclosing upon a 1 1/2 of Lot 21, Block 57 of the Chatman Subdivision of Block 57 of the Wheelock Second Addition to the City of Lubbock.

MANY PLEASURES OF SHERRY

California dessert wines (sweet wines) are gaining in popularity, and the many pleasures of sherry have earned for it the reputation of being the country's favorite cocktail and refreshment wine. There are many good reasons for this sweep in popularity.

First, of course, it's good and good for you when used moderately. There's a California sherry for any occasion—for every taste and purse. You may choose sherry from these types:

COCKTAIL SHERRY has the delightful nut-like sherry flavor, but brilliantly dry and wonderful for mixed drinks, chilled or over ice. And, guests who prefer a moderate cocktail will clink their glasses and toast it as "superb."

PALE DRY CALIFORNIA SHERRY is very dry with a delicate, nut-like sherry flavor, and is excellent for cocktails or as refreshment wine chilled or unchilled. Also, it is a delightful before-dinner appetizer, and tends to whet the appetite.

MEDIUM SHERRY, usually labeled "Sherry," is perhaps what most people like best. It is medium-sweet and smooth, and not very dry.

CALIFORNIA CREAM SHERRY is smooth, rich-bodied and sweet. It is deep amber in color and wonderful with desserts, apples, nuts, cheese and cakes.

For people of most discriminating taste, California produces many famous sheries—aged by the centuries-old process. Then, there are Solera sheries that take years to blend.

The hostess who wants to be different will take these uses-of-sherry hints to heart and experiment by adding sherry to whipped cream, or renew fruit cakes with sherry. Wine goes hand in hand with gracious living.

PEARLY PEARLS

The pearl is a mighty jewel, if centuries-old legend and superstition are to be believed. Magical and medicinal properties have long been attributed to the gem that today is regarded mainly as a fashion accessory classic.

According to a Chinese legend, it rains pearls when dragons fight in the sky. On a more earthy level, American folklore says that a maiden who rubbed her eyes with a pearl could make a man her personal slave with the slightest gaze. A man, on the other hand, could assure his love's undying affection by dissolving a pearl in water and giving it to her to sip from a wine glass.

Extraordinary powers have been credited to powdered pearls through the years. In 17th Century France, powdered pearl dust was an expensive beauty treatment. Sprinkled on the skin, it was thought to improve texture and lustre.

Powdered pearls were given amazing medical powers by several civilizations. From 1300 to 1600, swallowing powdered pearls presumably warded off disease, restored failing vigor, and cured such divergent ailments as epilepsy or hysteria. In ancient Rome, pearl dust was used to restore reason to lunatics.

One ancient civilization considered pearls bad luck and threw them back into the water, while another believed that pearl amulets drove away sharks. For the Chinese, pearls were charms against fire. In ancient Rome, pearls were so highly esteemed that only persons of special rank were permitted to wear them.
