Dunbar is on its way to the PLAY-OFFS!! This is wonderful, and I am sure all of you are behind them. Most of us are planning on driving to Sweetwater this morning for the contest this afternoon, but may we call your attention to how important it is for you to leave early enough to arrive safe and Please Drive Carefully entoute.

Two Lubbockites were enroute to the contest last Friday afternoon in Snyder and a traffic mishap occurred. The same could happen to you if you are not careful of your driving. And by this, I mean to be a good driver, we sometimes have to drive for the other person.

By the way, if you are going to drive, then please don't drink on these busy highways.

We want to see the Panthers win this contest, but by the same token we want to be able to return home safely.

"Around The Hub City" is rooting for the Panthers, and we are praying that all of us return home safely this weekend.

Twenty-two newcomer families were reported in the "Hub City" last week. Total to date this year adds up to 2,556 families.

*****

Linda Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Scott, who is attending college at the Women's University at Denton, Texas, writes home that she is doing fine in school, and is enjoying it immensely.

She plans to fly home for the Thanksgiving holidays.

*****

Mrs. C. McCormick is a patient at West Texas Hospital. She is suffering from a broken arm received from a fall while on her job last Thursday.

*****

Mr. Emmit Kelly is a patient at the Veteran's Hospital at Big Spring, Texas. He is asking his friends here to send him hello.

The Y.W.C.A. Adult Education classes that were held in Bethel A.M.E. Methodist Church on Monday nights will be held in the Dunbar High School beginning last Monday, November 20, at 7:30p.m.

Please enter the school at the Southwest side of the building. If new students are interested feel free to come.

The following courses are now being offered: Sewing and home management, typing and clerical skills, music and driver education.

If you are interested in additional courses being offered, then come by and express your interest and desire.

"Around the Hub City" had an opportunity of looking at the attendance record of four schools, Dunbar, Ella Iles, Wheatley and E. C. Struggs. It was interesting to look at the daily attendance records for the first six weeks of the 1967-68 school year. According to the record these schools have a 97.18 average. In a comparable time last year the figure was 96.80, an improvement of .38.

*****

I was off on a tangent last week. People who live in the "Hub City" often fail to see the growth of this city of 170,000 inhabitants. In driving around, I was able to capture at length, the growth of our city.

Take a look sometimes at our growth, and I'm sure you'll be surprised.

Goodwill Industries Expresses Thanks

The 20 handicapped people who have received vocational rehabilitation and employment through Goodwill Industries in 1967 are joining in thanks to the Lubbock community this week for giving in order to make the Goodwill program possible.

Thier appreciation was expressed today through a statement by Billy Dillard, Executive Director of Goodwill Industries.

"We first are grateful to the approximately 3,000 homes in the Lubbock area from which we received contributions of clothing and household articles," Dillard said. "We have already received about 6,000 bags of clothing and 3,500 different pieces of furniture. The repair of these articles for re-

Those fighting Dunbar Panthers, under the helm of Coach James Hillyer, by mutual consent, will play a strong eleven of Brownwood today, Thursday, at 2 p.m. in a AAA bi-district contest meet in Sweetwater.

Athletic directors and coaches of the two schools met in Sweetwater last Saturday morning to make the final decision.

Dunbar will bring an impressive 8-2 ledger into the game, losing to Booker T. Washington of Wichita Falls and Kirkpatrick of Fort Worth, and having won seven straight and sweeping through 3-AAA competition without a blemish on its record.

However at the beginning of the season, the Panthers were not picked to be in contention.

Teams which have felt the claws of the mighty Panthers include Sweetwater, Littlefield, Lamesa, Brownfield, Levelland, Lakeview and Snyder.

Brownwood, the number 3 AAA team in the Lone Star State, will be out to improve on its 9-0-1 record. The tie coming from the Leopards of Wichita Falls. The Lions of Brownwood, however, had to beat Vernon 51-0 last Friday to clinch a playoff position.

The contest should prove to be quite exciting, especially with both teams having already proved themselves to be a threat on the ground or in the air.

To all of our many friends who have supported our effort last Sunday, we, the Pastor and members of the Carter Chapel C.M.E. Church want you to know how grateful we are for your support, your kindness and your consideration will be cherished each time we read our program.

The first annual Mammoth Tea, sponsored by the Carter Cahpel Christian Methodist Church, 2411 Elm Avenue, held at the Plains Co-Op Mill's Board Room last Sunday afternoon was a wonderful success.

Committee chairmen and members for the first afternoon tea included Mrs. Dorothy Phea, chairman; Mrs. W. M. Washington, co-chairman; Mrs. Emmalene Catman patrons and commerial advertisement; Mrs. Rose Lincoln, program chairman; Theodore Phea Sr. and S. T. Reed, tickets, Theodore Phea, Jr. and Clarence Jackson, financial committee; Rev. Raymond Campbell, pictures; Joe Phea, publicity; Mrs. Ruth Newsome, courtsey; Mrs. Dorothy McKeever, gifts; and Rev. SEEKS NEW CAREER

Something new is in store for Jimmy Gary, 2319 Ash Avenue. He has volunteered for the United States Army.

Gary, a 1967 graduate of Dunbar High School and an active member of the Panther Basketball team where he made a healthy contribution, admitted he was willing to serve his country and in doing so hoped to serve it well.

IT'S A SHAME!

WON'T WE EVER LEARN that we shouldn't destroy property that does not belong to us? What property are we speaking of? The city lamps which are located, for the communities' convenience, in Mae Simmons Park. It would seem that these lamps are destroyed each month.

There should be some kind of law to curtail the destruction of public property. We wonder if it is possible for the city government to do something about this type of destruction? Perhaps if the city would pay more attention to the area, this type of action would not continue to occur.

Something has to be done, even if it causes some to be brought to trial and fined for taking part in these activities. We feel sure that someone knows who is responsible for this action. To be honest, if you know who is responsible for this drastic destruction, well, you are just as guilty as the destroyer if you don't report it.

Let's wake up people, and do something about our responsibility as citizens of this community. If your son or daughter is responsible for the destruction of these lamps, why not try to correct them before it is too late? After all, YOU are the taxpayers of the area, and these lamps belong to you.

Destruction of your property or taxpayer's property affects you as well as the entire community.

LEADERSHIP NEEDED

What we need here in our fair city is leadership among the Negroes; for we find no strong and dramatic movement for genuine Negro organization here, no leadership and thinking.

It can be done; for fundamentally; there is a deep racial consciousness among the Negroes, they have, in spite of the divisive influence of the so-called Negro leaders, the same instinctive urge to group together as other racial and national groups. Not to do violence or to be destructive; but they desire progress through the medium of education, reliability, know-how and productivity, all so essential in competitive society, and this is a competitive society in which we live. Yes, they know that to hold a comparable job they must be just as good and in most instances better, than the competition. The average Negro realizes that his happiness and well-being are not served to him on a silver platter, but comes as a result of hard and difficult struggle. He therefore seeks; practical solutions to all his problems, a way to get along with others with the least possible friction. Sagely, he realizes that a man cannot live constantly in the miasmic fog of race hostility without stifling to death, nor can he live fighting all other Americans all the time. Let us not use the cry "discrimination" as an excuse for our own shortcomings, but let us work together for a common cause.

All other racial groups have their respective organizations. No Negro belongs to any of these organizations, nor is his membership sought or welcome. And yet not a one of these groups considers itself "segregated" because no Negro belongs, is invited, nor his opinion sought. Yet the so-called Negro leader contends that to get together as Negroes, without white participation, is "segregation". Ask the question, who can know the common problems of Negroes more than Negroes themselves? They are the ones with the problems. When we shift our problems and responsibilities on someone else we are shirkers, and this attitude speaks for itself. It is nothing more than a hangover from slavery when the Negro had to depend on the master for everything necessary for his well being, (no wonder we are called boys by some, and as long as we act like children we can expect to be treated like children). Furthermore it proves that no "Proclamation of Emancipation" is capable of freeing those who do not wish to be free. And the Negro so-called leaders, by far and large are physically free but mentally enslaved. They are afraid to speak up for themselves or the community, and when one does come along who is man enough to speak out, then the rest will do just like a crayfish (back up). Have you ever seen a bucket of crabs? They walk or climb all over each other until one of them has reached the top of the bucket, and just as he is about to reach the top one of the other crabs will reach up and catch hold of him and pull him back down. Let us not be like that. Let us work together as a team.

Notes From Norm's Notebook

It would seem to me that no one is very high offices in this city knows the meaning of honorable defeat. By this I mean that from the mayor's office on down to and including our esteemed local daily newspaper everyone has taken the opportunity to berate the local citizens for their part in voteing week before last in the city election. The mayor's attitude must have been that the voters of Lubbock were either so much against progress or so "dim-witted" that they did not realize what they were doing when they vetoed more Urban Renewal for the city. If this is the case, perhaps you, the voters of Lubbock, would like to ask the mayor how these same "non-progressive, dim-witted" citizens could have possibly put him in office.

At any rate, lets go back a short while ago, to when the local citizens committee was working so hard to elect our present mayor. As all of you will recall, it required each voter in that election to write in the name of our present mayor. You may also recall that, though he did not campaign himself, the committee led the public to believe that the main reason we needed this man was because he was well traveled, known over the country and could, on the basis of these merits, help bring more industry and commerce to our "Hub City." Now this may all have been true, but since his honor's election, we find very little if any more industry or commerce for our city. We did find however, that soon after his election, we were faced with a new bond issue for a hospital district along with a proposal for LMCOG, which we approved, (the "non-progressive dim-wits" stayed home that time), also a new city sales tax proposal, which we approved, along with bond issues for improvement of city sewers, city water facilities, garbage disposal, etc. It is possible on the basis of these improvements that the voters in Lubbock were ready to provide for, that they felt they were necessary. It would also seem that in defeating the Urban Renewal proposal that they were handing 'his honor' an invitation to get started on the basic problem of attracting more industry and commerce instead of complaining because he didn't receive the whole ball of wax.

The "Times" was accidently injected into the Urban Renewal issue during the days before the election, with the appearance of Mr. Means on TV, speaking out against the issue. This was done primarily on Mr. Means part as a private citizen and was not in any way meant to reflect the feelings of the newspaper. The mention of the newspaer on TV came about through a misunderstanding on Mr. Means part. As our readers will recall, we made no editorial mention whatsoever of how our readers should vote on any proposal in the election. We did recommend that our readers consider all of the issues and then vote as they saw fit. Evidently everyone in the city did just that, which is the point. The people of this city have voted and voiced their ideas on how they feel towards running Lubbock. In my opinion it is time now for our elected officials to get to work and help our city grow along these lines.

Did you hear the story going around about the young Negro fellow who entered a crowded bus not long ago and was required to stand up? The bus had proceeded down its route for several blocks when a white gentleman setting in the seat next to the fellow raised his head and directed a question toward him.

"Say young man," said the white man, "How do you feel about the civil rights

AMONG THE STARS

By Lee Ivory

Singer Johnny Nash is my friend. Perhaps this is why Among The Stars is such a difficult thing to write this week. I love him as a buddy and I love him as an entertainer.

But I just can't seem to understand his reasoning these past couple of years.

Things that I don't understand, though, would make a completely brand new world. Maybe it isn't meant for me to understand.

Picture this, if you will: The stage is gaily lit and the announcer has just finished introducing "one of the finest young singers in America today, ladies and gentlemen, Johnny Nash."

The lights dim and a handsome young singer—dressed to the teeth—effortlessly glides onstage and, just as effortlessly, goes into his first song.

You wonder, as I did back in 1963, where has this guy been? You have never seen anything quite like him. He has the presence of stage that comes only years after performing; he has a charm that makes you listen raptly to what he is singing. He is a professional in every sense of the word.

Midway through his act, the band leaves the stage and this guy who reminds you of a talented teenager picks up a handy guitar. He sings such things as "Scarlet Ribbons" or, an original composition, "Cream Puff," and you find yourself really knowing how it feels to be entertained.

And you begin to understand what Arthur Godfrey saw in this kid from a gold course in Houston, Texas. You begin to understand why he was chosen for starring roles in motion pictures like "Key Witness" and "Take A Gaint Step." Instinctively, you love this performer because he is truly fantastic and gifted and warm and human.

You run right out and buy all of his albums. You start talking to your friends about him and, if you're like me, you write reams and reams of copy about him "Johnny Nash...Johnny Nash...Johnny Nash."

Then, one day, you hear the most beautiful album in the world, "Composer's Choice." And you know right awzy that here is the guy who should be singing love songs to teenagers and young people in love.

Then, you hear your singer--your fantastic singer-- in a different bag. He's a pro, so you can understand his trying to cover all fields. But, then, he stops singing the beatific for the "big beat;" he sings rock and roll, and nobody is listening to what he is trying to say. And you just don't understand. You sadly shake your head because you just don't understand.

See you among the stars...

movement?"

"I'm just a little too busy to take any interest, really," replied the young man.

"That right," came back the white man, "Well, tell me," he went on, "What's your opinion of Dr. Martin Luther King Rap Brown, and the Black Power movement?"

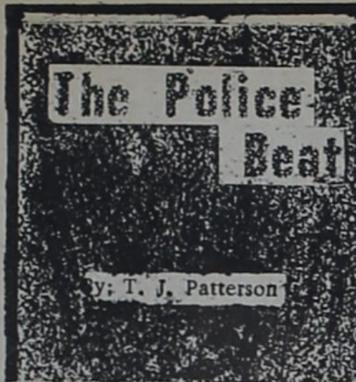

"I guess they have their place," replied the Negro, "But from my point of view, they are doing themselves as much harm as good."

"That right!" retorted the white man. "Do you by any chance belong to the NAACP or any other of those organizations?"

"No Sir," said the Negro.

"Well in that case," said the white man, "Would you mind getting off my damned foot?"

So the story goes.

THEFT
Mrs. Rose Essry, 1118 Avenue A, reported to the Lubbock Police Department that someone unknown broke into her apartment and completely helped themselves to the $400 or $500 she had hid in a file box in the closet.

One thing is for certain, Mrs. Essry has probably been watched for several weeks by some of her friends.

However, no matter how you look at it, it is not a wise thing to keep this type of money around.

She told police that she left the front door unlocked. How much could a thief ask for???

BURGLARY
J. W. Kirby, 901 East 25th St. told police that someone broke into his place of business, the 50th Street Grocery at 1324 East 50th Street, and did $39.00 worth of damage to the door and took only $2.50 in pennies. It was also learned that ten cartons of cigarettes were taken.

In checking with police, it was learned that entry was gained by kicking out a panel from the front door and exit was the same.

GIRLS FIGHTING
I would like to call your attention to the fact that some of our youngsters are fighting in our neighborhood. Last week, two high school girls, between the ages of 16 and 17, had a rather serious battle. And as a result of the scrap, one of the young ladies was cut.

The reason for me telling you about this incident is because this could have been anyone's daughter. They say the incident started from one of the girls telling the other that "I hear you want to fight me."

Parents, let's take time and help our young people—male or female—and with a "help them" attitude we may not have any more of these types of incidents. One of these young children could have been killed. Why not give it a thought?

MAN BREAKING IN
Mrs. Willie Lee Cook, 1602 Avenue C, reported to the police that a man was breaking into her apartment. When police arrived on the scene they observed a man kicking and hitting on the front door of the lady's.

After the man was arrested, the lady came out and told police that this man had taken money from her and she had decided to file charges.

DISTURBANCE
Arthur Blanton, owner of Brothers Barber Shop, reported to the police that a man was disturbing a customer at his place of business. This complaint also came from the other employees of the business.

When police arrived, the man was found sitting in front of the business in a very drunken state.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY
H. K. Thomas, 1802 East 1st Street, reported that someone attempted to break into his house, through the rear door, while he was away.

According to Thomas, the door was locked from the inside and no entry was gained.

Young Actress Gains New Role

New York--(LDA)--Slender and beautiful Kay Blakely, the actress who was fired from the Chicago Harper Theatre presentation of Norman Mailer's "The Deer Park", will impart her knowledge of fashions and tips on beauty to readers of the nation's Negro publications beginning next week, it was announced by Harry Dale, president of Lee Dale Associates.

Miss Blakely, who has had extensive background in make-up application, hair care, and fashion consciousness, will direct her weekly column to the Negro youth and young adult market. "This is the area that has really been neglected," she said, from the offices of Lee Dale Associates, located in Rockefeller Plaza, here.

Although many offers are still being discussed and sifted by Miss Blakely's attorneys here and in Chicago, no stage productions have been accepted for the young actress. She has indicated that because of severe emotional strains that have been placed upon her, she may not return to the acting profession. Her attorneys are preparing court litigation in her behalf against the original protestors of her stage role and her former landlords who, reportedly, used force to evict her from her apartment after she was fired from the play.

Miss Blakely was to have portrayed the role of Bobby, a call girl, in the Second City Repertory company production, but was removed when several Negro women residents of the Hyde Park area protested that her on-stage actions were detrimental to American Negro womanhood. Director Sheldon Patinkin, submitting to threats of extensive picketing of the production, removed Miss Blakely from the cast. Joyce Cure-

HUB CITY...

College in Dallas, Texas, are spending the Thanksgiving holidays with their parents this week.

The residents of the Posey neighborhood area are doing a good job on their community project. They have come together and decided to clean up their community.

This type of community effort is needed not only in this area, but in many other parts of our city.

Our hats are off to these residents for a job well done.

Mr. and Mrs. C.H. Mitchell, along with their mother, Mrs. Theresa Richie, all of Wichita Falls, Texas, were guests in the Hub City last weekend.

The Mitchells and Mrs. Richie are related to Mrs. April Rose Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Caesar Graves, II.

We're beginning to wonder if maybe the time has come for some responsible citizen in the Mae Simmons Park area to report to the police the name or license plate number of the car or cars involved in shooting out the street lights in that area.

Perhaps if the police could make an arrest and someone was convicted of destruction of public property this type of ignorant nonsense would stop.

"I Bet $500.00 That Teachers Of Our Children In America Cannot Read"

By Wilbur Johnson
Chicago Gazette

Chicago-(LDA)-The reason that teachers cannot read is due to the fact that our educational system is exactly 88 years behind the times!

The reader must wonder how it is possible to determine the exact period of obsolescence. The answer is simple. It's because the information was available at that time to have prevented the present crisis in education and many other social problems that are threatening our very existence.

The educators of that period did the very same thing that our modern educators are doing...ignoring this information because the discoverer did not belong to the great academic fraternity of intellectual idiots who felt that formal training was the only method by which an individual might acquire knowledge. Anyone refusing to bow to such intellectual authoritarianism was ostracized. Academic freedom was strangled and teachers became mere puppets...concealing truth and perpetuating social science falsehoods!

The major crisis facing the world today is, from whence will the money come? Henry George, in the economic classic "Progress and Poverty," provided the answer. Due to either selfishness, stupidity, fear, or blind ignorance, the works of Henry George may now be considered the world's best kept secret by those responsible for educating the nation.

Using the tools of the teacher's trade, this writer has provided scientific proof that Henry George was absolutely correct. The shoddy and inferior work performed by the professional is as equally despicable as that of the producer of material wealth. To understand "Progress and Poverty" correctly, will enable the reader to measure the quality of performance of our educators.

Our system of education must indeed be in a deplorable state when an informally educated high school dropout can teach himself to use the tools of the teacher's trade with better meaningful facility than the teachers and educators' can!

"Progress and Poverty" was written in 1879, just 88 years ago! Eighty-eight times the number of college graduates our educational system has turned out equals the number of mis-educated individuals who have been turned loose into the world to propagate economic myths, falsehoods, antiquated customs and prejudices in the social science field. Just as it is not the function of a hospital to promote the spread of disease, it is likewise not the function of an educational system to promote the spread of falsehoods and wholesale ignorance!

It is a welcome sign to see the new militancy of our teachers, but it is also a dangerous trend to be LOUD and WRONG! The object of my $500 wager (and it is still on deposit at the Seaway National Bank of Chicago) is to give the teachers a chance to re-evaluate their position and then emerge as the real progressive educational force that can make the world a "land overflowing with milk and honey."

The second book which is part of our reading test for teachers of our children in America is "Minimal Religion". This book strips religion of its dogmas, rituals, ceremonies and prejudices to emerge and unite with the universal laws of human behavior and lay the basis of an exact science. The only difference between the exact or physical sciences is the fact that the laws governing these physical sciences cannot be violated; whereas the laws governing the social sciences can be violated...but the punishment cannot be escaped!

The plight of the world today should be sufficient evidence that we are being punished by the violations of the behavior laws our foreparents birthright for a mess of status potage? Are we going to leave the world to them in a worse condition than our parents left it to us? Educating your child is not the sole responsibility of the teacher. Your child spends more time at home and in the street than he does in school.

ALL IN SMILES are the boys and girls who enjoy the beautiful J.A. Chatman Park located at Ivory and East 28th Avenues. This is one of the latest parks developed by the Park and Recreation Department of the City of Lubbock. The park is equipped with latest facilities. (Staff Photo)

Postmaster Ernest Ohnemus today urged the citizens of Lubbock to use the correct address on their letters and packages going to servicemen overseas to avoid serious delays in delivery.

Postmaster Ohnemus reported that millions of letters and packages going overseas have been delayed because they were insufficiently addressed. He said that one of the biggest problems has been the failure of persons to include the very important 5 digit APO or FPO number in the military address. Mail not containing this number is incorrectly addressed.

He said that last year more than 9 million pieces of mail were delayed in delivery. Of this number, 3 1/2 million pieces failed to include the complete 5 digit APO or FPO number in the address. This improperly addressed mail had to be sent to a military locator directory where time-consuming searches were made to determine the proper addresses.

"As Christmas mail volume going overseas is expected to increase up to 30 per cent or over 4 million pounds above last year, every precaution should be taken by friends and relatives of servicemen to address their letters and packages properly to assure rapid delivery to its destination," Postmaster Ohnemus said.

Again the clock of time has brought us face to face with another opportunity to gather our harvest of thoughts and deeds—count our blessings to see what God has done—and take time to give God thanks.

Our Pilgrim Fathers who gave rise for this special day of "Thanks", did not possess the material goods in enormous quantities nor the fabulous arrays that so many of us enjoy today. But, the quality of their "Thanks" and appreciations were genuine and their attitude was a heritage we will enjoy as the years unfold.

So as long as we have the opportunity to use this special event, let's do it with all the sincerity that we have. Can you count your blessings this year? If so, how do they pile up? Then this Thanksgiving Day, while you have fun with the family and enjoy the many, many blessings of life, along with looking forward to the future with hope, pause a moment and say to God, "Thank You", for this special day, and for all the comforts and chances we have and also keep us humble and grateful.

Services were well attended last Sunday morning with the Rev. P. E. Womack of Odessa, Texas, and son worshipped with us.

Today, Thursday, the doors of Bethel will be open all day for anyone who wishes to go by for special prayer.

Bethel's choir was represented at the Mammoth, Texas, sponsored by the Carter Chapel's Methodist, at the Co-op Oil Mill Dining Room.

The program included members from various churches of the city and it was a grand affair.

During the morning worship, Mr. Sylvester Ragland became a member of Bethel. He is an insurance representative.

ready come in at press time and still more to be reported.

Rev. Campbell delivered a challenging message Sunday on "Getting the Habit of Thanksgiving." Carter Chapel now looks forward to the future with great anticipation.

We still need a gospel pianist. Anyone who might be interested please call PO 2-9843 or SH 7-4640.

Two persons were hospitalized last Friday as a result of traffic accidents in Lubbock County.

Pete Wilson, 57, of 1830 East 24th Street, was listed in serious condition in the intensive care unit at Methodist Hospital.

Wilson was injured in a one-car turnover 2.3 miles south of Slaton on Highway 84 at 5:20 p.m. Driver of the car, Damon Hill, 53, of 1831 Manhattan Drive, escaped uninjured.

Investigating highway patrolman Jim Bulin of Slaton said the car left the road, turned over once and landed right side up.

1. The serviceman's identity-grade, full name, and service number.

4. APO or FPO -5 digit number.

Lutheran Church

Some church bodies do not allow members to touch certain beverages or to attend motion pictures or dramas. The Lutheran Church does not attempt to regulate the lives of its members. It seeks to have Christ "dwell in their hearts by faith." (Eph. 3:17), and to let Him rule.

But the Lutheran Church is not a liberal church in the sense that its members may believe anything they want to. It follows its Lord and Master, Who said: "Enter by the narrow gate, for the gate is wide and the way is easy that leads to destruction, and those who enter it are many. For the gate is narrow and the way is hard that leads to life, and those who find it are few" (Matt. 7:13, 14). But in all things the Bible does not command or forbid, it allows Christian liberty, believing that "where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty" (II Cor. 3:17).

The Lutheran Church is broad in the scope of its work, too, endeavoring to reach all men with the Word of God. Its TV program, "This Is the Life," reaches behind the bars of jails, behind doors otherwise closed to the Word of God, with a message of redemption and hope. Its radio program, "The Lutheran Hour," goes around the world every week in 54 languages to people of 63 different nations. Its missionaries are at work in many foreign countries. Its social workers labor among the poor, the sick, and the needy to give them courage and help.

The Lutheran Church promises to proclaim these great truths of the Bible at every service it conducts:

God... is "Lord of heaven and earth, who has made of one blood all nations of men to dwell on all the face of the earth".

Man... was created an intelligent moral being, with body and soul: created holy and innocent; of his own free choice he fell into sin, thus separating himself from God.

Sin... is every transgression of the Divine Law, and man is subject to death and eternal damnation by reason of the guilt of his sin.

REDEMPTION... is God's gift to kind, bought with the life and death of Jesus Christ, Who paid the penalty for the guilt of the entire world; and by His resurrection from the dead, was declared the Redeemer of all men.

FAITH... all who, penitently and in faith, accept Jesus Christ as the one and only Savior, have been forgiven and declared righteous in the sight of God, and made heirs of salvation.

Information classes are conducted regularly to give a fuller knowledge of our Church. On Sundays, our schedule is:

Sunday School... 9:30
Worship Service... 10:30

Will you join us with your family to worship the God Who demonstrated His love to us by sending His Son to be our Redeemer? We are eager to have you with us at 220 Quirt Avenue.

Your Health

Drugs, like a lot of other things in modern life, have their special mythology. Much of this mystic lore attaches to the "mind-expanding" drugs currently favored by members of the "now" set.

(About this "now" business, incidentally: according to the experts, it's all that really counts. A toothache that's "now" is gerat because see, man, it's what's happening!) But getting back to drug mythology, let's take LSD for example. Or rather, let's not take it... unless we want to risk going off our chump for 24 hours to six months or maybe a year. It's what's happening, man!

LSD is supposed to make people more "creative." But according to psychiatrists who've made careful tests, it does nothing of the sort. The usual reaction of writers, artists and composers to whatever they "created" during a "trip" has been, "Holy cow, was that me?"

The drug is also said to "expand one's consciousness," but that hasn't worked out too well, either. Except maybe with a con-

V.I.C.A. News

The VICA (Chapter 403) Juniors presented skits to the student body during the Homecoming assembly on Friday, November 10th. Katherine Curry planned and with the help of other VICA junior members, presented a skit showing the Lakeview Chiefs in a hospital emergency room after being "lobbered" by our mighty Dunbar Panthers; while Shirley Hailey planned and with the junior's aid, presented a skit of the "sissy" Lakview Chiefs warming up for the massacre they were sure to receive at the hands of the Panthers. "Both skits were very entertaining and shall be recorded as successes in our chapter history."

This year, Chapter 403 is happy to have a whole class of enthusiastic junior girls helping them to keep VICA the most outstanding club at Dunbar High. They have chaired and assisted on all of the chapter committees and projects.

consciousness so empty that even technicolor nightmares seem an improvement.

One solid fact has recently been discovered about LSD. It causes damage to the chromosomes--the tiny particles in our body cells that control heredity. Mice fed LSD bring forth brain-damaged offspring.

Well, mice can't heed written warnings, but you can.
